

HERB REYNOLDS KILLED IN CRASH

Lowell funeral director, civic leader and Rotarian Herbert M. Reynolds, 54, of 604 North Hudson Street, was killed about 3:50 a.m. Sunday when he lost control of his car on M-21, about two miles west of Lowell.

Alone in the car, Reynolds, died of head and chest injuries, according to Kent County Medical Examiner, Dr. Bernard Kool. Deputies said the car hit an abutment a mile east of Sargent Drive and rolled end for end before hitting a utility pole.

Funeral services have been set tentatively for 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Roth-Gerst Chapel, with interment to be made in Lowell's Oakwood Cemetery.

Reynolds was born in Lowell, graduated from Lowell High School in 1935, and the University of Minnesota School of Mortuary Science. He served in the European Theatre with the 1st Army in World War II, and left the service as a captain.

Prior to returning to Lowell in 1963, to join the staff at the Roth Funeral Home, Reynolds owned and operated the Reynolds Funeral Home in Columbiaville, Michigan, for eighteen years.

In April of 1965, he was elected to his first term on the Lowell City Council, and at the time of his death served as Mayor

Protem. Also active in the Lowell Rotary Club, he was currently serving in the capacity as president.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Lowell, and held membership in the Clark-Ellis American Legion Post.

Besides his wife, Marjory, he is survived by a son Spec. 4 Herbert, jr., serving with the United States Army in Germany; and two daughters, Mrs. Gary (Liz) Kropf of Lowell, and Margaret at home; a brother, Glenn of Hastings, Texas; and a sister, Mrs. Kenneth Wood of Grand Rapids.

Searching For Lowell Hunter

A search resumed early Monday for a 75-year-old Lowell man missing since Saturday while deer hunting in Dickinson County in the Upper Peninsula.

State Police reported that Oscar Sterzick of 12660-52nd St., was hunting with his nephew, Gordon Sterzick of Alto, when the older man walked into a wooded area and did not return.

Sheriff's deputies, state police and conservation department officers are taking part in the search.

Troopers said temperatures in the Upper Peninsula dropped to 20 degrees above zero Sunday, with about six inches of snow falling Saturday night.

Richard Posthumus To Head Youth Council

State Representative Stanley M. Powell (R-Ionia) said today that 37 young people have been selected to serve on a newly-created Youth Council of the Republican State Central Committee.

"The Committee is composed of young people from all over the state who will advise the Republican State Chairman and State Central Committee on all matters relating to youth," Powell said.

The Committee will be chaired by the new Youth Vice-Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, Richard Posthumus of Alto.

"The council, in addition to serving in an advisory capacity will assist in the implementation of all youth programs at the District and County levels," Representative Powell said.

"For years we have told young people the way they must do things to become involved in the party. Now we hope that through this new organization of young people, we will gain direction from them," he concluded.

The first meeting of the newly-created Youth Council will be November 21, 1971, at the Student Union Building on the campus of Michigan State University.

Get Involved In Lowell's Christmas

The Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce is looking for more community participation in the December 4th Christmas parade.

The Parade Committee is asking for individual support to help make this one of the most spectacular parades ever witnessed in Lowell. The call for help is directed toward the community, groups of citizens, interested organizations, businessmen, industry and individual families.

If anyone would like to participate in the parade with a float or an appropriate entry, they are urged to start preparations and inform the Chamber office.

Maybe an entire block of families will put together a float, or one individual will come up with an idea and proceed to seek help from others. The Chamber will award a $25 prize to the community group, etc., who displays the best entry.

The Chamber is anxious to see community involvement; they would also like to see the commercial and industrial segment of the community enter floats. Even though the deadline for entries is past, Chamber officials will still accept any entries.

Parade participants will step off promptly at 1 p.m. December 4 from Thomet Chevrolet's parking lot on West Main Street. The parade will begin its line-up formation about 12:15. During this time, a team of judges will view the entries and declare a grand prize winner.

The parade is only a portion of "Spectacular Saturday" activities planned by the Chamber of Commerce. When the parade disassembles at the State Savings Bank parking lot, where the floats will be on display, Santa will trek back to the City's Main Street parking lot where he will meet and treat his visitors.

A Holiday Bazaar, staged by the Lowell Showboat Garden Club, will greet holiday shoppers in the Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce Building on East Main Street.

A spiritual spark to the atmosphere will be enhanced by Christmas Carols, sung by strolling carolers, through the downtown area.

Several businessmen have enlightened the program by offering to serve hot coffee and hot chocolate during the afternoon. Between the hours of 5 p.m. and 7 p.m., the Lowell Lions Club will top off the day's activities by serving an ox-roast dinner in the Lowell High School cafeteria.

See you on "Spectacular Saturday," December 4, for the parade of parades featuring floats, bands, colorful caricatures, marching groups, and loads of surprises.

Eighth Grade Band Plans Open House At Forest Hills

The musicale affair will be held in the Junior High Band room on Wednesday evening, starting at 7:30 p.m.

"One of the special features of the open house will be parent participation," Streng added. Any parents, who play instruments, are urged to bring them along and join-in on a jam session.

Dog License Applicants Must Have Certificate Of Vaccination Form

It's tax time again, and beginning the first week end in December, area Township and City clerks will be busy collecting fees, plus accepting applications for dog licenses.

All dog owners are reminded that this year, under Act 195, P.A. 1969, all applications for canine licenses must be accompanied by proof of vaccination for rabies by a certificate signed by an accredited Veterinarian.

The expiration date of the Certificate of Vaccination shall not be earlier than December 31, 1972 (the year for which the license is issued.)

Dog licenses are due by January 1: $1.50 for male, $1.50 for unsexed; and $3.00 for female.

Businessmen Warned Again

Lowell Police Chief Barry Emmons this week issued his second warning to Lowell businessmen to "lock those doors."

"When my patrolmen make their checking rounds," Emmons revealed, "they find doors unlocked, and windows, either left open or unlocked."

"We have enough trouble with illegal entries, thefts, and unexpected guests," Emmons commented, "and an unlocked door only puts out a welcome of entry sign."

Businessmen for their own protection, should make a thorough check of their buildings before departure at closing time.

OBITUARIES

MABLE McCALL
Mrs. Mable C. McCall, 55, of Route 1, Lowellville, passed away at her home on Tuesday, November 16.
She was born March 1, 1916, in Wadlock, Canada, the daughter of John and Margaret Dunsom, and the age of six moved to Grand Rapids with her parents. She was married to Mr. J. C. McCall October 10, 1933, and moved to Lowellville in 1950.
Funeral services were held Friday afternoon in the Clarkville Bible Church with the Rev. Charles Dunsom officiating. Interment was made in Clarkville Cemetery.
Besides her husband, Mrs. McCall is survived by a son, Jack, of Clarkville; five daughters, Mrs. Betty Post and Mrs. Patricia Reeser of Clarkville, Mrs. Barbara Dye of Lake Odessa, Jeni and Jean at home; five sisters, Mrs. Margaret Marshall of Byron Center, Mrs. Mildred Foster of Boling, Mrs. Marian Brownell of Ionia, Mrs. Dorothy Hogan of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Evelyn Shoemaker of Kent City; three brothers, Donald Dunsom of Wichita Falls, Texas, Norman of Grand Rapids and Kenneth of Ionia.

JULIE ROSEWARNE
Julie Rosewarne, 18, of 2550 Indian Trail, East Grand Rapids was injured fatally early Sunday when the car in which she was riding collided with a van-type vehicle on a Washtenaw County Road, midway between Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor.
Miss Rosewarne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vassar (Bud) B. Rosewarne, formerly of Lowell, was a freshman at Eastern Michigan University.
Besides her parents, she is survived by two brothers, Phillip of Lansing, George at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Susan Kreykes of Grand Rapids, and Jean, at home.
Funeral services will be Wednesday at St. Stephen's Church, with burial in Restlawn Cemetery, Grand Rapids.

Plentiful Turkey Crop
The 1971 frozen turkey supply is the largest in 10 years, according to Mrs. Sheila Morley, Michigan State University consumer information specialist. There are approximately 118 million turkeys available, she reports.
Although prices on all turkeys will be low, you can save even more money by buying one of the large 16- to 20-pounders. Mrs. Morley suggests. Large birds have more meat in proportion to the amount of bone.
Buy a large turkey at home and have it sewed in half while still frozen. Roast half for Thanksgiving and freeze the other half for Christmas dinner or later.
Roasting half a turkey is hardly different from a whole one, and you will have fewer leftovers, Mrs. Morley reports. Stuffing may be held in the cavity of the bird with a sheet of foil.

Thanksgiving Service 'Let's Think Thanks'

The First United Methodist Church of Lowell will hold its Annual Thanksgiving Morning Worship at 9:30 a.m.

Featuring will be the music of the Adult Choir with William J. Lomas directing and the Children's Choir, directed by Mrs. Gerald A. Meredith. David F. Coons and Mrs. Arnold A. Wittenbach will provide accompaniment on the organ and piano, respectively.

Reverend Dean I. Bailey, pastor, will bring the message "Let's Think Thanks," and be assisted in the service by Reverend Hartwell Gooney, Associate Pastor.

Special tables have been arranged in the sanctuary by the Junior High Class under the direction of Mrs. Arle Loeman and decorated in the Thanksgiving motif by Mrs. Harold Wittenbach. These tables will hold the ingathering of food for the Day Care Program of the United Methodist Community House of Grand Rapids. The Sixth Grade Class, Mrs. Larry C. Wittenbach, teacher, will transport the ingathering gifts to Grand Rapids.

Nursery care will be provided during the service by Miss Betty Lyons in the church's Kindergarten House.

All Lowell area residents and their out-of-town friends and families are most welcome to attend, reports Reverend Bailey.

Welcomes Members

The Reverend Hartwell Gooney, Associate Pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Lowell, greets new members, Virginia Ridgway and Sandy Rama.

Last Sunday was a special day in the life of the First United Methodist Church of Lowell as two new members were confirmed and received into full membership.

Miss Sandra L. Rama and Miss Virginia L. Ridgway, were also greeted informally by the congregation at a coffee time following the service, hosted by the Lydia Circle.

Assisting were Mrs. Orval Jessup, Mrs. Howard Clark, Mrs. John Potter, and Mrs. Walter Stevens.

Fewer Multiple Dwellings

According to a Michigan State University professor of building construction, the number of multiple dwellings being built is declining. In 1969, says William B. Lloyd, the U. S. hit a record for multiple dwellings when about 45 percent of the housing units were for two or more families.

The building trend is now swinging back to single family dwellings, he says, which represented about 57 percent of the housing units built last year.

Non-League Game Opens Forest Hills' Basketball Season

A non-league game against Creston Friday night, will open the 1971-72 basketball season for the Forest Hills Rangers. Playing on their home court, the junior varsity team will play at 6:15, and the varsity game will start at 8 p.m. With several veteran lettermen returning to the varsity squad, Coach Larry Wilson looks for a season of good results. Friday, December 3, the Rangers will play host to the Rockford Rams, with an after the game dance. Finishing out 1971, the Rangers will meet East Grand Rapids, there on December 10, and Grandville, there, on December 17.

Fall Sports Banquet For Golf, Cross-Country

With the close of the 1971 Fall Sports Program, the annual Lowell High School golf and cross-country banquet took place honoring the participating athletes.

On Thursday night, November 9, the awards were given out. After recognition of the cheerleading squad of the season and distinguished guests, cross-country coach Tom Stahr began by awarding "certificates of participation," to those team members who did not earn a letter.

Receiving certificates were Jerry Gauger, Ron Krebs, Sam Raynor, and Ron VanWyck, Craig Muller, Chris Briggs and Phil Schewer, freshmen; Nate Blossom and Dave Stenowick, sophomores; Bernie Bryan and Dave Blazo, juniors.

Receiving their first varsity letters were sophomores Phil Gerard and Ben Porritt and senior, Rick Siegle. Earning second letters were Jim Perkins, Dan Pierce, Randy Jones, Jerry Batterbee, Jeff Brower and Mark DeForest, all seniors.

This year's team captain Ron Anderson, was awarded his third sports letter.

By vote of the team, senior Jim Perkins was named "Most Valuable Player" and Phil Gerard, "Most Improved." Gerard was named captain for the coming 1972 season.

Coach Stahr expressed his gratitude for the team's fine conduct throughout the season and said he regretted losing the seniors he had worked with for the past four years.

Stahr added he hoped that the underclassmen could fill the vacancy left by the leaving seniors.

Golf Awards

Golf Coach Jerry Meredith followed with a brief resume of the season and began dispensing awards.

In contrast to cross-country team, Meredith coaches a much younger team. The golf team loses only one senior letterman.

First letter awards went to junior Rich Kerr and sophomores, Kevin McMahon. Second letters were given to sophomores Terry Abel and Kim Schwacha; senior, Brooke Johnson; and Junior, Rick Price.

"Most Improved Player Award" went to freshman Rick Lenartz. "Most Valuable Player" honor was voted to Kim Schwacha, who was also elected to an all-conference position by league coaches. Another sophomore, Terry Abel, received honorable mention.

Football Players Honored; 15 Seniors Leave Squad

The annual Lowell High School football awards banquet took place last Thursday night with new laurels passed to deserving athletes.

After the invocation by Rev. Dean Bailey and the dinner, Athletic Director Bob Perry, acting as toastmaster for the evening thanked the many people who helped with the running of the football program and presented senior Jim Barnes with a plaque commemorating his service in that direction.

The guest speaker for the evening was Burt Smith, assistant to the athletic director at Michigan State University. Mr. Smith is a graduate of M.S.U. and has been involved in sport from the beginning years of his life. He has played two years of Professional baseball and hockey and is the author of a book entitled "Offensive and Defensive Football."

Mr. Smith was named High School Coach of the Year while coaching Varsity football at Flint Northern High School. Through his past experience Mr. Smith was able to give a true and often humorous definition of a football player.

Coach Rowe took over the program and proceeded to give an insight into each of his players paying particular attention to the 15 seniors. Those seniors winning letters were, Terry Beachum, Jim Bovee, John Brower, Doug Ford, Jim Gauger, Craig Haybarker, Dan Hendrick, Pat Herblert, Kevin Kennedy, Paul Killman, Mark Ritzema, Ed Steffens, Dave Wiener, David Yeiter, and Joe Rinard.

Other letter winners were juniors David Avery, Gary Barber, Mark Billock, John Curtis, Bernie Harden, Jerry Kropf, Kris Kropf, Don Mendez, Tom Martinez, Tom Wernet and sophomores Don Phillips, Chris (Rusty) Steffens, Bruce Wingeier, and Ken Kropf.

The most improved backfield award went to junior Bernie Harden and the lineman award to senior Ed Steffens.

Lions Club President, Bernie Pankowski, presented the Most Valuable Player award to senior lineman, Dave Wiener.

Coach Rowe, speaking about his seniors, said, "It will be a tough group to replace, but we'll work on it." Fortunately, the backfield was young and remains intact. There's no doubt next year the Arrows will be even more hungry for the title, and it will be an interesting season.

Ritzema Wins '840' Drag Race

840 winner, Dion Ritzema, winning car, and coveted trophy.

Dion Ritzema's car, The American, at the amazing speed of 53 miles per hour, beat out all competition to win the "Lowell 840." Dick Elliott, with his Sesame Street Dropout, took second place.

The Lowell '840' is the climax of five weeks of hard work by eighth grade industrial art students who designed, drew and constructed model cars.

The cars are powered by CO₂ cartridges and are guided down the 840 inch track by a piece of fish line.

Howard Malcolm, Terry Eickhoff

Best foot forward doesn't apply to tires any more. Newer tires should be placed on the rear axle according to the Tire Industry Safety Council. Extensive studies show vehicles in accidents more often have worn tires in the rear.

Wrestlers Training; Season Looks Tough

"It'll be close" is what coach Gary Rivers projected about the upcoming wrestling title race. He was referring to an expected clash between conference giants Sparta and Lowell.

Last year the two met in a face off for the conference championship with Rivers and this team adding more glitter to their trophy case.

This year's schedule matches up about the same as last year except for the meeting of a new Coopersville team.

Another fresh starter to the wrestling ranks is a Saranac team. Rivers and the Arrow team traveled to Saranac Tuesday night for an explanation night to enlighten fans and prospective wrestlers as to the technicalities of the sport. The demonstration, sponsored by the Saranac Booster's Club was well appreciated and accepted.

Rivers and the team are moving into their 3rd week of practice and the ranks are well stacked. Of course they need be. The process of graduation has left six starting positions open. Rivers has several good looking prospects. They are Burt Baker, Kenny Rasch, Ron Lydon, Mark Hays, Gary Wiener, Mark Nauta, and Ed Steffens.

Arrows Lack Height; Key Players Injured

"Although we have four lettermen back from last year we will lack height and that will certainly be a key factor."

If that statement by basketball coach Jerry Meredith is true, the Lowell Red Arrows will need support from somewhere else.

The Arrows two tallest players (aside from a sophomore, Rusty Steffens) are temporarily out of action, due to injuries that occurred during the football season.

Injured are senior Joe Rinard, a 6-1 forward, elected Most Valuable Player and an all-conference selection led the team in rebound last year is out indefinitely due to a knee injury.

Another senior veteran Jim Bovee, a 6-2 center is awaiting recuperation from a broken collar bone before he begins seeing action. If all goes well, he will be back soon after Christmas.

If that's not enough, Meredith will go temporarily without a prospective replacement for several games due to a training rule violation.

All is not completely dim as Meredith still has two other returning lettermen in good shape.

Seniors, Chris Collins, a 5' 10" guard and Pat Herblert. Collins proved to be a big asset to the team last year, netting 165 points. Herblert also a guard has received some Varsity experience and shows quite well defensively.

Also pushing for guard positions are juniors, Kris Kropf and Dan Murphy. Kropf was brought up late last year and saw limited Varsity action. Murphy hit 180 points for the J.V. team last year.

Some outstanding looking junior forwards are 5' 11" Tom Wernet, last year netted 206 J.V. rebounds; Dave Ritterdorf, a good outside shooter; Bernie Harden, a fast player and Joe Ellis, the J.V.'s leading scorer last year.

Brought up for a trial period are sophomores Ken Kropf, who will be a good match for the aggressive Varsity veterans and Rusty Steffens, holding a good chance for a starting position.

Demo Night
Red and White night this Saturday, public invited. They'll see an intra squad scrimmage, a rule clinic and an introduction of the team at 7 p.m.

Where Steamatic succeeded... Steamatic is an entirely new patented process. What it does is break down the static hold your carpet has on dirt, loosen the grime at the carpet base by a controlled heat solution, and then remove the dirt from the fibers all the way down to the backing.

The idea seems simple enough... but it took 40 years to perfect. And no one else has been able to do it. They've made machines that look similar... but none of them have the four patents that make a rug that's superior.

Rotarians Conduct Foreman Memorial Dedication

The Rev. Dean Bailey gives the benediction before Lowell Rotarians and their guests, at Wednesday's Foreman dedication.

Last Wednesday's dedication of the Ernie Foreman Memorial at 4-H fairgrounds, conducted under the auspices of the Lowell Rotary Club, was sparked by many memories, and the good (sometimes unforgetable) deeds of Foreman in his capacity as a fellow club member, poultryman, citizen of the community, and friend to all.

Speaking well for all of Foreman's endeavors were two speeches delivered on this occasion.

Mayor Harold F. Jefferies had this to say:

I am honored to have the opportunity to be here today to pay tribute to Ernie Foreman and his family. I was fortunate to have known Ernie for some 40 years and over all those years he impressed me with his unselfish dedication to this community. Before most of us had serious thoughts about the environment Ernie was already aware of the need to preserve and replace our natural resources.

An outstanding example of Ernie's foresight are the beautiful maple trees in Richard's Park which he had planted while serving on the village council. The building here in Recreation Park is another dream that Ernie had of a summer exhibition building for the 4-H and a winter indoor skating rink.

He sparked the entire project and gave much of his own money and effort to see that it was completed. His hopes of having artificial ice for a long season of skating has not been realized but we still hope that someday this can be installed in this building. Ernie was no glory seeker, he never wanted the spotlight of publicity on his efforts. He saw needs of the community and quietly accomplished his goals. He was dedicated to the interests of the youth of the community and there are many untold tales of help he gave young people in need.

In the organizations of the community he always gave more and received less credit than the rest of us. If ever anyone deserved the good citizen award it was Ernie Foreman.

The Lowell Rotary Club is to be commended for their effort to let the citizens of today and tomorrow know of Ernie Foreman's contribution to Lowell.

Speech by Dr. Howard Zindel

When J. A. Hannah asked me to speak for him at this Memorial Service for Ernie, I was tempted to say "No" for I did not feel adequate, nor did I know the early aspects of M.S.C. — Foreman — Hannah.

Well, here I am, and on behalf of the faculty and staff at Michigan State, I am happy to be in Lowell for this occasion. You know Lowell is almost a second home city to me as I have been coming to Lowell for special occasions — like Chicken Barbeques — The Showboat, etc., etc. My host and hostess have always been Bea and Ernie — in fact, Ernie, many years ago tried to make me a permanent member of the Lowell Community when he offered his hatchery business and breeding stock.

It was a temptation, but I resisted to stay at Michigan State, and I think Hannah was responsible. President Hannah claims that E. C. Foreman was the person who convinced him to leave the University of Michigan where he was studying to be a lawyer, to come to Michigan State College and take Agriculture, specializing in Poultry Husbandry. This he did, and after graduation, Professor Foreman hired him as an Extension Poultryman.

I guess it is a matter of record to report that E. C. Foreman was a "Poultryman's Poultryman." He was known from coast to coast and from Canada through South America for his selection techniques — "Head Typing," and for his S. C. White Leghorn Breeding Stock. His handiwork was forerunner of the present day laying flocks. You probably didn't know that he left his best breeding stock to Michigan State University, and after it was accepted by the Board of Trustees, I now have that stock in our breeding pens.

The University of Guelph in Canada was the recipient of books, periodicals, and monies for their Reference Library which I had the pleasure of visiting this past winter, and it is known as the Foreman Library.

I am purposely not discussing Ernie's activities in youth work and civic projects for you either already know, and someone else will discuss them.

Back to Ernie again — I considered that he was my best friend, and his early demise has left a vacancy that can never be filled, I could discuss problems with him — he was a good listener, and he always gave his honest opinion.

A Tribute...

From the land of the maple leaf, he came to us, He came with no fanfare, and made no fuss, But, like Noah and his animals in the ark — In the Poultry Industry, Ernie's birds made their mark.

Back in the year of '21 Mac hired Canada's favorite son — To lead poultry research and its teaching, The effects have been most far reaching.

Prof. Foreman knew a student at "that other school" Aspiring to law, and was nobody's fool. He convinced John Hannah that this was the college Where a man like he could really gain knowledge.

So "Poultry" John studied — and did graduate; Then to farmers, his learning did disseminate. He brought us others, some you know well. One — A chap by the name of H. C. Zindel.

A friend to the industry, and any who came, Very widespread was Ernie's fame. He loved his home, the youth were his friends, He knew that our future on them did depend. To Lowell he contributed much of his life And smoothed troubled waters when there was strife, The Showboat to him was a very great project, For to improve things in Lowell was its main object.

There were times that were bad And times that were good But right by his side Wife Bea always stood.

This man we revere and so deeply love Is now raising poultry for the Father above, His chair is vacant, but he is not gone — In my heart and yours, he lives on and on.

A full life he lived, but only for others All men in the world he considered his brothers. Truly, he stands "A Man Among Men" The only — The Giant — E. C. Foreman

Paul Detmers, representing the Kent County 4-H Clubs, presents plaque to Mrs. Foreman.
