

PRINCE BISMARCK.

He Cries Bitterly in the Midst of an Address.

The Venerable Statesman Overcome by a Reference to His Old Master, Emperor William I.—Congratulated by the Prussian Diet.

Berlin, March 25.—The celebration of the 80th anniversary of the birth of Prince Bismarck, which occurs April 1, may be said to have commenced Monday, as 292 members of the Reichstag and the Prussian diet started during the day for Friedrichsruhe in order to congratulate the ex-chancellor.

They were received at the railroad station by Count Herbert Bismarck, Count William Bismarck, Count von Moltke, husband of Prince Bismarck's daughter, and by Count von Waldsee.

The deputations proceeded to the castle from where they were received, in a body by Prince Bismarck. Herr von Krollen, president of the lower house of the Prussian diet, made a speech.

PRINCE BISMARCK.

congratulating Prince Bismarck on the approaching anniversary of his birth. The prince made a speech thanking the deputies for their kind wishes, saying:

"Accept my warmest thanks for the honor you have rendered me. It is to me the highest distinction to see such a noble assembly gathered here. I should be ashamed if the honor was not for the work I have done, not for my person only. The credit for the present results achieved I share with those cooperating with me, who are now dead, and above all with my greatly worshiped good master under whom I worked so long. (Here the aged ex-chancellor stopped speaking and cried bitterly, the assembly in the meantime being greatly affected. Regaining his composure somewhat, the prince resumed his remarks in a voice choked with emotion.)

A Tribute to the Late Emperor. "What," he said, "could I have done without his aid, and that of his powerful army? I would have stuck in the same bog that frustrated all previous attempts at German unity. Our dynasties, thank God, are still powerful in their countries (others) and especially the king of Prussia is able to put a powerful army into the service of national interest. This was my aim at Frankfurt-on-the-Main and I have always followed it since."

RICHARD VAUX IS DEAD.

Philadelphia's Picturesque Ex-Congressman and Ex-Mayor Passes Away.

PHILADELPHIA, March 25.—Ex-Congressman Richard Vaux, who has been ill at his home in this city for several days with the grip, died Friday morning. He was 74 years of age.

(Mr. Vaux was born in this city in 1819 and came of the old Quaker stock. For years he has been prominent here and was one of the most eccentric men in Philadelphia. In some particulars, Mr. Vaux was a gentleman of the old school and of striking personal appearance. One of his marked peculiarities is that he has never worn an overcoat or carried an umbrella, no matter what the state of the weather, and he always appeared on the street in patent leather pumps. While secretary to Minister Severson at the court of St. James many years ago Mr. Vaux was accorded the unusual honor to a visit of a republic of being selected by Queen Victoria to dance a quadrille with her. Mr. Vaux has been mayor of Philadelphia, recorder, (an office now abolished), and was elected to the Fifty-second congress to fill out the unexpired term of Samuel J. Randall.)

Moves on the Rib.

New York, March 25.—The Salvation Army began its attack on the fashionable world Sunday. It has been working in the lower quarters of the city for many years, but after a careful survey of the field Commander Ballington Booth reached the conclusion that those living above Fourteenth street were as much in need of salvation as those living below it.

New Counterfeit Five-Dollar Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The secret service has discovered a new counterfeit five-dollar silver certificate of the series of 1891. Grant head, W. S. Rosecrans, registrar, E. H. Lecker, treasurer. The note is printed from a wood cut and the workmanship is very crude. Several words are spelled wrong.

Big Packing House Burned.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 25.—Fire which started from unexplained causes destroyed the greater portion of Reed Bros' packing house in Armourdale Sunday evening, involving a loss of a little over $1,000,000. The plant and stock was valued at $2,000,000.

Diaz Does Not Want War.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 25.—The telegraph reports published in the United States that President Diaz has asked or is about to ask congress for authority to declare war against Guatemala are pronounced absolutely untrue in high official circles.

Famous Theater Closed.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Niblo's garden, one of this city's most famous playhouses, has closed its doors permanently. It was in this house that Patti, when a child of 8, made her debut.

Mississippi Clear of Ice.

DOUGLAS, La., March 25.—The river is now clear of ice from here to St. Louis, with the lowest stage of water on record for this time of year—2 1/2 feet.

LI HUNG CHANG.

A Young Japanese Tries to Assassinate the Viceroy of China.

SHIMONOSEKI, March 25.—As Li Hung Chang, the Chinese peace envoy, was returning to his lodgings in this place Sunday, after having attended a conference with Count Ito and Viscount Mutsu, the Japanese plenipotentiaries, a young Japanese fired a pistol at him. The bullet sped straight, but apparently did no more harm than to inflict a wound in Li Hung Chang's face.

The attempt to assassinate the representative of the emperor of China caused the most intense excitement, and on every side there were expressions of deep regret. The would-be murderer was arrested. It is believed he was prompted to the crime by misguided patriotism. The name of the would-be assassin is Koyama. He is 31 years old.

YOKOHAMA, March 25.—The news of the attempted assassination of Li Hung Chang created much excitement. The emperor and empress will send a messenger to Shimonoseki to express to the distinguished Chinese statesman their regrets at the most unfortunate occurrence.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The news of the assault on Li Hung Chang caused a sensation in diplomatic circles in this city. Cases where an envoy of any kind has been assaulted in the country to which he is accredited are rare, and those in which a peace commissioner is attacked are almost unheard of in modern days.

ARGUMENTS BEGUN.

The Supreme Court Takes Up the Case of Debs and Others.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The United States supreme court Monday began the hearing of argument in the case of Eugene V. Debs, president of the American Railway union, and others who participated with him in the Chicago strike of the summer of 1894. The early proceedings in the case Monday developed that while the argument would be extended, the question at issue was not complex. Representing the government were Attorney General Olney, Edwin Walker, of Chicago, and Assistant Attorney General Whitney. The venerable Lyman Trumbull, S. S. Gregory and Clarence S. Darrow appeared for the defendant Debs and his associates.

Under the rulings of the court two days will be consumed in the full presentation of the arguments and another hour will be given for a grand round-up—a gathering of the odds and ends. The supreme court will adjourn for the summer some time in May. That will give six weeks at least for the consideration of this important case if a decision is reached before the recess, and it is the general belief that such is the present purpose.

DECLINED A NEW TRIAL.

A Husband-Killer Pleads Guilty and Goes to Prison for Life.

MARQUETTE, Ill., March 25.—Mrs. Anna Kahn, who was sentenced to be hanged for the murder of her husband last August at East Carondelet, was granted a new trial Saturday in the St. Clair county court by Judge Alonzo S. Winderman. Immediately after the decision Mrs. Kahn arose and in tremulous tones pleaded guilty of the murder and appealed for mercy. She was at once sentenced, but this time to imprisonment in the Joliet penitentiary for life. The murder of Frederick Kahn was committed by his wife and George Centrell, who was hanged last November for his connection with the crime.

Tons of Dead Fish.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., March 25.—Hundreds of tons of dead fish of all kinds line the banks of the Big slough and the bayous along the river. The loss is heavy and it will be many years before there is good fishing in these places. The death of the fish is accounted for by the strict enforcement of the fish law. Heretofore holes have been cut in the ice by spears, allowing the air to get to the fish. This was not done last winter and it is believed the fish died of suffocation.

Firemen Perish in Flames.

DENVER, Col., March 25.—All but one member of Hodge company No. 3 lost their lives at the St. James hotel last Saturday night. The hose company, excepting the captain, is composed of colored men. The dead are: Harold W. Hartwell, captain; F. S. Brawley, lieutenant; Richard Dandridge and Stephen Martin. The accident was caused by the giving way of a floor precipitating to the basement beneath eight firemen, four of whom managed to escape fatal injuries.

Ten Coal Boats Sunk.

COLUMBUS, Ky., March 25.—The Smoky City sunk ten coal boats Monday morning at 10 o'clock near O'Brien's landing, 8 miles above this city. The boat struck a sandbar. The tow consisted of twenty-five boats and four barges, the property of S. S. Cramp, of Pittsburgh.

Fatal Ending of a Feud.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 25.—In a fight with shotguns in Macon county, Ala., the result of a long-standing feud between the Riddle and Christian families, Slab Riddle was killed and Charles and Andrew Riddle were fatally wounded.

Death of an Iowa Jurist.

OSKALOOSA, Ia., March 25.—After a lingering illness Judge J. Seavers died at his home here Sunday morning. From 1876 to 1895 he was chief justice of the Iowa supreme court. Previously he held many other offices of honor in the state, and was regarded as one of the ablest lawyers and jurists in the west.

FIFTY-NINE KILLED.

Awful Havoc of the Mine Explosion at Red Canyon, Wyo.

Nineteen Bodies Have Been Recovered and the Perilous Search for Other Victims Continues—Scenes of Great Distress.

EVANSTON, Wyo., March 25.—It is now figured out from company lists and pay-rolls that fifty-nine men perished in the mine disaster at Red Canyon, Wyo., Wednesday evening. Seven were killed on the outside whose names have been given.

Nineteen Bodies Recovered. Up to this time nineteen bodies have been recovered and the terribly blackened charred condition of the remains is such as to leave no hopes that any others will be taken out of the mine alive. All those engaged in the mine were heads of families who lived near the place. As soon as the explosion occurred people streamed out on the roads and rushed for the mouth of the mine by a common impulse, well knowing what had occurred.

Wailing of the Bereaved. The air was filled with the terrible cries of women and children whose husbands or fathers were at work below, and the scenes as the various bodies were brought to the surface simply defy description. Owing to the wide extent of the mine workings it will probably be several days before the full extent of the damage is known or all the bodies recovered. The mine was the property of the Rocky Mountain company and the disaster will deprive the company of half its supply. The damage caused and the loss of life made it the most notable of any coal mine disasters in the history of Wyoming.

Fifty Widows by the Disaster. There were fifty widows and fully 250 orphan children in the camp Thursday as the result of this terrible disaster. There is no fire in the mine, and the work of recovering the dead bodies is proceeding as rapidly as possible, but will probably not be completed during the day.

Third Disastrous Explosion.

This is the third disastrous explosion in this vicinity. In 1881 No. 3 mine, Rocky mountain, exploded, killing thirty-six Chinese and four white men. In the spring of 1888 an explosion in the Union Pacific mine No. 4 killed thirty-six men. Newell Beeman, manager, has arrived from Salt Lake City and is doing all he can for the injured and bereaved and to reach those in the mine.

About thirty of the men killed belonged to the A. O. U. W., in which order they were insured for $2,000 apiece.

MINISTER THURSTON TO GO.

Will Leave the Country at the Request of Gresham.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Minister Thurston has accepted the ultimatum of Secretary Gresham and has decided to leave this country without waiting for a formal notice from his government to return. Mr. Thurston reached this conclusion suddenly and announced it to his friends Monday afternoon. He declined to discuss his case in any manner, and merely said that he would start for San Francisco to-day and take a steamer sailing for Honolulu next week.

Three Children Perish.

CHAPLEAU, Ont., March 23.—Gertie, aged 18; Michael, aged 7, and Alexander, aged 3, the children of P. Dollard, of this city, were burned to death in the destruction of the family residence. Johnny, aged 11, jumped from the window, but was so badly burned that he is not expected to live. The parents escaped with the year-old baby.

Tornado in Ohio.

DELAWARE, O., March 25.—A tornado visited this city and surrounding section Sunday at midnight, unroofing houses, uprooting trees and demolishing fences. The business block of W. E. Kruck on Sandusky street suffered most in the city. Several persons were injured, but no fatalities were reported.

Victims of a Landslide.

BUDA PESTH, March 25.—A variety show was in progress when the Inn-on-the-Theiss at Tittel was buried by a landslide on Friday. Six dancing girls, the mistress of the house and her four children were killed. All but four or five of the audience escaped.

Courthouse Burned.

WARREN, O., March 25.—The Trumbull county courthouse was destroyed by fire Monday. All the original records pertaining to the western reserve grant were in the recorder's office. Many of them were destroyed. Loss to building, $30,000.

Dies at the Age of 116 Years.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Mrs. Christie Washington, born in bondage in 1779, died Thursday night near Somersville, N. J. The eldest of her children is 99 years old.

Victims of Lightning.

PINE HILL, Ala., March 25.—During a storm near here Mrs. Jephtha Williams and her son were killed by lightning and Mr. Williams was totally blinded.

Old Enough to Vote.

WICHITA, Kan., March 25.—Among the women who registered in this city to vote at the municipal election was Mrs. Harriet McMurray, aged 115 years.

Serious Illness of Queen Victoria.

LOXBOR, March 25.—Queen Victoria is suffering greatly from rheumatism, which renders her almost helpless. She cannot live much longer, it is believed.

TRADITION CAST ASIDE.

British House of Commons Votes to Pay Its Members.

LONDON, March 23.—The house of commons by a vote of 176 to 158 adopted the resolution offered by Mr. Allen, providing for the payment of members.

(No more radical measure probably has ever passed the English house of parliament. For centuries a seat in the house has been open only to those who had the social position to insure a successful canvass and the money to enable them to live in an expensive part of London the greater part of the year. This has been the practical situation until five years ago. Wealth was the one thing necessary; ability or popularity went for nothing, for it took a handsome income to be a member of the house of commons. The change came when John Burns was elected as one of the members for South London. Burns was a man of the people, with nothing to recommend him but a certain bluff honesty and freedom of speech that was startling in conservative England. He was a rather demagogic labor leader until the great dock strike of 1890. His name was then coupled with such men as Cardinal Newman and Mr. Gladstone. The consequence was his election—unsought—to the house of commons. Burns was practically the first workman—and a poor one at that—to take his seat in the house and the party which elected him found itself confronted with the problem of how his expenses were to be met. This was finally done by public subscription and the need of it directed public attention to the fact that only wealth was represented in parliament. It took long for England to do more than think about it, but at last a bill was prepared providing for the payment of the expenses of those members who were unable to meet their own. The bill was defeated, but it was the point of the wedge and the father of the present bill.)

OWES MILLIONS.

Receivers Appointed for E. S. Jaffray & Co. in New York.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The long established wholesale dry goods house of E. S. Jaffray & Co. on Monday went into the hands of receivers. The action was a friendly one and was brought about to avoid possible difficulties growing out of the winding up of the estate of E. S. Jaffray.

The complaint in the action sets out the liabilities of the firm as $2,500,000, $1,000,000 for merchandise, $1,000,000 on obligations and the balance of $500,000 on notes. The losses of the firm recently, it states, on account of the depression in business have been over $500,000, and $750,000 have been withdrawn by the estate of E. S. Jaffray.

The business done by the New York house generally amounts to from $3,000,000 to $10,000,000 a year. It employs about 300 men and has seventy-four traveling salesmen. The firm was organized in 1809 by Robert Jaffray as a branch of the London house.

WALLER COMES TO GRIEF.

Ex-Consul of United States Sentenced to Twenty Years' Imprisonment.

PORT LOUIS, Island of Mauritius, March 25.—Mr. John C. Waller, formerly United States consul at Tamatave, Madagascar, has been sentenced by the French to twenty years' imprisonment. Waller was convicted at a court-martial trial of having been in correspondence with the Hoivas.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—State department officials are of the opinion that the French government has exceeded its authority in trying John L. Waller, ex-consul of the United States to Madagascar, by military court and sentencing him to twenty years' imprisonment for complicity in the uprising of the native Hoivas against French authority.

MISS COUZINS' STORY DENIED.

Fair's Relatives Deny That Poison Caused His Death.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Friends and relatives of the late ex-Senator Fair denounce as nonsensical the story of Phoebe Couzins that he came to his death by poison administered by parties who would benefit by his death taking place at a certain time. Miss Couzins' assertion that she was betrothed to Fair is also declared to be false. Dr. Mark Livingston, Fair's physician, says: "After Senator Fair's death his organs were all removed and examined. They showed plainly that the cause of death was diabetes."

INDICTED.

The United States Grand Jury Returns a Bill Against Huntington.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—The United States grand jury has returned an indictment against Collis P. Huntington for violating that section of the interstate commerce law which makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $5,000 for an agent or manager of any railroad corporation running trains between states "to give any person a preference in fares or charges."

feeling most confident of our value, we see an unmistakable sign, given quite unconsciously by our friends, that we are doing all that is possible for them.

But I am the one who loves you, Marie. "Something has gone wrong with me. Every name I look at turns to Marie."

"Oh, Marie," said the little postman, setting her hand and covering her face with her fingers.

"Must I tell the truth?" she said in a most melancholy tone of voice.

"I am sorry to intrude," he said grimly, as he was about to turn back.

"I have never seen you before," he said, looking at her with a puzzled expression.
