St. Mary's School Marks 20th Year With Open House

People planning to visit schools next Sunday can add another to their tour when St. Mary's School of Lowell holds an open-house to celebrate the 20th anniversary of its opening. The hours will be from 12 noon until 2 p.m. so as not to conflict with the Middle and High School dedications.

St. Mary's School opened in September of 1953 with a temporary staff of Marywood nuns and Mrs. King Doyle. These teachers were filling in until the arrival of the Irish nuns who had been delayed by quota restrictions. These Irish nuns, consisting of Sisters M. Stephana Duggan, M. Angela Boothig and M. Veronica Desmond, arrived later in the fall and moved into the convent at 517 Elm Street, which had been decorated and furnished by the ladies of the parish.

When the Irish nuns were recalled to the Mother House, the Dominican sisters from Marywood staffed the school until 1969 when they felt they could no longer fulfill this commitment. At this time, the parish school board, which incidentally, was the first elected board in the diocese, conducted a written survey of the parishioners to determine the future of the school. It was voted to keep the school open so St. Mary's School became another first—the first parish school in the Diocese of Grand Rapids to be operated entirely by lay teachers.

The present school consists of grades one through six with Miss Ann Lennon, Mrs. Dolores Doyle, and Mrs. Joann Kozlowicz as teachers and Mrs. Josephine Ritzema as principal. These ladies will be most happy to welcome all visitors to the school October 21.

Gould UF Speaker

Gordon Gould, emcee for the Lowell Showboat and 1973 Lowell United Fund chairman, will be the speaker at the second report meeting of the 1973 Kent County United Fund campaign.

More than $1 million in campaign pledges was reported at the first progress meeting of the drive last Wednesday, putting the campaign at the one-third mark for its $3 million goal.

Campaign Chairman Keith C. Vanderhyde said early campaign returns show excellent growth over last year's figures. Closing the second report meeting will be Edward C. McCobb, chairman of the 1955 United Fund campaign.

Gould reports that the Lowell United Fund Campaign has raised $1,325 to date.

That total is 15 percent of the community's $8,628 goal for 1973, Gould said. The figure was reported as of October 9, with four weeks remaining in the six-week campaign.

The over-all Kent County campaign has raised a total of $1 million, one-third of its $3 million goal.

New Stamps By Mail Service

Postmaster Charlie Doyle announced today that a new "Stamps by Mail" service will be offered in the Lowell city delivery area, beginning this week.

According to Postmaster Doyle, this new service will permit customers to purchase stamps and stamped envelopes through the mail using a personal check or money order.

The Postmaster noted that "This service will be of great benefit to all our customers and especially shut-ins, the elderly and working wives. It will enable them to satisfy their postal needs simply, rapidly and inexpensively from their own homes." Leaflets spelling out the details of the service have been distributed to area households and small businesses during the past week.

"This new service has been tested in selected cities nationwide with very positive results," said Doyle. "One of our customers in a test city wrote, 'I am very happy about this service, as many of us older people can't get around the way we would like. We really appreciate this new service.' Obviously we are pleased to provide a service which means so much to people like this senior citizen."

A 40¢ fee will be charged to defray the cost of two-way postage, internal processing of checks and other costs associated with this new service.

Snowmobile Safety Training Classes To Begin October 23

Michigan's Snowmobile Law requires youngsters 12 through 15 years of age to complete a snowmobile safety training course before operating a snowmobile on lands other than those owned or under the control of their parents.

Don Souser of the Flat River Snowmobile Club of Lowell, a Department of Natural Resources Snowmobile Safety Instructor, will coordinate a three session course to be held Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evening, October 23, 24 and 25, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., at Lowell High School, Foreman Street. Snowmobile operational skills and safe snowmobiling attitudes will be emphasized.

The course is free and successful students will receive a pocket-size certificate. Class enrollment will be limited. If you did not receive a registration form in school, call 897-9691 for your reservation.

Open house visitors at the new Middle School, Sunday, will get a chance to see, among other things, the all-new library.

Lowell Area Schools

Open House And Dedication Sunday

More than 1,000 spectators are expected to attend the duo-open house for the new Lowell Middle School and the recently completed addition to the high school this Sunday, October 21.

Those viewing the latest in educational facilities will be allowed to leisurely walk through each building and teachers will be in their various quads and special locations to answer any questions regarding the building's extreme flexibility of design which has been geared to individualized instruction.

Open house at the Middle School will begin at 2 p.m. with a short formal dedication ceremony in the gymnasium.

The Middle School band, under the direction of Patricia Covey, will play two numbers. Rev. Dean Bailey will give the invocation and School Superintendent Leonard Sinke will introduce the platform guests.

Olen Miller will present the school's first flag from the Veterans of Foreign Wars and School Board President Dr. Robert Reagan will speak briefly. The Middle School choir, directed by Germaine Davis, will close the program. The building will then be open for continuous touring until 6 p.m.

Dedication ceremonies at the new high school addition will begin at 3:30 p.m., with Rev. Bailey giving the invocation and Superintendent Sinke introducing the platform guests. Among those seated on the platform will be Mrs. Carl Hagen, in whose husband's honor the new Media Center will be dedicated. A life-size portrait of Mr. Hagen will hang in the Media Center as a memorial to the late high school principal and superintendent of schools.

Board President Reagan will also speak briefly and the high school chamber choir will sing. The high school building will also be open for tours until 6 p.m. and refreshments will be served in both building cafeterias.

Seldom has the contrast between old and new educational methods been more apparent than when comparing the soon-to-be demolished old Junior High building and the new Middle School.

Not only are the unified art, home ec and shop departments something to behold, but the entire building is constructed with an eye to whatever the future will bring. No longer are the classrooms "locked in" to only one type of teaching. They can be utilized by either small or large groups of students and provide facilities for the needs of the individual student rather than having to be set up in the rigid guidelines of an entire class.

The library in the senior high school will be among the new additions displayed at the open house Sunday.

COUNCIL DOIN'S

City-Township Agreement Studied

Following the discussion of a proposed agreement with Lowell Township for the City's acceptance of sewage from the township, the Lowell City Council, Monday night, referred the agreement to the Lowell Planning Commission for their review and opinion.

A secondary treatment facility, to be built by the City as soon as financing becomes available, would be constructed large enough to accept Lowell Township sewage, with the Township sharing in the expense. However, an acceptable agreement between the City and Township must be formulated to satisfy both parties.

Foreman Street—A Separate Bid

In an apparent desire to "make it perfectly clear" that no money is being used out of the previously imposed charges (for the Storm-Water-Sewer Separation project)

Cyclamen Chapter To Install New Officers Saturday

Cyclamen Chapter No. 94, Order of the Eastern Star of Lowell will hold an "open" installation of officers Saturday, October 20, at 8 p.m. in the Lowell Masonic Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jackson (Marlene) will be installed as the Worthy Matron and Patron, with Carla Miller and Ival Paulsen being seated as the new Associate Matron and Patron.

Also taking office during the ceremonies will be Doris Boyd, Secretary; Lylia Johnson, Treasurer; Nancy Wood, Conductress; Esther DeRushia, Associate Conductress; Euphemia Paulsen, Chaplain; DeWayne Richard, Marshall; Olive Clark, Organist.

Violet Miller, Adah; Bertha Jessup, Ruth; Alice Ryder, Esther; Beatrice Krum, Martha; Margaret Martin, Electa; Nell Swierenga, Warder; Edward Boyd, Sentinel; Eileen Richard, American Flag Bearer; and Verna Rogers, Clarice Boerma and Anna M. White, Special Officers. Orval Jessup will be the Instructor.

Installing the new slate of officers will be Albina Grigas. She will be assisted by Theo Schutt, Installing Marshall; Leola Green, Installing Chaplain; Evelyn Wittenbach, Installing Organist; and Carol Briggs, guest soloist.

Preparations for the installation are being made by Margaret Martin, general chairman; Beatrice Krum, decorations; Ida Clack, refreshments; Alice Ryder, publicity; and Euphemia Paulsen, guest book.

on the Foreman Street construction, Council discussed the wording of the resolution adopted at the October 2 meeting. Councilman Herbert Mueller said he was concerned that change order Number 5 could be misconstrued if taken out of context. The Foreman Street project is a separately bid project and is not a part of the original contract.

To make certain citizens understand the Foreman Street project is being financed by imposed charges to abutting property owners, Mueller suggested clarification in that part of resolution in question.

Study Ordinances

There was a discussion of swimming pool ordinances from other communities. City Manager Blaine Bacon read two—from East Grand Rapids and Grandville—said he had requested several more but had not received them as yet. The City does have an ordinance covering swimming pools but apparently there is some feeling certain parts could be either tightened or relaxed.

Manager Bacon stated he believed some thought should also be given to the ordinance regarding auctions, written in 1904, which possibly needs some updating.

Merry Christmas Taxes

City Manager Bacon reported December taxes for city property owners will be $38,065 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation. This figure includes millage levied for county, Kent Intermediate, as well as Lowell area Schools, and is down about nine cents from last year.

Parking Tickets

Monday night's meeting found several citizens present as the result of 22 tickets being issued last weekend by Lowell City Police to residents who broke the law by parking their cars on the street overnight. Councilwoman Laura Rogers asked whether the tickets were issued on completed streets and Bacon reported they were. There was feeling from those present that some warning should have been given before the wholesale issuance of tickets. Rebutting a suggestion by Councilman Harold Jefferies that refunds be made, Councilwoman Laura Rogers said, "You can't ask the police to do their job one time and not do it another."

Chief of Police Barry Emmons, also present, stated that while he had not given any orders for the ticket writing, he felt it was his responsibility and he had intended there should be public notification before there would be enforcement of the City's parking restrictions. In light of that, Emmons said he would take Council off the hook by cancelling the tickets.

A suggestion of alternate parking, was made by one resident. The lack of driveway space to park two or more cars, especially for those living in multiple dwellings, poses a problem. Mayor Carlen Anderson said he would first like to try having cars off the streets to the fullest possible extent before making any revisions.

Offer Congratulations

In other action, Council moved for the adoption of a resolution proposed by Manager Bacon offering "congratulations and sincere best wishes from the City of Lowell" to Gerald R. Ford, vice-president designee.

Mystery Picture

Mailed to us with no identification, we ran last week's mystery picture hoping someone could tell us who the three barbers were—there were no identifying calls, so that one will have to be placed in the unidentified file.

This week's picture can be identified at noon on Friday by calling 897-9261. Please, no calls prior to noon on Friday, and we must have the complete name.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
I wish to express my thanks to every resident of the Lowell School District who supported the Special Education millage on October 1; to the Ledger, which did a very good job of informing the public; and to every individual who gave their time to work for the mentally handicapped.

In 14th Year Of Service To Community

A total of 120 pre-school children have been enrolled in six different sessions of the Cascade Christian Day Nursery this fall. Housed in the new facilities of Cascade Christian Church, a new playground area is also one of the highlighted features. A geodesic dome is one of the big attractions this year, as well as the traditional sand boxes.

Mrs. George Herrity, long-time director of the school, is joined by four part-time teachers. Non-profit and sponsored by the church, the day nursery is state-licensed. A long waiting list bespeaks of the popularity of the nursery. The nursery is operating under a budget of some twenty-thousand dollars this year.

Enrollments for the 1974-75 year are now being taken. Mothers should contact Mrs. Herrity at the church (949-1360 or 949-1567).

1974 Chevrolet Light Duty Trucks

Brake improvements designed to give brake performance similar to that of a passenger car lead the list of product refinements in the 1974 Chevrolet light truck line.

Different brake systems are available and are automatically selected at the assembly plant based on the rated weight of the truck and load.

Other highlights of the new models include:

- Full-time four wheel drive on all V-8 4-wheel-drive models
 - larger displacement standard V-8 engine for most home bodies
 - a new Cutaway Van for mounting mini-motor home bodies
 - a new El Camino Classic model
 - optional steel-belted radial tires
- All except one model rated over 8400 lbs. loaded weight will have larger front disc brakes, larger rear drum brakes, and a new hydraulic booster power assist.

The hydraulic booster utilizes pressure from the power steering pump. If engine failure or a broken fan belt causes loss of power, an accumulator provides up to three normal brake stops, after which a ratio change feature lowers pedal effort to a manageable level.

Full-time drive is standard on all 4-wheel drive V-8 models. The system provides constant power to all four wheels and eliminates the need to get out of the vehicle to lock or unlock front driving hubs. It also gives improved traction and highly satisfactory handling.

A 350 cu. in. engine is standard in all but two 1974 light truck V-8 models, replacing the discontinued 307 cu. in., previously standard in most models.

Pickups also feature the energy absorbing steering column on all models and anti-theft ignition system on all models with automatic transmission. Bright roof drip moldings are a new option.

The Suburban continues its popular station wagon appearance with seating available for up to nine, loading area of 144 cu. ft., and towing capacity up to 8,975 lbs. with the driver alone, or 7775 lbs. with 9 passengers. An optional trailer weight distributing hitch platform, bright roof drip moldings, and rally wheels on half-tons are newly available.

The Suburban continues its popular station wagon appearance with seating available for up to nine, loading area of 144 cu. ft., and towing capacity up to 8,975 lbs. with the driver alone, or 7775 lbs. with 9 passengers. An optional trailer weight distributing hitch platform, bright roof drip moldings, and rally wheels on half-tons are newly available.

The El Camino for 1974 features a completely restyled front end that carries a bold exterior appearance with comfort and luxury appeal. A new Classic series is added to the line joining the El Camino, Estate, 'SS', and Conquista.

Interior refinements include a new "notchback" bench seat with folding center armrest as standard equipment on Classic models. Optional swingout bucket seats are now available with all models.

The El Camino is equipped with energy absorbing front and rear bumpers capable of withstanding a 5 mile-per-hour barrier impact, and the interior driver and passenger seats are equipped with the 1974 inter-locked seat belt system.

The Chevy Van and Sportvan offer a freshly styled instrument cluster and instrument panel and new two-tone paint treatment for 1974. Both models are available with new optional air conditioning system with air outlets engineered into the instrument panel. A new AM-FM radio option, previously not available, has also been added for 1974.

Chevy's little Vega Panel Express takes on a new look in 1974 with different front and rear styling. Chassis features include front brake lining wear sensors in some series, and new electric windshield washers.

Other new equipment for Chevrolet's 1974 light truck line includes:

- coolant recovery system extended to include all Vans, providing a closed cooling system which stores any overflow during engine operation
- optional steel-belted, radial-ply tires for 10-series pickups and 20-series Vans
- optional rally wheels on the 10-series pickups and 20-series Vans

Buick Riviera Restyled For '74

New Riviera and LeSabre coupes and a four-door Regal sedan highlight the styling changes in Buick's 1974 line.

All models will be equipped with the interlock ignition system which prevents the engine from being started until both outboard front seat occupants have their lap and shoulder belts fastened.

Both the Riviera and LeSabre coupes feature their own distinctive version of the "colonnade-style" roof which proved so popular on the Century series last year. Each of these cars feature a new pillared roof design with a fixed rear side window.

The new styling for the Riviera marks the third major change since it was introduced in 1963. In addition to the new roof design, the Riviera has undergone extensive changes in the rear, with a squared-off deck lid that incorporates high-level auxiliary taillights under the back window.

All regular and intermediate models have substantial changes front and rear, featuring new bumpers, grilles and taillights.

In addition to exterior changes, all models will offer sparkling new interiors in a wider variety of cloth and vinyl designs, plus a luxurious leather interior on the Riviera and Limited. The number of trim sets has been increased from 258 in 1973 to 460 in 1974.

The new four-door Regal sedan is offered as a companion model to the highly popular Regal coupe and offers the same degree of luxurious interior trim. The standard trim features a notchback design in both cloth and vinyl with a 60-40 front seat as an option.

In the LeSabre series, a new model, LeSabre Luxus, will succeed the Century and LeSabre Custom nameplates. The new pillared roof design for the LeSabre coupe gives it a notchback colonnade appearance, the fixed rear side window provides more visibility.

Buick's Apollo compact introduced last April, received only minor styling changes for 1974 and continues to be offered in the two-door hatchback, coupe and four-door sedan body styles. Bucket seats are offered as an option on the Apollo.

A new engine, the 455-cubic-inch with 2-barrel carburetion is optional on all Centuries and LeSabres, except in California, and the 455 4-barrel is offered on all Centuries. Previously it was available only on Century coupes.

The 455 Stage 1 engine, previously available only on the Riviera, is offered on all full-size models, including the Estate Wagon. Dual exhausts are standard on the Riviera and optional on all models equipped with a 455-cubic-inch V-8 engine.

The Ultimate in Styling elegance in the Buick line for 1974 is featured in the Riviera.

Top-of-the-Line '74 Chevrolet

Chevrolet Motor Division takes new strides forward as the industry's manufacturing and sales leader with important advances in sturdiness and roadability in its seven different passenger car lines for 1974.

1974 STANDARD CHEVROLET

There are two distinct appearances in front and rear styling... one for Caprice models and one for Impala and Bel Air series. Caprice Classic coupe and Impala Custom coupe have new colonnade-type roof design with long rear quarter windows nearly 50 percent larger. The new Impala sport coupe roof features formal hardtop styling.

A new heavier gauge frame as well as rear suspension lower control arms are given a new anti-corrosion treatment. Added body insulation gives Caprice models quieter ride while extra acoustical package is available as extra cost option on Impalas and Bel Airs.

Seat folding operation in the big Chevrolet three-seat wagons, as well as Chevelle models, is made even easier. All seats can be operated from a single position at right hand side of wagons.

1974 CHEVELLE

Chevelle adds to its prestige in the intermediate field with new front and rear styling and new model lineup covering all car needs in luxury, sportiness and utility.

The new styling includes metal die cast grille and roof treatment featuring an opera window for the Malibu Classic coupe, the Landau and the Laguna Type S-3.

A high level of roadability is attained through numerous chassis refinements resulting from an extensive road testing program at both GM Proving Grounds and other studies. Improvements include re-tuned body mounts and improved engine mounts and front and rear suspension revisions.

Base power plant is the 350 V-8 with the discontinued of the 307 V-8.

1974 VEGA

Award-winning Vega takes on a new look of liveliness for 1974, with changes in front and rear styling dictated largely by government bumper requirements.

Featured are a large-louvered sloping metal grille and matching style in the rear. The variety-packed model lineup includes notchback and hatchback coupes, Kammback wagon, panel express, GT sport, Vega LX and Vega Estate wagon.

A wide range of vehicle refinements adds to the Vega's capabilities and quality. Among new features is a 16-gallon fuel tank... five gallons larger than the 1973 tank.

1974 CORVETTE

America's only true sports car, the Fiberglass-bodied Corvette changes its looks and adds to its roadability and durability in 1974.

New rear end styling complements a new "soft" bumper system, a new optional "Gymkhana" performance package and anti-corrosion treatment for the frame assembly.

The stiffer Gymkhana suspension is available with all Corvette engines. There is a new 10-inch rear view mirror and the anti-theft alarm switch is relocated next to the Stingray nameplate on the left front fender.

1974 NOVA

A sporty new Nova SS option is offered in 1974, featuring a dual striping treatment along the hood and fender edge and rear deck.

The option is available in either coupe or hatchback models with choice of any engine. Standard V-8 is the Turbo-Fire 350 replacing the discontinued 307 V-8. The lineup includes the two SS options and six full models.

1974 CAMARO

The 1974 Camaro sports a new look that features a new front end with a miniature lattice-work split grille and shield emblem. An extended aluminum front bumper, with rubber impact strips splits the upper and lower grille levels. Interior luxury appointments are also added.

With the discontinuation of the Rally Sport, the line includes two models... the regular sport coupe and the Type LT. A Z28 option, with special trim and equipment package, also is offered.

Added for 1974 is a longer range 21-gallon fuel tank. The 350 engine is the standard V-8, replacing the discontinued 307 V-8.

1974 MONTE CARLO

Car-of-the-Year Award winner for 1973, the Monte Carlo has an even more impressive luxury look in 1974.

Featured in the new look is a completely new chrome "attice-work" grille. Highlight of the line is the Monte Carlo S model while the basic coupe offered in 1973 is discontinued.

The Monte Carlo S features optional radial ply tires, custom suspension, automatic transmission and improved acoustics. Landau model equipment features special vinyl roof cover, distinctive trim and special wheels.

Saranac Redskins Still Undefeated

Saranac High School's football team had to rally in the final quarter to turn back a determined Montabella squad from Edmore 12 before a large homecoming crowd in Saranac Friday night.

The win kept Saranac's record unblemished with five in a row, while Montabella is winless.

The Mustangs scored once in each of the first two periods on a pair of one yard runs by Steve Naru to build up a 12-0 halftime lead.

After-School Bible Clubs Now Held In Ada, Thornapple Schools

After-school Bible classes are now being held in the Ada and Thornapple Elementary Schools. The non-denominational instruction is sponsored by The Christian Service Club, headquartered in Grand Rapids.

The Bible Clubs, as the classes are called, are held Tuesday afternoons in Thornapple Elementary and Thursday afternoons in Ada Elementary immediately after school dismissal. Teachers for the classes are Mrs. Carl Duthler, 6889 Rex Street, Ada, and Mrs. Herman Stukkie, 1140 Forest Hills Avenue.

The Ada and Thornapple programs are part of a larger program of Bible instruction carried on by the Christian Service Club, a non-denominational, non-profit organization. Although most Bible Clubs are found in the schools of Grand Rapids and its suburbs, chapters of the organization are operating in other states.

Emphasis in the weekly classes is on popular Bible stories, told with the aid of visuals such as the flannel-graph. Story related activities follow the presentation of the story.

Youth Council Sets UNICEF Goal

The Cascade Christian Church Youth Council has set its 1973 Halloween UNICEF goal at $2,500. Long active in this annual "Trick or Treat" campaign for underprivileged children of the world, the Cascade youth will go door-to-door and have a thirty mile bike like this year Sunday, October 28, following church services. Food will be served the "cyclers" throughout the afternoon.

Nationally speaking, last year children and youth in the United States collected three and a half million dollars of the United Nations' Children's Fund. The Cascade youth went over three thousand dollars alone. All funds are handled locally through the Youth Council of which Mrs. Evelyn Schurtz is the treasurer. The support and cooperation of all is sought, as children offer their familiar orange and black cartons in behalf of the needy children of the world.

City of Lowell Council Proceedings

Yes: Councilmen Hall, Jefferies, Mueller, Anderson, Councilwoman Rogers.

No: None. The Manager explained the proposal to improve Foreman Street from Beech Street to Gee Drive, stating that by waiting until the next regular Council meeting to take action, it would be too late to start construction before bad weather. He read the points of agreement from the minutes of the pre-construction meeting.

A lengthy discussion followed on the topic. The following resolution was offered by Councilman Mueller, who moved its adoption, supported by Councilman Hall.

WHEREAS, the Kent County Department of Public Works is presently constructing the Lowell Sanitary and Storm Sewage Disposal System in the City of Lowell and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of this city to include in such project an addition, including storm sewers, drainage structures, concrete curb and gutter, bituminous aggregate surfacing together with necessary appurtenances on Foreman Street between Beech Street and Gee Drive in Section B and

WHEREAS, the City Council deems it in the best interest of the citizens of this city to approve a change order for said purpose constituting a net increase in the contract cost of $64,397.95, and

WHEREAS, this cost will be spread to adjacent property owners and will not increase the cost of the previously approved imposed charges roll,

NOW, THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY REQUESTED, AUTHORIZED AND APPROVED by this City Council that a change order be approved by the Kent County Department of Public Works for the addition of said storm sewers, drainage structures, concrete curb and gutter, bituminous aggregate surfacing together with necessary appurtenances in Section B of said project for a net increase in cost of $64,397.95.

Yes: Councilmen Hall, Jefferies, Mueller, Anderson, Councilwoman Rogers.

No: None. IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Mueller, supported by Councilman Hall as follows:

WHEREAS, an addition to the system for a cost of $64,397.95 has been approved by the City Council; and

WHEREAS, the Assessor of the City has prepared a list of the taxpayers and descriptions of the properties to be charged for the improvements to the system to be included in the said additions; and the Assessor has determined the amount payable by each.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the charges aggregating $64,397.95 identified as Supplemental Roll No. 1, be and they are hereby confirmed, and the Mayor is directed to certify such charges to the Treasurer for collection in 15 equal annual installments, that the first of said installments to be due on or before September 1, 1974, and succeeding installments on September 1 of each year thereafter until all are paid, all of said charges to bear interest at a rate of six percent (6%) per annum or at such higher rate, not exceeding one percent (1%) above the average bond interest rate for the bonds sold for the construction of said system.

Yes: Councilman Hall, Jefferies, Mueller, Anderson, Councilwoman Rogers.

No: None. Under Communications, Manager Bacon read letters of commendation to the Lowell Police Department from Newell Manufacturing Company, Lowell Showboat, Inc. and Dr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Kirby of Hillsdale, Michigan.

He also read a letter from the Michigan Department of State Highways concerning the removal of all parking on M-21.

The Police Department Report and the Fire Department Report for the month of September were read.

The manager also read a proposed statement of release for one TD20 tractor, bought for sale, from the City, to John Cornell, Lowell Airport Manager. The City would be permitted to use said tractor for city needs, as long as Mr. Cornell has lease on the City Airport.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Mueller that the City Manager be authorized to sign the release statement of the TD20 tractor to Airport Manager, John Cornell, supported by Councilman Hall.

Yes: Councilman Hall, Jefferies, Mueller, Anderson, Councilwoman Rogers.

No: None. Mayor Anderson reported that the Council had met with the City's engineers who propose a water conditioning plant be constructed in the future to improve the quality of City Water. He stated that new water and sewer rates were being considered which would increase in steps with the first increase for the purpose of meeting increased costs of operating and maintenance and subsequent increases to pay for capital improvements to the system. It is hoped to have the first step increase in effect by January 1, 1974.

Under Council Remarks and Reports, Councilman Jefferies asked about the Storm Sewer Project being finished on Hunt Street. He stated that it just seemed to drop off before it got to the end of Hunt Street. He asked about a turn around being installed.

Manager Bacon stated that a turn around on Hunt Street had been included in Change Order No. 3 and would be constructed.

A discussion followed on financing of the bleachers for Lowell Showboat, Inc. and on the Lowell Area School's proposal to install lighting at the tennis courts at Recreation Park. No action was taken on these items.

'St. Joan' Draws The Curtain Back

A production of George Bernard Shaw's "St. Joan," as staged by the Alpha-Omega Players, will be presented in the sanctuary of the Lowell United Methodist Church. This is in the tradition, recently revived, of considering in dramatic form within the church contemporary questions and the timeless problems faced by mankind.

Currently, churchmen recognize the religious dimensions of theater and are attentive to what the best playwrights and poets have to disclose about the human condition.

"St. Joan" draws the curtain back to expose many insights into human nature and spirituality. First, it is the story of a woman's loyalty to her individual comprehension of God's demands. Second, Joan is the force of evil which she exposed. Her problems may be likened to those confronting society today: for instance, does temporary acceptance of evil lead to eventual good?

The role of Joan of Arc will be played by Linda Evans. The Narrator will be Stephanie Fowler, and the men in the story, including the important figures of the Dauphin, the Archbishop, and the Inquisitor, will all be portrayed by Michael Fowler and Larry Evans.

Tickets for the production, to be given at 7 p.m., Sunday, October 28, are available at the office of the Lowell United Methodist Church, at $1 per person.

The religion-oriented musical production has been termed by its authors as "an experience in Christian love which offers an opportunity for young people to lead an experiment in worship and establish the unity of all God's people."

Written by Jimmy and Carol Owens, "Come Together" is divided into five distinct sections, including: fellowship, salvation, the identity and power of Christ, the Second Coming and songs of praise and worship.

"Come Together" offers an opportunity for unrehearsed congregational participation in the production which features songs ranging in mood from serene to snappy. In all, forty college students appear in this musical cast. The Ecumenical Singers will be the overnight guests of members of Cascade Christian Church, and the youth groups will entertain their guests at a potluck dinner following services November 4th.

Rev. Daniel Chu, Series Speaker At Trinity Lutheran

The Rev. Daniel Chu, of Mt. Clemens, Michigan, who was born in China and has had experience in mission work in Southeast Asia, will be guest speaker for a series of "Key to Life" Mission meetings at Trinity Lutheran Church, 2700 E. Fulton St., October 21-24.

The series will begin Sunday morning, the 21st, with Pastor Chu speaking at both the 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. worship gatherings. He will also speak Sunday through Wednesday evenings at 8 p.m. This mission is part of Trinity's evangelism emphasis during this year of Key 73, the inter-denominational evangelism effort in which more than 100 denominations and church groups in North America are participating.

Pastor Chu's theme, in keeping with the Key 73 program, will be "Christ is the Key." Each evening meeting will include an opportunity to ask questions about the Christian Faith or the teachings of the Lutheran Church.

Pastor Chu is the son of a Chinese Christian minister and his wife. He attended Caseo University and a Lutheran Seminary in China and is a graduate of Wittenberg University and Hamma School of Theology in Springfield, Ohio. He has served in the China office of the Lutheran World Federation, as an evangelist among refugees in Hong Kong, as a missionary to Malaysia and as a pastor in Springfield, Ohio. He is presently serving as pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Mt. Clemens, Michigan. He has served on many boards and agencies of the Church and is presently a member of the Division for World Mission and Ecumenism of the Lutheran Church in America.

Explore Possibilities Of Lutheran Church For Lowell Area

An exploratory meeting has been scheduled for Sunday, October 28, at 7:30 p.m. at Lowell Area School's Bushnell School, to discuss the possibility of establishing a Lutheran Church in Lowell.

A substantial number of Lutheran families now living in Lowell and in the Lowell area, must drive large distances in order to worship in a Lutheran Church. Many such citizens have expressed interest in a Lutheran Church in Lowell.

Several Lutheran pastors and lay people have been promoting an effort toward the establishment of a Lutheran Church in Lowell for a long time. All are anxious to see a Lutheran Church started here.

The meeting October 28 is open to all citizens of Lowell and surrounding areas who are interested in an effort to bring the Lutheran Church to Lowell. Refreshments will be served immediately following the meeting. Anyone seeking further information may call 897-9551.

Lowell Junior Varsity quarterback Brian Doyle (No. 12) faded back to pass, avoiding an oncoming Belding tackler, in the game which Belding won 20-8.

A Lowell fumble is quickly recovered by Belding.

Time out was called during Friday night's game when officials were rushed on the field to assist an injured Belding receiver.

Lowell Tops In League After Beating Belding

"It was a real good game," one Lowell football fan beamed as he departed from Belding Friday night with a grin of victory.

In what was termed the game of the season, week, and Tri-River League, the Red Arrows of Lowell took a 14-12 frustrating win from the Belding Redskins.

Despite the fact that they were heavily penalized throughout the night, the Arrows used drive and determination to overcome the repeated setbacks, and set up a strong defense to halt the penetrating Redskins.

The win put Lowell on top of the Tri-River standings with three wins and no losses. Belding, who now stands at 3-1, dropped into a second place tie with Sparta.

The battle of "powers" dominated the first half of the game, with Lowell making the break late in the second quarter, when Jeff Hendrick intercepted a Belding aerial, going over for six points from the 17 yard line. The two-point conversion by John Piper was good, giving Lowell the halftime edge 8-0.

First to score in the third quarter on a 70 yard drive, Belding failed to execute the two-point conversion, still trailing 8-6. Lowell, feeling more confident, put six more points on the scoreboard, when Bruce Billcock broke tackle, with a good running exhibition downfield for 25 yards, putting Lowell out from 14-6, as the point after failed.

Belding, hoping for their ninth straight victory, came back strong, scoring on a 45-yard pass play. Missing the point after attempt, they still trailed the Arrows 14-12.

Quick to recover an onside kick, Belding's thoughts of victory vanished on Lowell's 16 yard line when the clock ran out.

In the game's statistics, Lowell mustered only a mere 186 yards of total offense to Belding's 232, but were able to capitalize more on overall downfield play.

In other Tri-River action last Friday night Greenville (2-2) emerged victorious over Coopersville; Sparta defeated Cedar Springs 6-6; and Lakewood took a 30-0 non-league win from Ionia.

It's homecoming Friday night, October 19, as the Red Arrows play host to the Vikings from Lakewood at Recreation Park. Game time is 7:30.

Half time ceremonies will feature the LHS band, the Pom-pom girls, the homecoming queen and her court and the class floats carrying the theme "The Morning After."

Annual Coaches Clinic

The Central Michigan University basketball office will host its annual Coaches' Clinic, October 27 at the Dan Rose Center, starting at 8:30 a.m.

The featured morning speakers at the clinic include G. R. (Hank) Sluder, a nationally known expert on shooting, and George Koch, Mt. Pleasant High School's successful coach.

Following the work sessions there will be a CMU varsity demonstration and scrimmage.

Battle Creek Takes Regional Title

Class B regional golf play started Saturday at 9:30 at Deer Run Golf Club. After a continuous downpour, play was stopped. All teams returned Monday and started over from scratch with a shot-gun start at 12:30.

The field was large, made up of 20 teams of the Central part of the State, weather was brisk and the course proved to be tough.

After 18 holes of play, a sudden death play-off took place between Battle Creek, Harper Creek and Holt. Both teams finished with a 354. Battle Creek won on the first hole of play, No. 10, with a score of 19 and 20. Rockford finished with a 357 to qualify also for the State meet at Sturgis, Saturday, October 20.

Robert Pitschauer of Rockford was low medalist with a 39-41 for an 80, and Steve Lubbers of Holt second with an 81.

The Tri-River powers, Greenville and Lowell, faded to a 5th and 6th place respectively.

Season Ends For Thornapple Little League Football

Four games of Thornapple Valley Little League football, last Saturday, brought a close to the 1973 season.

Ten o'clock action on the Thornapple Valley field saw the Lowell Lion Leos walk off with a 26-0 victory, after they held the Bone Crushers to a scoreless game.

The Leo's, who took complete command of the field action, finished the season with a 3-3 record. Another shut-out game was also played at 10 o'clock in Middleville, when the Lowell Lions emerged victorious (41-0) over the Bulls. The Lions who won five games during the season, recorded only one loss.

Two games at Fallsburg Park saw the Trojans out-score the Lowell Lions Cubs 6 to 2 and the Lowell Tail Twisters down the Warriors 19-7.

During the season, the Lion Cubs won three and lost three, while the Tail Twisters took three wins, lost two, and tied one.

Lowell Freshman Defeat Belding

The Lowell Freshman football team ran its season record to three wins and two losses by defeating Belding 12-0 at Belding.

Lowell dominated the game throughout, gaining 195 yards in 39 plays. Belding gained 34 yards in 27 plays. On 11 of the 27 plays the Lowell defense stopped Belding runners for losses totaling 23 yards.

Lowell scored on a 35 yard pass from Ramsey Martinez to Gary DeVries for Lowell's first touchdown. The second Lowell score came in the fourth quarter on a 25 yard run by Mark Stinchcomb.

Stinchcomb led all runners gaining 99 yards on 14 carries, followed by Martinez with 42 yards on eight carries.

Tim Lenneman, Mark Reis, Jerry Dalstra and Jim Brown were standouts on defense.

Lowell will travel to Lakewood this Thursday for a 5 o'clock game.

FEATHER PINS . . .
Man's first clothing fasteners are believed to have been the quills of bird feathers, according to a leading maker of straight and safety pins. Although feathers were replaced by crude metal pins about 6,000 B.C., their pioneering role is preserved in the very word "pin," which is derived from the Latin "pinna," or feather.

Snow Club To Meet Sunday

Since being elected to the helm of the Flat River Snowmobile Club of Lowell, Wes Adriance has had his work cut out for him establishing new committee chairmen, and setting up a schedule of events for the 1973-74 season.

This Sunday, at the Jaycee's Lodge on Burroughs Road, President Adriance will present some of his plans to the members at their monthly October meeting.

Meeting at 12 noon, the members will terminate their business matters before devouring a potluck dinner and enjoying an afternoon of fun and games. All members are urged to be in attendance.

Members are also reminded to get in gear and finish selling the tickets for the snowmobile and other prizes to be given away sometime in December. All monies collected so far, should be brought to the meeting Sunday. More tickets will be available to those who have run out.

THE TIME IS NIGH

The time is nigh to finish the garage door. The summer's almost gone and fall is arriving. And soon snow will fall and it's time to go riding. Now gently lift off the cover.

And, lo and behold, there's last winter's lover. It may be blue, yellow, green or red. But, it's still that same glorious sled.

So with tender love, I wipe off the dust. And check to see if the summer dampness left any rust. I check the oil, gas, and the tracks.

The spark plugs and the engine for cracks. Now that all the nuts, bolts and belts have been checked over.

It's time to climb on this beautiful rover. So I climb aboard and begin to dream. Of skimming over snowy fields and a frozen stream. Then all of a sudden I'm jerked back to life. By a voice shouting "Hey wife!"

How about some dinner or I'm apt to get thinner. So back to the house to fix the dinner. 'Cause I don't want him to get any thinner.

But I keep thinking it won't be long. Before the whole family will be out there strong. Enjoying the winter and the wonderful fun of snowmobiling under the winter moon and sun.

Private Lands Open For Public Hunting

Twenty-two hundred and seventy-seven farms throughout Michigan are open for public hunting. This provides approximately 400,000 acres open without charge for hunting any or all game, according to Dorn Diehl, State Executive Director of the Michigan State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office. State game laws and regulations must be observed. The majority of these farms are in the lower one-third of the State where there is the greatest need for more open space.

Diehl points out that these farms can be identified by a large green and white metal sign stating in part "hunting permitted without charge." Other farms have a bright orange poster around the boundaries of the farm which state "hunting without charge." In all cases, the hunter should be sure to call at the farm headquarters and identify himself and learn the boundaries of the farm. Diehl urges hunters, also, to observe the restricted areas as many fields of soybeans have not yet been harvested and should not be hunted in.

A list of public access farms may be obtained in each local county ASCS office for that particular county. A list of the farms in other counties or for the entire State, may be obtained by contacting the Michigan State ASCS Office, 1405 South Harrison Road, East Lansing or the regional headquarters of DNR, as well as the State headquarters in Lansing.

Northern Wins; Central Ties 6-6

The Huskies from Forest Hills Northern picked up a 20-6 gridiron win last Friday night from Hudsonville.

Senior tailback, Dave VanderBoon, playing a superb game for the Huskies, scored three touchdowns on runs of two, six and three yards.

At the half, Northern held a 13-0 lead, with quarterback Darrell Yates completing five of 10 passes for 69 yards.

This Friday night the Huskies will play a away game at Godwin at 7:30.

PAT'S No Good

The game between the Rangers of Forest Hills Central and Kenowa Hills ended in a 6-6 tie Friday night, as neither team could muster a vital point after score.

Kenowa Hills dominated the game until the final minute and a half, when the Rangers scored on a two-yard smash by junior Shawn Gary.

The tying score was set up by quarterback Jack Sherry's 34-yard completion pass to Tony Grochowalski. Sherry, who attempted 15 aerials, completed nine for 132 yards.

The 17-point after kick, which would have put Forest Hills on winning note, went wide of the uprights, resulting in the final goal and a 6-6 tie.

For Forest Hills, Mike Wiewiora picked up 85 yards on 17 carries.

Playing at home against Zealand this Friday night, the Rangers are looking to improve their season's record in O-K Business competition.

BITS O' BUSINESS

Inflation has resulted in sharply increased U.S. imports of that most portable form of wealth—jewels. Incoming shipments of diamonds rose from 1.6 million carats in 1972 to an annual rate of 2.5 million in the first seven months of this year, up 38 percent.

Rotary Speakers Discuss Fuel Crisis; Germany Visit

Lowell Rotary Club began its October 10 meeting by singing "America" and being led in a prayer of thanks for each minute of the gift of life, by the Rev. Dean Bailey.

Following the delicious meal, the group joined in singing old time songs from the Rotary Song Book. Bob Kyser led the singing with David Coon at the piano. The "tic toe" sound effects for the singing of "Grandfather's Clock" were provided by Lee Lampkin.

Sergeant-at-arms, Al Hermans, introduced the club's guests which included Cv Newlund, Larry Edlund, John Way (visiting Rotarian from Durand, Mich.), and Jr. Rotarians Mike Hendricks and Carl Higgins. It was good to have Norm Borgerson back, looking no worse for the wear and tear of a little accident.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the club secretary, Rommie Moore. Club President, Phil Schneider, made announcements concerning the visit of the District Governor of Rotary and the club's part in collecting for the United Fund.

King Doyle spoke to the club concerning the current fuel crisis and its possible effects on Lowell. A number of club members volunteered to do their part to conserve electricity.

Don McPherson, editor of the club paper, thanked Don Rocheleau and the United Methodist Church for typing and printing the weekly edition.

Program Chairman for the day, John Roth, introduced Margaret (Meg) Reynolds. Miss Reynolds narrated a colored slide account of her nine week's summer visit to Germany. Going under the Youth for Understanding Program, Meg stayed with a German family, Mr. and Mrs. Gunter Richter, and their four children, aged eleven through 23 in Heidelberg.

Miss Reynolds said that she was impressed with a number of things about the German people; their clean cities, the seriousness of the German youth, the desire for natural, fresh fruits and vegetables, and their practice of getting exercise by bicycling and walking.

USE A DOUBLE CYLINDER

A double cylinder deadlock—a type that needs a key to be opened from the inside as well as from the outside—is recommended where a burglar might break the glass portion of a door and open it by reaching through the break and turning the knob. Such a lock also prevents easy exit if a burglar does succeed in entering elsewhere.

Mr. & Mrs. Kirk Y. Jefferies

Ebenezer United Methodist Church in Crittenden, Virginia was the setting Saturday, September 22, at 2 p.m. of the marriage of Miss Carol Jo Brock and Kirk Young Jefferies before the Rev. Samuel Cole.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hills DeWitte Brock of Crittenden. The bridegroom's parents are Catherine Jefferies and Harold F. Jefferies, both of Lowell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a nylon organza gown with the bodice of cotton and Venice lace. She wore a chapel length mantilla bordered and appliqued in cotton and Venice lace. The bride carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pink and yellow sweetheart roses with lavender and lime carnations accented with lily of the valley and centered with a white rose corsage.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Linda H. Pruitt of Onancock, Virginia as her matron of honor, by Miss Patricia Brock of Crittenden and Mrs. Sinde P. Brock of Chesapeake, Virginia. The flower girl was Laurel E. Prince also of Chesapeake. They wore eyelet floor-length dresses each in a different rainbow color. The headpieces were picture frame hats trimmed with lace and carried white long-stemmed roses.

Robert Mills of Portsmouth was the groom's best man. Groomsmen were Steven Heim of Portsmouth and Gerry D. Brock of Chesapeake. The ring bearer was Joseph Pilkington of Chesapeake.

Wedding music was provided by Miss Helen Luter at the organ. Mrs. Carole Prince of Chesapeake was wedding directress.

Following a reception in the church social hall, the couple spent their honeymoon in the Skyline Drive, Pocono Mountains and in Michigan. The couple will reside in Portsmouth, Virginia.

Snowmobilers Urge Halloween Safety

Apples, cookies, candy, cider, and donuts seem to go right along with the witches, ghosts, ghouls, and goblins of Halloween. The goodies are treats—payments in lieu of tricks. Or are they?

On Wednesday, October 31, the annual pilgrimage begins for the long anticipated treasures. Will it be "trick or treat?" or, trick or treatment? For many children it is an evening of great fun and adventure, but for some it can turn into a night of tragedy and sorrow.

Each year, far too many children are injured and killed Halloween Eve by motorists unable to see them darting unexpectedly into the street. Others are badly burned as their costumes are ignited by flames from lighted candles and lanterns. These tragic situations could be avoided if parents would observe rules of good sense and safety, such as the following suggested by the Flat River Snowmobile Club of Lowell.

Use only bright costumes. A white-sheeted ghost is more easily seen by a passing motorist than a black-clad witch. But even brightly clothed children may be hard to distinguish as the evening darkens so fluorescent strips which would make them even more visible, is suggested.

Do not allow children to carry lighted candles, or lanterns, or any type of open flame. A flash-light would be easier to carry, and would also make crossing the street safer.

Be sure to chaperone all children who would not normally be allowed outside alone at night. Younger children should be out only in the early evenings. The discreet presence of an adult can stop a problem situation from developing.

Be very careful that gum, candy, and other snacks are securely wrapped, and that the wrapping has not been opened and resealed. It is best to trick or treat in your neighborhood.

Keep a light on in front of your house so that there is no danger of children being injured by walking into objects or holes they cannot see in the dark. If there is a pet in the household, keep it away from the door.

Children enjoy putting on make-up as part of their costume but be careful of what they use. Cheap make-up can in many instances cause complexion problems for youngsters—or hurt their eyes.

Finally, when your child goes out for the evening, make sure you know where he or she is going and what time he or she should return.

Halloween can be a real treat for everyone. One way to ensure it is to follow these simple rules of safety.
