State's Orders

Marker Stone To Be Returned

The disputed removal of the marker stone and bronze plaque commemorating Rix Robinson, which has caused an uprising among Ada area residents and Amway Corporation has been settled. It will be returned.

In a letter to Ada engineer, Benjamin Smith, John P. Woodford, Deputy Director, Chief Engineer, Department of State Highways, wrote:

"Please be advised that the Department of State Highways had no prior knowledge of the memorial's removal and would not have given permission had a request been submitted. The Department has always been in support, wherever possible, of the State's historical past, and we could be no less so in this instance.

"By copy of this letter, I am requesting Charles Brook, our District Engineer in Grand Rapids to arrange for the return of the memorial by Amway Corporation to its original site."

Amway officials have "fairly definitely decided" to cart the monument back to where they found it . . . they await the decision of surveyors on who owns what.

Amway shifted the three-ton marker, dedicated in 1927 to Robinson, to the lawn of their Free Enterprise Building recently. Robinson reputedly was the first white man to settle in Kent County.

The property near the original resting place of the rock, 7236 East Fulton Road, is owned by Amway. However, the stone was embedded on the state's right-of-way.

The controversy, which flared up last week, brought in varied comments from Robinson's descendants. His great-great-grandniece, Opal Robinson Graham of Muskegon said "They (Amway) had no right to the monument, even if they did own the land. You wouldn't go into a cemetery and remove a monument. I don't know why they'd try it with this one. It's the consensus of the family that the memorial should stay right where it was or as close as possible."

There has been such a stir of interest in Robinson's history during the past week that plans to include a park-like area around the rock are being formulated for the future when M-21 is widened in 1974.

Blanket of Snow Covers Area

Tuesday morning area motorists found their cars heavy-laden with a white blanket of that oh-so-wonderful stuff called "snow." The situation found many complaining, some shoveling, and other shrugging their shoulders as they mumbled "it's here!"

Ladies, the response to our "Recipe Corner" has been great! This week read a recipe for pumpkin pie, a new way to fix turkey, and helpful hints from our readers. All items accepted—send them to the Lowell Ledger, Box 128.

Cascade Library Changes Hours For Holidays

Cascade Branch Library, member of the Kent County Library System announced a change in hours for Thanksgiving Week.

They will be closed Thanksgiving Day but will be open Friday, November 24, from 1 p.m. till 8 p.m.

Voters Follow State Trend

Lowell voters, turning out in record numbers, seemed to be voting very close to the way the rest of Michigan voted in last Tuesday's General-Presidential election.

Lowell voters gave strong margins to President Richard Nixon over Senator George McGovern, Senator Robert Griffin over Frank Kelly in the State Senate race, and House Majority Leader Gerald Ford over Jean McKeen.

Turning out a general-Republican majority, the voters tallied the largest single votes for Sheriff Ronald Parsons (747).

In election figures, released by City Hall, 1,247 voters went to the polls from a register of 1,680, for 74.2 percent.

The precinct tallies showed Robin Walter, Democrat outpolling his Republican opponent Martin Butz, 365 to 558. Arnold Wittenbach collected 687 votes while his contender for the 3rd District Commissioner's post, Kloostrra got 433.

On Proposal No. 1, the Liquor-By-the-Glass issue in the City of Lowell, the citizenry 693-433 gave their approval.

Local voters turned down State Proposals A, B, C, and D, approving only Proposal E (veteran's bonuses).

Vergennes Township

Out of a total of 690 registered voters in Vergennes Township, 590 went to the polls, and unanimously gave their support to Nixon. There was no local contests or propositions; Carl Kropf is the new township supervisor.

Bowne Township

Richard Johnson received no opposition for the trustee's job in Bowne Township as 538 voters cast their ballots. The township has 638 registered voters.

Ada Township

The zoning referendum in Ada Township was flatly defeated by 1,550 no votes, however, 472 voters voted yes for the controversial issue. The vote defeated Ordinance Amendment No. 522721, making it no longer in effect.

Out of the total number of votes cast, 2,146, President Nixon polled 1,489; McGovern 566. Ada has 2,513 registered voters.

Lowell Township

Eighty percent of the voters in Lowell Township voted last Tuesday. Nixon took 619 votes, while McGovern had 325. Of the registered citizens, 982 went to the polls.

Cascade Township

With no local proposals on the ballot, residents of Cascade Township voted early, and went home to watch the returns. Three thousand of the 3,345 registered voters in the township cast their ballots, supporting President Nixon with 2,153; McGovern 598.

Grattan Township

It was a cut and dried election day in Grattan Township, with 85 percent of the voters exercising their right to vote. There were no local contests or propositions.

Accident!

Mrs. Sam (Ida) Yeiter of rural Lowell was critically injured in a two car collision Tuesday morning north of Vergennes Road, on Lincoln Lake Avenue.

The accident occurred when Mrs. Yeiter lost control of her car and hit a vehicle driven by Robert Schneider.

Schneider, enroute deer hunting, was also hospitalized with multiple injuries. His condition is fair.

Pertinent details were not available at press time.

Above The Board

Sports Interest Running Low

What started out as a discussion of girls' basketball progressed to concern over the athletic program in general at Monday night's board meeting.

Some board members questioned the advisability of paying for coaching of the girls team when less than 30 were apparently interested enough to take part.

High school Principal Dennis McMahon stated that he was not worried about it at this point since it was a very new program and the girls were not really experienced enough to compete with other schools. He added that he expects next year's team to be more successful and to have more girls taking part.

Another board member raised the question of why more senior high boys don't go out for football and why more students are not taking advantage of the new intra-mural program.

Is it the fault of the students? the parents? television? the athletic staff or general lack of communication between buildings and staff members? These are a few of the questions the board would like answered.

Board President Robert Reagan wearily shook his head saying, "I don't know how we'll find time for any more meetings, but I think it is important enough so that we possibly should meet with the personnel involved and see what we can come up with."

Split Vote

The board split five to two on awarding the contract for carpeting the new Middle School, and the High School addition, to Sullivan's Furniture with the low bid of $73,900.

In voicing his objection to giving the nod to Sullivan, Phil Kropf stated that the bidder closest to Sullivan was a local company and, since it is probably the only item in the entire building project that could be purchased locally, he felt that it should go to the Lowell firm even though the quoted price was $5,000 higher.

Several other board members opined that a lot of other things could be done with the $5,000 and they felt the board should go with the low bidder whoseup on Kropf countered with, "the local man has probably more than paid the difference in the school taxes he has paid and will continue to pay." Kropf also cited several instances where the local bidder has been of definite help to the school system and stood firm in his decision.

Dr. Reagan went along with Kropf in voting against Sullivan stating that he was not altogether convinced that Sullivan's carpet met the specifications. He said that, under the circumstances, he wanted a roll call on the voting and the bid was awarded to Sullivan with the understanding that a sample of the delivered carpet would be tested by a company approved by the board before Sullivan is paid.

Need Secretary

The board next instructed Superintendent Leonard Sinke to place an ad in local papers in an attempt to secure a professional secretary to record the minutes of all board meetings.

Safety Guards

A brief discussion was held concerning the bridge over Cherry Creek and a suggestion was made that when the pathway is completed, perhaps Valley Vista mothers might volunteer to serve as safety guards for their children who take the route over the railroad track to school.

Inservice Sessions

It was finally agreed to open the Vecta Inservice session to all teachers, kindergarten through grade 12. The three day meetings, yet to be scheduled, will include sessions on open classroom, individualized instruction and team teaching.

One evening will be set aside for parents and board members to attend.

Transfer Denied

Requests by two families, Schrottenboer and McAfee, to transfer property from Lowell to Forest Hills was denied.

Bids Open

Bids were opened on bus bodies and chassis and referred to the transportation committee for evaluation and recommendation.

Bids were also opened for snow removal and the contract was awarded to Bieri whose bid was by far the lowest.

Ada Woman Injured As Vehicles Collide

An Ada woman was taken to Blodgett Memorial Hospital for treatment of minor injuries following an accident on Vergennes Road, one mile east of Pettis. Jeanette Hammond, of 8697 Vergennes, was a passenger in a car driven by Alcott Hammond, when the mishap occurred.

Apparently Hammond was unable to see the oncoming vehicle of James Davis, of 428 Crawford, as he attempted to make a left hand turn into his driveway on Vergennes. The Davis vehicle had just come over a hill and was unable to avoid the collision.

BITS O' BUSINESS

Most makers of political campaign buttons complain that business this year was far below what it was in the 1968 presidential year . . . Consumers have been subject to long delays in furniture they ordered. The reason: high consumer demand plus labor shortages.

Finkler Hurt In Pettis Crash

Dennis Finkler, 19, of 413 N. Monroe, Lowell was taken to Blodgett Memorial Hospital early Saturday morning following an accident on Pettis Road near Honey Creek Avenue, Ada.

Finkler was eastbound on Pettis and lost control of his car when he rounded a curve. The car traveled over a curb and down an embankment, striking two other vehicles.

Finkler was not seriously hurt and was cited for careless driving.

Loose Goose Sparks Shoot

Who would have thought that a web-footed, flat-billed bird, larger than a duck, but smaller than a swan, could have given to many people so much trouble, and a barrel of laughs, all at the same time.

If the goose ganders, so ganders the goose, and it did Sunday, all over the shooting site of the Alto Sportsmen's Club on Timpson Avenue. Live prizes up for grabs in the Club's open feather shoot, went on the ramp when claimed by their new owners (sometimes with the aid of a helping hand).

It was like a three-ring circus, when Dave Risner enlisted the aid of his fellow sportsmen to retrieve his loose goose, while Tom Packer was last seen disappearing into the woods to find his Thanksgiving turkey.

A slight drizzling rain fell at times, but so did the clay pigeons as thirty-eight rounds were hurled from the trap house, catching the marksmen off-guard periodically.

Claiming cornish hens were Ralph Colby, R. Kelley, Jeff Lott and Roger Weeks. Chickens were won by Gary Lott, Richard DeGreen, Howard Hobbs, Gus Sealey, Mark Craig, Rog Cooper, Ron Ward, Jeff Lott, Jim Callahan, Dave Risner, Dan Krauss, Ray Murray, Bill Gilbert and Ralph Colby.

The four prize-Mallards were taken by Jim Callahan, Ted Rybecki, Carl Hinnebaugh and C. Kelley. Red Shepard and Dave Risner claimed the geese, while Ron Ward and Tom Packer became the proud recipients of the gobblers.

A staff of working wives, put on a delicious meal, for the shooters and spectators, while the sportsmen prepared for the final shoot of the day for the coveted feather and top honors.

Garry McWhinney of Lowell became the "boss of the toss," and staved off the challenge of Dave Risner, to walk off with the stake of the day.

Because of deer hunting season, the Club will take a two week's vacation before going into their winter schedule.

Hoag Arrives At Ft. Hood

Army Private Michael L. Hoag, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne L. Hoag, 6074 Bancroft, Alto, recently arrived at Ft. Hood, Texas, to begin training as an Armored Crewman with Company A, 2nd Battalion of the 2nd Armored Division's 67th Armor under the Army's unit of choice enlistment program.

During his eight weeks of training, he will learn to fire the tank's armament and small weapons, in addition to receiving instruction in field radio operation, map reading, and tank maintenance and repair.

Pvt. Hoag, who enlisted specifically for assignment with the 2nd division, will be guaranteed a minimum of 16 months of service with the unit upon his completion of training on November 21.

Pvt. Hoag entered the Army last June and received basic training at Ft. Knox, Kentucky.

He is a 1972 graduate of Lowell High School.

Signs Removed At RR Track Where 4 Perished

Motorists traveling on Alden Nash Road (M-50) have noticed the removal of the stop signs at the railroad tracks near 60th Street. The signs were erected soon after three youngsters of the Dale Benjamin family and Carl Kaechele perished in a mishap August 11.

According to Mike Jones, of the Michigan Highway Department, the signs were placed after he received a call from the Kent County Sheriff's Department regarding the signals at the tracks. Apparently there was some belief that the signals might not have been functioning properly. Law enforcement agencies searched for a pickup with a camper that may have narrowly escaped collision seconds before the Kaechele vehicle struck the train.

Jones stated that the stop signs were placed in order to give the railroad company (C&I) a chance to check the signals. C&O reported that the signals were functioning properly so the signs were removed.

Mr. Keith Graham of 12019-52nd Street, reported Tuesday morning that their family cat had wandered away from home or had been picked up.

The pet, a jet black siamese mix, is called "F-F-e." If anyone in the area, has seen the cat, Mrs. Graham would like them to call 868-5486.

Gary McWhinney of Alto was among the 4-H Club members who received recognition of their performance in State 4-H Judging contests, at the 13th Annual Dairy Banquet November 1 at the Cuterville Christian School.

Along with Phil Knisely of Sparta, Debbie Dean of Rockport, and Dean Anderson of Kent City, McWhinney was a member of the first place team. They received trophies sponsored by Production Credit Association of Grand Rapids.

Presenting the WEY'S representatives Steve Smith, left, and Eric Clark, center, with an extremely durable 4x4x4 foot tri-walled export carton which was donated by Attwood Corporation's Vice-President and General Manager, Donald Rocheleau. The carton will be used to ship hundreds of used textbooks collected by the WEY'S organization to Calabar, Nigeria, to assist in educating their young people.

Witnessing Enthusiastic Youth (WEY'S) organization of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints for the Grand Rapids District realized the fruits of their labors Monday, November 13.

The onset of this endeavor began last spring when Eric Clark, a member of the WEY'S Commission, was approached by a college student from Nigeria, who was deeply concerned about the education of the people in his home town of Calabar and wanted to know if there wasn't something that could be done to alleviate the situation. Between the two of them, they decided that the procurement of used textbooks would be an excellent way to approach the problem. It was then that Eric offered the assistance of the WEY'S and when he presented them with the challenge, they accepted very enthusiastically, for what better way was there to serve God than being a witness for him through the servanthood of man.

They began collecting books from the Grand Rapids District, which includes Alaska, Allegan, Grand Valley, Greenville, Ionia, Kalamazoo, Muskegon, Northview, Union, and Hastings Branches of the Saints Church. They were ultimately able to secure the funds necessary to cover the shipping costs through such fund raising events as a pancake supper, a chili supper, car washes, etc. Many people along with the youth members and non-members alike, are to be commended for unselfish donations of their time, books, and monies for this beautiful example of servanthood.

The books will be packaged and shipped in an extremely durable 4' x 4' x 4' tri-walled export carton, which was generously donated by Attwood Corporation of Lowell. The destination of these books is a mission school in Calabar, Nigeria, where they will arrive sometime in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Yeiter and Harry were Saturday dinner guests of Doris and Floyd Yeiter and enjoyed pictures of their recent trip to Mexico and the southern states.

Bladey Aviation Electronics Tech

Marine Pfc. George J. Bladey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Bladey of 8570 Dygert Drive, Alto, has completed the Aviation Electronics Technician School at Millington, Tennessee.

Aviation Electronics Technicians maintain radar, radio and other guidance systems aboard naval aircraft.

He is a 1969 graduate of Caledonia High School, Caledonia.

Bruce Bergy of Bergy Brothers Elevator will be the superintendent of the 41st Annual West Michigan Livestock Show, December 12-14, at the Civic Auditorium in Grand Rapids.

Nursing Home Opens

All hallways in constant view of nurses' station. Hand-rail along walls aids those needing support.

Cherry Creek Nursing Home, North Center Street, in Lowell opened its doors officially last Friday when the first ten patients were admitted. More are expected daily, according to Gov. Ramjeet, administrator.

The attractive 122-bed facility is the only nursing home licensed by the State of Michigan Department of Public Health within the City and provides both basic and skilled nursing care.

Of steel and concrete construction the building is 95 percent fireproof.

Excellent taste in decorating is noted throughout the home. Bedrooms give a cheerful appearance with brightly colored spreads on the walnut framed beds.

Wide carpeted hallways with handrails, call lights above each bedroom door, wide doorways to allow passage of wheelchairs, and the two nursing stations designed to give a clear view of the hallways were some of the fine features observed.

Two large day rooms with color TV will also provide a place for conversation or games.

Preference is being given to local persons before accepting others from outside, Ramjeet stated.

Among the first residents to arrive Friday were Mrs. Mary Curtis (the very first, she said), Mrs. Adella Biggs, Mrs. Bert Myers and Jay Joelens.

Talking Turkey

The race and the pace has ended for the players in the political arena. Their fate has been decided. They have ridden to their glory—or demise—amidst a swelling crescendo of sound and fury in those final days before November 7, 1972. The judges have determined the winners within the privacy of the polling place.

There is no doubt the entire campaign experience is a "bone-crushing" ordeal for the politicians... but it is not exactly easy for John Doe, the voter, either.

When you consider your pull of the levers in that little voting booth might be the deciding factor which could alter the course of history—"is a great responsibility and cannot be carried lightly."

But now it is time to put away the crying towels... or to stop smirking in smug jubilation.

Thanksgiving Day will soon be here—it does come before Christmas, though a quick walk through the merchandising emporiums would lead one to believe we were spent in feasting. I surely shall add to my list of things to be thankful for—that the feast day is now only a one-day affair... It has always been my own personal opinion (though undeclared until now) that the time it takes to destroy—or devour—a perfectly beautiful meal is about five minutes—a shamefully short time for so much creativity!

About the only great decisions that have to be made for Thanksgiving are where the family will partake of the feast and what the fare will be. Turkey? Chicken? Ham?—Or maybe something exotic like grouse under glass—or is it pheasant?

No matter—Thanksgiving without turkey is like apple pie without some cheese, or a kiss without a squeeze.

The blending of the aromas of turkey, dressing, pumpkin pie and all the other accompaniments are enough to satiate the appetite of the cook before the feast ever reaches the table. Maybe this is the reason the next night's left-overs always taste better.

Politicians really appreciate Thanksgiving in election year—it's a relief to switch from talking Turkey to eating it!

Happy Turkey-gobbling everybody!

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Roth-Gerst Chapel. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery.

Collect Used Books

Members of Whatsoever Circle of Blodgett Memorial Hospital are collecting used books, paperback and hard cover, for their 13th annual used-book sale to be held in Eastbrook Mall this Spring.

Service and Dinner For Senior Citizens

Many years ago, a tradition was begun at the Cascade Christian Church to invite senior members of the church and community (over 70 years of age) to a turkey dinner, with all the trimmings and a program, on the Tuesday, prior to Thanksgiving Day.

In more recent years a Thanksgiving service in the chapel has preceded the dinner. This year, there will be no exception in the tradition, with the community action committee now finalizing the plans.

Over 100 persons attended last year's get-together, with dinners taken out to shut-ins as well.

Headed this year's dinner are Mr. James Haglund and Mrs. Earl Hall. In order to execute a dinner of this type, it is necessary to recruit a lot of help. So gals, if you'd like to help, call 949-1795 or 949-0195 now.

Volunteers are needed to serve in the dining hall, help clean-up, donate pies and salads, provide transportation, and make personal calls on all persons invited.

Mr. John Frye, a member of the congregation and an ordained Disciple of Christ minister, will give the Thanksgiving message in the Chapel at 11:30, prior to the dinner at noon on Tuesday, November 21.

Rev. Glatfely Speaks Sunday

The First United Methodist Church of Lowell will host the Reverend and Mrs. Philip R. Glatfely, Jr. Sunday, November 19, as they return to Lowell for a day of activities.

Reverend Glatfely will bring the sermon at both morning services, 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m., and they will be the church's guests at a congregational potluck dinner at 12:20 p.m. in the dining room.

Currently in the fourth year of serving as pastor of the Crestwood United Methodist Church in Muskegon; Reverend Glatfely left the Lowell Church in 1955 after a successful pastorate of seven years.

Reverend Glatfely then served United Methodist Churches in Charlotte, Plainwell and Holt prior to his Muskegon appointment.

The public is cordially invited to participate in Sunday's events including the potluck dinner. Further information will be had by phoning the church office, 897-7514, or contacting Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bieri, Glatfely Day Chairmen.

Thanksgiving Ingathering

A Thanksgiving Ingathering Sunday, November 19, has been designated for the Lowell Community Center, on recommendation of the Council of Children's Workers.

All children and adults are urged to take part in this traditional sharing of commercially canned and packaged foods. The items are to be brought to the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church of Lowell, or to the Sunday School Classes.

From there, they will be taken to the Community Center to be stored until needed by families who become temporarily, or permanently unable to provide for themselves.

Parents, begin now to discuss this project with your children. Let them choose what items they would like to share.

Christmas Bazaar

A Christmas Bazaar, sponsored by the Susanna Wesley Circle of the First United Methodist Church of Lowell, will be held this Thursday, November 16, in the Education Building from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

A luncheon will be served by the Lydia Circle. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Construction Begins

Paul Slater (right) greets the general contractor, Martin Boersma as work began on two new Christian education units at Cascade Christian Church on November 6. President of the congregation at Cascade Church, Mr. Slater is a descendant of one of the pioneer families in the church, and has the interest of the new building program at heart.

The two new units will be primarily for Christian education and social purposes—the cost estimated at some $263,000. The completion date is June 15, 1973. Founded in 1864, the Cascade Church has had a phenomenal growth since the community became surrounded with the suburban trek in recent years. The church now totals 800 active, resident members.

Choirs Invited

North Kent Mall is extending an invitation to choirs and small choral groups in Kent County and the surrounding areas to join them during the "12 Days of Christmas" celebration. Each year North Kent Mall has had strolling singers or stationary choirs who present a program of Christmas music on the Mall for the pleasure of the community and shoppers. The "12 Days of Christmas" starts this season on December 12 and goes through December 23.

There are still nights open for choral groups from schools, churches, musical societies, or club groups, etc. If your musical group would like to appear call Betty Nephew at 363-7791.

MARtha HALL GROUP SELLS IDEAL GIFTS

The Martha Hall Group of the First Congregational Church of Lowell is selling beautiful candles and note-paper.

There is a fine selection available, inexpensively priced, for use in the home or as gifts for teachers, friends, babysitters, shut-ins, etc., or keep a few on hand for emergency gifts.

The items may be purchased from any member of the Martha Hall group. Call Betty Nephew at 363-7791.

Cub Scouts Meet Thursday

The monthly Pack Meeting of the First United Methodist Church sponsored unit, Pack 3185, will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The Cubs and their families will participate in a program presented by a representative of the Lowell Police Department on Bicycle Safety. Also numerous awards of advancement will be presented by Awards Chairman, Gerald Smith.

A Farce In Two Acts

"Surprise!" a farce in two acts by Fred Carmichael will go on stage this Friday and Saturday night, November 17 and 18, at the Lowell High School auditorium. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Under the direction of Ivan Haney, who also designed the set, the cast will make the lid come off of the cracker barrel of explosively funny gag lines and farcical situations.

The play takes place on the opening day of a Vermont Inn which Ella Winsley, an ancient, retired actress, owns. Complications arise when she is mistaken for a chiropractor's mistress, when the chiropractor develops amnesia just as his wife arrives, when Ella's granddaughter stops by on her way to spend a weekend with her hippie boy friend, and when a missing patient from a local rest home tries to discover who he is.

No opening day has ever been as hectic as this and no opening night will ever be as hilarious as when the audience keeps laughing and applauding at Surprise, this Friday.

One dollar ticket admission may be made in advance or at the door.

Appearing in the cast, and their roles are—Sue Stevenson, Margot Lister; Cherie McKeage, Pearl Dubbins; Bernard Sarniak, Virgil Dubbins; Ella Winsley, Nancy Coons; Tony Ulichnic and Rob Doyle, Ted Hazelton.

Recipe Corner Pumpkin Pie

Everyone has his or her own taste preference when it comes to pumpkin pie. Some like it dark with spices and brown sugar. Others prefer a golden colored pie with white sugar and few spices. For spice, those who favor the light type pie, add only a little ginger.

A small amount of corn starch added to either variety helps to stabilize the custard and make a creamier pie.

Sally's Pumpkin Pie 1/2 cup sugar 3 eggs, slightly beaten 1 tablespoon corn starch 1 1/2 cups canned pumpkin 1/2 teaspoon salt 1 (13-fluid ounce) can evaporated milk 1 unbaked 9-inch pastry shell

Mix together sugar, corn starch, salt, ginger and eggs. Add Pumpkin and evaporated milk, mixing until blended. Strain if an extra smooth filling is desired. Pour into pastry shell.

Bake in a 400 degree F. (hot) oven 15 minutes; reduce temperature to 350 degrees F. (moderate) and continue baking about 40 minutes or until knife inserted into filling 2 inches from edge comes out clean. Makes 1 (9-inch) pie.

OVERNIGHT COOKING OF TURKEY

Put some kind of trivet or rack in bottom of roaster. Put the bird on the rack, breast up, and cover the fowl entirely with a sheet of heavy duty aluminum foil. Tuck it down around the sides of the bird—not over the edges of the pan.

Do all this after supper on the day before you plan to serve the turkey. By the time the bird is ready for the oven, it will be time for bed. Set the oven at 275 degrees (or 300 degrees) NO HIGHER! (Use the lower temperature with birds over 15 lbs., particularly tom turkeys which are sometimes a little tough).

Now, figure to cook the bird about thirty minutes for each pound of weight, up to six hours, which is about right for birds up to twelve or thirteen pounds. If the bird weighs more than this, figure on seven or eight hours. (Which is a full night's sleep, sister.)

Put the turkey in the oven, set your alarm clock and go on to bed. When the clock goes off, turn off the oven, leave the door shut, and go back to sleep! Leave the bird where it is a full night's sleep.

An hour or so before dinner, take the foil off the turkey and keep him out of the oven while you heat it up to about 325 degrees. You will find that the bird is cooked but looks sort of anemic. This is as it should be.

There will be some interesting brown juice in the bottom of the pan and quite a lot of melted fat. Use a pastry brush to smear these drippings all over the bird. Now put it back in the oven and peek at it about every ten or fifteen minutes. When it shows signs of starting to get brown, take it out and repeat the basting operation, giving the breast several coats of juice. Run it back in the oven and keep a wary eye on it, as it will now brown rather suddenly. The whole browning operation will take about an hour, maybe a little longer, which will be plenty of time to heat the bird through.

This is a good time to take advantage of this opportunity to bake the yams, which do better for slow cooking.

When you make the gravy, and DO skim off most of the fat first, use the broth from the neck and giblets instead of water.

GOOD IDEAS

Try putting chocolate sauce on cereal—hot or cold, kids love the flavor.

A slice of bread in the cookie jar will help keep homemade cookies fresh. Change the bread about every other day.

Try waxing your dust pan. Dirt will slide off easily when dumping.

Rangers Win, Huskies Lose

Ottawa-Kent White Divisions School play non-league foes Friday night to close out the 1972 football season.

The Rangers from Forest Hills Central scored a stunning 22-8 win over Godwin Friday night.

Forest Hills which finished with a 2-5 record in league play, dominated the game most of the first three quarters, building up a 22-0 lead, and then coasting home to victory.

Sherry teamed with Grochowalski on a 69-yard pass play in the first quarter to give the Rangers a 6-0 lead. Bob Banta ran 18 yards in the second half to provide Forest Hills with an 18-0 halftime lead.

Banta ran in from the one-yard line in the fourth quarter to up the Ranger's lead to 22-0 before Schriener tallied for Godwin on a 14-yard run.

Tom Fudge, a defensive tackle, and Mike Bath, a linebacker, stood out defensively for Forest Hills. Bath was in on 16 tackles and Fudge 12.

Huskies Defeated

Members of the Red Division of the Ottawa Kent Conference completed a successful football campaign Friday night, winding up the year, with eight games played.

A charging team from Northview beat the Forest Hills Northern Huskies, 20-6. Two early touchdowns by Northview sparked the Northview win.

The Huskies got their only touchdown on a 10 yard pass play from Darrell Yates to Rodney Lanning with seven seconds left on the clock. The point after failed.

Rockford Rams Rout Lowell

In a season-end non-league encounter, the Lowell Red Arrows were routed by the Rockford Rams Friday night 19-14 on the winner's field.

Rockford beat Lowell when Tim Rusche ran 11 yards for a touchdown with only 30 seconds remaining on the score board. The score was set up by a 25-yard pass from Craig Zahrt to Eric Hunting.

Lowell's first score, covering 61 yards in eight plays, came when Dave Avery scored from the two-yard line. They took the game's lead in the third quarter on a 30-yard march, with Bernie Harden running the final 30.

Mark Billock, who combined with Harden to lead Lowell to 279 yards on the ground, ran for a conversion. Harden also scored after a touchdown.

Zahrt, Rockford's quarterback completed 11 of 22 passes, two leading to their second score in the third quarter. They picked up 190 yards in the air, while Lowell failed to complete a pass.

On the last play of the game with just 3 seconds left on the clock, Kris Kroft faded back to pass on his own 5 yard line. Rockford put on a heavy rush and Kroft got into trouble. He then lateraled to guard Barber (10) and headed up field on a desperation play. He was finally brought down on his own 45 yard line.

Football Party

The freshmen football players, their girlfriends and cheerleaders were treated to an "end of the season" party last Saturday at Larry Almas.

They played football in the dark, after which, they enjoyed hot dogs, potato chips and pop. A cake, made to look like a football field including goal posts, and players, was also served.

The gang is looking forward to next year's party!

Grochowalski Wins Pheasant Contest

A pheasant with a 23" tailfeather was more than just a dinner to Harry Grochowalski, of 2406 Buttrick, Ada. The pheasant was entered in the annual pheasant contest held by Gilmore's Sport Shop, of 8154 E. Fulton. The tailfeather was long enough to win first prize in the contest, $20 in merchandise.

Merle Alexander, of 209 Brook St., Lowell, also bagged a pheasant with a 23" tailfeather but took second place as his entry came in several days after that of Grochowalski. $10 in merchandise went to Alexander for his prize. Third prize, $5 in merchandise, belongs to John Landis, of 8610 Bolt Drive, Ada. His bird had a tailfeather of 22". Congratulations to all!

November 15 marks the first day of the firearm deer season and also the annual deer contest sponsored by Gilmore's Sport Shop. Gilmore's have been having the annual contest for about 12 years now and every year the response increases. To enter, the hunter must purchase his license at the sport shop.

Points are awarded for each inch of spread between the antlers and one point for each "point" or tip on the antlers. It doesn't necessarily take a large rack to win the contest, especially if the spread is wide. First prize in the contest is a "Fol-Pistol," a $23.50 value, a "kell-Light," $14.95, for second prize, and $5.95 hunting knife for third prize.

Deer Hunting Season Opens

Once again, it's hunting time in Michigan—the small game season is well underway, and the deer season opens Wednesday. This is the season that many sportsmen look forward to all year. And though it's a fun time of year, each hunter also takes it very seriously; spending long hours in planning. And he spends more than time.

Surveys have revealed dollar expenditures range from $100 to over $400 per year for each hunter in the field. Each hunter has his favorite game, and Michigan is blessed with many varieties. Though there will inevitably be some disappointments, the year 1972 should be a successful one for most hunters.

Wednesday is the target date for upwards of 700,000 sportsmen who are expected to be in Michigan's hunting ranks for the state's deer season. As the countdown to the season starter begins, most of these hunters will invade the North County, streaming upstate in zippy autos, old school buses, camper trucks—virtually everything on wheels.

Roughing it in tents and trailers or setting up hunting headquarters in motels and out-of-the-way cabins, their good-time outings will be filled with coffee break bull sessions, lively card games, and, of course, hopes of downing trophy deer that can be proudly hoisted on the local meat pole.

As has been the practice in recent years, a large number of non-law employees will be teaming with law enforcement personnel to increase the effectiveness of patrols and service to the hunter.

Special recognition will be given to the lucky hunters in this area in the forthcoming issues of the paper. If you are one of the "lucky ones," give us a call, stating your name, rack size of your trophy catch, its weight, in what vicinity you bagged it, and how many years you've been hunting, and how successful have you been during the duration of your hunting treks to the woods.

The first hunter to call will win a year's subscription.

During Deer Season

Snowmobile Use Limited

The Flat River Snowmobile Club of Lowell, this week reminded area snowmobile users of a law change since a year ago, which requires them to observe morning and afternoon quiet periods on public hunting lands during Michigan's firearm deer season.

The new measure, the Club emphasized, designed to shut off noise disturbances from snowmobilers during prime deer hunting hours, November 15-30, makes it illegal to operate these machines "in an area on which public hunting is permitted during the season for the taking of deer with firearms from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m. and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m."

The Club revealed, as exceptions to this rule, snowmobiles may be used during these quiet hours—in case of an emergency; for law enforcement purposes; to go to and from a permanent residence or a hunting camp otherwise inaccessible by a conventional wheeled vehicle; for conduct of a necessary work function involving land and timber survey; communication and transmission line patrol, and timber harvest operations.

This new restriction does not cover operation of snowmobiles on private lands by persons who own or control these lands, or are using them as invited guests. As such, it does not apply to private club holdings where members and guests of these tracts are concerned.

Quiet periods on snowmobiling do cover state and federal lands plus acreages of private firms which, as a matter of company policy, have made their holdings open to public hunting.

With this being the first deer season that the snowmobiling restriction is in effect, the Flat River Club noted that conservation officers will be instructed to use particularly "good judgment" in enforcing the rule this year.

Attend Classes

Among the instructors and students who attended the YMCA Table Tennis at the High School Gym were Jim Doyle, Dennis Kisinger, Steve Doyle, Kevin McMahon, and Randy Jones.

These classes give the beginning table tennis player a chance to learn the game under capable instruction. A YMCA table tennis tournament is being planned for later in the year.

Christmas Workshop

Mrs. Mamie Stuessy and Mrs. Barbara Casey examine some of the things made in the YMCA Christmas Workshop.

Gary Gilbert, instructor, relates the articles to be made include—Christmas candles, decorations for the door or home, craft items that make nice Christmas gifts, and personal Christmas cards.

The YMCA Christmas Workshop will be held Saturday, December 2, 10 a.m. to 12 noon at Lowell High School Craft Room, and repeated on Tuesday, December 5, 7:30 to 9:30 a.m. at the High School.

Sign up for either session at the Lowell YMCA, 323 W. Main.

Name Them!

Last week's mystery photo was taken in Vie & Harry's Ice Cream Bar, formerly known as Cole's Candyland, located in the section of Main Street that was destroyed by fire in 1958.

Mrs. Dave Clark, sr., 329 Jackson St., was the first person to correctly identify the three girls, Shirley Yvonne Danick, Rose Mary Rickner and Bertha Marie Koeners.

A free year's subscription will go, this week, to the first person who can correctly identify the most people in this picture. Call 897-9261 at 12 noon on Friday.

Brothers Have High Producing Holstein

A 3-year-old Registered Holstein, Elcur Rockman, has been designated the highest-producing cow in Kent County for 1972 according to Dairy Herd Improvement Association records. DHIA had about 130,000 cows on test in Michigan last year.

"Rockman's" ME production of 25,846 lbs. of milk and 1,072 of fat gave her eighth place in the state. She is owned by Bruce and Allan Baird whose dairy farm is on Three Mile Road, north of Lowell.

At the annual Kent County Dairy Banquet November 8 a trophy donated by Marker Implement of Caledonia was awarded to the Baird Brothers for this outstanding production record.

Anne Powers Attends Classes In Mexico

Anne Powers of 1573 Parnell Road, Lowell, is among the ten Grand Valley State College students who are currently attending classes at the University of Americas in Puebla, Mexico.

Located in the fourth largest city of Mexico, the University offers a wide range of studies, as well as proximity to the historical, cultural, and recreational sites of Mexico City.

GVSC students are participating in the University's program through arrangements between Grand Valley's International Studies Institute and host institutions at Puebla, the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and Adams State College of Colorado.

Also taking part, during the fall term, is Valerie Turean of 255 Briarwood, S.E.

Kid's Hayride

Roy Green gets 'em all aboard for an old-fashioned hayride, sponsored by the Flat River Snowmobile Club of Lowell.

A hayride on a crisp Fall day is bound to boost the appetites of the riders, as they tour the country-ways amidst the hay, enjoying a fun-filled day... so went the day for the junior members of the Flat River Snowmobile Club Saturday.

The ride ended at the Club's meeting place, where the twenty-six kids played games and enjoyed a lunch of hot dogs, popcorn, cookies, punch, hot chocolate, caramel apples and oranges.

Bobbie Will won the game prize by transferring cotton balls from one bowl to another, with a wooden spoon, blindfolded. The kids also ate apples from strings, with their hands tied behind their backs.

Julie Condon, assisted by Polly Souser and Nancy VanderMeer, made the preparations for the lunch, while Ginny Will and Betty Fugitt programmed the games.

All in all, it was a wonderful day for the kids.

Popcorn Sale!

Forest Hills Central's Music Booster's Association will sponsor a "blitz" popcorn sale Saturday, November 18, starting at 9 a.m.

The association hopes that everyone in the Forest Hills district will support this effort by purchasing a stock of popcorn for the long winter nights ahead.

Band & Choir members will be ringing door bells in November, so be ready for them. If you're missed, or not at home, support the Association's efforts by calling the music department at the high school.

Trashathon Brings Many Treasures

On Saturday, November 11, six young people from Calvary Christian Reformed Church picked up 30 plastic garbage sacks full of litter from the roadsides of M-21 between Lowell and Saranac. Besides being ecology minded, the young people were setting their sights on California, where their national youth convention will be held next August.

Each participant had sponsors paying him from 2¢ to 50¢ for each bag he picked up. Among the treasures found were a lost wallet containing money and valuable papers, a stolen purse, a good pair of men's boots, a football, and four hubcaps. The traceable items have been returned to their owners.

About $65 was netted and thanks go to the following for their support: Snider's Bakery, Beachum's Furniture, Rosie Drive Inn, Lowell Granite Co., Lowell Jr. High teachers, Saranac Hardware, Saranac High teachers, and employees of Hawkeye Insurance in Grand Rapids.

Archie D. Smith Passes In Ohio
