Board Eyes New Budget With Caution

Members of the Lowell Board of Education appeared to approach the new school budget with caution Monday night as they apparently wanted to make sure that there would be enough money available to take care of any unforeseen costs that might arise.

One item that was tabled for further study was money alloted to pay a full time community service director to coordinate the school-YMCA combined program. As part of the school budget, the salary, for this year at least, would be reimbursed by the State.

Just exactly what percent would be reimbursed is an unknown factor at this point and several board members were unwilling to designate the funds at this time.

Although members felt that the program would probably run more smoothly with a full time paid director, they apparently would like to be certain of the reim-

Superintendent Leonard Sinke reminded the board that a budget is merely a guideline and is not so sacred that it cannot be changed. The board did, however, approve the budget with the stipulation that that particular allocation would receive further study.

Inservice Program

Another item tabled for further study was a proposed Inservice Program. Since the local school system's philosophy is strongly committed to individualized instruction, the Vecta program (whereby a team of teachers, an administrator, and a coordinator would come here for three days to instruct our local teachers) is considered important by both the board and the administra-

The question seems to be just what teachers should

Given three options, Phil Kropf summed up the general feeling of the entire board with, "I'm really in favor of number three but I'm afraid we can probably only afford number one.

The board will consider it further.

Taking Bids

Advertising for bids on the new high school addition will be placed in the Grand Rapids Press.

Approve Proposal

The board reversed its previous decision and voted to approve the placing of the proposal for a new community college in this area before the voting public.

Diploma Policy

The new adult education diploma policy whereby the physical education requirement is waived and credit can prenticeship training was approved unanimously by the board. be given for approved correspondence courses or ap-

Work With Students

Mrs. Nancy Kehoe spoke briefly before the board re-garding the drug problem in Lowell and introduced Todd Johnson and Jim Haveman of Grand Rapids' Project Rehab who were requesting permission to work with stu-dents and teachers in the Lowell School System.

In requesting permission to work with the school staff, Johnson cited several school systems with which Project ReHab is now working and stressed how important it was for them to get into the schools, "where the

Stating that they realized how concerned the Lowell community is with this problem, the board gave its unanimous approval.

Spent Money Wisely

Runciman Principal Dirk Venema held everyone's attention with an unusual report on the inservice program held for all the system's administrators throughout most of the last school year.

Venema noted the difference in administrative philosophy. In the past, subordinates were expected to fol-low the top echelon blindly which sometimes resulted in ill-feeling, misunderstanding and mistrust, he said. lowever, since the inservice program there is a higher trust in one another, genuine mutual support and lack

"With the money you gentlemen spent for this inservice program you actually put together an administrative team ... you spent your money wisely," he con-

Mandatory Law

Don Kelly, assistant superintendent, next told board members of a new law that makes it mandatory for all students and stall members to wear glasses in industrial art classes and chemistry labs. Bids are now being received on the purchase of the glasses which will be assigned to each student involved.

That student must return the glasses to the department at the end of the term or be charged for them.

No Complaints!

In concluding the meeting, board members remarked on the absence of parents attending the first board session of the new school year. "Always before there have been many here with complaints . . . mostly about bus scheduling," President Reagan remarked. "Are we to take this as an indication that things are running well?"

Superintendent Sinke nodded affirmatively but when Dave Wingeier took it one step further to ask, "In other words, we've got nothing to worry about?"
Sinke quietly said, "Well, I wouldn't say that."

Gould Found 'Not' Guilty

Michael Gould, 17, of Saranac, charged with negli-gent homicide by State Police following investigation of the death of Pamela Haskins of Saranac last May was found not guilty last Wednesday by a circuit court jury of 12 persons.

The accident allegedly took place when Gould started to pass a large truck on the highway, as the girl re-portedly was walking in the middle of the southside

Represented by Attorney William Goggins of Alma, Gould who denied he was guilty of the charge, allegedly was unable to avoid striking the girl.

The jury deliberated about 20 minutes following Judge Leo Bebeau's instruction before returning the verdict declaring the youth was innocent of the negligent homicide charge.

Places Issue On Ballot

A referendum on a controversial rezoning has been placed on the November 7 ballot by the Ada Township

The referendum was requested in a citizen petition containing 483 names. Township Clerk Kenneth Anderson told the Board Monday that 307 valid signatures were required to place the measure on the ballot. The petitions had been checked, and certification was given by the board.

The action had its origins in a request by Ladd Building Company to rezone 57.2 acres from R3, residential, to R1, planned development, for construction of 457 condominium units. After public hearings, the Planning Commission recommended approval, given by the board after receiving clearance from the Kent County Planning Commision.

Association Opposed

The petitions were circulated by members of the Adacroit Association which opposed the rezoning. The property is west of Ada at the end of Rix Street, south of E. Fulton Street (M-21). It lies north of Adacroft Commons, also developed by Ladd, and originally was part of a 365-acre site zoned for single-family develop-

In another action involving Ladd Building, the board gave preliminary approval to Adatowne No. 2 plat, containing 41 lots south of Rix Street. Approval was contingent on extension of Rix Street to give access to E. Fulton Street, and on revision of the completion date for the Rix Street project in a letter of credit for $54,500 from Old Kent Bank & Trust Company.

Clearances for the Rix street extension have been received by Ladd including Michigan Public Service Commission approval of extending the street across the Grand Trunk Western Railroad tracks. The bank letter of credit originally had set the completion date for December 1, 1973.

Residents of the Rix Street area opposed the December 1 date, contending that traffic from Adatowne No. 1 and No. 2 plats and the proposed condominium would cause problems unless the Rix Street extension were completed at the earliest possible date.

Start Legal Action

The board authorized township officials to start kegal action against Peter Botma Plumbing in connection with a sewer hookup which Anderson said was made without inspection by the Kent County Department of Public Works. Anderson said the property owners and contractor had been advised earlier that DPW inspection was necessary. He said the connection was made and covered over, and blacktop installed without proper inspection. The matter was referred to Township Attorney Carl Fleetwood.

Anderson announced that October 6 is the last day for registration for the November 7 presidential election. Those who can't register during regular office hours will be accommodated by appointment, he said.

Amway, Nutrilite Combine Forces

Amway Corporation of Ada and Nutrilite Products, Inc., of Buena Park, California, announce they have joined forces, with Amway acquiring a controlling stock interest in Nutrilite.

For the present, the companies will continue to operate as they are, but it is planned that early in 1973, the two distributor organizations and the product lines will be integrated. Both companies will continue to operate at their present facilities, and the integrated product lines will be made available to all distributors.

Jay VanAndel and Richard DeVos, chairman of the Board and president of Amway, respectively, will serve the same capacities with Nutrilite.

Dr. Stefan Tenkoff will continue as chief executive of Nutrilite with the title of executive vice-president and treasurer. Dr. Sam Rehnborg, son of the founder of Nutrilite, continues as vice-president of the company and director of research.

Cyclist Is Hurt

Timothy Bettin, of 740-2nd Street, Grand Rapids, sustained minor injuries after he lost control of his motorcycle in loose gravel. Bettin apparently tried to go around a patrol car on East Fulton at Cumberland Avenue Saturday afternoon.

The officer in the patrol car was investigating another minor accident at the time.

A camper, which was for sale on the Smith-Clemenz lot, was relieved of the cushions valued at approximately $100. The larceny occurred over the weekend and is under investigation.

Lowell Police were called to a local residence on September 7 on an overdose complaint. The subject was given mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and taken to Butterworth Hospital where he recovered.

A personal injury accident on Main Street, involving a motorcycle driven by Narcisco Antancio Vasques of Grand Rapids was reported on September 12. Vasques and the person (name unknown) riding with him, were taken to Butterworth Hospital. The matter is still under investigation.

A larceny was reported on September 9 by Jackson Motors. Two tires and wheels were stolen, valued at $134. The matter is being investigated.

Barry Emmons states that during the summer there were many reports of stolen bicycles and warns owners to secure their bikes.

Home Is Entered

A tire iron was used to pry the door open at the Cal-vin Brooks residence at 2615 Alden Nash Avenue, Lowell, last week by thieves who walked off with two pistols and rare coins and bills.

Brooks reported to Kent County Sheriff's Deputies that two tear gas pistols, cartridges and $250 in rare coins and bills were missing.

School Split Subject At FH Central's Opening Day

school year at Forest Hills Central.

siderably: enrollment is now at 950, about the correct number for a school of Forest Hill's size. Last year enrollment stood at 1,400 students.

The split also created some problems. As last year's Junior class was unaffected by the change, this year's senior class is almost twice as big as any other class.

Vunk stressed that all students should try toward class equality, and Mr. De Jonge stated that he wished "ail of you to consider yourselves Forest Hills Central Rangers rather than ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth graders." He also stated that, although many students have friends in Central's sister school, "Northern is now a separate school, and we are going to do everything in our power to be Number One wherever we meet." Assumedly, Central-Northern sports competition

Mr. De Jonge also announced several innovations at Forest Hills Central this year, including a new science laboratory, carpeting in the halls, and Student Commons. Nine week, rather than six week grading periods were instituted, and hopefully in a few years more specialized short courses will be adapted to this system.

He ended with a plea for students to take good care of school property. "We mailed out 600 letters in June because of lost books and materials!" he said.

Violates Speed Law

A rear-end collision occurred last Wednesday when Alan Willison, 16, of Saranac, was struck from behind by a car driven by Bernard Seese, 30, also of Saranac. Willison had stopped for a left turn into a service sta-tion on Nash Highway, north of I-96. Seese said he was unable to stop to avoid hitting Willison, and was ticket ed for violating the basic speed law.

Mother's Club Is Great Asset

On Tuesday, September 19, the first monthly meeting of the new school year, for the Alto Area Mother's Club will be held at the school.

The past several years have proven the club to be very productive and a great asset to the Community of Alto and its school.

Projects such as the annual Spring Carnival, Book and Science Fairs, Donut sales, etc., have provided the school and its students with up-to-date science equipment, phonographs for the classrooms, a new opaque projector, books for the library and many more facilities to aid in the children's education.

The monthly meetings offer a variety of entertainment from speakers on the most profound issues to a style show of handmade fashions produced by the nothers, themselves.

Demolish

Several Cascade residents gathered recently to watch the demolition of the old church personage which had stood at the corner of Hurley and Orange Streets for a period of ninety years, housing some fifteen pastors (and families) at Cascade Christian Church through the years.

In more recent years a rental property, the old parsonage was torn down to make way for two new educational and social units which are scheduled to be under construction within a few weeks.

The cost of the current building program will run better than a quarter million dollars, making room for much expansion on the part of this congrega-tion which has gone from 80 to over 800 members in a twenty-year span.

Glad Day, Sunday

Sunday will be a special 'Glad Day' for the children in their Christian Education at the First United Methodist Church of Lowell. Everyone is welcome to the special program held in the sanctuary at 9:45 a.m.

The dedication of a classroom in memory of Mrs. Georgia L. Gosney, wife of our Associate Minister, will be at this time in recognition of her outstanding service to the church through her nursery home work. Plan to attend this service Sunday, and make this a very 'Glad Day' for the children.

Children's Choir

Mrs. Gerald (Sandy) Meredith will direct the children's choir this year at the First United Methodist Church of Lowell.

They will begin their practice Wednesday, September 13, at 4 p.m. at the church. The choir includes all children kindergarten through fourth grade.

Noodles, Strudles Another Meeting

Jabber . . . by Jane

Each year the starting of school signals the return to living life according to a schedule, and, for many people, the resuming of monthly meetings, weekly meetings, committee meetings, board meetings, sales meetings and meetings to plan meetings. Some even may have to decide which meeting they are going to attend on a particular night.

One wonders what would happen if a moratorium were called on all meetings for a year. Would the world suddenly stop turning? Would government, business. industry, the church and charitable organizations collapse like a house of cards?

Or would there then be time enough to do some of the noble deeds designed but often never delivered? Would there be time to turn our good intentions into worthwhile works?

Probably not. And think of the chaos that would be created! Having to plan a full course dinner every night. could send housewives into a veritable tizzy! Being able to serve hot dogs or TV dinners a couple of nights a week takes the pressure from the chore of meal planning and is especially helpful if the little woman has a meeting the same night as hubby. "But you can't be home for dinner tonight,-it's my bowling night," bawls Betty the bowler in disbelief.

Thursday nights, so how about some of those good homemade noodles and roast beef tonight?" asks John the joiner, as he swallows his instant breakfast.

"Pick up some hamburgs-and don't be funny. I have a dental appointment this morning and I'm playing bridge this afternoon-when would I have time for noodles?" Betty the bowler babbles as she banishes the brood off to school.

Unanimously carried. Notice of the filing of the Complaint against the City by the Water Resources Commission. Mayor Anderson was asked by Council to sum up the complaint, rather than read the lengthy manuscript. He explained what had been done up to date and then read the various orders not complied with which triggered the action of the Attorney General. He also stated that Lowell is not alone in this in this matter, that many other communicaties are facing the same legal situation, adding also that he had received a phone call from a Councilman in Vicksburg, Michigan, that their treated sewage was being emptied into a creek flowing into a resort lake. Their total cost of this operation per year is $120, per customer. It was recommended that Vicksburg install a "Spray Irrigation System," which would cost approximately $20 per month, per customer.

Under remarks from the audience, Mr. Pete Worden representing the Lowell Area Jaycees, proposed that they be allowed to reopen the concession stand at Recreation Park. The profits to be used to refurbish the softball diamond grandstand. He stated that they would need a water line hook-up, and that there is a drinking fountain located at the grand stand so a main is apparently there. It was noted that this property is owned by the Low-ell Area Schools, and Mr. Worden was directed to contact School officials about this project. It was also noted that perhaps the City might be able to help with some of the cost of the project, and that the Council was in favor of the idea.

Mr. James Carr of Williams and Works stated that at a combined meeting of the Department of Public Works, HUD Officials, and City Council, the Post Bid Addendum for contracts was outlined to incorporate the HUD requirements. It has been prepared by Williams and Works.

It was then suggested that Council authorize the Kent County Department of Public Works to secure necessary engineering for the Sanitary Sewer-Storm Water Separation Project from Beech Street to Gee Drive, and Center Street to Heffron Street, and to include Foreman Drive.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Hall, supported by McCambridge that the authorization to secure the necessary engineering be granted.

Yes: Hall, McCambridge, Mueller, Anderson.

No: Jefferies. Under Council reports and remarks, Mayor Anderson stated that he had received a copy of a bill sent to Lyle Covert by the City for a water line mistakenly laid through a sewer line by him on Elizabeth Street. When it was first dug up, it was inspected by the City and thought to be an abandoned sewer, therefor the water line was installed. It has been dug up twice since and recently found to be an active sewer line. A discussion followed, in which Councilman Hall felt that the City really has no recourse but to cancel the bill to Mr. Covert, since the City had inspected the sewer line at the time it was dug up.

It was then suggested that no action be taken at this time, but that the City Manager be asked to review the situation. Council will act upon his recommendation at a later meeting.

Mayor Anderson then adjourned the meeting at 9:05 p.m. Approved: September 5, 1972.

The Explore program for women under the leader-ship of Janet Hays sponsored by the YWCA's Continu-ing Education Department will be presented for six weeks beginning Tuesday, September 19, from 9:30 to 12 noon at First Congregational Church, 7339 Bronson in Ada. An invitation to join us is extended to all wom-en in the area regardless of education, economic or cul-tural background.

Explore offers a unique experience in self-evaluation. Each woman has the opportunity to consider the recouraged to look ahead to a period when these condi tions may change. It is the goal of Explore to assist women toward a more fulfilling role in today's world.

Through discussion, reading and group activities, participants will consider continuing education, career xpectations and creative volunteer work. Explore offers a real chance for personal growth and opportunity to share with others. In addition to the six week series, Explore maintains a one year support system through opportunities for testing in aptitude, vocational, and through counseling for personal or family concerns.

More information may be obtained from Janet Hays, YWCA Continuing Education Director 459-4681 or by contacting Phyllis Bieri 897-8258 or Pat Miller 8977195. Cost of the program is $25 plus a basic YWCA

Six Openings At Service Academies

Congressman Gerald R. Ford today announced six openings at the service academies for interested young men from the Fifth Congressional District. One with the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, another with the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, and four with the U. S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs are being offered to high school seniors who are U. S. citizens, under 22 years of age, never married, and able to pass the medical, physical and scholastic requirements of the respective academies.

Applications for these positions can be obtained from Jerry Ford's office at 425 Cherry Street, S.E. in Grand Rapids (telephone 456-9747) and from his Washington, D. C. office. The deadline for filing the applications is September 25.

when many people will not even talk about it. Dr. Prothro said, "The spread of venereal disease has reached alarming proportions. The problem is everywhere: it is not restricted to any economic, racial or ethnic group. Young people must be informed so that they will understand the facts about venereal disease. If they have become infected, it is important that they recognize the symptoms in the early stages when professional medical care will prevent permanent damage. Thirteen returning lettermen spark the roster for the 1972 football team at Lowell Senior High School.

Opening the season this Friday night, at 8 p.m. in a non-league annual grudge game with the Ionia Bulldogs, the Red Arrows will have the returning services of Gary Barber, Kris Kropf, Dave Avery, Dan Mendez, Bernie Harden, Mark Billock, John Curtis, Don Phillips, Tom Martinez, Bruce Wingeier, Ken Kropf, Rusty Steffens and Tom Wernet

Varsity Coach Al Rowe and his assistants, Richard Brennan and Al Eckman are looking 'for a good' season. "The experience we have," Rowe commented, "will be our most valuable asset."

Their second gridiron encounter will be a non-league home game, September 22, against Ovid-Elsie. The first Tri-River conference game will be played at Recreation Park against Belding. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Rowe emphasized, we have an average weight team this year—the heaviest 200 lbs., lightest, 130— and should add greatly to our speed and mobility—His 1972 Roster includes:

Cooper Fields Five, Gilmore Adds Three

Somewhat famous for his ability to lean out of his saddle and pick up a polo ball with his hand, Dick Cooper proved he could do more than that last Sunday as he scored five big points in a match against the Lakwood

Playing at Detroit, the Kentree Reds came home with an overwhelming 8-5 win. Kentree led the game all the Cooper, a local patent attorney who was liberated from the ranks of the Western horseman six years ago, has been a great addition to Kentree ever since. He was the 1971 president of the Kentree Polo Club and is certainly one of the most agile polo players in the country. His performance Sunday was overpowering.

"Gomez" (Gene Gilmore) known as one of the most colorful players at Kentree, fielded the three remaining goals Sunday, using his aggressive style that is exciting

Gilmore has played for 12 seasons. His training in sales as an agent for Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company carries over to polo, as he had led many interested horsemen to play at Kentree. He was Kentree's highest scorer last year, and holds a national out door handicap rating of one goal.

It wasn't all roses over the weekend, as the Kentree Whites suffered a 5-1 defeat at the hands of the Detroit Polo Club, on the field at Milford, Michigan. Kentree's only goal was made by Scott MacIntyre,

Open Hunting On Private Lands

Over 2,000 farms in Michigan with over 100,000 acres are open for 1972 public hunting. Arthur Rowley, Chairman of the Michigan State Agricultural Stablization and Conservation Service (ASCS) Committee, announces that, again, farm lands throughout Michigan will provide areas without charge for public hunting.

Rowley further states that the majority of these farms is in the lower one-third of the State in the best pheasant and rabbit areas. Any hunters wishing a list of these farms may contact their local county ASCS office or the Michigan State ASCS Office and obtain a list which shows the location by town, range and sec-

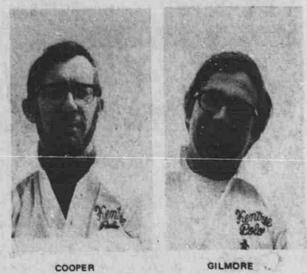

The only requirements for the hunting privilege is that each person will be provided a self-addressed post card questionnaire by the land owner so that the U.S. Department of Agriculture may have an appraisal of All hunters should contact the land owner and re-spect any rules and regulations he might have pertain-ing to his particular farm.

Pressure on Salmon

Cool weather has sparked the fish into action. Inland lake fishing has improved considerably with many fine catches of bluegills, bass, and pike. Wabasis, Murray, Bostwick, and Morrison Lakes have been yielding sizeable catches of bluegills and are also a good bet for northern pike. The Grand and Thornapple Rivers are favorites for bass, pike, and catfish.

Salmon fishing in Lake Michigan is showing great promise especially near Muskegon. The salmon are schooling near the mouths of the rivers and feeding handly before miserial to the salmon and the salmon are schooling near the mouths of the rivers and feeding heavily before migrating upstream to spawn. A new state record was set by a 15-year-old youth when he caught a 43 pound, 3 ounce chinook salmon in Muskegon Lake. The small game opener is just slightly over a month away and hunters should be getting themselves and their dogs in shape. Action on ducks, coots, rails, gallimules, and jacksnipe begins October 1, so these hunters have even less time to prepare for the opener. Sportsmen should also note National Hunting and Fishing Day on September 23. What do you do on hunting and fishing day? Why hunt and fish, of course.

Shuffleboard is her game, but at 72, Mrs. Louise Harrington of Cannonsburg finds pool 'challenging.

Louise

"I may not be the fastest performer around the ta-ble, but I can keep up with the best of them," project-ed 72-year-old Louise Harrington as she prepared for the break in the Wednesday night tournament at Pete's on East Main Street.

Joining a group of gals from Freeport, Cannonsburg and Lowell, Louise who has played pool for many a year, finds the weekly outing a restful one. "We all have a good time," she added, "and it's good to put a little competitiveness into one's daily life."

The gals, coached along the sidelines by Roy Rinard and George Miles, have only a few more weeks of play left, before they will hang their sticks up, and wait for the next session to begin.

Although Louise professes that her speciality is shuffleboard, her ability on the pool table is termed "tough competition.

Darlene Farrell currently holds the lead in the league which plays every Wednesday night at Pete's, starting at 8 p.m. Eloise Hitcombe is second, followed by a third place tie between Sharon Miles and Marge Rich-

Other gals enjoying the Wednesday night outing are Pam Brovent, Marion Vandenberg, Bev Taylor, Sandy Rusco, and Penny and Rose Lausausky.

'We're always open for competition," the gals agreed, and issued an invitation for all women who like to play pool, to stop in and join them.

Mayor's Proclamation

PROCLAMATION

The Constitution of the United States is the very cornerstone on which our system of government is based and it provides the guide upon which the American way of life is patterned.

The foresight and the dedication of early Americans in the construction of this document which provided freedom and justice, not only during their era but for posterity as well, are something for which we should all be extremely thankful.

The United States Congress has designated the week of September 17 of each year as "Constitution Week" so that we as Americans can become better aware of our priceless heritage and the freedom and ideals set forth in this document.

Therefore, I, Carlen Anderson, Mayor of the City of Lowell, Michigan do hereby proclaim September 17 as CITIZENSHIP DAY

And the period beginning September 17 and ending Sep-
