Sr. Louis, May 22.—A special from Morely, Mo., says: A most destructive wind, rain and hailstorm passed over this place Wednesday. Hailstones as large as eggs fell, completely demolishing crops of every description. The wind blew a perfect tornado. The rain fell in such quantities as to completely inundate fields, drowning small stock. During the storm, which lasted about an hour, the darkness was appalling. It is believed the damage in this vicinity will reach $300,000. Fortunately no lives were lost. All telegraph wires were torn down.

WASHINGTON, Mag 23.—Secretary Poster said that he anticipated no difficulty in meeting the pension payments, aggregating $20,000,000, which fall due June 4. The available cash balance is now nearly $16,000,000, and will go beyond $25,000,000 by the early part of June by the continued excess of receipts over expenditures. The secretary said there would be no necessity so far as be could see for calling in any government deposits held by national banks to meet pension obligations.

This bank fund now amounts to $24,

500,000, exclusive of money deposited to the credit of disbursing officers. The secretary said that the recent gold shipments had clearly establish one thing, and that was that the credit of the United States was above that of any other nation and could not be shaken by the severest drain.

[Judge Taft was born in Townsend, Vt., in 1810, and was the son of a farmer who served several terms in the state legislature. In 1826 young Taft began teaching district school when not needed on the farm. In 1829 he entered Yale college, from which he graduated in 1831. After graduation he taught a high school at Ellington, Conn., two years, and subsequently for two years filled the position of tutor in Yale college. In addition to bis duties as tuter Mr. Taft studied in the law school and was admitted to the bar in 1838. In 1850 Mr.
Taft removed to Checimatt where he practiced his profession successfully. He was twice elected to the beachonce without opposition—and was once appointed by the governor to fill a vacancy. After the resignation of Gen. Belking in March, 1876, Judge Taft was made secretary of war which office he held until the May following, when he became attorney general.
