

MANY VICTIMS.

Awful Result of a Smashup on a Minnesota Railway.

An Engine Crashes Into a Caboose Crowded with Sleeping Workmen—Eight Are Killed; Five Hurt.

LIVES CRUSHED OUT.

ALEXANDRIA, Minn., Dec. 19.—A frightful accident occurred on the Great Northern railroad Sunday morning at Nelson station, 5 miles east of here, in which eight men were killed and five were seriously injured. There had been a collision Friday morning at Nelson and a number of cars were wrecked. The wreck train has been there two days clearing up and was making up preparatory for pulling out for the east. At 1 o'clock Sunday morning the wreck train caboose was left standing on the main track with a number of cars. An east-bound freight was due about 1 o'clock and had orders to side-track for the passenger train due here at 1:30.

How the Accident Occurred. The fireman of the freight tells the story as follows: There is a heavy grade west of the station, and as the freight, with thirty-six loaded cars, under charge of Conductor William Nickey and Engineer James Maloney, approached the switch the engine was shut off and brakes called for. There was no perceptible decrease of speed and Conductor Nickey climbed out of the caboose where he was and began setting brakes, but the speed was too great to stop. When within a train length of the caboose they saw the track was full ahead and both engineer and fireman jumped.

The engine struck the wreck train, threw the caboose on top of the next car, setting both on fire. There were fourteen men in the caboose. One jumped off, five were hurt, three were burned beyond recognition and four were crushed to death. One was totally burned up, not a sign of his remains being found.

Names of the Killed and Injured.

The names of the killed are: Nels O. Bokken, of Nelson; Christ Marzenson, of Oakley; Ole Martenson, of Spruce Hill; John Akerson, of Spruce Hill; Engstrand's nephew, name unknown; Con Brunner, of Yankton, S. D.; one unknown.

The injured are: St. Paul, back and head, serious; Thomas Welch, of Boston, Mass., bad scalp cuts, ribs broken; Pat Hannon, of Boston, Mass., shoulder dislocated; David Reed, of Nelson, slight injury to head; Henry Ross, fireman on east-bound freight, shoulder dislocated; one to carelessness.

This was the worst accident which has ever occurred on this division of the road, and was due to the heavy grade having a curve, and perhaps carelessness in leaving the caboose on the main track or slowness in applying the brakes.

It is reported that the train was running about 12 miles an hour when it collided with the wreck train. The men killed were wreck-train hands and were asleep in the caboose when the engine struck it. O. Berglund, foreman, was the only one awake, and he had barely time to call to his men and jump, thus saving himself, but the warning cry came too late for the others, who were all killed or badly injured.

Disaster in Kentucky.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 19.—A telegram from Danville, Ky., states that there was a wreck on the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific (Cincinnati Southern) railroad Saturday night, 4 miles from that place, and that several persons were killed. The railway mail service here has news that one of the railway clerks has been killed in the wreck and others seriously wounded. Charles Fagin, baggage master, and United States Express Messenger Kinney were killed. Several passengers were injured.

HIS NECK BROKEN.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Dec. 19.—William A. Shultz, aged 21 years, was returning to his home Sunday evening from a visit to his sweetheart, when his horse took fright at a bridge he was about to cross. Shultz was thrown from the buggy, a distance of 15 feet into the water, the fall breaking his neck. His fate was not known until morning, when the horse and buggy were found in the stream about 10 feet from where a hand of the dead man protruded through the ice.

MORE LIKE FIENDS THAN MEN.

Mexican Revolutionists Ruthlessly Murder Women and Children.

GALVESTON, Tex., Dec. 19.—A dispatch from Carizzo says: As all particulars of the fight opposite San Ignacio have not been reported these items will be interesting. During the fight Capt. Segur, of the Mexican troops, seeing he was being particularly hard pushed, to better protect himself, as it was a hand-to-hand fight, went into the jacked and fought from there with guns and pistols. There were in the jacked a woman and three children. The captain called to the revolutionists, asking that the woman and children might go out unharmed, but the reply was: "No." The woman thought she would steal out with the children, but as she appeared at the door she was shot down and the children ran back.

The revolutionists were unable to dislodge the captain from his quickly chosen fortress and they set fire to the jacked, which drove the captain out. As he made his appearance he was shot dead, his body thrown back into the burning building. The three children were penned in the house by fire and burned to death. The bodies of dead soldiers were thrown into the flames, and when the troops from Guerrero went to bury the dead they found some of the bodies burned to a crisp.

Another woman, the wife of a non-commissioned officer, undertook to escape by crossing the Rio Grande to Texas, but she was seen about the middle of the stream and shot. She sank beneath the waters and her body had not been found at last accounts. There are a number of wounded men at San Ignacio, all Mexican troops. Only two of the revolutionists were killed and one wounded, so far as can be learned.

Harrison's plurality in the state is 20,412.

Europe Will Protest.

VIENNA, Dec. 19.—The cabinets of Europe are arranging for a united protest against the threatened restrictions upon immigration in America. The organ of the Austrian foreign office recently urged that the application of the methods used in America against the Chinese coolies to the case of Europeans was unworthy of a civilized country like the United States, and that the insult involved in shutting the door in the face of European immigrants was the more gross because it was coupled with an invitation to visit the world's fair.

Horsewhipped Johann Most.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Emma Goldman, the friend of Bergman, the anarchist, who shot H. C. Frick, attacked Johann Most with a whip Sunday night just as he was about to begin his lecture to the German and Hebrew anarchist groups in Odd Fellows' hall. Friends of the lecturer rushed upon her, but she continued to strike Most and call him a scoundrel until she was removed by force. The quarrel is said to be of long standing, and has assumed increased bitterness since the shooting of Frick, which Most discountenanced.

Kansas Man Kills His Brother.

CHETOPA, Kan., Dec. 19.—Albert Shoemaker, during a quarrel with his brother, Allen, shot and killed him. The young men were miners. They had quarreled frequently of late and Allen had several times threatened to kill his brother. Albert determined to leave the place on that account and was removing his tools from the house with the purpose in view when his brother renewed the quarrel and threatened to stab him. Albert seized a shotgun and, firing, killed his brother instantly.

Corner Stone of St. John's Cathedral.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The laying of the corner stone of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine St. John's day, Tuesday, Dec. 27, will make that day historical for the Protestant Episcopal church of America. There are seventy dioceses in the United States, and to the bishop of each one an invitation to be present at the laying of the corner stone has been sent. President Harrison will be invited.

Took His Own Worthless Life Last.

URBANA, O., Dec. 19.—John Freyhoff, a German gardener in well-to-do circumstances, made a brutal attempt to murder his wife and two children Sunday, and, believing he had killed his wife, fired into his own heart the full contents of a shotgun, which produced instant death. It is believed that Mrs. Freyhoff cannot survive her injuries, which are internal and of a serious nature.

Double Tragedy in North Carolina.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Dec. 19.—N. R. Jones was shot and instantly killed and his son, Jesse Jones, shot and perhaps fatally wounded near Leicester, about 12 miles west of this place, while resisting arrest. Jesse Jones had been summoned to work upon the public roads. He refused to do so, under the advice of his father, who told him that he would see that he was not arrested.

Fatal Boiler Explosion in Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 19.—At Fort White, Fla., the boiler in the gin house of Joseph H. Lee exploded, killing Frank Smith (colored) and seriously injuring the proprietor and half a dozen others. The building and contents were destroyed.

ELECTROCUTED.

Fred McGuire Dies at Sing Sing for Murdering Mrs. Gregory.

He Meets His Fate Stoically, After Confessing His Crime—Details of His Electrocution.

THE PENALTY PAID.

SING SING, N. Y., Dec. 19.—Fred McGuire was electrocuted at 11:18 a. m. He had confessed his guilt and showed no signs of breaking down. At 10:17 o'clock the witnesses were summoned to the warden's parlor, and at 11 o'clock they all entered the death chamber. The warden requested everyone present to keep quiet and remain in their seats. The head keeper, Connaughton, went into the cell where McGuire was confined. A half minute later the warden, Connaughton and McGuire, the latter between Chaplain Edgerton and Rev. Mr. Conklin, entered the death chamber. McGuire walked steadily between the two ministers, holding tight on to their arms. He appeared calm and even stolid.

In the Death Chair.

He stepped quickly to the chair, sitting down as calmly as he would have done in any ordinary chair. He rested his head back on the rubber cushion and placed his arms on the arms of the chair and closed his hands tightly. The electrodes were placed at his head and on the calf of his right leg. One of his trouser's legs was slit in order to apply the electrodes to his flesh. After he had been fastened in the chair, Dr. Abbott and Prison Surgeon Irvine examined the arrangements, and, stepping back, Dr. Abbott gave the signal for Electrician Davis.

The Fatal Current.

Only two shocks were administered. McGuire was killed by the first shock. Dr. Abbott said that McGuire was killed in twelve seconds. The second current was only turned on as a precautionary measure. At 10 o'clock, 14 minutes and 30 seconds, McGuire was officially pronounced dead by Dr. Abbott. McGuire was then examined by the doctors and as far as could be seen no marks of scorching could be found, nor was there any discoloration of the flesh. When the first current was turned on McGuire's body swelled and tugged against the straps, and a deep gurgling sound was heard for a second, which was caused by the expulsion of air from the lungs.

Most Successful Electrocution.

McGuire's execution was declared the most successful one that was ever had in Sing Sing prison. Nor has any other execution been finished so rapidly as this one. The smell of burned flesh that has heretofore characterized these executions was not noticeable. McGuire's body was removed to the dissection room, where an autopsy will be performed. In obedience to a request from McGuire's mother she will be permitted to bury the body.

His Crime.

McGuire's crime was the murder of Mrs. Amelia Gregory, wife of Noah Gregory, a farmer and tax collector of Middletown, on October 14, 1891. The crime was committed for robbery. McGuire was a farmhand employed by Gregory and knew that his employer had collected $130 and had it in the house. Mrs. Gregory discovered him while he was trying to steal it and he killed her to hide his crime.

MONETARY TALK OVER.

Adjournment of the Conference, to Meet in May.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 19.—The monetary conference adjourned Saturday until May 30. The American delegates are quite pleased. Sir Montefiore Levi made a speech. Baron Derezzi, the Italian minister at Brussels, offered a resolution. Nearly every delegate spoke, but few delegates said anything of importance. The resolution offered expressed gratitude to the United States for giving an opportunity for the new study of actual conditions. While the metal conference suspended labors until May 30 under reservation of the approval of the various governments the conference reserves the ultimate judgment of the matter proposed and expressed a desire that the interval from now till the end of May be occupied by profound study and trusts such study may result in the recognition of an equitable basis for an understanding in no way affecting the monetary policy of the various countries.

Agent McCourt Was Short $30,000.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 19.—The investigation of the local office of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, completed Saturday, reveals a shortage of at least $30,000, and probably double that amount. The property of John C. McCourt, the agent, valued at $25,000, was attached. His bond is $10,000 in a New York guarantee company. The money went into the bucket shops, fare banks, and on the races.

CONVICTED OF MURDER.

August Grossman Found Guilty of Killing Moller Seventeen Years Ago.

ALPENA, Mich., Dec. 17.—August Grossman has been found guilty of murder in the first degree, in having caused the death of Albert Moller, the Presque Isle county lumber man, seventeen years ago. There are twelve others charged with the same crime, and their trials will follow shortly. Great excitement prevailed when it became known that the jury had returned such a verdict, as it was thought that Grossman would not be convicted. The verdict, without doubt, settled the fate of all the others implicated, several of whom are now wealthy and respected citizens.

The famous murder occurred at Rogers City, when the country thereabouts was a wilderness. Moller had gathered about himself a large colony of foreigners to help carry on his vast lumbering operations in Presque Isle county. His dealings with these people, which they declared to be tyrannical and unjust, aroused them, and one night a party gathered at Moller's office and shot him and his bookkeeper, Sullivan, dead. Several attempts had been made to bring trial the members of this party, but no success was had until recently, when one of them, Replitz, confessed and implicated his comrades.

KILLED FOUR WOMEN.

Richard Edwards, a Texas Fiend, Under Arrest in Wisconsin.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Dec. 17.—Behind the bars of Douglas county jail in this city is a man charged with the most cold-blooded series of crimes ever committed in Texas. His name is Richard Edwards, alias "Texas Jack." He is charged with the murder of four women at Denison on the night of May 17 last. One after another the women were stealthily approached and shot, without provocation. Rewards aggregating $5,000 were offered for the arrest of the assassin, and for seven months the authorities of Denison and half the cities in the southwest have searched for the criminal.

He Beats All Records.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—J. S. Piza, of Piza & Nephews, New York, has beaten time and the White Star liner Teutonic in a remarkable race. Missing the Dublin mail train for Queenstown, he hired a special and traveled the 180 miles in 200 minutes, thus eclipsing the fastest long distance time in England. The Teutonic was starting when he reached Queenstown. He chased it in a special steamer, telegraphed far ahead, caught the liner and got aboard with bag and baggage while all the passengers cheered.

Post-Office Robbers Plead Guilty.

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 16.—Coleman and Ryan, the Chicago safe blowers, who robbed the Dickeyville, Wis.; Lancaster, Wis.; New Albion, Ill.; Warren, Ill., and other postoffices last summer, pleaded guilty to the Dickeyville robbery. Coleman was the chief actor of the East St. Louis sub-terranean job some years ago, and was suspected of the mail wagon robbery in Chicago last winter.

Hanged by a Mob.

BRISTOL, Tenn., Dec. 19.—While Irvin Roberts, the alleged murderer of Laudon Crosswhite, was being conducted by officers through Shady valley en route to the Johnson county jail his captors were overpowered by a mob and the prisoner hanged to a limb of a tree. Roberts begged piteously for his life and declared he was innocent of the crime, but the mob would not listen to him.
