

Barbara Fluger, right, turns over the papers of ownership to Mike and Virginia Snider.

Flugers Sell Bakery

Fluger's Lowell Bakery on East Main Street was the main transaction of sale this week, as the present owners, Ralph and Barbara Fluger signed over the initial papers of ownership.

The friendly ring of Barb's "good morning," or Ralph's casual "hello" from the backroom, that greeted the bakery's customers, will take on a new note, as the new proprietors Mike and Virginia Snider take over.

The Flugers have operated the local bakery for the past 14½ years as a family affair—with Barbara handling the business end, and Ralph and son. Bill, doing the baking.

and Ralph and son, Bill, doing the baking.

They took over the bake shop in June of 1957, which was then located in the building next door to the present shop at 216 East Main Street. "One of the things I remember most about our opening in Lowell," Barb commented, "was the ole tale that no bakery had survived longer than 18 months in the town of Lowell. History proved these stories to be correct, but we proved them wrong."

In 1967, the Flugers were given due recognition by the Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce as the "most improved decor for a business establishment, when they moved into their new headquarters.

The Flugers have no definite plans for the future, but Barb in her jovial joking manner added, "I told Ralph he could take a two week's vacation, while I go into retirement, but then it's back to work."

But, all joking aside, Lowell will miss the humor and friendliness of the Flugers as business associates . . . but they'll still be our neighbors and friends.

Coming from a long line of bakers, the new owners, have a wit and mannerism much like the Flugers. They also will conduct the bakery as a family affair.

Greeting the customers will be the Snider's daughter, Sharon Suitor, and the head baker will be Mrs. Snider's brother, Don Sidel.

Mike, as his friends call him, works presently at General Motors in Grand Rapids, but has been a baker himself at one time.

Mrs. Snider's father and grandfather, and Mike's step-father and mother were all bakers.

The Sniders who are presently making their home in Grand Rapids, hope to eventually make Lowell their home.

Don, who previously owned a bakery for seven years in Ashland, Ohio, resigned from his bakery position in Richmond, Indiana, to join the family adventure in Lowell.

The sale transaction completed on Monday, saw the Snider's open for their day of official business on Tuesday. As Barb put it, "we sincerley hope that the people of Lowell, will give the Sniders the wonderful patronage that we have received during our ownership."

Don Sidel, the new baker, gets a few tips from Ralph.

Early Publication Next Week

Due to the fact that the Thanksgiving holiday falls on Thursday this year, the Ledger-Suburban Life will go to press earlier.

Your cooperation in helping us get the paper to press early will be appreciated.

Surprises Form Chamber Parade

Highlighting "Spectacular Saturday" at 1 p.m. in Lowell on December 4, will be the annual Christmas parade.

Beginning at Thomet Chevrolet's parking lot, the participants, including bands, floats, and special surprises, will step off their trek through the downtown area, and end for disassembly in the parking lot behind the State Savings Bank on East Main Street. Here the floats will be on display.

Santa Claus, however, who will herald the opening of the Christmas season, will stop at the City Parking lot on East Main Street, where he will greet and treat the children.

This year's parade chairmar is Dick Roth, who along with his committee, is projecting new enthusiasm and ideas into the spectacular parade.

A $25 cash prize has been offered to the organization or individual entering a float judged "best of show." All entrants should confirm their entries with the Lowell Chamber of Commerce by calling 897-8545.

"We've heard a lot of rumors about this group or that group working on a float, we've had a lot of inquiries about the parade, but the confirmed entries are running a little alow," Chamber officials revealed this week.

"It's important that we know, so that our parade committee can plan ahead; scheduling a line-up that will be packed with variety," the Chamber added.

Highway Funds Being Distributed

Lowell-Saranac Get Share

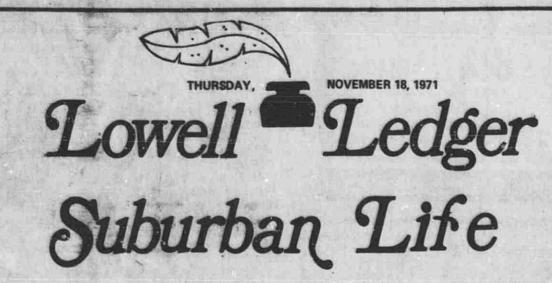

Third quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections are being distributed to Michigan counties and cities and villages, the State Highway Commission revealed this week.

State Highway Director Henrik Stafseth said net receipts of the Highway Fund during July, August and September of 1971 amounted to $81,461,406, an increase of $3,695,257 or 4.8 percent, compared to the same period of 1970.

Kent County's share totaled $1,105,696, while $16,309 will be distributed in Ionia County. The City of Lowell will receive $10,170, an increase over the $9,160 shared in 1970.

The Village of Saranac will get $4,164, an increase over their 1970 receipt of $3,879.

All State gasoline and diesel fuel taxes and license plate fees go to the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund. After deduction of collection costs and the State Waterways Commission's share 1½ percent of gasoline taxes, the money is distributed with 46 percent of the Department of State Highways, 34 percent to the state's 83 counties and 20 percent to the 529 incorporated cities and villages.

Juveniles Keep Police Jumping

Two juvenile boys were caught defacing junior high school property last week by the Lowell Police Department.

Restitution is being sought for the damage they incurred, while the case still remains under investigation.

Lowell Police Chief Barry Emmons added that he hoped the students would take care of the fine schools provided in the City of Lowell, rather than destroy them.

Another juvenile boy was cited to Probate Court for indecent liberties to juvenile girls. Local authorities, who are investigating the related incidents, said professional help should be sought for the boy.

Grand larceny by a juvenile in excess of $100 from the Lowell

Upholstery Shop on East Main Street was solved by the police department. He was ordered to Probate Court. Most of the stolen money was recovered.

Two other area youths, who were charged with breaking and entering the Jaycee Club house, plead guilty to entering without permission. They were fined, and placed on probation for one year terms.

Several local youths stopped by Lowell Police were charged with the possession of stolen goods. The property owners for the recovered goods are being sought.

Foreman Memorial

Foreman Memorial dedicated Wednesday.

Wednesday's noon meeting of the Lowell Rotary Club brought back many a memory of one dedicated member who left an everlasting impression of fellowship upon his club members.

The meeting carrying a format of dedication, honored the late Ernest C. Foreman. Herbert M. Reynolds, Rotary President, presided over the program that carried brief dissertations on Ernie, the Neighbor by King Doyle; Ernie, the Banker, by Harold J. Englehardt; and Ernie, The Rotarian, by George R. Cook. Dr. Howard Zindel, from Michigan State University, a close friend of Mr. Foreman, was the guest speaker.

The Rotarians and their guests then adjourned to the 4-H Fairgrounds, where formal services conducted by King Doyle dedicated the Ernest C. Foreman Memorial, erected adjacent to the Exhibition Building.

The memorial designed by Alexander Grant, architect, was erected from the stones saved from the West gateway into the city that Foreman once built. The letters, LOWELL, were also salvaged and inserted into the monument which has the inscription:

Foreman Building—This building dedicated to youth was made possible through the leadership and efforts of Ernesi C. Foreman, North America's Foremost Poultryman.

Herold F. Jefferies, Mayor, rendered a few memorial remarks, Mrs. Foreman took part, Paul Detmers represented the 4-H, Dr. Zindel made the dedication, and the Rev. Dean Bailey offered the benediction.

For fortunate children, Christmas means a tree, parties and lots of new toys, clothing, etc. For others, it might be empty and disappointing. Unless you help.

A toy for Christmas would be a "dream-come-true" for the needy children in the Lowell area. The annual Operation Santa Claus Drive, a Lowell Moose Lodge project, is dedicated to providing each of the children with a toy.

A contribution of a new or used toy, for both boys and girls, will make this Christmas much brighter for a lot of area youngsters. Toys should be delivered to the Lowell Moose Lodge on East Main Street, or arrangements can be made for pickup by contacting Red Baker, Civic Affairs chairman.

Saranac Seniors Stage Black Jack Rides Again'

The Senior class of Saranac High School will present its play "Black Jack Rides Again" on November 19th and 20th at 8 p.m. Presentation will be in the Saranac High School cafetorium. Written by Leonard Wibberly, the play can be classified as a comic tragedy. The plot centers around an old folks home in California. The patients do not like the way they are being treated, so they revolt. Suspicion of a homicidal maniac hiding somewhere in the home adds suspense to the story.

There are ten characters in the play-four male and six female parts. Eight of the parts are heavier than the remaining two, but there is no one person holding a lead role. Directing the play will be Mr. Lowell McCoy. It is hoped that all will go well to make "Black Jack Rides Again" a success.

Jaycees To Admit Eighteen-year-olds

In a milestone action, the Michigan Jaycee Board of Directors approved a change in the organization's by-laws that will permit eighteen, nineteen and twenty-year-old men to become Jaycees.

State Directors from Lowell, Norm Veliquette, Larry Keiser

and Barry Emmons supported the change. The Michigan Jaycees is the first State Jaycee organization to admit eighteen-year-olds. Mr. Veliquette believes most individual Jaycee Chapters in Michigan will follow the lead to the State organization and change their by-laws to admit eighteen-year-olds

The Lowell Area Jaycees have been unable to recruit many potential members under the old rule.

"I think the change was an obvious choice for the Jaycee organization," said the local president. "Our objective is to teach young men the basic principles of leadership and the value of civic involvement. If we had allowed 18-year-olds to vote, hold office, and enter into contracts without offering them the opportunities of laycee membership, we just avoid not have been contunities of Jaycee membership, we just would not have been consistent. I am very happy with the change." Also attending the meeting in Cadillac were the wives of the State Directors from Lowell and Mr. and Mrs. John Kerekes, and the Jaycee Auxiliary president, Mrs. Dennis. Hockenbeury.

New Welfare Program Works In New York

Welfare in the state of New York has been a national horror story. Yet, there is evidence that the story will have, if not a happy ending, at least an ending that is less than disastrous. New York State has a new law requiring welfare recipients classified as employables to pick up their checks at the State Employment Service offices. Under the new law, they are interviewed, given job counseling or training, or, if eligible, given a job. The results

According to United Press International, "The result after one month of operation has amazed officials. Thus far, 18 percent of the welfare checks have gone unclaimed . . . Governor Nelson A. Singin'. . . Those Second Half Blues

The Forest Hills varsity football team concluded a disappointing season last Friday night losing to Northview 30-8. Rated No. 1 in the State Class B polls until two recent defeats the Wildcats didn't expect the 2-6 Rangers to present so many problems. Led by junior quarterback Randy Lanning, Forest Hills gained momentum late in the first quarter to take an 8-6 halftime lead. But as has been the case in so many of the Ranger's ball games this fall the tide swung back in Northview's favor with the sec-ond half kickoff. Behind the running of quarterback Tom Fer-guson and fullback Mike Maitner, Northview's offense rolled for 196 yards rushing in the final two periods.

Northview's Maitner returned Joe McCormack's opening kickoff to his own 31. A gaping hole in the defensive line allowed Maitner to scamper to the Ranger 45 on the first play from scrimmage. Stiffening, Forest Hills held Northview to seven yards on the following three plays. A short punt gave the Rangers the hell on their own 21. ers the ball on their own 21.

Northview contained the Ranger offense and took possession at their 45 after a 37 yard kick by Scott Vashaw. A 29 yard run by Jim Brockschmitt and an 18 yard pass interference call moved Northview deep into Forest Hill's territory. On a first down play linebacker Bill Heneveld dislodged the ball from the Northview halfback while "monster man" Lanning pounced on the loose pigskin to thwart the Wildcat march.

A Lanning-Bob Banta pass good for 22 yards picked up the initial first down for the Rangers. Three plays later a scrambling Lanning fired a strike to Craig Pitcher at the Northview 26. Vashaw, from his halfback slot, cracked through the Northview line, broke several tackles, and was finally rode to the ground at the nine. On fourth down only a foot away from the goal line Heneveld followed his block off left tackle for the score. The dipsy doodle with Lanning taking the pitch out then throwing back to quarterback Lanning in the right flat wasn't an overwhelming surprise, but Lanning managed to plow over a Northview tackler for the two point conversion. With 0:22 remaining in the first quarter, Forest Hills led 8-0.

The Ranger defense held after the kickoff. Shuster, a top wrestler besides being a darned good football player, primed for the coming grappling season putting a bearhug on a Northview back attempting to sweep right end.

With 4:59 left in the second quarter Northview got on the scoreboard when quarterback Ferguson reced into the end zone from ten yards out. Joe McMahon made the tackle preventing the extra point. The Rangers held onto a slim 8-6 margin Northview threatened once more before the half ended with a drive stalling at the Ranger 31. Coach Frank Rosengren called time consuming running plays, satisfied to go into the locker room at halftime with a two point advantage. Who Invented Second Halfs, Anyways?

Unfortunately, unlike poker, you can't quit while you're ahead in football. Forest Hills had little room for error after the poor fielding of the second half kickoff left them on their own 3. In the previous game against Holland a similar situation developed in which John Andrews, the Forest Hills fullback, pulled his teammates out of the hole with a 93 yard touchdown run. But against Northview — no such luck. Punting from his end zone Vashaw's kick tumbled well downfield but the return came all the way back to the Ranger 20, leaving the Wildcats within easy striking distance. Four plays later Ferguson poked in for his second touchdown putting Northview ahead to stay at 12-8.

The momentum lost, Forest Hills succumbed to another Northview drive near the and of the third quarter Maiters did Northview drive near the end of the third quarter. Maitner did the damage, plunging one yard. Northview, pulling away, led At 9:25 in the fourth period Maitner scored again on another one yard blast. Maitner's 39 yard gallop set up the touchdown.

Northview 24, Forest Hills 8. The entire Northview backfield got into the yardage aping second half show. Midway through the fourth quarter Brockschmitt travelled to the Ranger 13, courtesy of half a dozen vicious blocks. A couple of plays later, it sounds almost too familiar, Ferguson picked up his third touchdown of the evening on a seven yard sweep. Northview upped the score to 30-8.

On the ensuing kickoff Terry Dusenberry sped to the 44 where he fell to the tackle of the last defender between him and paydirt. Forest Hills couldn't even have a little thing like an eighty yard kickoff return to smile about.

STATISTICS

The all-conference selections will be made this week and The all-conference selections will be made this week and though Coach Frank Rosengren wasn't willing to speculate on the point defensive stalwarts Steve Shuster and Jeff VanStrien have a healthy chance to gain honors. Both played inspired football in their final game. Next year's offense will have eight starters back when Forest Hills goes into the weaker O-K White League, but the pain is still alive from this fall. The Rangers finished with a 2-7 record.

And that's the way the 1971 season ended, not with a bang or a whimper, because these boys have nothing to be ashamed about, but with a quiet disappointment.

Buth Moves To Preserve High School Athletics

The Michigan House, by adopting an amendment sponsored by Representative Martin D. Buth (R-Comstock Park), has taken tive action to preserve the role of the Michigan High School Athletic Association in interscholastic sports.

The action proposes to derail a planned take-over of high school athletic affairs by the State Board of Education. Buth's amendment allows schools to affiliate with any organization which seeks "promotion of sport or the adoption of rules" governing conduct of those participating in competition between

While the amendment is broadly worded, the intent is to protect existence of the MHSAA. The only restriction included is that the State Superintendent of Education or his representative be an ex-officio member, and that he make an annual report to the Legislature. The MHSAA has apparently agreed to this stipu-lation, which legislators believe will meet the statutory requirement of state supervision.

"I see no reason to junk a system of athletic control which has worked extremely well for some 47 years," Buth said. "There has never been any hint of scandal, favoritism or any other ir-regularity in the operation of the MHSAA. This proposal insures the continued autonomy for the MHSAA, which is essential to prevent politics from creeping into high school sports regulation."

Buth and other supporters of the amendment believe it has an excellent chance for early enactment. They attached it to a bill correcting the exclusion of students under grade four from the state-aided remedial reading program. The Senate is expected to take quick action on the bill. In addition, 27 Senators recently co-sponsored a resolution asking the State Board to hold back on any take-over of MHSAA function, indicating they will probably favor the amendment.

Contests Spark Hunting Seasons

BY STEVE HARRINGTON

Gilmore's Sport Shop in Ada had great response to their pheasant contest which ended November 10. To have entered the contest a hunter must have purchased his license at Gilmore's. A measurement was taken of the longest tail feather of the bird to determine the winners.

This year Clark Staskus of Ada brought in a bird with a tail feather of 24 inches to take the first prize of a double mantle Coleman lantern. The reversible rain parka offered for second prize was won by Michael Word of Saranac. Word's pheasant had a feather 23¼ inches long. David Klahn of Lowell, won the Sea-Master lantern with a feather of 23 inches which took third ton, Gilmore's Sport Shop has been the sponsor of an annual deer contest for many years. Those hunters who have purchased their deer licenses at Gilmore's will be eligible for this year's contest. "Racks" are evaluated by alloting one point for each "point" of the inch of spread. The spread is measured at the widest point between the antlers. The head must be presented with the rack intact for measurem With a point given for each "point" and each inch of spread, the contest becomes more competitive. A large rack with many "points" on the antiers may be second to a smaller rack with a wide spread. All successful hunters who are eligible are urged to enter their rack for this reason.

First prize for the deer contest is a Coleman sleeping bag, second prize is a Coleman single mantle lantern, and a box of shells up to a $5 value is the third prize. Contrary to many rumors deer are still around but it takes skillful hunters to get them. If you do shoot a buck be sure to enter the deer contest at Gilmore's

Two of the first entries arriving at Gilmore's Monday were entered by Bill Ferguson and Mike Laird, both of Ada. Ferguson's deer had a rack spread of 121/2", and carried 10 points, for a total point entry of 22½ points. Laird's deer had six points, and a rack spread of 11½", totaling 17½ points.

DEFENSIVE BACK - Pat Herblet (No. 36) dodges the attempted block of a Rockford player in his pursuit of the Ram's fullback Scott Gilbert, Gilbert grabbed the T.D. as the Rams did the game, 36-26.

Rockford 36 Lowell 26

The Rockford Rams roared into Lowell tonight to try and build their rating back in the Michigan class A football standing. Rockford's only loss of the year was at the hands of Kentwood in the O. K. Red Division.

Coach Al Rowe and his Red Arrows knew from the start that they had their hands full, but this Red Arrow team never gave up. Being outweighed all across the line, the Arrows' Big White and Red Defense let Rockford know early that they were the best defense in the Tri-River Conference.

Lowell opened the game by kicking off to Rockford. Martinez sent the ball to the Rams' 2 yard line; the return was good to the 11. Rockford then started their running game but on the 5th play from scrimmage, they fumbled and Dave Wisner came up with the ball on the Rockford 17 yard line. Kropf then sent Avery up the middle for 4 yards and on the next play, Kropf doing a beautiful job of faking from the Wishbone tee, rolled out to the right side and ran 13 yards for the T.D. The extra point run by Harden was no good.

After two exchanges of the ball, Rockford, running from their own 40 yard line after two plays, were minus 3 yards and decided to put the ball in the air. Their first pass was good for 30 yards, then Hunting on a pitch-out ran 30 yards for the T.D. Sowerbury kicked the extra point to put Rockford ahead.

During the second quarter Brower and Kropf kept the Rockford offense honest by recovering a fumble and intercepting a pass. Late in the second quarter with the help of two penalties, Rockford moved the ball from their own 35 yard line in 13 plays with Martin going over from the 13 yard line. Sowerbury again booted the extra point. Halftime score: Rockford 14,

After two exchanges of the ball in the third quarter, Rockford moved the ball across for the T.D. with Hunting carrying the ball over from the 10. Sowerbury again kicked the extra Starting the fourth quarter, Rockford had the ball on the Lowell 17 yard line. On the first play of the quarter, Gilbert ran the 17 yards for the T.D. The Rockford Q.B. came back with Gilbert for the extra point which was good. At this time it looked as if Rockford would completely run away with the game. On the ensuing kickoff, Pat Herblet took the ball on his own 25 and rolled through the Rockford team for 75 yards and the T.D. Kropf then tried to pass for the extra point which was no good.

Lowell then tried an on-side kick but Rockford retained possesion on their own 45. Rockford went to the airways again and pushed the ball to the Lowell 4 yard line. On second down they attempted to pass again and Kropf intercepted for the second time. After two exchanges of the ball, Chris Kropf put the ball in the air. He passed to his brother for 49 yards to the Rockford 22. He came back with a 22 yard pass to Tom Wernet for the T.D. Mark Billock made a super catch lying on his back in the end zone for the 2 pointer.

Another on-side kick and Lowell's defense went to work again and got the ball on the Lowell 21 yard line only to fumble on the 35 and Walker, Rockford's defensive tackle, picked the ball up and ran for the T.D. Sowerbury kicked the E.P. After the kickoff and an exchange of the ball, Lowell started on their own 21 with Kropf putting the ball in the air to Wernet for 18 yards, Billock for 46 yards, and finally a one yard pass to Herblet for the T.D. The extra point pass was incomplete. Final

Lowell JV's Finish 6&3

Lowell JV's finished an excellent season with a fine victory over Rockford 18-6. This gave the JV's an outstanding season's record of six wins and three loses.

The first score in the Rockford game came after a blocked punt by Ron Lyons. This set up a 10 yard run off tackle by Robert Thompson for the T.D.

The game then became a defensive battle until the last five minutes of the game when after a series of penalties Rockford scored, made the score 6-6. Then after Rockford kicked off and a series of plays went by Lowell's Robert Thompson broke through the middle for a 55 yard run and T.D. with only 1:30 on the clock. Lowell's defense held again so Rockford had to kick with seven seconds on the clock; they faked a kick and passed. Carl Higgans intercepted on the 10 yard line and went in for the last

A LONE DEFENDER - Slows down Bernie Harden (22) until more help arrives to stop an extra point try.

Freshmen Rock Rockford 20-0

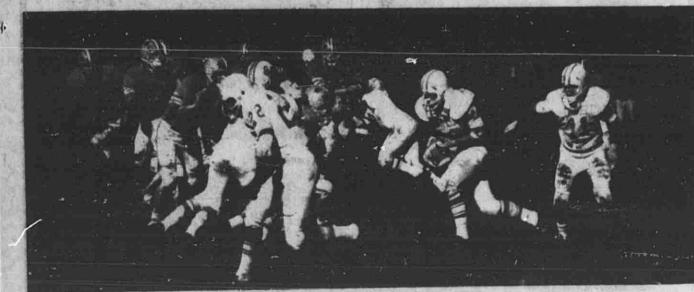

The Lowell Freshmen ran their 1971 football record to seven wins, one loss and one tie Thursday as they defeated Rockford 20-0 at the loser's field.

The Tri-River freshmen champion Arrows were slow getting started, as every member of the squad played on the first half. The second half saw plenty of action as Lowell's potent offense began to roll. Willie Harden took a Scott McNeal handoff and went 64 yards off left guard for the first score. McNeal then threw to Craig Anderson for the conversion.

Lowell's John Piper intercepted a Rockford pass and returned it 45 yards for Lowell's second T.D. The extra point attempt was no good. Lowell scored their final touchdown when John Piper scored from the one yard line. Lowell then substituted their entire offensive and defensive units, giving the subs complete control of the game. The Arrow offensive scored again, but an off-side penalty erased the score. Lowell offensively gained 283 yards with Rockford gaining 106 yards. Ground gainers for Lowell were John Piper 11 yards, Willie Harden 80 yards, Mike Topping 29 yards, Bruce Billock 28 yards, Mark Newbecker 20 yards, Jim Dykstra

Defensive standouts were Bob Grummet with seven tackles and Gordy Kluhn with six. This game completed the freshmen schedule and Coaches Michael Clark and Zolton Kocsondy, Carson City tallied again after an intercepted Saranac pass was returned to the Saranac 15 yard line. Two plays later Fred Brooks again scored on a run of 13 yards. The conversion failed making the score at this point 12-6 in favor of Carson City. Saranac took possession and scored during the last two min-utes when they marched from their own twenty yard line to Sergeant Hutson greats his visitors, the pre-school kindergarten class from the First United Methodist Church of Lowell.

A visit to the local Police Department with Sgt. James Hutson last Friday was just one of the many learning activities in a Know Your Neighborhood unit currently in progress at the Pre-School Kindergarten sponsored by the First United Methodist Church of Lowell.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Dean Bailey, who has been a former first grade teacher, and Mrs. Allen Mulder, a registered nurse, the school meets three mornings a week in the church's

The pre-school program is aimed at helping prepare children for public school kindergarten as well as to encourage appreciation and concern for others around them. These aims are carried out by means of a well-organized program consisting of three The first division of the program is a free activity period in which each child chooses his "work." At this time teachers work with individual children, teaching proper care of materials, recognition of the rights of others, decision-making, carrying out of plans, number concepts and spatial relationships such as over-under, in-out and before-after. The next area is a "Together Time" when the children learn to listen to others, to express themselves before the group and to observe the world around them. "Together Time" continues on into snack time where children find places by looking for their names on the place mats! This is truly a reading readiness experi-

Guided activity follows, representing the third phase of the program. At this time skills such as cutting with scissors are experienced and various crafts are introduced. Almost without exception every child greets his mother at the close of each session clutching a "treasure" of his own creation to be displayed with oride on a favorite wall at home.

There are still openings in this splendid program for children who will be entering public school next year. As soon as enrell-ment reaches fifteen, however, a third teacher will be added in order to maintain a good pupil-teacher ratio.

This program is made possible by a nominal charge to the parents along with contributions from interested individuals and

Her Skillful Hands Keep Busy At 92

Mrs. Mildred Fox Overholt will celebrate her 92nd birthday with her children this Friday, November 19, at her home in Ada, where she has resided for the past year.

In November, 1879, Mildred Louise MaGee was born in Northville, Wayne County, Michigan, and was united in marriage with Robert D. Fox of Cascade Township in 1900. She was widowed in 1949 and married John Overholt of Clarksville in 1957. He passed away in 1970, and Mrs. Overholt moved to the Ada area.

The active 92-year-old has plenty to keep her busy, as she has several hobbies that are time consuming and make ideal gifts for her loved ones. Crocheting dollies or what have you, hooking rugs, making quilts, sewing and knitting are all products of her skillful hands at work.

Helping Mrs. Overholt celebrate will be her seven children, 10 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. She has two sisters and two brothers still living; three stepchildren, 11 step-grandchildren, and fourteen step-great-grandchildren.

As her pure white hair glistened from the sunlight through the window, Mrs. Overholt remarked, "I've had a good life, an exciting life, and I'm looking forward to many more years of good health and happiness."

Saranac Students Attend High School, Business Symposium

More than 100 area high school students, educators, and businessmen will attend a day long "High School-Business Symposium" Thursday, November 18th, to be held at the Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church (434 High St.) here.

The Symposium, one of a series conducted throughout the state by the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce, is designed to help young people better understand the free enterprise system" according to Harry R. Hall, President of the State Chamber. "The meetings have proven to be an excellent forum to exchange information and develop dialogue between students, faculty and businessmen," he said.

Co-sponsoring the symposium, which will be attended by students representing three area high schools, is the Ionia Area Chamber of Commerce and 13 local firms which will sponsor the students. Schools participating in the day long "rap session" will include: Ionia, Portland and Saranac.

Symposium moderator will be Noel Black, Manager, Government and Public Affairs, Amway Corporation, Ada. Speakers and their topics will include: Ralph Appell, Manager, Employee Relations Division, Wolverine World Wide, Rockford, who will speak on "Business and Government;" Zane Miller, Vice President, Williams and Works, Grand Rapids, who will speak on "Business and Profit;" and Leland K. Bassett, Manager, Communications, Michigan State Chamber of Commerce, Lansing, who will speak on "Business and Social Change."

"The program features a question and answer format which allows dialogue and discussion between all the participants and the panel. Small groups of students, business sponsors and educators will analyze the presentations and fire questions back to the panel members," Carl Jorgensen, Manager of Political and Economic Education for the State Chamber said.

Area firms sponsoring the student participants include:
Ionia: American Anodco, Incorporated, Coe Hayden Motors,
Inc., The First Security Bank, Ionia County National Bank,
Wright Way Cash and Carry. Lyons: Chrysler Corporation. Portland: Barley-Barhart Company, Central Soya Company, Icc.,

Ford's Assistant To Visit Lowell On November 19

Congressman Gerald R. Ford announced today that his special assistant, Gordon E. Vander Tili, will hold office hours on his behalf in Lowell, on Friday, November 19, 1971 in the City Council Room from 2:30-5:00 p.m.

Ford urged that all Lowell area residents needing help with a problem or simply wishing to express their views on national and international issues talk with his special assistant. No appointments are necessary.

This special community service is provided by Mr. Ford in order to meet the needs of the people in his congressional district as fully as possible.

A fulltime district office at 425 Cherry St., S.E., Grand Rapids is also maintained by Ford. Vander Till is headquartered there, and also visits communities throughout Kent and Ionia counties.

Businessmen, Lock Your Doors

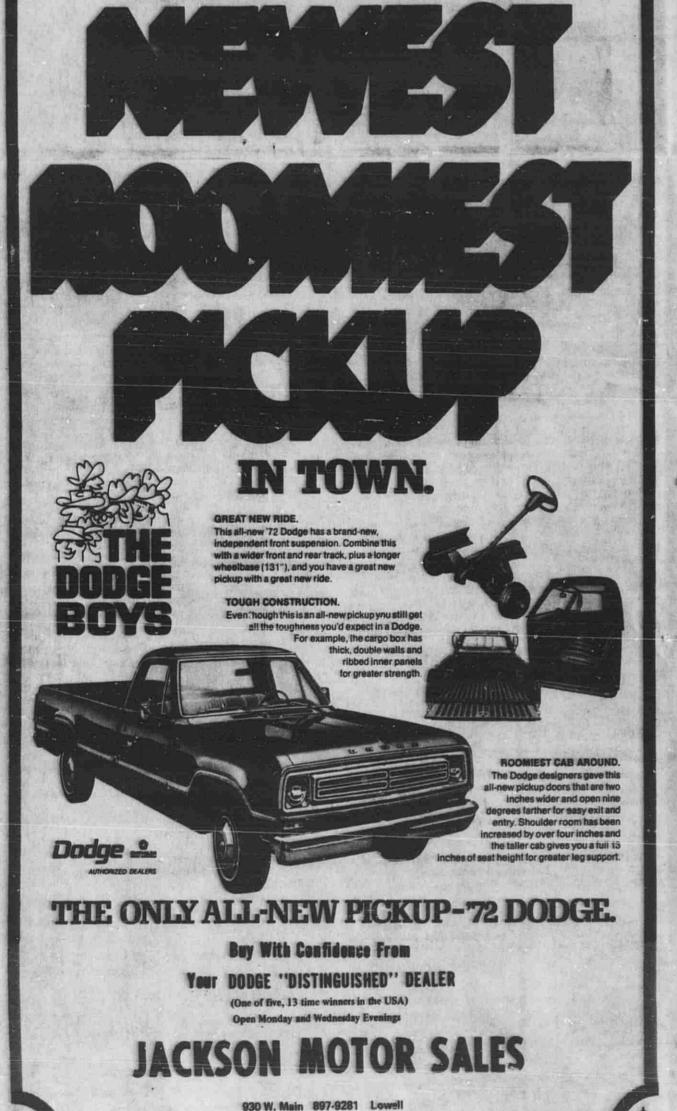

Within the last few weeks, quite a few open windows and doors have been found in Lowell business places, as the Police Department makes their checking rounds periodically.

Chief Barry Emmons strongly urges businessmen to double check their buildings before leaving.

A turn of the key could mean a business to run the next day.
