The fortieth grand convocation of the Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons of Michigan met at Grand Rapids recently with about 400 delegates present, representing 300 chapters. There are about 10,000 members of the chapter in the State and the treasury contains $8,000 cash. The following officers were elected: M. I. G. M., Travers Phillips, of Hastings; D. I. G. M., Marcus D. Elllott, of Holly; G. P. C. of W., Charles
Bagg, of Detroit; Treasurer, H. Shaw
Noble, of Monroe; Recorder, Garra B.,

Heary E. Hatch, of Lapeer; G. C. of C.,
Frank N. Clark, of Northville; Steward, P. F. Degraff, of Charlotte; Sentinel, Alexander McGregor, of Detroit.

Health in Michican.

Health in Michigan creased, and that scarlet fever, puerper-al fever, diphtheria and cerebro-spinal meningitis decreased in area of prev-alence. Diphtheria was reported at twenty places, scarlet fever at nineteen, typhoid fever at nineteen and measles at twenty-eight places.

Look Out for Them. Agents are now traveling through the State selling what they call certificates of membership to the National Union Association, whereby farmers are en-abled to purchase wagons, carriages and farm machinery at manufacturers' rates. It is not necessary to say, says the Lan-sing Republican, that they are rank frauds, and that the quicker the gran-gers find it out the better off they will

The Offices Filled.

The Western Michigan offices were filled the other day by President Harrison. Lewis G. Palmer was made district attorney and James R. Clark marshal. Mr. Palmer is a lawyer living at Big Rapids. He is now serving his second term in the State Senate. Mr. Clark is an active Republican and a second term in the State Senara. According to an active Republican and a leader in the party. Both men were recommended by Senator Stockbridge.

The Best in the World. The Best in the World.

J. P. Andrews, of Marquette, is now in Europe in the interests of upper peninsula verde-antique marble. He cables the company that he has compared the Michigan mineral with the best in the old world, and that they had nothing to fear, as theirs is the best in the world, and the largest deposit. He claims they will soon lead the world.

Death of a Noted Lawyer. Judge S. T. Holmes died at midnight in Bay City recently of general collapse, aged 75 years. He was Congressman from the Twenty-second New York district in 1805, and afterward the partner of Roscoe Conkling. He removed to Bay City in 1873, and while there was one of the foremost lawyers and citizen:

They used to root out from under the pen and get into mischief: he would catch them and give them a good old horse-whipping and put them back in and stop up the hole where they got out. Any one would judge from the racket over there, that he has adopted the same style of punishment on his drove that he has now, in order to make them stay where they belong.

stay where they belong.

We saw in the last week's JOURNAL, where Hartley and Menzies started on the wood job, near Dutton, but Hartley got enough of it in a short time, he says if a man has any respect for himself, he would not work there. It would have been nice work if the timber was standing, but it is slashed in every way, shape and manner, some of the logs are driven in the ground, nearly out of sight, and some of them lying from four to six feet above the ground. How very conservative Mr. Swinburne is in his daily habits. He generally takes an afternoon walk from Putney over to Winabledon, where he "puts up" for a quarter of an hour at a house he is fond of visiting. He never carries a walking stick or an umbrella, though I have it on very good authority that he is not above lining his pockets at a confectioner's shop with sweets and biscults, and demaing these freely to youngsters whom he meets on the road.

and the common especially was a place to be avoided, but when the downpour was heaviest—about 4 o'clock—I saw Mr. Swinburne marching along toward his usual resting place, and he was protected against the ungentle rain from heaven by neither umbrella nor mackintosh. He was wet through. From his large brimmed felt hat rills of rain randown upon his garments, his face was shining as if anointed with oil, his long white cuffs were in a miserable state. The number of stories, by the way, which are told at Wimbledon about the poet, whom every child in the village knows and admires (the admiration being, no doubt, a kind of cupboard love) is quite endless.

Even the women and children are participating in the present good hunting up in western Maine. The other day, Mrs. George Brown, of Guilford, in Piscataquis county, while looking out of her kitchen window, saw a large and handsome fox come out in the field near by. Her husband being away, she took down his rifle and pointed it out of the window at the fox. The window being window at the fox. The window being low, she found she could not rest the gun on the sill and take good aim, so she gun on the sill and take good aim, so she raised it and held it at arm's length, fired and killed the fox instantly. She then went out and brought her trophy into the house. The Portland Press, from which this paragraph is taken, says that the distance, being measured, proved to be thirty rods.

The Carrowita's Ead Manners.

A very bad impression was made by the casrowits at the German autumn maneuvers. He is a delicate, stupid looking lad with excerable manners. As a proof of his glaring want of thet it may be mentioned that he persisted in addressing the German officers in French, although he speaks their own language very well. The Emperor William was palpably, disgusted by the manifold gusteheries of his boorish guest, and treasted him with the most frigid courtery. After the state banquet, when the experor and the exarowits passed slowly through the salons, the Russian prince did not in any way acknowledge the salutations he received, and his ostentatics indifference excited a variety of caustic criticisms.—London Punch.

BLOOD VS. NERVES

BLOOD VS. NERVES.

Great mistakes have been made in the world, by supposing many nervous troubles were due to bad blood. Thus headache, fits, dizziness, sieeplessness, etc., are always due to weakness or irritation of the nerves of the brain; dyspepsia, pain, wind, etc., to weakness of the nerves of the stomach; weak lungs is caused by weakness of the parts; billiousness, constipation, etc., to weak nerves of the liver or howels; pains, irregularity, sterlity to derangement of the uterine nerves. For all weakness, Dr. Mile's great nerve and brain food surpasses all other remedies. Trial bottle free at Yeiter & Look's Drug Store.

E.C. BLOOD REMED What is "F. E. G."

T IS a harmless, vegetable preparation, of demonstrated power in all forms of Kidney disease, and the many disorders which attend Kidney trouble. These are named Legion. If the Kidney derangement be cured, then these Secondary silments disappear because they are mere effects of fulse Kidney action, and not original Causes of suffering. Thousands of popule suffer for year. and not original causes of surrering.
Thousands of people suffer for years from these Secondary effects of Kidney disease, which is unsuspected because the Kidney itself may be far gone with disease and yet give the patient no pain. Beware! The sov-ereign corrector of all these ills is
