BURNED TO DEATH.

Fatal Collision Between Railway Trains Near Cincinnati.

The Wreck Takes Five and Five Passengers Are Slowly Rusted to Death—Several Others Receive Serious Injuries.

HONOR OF A RAILROAD.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.—A disastrous railroad wreck occurred at a few minutes past 7 o'clock Thursday night within the limits of the city. The local accommodation on the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad left Winston place at 7 o'clock for this city. It was behind time about forty minutes.

After leaving Winston place the railroad cuts through Spring Grove Cemetery. The track here is on a sharp curve, and the end of the accommodation train had not yet disappeared around the curve when the express was heard approaching, and in a minute more it rushed past at a high rate of speed. A mile further on, and directly over the tunnel that burrows beneath the tracks connecting the two parts of the cemetery, it crashed into the rear end of the local train. With such tremendous power did the engine strike the rear car that it plowed right under it for half a car's length, elevating the rear portion of the car right into the engine. Engineer Coadly reversed his lever and jumped, but the speed of the train was so great that it ran fully a quarter of a mile before stopping. The stove and lamps in the local train were smashed by the force of the collision and set fire to the coaches. In less than five minutes they were wrapped in flames. There were about fifty passengers on board, and nearly all got out safely. Five persons, however, were caught and pinned against the breaking timber and were slowly roasted to death. The passengers on the express and residents of the vicinity, together with the Cincinnati fire and police departments, who were quickly on the scene, could do nothing for them. In a quarter of an hour it was all over. The killed are, a thirty-second degree Mason and superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of this city; Louis E. Keller, of Winston place, a hard merchant of this city; Conductor F. W. Withers, of Toledo, who was in charge of the local train; James Staley, baggage-master, of Dayton; William Finestick, of Carthage, O., a plumber.

The latter two died after removal to the city hospital. The legs and arms of both were partly broken off. All were bound by the burning timbers, and met a slow and agonizing death by fire. Their bodies were all recovered but were hardly recognizable. Engineer Coadly and Fireman Barker, of the colliding engine, were both badly hurt by jumping.

SIX MEN HANGED.

A Wholesale Execution Takes Place at Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 17.—Six Choctaw Indians were hanged at noon Thursday in the United States jail-yard for murders committed in the Indian Territory. They bore the ordeal with much nerve, standing on the scaffold fully twenty minutes while preparation was being made. The work, however, went on with precision and dispatch, and when the fatal drop came there was but a slight groan from one of them, a gentle swing of six black bodies—not a twitch or a shrug. All were dead in from three to six minutes, and were lowered into the flames by five men before them, performed the work apparently with relief. The men were Harris Austin, Sam Galins, Jimmie Burris, John Billy, Thomas Willis and Jefferson Jones.

Afro-Americans at Chicago Demand Them for the Race.

Delegates Representing Nearly Every State and Territory Meet in Convention—Objects of the Organization.

THE AFRO-AMERICAN LEAGUE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—The session yesterday of the Afro-American convention at the Madison Street Theater found 300 delegates present. W. A. Pledger, of Georgia, was elected president, and J. T. Peabun, of Missouri, secretary. A long list of vice-presidents was also chosen.

President Pledger read an address in which he said that the admission by the whites of the South that there was a race problem showed that the laws and constitution of the United States were not enforced. The race problem would have to be settled, he said, by the granting of justice to the colored race, who were Americans and citizens under the law, but who in the present condition of political affairs in the South were neither slaves nor citizens.

The last session of the day was devoted to the reading of communications. CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—The delegates to the convention of colored men completed their work Friday. An Afro-American League of the United States was organized, and officers were elected. A non-partisan article was read in the constitution by an almost unanimous vote. A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Developments in the Ohio Ballot-Box Forgery Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The Ohio ballot-box forgery investigation, which has occupied the attention of a special committee of the House for several days, has been productive of some sensational developments. The subject of the investigation is a contract for shares of stock in a company organized to manufacture the patent ballot box, to which the signatures of Campbell, the new Governor of Ohio, Senator Sherman, Congressman Butterworth and other important men were forged, the object being to charge Campbell with being interested in the contract while he was a member of Congress, and advocating the adoption of the ballot-box. The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette during the late campaign printed the contract and signature, and later admitted that it was a forgery that had been placed off upon the paper. The testimony of Wood, the man who committed the forgery, places ex-Governor Foraker in an exceedingly uncomfortable position.

Kunze was indignantly rejected by him, but Friday night he agreed to the terms. Judge Longnecker said he did not know what would become of Kunze's case. 5/A HORSE BLANKETS ARE THE STRONGEST. Prof. Loissette's MEMORY DISCOVERY AND TRAINING METHOD.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES. Farmers! Don't forget the Institute, Feb. 3rd and 4th. La grippe! So, we've got it, and it's a general complaint. You made it read favorable weather, when it should have read unfavorable, at the time of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher's surprise.

There are quite a good many cases of La grippe reported in this vicinity, among them are Mrs. Boyce and her son Charles, who is very sick, but is on the gain. Dr. Danforth is the attending physician. J. Mennes and Phil Hartley started on the big wood job near Dutton, the 20th of Jan.

On account of the influenza, the neighborhood school was postponed. It will meet Feb. 1st with Mrs. J. Engles. School in Dist. No. 2 was closed two days last week, on account of the sickness of the teacher, Will Durry.

Mr. Arthur Hendricks and his sister Miss Della, visited friends in Gd. Rapids last week. Miss Ida Beattie will spend the balance of the winter at Kalamazoo. L. A. Carter sold 16 head of fine wool weathers for $32.00.

Rev. E. Mudge will preach at the Alton church, Jan. 25th evening, and Sunday morning the 26th. We bespeak for our old pastor a full house. Born-To Mr. and Mrs. Fran West-brook last Friday, a boy.

Mr. S. Borroughs went to New Orleans to see his sister, Mrs. Shepley, who is very sick with La Grippe. Recipe for La Grippe: Eat all the raw onions you can, three times a day, at any time.

Mr. W. W. Wright, of Belding, was here last week. Harry Livingston, Mrs. Henry Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Washburn, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Wisner are very sick with La Grippe.

Mr. Watson was at Grand Rapids last week. Mrs. Eva Robinson, who has been suffering from rheumatism for the last year, has been falling very fast for the last two weeks.

Mr. Betsy Beach, one of Ada's oldest sisters, died suddenly of pneumonia, at her residence two miles north of this place, at an early hour on Thursday morning. Mrs. Beach was born at Springfield, Vt., Sept. 24th, 1812.

Freeport. M. L. Sweet was in the village Friday. Fox & Son are shipping lumber to the Lowell City Co. Nearly every body that has a cold thinks they have the grippe. Perhaps when the grippe gets hold of you, you will think differently.

Mr. Albert Fox, of Norwalk, Ohio, came to Freeport Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ward, and numerous other relatives in this place. The Misses Libbie, Anna and Adah Veiter visited their sister, Miss S. S. Veiter in Lowell township last Saturday evening and Sunday, returning home Monday afternoon accompanied by Miss Eva, who has been visiting there several days past.

S. W. Finch, of Bowne, received the sad intelligence Tuesday evening that his brother, James Finch, of Cedar Springs, died very suddenly Tuesday morning of heart disease. His nephew, Fred Finch, of Grand Rapids, brought the sad news to him on Tuesday evening. They took the train for that place yesterday morning.

Several Freeport gentlemen went into J. H. Herrington's woods last Thursday and cut about fifteen cords of wood for Frank Wolf, who has been so seriously ill for several weeks past. The others took their teams and hauled it to his residence. On Saturday about a dozen boys assembled at his residence with their axes and prepared it for the stove.

Winter makes an effort to visit us, but fails to stay. Mr. W. Hartwell, of Cannon, was a visitor at Grattan (Grattan, Jan. 16). Mrs. Bert Lester is staying a few days last week, on account of the sickness of the teacher, Will Durry.

HOW MACARONI IS MADE. IT IS CONSIDERED AN EXCELLENT DISH, BUT A LITTLE QUEER. The Appearance is Slightly Against It, but It Is All Right—An Interesting Trip Through a Factory Where It is Manufactured—Fancy Things in the Soup.

Have you ever eaten macaroni, grated up with fresh Parmesan cheese and served with gravy, Italian style? If you have not you have missed a great treat. In years gone by it was a favorite dish in restaurants in this city, but it has given place to newer dishes, and now is not to be found on any bill of fare in Chicago.

There were the letters forming our own initials, and oh, wonder of wonders, the initials of that dear fellow destined to be our future husband! How in the world did U. K. happen to get into our soup? There must be magic in it! There were all sorts of various descriptions and a strip of ribbon seaweed. There was also a hairpin, which must have been dropped out of some fair one's head as she leaned over the side of a vessel.

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY. Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is too fold to the good you can possibly derive from them.
