TRADE REVIEW.

Situation in Business Circles as Viewed by Dan and Bradstreet.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

"The two obstacles which block the path just now are exceeding cheapness of farm products and restricted operations in the industries. There has been no gain in prices of farm products on the whole; corn is nominally half a cent higher, but with an insignificant movement, while wheat also, with a movement hardly half of last year's, is a quarter of a cent lower for the week. Cotton, with continuing large receipts, remains unchanged. Few words tell the old story: The corn crop is undeniably short, though probably a much larger supply than official reports indicate. Wheat and cotton supplies are so far beyond the world's demands that extreme low prices are natural, and speculation for advance is greatly handicapped. Restricted purchases by the west and south naturally result.

"The money market shows a tendency to strengthen and somewhat larger offerings of commercial paper appear, though not in proportion to the reported activity of mills. Doubtless many are working only short time, but any improvement is encouraging. A somewhat closer market is expected as a result of the bond transaction. The volume of domestic business represented by clearings was 3 per cent. larger than last year, but 84.6 per cent. smaller than in 1894.

"The failures for the first week of February show liabilities of only $2,909,890, of which $723,548 were of manufacturing, and $1,934,894 of trading concerns. The final report for January shows an aggregate of $15,077,322, against $20,848,018 last year; $4,672,228 were of manufacturing concerns this year against $11,987,718 last year, while $11,839,105 were of trading concerns against $17,524,587 last year. Failures for the week were 170 in the United States against 223 last year, and 51 in Canada against 15 last year.

Bradstreet's says: "Milder and pleasant weather, following the severe storms and extremely low temperature have, with few exceptions, failed to stimulate orders for reasonable goods or the distribution movement generally. Exceptional inclusions in a revival of demand in a few lines at Boston and New York, and in drugs, leather and paper at Philadelphia and in general merchandise at Savannah and Jacksonville. At the west there are improved sales by Chicago jobbers in dry goods, clothing, furnishings, shoes and rubbers, and Kansas City announces a larger volume of spring business. Demand for staples has increased at Milwaukee, as at St. Paul, pointing to small stocks held by country dealers. Elsewhere general trade remains at a low ebb and steel industries find the week not up to expectations."

SLAIN IN A MINE.

Terrible Effect of an Explosion of Gas in a Pennsylvania Colliery.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 19.—By an explosion of mine gas at 10 o'clock Monday morning the West Bear Ridge colliery of the Reading Coal & Iron company, at Mahanoy Plane, six miners were killed and five were burned, four of them probably fatally. The dead are: Peter Greenback, of St. Clair; Joseph Glibe, of Crescent Hill; Thomas Durkin, of Girardville; Benjamin Reaber, of Mahanoy Plane; Peter Kline and Anthony Myers, of Ashland. The first five men were probably instantly killed, and it was some time before their bodies were recovered from the workings, but Myers was taken out alive and died on the way to the hospital. The injured are Edward Davis, of Girardville; William Minch and William Goff, of Ashland; John Lamey and William Davis, of Mahanoy Plane. It is feared that the first four of these injured men are fatally burned, but Davis was only slightly hurt.

NEWS FROM HAWAII.

Ex-Queen Liliuokalani on Trial for Treason.

She Files a Written Statement—Likely to Be Found Guilty—Death Sentences of Conspirators Not Yet Carried Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—The steamer Mariposa arrived from Sidney and Auckland via Apia and Honolulu Friday morning, bringing the following Hawaiian advices:

Ex-Queen Placed on Trial.

HONOLULU, Feb. 8.—Liliuokalani Dominis, ex-queen of Hawaii, was arraigned on the 5th instant on a charge of misprision of treason. The original charge was treason. She is represented by Paul Neumann. The first day was frittered away by the argument of counsel, who objected to the court at every turn. His objections were overruled in every instance. After the charge was read the matter went over for a day. The case was called again day before yesterday and the deposed monarch refused to plead, so a plea of not guilty was entered. The work of examining witnesses was gone through with and enough evidence secured to prove to the impartial observer that she was aware of the rebellion was to be started. The most damaging evidence that will be brought against her will be her personal diary, which was found in her residence after her arrest. Whether this is introduced and made public at her trial depends very much upon the course pursued by her counsel in defending her case.

The Ex-Queen's Statement.

While the trial of the ex-queen was in progress yesterday she was placed on the stand in her own behalf. The district examination was confined to the alleged conversation between her and Charles Clark, who testified that he informed her of the proposed rebellion. She denied that any such conversation took place. After her examination was concluded a statement written by her was filed. It commences with the time she was deposed and goes on to say:

"The movement undertaken by the Hawaiians last month was commenced without my knowledge, sanction, consent or assistance, directly or indirectly, and this fact is in truth well known to those who took part in it. I received no information from anyone in regard to the arms which were to be produced, nor of any man who were induced to join in any such uprising. I do not know why this information should be withheld from me, unless it was with a view to my personal safety or as a precautionary measure. I would not have received my sanction and I can assure you, gentlemen of this commission, that had I known of any such intention I would have dissuaded the promoters from such venture. But I will add that, had I known, their secrets would have been mine and involuntarily preserved.

"That I intended to change my cabinet and to appoint certain officers of the kingdom, in the event of my restoration, I will admit, but that I or anyone known to me, had in part or in whole established a new government is not true. Before the 9th of January, 1895, the day upon which I formally abdicated and called upon my people to recognize the republic of Hawaii as the only lawful government of these islands and to support that government, I claim that I had the right to select a cabinet in anticipation of possibility, and the history of other governments supports this right. I was not intimidated into abdicating, but followed the counsel of able and generous friends and well wishers, who advised me that such an act would restore peace and good will among my people. I acted on my own free will, and wish the world to know I have asked no immunity or favor for myself nor pleaded my abdication as a plea for mercy.

"I must deny your right to try me in this manner and by a court which you have called together for this purpose."

Will Probably Find Her Guilty.

The military court will probably bring in a verdict of guilty in the case of the ex-queen, notwithstanding her denial. Sentence will be passed, but it is not believed she will be imprisoned, but will be allowed freedom on her own recognizance.

So far the government has not put into execution any of the death sentences.

To Protect Colored Girls.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The civil service commission is trying to protect the colored girls employed in the bureau of engraving and printing, and has laid before the president a formal complaint against Claude M. Johnson, of Kentucky, chief of that bureau, for discriminating against them on the ground of their color, which is a violation of law. The investigation shows that since the 1st of July, 1893, seventy colored women who obtained their positions under competitive examinations have been removed from the bureau.

COUNCIL OF WOMEN.

Opening of the Second Triennial Convention at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The formal opening of the second triennial session of the national council of women of the United States began at the Metropolitan hotel Monday, Mrs. May Wright Sewall, its president, calling the meeting to order. Mrs. Sewall, in the course of her address, said the clubs organized by women in all the leading cities had thus far been isolated, but it was hoped that a convention would be called within a year to form a national federation of women's clubs. A reception was held in the afternoon at the Ebbitt house. Religion was the topic that had been set for consideration at the evening session. It was divided into two parts, the first controlled by the National Free Baptist Woman Missionary society, and the second by the national council itself. Mary A. Davis, president of the Baptist society named, presided. Addresses were delivered by Mrs. Francis Stewart Mosher, of Michigan; Emeline Burlingame Cheney, of Maine; Mrs. Isabella Charles Davis and Mrs. Mary Dickinson, both of New York.

A GEORGIA TRAGEDY.

Ten Negroes, Overcome with Cold, Drowned in the Satilla River.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 19.—A special from Waycross, Ga., says: A report from Sherry says that ten negroes were drowned one day last week in the Satilla river, at the bridge on the Florida Central & Peninsular railroad. The negroes were raftsmen and were on a raft of cypress timber, when they became almost frozen. Their faces, hands and feet were frost-bitten and their limbs were so numb that they were powerless in steering the raft. The freshet had reached the highest mark and the raft became unmanageable. The negroes were weak and hungry, and could not stand up. Finally they grew desperate and rolled off the raft into the river and tried to reach the shore. They were unable to swim, so be-numbed and frozen were their arms and legs. They soon sank and their bodies were found floating in the water a few days afterward.

IN PEABODY'S MEMORY.

Anniversary Exercises Are Held at Peabody, Mass., and at Other Places.

PEABODY, Mass., Feb. 19.—The celebration of George Peabody's centenary occurred here Monday. Church bells were rung in the early morning and later there were interesting exercises in the public schools. In the afternoon there were literary exercises in the town hall. Mr. Francis H. Appleton delivered the introductory address and was followed by Lieut. Gov. Roger Wolcott.

The observance was not, however, a strictly local one, for cablegrams from Queen Victoria and the duke of Devonshire, chairman of the Peabody donation fund, to which Mr. Peabody contributed $2,500,000 for the establishment of homes for the deserving poor of London, gave it a touch of international character. Dispatches announce celebrations in Baltimore, Md.; Richmond, Va.; Nashville, Tenn.; New Orleans, La.; London, England, and at other points.
