FOES OF SATAN.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 11.—The "decen-ulal day" of the Christian Endeavor ocieties was opened at 6:30 a. m. by a nalf-bour prayer meeting led by Wil-liam Shaw, treasurer of the united so-cieties, Boston. The regular session was announced for 9 o'clock, but it was nearly half an hour later before it was called to order. There were fully 5,000 delegates present. The opening 15,000 delegates present. The opening hymn was "This Is My Story." Rev. Dr. S. M. Ware, of Omaha, read from II. Corinthians vi. Rev. Dr. McMillan, f Allegheny City, Pa., offered prayer ad another hymn was sung. President lark then announced the membership

For hundreds of miles nothing can be seen but one mass of flames, and the density of the smoke is so pronounced that the sun appears like a leaden bail. Railroad officials have large crowds of men stationed along the track, battling against the fire, but the flames are quickly gaining headway. It is feared the track will be destroyed. In many places between Newberry and Seny the small bridges crossing little creeks are now burning. At several of these places the train was compelled to stop in order to extinguish the fires. The telegraph poles have been burned or the committees on resolutions, non-inations and greetlings.

The free parliament on the theme:
"What the Society Has Done," gave the delegates their first opportunity of participating directly in the proceed-ings, and they made the most of it. All over the hall delegates, were on their

At the evening session resolutions opposing the opening of the Columbian exposition on Sunday and denouncing the "whisky rings" influence in politics were unanimously adopted. President Clark was reelected and a long list of honorary vice presidents representing every state, territory and province. Bishop M. N. Gilbert, of Minnesons, of the Protestant Episcopal church, delivered an address on the need, strength and growth of the Endeavor movement, which he thought an indication of a rapidly approaching millensium.

Postmaster General Wanamaker en-tered the room while Bardsley's state-ment was being read. In answer to questions he said that he never pledged the overissued stock after he was told it was an overissued and it was out of his hands at the time. He did not know H. H. Yard and never had met Mr. Lucas but once, and that was at an interview about the overissned stock. As to the story told by Bardsley to McWade that he had threatened to close the bank unless he was paid for the overissned stock, and that Lawmaker said it was absolutely false Bardsley's statement that Marsh ob-tained from him $200,000 for Wana-maker in March, 1890, he said was absolutely untrue and without the slight-est foundation, and invited the com-mittee to inspect his books.

ELLIS, Neb., July 11.—About 4 o'clock Friday afternoon Mrs. Dr. Allen, of Beatrice, came to Ellis on a visit to her brother, John H. Puterwho lived a mile and a half the door, but receiving no response entered the house, the door not being supposed he was asleep. She spoke to Allen called Perling in, who made an investigation and found a horrible state of affairs. On a bed in the room in which the husband and father lay was the mother with a bullet through her head. In bed with her was a 2-year-old babe, also shot through the head. Coroner Wells, of Beatrice, arrived on the scene shortly after 6 o'clock, and the inquest is in progress. It seems certain that the terrible crime was committed by Puterbaugh. By his side, under his arm, lay a 32-caliber, six-chambered revolver with all the chambers empty. The scene in the house was a horrible one and made the strongest hearted turn away. The faces of the dead, though covered with blood, were calm as though sleeping. No signs of fear were portrayed on any of them and no evidence of a struggle was seen anywhere. All seemed to have been killed while sleeping and all were shot directly through the skull. In every case the pistol was placed close to the head, as powder stain were visible upon the pillows or hed clothing.

Puterbaugh was not a drinking man and had the reputation of being an honest and peaceable citizen. He suffered from the grip last spring and since then has not been in the best of health, frequently complaining of a pain in his head. He was a man about 38 or 40 years of age, and his wife was a year or two younger. The murdered children were as follows: Carrie, 15 years; Mabel, 13 years; Charles, 10 years; Ralph, 2 years. One son, Allen, 17 years of age, survives. He was away from home at work, having left Wednesday.

Dash, Jack and Rab and the Poesiliar Characteristics of Each.

The white house dogs are no unimportant part of its life below stairs. Neither Mrs. Harrison nor, indeed, any member of her family like dogs around the house, and so the animals who have the proud astisfaction of dwelling in a white house kennel are content with it and the surroundings that the gardens afford for their every day life. The pet dog of the establishment, and looked upon by both the president and Mrs. Harrison as a valued friend, is the Sootch collic, Dash. Dash is a fighter, not because he likes it particularly, but just on general principles. He came with the family from Indianapolis and his high-tempered proceedings there have not deserted him. On the contrary he seems to feel that a great deal more depends on his ability to chew up any other animal who foolishly risks his fur within his reach. In Indianapolis, and here for a time, Dash took a great deal of pleasure in following the family carriage down town or anywhere else it happened to be going. Especially when the ladies emerged from their shopping, they would usually find Dash in the middle of a conflict with some other rash animal. The scene of the fight was under the carriage, which territory Dash felt bound to protect from all introders. These little inconsistencies of temper made him rather an unwise of Dash is to keep the white house grounds free from unsafe intruders.

all introders. These little inconsistencies of temper made him rather an unwise companion and now the special province of Dash is to keep the white house grounds free from unsafe intraders. When the weather permits little Benjamin McKee enjoys above everything else a romp in the grounds with friend Dash, who is very fond of children, despite his warlike disposition on the road. Some of the encounters in which Dash has come out a victor are told by Mrs. Harrison with great enjoyment.

Jack, the fox terrier, has a record, but an extremely useful one. He is a ratter and has caught and killed thirty-six rats in thirty minutes. His mission in life is to nose around in the most innocent sort of way and dispatch his victims before they know what struck them. He is regarded as a valuable auxiliary to the domestic working force, although at the same time an object of intense detestation to the white house gardeners. If he is watching the coming of the enemy the fact that he will completely plow up a flower bed does not disturb him in the least.

The latest accession to the keunel is a St. Bernard puppy, about two months old now, and growing in keeping with his imposing family pedigree. His name is Rab, and he belongs to Mrs. Russell Harrison, who intends to take him to her home in Nebraska shortly.

Dogs were such frequent presents to President Arthur that one day when another canine offering arrived by express he asked just how many dogs there were already in the stable.
