'All' Proposals Defeated In Monday's Election

Despite the fair skies few voters saw fit to exercise their right to vote in Monday's elections with a total of 441 going to the polls in Lowell's Precinct 1.

In Lowell, the proposition to establish a community college in the Kent Intermediate area was defeated 262 to 153. Proposition 2, to levy a tax of 1.9 mills on real and personal property also went down even more emphatically, 287 to 120.

The $7,000,000 bonding proposition for Special Education for the handicapped lost by a narrower margin—222 to 193 and countywide lost by only 60 votes.

William S. Doyle garnered 230 votes for a six-year term on the Community College board of trustees. Tom Stahr, running for a 2-year trustee spot, received 209 votes and Gordon Gould tallied 202 votes in his bid for a 4-year trustee position.

Carol Anderson, in a first try as a candidate for the Lowell Area School Board lost to incumbent Harold Metternick, 267 to 152.

Alto Precinct

The Community College proposition lost in Alto by a resounding 95 to 21 as did the millage to operate 92 to 16.

Bonding for special education lost 74-41. Community College trustee candidates: Doyle 67; Gould 51; Stahr 32.

Alto's Harold Metternick received 97 votes over Carol Anderson with 21, in the race for the one opening on

Lowell Area Schools board of education.

Forest Hills

Forest Hills voters said 'no' to the proposition to bond for $2,500,000 for the building of a new middle school and improvements to Thornapple elementary, Northern High and Cascade elementary and also for the purpose of acquiring future school sites, by a vote of 1482 to 1289.

The $675,000 bonding proposition to build an auditorium addition to Forest Hills Central was defeated 1473 to 1281.

The proposal to establish a Community College was turned down by a vote of 1723 to 999. "No more millage," said the voters, as the Community College bonding proposal of 1.9 mills lost heavily with 1889 voting against and only 754 voting for it.

The $7,000,000 bonding proposal for special education for the handicapped passed favorably 1403 to 1296.

Incumbent, Mary Tonneberger with 1178 votes and Charles Anderson, 1126 votes won the two Forest Hills School Board spots.

Community College Trustee

The three high vote getters were Chris Sonneveldt, Jr. 1110; Jean McKee, 1107; William S. Doyle 705. William O. Vandenberg 617 and John D. Loek's 547 tallied the highest votes for the two 4-year term trustee positions and for the two-year term, it was David E. Post, 765 and Clarence Fuller, Jr. with 483.

Board Votes For Single Runs

The controversy over single versus double bus runs came to an end in the heat of the night Monday when the board voted in favor of single runs.

Since two members were absent an attempt was first made to delay the action once again because it was felt by some that the official vote should represent the entire board. This was quickly over-ruled due to the lateness of the decision and the necessity for teachers and administrators to know which way to go on scheduling.

It was also suggested (and agreed upon) that a request be made of the school administration that they prepare an indepth report next March giving a complete analysis on the operational aspect of the return to single runs as compared with this year's double scheduling.

Promotes Hockey

The stifling heat of the meeting room was lessened somewhat by a discussion of the possibility of introducing ice hockey into the high school.

Jack Harkness of Alto, who is in charge of the little league division of the Grand Rapids Amateur Hockey Association, spoke to the board requesting support of the school for a Lowell hockey team.

Stating that ice hockey is one of the fastest growing sports around, Harkness explained that a league of six schools is now being formed composed of Kentwood, East Grand Rapids, and three others as yet to be announced. It is Harkness' hope that Lowell will be one of those three.

He stated that the Grand Rapids Ice Arena on 28th Street will donate all the $90 worth of ice time free to the team which will practice on Wednesday nights and hold matches on Friday nights. He volunteered to coach the Lowell team to get it off the ground or said he would be happy to assist a high school coach if the board would rather one of their own personnel would handle it.

Harkness added that in ice hockey every boy plays and that he is looking for a squad of 30 for a first and second team. He added that each boy would buy his own skates and, possibly, safety equipment such as helmets, mouth guards and pads, and that the school might see its way clear to pay for such items as jerseys and pants. He stated that of the $1.00 admission charge for each match, 60 percent would be taken by the arena and 40 percent would be given to the team to build up an equipment fund.

Harkness' main purpose, however, was seeking the sanctioning of the board rather than the financial support but stated that they would, of course, accept any financial backing the board felt it could give in the line of equipment.

The Alto man's interest in hockey began 28 years ago when he was one of 100 boys in the City of Grand Rapids that were taken into a group coached by the head coach of the Grand Rapids hockey team in order to keep them off the streets.

The board appeared extremely interested in the proposal and decided to sanction the group first as a high school club rather than part of the athletic program until they see the interest it arouses.

Saves Fee

Supt. Leonard Sinke informed the board that Architect Donn Palmer had been consulted about the razing of the old junior high building and that he cautioned the board of the necessity to draw up specs that would spell out very clearly just what they expected as far as how the ground is to be left, etc.

Sinke asked whether or not the board wished to commission Palmer to draw up the specs but after a brief discussion it was decided that Dave Miller was knowledgeable in that line and that the board could save the fee by doing it themselves. "We might just as well buy books and chairs with it," was the general opinion.

Mills Resigns

A letter of resignation from High School Band Director William Mills was regrettably accepted and the board instructed Supt. Sinke to write a letter of appreciation to Mills for his years of service with the school system.

Mills resigned last week to accept a position with the Spring Lake Schools.

Students Must Be Immunized

Parents of children entering school for the first time are reminded that state law requires they be immunized against seven diseases and have a tuberculin and vision test.

Dr. W. B. Prothro, Director of the Kent County Health Department, said, "The importance of immunization cannot be overstressed. We must remember that microscopic organisms which cause such diseases as diphtheria, smallpox, polio, pertussis (whooping cough), tetanus, measles and tuberculosis are ever present, unseen and posing a constant silent threat to children and adults."

Dr. Prothro expressed concern over the low immunization rates for certain preventable diseases in infant and preschool children in Kent County. For example, in some areas of the county, preschool children, ages one through four, have an estimated immunization level of twenty to thirty percent for rubella. Public health officials figure that when immunization rates fall below 85%, the population is vulnerable to outbreaks and epidemics.

All age levels should keep their immunizations up to date, especially the preschool child.

The vision test that is required by law is especially important because certain eye defects can be reduced if detected in early childhood. Vision tests may be obtained from private physicians or ophthalmologists, or the Kent County Health Department, 1619 Walker, N.W. Appointments are necessary and may be made by calling 456-3444.

Dr. Prothro recommends that parents keep their children's immunizations up to date at all times. If area parents do not have a family physician, they should take the child to the free Health Department clinic—the Lowell Community Center at 1076 1/2 Grand River Dr. The immunization clinic, here, is open every second and fourth Monday of the month 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Sponsoring Indian Girl

Mrs. Priscilla McCormack, Apt. 14, 700 Princeton Blvd., Lowell, is sponsoring Pamela, a 7-year-old American Indian girl of the Hopi-Navajo Tribe, through Save the Children Federation, an international child welfare organization of Norwalk, Connecticut, it was announced today by Dallas Johnson, Director of the organization's American Indian program.

The sponsorship will help provide funds for the clothing, school supplies, personal books and spending money which will enable the child to take part in school activities. The average Indian youngster leaves school before the eighth grade, often for lack of these bare essentials.

Jane's Jabber Contrary Times

"It was the best of times; it was the worst of times," Dickens wrote in a Tale of Two Cities. While these are certainly not the worst of times in all of man's recorded history, there is a certain incongruity—a quality of contrariness in life today.

For instance, business, generally, seems to be good around the country with record sales reported by many industries... but we are told the economy is over-heated resulting in spiraling inflation.

It has been reported there will be a bumper harvest of wheat this year... but there is a shortage of rail cars to move the wheat.

Fancy packaging of merchandise entices the customer to buy... but some grocers and bakeries report the plain paper sack is in short supply.

Vacation time is here and suddenly there is a gasoline shortage and price increases, topped off with talk of an increase in the federal gas tax.

Automobiles are selling in record numbers... but where are they all going to travel to?

The Vietnam conflict is allegedly over... but we now have the Watergate affair to 'bug' us!

And while the Watergate Senate Committee hearings are believed by some to be the best live television drama since TV's early days... some people complain because they are missing their soap operas!

The price of head lettuce goes higher and higher... and I get a craving for salads.

Though the dollar dwindles, the stock market shakes, inflation inflates and the opening of the Watergate floods us with revolting revelations, we may still find a cause for celebration... It is Spring and with several days of warm, sunny weather after a month of rain, hope rises that all things will be made new again.

... I'd celebrate if I can find some champagne but understand it is becoming a scarce item, too.

Gingrate, anyone?

MEDICARE TO COVER KIDNEY TRANSPLANTS AND DIALYSIS

Starting July 1, 1973, Medicare coverage will be extended to people under age 65 who need kidney transplants or dialysis, according to Raymond C. Backus, District Manager, Grand Rapids Social Security Office.

Eligibility can begin in the 3rd month after dialysis begins and can last a year after the month dialysis ends or the patient had a kidney transplant, Mr. Backus explained.

The faster a car is driven the more fuel it consumes, according to auto experts. The average full size car traveling 70 to 80 miles per hour, uses twice as much gasoline as it would at 50 mph, and compacts about 50 percent more.

A neighborhood carnival Saturday at Richard's Park saw area children testing rings, fishing in the pond, and having a good time. The proceeds will go to the Muscular Dystrophy Fund.

The students in Miss Greig's third grade classroom at Runciman Elementary became fashion designers as part of their social studies program.

After the pattern was cut out, each student chose a section to color. With a little assistance from Miss Greig's sewing machines, the class transformed a plain white piece of cloth into a cheery smock just the right size for teacher.

Saranac Fire Fighters Get 'School' Training

Among those who finished their school training at The University of Michigan in 1971-72 were 428 lawyers, 187 doctors, 189 nurses... and 2,791 fire-fighters.

Since 1941 over 34,000 Michigan fire-fighters have been trained in a variety of programs offered by the U-M Extension Service's Firemanship Training Program.

"Many universities across the country have similar programs," said Program Director Francis Hartman who will retire this month after serving 18 years.

The U-M offers a number of training programs held indoors and outdoors, on the U-M campus and in small communities throughout the state of Michigan.

For example, in 1971-72 the U-M program conducted 23 Town Fire Schools, serving 473 fire-fighters, in small communities such as Otisville, Indian Lake, Big Prairie, Caro and Saranac.

The Firemanship Training Program has been in operation since 1941 when the University was asked by a representative of the Underwriter's Association as well as various fire-fighters groups across the state to start a fire-fighting training program.

Dear Editor:

Last week a letter appeared in this space condemning the action of our Council for supporting our beloved Showboat in a time of need.

To further refresh the memories of your readers, I shall add that the "Greedy" Showboat Corporation is made up of volunteers out of the community who love their city and want its heritage to continue.

The money referred to as "City Funds" was in truth collateral provided by the Lee Fund to enable us to borrow money from the bank.

To further refresh the memories of your readers, I shall add that the "Greedy" Showboat Corporation is made up of volunteers out of the community who love their city and want its heritage to continue.

The Showboat has had a few lean years in the recent past, but it is growing in strength each year.

I need not hide behind the power of the pen as I am proud to sign my name and therefore express my feelings.

Husking corn, a part of "Pioneer Days" was followed by relay races and a tug-of-war.

Fourth Graders Become 'Pioneers'

This year's theme selected for the 4th grades Michigan Unit of study was "Pioneer Days of Michigan."

A pioneer luncheon of carrots, potatoes, onions, and hot dogs was prepared in the classroom and wrapped in aluminum foil. Cookies were made in the classrooms the day before the luncheon.

Large fire pits were dug on the Lowell Area Schools 80 acres. Parents prepared a charcoal fire and all 240 4th graders from Alto, Bushnell, Runciman and Intermediate Jr. High placed their luncheons on the charcoal fire.

Mr. Whan met with the group on a hillside and sang pioneer songs while the lunches were cooking.

After the luncheon we played pioneer games, hikes, and made nature collages.

The event lasted from 11-2. We enjoyed the great pioneer out-of-doors event.

Thinning Fish In Area Lakes

The Department of Natural Resources has imposed a temporary moratorium on the chemical reclamation of lakes and streams throughout the State in order to review its present policy on them. The moratorium was imposed when problems with dead fish disposal resulted after the treatment of Ford Lake in Washtenaw County.

The moratorium affects several local projects scheduled for late May and early June of this year. These projects include panfish thinnings on Big Pine Island Lake and Bass Lake in Kent County and Clifford and Cowden Lakes in Montcalm County. Also affected is the treatment of Lake Macatawa marshes in Ottawa County to remove spawning carp.

Monies and chemicals on hand for these projects will be held until the projects can be rescheduled either this fall or next spring. It is expected that the moratorium will be lifted after this summer.

Tri-River League 1973 all-star baseball team, selected by league coaches, is highlighted by the selection of two Lowell hitters, Kris Kropf and Rusty Steffens; Lakewood's Jeff Bosworth; Greenville's Randy Bader-sneider; and Lakewood Hurler, Roger McCoy.

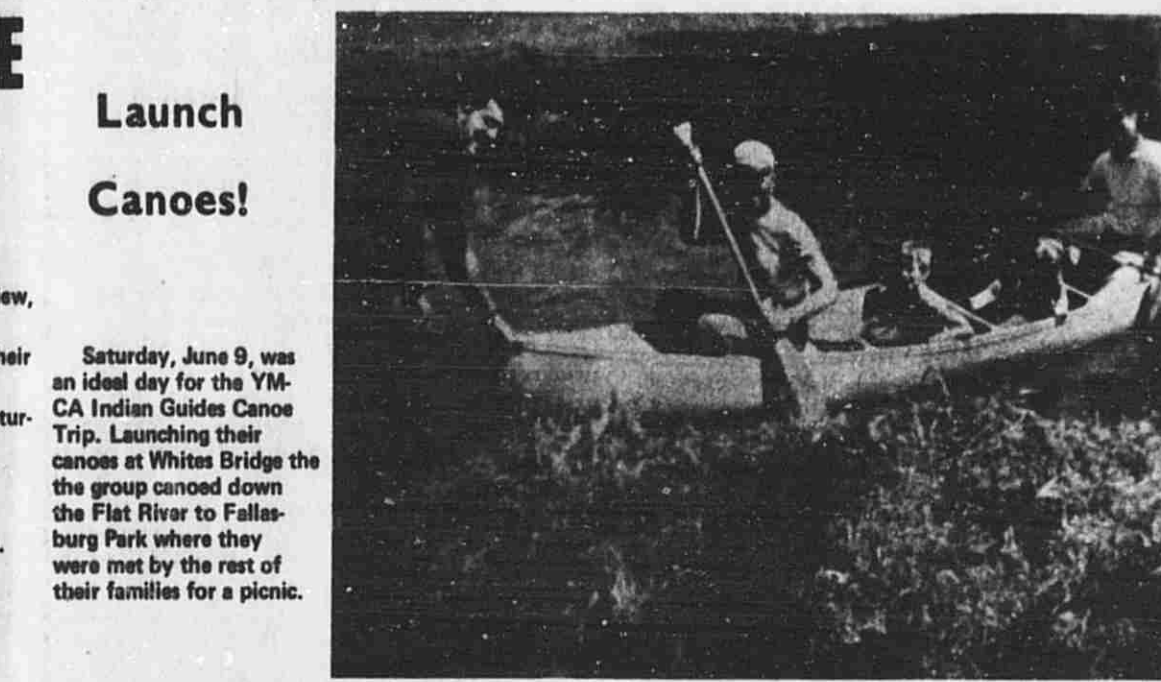

League coaches balloting for the all-stars included Gary Rivers of Lowell, Arnie DeFagter of Sparta, Jack Skivington of Belding, Mike Noble of Lakewood, Frank Stankey of Greenville, Mac Schipper of Coopersville and Dave Jensen of Cedar Springs.

As has been the custom in past years in the Tri-River, the team has 15 first team selections, which include three pitchers, two catchers, five infielders and five outfielders. In addition, 14 players were given honorable mention.

Kropf, Lowell's slugging shortstop was picked at his position for the second straight year, and it's no wonder. He led all league hitters with a .594 average, which included three home runs, 27 runs batted in, and ten stolen bases.

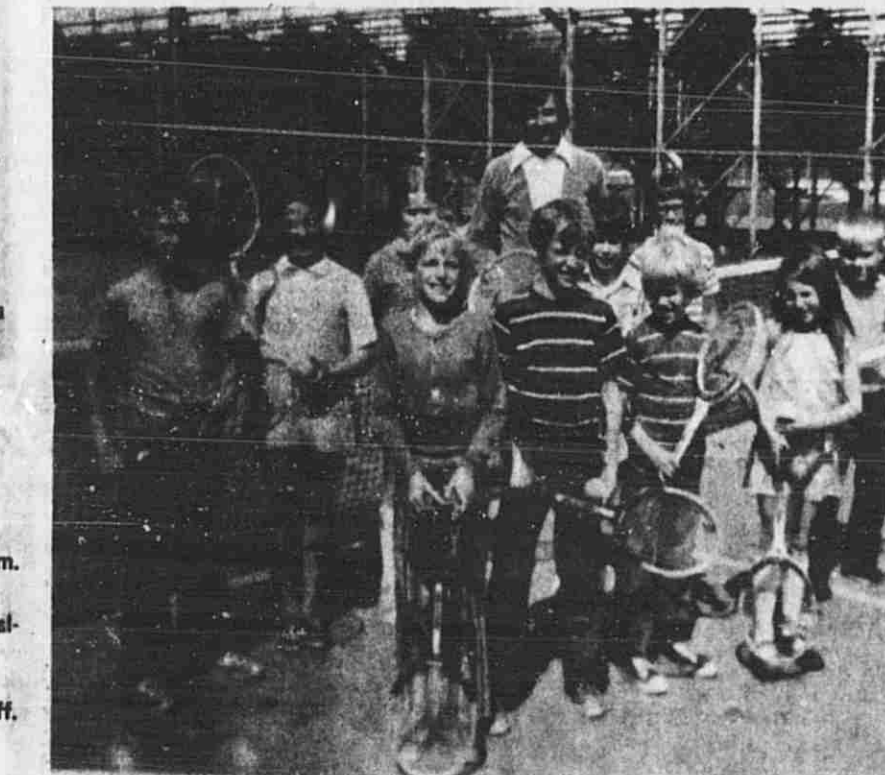

Kropf's teammate, Rusty Steffens, a junior, was picked as the all-star first baseman on the strength of a league-leading total of five home runs, 19 runs batted in, and a .354 mark at bat.

Receiving honorable mention from Lowell were outfielder Jeff Pierce, pitcher, Dave Beach and catcher, Gary Barber.

Launch Canoes!

Saturday, June 9, was an ideal day for the YMCA Indian Guides Canoe Trip. Launching their canoes at Whites Bridge the group canoed down the Flat River to Fallsburg Park where they were met by the rest of their families for a picnic.

Learn Basic Strokes

The weather was very nice for the YMCA Tennis Clinic for Elementary boys and girls, conducted by Tennis Coach Mark Weber. During the clinic, the youthful players learned the basic strokes and techniques. If there is sufficient interest on the part of elementary and Jr. Hi age youth, end enough adult helpers, the YMCA hopes to have a Summer Little League Tennis Program.

Golf Chatter

Low score for the season at Arrowhead Golf Course is held by Kim Chesboro.

This Saturday is the final sign-up date for the State Moose Golf tournament.

Hosting the event this year will be a course near Adrian. Lowell golfers will compete July 7 and 8.

A sunny weekend, a golfer's dream come true, saw all area courses pecked to the teeth.

Congratulations to the Lowell Lions team—Bennie Kropp, Mac and Rick Fonger and Dave Potter for their Championship win at Silver Lake Country Club Monday.

Last Tuesday's Attwood golf standings remain unchanged, as the Anteeke brothers, Tom and Joe, racked up five more points to their leading score.

WMU's Dean's List

Eight students, four from Lowell and four from Ada, were among the more than 1,800 Western Michigan University students who have won recognition as scholars, by being named to the university's Dean's List for the recent Winter semester.

To win the honor, the students must have taken at least 14 hours of class work and maintained a grade point average of 3.5 out of a possible 4.0 (all A's).

On the Dean's List from Ada were Charles B. King, Richard P. Mooney, Patricia M. Keller and Barbara A. Masten. The Lowell students included Barbara R. Kelly, Marie L. Smith, Lucinda J. Blough and Michael K. Blough.

Turning The Churn!

Household chores of yesteryear come to life in Mrs. Prys' Second Grade Class. They twirled the crank that spun the wooden paddles in the old glass bottomed churn watching with fascination as the cream slowly became butter. Each child experienced the entire process of making butter—churning, working out the water and tasting the sweet cream buttermilk as well as the salted butter on crackers.

Collect Antiques

From curling irons to nutcrackers, this display of antiques from the Lowell area gave the Second Graders of Mrs. Prys' room an idea of what life was like long, long ago.

This assortment of antiques collected by the children shows a few luxury items, as well as tools that were used in the struggle to survive.

Here 'Bell' Officials

Wednesday, June 6, the Lowell Rotary Club had a joint meeting with the Lowell Lions Club, with a number of Lowell business and professional people also attending. The women lib people might be interested in noting that 20% of Rotary's guests were women.

Bob Thole acted as host for the meeting with his boss "Ma Bell" paying the bill for the lunches. Mr. Thole traced the growth of Michigan Bell from the time it purchased the old Citizen's Telephone Company in 1923 with its 41,000 subscribers up to 1973 with a half-million subscribers.

He then introduced the Southern Bell Regional Manager, Al Lewis, who presented a masterful account of the "Bell" story with many startling facts. Michigan Bell averages 27,000,000 calls every day and an additional one million long distance calls a day. It installs, moves or takes out 8,000 phones daily.

Lowell Rotary Club meets each Wednesday for a noon luncheon at the Masonic Temple.

Survey Studies Future Growth

Which way is the U.S. birth rate going? Will it continue its recent downward course or will it reverse the trend? Robert G. McWilliam, Director of the Bureau of the Census Data Collection Center in Detroit, announced today that a survey in this area will help to answer the question. Information on birth expectations will be collected here the week of June 18-22 from a sample of households.

Census Bureau interviewers will ask wives how many children they expect to have within the next 5 years. The responses will indicate the future growth and composition of the Nation's population, data vital to planners both in government and private business.

Householders in the sample will also be asked about benefits from various government and private programs. Answers to these questions will be used to evaluate the effect of such income on the economy of the country.

The questions are in addition to the usual ones asked in the monthly survey on employment and unemployment conducted nationwide by the Census Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor.

Results of this monthly survey provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation. The April survey showed that employment, at 83.9 million seasonally adjusted, was little changed from March. Unemployment remained essentially unchanged at 5.0 percent, but was substantially below the 5.8 percent of April a year ago.

The households in this area taking part in the survey are among the 50,000 across the country scientifically selected to represent a cross section of all households.

All information about individuals and families provided the Census Bureau is held confidential by law and can be published only as statistical totals.

Interviewers who will visit households in this area are: Mrs. Lucy Hall and Shirley A. Ford.

BITS O' BUSINESS

Illumination accounts for only a small part of home energy use: 88 percent goes for space and water heating, cooking, refrigeration and air conditioning, according to a major public utility. . . Sales of the drug industry increased to $5 billion last year from $2.3 billion in 1962.

'Calling All Kids'

"Calling all kids . . . it's Vacation Bible School Time." This is the summons being made to children of all ages, kindergarten through high school by the Eastmont Baptist Church, as they prepare for their Summer Vacation Bible School.

This summer's program will begin June 18 and run through June 29, with classes being held daily, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 11:15 a.m.

The Eastmont Baptist Church is located at 5830 Cascade Road, S.E. For information or transportation call 949-0947. The Sunday School Bus will pick children up at the points designated on the Bus Schedule below.

During the two week sessions, Vacation Bible School-ers will have a full program of memory work, Bible study, singing, stories, craft, awards, fun and surprises. Special features of this year's program include "Mr. Charlie" VanderMeer, Director of the radio ministry of the Children's Bible Hour of Grand Rapids. He will give a fully dramatized story, in which he will portray various characters, through the use of rapid voice change.

Averys Release Copper Country Work

ALREADY PLANNING THE PRODUCTION OF A THIRD BOOK—Tom and Hoyt Avery discuss the various photographic and literary possibilities which remain unexplored within the Great Lakes area.

In 1972, Avery Color Studios of AuTrain, Michigan, surprised the public with release of the first full-color book publication ever created entirely in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

Combining the photograph abilities of the Avery Family, father, Hoyt; sons, Ron and Tom; and Hoyt's father, Norton; with the writing abilities of Tom, "Slow Me Down, Lord!", a pictorial study set in the recently created Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore, was received so favorably that the Averys had to reprint this first work and were strongly encouraged to seek out other Michigan areas for exploration with camera and pen.

To The Copper Country

The Averys began to focus attention northwestward last spring; resulting was the May 15th release of "Copper Country-God's Country", Reflections On a Unique Land and its Metal.

Photographed entirely in Michigan's renowned Copper Country, the work traces the area's colorful past from prehistoric times to present day. A smattering of geology, economics and thoughtful observation blend with a brief history of the region making it a volume to be enjoyed by the avid history buff as well as the reader with only a casual interest in the area.

58 Splendid Photographs

Highlighting the Avery's work are 58 color illustrations, beautifully depicting the Copper Country's scenic and historic grandeur from Isle Royale, throughout the Keweenaw Peninsula to the rugged Porcupine Mountains at the southwestern edge of the copper producing region.

Spanning the seasons, the brilliant photography paints a vivid image of the country, its history and the people who struggled to conquer it. Tumbling waterfalls, crumbling pioneer homesteads, the ruins of once bustling copper boom-towns—pictures weave words into the rich fabric of the Copper Country story.

Written For Reading

Tom Avery, the author of "Copper Country—God's Country," has attempted to put the copper story into interesting social and historic perspective.

"I've tried to give people a sense of when and why things happened without boring readers with long lists of dates," says the young author.

"It's more important to me that people finish reading with a realization of when, how and why the copper rush came to pass than to present a history book lesson in dates they won't remember.

"It's developing a sense of perspective—of knowing that the copper rush began before discovery of the electric light, before the California gold rush, before dynamite, before Custer's Last Stand—that makes history fascinating! I think we've put a story together in a way that will leave them anxious for more. Maybe it can make history as fresh and exciting for them as it's become for me," says Avery.

A Family Endeavor

Hoyt, father of the author and senior member of the Avery camera crew, directed the year-long pictorial creation and printing of the book. He sees their work this way—"We've tried to portray the unique character of the country itself as well as the rugged ingenuity of the people who came here . . . Simply to show the beauty of the area is to only tell part of the story." The elder Avery adds, "It's the remains of log homesteads at Victoria, the broken and abandoned fishing boats near Ontonagon, the ghosts of a crumbling engine house at Baltic—these things make the story come alive as much as a beautiful shoreline or brilliant sunset."

"It's what a beautiful picture says about joy, prosperity, impoverishment or despair—as well as beauty that makes it relate something.

"This area is so laced with beauty and history that a book could be built around every picture. I think we've presented the public with a glimpse of Michigan, of a frontier life that will captivate, fascinate and educate in a most enjoyable and entertaining manner," says Avery.

"Copper Country—God's Country" and "Slow Me Down, Lord!" are both available in soft or washable hard-cover editions . . . price $4.95 and $6.95, respectively.

Jaycees Are Award Winners

At the state meeting of Michigan Jaycee Chapters in Detroit, recently, the Lowell Area Jaycees were among the top award winners for the club year.

Inner-club relations, their organization and sponsoring of a Chapter at the Michigan Reformatory in Ionia, won a first place, moving them into competition on the National level.

Another first came in the Environmental Control classification, for the club's plans and set up of things for a park site, to be forthcoming, near their clubhouse on Burroughs Road.

For their intensive programs of Leadership training, the award-winning club was given a second place rating. Anxiously awaiting the result of National judging, the club has already swung in to enthusiastic action, exploring new projects, and promoting further their ideas for the coming club year.

ABOUT THE SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION

A sincere thank you to those who voted for me. Despite losing the election, I plan to continue attending the school board meetings where I am sometimes the only citizen. Won't some of you join me? School is the biggest business in our area and it becomes a closed corporation without your interest.

Best wishes to you all,
