Captain Charles King

"I know," said Randall, briefly. "I will try to get to London now. He knows my call as well as a bird knows its mate."

"Oh, but it was up here," said he, "that I met him, Matthew Hamilton," said the old man, striving to prepare the boy for disappointment.

Calvin nodded, and the boy sprang forward. "I have been waiting for you," said he, "and now you are here."

"Two hundred yards or so, father. There's a pitahaya right opposite the place."

Then for a moment more the click, click of the ironed boots along the stony trail and the faint sound of the silence of the night. Dark and shadowy, still in despite the light, the party moved forward.

Old Kelly struck a light. "Right as left, and around and around," said he, "and now we are here."

Calvin looked at the light and then at the old man. "What a good idea," said he, "and now we are here."

"I have been waiting for you," said he, "and now you are here."

Farmer's!
We have put a new department in the JOURNAL wholly in the interest of the farmers. It is headed "Farmers Wants" and as it is intended solely for farmers, to let their brother farmers know what they have for sale, want to buy, or have to exchange for something else, we have made a special rate for these ads. Consult it this week for bargains and for terms of advertisements and if you have anything to sell, or exchange, or want to buy anything from pickets, cornstalks or straw, to a farm, try this column. We think that being classified and set apart so it will be easily found and the convenience of this column as a means of exchange, will be appreciated.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

South Boston.
We are glad to hear that all the sick are improving.

Evening meetings are expected to be held in the M. E. church soon.
She, whose name was Miss Libby Gilley, is expected to lecture on "India" at the M. E. church next Sunday, or one week from Sunday at the usual hour of service, and at the Congregational church in the evening.

Messrs N. Hotchkiss, J. C. Ball, S. Cole, and others attended the reunion of the 21st Michigan Inf at Grand Rapids. Seventeen deaths were reported to the Sec during the year. At that rate it will not be long before they all will be mustered out. Grand Rapids was selected as the place for next meeting.

A very pleasant time is reported at the Oyster Supper held at the Grange Hall. Receipts about $35.

Have you seen our window?

W. J. Botzen and family have moved into their house and Seth VanWormer has moved into Frane's house.

The next meeting of the Vergennes Reading Circle will be held at the home of Scott Fox, Saturday evening, Oct. 16. All interested are requested to attend.

The hard rain and the wet snow we had last week, was just what we needed.

There are so many who want to know which of the cars had their pictures taken, we will publish the list, Grattan, Parnell, Fallasburg, Vergennes, Ada, East Ada, Down the River, Cascade, Town Line, Logan, Bowne Centre, East Lowell and So. Boston were all represented.

We have not been able to go to the village, so have not seen the proof of the pictures yet, but trust we can report next week.

"One less bud on earth,
And one more to bloom in Heaven."

The dry record is broken and a nice rain came last week for which we were thankful.

Loran, Glen and Bert Johnson, of near Lake View, are visiting their cousins, Mrs Arthur Sayles and Mr and Mrs Ben Sage.

November 7th being the 70th mile stone in Mrs Charles Sayles life, her children and friends surprised her by going over to spend the day. Of course the table was loaded with goodies and a good time was had. She was presented with a beautiful oak rocker and other pretty gifts.

Mrs Lamberton and Mrs Stanton spent the day with Mrs Frank Sayles, one day last week.

One of the cancers on Frank Sayles' face has come out root and branch and the one on his ear, they expect will come off this week. He is doing nicely.

PANSIE.

Try a can of Hopkins' Steamed Hominy (Bulled Corn). It is delicious. Full qt., 10c.

Cascade.

Mrs W S Fuller and daughter, Mrs P. McCauley, were in Belding last Friday.

Ed Bird and sister, Mrs Hattie Barlow, of Cedar Springs, visited their cousin, George Anker, two days returning Sunday.

To be able to write this item gives us more pleasure than we can express: Mrs Thomas Keeler near the Ashley church has fallen heir to nearly $10,000. Every one rejoices, for both Mr and Mrs Keeler are exemplary christians, a real father and mother in Israel, and their already beautiful pathway of good works will be richer and brighter for this deserved prosperity as they near the golden sunset of life, for both are quite aged and Mrs Keeler has not known good health for years.

Sister Ida May's letter last week gives us new courage to hope the cors. picture will be a success yet, if the absent ones will only attend to having their pictures grouped as explained. PLEASE DO. No wonder the cry goes up from Logan, "man, where art thou?" and we echo, do thy duty for "it might have been," are the saddest words. MAUD.

East Lowell.
