Four Hurt After Car Becomes Airborne

A mishap Tuesday evening, March 6, sent four Lowell youths to Butterworth Hospital. The accident occurred around 6 p.m. on Lincoln Lake Avenue at McPherson Road.

According to Kent Sheriff's Deputy Ralph Dewitt, a car driven by Ronnie Merle Dawson, of 419 Elizabeth Street, Lowell, was southbound on Lincoln Lake Avenue, when it went out of control at a high rate of speed, skidded for some distance before becoming airborne after striking a sand bank. The vehicle traveled 64 feet in the air, and traveled over 480 feet out of control.

Injured passengers in the car included James Herblet, of 5192 Abrahams, Bruce Roth, of 10719 Vergennes, and Keith Snyder, of 534 Foreman.

All were taken to Butterworth Hospital for treatment of injuries. The mishap remains under investigation. Dawson, who sustained a broken arm and multiple bruises and cuts was released from the hospital Tuesday. Snyder still remains hospitalized.

Early Weight Limits Set On State Roads

Spring weight restrictions will go into effect Monday, March 12, on all seasonal state highways in Michigan, the Department of State Highways has announced.

Early spring thaws throughout northern Michigan and the Upper Peninsula have made restrictions necessary on those areas, approximately three weeks earlier than usual.

Normal legal loads are permitted on state highways designated as all-season routes. Most state highways, including freeways, are all-season routes.

Weight restrictions were imposed March 7 on all seasonal state highways in the southern two-thirds of the Lower Peninsula.

Above The Board

Bone Dry

As board members seated themselves for Monday night's meeting, one asked of the rest, "Has anybody been at the Middle School during the last few days . . . since the rain?" "I have, and it was bone dry inside and no standing water outside," came a reply. "Good, then guess we don't have any problem there.

Visibly proud of the new building, the suggestion was made to open it to interested on-lookers on alternate Sundays so that the public could enjoy the prog-

Since this procedure has been followed at other schools under construction, and Spring is almost here when people like to get out and look around, all board members heartedly agreed and instructed Supt. Leonard Sinke to make whatever arrangements are necessary. It was also suggested that perhaps a floor plan of the building could be tacked up on the site so that people walking through could figure out the room loca-

More Drivers?

A great deal of time was spent during the meeting on various bus issues. To begin with, the issue of whether or not to continue with double runs and split school hours was first discussed.

"We are now at the crossroads on where we go with transportation . . . you voted to work toward single runs with all schools starting at the same time, but if you are to have single runs next year, the most critical item will be more bus drivers and we must get started on lining them up soon," Asst. Supt. and Bus Supervisor Don Kelly stated. "We will also need six new buses and we should put out the bids for at least three of them right away," Kelly added.

After much pro and con discussion on the possibility of converting to single runs for the 1973-74 school year, it was decided to do some further figuring but that one thing would be certain; if they double run, it will not be as they have for the past two years. If double runs are deemed necessary, there will be one starting time for all senior and junior high buildings and one starting time for all elementary.

Looks Troublesome

The bus garage situation continued to look troublesome. The price was still not low enough due, partially, to the location of the building and the cost of utility installation so far from the roadway.

It was suggested that the automatic washer be omitted but other board members felt that it was important

The whole issue was turned back to the transportation committee to continue negotiations.

Protests Stop

Also, in reference to buses, a father appeared before the board to protest the moving of a bus stop on 36th Street, from the top of the hill (where there is a driveway for students to stand while awaiting the bus) to the bottom of the hill where there is no driveway and no road shoulder.

The father was told that the bus stop was moved to comply with a state requirement that a stopped bus be visible for 500 feet in both directions plus 200 feet before the stop and this was not true at the former location. However, the father was also told that children and the safety of children were the board's prime concern and that if it was deemed dangerous for children in the new area, something would be done about it. It was referred to the Asst. Supt. for further investigation.

With teacher negotiations set to begin tonight, the board turned down the proposal of a paid negotiator from the Michigan Association of School Boards.

All teachers up for tenure placement were approved by the board including Cynthia Pienkowski, Ruth Cady, Gail Humphre, Jane Gordon, Paul Balaam, Nancy Bauer, Dorothy Roth, Sue Seymour, Karen Greig, Tom DeRoseau, Linda Ball, Walter Burlage, Gayle Lycos, Martha Cliff, Craig Smith, Kim Lathwell, Ruth Klun-

Placed on second year probation as the final step before becoming tenure teachers, were Michalena Carlson, Karen VandenBerg, Norma Lane, Ed Matecki, Mary Garrison, Tom Harper, John Sterly, Barbara Timmer, Linda Odell and Jerry Biernacki.

Administrative contracts were offered to all the present administrators, Dennis McMahon, Jerry Wabeke, John Gabrion, Art Bieri, Dirk Venema, Roger Buck and Don Kelly. Biggest Bargains

For the past five years the Grand Rapids Art Museum has trained local mothers to give short lectures to the Lowell elementary classrooms, showing reproduc-tions of great paintings, film strips and other materials provided free of charge by the museum.

This year the museum is in need of some financial assistance to continue the program and the board voted a donation of $225.00. "This is one of our biggest bargains and a very reasonable thank you for this service," Board Member Blanche Mullen opined. Not Enough?

With all the good news about the new Middle School, the feeling that all's well was still a little premature. Unfortunately there has apparently been a misunder standing between Architect Donn Palmer and the board which was uncovered only recently in a budget meeting for the new construction.

Board members were told by Supt. Leonard Sinke that instead of $400,000 which they had set aside for furnishing the new Middle School and High School additions, they actually have approximately $188,960, which they don't figure is quite enough.

This came about because, according to Palmer, the cost of all the cabinets and millwork is in the furnishings budget rather than in the construction cost as the board assumed. Since the cabinets are counted in the "furnishings" budget, this cuts down quite a bit on all the other items such as tables, chairs, desks, audio-visual equipment, etc.

Although some board members were upset at the disclosure, Supt. Sinke did not seem at all alarmed. His reaction was one of irritation that the misunderstanding had occurred, but of assurance that the building program had gone along so well thus far that enough money had been saved and allowed for in other areas so that the additional expense could be met if the board so wished

Asst. Supt. Kelly stated that it was the administration's feeling that the money should be allotted but that it should not all be spent until the teachers had a chance to teach in the building for a length of time since it is then that they will really know what will actually be effective in the new education atmosphere. The board decided to take a long, hard look at the budget, what has been spent and what will most likely be needed in the future before allocating any more

Remodeling Western Style

Among the many thriving industries of Kent Couny, the King Milling Company of Lowell is one of the largest and most prosperous. The first mill in Lowell was built in 1847 and was in use until 1958. S & H GREEN STAMPS

The Community Center acts as a referral and service point where area citizens receive the kinds of help they need. Often our community's residents are very short on food when emergency situations occur. With the compassion and concern of Christian caring, Sunday, March 25, has been designated as "Emergency Food Bank Sunday," with every family of the congregation seeking to bring as many items of nonperishable food as possible

The Three M's hope so much food is assembled that a truck will be required to carry it away!! Last fall, our Thanksgiving Ingathering went to the "Emergency Food Bank" of the Lowell Community Center. One of the heartwarming stories that came out of those gifts of food and the Center's coordination of helping services follows:

"It was a sad day for Mr. and Mrs. D. The gas and electric had been shut off at their home from lack of payment. Money was very short. Their children were sick and it was only 5 days before Christmas.

Mrs. D. called up in desperation. She didn't know what to do. We contacted the utility company immediately and talked to a supervisor there. Upon hearing about the sick children, he said he would have the serv ices turned back on right away. We told him we would try to find a source to take care of this bill. This was agreeable with him but he let us know that we were not to worry if it could not be taken care of.

With this man being so co-operative, we wanted to make sure that bill was paid, so after a few telephone calls, we managed to arrange for a local church and a private individual to handle the bill.

After this matter was taken care of it was found that the family had no food in the house either. So, because of the generosity of the First United Methodist Church of Lowell we had access to foodstuffs that were put together and delivered to the household. Also toys and clothing were delivered to the children for Christmas so they did not have to go without!"

Begin to assemble a variety of foodstuffs now; so the sanctuary will be overflowing on March 25.

Christian Art Show

The 12th Annual Christian Art Show will be held April 15 to 22 at Ascension Lutheran Church, 2780 Haslett Road, in East Lansing. Announcements are being sent to artists throughout the state of Michigan and beyond to prepare their entries for submission April

The show is an attempt to bring artists and the church into closer relationship, according to the Rev Dr. Roy Schroeder, Ascension's pastor. This is done by encouraging artists to produce works with a Christian theme and by providing the opportunity for their exhibition, he said.

The exhibit is expected to accommodate from 70 to 90 pieces of art to be selected from entries submitted. Last year, 76 pieces were chosen from the 290 works entered. All artists are invited to participate.

Each person planning to walk gets a "Sponsor Sheet" from one of several area locations and signs up as many "sponsors" as possible-with each sponsor agreeing to pay him so much for every mile he walks. On April 14, registration is from 7 to 8 a.m. at Meijer's Thrifty Acres parking lot in Greenville. The walk begins at 8

Each walker walks as far as possible. ALL walkers must return to the Greenville V.F.W. Hall to receive a

After all funds have been turned in, the walk committee will divide the money among five worthwhile projects: the CROP Hunger Appeal self-help program in rural Tanzania (Africa) villages; the U.S. Jaycees' Project Concern Program of medical/dental assistance among Navajo Indians of New Mexico; Big Brothers of Montcalm County, providing adult male companionship for fatherless boys; Volunteers for International Development (a peace Corps-type organization); "Community Out-reach" (formerly Project RITE) serving to assist lowincome people of our area. Spring Comes Spring begins at 1:13 p.m. March 20. At this time, the sun crosses the equator on its way nox. The quarter-of-a-day error is made up every four years with a "leap year" containing an extra day.

Technically, at vernal equinox, day and night are equal. Actually, however, refraction, the bending of the sun's rays by the earth's atmosphere, allows us to see the sun before it rises and after it sets. At this latitude the phenomenon tacks on an extra eight minutes of daylight. Thus, day and night will appear equal about three days before the equinox.

Other astronomical events of March include an falls on the Sunday after the first full moon following vernal equinox. The full moon in March comes on the 18th, or two days before the equinox, which means the date of Easter will be set by the full moon occurring some 29 days later.

will assume the role of Venus as a morning planet. I will rise in the southeast about three hours ahead of Rising two hours before the sun, Mars will move closer and closer to Jupiter. Although close together by the end of the month, the two planets appear quite different because Jupiter is 13 times brighter than Mars, Near the zenith at sunset and moving west until midnight, Saturn will continue to shine throughout March.

Local Postmark Still Available

Postmaster Charles Doyle, today, said that despite the switch to "area mail processing," the local postmark is still available to anyone who wants it. "It simply isn't true that the local city postmark has been eliminated. It still exists at every post office in the United States," Postmaster Doyle said. Postmaster Doyle was reacting to a few items appearing in some newspapers which indicate the local postmark is a thing of the past.

"These reports are connected with the installation of 'area mail processing,' a program whereby mail originating within a sectional center area is consolidated at the sectional center facility for complete preparation and processing for outgoing dispatch," he said.

"By sending mail to a central point for processing, we can give our customers faster deliveries while cuting costs through maximum utilization of mail processing equipment," he explained. "Such mail will receive a postmark which reads 'U.S. Postal Service, the state bbreviation, the first three numbers of the zip code, long with the date and A.M.-P.M. designation."

The postmaster emphasized that while the new system eliminated the local postmark, it still is available to customers who drop their letters in designated letter

Bell Shows Ways To 'Cut' Costs

Michigan Bell says one way to save money is to have all your residence telephone work done at one

That tip is among several cost-cutting suggestions which the company has put together in a booklet available to its customer Robert I. Thole, local Michigan Bell manager, explains that if a customer wants a phone added and another one moved to a different location, then both requests should be scheduled at the same time. If the intaller has to come to the house twice to do both jobs, then there is a separate service charge for each item. However, if both jobs are done at the same time, then there would be only the one service charge. Other money-saving tips in the booklet include a recommendation that customers make station calls which are cheaper and faster than person calls. Michigan Bell also says that if you dial a station call and the person you are calling is not there, then leave a message since you're being charged for the call anyway. Find out when your party will be available, the booklet notes, so if you need to call back you can again dial the less costly station call.

Here are two additional tips for the budget consci-

Let the operator know when you reach the wrong number on a long distance call so you will not be charged for it. And, consider placing your home telephone service on suspension when you plan to be away for 16 days or more. The suspended service rate-for 16 days or more-is one half of the regular monthly rate.

Michigan Bell is distributing copies of the booklet to many organizations and agencies around the state, including consumer groups, retiree organizations, welfare and senior citizens groups, and local officials and overnmental agencies associated with welfare and disadvantaged groups. Copies of the booklet can also be picked up at any local Michigan Bell business office.

"Just as we point out in the booklet," said Thole, esidence telephone service in Michigan has been a nousehold bargain for a long time. We want to keep it that way and we hope the booklet will help our custo-

Thole noted that in 1960 it took the average worker in Michigan one hour and 53 minutes to earn enough to pay his monthly telephone bill. Although increased usage has caused the monthly bill to become larger in the subsequent 12 years, he said that it now takes the average Michigan worker only one hour and 10 minutes of labor to cover his monthly telephone charge.

Help The Nation!

Cut Your Energy Bill

You can help your Nation's energy conservation efforts, live comfortably, and save money too. Each of us can help accomplish these worthwhile ends-on a daily basis in our own homes, and where we work. All we need do is practive conservation habits that help save energy.

As our country continues to grow, we must face up to the fact that energy of many kinds is in short supply. It's time to tighten our fuel belt and stop wasting electricity and heat. This in turn saves oil, gas and coal. Save energy, and you save money.

America now consumes about 29 percent of its energy in industry, 25 percent in transportation, including getting back and forth to work, 21 percent for residential and commercial purposes, and 25 percent for utilities. But the Nation can keep warm, get to work, and keep industry humming with much less energy than is now being used.

are many ways you can help conserve fuel and electric energy at home, on the road, and on the job. Here are Weatherstrip and caulk around windows and doors Properly applied, this can keep out cold air and seal in warm air so effectively that your family's heating bill can be cut 15 to 30 percent. It's easy and inexpensive to install weatherstripping at movable joints and to caulk the frames of all windows and doors. Install storm windows or insulated glass to cut in half the heat that is needlessly lost through the windows in your house. Increase insulation in your attics and walls when possible. You cannot afford to have less than the equivalent of six inches of good thermal insulation over your

Install wood sash windows whenever possible. Wood is a poor conductor of heat and moisture and therefore an excellent natural insulator. In comparative tests with other sash and frame materials, wood rated a much better insulator than metal. In tests with an outdoor temperature of 20 degrees, interior wood sash registered a warm 59 degrees; metal, a chilly 32 degrees. A costly 22 percent more heat was lost through metal windows with an 80 percent glass area than through wood sash windows of the same size. Also, weatherstripped wood windows with insulating glass stayed free of condensation in outdoor temperatures of 30 degrees below zero, while moisture formed on metal sash windows in temperatures of 20 degrees above.

Keep your heating and air conditioning equipment in top operating efficiency. Vacuum dust and lint from air intake registers. Replace your furnace air filters every two to four months or when they become loaded with dust or lint. Have the heat exchange surfaces of your heating plant cleaned when needed and have the combustion air adjustment checked or improved by service professionals. In homes and apartments without storm windows, close draperies at night. This results in some deflection of drafts and more comfort.

Regardless of where you live and work, turn off electric lights, TV, radio and other electric utilities when they are not needed. Every kilowatt-hour saved is a benefit to you and your country. Try to avoid prolonged use of major appliances during "peak-use" times -in the early morning and during late afternoon and early evening.

The "Club" is an "unorganized" group of "Males" That meet each morning to tell true tales They come each morning by car or truck And worry about those without such luck. There are those that walk through rain and snow

They enjoy talking about those they know They speak about those from far and near Because they are the ones held so dear They are a happy, humorous crowd

Even though they are occasionally loud. They review the present, future and past And usually can answer the questions asked. Their collective minds know no bounds

Because in age, knowledge is found If all of us could follow their leads, Our tribulations would be small, indeed For those of you who are getting older and grey, Why not stop in and see them someday?

Aerial photography of Michigan waterways and coastline was the goal of eight students from Grand Valley State Colleges and their professor as they prepared to take off in two planes supplied by Burgess Aviation of Holland and Grand Haven, in late February. The group's flight from Holland resulted in over 500 photos of both an environmental and artistic nature.

Camp Fire Girls To Celebrate

Founded in 1910, Camp Fire was the first national nonsectarian interracial organization for girls in the U.S.A. Next week, March 18-24, it will be celebrating its birthday with observances in local councils across the nation.

The Camp Fire program is directed toward helping young people grow as self-reliant and responsible individuals through experiences in groups. It emphasizes "learning by doing." The Camp Fire program is designed so that the special needs of each age level are recognized. There are four unique program levels, each for a different age range; these are: Blue Birds (grades 1-3), Camp Fire Girls (grades 4-6), Discovery Club (grades 7-8) Horizon Club (high school). At present, there are fourteen active groups in Lowell.

Active, skilled adults who care about young people make the organization vibrant and alive. Blue Bird leaders in Lowell are Mrs. James Leverence, Mrs. Ronald Nead, Mrs. William Overzet, Mrs. Carl Shores, Mrs. Gary Potter, and Mrs. James Wood.

Ford Offers Scholarship

Congressman Gerald R. Ford today announced that he is offering a $1,000 scholarship for study and travel abroad this summer to one high school junior or sophomore in the Fifth Congressional District. The scholarship is made available through the American Institute for Foreign Study. This is the fourth consecutive year that Ford has sponsored the scholarship, with the cooperation of the AIFS. The winner of the scholarship is selected by a panel of school officials from among candidates nominated by each high school located in the Fifth District. Each high school principal decides how his school's nominee will be selected.

The scholarship covers tuition for foreign study, fees, room and board, compulsory medical insurance, a little pocket money, and travel arrangements from New York to Europe and return. The winner of the scholarship must pay for transportation to and from New York, passport and immunization fees, and items of a purely personal nature, The student may select a program in England, France, Spain, Italy, and certain other countries. The Institute assigns the student to a particular campus and chaperoned group.

Most of the programs consist of four weeks spent at school with an additional 10 days spent sightseeing in various cities in Europe.

Each high school located in the Fifth District-and those others serving Fifth District students-may nominate one person for the scholarship except that schools having a combined total of 600 or more juniors and sophomores may nominate two.

To be eligible, a student must be a resident of the Fifth District, which includes all of Kent County except Bowne Township; all of Ionia County except Sebewa Township; Thornapple and Yankee Springs Townships in Barry county; Dallas and Lebanon Townships in Clinton County; Roxand Township in Eaton County; Bushnell, Maple Valley and Bloomer Townships (except Carson City) in Montcalm County.

Each high school principal is to submit his school's nomination to Ford's Grand Rapids office before April

The scholarship winner will be selected by the following school officials or persons representing them: The superintendents of the Grand Rapids public schools, the schools of the Catholic Diocese of Grand Rapids, the Grand Rapids Christian Schools, the Ionia County Intermediate School District, and the Kent County Intermediate School District.

tracts were extended. Communications were read which included plans for special education olympics, liability insurance for board members, football league for youth, and a proposal by the school librarian. Guidelines for punitive action against those who violate the smoking policy in the school were adopted by the Board. In other Board action, bids for a walnut tree were opened and the high bid of Robert Sayers for $725

Who can you call if your home is destroyed by fire in the middle of the night, and you find that your wardrobe consists of the pajamas on your back? Who can you call when tragedy strikes and you need to contact someone in the military who is thousands of miles away? Who can you call when you can't find a friend in time of need? Call your "Good Neighbor"-the Kent County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Most of us think of the Red Cross in terms of the women in gray who take a pint of blood out of our a arms once a year or so. There's a lot more to it than needles! The Red Cross, celebrating Red Cross month in March, has several valuable programs in operation in Kent County-valuable to all of us.

There's Ring-a-Day, a network of volunteers who make daily telephone calls to homebound elderly people, just to make sure that everything is all right. The purpose of this carefully organized program is to assure shut-ins that there is someone who cares. Ring-a-Day provides a major contact with the outside world for the 50 elderly Kent County residents involved in it.

The United Fund agency also sponsors multimedia first-aid classes. Called multimedia because they utilize films, a workbook and actual practice sessions in bandaging, the classes have met with enthusiastic response. Since the class may be completed in only one day-from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.-it's ideal for homemakers. This class could mean the difference between life and death in an emergency situation.

One of the least-known programs sponsored by the Red Cross is called Fire Assistance Teams. These teams are notified by an officer of the Fire Department in the case of a fire which has destroyed a family's belongings. The Team then visits the family, and offers whatever aid seems to be of top priority. For instance, they may give out clothing or bedding.

The Red Cross is here to help—that's always been it's job. But it can always use help, too. If there's something you feel you'd like to do for others through the Red Cross, give them a call at 456-8661 or stop at the Kent County Chapter, 1050 Fuller, N.E., and see what the "Good Neighbor" is doing.
