

HOLMES ON TRIAL.

The Alleged Multi-Murderer Before the Bar in Philadelphia.

Refused a Continuance, His Lawyers Withdrew and the Accused Proceeded to Conduct His Own Case—The Jury Chosen.

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—Herman W. Mudgett, better known as H. H. Holmes, the self-confessed life insurance swindler, and the alleged multi-murderer, whose supposed crimes have been a topic for general discussion the past several months, was placed on trial Monday morning in the court of oyer and terminer on the charge of having murdered Benjamin F. Pitel.

Judge Arnold presided. The commonwealth was represented by District Attorney George S. Graham and Assistant District Attorney Thomas W. Barlow, and the defense was conducted by W. H. Shoemaker and Samuel F. Rolan.

Motion for Postponement Overruled. After the formalities in connection with the opening of the case had been concluded, Attorney W. H. Shoemaker, of counsel for the prisoner, in an address of some length, asked for a postponement of the case for 60 days. Mr. Shoemaker's contention was that the defense was not prepared for trial; that no witnesses were present. District Attorney Graham strenuously opposed the motion, he declaring that the state's witnesses were present at their own volition, and that if a continuance should be granted it would mean "the absolute destruction of the commonwealth's case."

H. H. HOLMES.

Lawyers Withdraw from Case.

Judge Arnold overruled the motions for postponement in a very few words and ordered the trial to go on. Just at this juncture a startling climax was reached, which resulted in the withdrawal of Lawyers Shoemaker and Rolan from the case, notwithstanding an injunction from the court that they would be open to disbarment by taking such a step "on the eve of a murder trial."

Holmes His Own Lawyer.

Still further sensation was created when Holmes refused to accept the services of Attorneys Everett A. Schofield and Joseph R. Fabey, whom the court was about to appoint to defend him, and who, in fact, had taken seats in the chairs vacated by Messrs. Shoemaker and Rolan. Schofield and Fabey also withdrew. Holmes himself pleaded to the court for a postponement, but the judge declared that the case must go on. The trial was resumed, Holmes conducting his own defense.

Jury Secured.

Following is a list of the jurors, with their occupations:

Opening Argument.

It was 3:10 o'clock when the trial was resumed, and nearly all of the session, which continued until 4:55 o'clock, was taken up by District Attorney Graham in outlining the case to the jury. The opening address of the district attorney was forcible throughout, but his denunciations of Holmes, which at times were particularly severe, had no outward effect upon the accused. Holmes' composure was wonderful, and during the narrative he busied himself in talking copious notes of the prosecuting officer's address.

Holmes' Crimes.

In addition to the murder of Pitel, the prisoner is also accused of the murder at Toronto, Ont., of Pitel's two young daughters, Alice and Nellie, of the murder at Arlington, Ind., of the young son, Howard Pitel, and also of the murder of various other persons in the famous Holmes case at Chicago.

Benjamin F. Pitel's body was found in a house at 1255 Callowhill street on September 2, 1894. It was supposed he had been accidentally burned to death, but a claim for $10,000 insurance by Joseph D. Howe, of St. Louis, started an investigation which resulted in Holmes being accused of Pitel's murder for the purpose of obtaining the insurance money.

Detective Geyer went out to visit Toronto, Chicago and other western cities to endeavor to obtain evidence against Holmes which would warrant his being arraigned for murder. Detective Geyer's success in finding the dead bodies of the children is well known, and other facts which he gleaned satisfied District Attorney Graham that Holmes could be convicted here of the murder of Pitel. Detective Geyer also brought to this city Mrs. Pitel and others from various parts of the west and Canada to take the stand as witnesses against Holmes.

A FLYING TRAIN.

A Special on the Lake Shore Road Break All Railroad Records.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Railway records of the world were smashed Thursday by the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railway. It ran a train from Chicago to Buffalo in 7 hours 50 minutes and 20 seconds actual running time at the rate of 64.8-10ths miles an hour. The record was as follows:

Chicago to Elkhart, 87.4 miles, in 55 minutes 20 seconds.
Elkhart to Toledo, 133.4 miles, in 134 minutes 45 seconds.
Toledo to Cleveland, 107.3 miles, in 106 minutes 5 seconds.
Cleveland to Erie, 56.3 miles, in 56 minutes 22 seconds.
Erie to Buffalo, 56 miles, in 70 minutes 15 seconds.

The greatest record was made on the last lap, from Erie to Buffalo, where the big ten wheeler, No. 564, William Tunkey, engineer, picked up the train and pulled her into Buffalo at an average speed of over 70 miles an hour. Every arrangement had been made to expedite the run. Switches were spiked, all trains sidetracked for the "flyer."

New York, Oct. 25.—The New York Central Empire state express brought into Grand Central station at 10:15 Thursday night several of the party that left Chicago on the Lake Shore fast train early Thursday morning. Some of the party visited the Empire theater and the Broadway theater. This is a feat never before accomplished, to leave Chicago in the morning, travel 950 miles and attend the theater in New York the same evening.

The entire distance of 950 miles was made in seventeen hours, forty-five minutes and twenty-three seconds. Chicago newspaper men who were on board had in their pockets morning newspapers of Thursday. This was the first time that a regular edition of a Chicago morning paper has been read in New York the day of its publication.

"3. It will also be forced by British encroachments upon other nations all over the world.

"4. It will be fought by us having Russia as a European ally.
"5. As a war offensive on our part it may not happen within twenty years. As a defensive war it may come sooner and should be welcomed.
"6. One sure result will be the capture and permanent acquisition of Canada by the United States. W. E. CHANDLER."

SLAIN IN BATTLE.

Spanish Forces Defeated in Cuba with Heavy Loss.

Insurgents Set Fire to Villages and Plantations—Spaniards and Rebels Killed in Numerous Engagements.

Santiago de Cuba, Oct. 17, via Key West, Fla., Oct. 29.—A party of insurgents, aided by several residents of the village of Hongoosong, 12 miles from Colure, set fire to Hongoosong on the 12th inst. after seizing all the arms and ammunition they could find in the place. The volunteers went with the rebels. On the banks of the Bayamo river between Corajo and Santa Barbara, a short distance from the city of Bayamo, there was a short but bloody encounter on September 24 between part of the forces of the rebel leader Rabi, under his command, and a strong Spanish column, 800 in number, under Col. Tovar. The rebels were lying in ambush on the right and left of the road along which the Spaniards were advancing. They allowed the vanguard, 200 in number, to pass unmolested, as well as a section of guerrillas, but when the main body of the column arrived 300 of Rabi's men, armed with rifles, opened fire from their positions and almost destroyed the main column.

After the fire had lasted an hour, Col. Tovar, seeing that he was losing many men, ordered his vanguard to be reformed, and ordered the use of the bayonet. Rabi lost no time, but with 250 of his famous cavalrymen attacked the Spanish center and rear guard. The Spanish commander could not resist the attack, and ordered a hasty retreat, leaving on the field 40 killed and wounded whom his men were unable to carry with them. The rebels had five killed and ten wounded, and captured a quantity of arms and ammunition abandoned by the Spaniards. This engagement proves now untrue the report that Rabi and many of his men were about to surrender.

On September 25 the Spanish general Echague, with 2,500 soldiers, met the vanguard of Antonio Maceo on the Guayabal river, district of Holguin. The vanguard had been sent to draw on Echague and his men to the top of Chivo mountain, where Antonio Maceo was awaiting them with 2,000 infantry and 700 cavalry. During the march the rebels were constantly firing on the troops, and after three hours' fighting the troops retired without daring to advance to the top of the mountain. The Spaniards had more than 90 killed and wounded, and five soldiers were taken prisoners. The rebels had three killed and nine wounded.

and being promoted to the rank of brigadier general. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth, Thirty-seventh, Fortieth and Forty-first congresses, the hiatus being covered by his army service, and then in 1874 moved to Nebraska. He took a prominent part at once in the politics of that state, being elected a delegate to the constitutional convention in 1875; a member of the senate for three terms ended in 1880, and in that year was elected United States senator from Nebraska to succeed Algebin S. Paddock. He served one term, and in 1887 was in turn succeeded by Mr. Paddock. Since retiring from the senate Mr. Van Wyck has divided his time between Nebraska City and Washington.

A DEADLY VOLLEY.

Two Would-Be Lynchers at Tiffin, O., Killed—Troops Called Out.

Tiffin, O., Oct. 28.—In an attempt early Sunday morning to avenge the murder of August Schultz, Tiffin's popular city marshal, who was shot down in cold blood by Leander J. Martin, alias Williams, a farmer of Hopewell township, last Wednesday evening, two more victims were added to the tragic affair. At 1:30 o'clock a mob of 150 infuriated men, many of whom were under the influence of liquor, attacked the jail in an effort to secure Martin and hang him. A volley from a half dozen Winchester met them and two of the mob were killed. They are: Henry Mutchler, Jr., and Christian Matz.

With the break of day excited crowds began to gather again in the vicinity of the jail and Sheriff Van Nest found it necessary to call out the local company of the Ohio national guard, as well as to apply to Gov. McKinley for additional companies.

Mutchler was 23 years old and a laborer. He was drunk during the night and was loud in agitating lynch law. Matz was 33 years old and a butcher. Neither was married.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Farmer's!

We have put a new department in the JOURNAL wholly in the interest of the farmers. It is headed "Farmers Wants" and as it is intended solely for farmers, to let their brother farmers know what they have for sale, want to buy, or have to exchange for something else, we have made a special rate for these ads. Consult it this week for bargains and for terms of advertisements and if you have anything to sell, or exchange, or want to buy anything from pickets, corns, alks or straw, to a farm, try this column. We think that being classified and set apart so it will be easily found and the convenience of this column as a means of exchange, will be appreciated.
