Dress Code Up For Reconsideration

The Younger generation was heard from again at the School Board meeting Monday night when Student Congress representatives Dave Beach, Mark Blough and Ken Thomet brought the dress code up for reconsidera-

As Beach, an excellent spokesman for the group, put it, "It seems to be an annual tradition to take another survey but there was obviously dissatisfaction in the high school and we felt the best way to deal with it would be to take another survey rather than just listen to a few radicals."

The first question asked in the survey was if students wanted any change in the present dress code and 89 percent voted "yes.

The second question asked if students thought they should be allowed to grow moustaches and 85 percent voted "ves."

Question number three asked if students should grow beards and only 48 percent voted "yes" to that so with less than half, it will not be requested.

The fourth question drew even less support when students turned down a request for unlimited hair length with only 41 percent voting "yes."

On question number five, should students be allowed to wear cut-offs, 70 percent voted "yes," and on question six, whether students should be allowed to wear short shorts (as long as they were not distracting, 80 percent voted "yes."

In a write-in section provided at the end of the questionnaire, only 10 percent wanted to drop the dress code completely (indicating that a gratifying 90 percent or approximately 600 students still want a supportative dress code) and only 7.49 percent wanted to be allowed to wear halter tops or midriff blouses to

Beach told the board that as the result of the survey, his council sould like to see the board amend the present code to allow the growing of moustaches and the wearing of cut-offs and short shorts but not as short

Beach also took issue with the wording of the code pertaining to shorts which states "six inches above the knee" stating that on girls with short legs, this is too short but that on girls with long legs, it is not short enough. He said that his council suggests that no measurement be stipulated but that it be stated that the shorts cannot be distracting.

The students were reminded by Board President Robert Reagan that no action is ever taken immediately when it involves policy change and Supt. Sinke suggested that it be turned over to the new committee on Suspension and Expulsion singe the dress code comes under that section.

High School Principal Dennis McMahon and Beach both then requested that if it is turned over to the new committee that they be instructed to act on it immediately so that the moustache-growing could start while the present seniors are still in school.

The new Suspension and Expulsion Committee which was set up to review the present code governing these items now has 24 members comprised of students, teachers, parents and other members of the communi-

The first meeting has been set for next Monday night at 7:30 p.m., in the high school library at which time materials for study will be given out and ground

Supt. Sinke also suggested that members of this committee make it a point to spend time in both the Middle School and Senior High while those schools are in session in order to observe the schools in operation.

Board members agreed to prepare specifications and get them out for bids on six new school bus chassis to be delivered next September. By getting the bids in now, they expect to save $1,100 per vehicle.

Six buses now in use have gone beyond the State reimbursement limit of seven years and should be retired from the fleet after this school year.

In reporting on the progress of planning for the new elementary construction, Supt. Sinke told the board that he had reached an agreement with Consumers Power Company whereby the reduction of gas usage at the old Junior High Building will allow the school to use the remainder for boilers in the proposed additions to Alto and Bushnell

The previous problem involved a Consumers Power policy that a gas permit taken out for new construction had to be used at the site originally proposed and was non-transferable.

Since the board now feels that the number of homes in Eastgate does not warrant the construction of a separate elementary building in that area, the gas permit did present a problem.

An election to have voters okay the change from a single new building to additions to Alto and Bushnell has been set for Monday, March 11.

This is not a request for money since the construction was already financed in the bond issue passed to build the new Middle School. Voters merely have to decide whether to add on to Alto and Bushnell and remodel portions of Runciman rather than construct an entirely new building.

The school will save money on operational expenses with the additions rather than the separate building. However, if voters, turn the proposal down then the new building will be erected, probably near the Bushnell building.

Now that the Showboat committee has the go ahead to move their location, school officials discussed briefly what to do with the property on Lafayette Street which has been earmarked for playground area in exchange for the property in the former bus parking area.

A suggestion was made that there is a crying need for tennis courts in Lowell and that perhaps the street bed would make a good foundation for courts.

Whether or not resurfacing the area would be just as expensive as constructing entirely new courts or whether or not the location so near the river would cause the surface to crack easily were issues raised.

Supt. Sinke stopped all the speculation when he stated that the school couldn't take any steps until they knew exactly what the Showboat committee planned to do in the form of a formal proposal.

In reporting the proposed plan for a City tree anting program presented before the Lowell City Council last week by George Watson, Oakwood Cemetery Sexton, the Ledger erroneously quoted Mr. Watson as giving an estimated cost of $18 per tree including labor. The quote should have read:

"The cost is estimated at $18 per tree, including labor, equipment and supplies. The cost of the tree is extra and would vary according to tree size, quality and variety."

Jackson Motor Sales will be closed this Friday afternoon, February 15th.

Real 'Comfort' To Have Someone Call

A friendly phone call to say "hello" and to check to see everything is OK, made once a day, can mean the difference between living alone and being isolated. Concerned about the older homebound of Kent County, 60 Red Cross volunteers, working through the Red Cross "Ring-a-Day" program, make daily calls to such people, checking on their well-being and providing them with a little peace of mind.

One such volunteer is Mrs. Warren Johnson, 11242 Ann Street, Route 4, Lowell, who has been calling a Grand Rapids woman every day for almost a year now. "It is really a comfort to her to have someone call every day," Mrs. Johnson said about her contact.

Each day, the two women chat about their families, friends, and visitors. Once, when Mrs. Johnson's 3-year-old son, Scott, was sick with a cold, he received an anonymous get-well card with two coins inside.

"I've asked everyone I could think of if they sent the card," Mrs. Johnson said, "but couldn't find out who it was. I'm convinced it was my "Ring-a-Day" contact because she was so concerned until Scott got

The daily conversation is one advantage of the program, but the contact also helps allay fears that, should accident or illness strike, it could go unnoticed

Although the program is open to any homebound person who has access to a phone, Red Cross has many more volunteers willing to make the daily contacts, and is looking for homebound individuals who would like a cheery call a day.

"We're sure there are many more people in Kent County who would feel more secure knowing someone would check on them on a daily basis," said Mrs. Nancy Evenson, 2925 Midland SE, Grand Rapids, who is volunteer chairman of "Ring-a-Day."

Mrs. Evenson cited the 1970 census, which indicates there are over 50,000 people over the age of 60 in Kent County, "Even if you assume only 10 percent of these people live alone-and that is a conservative figure-we're talking about 5,000 people," she said.

If you are interested in receiving "Ring-a-Day" calls, or would like to refer a potential recipient, please call the volunteer office of the Kent County Chapter, American Red Cross, 456-8661.

Cities And Villages Get Highway Funds

Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections for the fourth quarter of 1973-up 12 percent over the same period in 1972-are now being distributed to Michigan counties and municipalities, the State Highway Commission reported today. John P. Woodford, director of the Department of State Highways and Transportation, said net receipts of the Highway Fund for the October through December period totaled $116,800,421, an increase of $12,-267,681. Anticipated declines in revenue because of gasoline shortages and reduced driving were not apparent through the end of 1973, he said.

All state taxes on gasoline and diesel fuel, plus license plate fees, go into the Highway Fund

Woodford said the 12 percent increase for the quarter is attributable to an increas of two cents a gallon in the gasoline tax that went into effect February 1, 1973. One-half cent of the two cent increase goes to the state's new General Transportation Fund for public transportation purposes.

After deduction of collection costs by the Department of State and 1.25 percent for the Michigan Waterways Commission, the funds are distributed according to a formula established by the Legislature. The formula provides 44.5 percent to the Department of State Highways and Transportation; 35.7 percent to the state's 83 counties; and 19.8 percent to the state's 530 incorporated municipalities.

Under this formula, the Department of State Highways and Transportation receives $51,976,182 as its share in the fourth quarter collections; the counties receive $41,697,750; and the municipalities, $23,126,-

The counties' share includes $1,445,587 in snow removal assistance previously announced for 23 counties which qualified.

The 1973 fourth quarter distribution amounts to cities and villages, compared to the same period in Anxiously awaiting your letter telling all about your trip and visit with Kathy, Cla and Chayne. Know you had a good time and enjoyed yourself. Hope your flights weren't delayed like mine. I never arrived in Honolulu until 2 a.m., five hours late and in great shape. Had a 747 and the drinks were free all the way on account of the delay. Also obtained a free meal at the airport in lieu of supper hour on plane. Also had a nice meal on the flight. Found five other people who were hungry and didn't know about the meal, so I showed them the ropes.

So far I have a permanent job and like my work. I'm a crew messman and have another fellow who works with me, besides a pantry man. Also two extra messmen to serve 24 trainees who came in last weekend. They're all men from the west complex system of AT&T-Western Electric-Bell Telephone, etc. They are learning how to splice cable and join wire together. We untechnical laymen call that soldering. They will be here a month. Haven't run across any from Michigan but haven't talked with all of them yet.

This is quite a ship. I still get lost everytime I turn around or go a different way. Only saw my friend (the ole mate), Steve Kurlish, twice. Things are more or less formal on her due to so many big shots from AT&T. You almost need an appointment to go to work. Officers are dressed all in white and also me. They either knew I was coming or had a big one on here before-size 54 pants and 50 coat. Fits with some room to spare.

We went out 20 miles off shore to lay some practice cable (20 miles of cable) then pick it up and lay it again to test some new gear. The volcanic and coral bottom chewed it up and then we lost it. Picked it up and went off of Maui (100 miles away) to finish the job. The cable was no good and threw it away but had to retrieve the repeater worth $225,000. On a regular job one repeater every 10 miles and we can hold enough cable of the large type to lay 1,400 miles. The smaller one we can hold 2,000 miles. Will go into more info on that when I get home.

We are scheduled to go into Yokohoma shipyard March 26 (leave here I think) then pick up cable in Japan, Yokohoma. The ship has a contract for 21/2 years. I get 3 hours port time plus 3 hours stand by to make coffee for the trainees in afternoon (1-4 p.m.). Hope all are well, love you all. Take care. God

Love Frank.

Bible Hour Radio Staff To Appear Here

The Radio Staff of the Children's Bible Hours from Grand Rapids, will be appearing in the First Baptist Church of Lowell February. Time of the service is

The Children's Bible Hour originated in 1942, with its broadcast on a single radio station. It is the original Gospel program for boys and girls. Now heard weekly on more than 500 radio stations at home and abroad, it is eagerly anticipated by hundreds of thousands. Listeners not only include boys and girls, but many teen-agers and adults as well.

Members of the Radio Staff who will be appearing for the radio rally include some of the following:

Thoughts From The Living Bible

Oh, dear children, don't let anyone deceive you about this: if you are constantly doing what is good, it is because you are good, even as he is. But if you keep on sinning, it shows that you belong to Satan, who since he first began to sin has kept steadily at it. But the Son of God came to destroy these works of the devil. The person who has been born into God's family does not make a practice of sinning, because now God's life has been born into him and controls him-he has been born again.

First In Derby

Boy Scout Troop No. 334, sponsored by Cascade Christian Church, has placed "first" in Western Michigan in competition with over 400 other troops in scoutcrafts at the recent Klondike Derby.

The scouts went on to take the top position in all of Western Michigan, after they had won first in district competition Troop 334 has been working faithfully under the leadership of Scoutmaster Lance Molander and a host of fine adult leaders. The Boy Scouts would like to thank everyone who assisted them with their recent fund-raising paper

The Director of the world-wide ministry, who is Charles Vander Meer, is known a "Uncle Charlie." He has been associated with the work since 1956 on a full-time basis, and during the very early years of the ministry he was a regular participant on the program. Ken Louis, known as "Mr. Ken," is Music Director. For the radio rallies, he accompanies the singers and musicians, some times at the piano, and some times at the organ . . . but always with the master's touch. Mr. Ken has been associated with C.B.H. since 1956. He is Principal of a Middle School in Zeeland, Michigan.

Linda, Miriam and Susan, three little ladies known as the "Three Nieces," although still quite young, these girls already have learned the fine art of blending their voices in harmonious trio arrangements. Susan teams with a young fellow her age by the name of Peter, and they are known as the "Delightful Duetters." Everyone is charmed by the cute tiny tots, Ann and Peter J. These two sing their way into the hearts of everyone they meet.

Steve, with his "golden-toned cornet," provides delightful instrumental music. Each public appearance of the radio staff of the Children's Bible Hour is an event long to be remember-

Farms Decline

The number of farms declined 1 percent across the nation during 1973, while the average size of the American farm became 2 acres larger, according to Dorn Diehl, State Executive Director of the Michigan State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office. Diehl said that in Michigan the decline was 1,000 farms. Farm size averaged 154 acres in the state. Diehl said that the 1973 figures were recently released by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington, D.C.

The State official indicated that the national figures mean that some farmers added new acres to their operations last year. These farmers are following a trend that started almost four decades ago-a trend to fewer but larger farms. The average farm is now 385 acres,

Total farms by the end of 1973 was 2,821,000-1 percent less than in 1972-and they cover almost 1 billion 87 million acres of the nation's land. Although the loss of farmland to other uses is fractional-three-tenths of 1 percent-it totaled over 21/2 million acres in 1973. This is an area twice the size of the state of Delaware. In 1971, farmland lost to other uses totaled 3.5 million acres, in 1972 the figure was 3.2 million acres.

Diehl said the report indicates that while all individual yearly losses in farmland represent only a very small part of the total, there is some concern about the long term impact of the losses. However, it is interesting that the conversion of farmland to nonagricul tural uses, such as highways, housing areas, and shopping centers, has not caused a decline in the national farm output.

Amway Children In Safety Contest

The walls of the halls of the executive offices at Amway Corporation in Ada have recently taken on an art gallery flair, the direct result of a Safety Poster Contest for children of Amway employees.

Over sixty surprisingly original and colorful entries were made by the youngsters. Divided into three age classes, winners in each group were awarded a $50 Savings Bond while second place finishers received a $25 Savings Bond.

Karen Sue Allen, age 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Allen, West Riverside, Ionia, walked off with first place laurels in the age 4-6 class while Jill Graf, age 6, daughter of Mrs. Dee Graf, North Lake Drive, Grand Rapids, was awarded second place.

Other winners included (age 7-9 class) James William Zahniser, age 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Zahniser, Sr., Linden Road, Muskegon, 1st place; Scott Semplonius, age 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Semplonius, Boone Court, Wyoming, 2nd place; (age 10-12 class) John Winer, age 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Winer, Sr., N. Washington, Lowell, 1st place; Mary Beth Kelly, age 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bolt-hius, 7 Mile Road, Comstock Park, and granddaughter of Amway employee Mrs. Rose Steed, N. Fuller, Grand Rapids, 2nd place.

Following in hot pursuit and named runners-up were Christine Videan, age 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Videan, Gretchen Avenue, Grand River Dr., Lowell; Kevin Zahniser, age 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Zahniser, Sr.; and Doug Sawyer, age 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Sawyer, Mary S.E., Grand Rapids. Judges of the contest were John Forshar, Ada

Township Supervisor, Norm Shutes, Safety Education and Training Division, Michigan Department of Labor, Dan Jones, Manager of Creative Services at Amway, Joanne VohEhr, Amway Insurance clerk, and Cliff

Each contestant received a personal letter of appre ciation from Jay VanAndel, Amway's Chairman of the Board, and Richard DeVos, President of Amway, point ing out that if through participation in the safety post er contest the children had become more aware of the need of safety, then each and every one of them could

RECIPE FOR LIFE

You take a large amount of laughter and some teardrops, sighs. Add this to some sunshine and the smile of merry eyes. Put in 2 cups of morning dew; dilute it with rain. Stir it well with happiness, but season it with pain. Pour this in a golden cup; buttered well with strife; wrap it up with problems, and that my friends,

Reading 'Gleanings'

Impossible as it may seem, kids are trading dungarees for dresses and rock for rhumba. Like Will Rogers, I only know what I read in the papers, but if the report is correct, young people across the country have been discovering that cheek to cheek dancing is more fun than dancing with your partner on the other side of the room. Big band business is reported up, as are dancing lessons at dance studios. Samplings of predictions for the year note Richard Nixon's job security and Henry Kissinger's love life are food for thought and cause a variety of prognostications. Readers responding to an invitation by The National Observer to "peer into the future" drew some startling predictions. Henry Kissinger "will lose his sex appeal;" will have a Valentine date with Indira Ghandi; will become troubled with air-sickness, thus causing Golda Meir to grow impatient with the Secretary of State-trying to get his stomach under control and will become engaged to Egyptian President Anwar Sadat. Other whimsical predictions saw "Euell Gibbons die and reincarnated as a wild hickory nut; Richard Nixon continuing to use commercial airlines until such time as they lose his baggage; Ralph Nader charging that the Cookie Monster is too short to be a monster and is not a cookie; the oil problem ended by Presidential declaration that the automobile is now and always has been, inoperative, and the Government will announce a shortage of new shortages, and Americans will be asked to recycle old shortages voluntarily, under the threat of rationing.

One practical soul thinks "hot air expelled by politicians will be put to good use during the energy shortage enabling the U.S. to become more self sufficient and another believes Americans will be assigned a new number along with their social security, telephone, zip code, auto license, etc. The new one will designate nothing, but the bureaus set up for its distribution will reduce the unemployment rate caused by White House

Bob Ellis, one of Lowell's leading big game hunters, ook the club on a big game expedition via color slides. Mr. Ellis said that hunting in Montana is good but that they could learn a lot from the Michigan Department of Conservation. Local Montana residents seem to resent the out-of-state hunter and his hunting fee is ten times higher. Also, the non-resident is required to hire a local guide at the rate of fifty dollars per day. Rotary Vice-president, John Jones, was in charge

f the meeting-assisted by Al Hermans, Stan Gardner, Norm Borgerson, Bob Kyser and David Coons. The induction ceremony for the new members was conducted by Don McPherson, assisted by Al Hermans, Charlie Doyle, John Jones, and Norm Borgerson.

Dedication Services Honor Dennis Eldred

Following his untimely death a year ago, a memorial fund was established honoring Dennis Lee Eldred of Bell Road, Freeport.

The Junior High student at Lakewood Public Schools, who lost his life in an automobile accident, had among his many treasures of life . . . a great desire to excel in shop crafts . . . which led to the dedication services held last week at the school.

The accumulation of funds, matched by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dorlan Eldred, were used to purchase machinery and supplies for the school.

Involved in the dedication services were Rzymond Greene, principal at Lakewood Junior High; Mr. Merchant, shop director; and the Rev. Lee Palmer of the Pleasant Valley United Brethren Church.

Special guests included Dennis' eighth grade schoolmates which comprise the Class of '78; his parents; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Geldersma of Alto and Mr. and Mrs. George Eldred; and his aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stahl and Mrs. Paul Erickson.

The services were planned by the Class of '78, and the Eldred family expressed their gratefulness, revealing that the thoughtfulness would never be forgotten.

Linda Palm Becomes Mrs. Robert Verburg

Miss Linda L. Palm and Robert D. Verburg were united in marriage on Saturday, February 9, at the Cascade Christian Church.

The couple spoke their vows before the Rev. Raymond Gaylord in a two o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Palm, 3521 Thornapple River Drive, Cascade, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Verburg of Crescent Street, Grand Rapids.

The bride entered the sanctuary adorned in a Victorian-style gown of silk taffeta, trimmed in Venise lace. Her chapel-length veil of illusion was edged in matching lace.

Preceding the bride down the aisle was her maid of honor, Joyce Hulbert. Marcia Ketteman was the bridesmaid.

Assisting the groom were Craig Weaver as best man and David Johnson as groomsman. The guests were seated by Bruce Palm and Joseph Danders.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors.

Cascade Data Bought By Illinois Firm

Cascade Data, Inc., builder of computers for small businesses, has been purchased by Syntronic Instruments, Inc., a 25-year-old manufacturer of sophisticated electronic components for instrumentation and other uses, headquartered at Addison, Illinois.

Robert J. McAndrews, treasurer of the privatelyowned Syntronic, said the firm he is associated with bought "only the assets of the firm, not the liabilities except service commitments to Cascade customers."

Cascade Data presently has 60 persons on its payroll. The firm will continue to operate here at 3000 Kraft Av. SE under the Cascade Data name, according to Dr. Henry O. Marcy, Syntronic president. He said the Cascade product line would be expanded, distribution broadened "and all steps will be taken to assure success of this venture."

Terms of the sale were not disclosed by Syntronics or by APECO Corporation of Evanston, Illinois, the firm which has owned or controlled Cascade Data the last two years.

Clayton L. Rautbord, APECO president, said today that his firm previously had announced plans to terminate operations of Cascade. Dr. Marcy, however, said, "We have been a Cascade computer customer for some time and were impressed with the quality of the product, the company's talented personnel—whom we plan to retain—and Cascade's excellent service."

HAIR APPARENT

One father, who takes a dim view of his teen-age daughter's laziness, complained to his wife, "She doesn't move, except to turn the transistor yolume louder. Doesn't she play any games at all?"

"Not," he was advised, "unless they've made hairspraying an Olympic event."
