Reveal Re-Development Plans

Two concepts for a Community Development Program, under consideration by the City and the Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce, were presented at a public meeting at the Lowell City Hall last Thursday night. Expressing surprise at the relatively small turn-out, Mayor Carlen Anderson said larger quarters had been considered for the meeting—but the City Hall Council room was more than adequate for the 35 citizens in attendance.

Funds for the revitalization of the City's business district would come from a share of the more than $11 billion dollars made available through the Federal Community Development Act of 1974.

Dennis Elsen, a Williams and Works engineer and consultant to the Lowell City Planning Commission, described the two plans with the aid of color-keyed maps showing land use of affected areas. Rebuilding emphasis in the "minimum program" would be from Jefferson Street to Flat River, with Avery Street the northern boundary, and from the Flat River to Broadway Street on the west. Cost for the program is estimated at $4.5 million dollars.

In a phased development over a five to seven year period, new facilities for businesses wishing to relocate would be constructed with demolition of unwanted structures following, making way for parking areas and development of open green areas on both sides of the Flat River. The aesthetic value of the river frontage was given considerable attention in the planning layout.

Also included in the proposed programs are areas for construction of low-income housing for the aged on what is considered flood plain land at the end of S. Washington Street.

Elsen cited both federal and state statutes which provide safeguards relative to the effect on residents displaced and forced to relocate and for compensation to businesses who choose not to relocate.

The more ambitious of the two programs, as outlined, stretch from Jefferson Street west to Amity Street. Business areas in both programs would be concentrated on the east side. The more extensive plan, estimated to cost up to eight million dollars, shows areas on the west side given to the development of professional and office buildings. Relocation of the Lowell Light and Power plant is envisioned in a later phase of the project. The map also shows a new City Administration building in the area on what is now the City parking lot between Broadway and Riverside.

Another public meeting will be held Thursday, November 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall.

Citizens are being urged to make their views known and share their ideas concerning this important proposed plan for the City—and its residents.

Do We Need Better Water ?

For several years Lowell residents have expressed concern about the city water supply and distribution system. However, since the water is safe from the standpoint of public health, other projects such as the storm and sanitary sewer separation program have taken precedence over water system improvements.

Significant community support for a project to construct a water treatment plant was demonstrated and earlier this year the City Council authorized a feasibility and rate study to determine the improvements necessary and assist in developing a rate structure that would provide sufficient revenue for the system.

The results of the study recommended that the city develop three new water supply wells and construct a water treatment plant including a 500,000 gallon storage reservoir. The new plant will provide 1,500,000 gallons per day of softened water in which the iron content would be reduced to a negligible level.

The plant is designed to be expanded in the future in compliance with the needs projected in a study conducted by the Farmers Home Administration. New mains are also proposed to improve service to areas in the northeast part of town that have inadequate pressure.

Recently city residents have asked questions of city officials and expressed some concerns regarding the project and Mayor Carlen Anderson has provided answers to the questions and a more detailed explanation of the extent of the project.

One of the principal concerns was in regard to damage to the new street surfaces. Anderson has assured residents that the only water main required is to connect the new construction to the existing system and disturbance to streets will be minimal. The plant will be located in the southwest part of the city near the Grand River and the route of the new trunk main will avoid the new streets. The areas in the northeast in which new distribution mains are proposed were not part of the street improvement program.

Other questions have centered on financing and the method of payment of the bonds. The proposed financing method provides for the bond payments and maintenance of the system to be accomplished by means of rates only. No general property tax is proposed. Anderson also stressed that the rate increase will result in the average monthly cost to a family in the city being approximately the same as the cost of individual water softening equipment.

Recent studies indicate that the population of the city is expected to reach 3,600 by 1980 and 4,780 by the year 2000. The two wells which presently provide the major portion of the water supply are not adequate to meet the demands of the peak day and during those times auxiliary wells must be used. In addition to the requirements for water supply, there is need for increased storage capacity for fire protection.

While the water supply to the city is safe, the quality of water is not good. It is extremely hard and has a high iron content. Many residents have individual water softeners. However, these units do not provide for iron removal. Anderson concluded that city residents are encouraged to call the City Hall for information regarding the project. A complete explanation of the proposed rates to finance the system will appear in next week's Ledger.

Lowell Doctor, Wife, Five Others Injured In M-21 Head-On Collision

Harold R. Myers, D.O., and his wife, Virginia, of Lowell, were the only occupants of this car involved in a 2-car collision Sunday.

Seven persons were injured, one seriously, in a collision on M-21 near Ada, around 6:45 p.m. Sunday, Kent County Sheriff's deputies reported.

Harold R. Myers, D.O., 60, of 407 N. Division, Lowell, was reported in serious condition in Grand Rapids Osteopathic Hospital with a compressed chest fracture and deep lacerations. His wife, Virginia, 40, is in satisfactory condition with facial lacerations.

Injured in the other car and also taken to the Osteopathic Hospital was the driver of the other car, Daniel J. Kuiper, 16, of 6192-28th Street SE, who was treated for minor injuries and released Monday, his brother Dale A. 16, listed in satisfactory condition with a compound fracture of the left leg and arm, and Michael Grant, 17, of 1341 Maplewood Dr. SE, with a compound fracture of the left arm and lacerations.

Also in the Kuiper car were Ronald Jolman, 16, of 7635 Sally Dr., Jenison, treated at Osteopathic Hospital and David Chlyatck, 16, of 7370 Lime Hollow Dr. SE, who was treated at Blodgett Memorial Hospital.

Deputies said Kuiper was westbound on M-21 and pulled out to pass another car and struck the eastbound Myers' car head on.

Five persons riding in this vehicle were hospitalized Sunday evening following a head-on crash on M-21 near Ada.

HALLOWEEN PARTIES ... TONIGHT!

The Lowell Moose Civic Affairs committee will host their annual Kid's Halloween party to night, October 31, at Burch Field, beginning at 7 p.m.

There will be prizes for the best costumes, games and refreshments. All area youngsters, plus their parents, are invited.

In case of rain, the party will be held in the Foreman Building adjacent to Burch Field.

For the trick-or-treaters in the Ada area, the Ada Firemen will hold their annual party, October 31, in the Ada Fire Barn beginning at 6:30 p.m. Refreshments and movies.

Marilyn Cahoon 'Boss Of Year'

Marilyn Cahoon of Clarksville has been named "Boss of the Year" by the Woodland Chapter of the American Business Women's Association. The second woman ever chosen to receive this award, Mrs. Cahoon is the Supervisor of the Steno Department for Amway Corporation in Ada.

Her name and qualifications were entered in the annual contest by Edith Deveau of Wyoming, who is both a member of the chapter and an employee in Mrs. Cahoon's department. In her description of her "boss," Mrs. Deveau echoed the approval and friendship accorded to Mrs. Cahoon by each member of the department. Those qualifications were good enough, it turned out, to capture the award in the face of strong competition from "bosses," both male and female, representing many major business firms in this area.

Mrs. Cahoon, a nine-year Amway employee, has a cheering section at home, too. Her husband, Larry, and her three sons agree that she makes a very good "boss."

BITS O' BUSINESS

One of President Ford's key economic advisers, L. William Seidman, has again ruled out either wage and price controls or full government control of food exports as a means of slowing the continuing spiral of the Consumer Price Index. The Administration contends that controls will only worsen inflation in the long run.

Four separate parades, led by a dozen high school bands, converged at Calder Plaza in downtown Grand Rapids Tuesday afternoon to welcome home President Gerald R. Ford.

Among the participating high school bands were the marching units from Lowell and Forest Hills Central High School.

Three juvenile shoplifters were apprehended last week, and turned over to the custody of their parents, following questioning by the Lowell Police Department.

Two were caught lifting the goods last Wednesday at Lippert's and on Friday an 11-year-old was arrested at Eberhard's.

On Monday Kenneth Palcowski of Grand Rapids and Allen Maynard of Lowell collided just west of Hudson Street on Main.

The accident occurred when Palcowski attempted to pass Maynard on the right, hitting the Maynard car. No injuries were reported.

Saturday morning, the United States Mail drop box at the corner of Lincoln Lake Avenue and Foreman Rd. was found pried open.

The incident, a federal offense, is under further investigation by Postal Inspectors and the Lowell Police.

Harold Willard, American Legion Service officer, will be at the Clark-Ellis American Legion Post on East Main Street, November 11, to assist area veterans with any problems they may have.

Mr. Willard will be available to answer any questions beginning at 1 p.m. All veterans are urged to take advantage of this valuable service.

Two entries have been received for the Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce's annual Christmas parade which will be held this year on December 7. All organizations, clubs, businesses and industrial firms are urged to enter a float this year.

The parade which officially opens the Christmas season in Lowell will begin at 2 p.m. Anyone interested in entering a float should contact the Chamber office at 215 West Main Street.

Speaking of winter, have you had your anti-freeze de-grees in your car's radiator checked lately? Now's the time, before the predicted shortage hits in the months ahead. The valuable liquid is selling at premium prices.

A repair ticket issued in 1946 to A.B. Howard of Lowell from Vic's Auto Service showed the cost of six quarts of anti-freeze selling for $1.50, with a 50 cent charge being made to flush the cooling system. Times have changed, and so has the price structure!

How many area residents forgot to turn their clocks back at 2 a.m. on Sunday? Several reports made from employers showed that there were a few who failed to turn back the hands of time.

The new law passed by the Legislature taking Michigan out of double fast time on October 27, will see the clocks turned ahead at 2 a.m. on Sunday, April 27, 1975.

Employees not late for work Monday morning at Attwood Corporation on North Monroe Street, soon found themselves assembling in the company's parking lot while company and police officials searched the building following a bomb threat.

Most of the employees were released from their day's work while the search continued. However, an early all clear saw most of them back to their duties before noon.

"A Brief Discussion of the Proposals on the November Ballot" was the topic of Mr. Helmbrecht's address. The four proposals to be voted on deal with limiting the use of the motor fuel funds, veterans' bonuses, repeal of the sales tax on food and prescription drugs, and the transportation bond plan.

Imagine waking up to a day in which over one-third of America's work force has capriciously decided to take the day off.

You decide to your front door, only to find your morning newspaper missing; the paper your bus has gone fishing. After waiting an hour for your bus, you decide to walk to work; the driver, too, is away from his job. You arrive home at the end of a hectic day to find no groceries for dinner—your wife says the store was closed. The point is obvious; none of us can function without the performance of responsibilities by those on whom we rely.

Yet many of us apparently expect our country to operate smoothly when over one-third of us are "off the job" as citizens and voters. In 1972, for example, 80 million Americans—37 percent of the electorate—failed to vote in the presidential election. Worse, in the last non-presidential election year—1970—nearly 50 percent of eligible voters failed to cast ballots. This year be "on the job" on Election Day 1974.

Hit And Run Victim, JoAnna Verhil Passes

The victim of a hit and run accident died last Tuesday, shortly after the woman accused of hitting her demanded Kent District Court examination on a charge of leaving the scene of a personal injury accident.

JoAnna J. Verhil, 40, of 8852 Bennett Road, SE, Ada, suffered massive internal injuries when struck by a car at Bennett and Pine Valley Ave. SE, October 18. She died at Blodgett Memorial Hospital.

Janice DeVries, 19, of 9780 Bennett St. SE, accused of driving away after hitting Miss Verhil, was released on her own recognizance by Judge Joseph White.

Miss Verhil was walking east on the westbound side of Bennett St. when struck from behind, Kent County Sheriff's Deputy Kim Williams reported.

Mrs. Margaret Heemstra, of 9743 Bennett St. told Williams she was westbound when a car following her pulled across the centerline, passed her, struck Miss Verhil and drove on. Mrs. Heemstra, who lives across the street from the DeVries residence, was able to give only a vague description of the car.

About 11 a.m. Saturday, Deputy Bruce Phillips, a dispatcher, received a call from Mrs. Frank DeVries. She reportedly told Phillips she heard about the accident on the radio, said her daughter had a car similar to the hit-run vehicle and that coincidentally it had been damaged in the same area about the same time as the accident.

Deputy David Clark inspected the damage to the car and relayed his findings to Williams.

Williams said Miss DeVries told him her car had been damaged by stones. After inspecting the damage, Williams felt the loose outside mirror, dents in the left fender and a crack in the windshield were not caused by stones.

Williams was joined by his supervisor, Sgt. Walter Hudenko, and after talking with both officers, Miss DeVries reportedly admitted being involved in the accident and fled the scene because she became frightened.

Miss Verhil is survived by her mother, Elizabeth, with whom she lived, and two brothers, Matthew of Ada, and John of Grand Rapids; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Miss Verhil, a native of Grand Rapids, were Thursday at the Zaagman Chapel with burial in the Ada Cemetery.

The future bridegroom is currently working for the Michigan State Police at the Rockford Post and plans to continue school at Grand Valley State College to complete his B.S. degree in the Police Administration program.

A February 28 wedding is being planned by Miss Curtis and her fiancé.

Teresa Timpson Reigns As Queen

The 1974 Homecoming committee has put away its notes and worries for another year. It was a successful Homecoming week, with the highlight being the crowning of Teresa Timpson as the 1974 Queen, and Karl Higgins as her King.

Being a football player, Karl was crowned at the dance which was held on Saturday in the Middle School. The float competition was won, for the third year in a row, by the Class of 1976. The Junior float committee was headed by Steve Nofke, and the trophy was accepted by Maureen Doyle, the president of the Junior Class.

The second place position went to the Freshmen, with the Sophomores taking third.

The Homecoming committee was headed by Craig Anderson, assisted by Robin Childs and Barb Doy. The success of the parade was due to the organization of Mark Thomet and Jim Pfaler. The committee would like to express its appreciation to the car dealers for their cooperation with the cars and the floats.

Other persons who should be recognized are: Dr. Siegle, president of the School Board, who presented Miss Timpson with one dozen roses; Jeff Richardson, president of the Senior Class, who presided at the halftime festivities; Mr. Paul Balaam, the announcer for the halftime activities; Mrs. Holst for her help with the flowers; Mr. Rice and the great LHS Band for a wonderful halftime show; and of course, the mighty Red Arrow Football Team for topping off the week by beating previously undefeated Cedar Springs 21-6. Also our appreciation to Marcel Kropf and Ron Wilson for conveying the evening's royalty in their horse-drawn buggies.

Many underclassmen worked hard on the Homecoming committee—and will be experienced help in the Homecoming to come. They are: Juniors Steve Nofke, Maureen Doyle, Paula Kirby; Sophomores Jim Pfaler, Mark Thomet, Cathy Carbonelli, Bill Heintzelman and Paul Siciliano, Freshmen Laura Dey, Sarah Flanagan, and Vicky Tulecki.

CAMS Have Busy Schedule

A couple's club, made up mostly of members in the 30 to 40 age bracket, at the Cascade Christian Church, call themselves the "CAMS" and usually meet at 7:30 p.m. on the second Sunday of each month.

For the 1974-75 club year, the group will be under the leadership of Joan and Roger Crisp, presidents. They will be assisted by the following officers:

Trent DeJong, treasurer; Barb DeJong, secretary; and Marilyn and Dave McDonald, program chairmen.

Besides playing an active role in the life of the church, the CAMS pay the support for a Korean orphan and have some great meetings. The group is not discriminatory against persons from any age bracket or 'singles' either.

Lutheran Church Marks First Year

The Good Shepherd Lutheran Church of Lowell wishes to invite everyone to help them celebrate their one-year anniversary this Sunday, November 3, by attending the special service of worship at 10:30 a.m. and visiting the open house in the afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Lowell American Legion Building on East Main Street, where refreshments will be served.

On November 3, 1973, the Congregation of the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church of Lowell held its first service of worship in their temporary meeting place, the Cherry Creek Nursing Home. As the congregation grew, a larger facility was needed to accommodate the people, prompting their move into the American Legion Building in January of 1974, where services have been conducted since that time.

Now, almost one year later, this congregation is preparing to celebrate their first anniversary. On November 3, a special service of thanksgiving will be held commemorating the event. Highlights of the service will be the mixed choir of St. John's Lutheran Church of Ionia, who will perform.

The open house from 2 to 4 p.m. is open to the public. Everyone is cordially invited to help the congregation share in their joy and celebration.

Governor's Son Visits Fourth Graders

In response to Ron Chapman's letter to Michigan's Governor William Milliken, the Governor asked his son, William, Jr., to visit Ron's class at Bushnell Elementary School.

Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chapman of Lowell, wrote to the Governor—Dear Gov. Milliken: My name is Ron, and I would like you to come to Lowell, Michigan to visit my classroom for about 30 minutes. The school is Bushnell Elementary at 700 Elizabeth Street, and you can visit all the other classrooms, too. We have open classrooms in first, second and third grades. That's all I've got to say now. PS, sure hope you can come and visit us anytime you want. Sincerely, Ron.

The younger Milliken talked with Ron and his classmates in Jack Lalley's classroom at 9 a.m. on Thursday, October 24. "It was truly a different kind of speaking engagement," revealed Milliken.

"They were very much up on their politics, and were prepared to ask me some very straight-forward questions," exclaimed Milliken. "Once or twice, momentarily, they caught me a little off guard, but it was very unique in every way."

Women Enjoy Noon Luncheon

Mrs. Melle, Mrs. Daddazio, Mrs. Laux

"The response shown by the working women in the Lowell area in helping the Lowell Business and Professional Women's Club celebrate National Business Women's Week, last Wednesday, was very gratifying," exclaims Mrs. Irah Melle, president of the Lowell Club.

"The Lowell Club members worked very hard on this noon luncheon and deserve a great deal of praise," emphasized Mrs. Melle.

Some 95 women from the Lowell area, arriving at different times, enjoyed the luncheon, as they listened to the second vice-president of the Michigan Federation of B&PW Clubs, Mrs. Esther Daddazio, give an enthusiastic resume of the B&PW organization, its aims and goals, and the new program offered for teens and the scholarship program available.

Many business places honored their women employees by providing them with luncheon tickets to the B&PW noon gathering at the American Legion Hall on East Main Street.

The tables, accommodating the ladies, were lightly decorated with floral centerpieces, and adjoining tables were laden with B&PW literature, making a clever setting for the day's happenings.

Door prizes, lovely corsages, prepared by Birchwood Gardens, were won by Jean Nelson of Hallmark Foods; Nancy Schab of State Savings Bank; Norma Raymor of Wholesale Specialty Company; and Fern Smith, self-employed.

Mrs. Melle reminded all of the working women of the area that membership in the Lowell Club, which meets once a month is open, and anyone desiring additional information can contact her by writing to 618 Riverside Drive, Lowell.

Eagle Scout Wins Oratorical Contest

Boy Scout Troop 102 is proud of Eagle Scout George D. Lessens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lessens of 517 Elm Street, Lowell.

On October 19, this year, George was awarded first place in the Michigan State Finals of the Readers Digest and Boy Scouts of America Oratorical Contest that was held at the Washtenaw Community College in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The Boy Scouts of America sent finalists from 12 councils, representing 100,000 boys, and these finalists were judged on speeches written by themselves under the title "Be Prepared for Life, Be Safe, Be Fit."

Listening and judging the speeches were members of the Speech Department from the college including the department's head.

George was the first to give his speech and it lasted approximately six minutes and without the use of microphone or podium. George then had to wait the judge's decision after listening to twelve other versions.

The most practical use of common sense relating to the subject, as picked by the Reader Digest, and the B.S.A. were the words used to judge the result of thirty hours of preparation by George.

With the date yet to be set in November George will be competing in the Regionals with boys from seven other states representing approximately 100 councils.

Should George win the regionals, we are really pulling for him, he would then go to the finals that will be held in Washington D.C. with twenty-one boys competing for the National Title and a $2,500 scholarship.

George mentioned his appreciation of Mrs. Rogers' first and third hour speech classes for taking the time to listen and give constructive criticism on his speech and delivery prior to his leaving for the contest.

For any interested parties that would like to hear the speech you may contact William Nowak for the time and directions to Lakewood High School where George will speak before the District Appreciation Dinner November 12.

Troop 102 is proud of George for his winning effort, and the boys of the troop know that he will continue to represent them in the regionals, and hopefully the finals, with all the spirit of scouting he has learned over the years. Another example of what can be done when someone cares about youth and does something to help and guide them in their endeavors.

Speaking at the October 23 meeting of the Lowell Rotary Club was Richard Helmbrecht, Director of the Michigan Department of Commerce. Program Chairman, Don McPherson, right, greets Mr. Helmbrecht upon his arrival from Lansing.

Letters to the Editor

Something To Think About! Before the "powers that be" start tearing down the buildings along Main Street, a great demand should be made to relocate—which remains to be seen—the number one priority should be a Senior Citizen's Apartment Building. Saranac and Belding have nice ones, why doesn't Lowell find out how to finance one?

To build such apartments at the south end of Washington Street is ridiculous. There are the river fogs and the dampness of the low lands, roaring freight trains nearby, and there would be great expense involved in bringing up the ground levels. Also, the large sewer carrying rain-water run-off from the east side is spilled out down there.

Now I know where a good looking, architecturally correct, one or two-story building could be erected in town. And it would have a dry basement which might house a complete laundry service, storage rooms, and a community room with a kitchen like the one in Schneider Manor. The city already owns the land and the sidewalks, water, sewer, electric and gas lines are all around it—hence a substantial saving. It would be in walking distance of a grocery, the Post Office, Library, Movie, the Catholic Church, the Congregational Church, while the other churches could easily pick up their friends in residence.

So, why not use the north half of Richard's Park? I am sure the tenants would be healthier, and also feel much safer on lighter ground, among houses and people.

Everybody, please think it over, and let City Hall know.

Thank you, Thelma Hahn

Dey Qualifies For State Meet

The final week of the 1974 Cross-country season proved to be a busy one for Lowell. On Monday, the Red Arrows traveled to the Hastings Country Club for a triangular meet with Hastings and Battle Creek-Pennfield.

The Arrows broke even in that match-up; defeating Hastings 17-41, but losing to Pennfield 18-39. In the Hastings meet, Lowell's Mike Dey took first place honors. He had lots of company too, as the Lowell team took four of the top five places. Close behind Dey at the finish were Scott McNeal, Kevin Mulder, and Craig Mulder.

Thursday, Lowell traveled to Grand Valley State College for the Tri-River Conference meet. The outcome of the meet was really no surprise as dual meet champion Fremont captured the conference championship.

All teams finished in the identical order to the first dual standings. Sophomore Dey's sixth place finish earned him a spot on the 1974 all-conference team.

Senator BOB VANDER LAAN:

What has he done for us lately?

Bob VanderLaan is one of those legislators who gets a lot accomplished without a lot of noise. Since he hasn't expended much time or energy on personal publicity, we've asked some of your particularly knowledgeable neighbors for their views on his performance. Here are their comments:

MENTAL HEALTH: "Senator VanderLaan has been a prime mover in developing a positive program for mental health in Michigan. He has led the fight for a complete revision of our state Mental Health Code and for Mandatory Special Education for the handicapped. We need his continuing leadership." Mrs. Jan Woudenberg, President, Kent County Association For Retarded Citizens.

ENVIRONMENT: "Most everyone talks about preserving our environment. Bob VanderLaan works at it. The bills he has sponsored, endorsed and vigorously supported will make sure there is still a Michigan our great, great-grandchildren can enjoy." Stu Meyers, Past President, Michigan Union Conservation Clubs.

SENIOR CITIZENS: "As founder of the Michigan State Retirees organization, I've had many, many conferences with state legislators regarding our programs. Senator VanderLaan has been the most understanding and helpful of all. When you consider what the cost of living is doing to our senior citizens these days, you know how important it is to have a Bob VanderLaan in your corner." Tim Sullivan, R.R. #1, Ionia.

EDUCATION: "No Michigan legislator has worked harder or more effectively for the quality of education in Michigan than Bob VanderLaan. His personal interest, legislative skills and awareness of the job yet to be done are helping make education a primary benefit of living in Michigan." Albert L. Deal, Superintendent, Kent Intermediate School District.

If you would like to know more about Senator VanderLaan and what he has done for us lately, just ask around.

CITIZENS FOR SENATOR VANDER LAAN COMMITTEE Britton Gordon, Chairman

Defensively, Greg Ball playing in his first game since breaking his foot in the Kentwood scrimmage led with five tackles. Kropf, Wilder and John Savage in his first start of the year all had four tackles.

Lowell ran 36 plays to Cedar Springs 31 plays. Lowell is now 6-0 in league play with one game left in league competition. The Arrow Frosh are 7-0 for the year.

The Freshmen will close out Tri-River play this Thursday at Greenville at 5 p.m.

Norm Borgerson, former Lowell postmaster, purchases the first Christmas stamp as they went on sale October 24 at the Lowell Post Office. A regular buyer of special issue stamps, Norm said there were no Christmas stamps back in the days between 1932-36 when he served the local post office.

Postmaster Charlie Doyle stated they have 62,500 Christmas stamps ready for distribution and predicts the Lowell Post Office will handle 200,000 cards this Christmas Season.

Lowell Upsets Cedar 21-6

Burch Field, touched all over with a glow of brilliant colors last Friday night, depicting Lowell's annual homecoming festivities, ended on a very spirited note when the Lowell Red Arrows handed the Hawks from Cedar Springs their first loss of the 1974 Tri-River football league season.

A sparkling half-time presentation by the Lowell High School band led up to the crowning of Miss Teresa Timpon as Homecoming queen. The members of her court were Jackie Ranberger, Cheryl Bovee and Sue Christiansen. Voted to reign as king over the festivities was Karl Higgins. On the king's court were Craig Anderson, Scott McNeal and Rick Lantz.

The first Red Arrows scored a pair of third quarter touchdowns just seconds apart to take the 21-6 win from the Hawks. The game was deaucted at 6 all at halftime.

Lowell scored on a 25-yard run by Mike Tate, who on the ensuing kickoff belted Cedar's ace Red Perry with the ball popping it into the hands of Bruce Billock who raced down field 50 yards for another Lowell score.

In the first half, Lowell scored on a three-yard plunge by Karl Higgins and added three more points on the board when Scott Robbins made a 3-yard fourth quarter field goal attempt.

Cedar's only score came on a one-yard sneak by Scott Waldron.

Other Tri-River action last Friday night, Lakewood gained sole possession of first place in league competition by edging the Broncos from Cooperville 10-0. The Yellow Jackets of Greenville dominated.

FLAT RIVER SNOWMOBILE CLUB

Parents are reminded to drop their children off at 2 p.m. and pick them up at 4:30 p.m.

FOREST HILLS SNOWMOBILE CLUB

The Membership Meeting held October 17th, was another success with much discussion on our trails we will be riding this year. Much enthusiasm was shown by all in helping to find new trails, connecting old ones, etc.

LeRoy Smith, Trail Director, had maps made up of different areas needing landowner contact, etc., and many volunteers took these maps home to work on. It sure sounds like riding should be great this year once that snow flies. Anyone interested in helping to work on these trails can call LeRoy Smith at 1 m'suff all the extra hands would be welcomed.

After adjournment of the meeting, the program for the evening was First Aid, and what a demonstration was put on by some of the members of the Forest Hills Snowmobile Patrol, Ed Scheidel, Bob Palma, Dale Alger, Roger Matthews and LeRoy Smith! Thanks to Rudy Roth, the accident victim, we learned what to do for a person hurt from head to toe. A big thanks to the Patrolers for all the hard work they have had to do to organize such a great team.

The Forest Hills Snowmobile Patrol had a "Pig Roast" October 12th to raise money for first aid supplies and to help pay for the ambulance they have purchased.

Would you believe the patrolers barbecued two pigs at 280 lbs? It was a sell out of over 200 people. Needless to say it took a lot of food to feed this many and it was all home cooked by the patrolers wives, Mona Alger, Yvonne Fischer, Betty Palma, Betty Scheidel, Dee Smith, Ruth Waller, Carol Cooke, Marion Beeman, Judy Vandorhoff and Joan Matthews. They prepared 100 pounds of scalloped potatoes, 80 lbs. of colelaw, jellies of all varieties, rolls and cake. A big thanks to both the patrolers and their wives for a great meal and an evening of fun.

November 2, 1974 - REMINDER - SAFETY SNOWMOBILE COURSE: in the clubhouse at 9 a.m. for our women members. Men are welcome if they want to take the course. Imagine ladies, breakfast out that morning cooked by men, served by men, cleaned up by men and then a lesson on snowmobile safety, maintenance orientation and also a short course in first aid. Forest Hills Central Downs Zeeland

The Rangers of Forest Hills Central High School kept their hopes for a share of the O-K White Division title shimmering last Friday night as they overpowered Zeeland 27-7.

Jumping into an early lead, Forest Hills led at half-time 21-0. Dan Faulkner broke into the scoring column on a two-yard plunge in the first quarter, then Bill Dangi picked up a fumble and ran 94 yards for another tally.

Ranger Halfback Shawn Gary leaped over from the four yard line to end the Rangers' point producing second quarter. Forest Hills netted 118 yards on the ground and 105 through the aerial routes.

Zeeland gained 139 yards on running and collected 118 more yards in passing.

Shocking Win

Forest Hills Northern High School, sporting an improved squad, pulled a shocker Friday night with an 8 to 7 win over Godwin Heights.

Godwin, going into the game with a 3-2 record, took the opening kickoff 70 yards; the mark capped on a 21-yard scoring toss from Scott VanBelkum to Mike Harrington. Jim Bergstrom kicked the point after.

The Northern Huskies took the second half kickoff 75 yards to score as quarterback Jack Lane scampered across on an eight yard key play. He then tossed a two-point pass to Rod Lanning for the game's clincher.

Bruce Chaffee led Northern's ground attack with 125 yards in 31 carries as the winners finished with 184 total yards.

New Deadline Will Relieve Annual Logjam

More than a million persons who will receive income questionnaires with Veteran Administration pension checks for November must return them by January 1 instead of the customary January 15 deadline.

VA officials explained the new deadline was set to relieve the annual logjam in preparation of January checks when pensioners returned the questionnaires near or after the former January 15 deadline. Pensioners are urged to complete and return the questionnaires promptly.

The VA noted most pensioners must file questionnaires each year. Exceptions include pensioners 72 years old or over who have been on pension rolls for two consecutive years, though they must report income changes when they occur.

School Strengthens Reading Program

It was apparent at Monday night's Board of Education meeting that students throughout the United States are experiencing reading difficulties in all grades from elementary levels right through high school.

Jane Blough, recently appointed chairman of the local system's participation in the Federal Government's new "Right to Read" program, reported to the board that new developmental reading methods which Lowell had already started one year ago, are now being advocated by federal education researchers and to date 31 states, including Michigan, are now involved in the new training sessions.

"We decided last year that while we would not throw out everything that we were currently using, we would begin a combined reading program of Kindergarten through twelfth grade and add brand new developmental methods in the elementary schools," Mrs. Blough reported.

Since educators on the national level have now realized the need for more reading and updating instructional methods throughout the United States, 30 days of intensive training are now offered at a rate of three days per month to representatives of participating school districts.

Instructors from the Federal Dept. of Education, the State Department of Education, and various college professors all combine in these three-day sessions to bring the latest information and materials to the district level. Mrs. Blough stated that in Michigan, 35 school representatives are now undergoing the year's training which takes place in Grand Rapids.

Board members requested that Mrs. Blough, head of the system's elementary remedial reading department, appear before the board again in January and April to give evaluation reports on the success of the new program.

Along with the "Right to Read" program, the federal government has also started a Paper Back Book program that Lowell will take advantage of, board members were told.

This program will provide hundreds of free paper back books for the school libraries.

The board adopted new guidelines regarding property transfer requests which stipulate that not only must both the district that the property is being transferred from and the district to which it is being transferred agree to the transaction, but the receiving school must pay up the assessment debt that the property may hold within one year.

Ron Holst, Gary Rivers and Ivan Blough, representing the Lowell Lions Club, requested the board's permission to construct new rest room facilities just north of Burch Field and east of the swimming pool. The location would enable it to be used by baseball spectators in the Spring as well as football fans in the Fall. The Lions stipulated that they would like to see it used by the 4-H group during the Fair and at any other times as needed.

To be paid for entirely by the Lions, the school's only expense would be to extend existing fences to enclose the new building as well.

Paul Smith, fourth grade teacher, was granted a medical leave of absence without pay for the remainder of this school year.

Board members unanimously approved the appointment of Roger Roberts to serve on the board replacing Dr. Robert Reagan for the rest of this school year. Monday night's meeting was the final one for Dr. Reagan who resigned after 12 years of continuous service.

Board President Richard Siegle noted with appreciation all the time spent by Dr. Reagan in the service of the school community and referred to him as an extremely valuable asset. Supt. Leonard Sinke added that, "Dr. Reagan has always put forth a terrific effort in school matters and is one of the best board members it has ever been my privilege to work with."

Citing briefly some of the progress the district has made in the past few years, Dr. Reagan appeared satisfied with a job well done and added, with a hint of regret, "This board has almost become a permanent part of my life. I am now going to have 10 or 15 extra free evenings per month that I won't know what to do with... but I'll probably think of something."

Parents' Group: Slate Of Officers To Be Voted

At the November 5 meeting of the newly organized parent's group for the residents of the Lowell School District, a slate of officers will be voted on.

Proposed to head the group as co-chairmen are Pat Sturgis and Marge Dibble. Other tentative officers are: Fran Mendez, recording secretary; Lee Ann Nickless, correspondence secretary and Ruth Wood, treasurer. Nominations will also be accepted from the floor.

Guest speakers for the evening will be District PTA representatives Norma Mastenbrook and Leona Schurfer who will discuss affiliation with the National Organization.

It is also hopeful that a speaker from the Alto Parent's Group will be on hand to discuss their organization, focusing on their aims and goals and possible interlinking the two groups.

As one new member of the group put it "I still think we can have better schools, but it is up to us to keep at it and make our views known. Joining the parent's group is one way to do this. This school belongs to all of us and it is our responsibility to make it a good school."

The November 5 meeting is open to the public and will be held at the Senior High School, Room J-1 starting at 7:30 p.m. Coffee will be served at 7:15.

LHS Band Notes . . .

On Friday, October 25, the Lowell High School Marching Band led the Homecoming Parade down Main Street, then to Burch Field.

During pre-game, the band did a routine to Varsity which put them in concert formation. Then, under the direction of Mr. Robert Rice they played "Heaven on Their Minds." After the Star Spangled Banner the band moved into form the tunnel for the players.

To start off half-time, the band, led by drum major Doug Anderson, stepped lively with a routine to "Alexander's Ragtime Band." Next, they played "Something For Cat," featuring the twirlers, Suzy Sinke, Val Videan, and Kathie Irwin. After the King and Queen were announced, the band played "Seasons in the Sun" to honor them. Then the band marched off the field to Varsity.
