

City Council Accepts Second Low Bid

By a vote of 4 to 1, the Lowell City Council, Monday night, accepted the second low bid of Curtis Laundry Service of Lowell as the provider of Uniform Service for City and Light and Power Co. employees at the cost of $81.80 per week. Low bid was submitted by present supplier, Domestic Linen, at $77.70 per week.

Although cost to the City will be a few cents lower with Curtis Laundry Service, cost to Lowell Light and Power would increase by about $200, City Manager Blaine Bacon said, but indicated there has been some dissatisfaction with the current supplier.

Councilman Harold Jefferies questioned the higher cost to the Lowell Light and Power Plant and cast the one dissenting vote.

A report on results of a traffic control study conducted by the Michigan State Police will be given by a representative of the State Police at the next meeting of the City Council.

Included in the study was a traffic count at the intersection of Main Street and Hudson and also at West Main in the Valley Vista area. Chief of Police Barry Emmons, who requested the study, stated the report will probably contain recommendations for the correction of problem areas.

Taxpayers may soon learn whether there is money left to reimburse them now that the Storm Water-Sewer Separation Project has been wrapped up. Kenneth Anderson, Williams and Works engineer, told Council members the figures are in and a report may be ready by the next council meeting.

Another public meeting on the Community Development Program is scheduled for this Thursday night, November 7. Next regular meeting of the Lowell City Council, Monday, November 18, at 8 p.m.

Jan Johnson Wins Employee's Art Show

"Autumn Splendor," an original water color by Jan Y. Johnson of Lowell, was selected as the top entry in the Anway Employee's Art Show held last week. Ron Spielmaker's acrylic painting entitled "Bay of Fundy—Incoming Tide" and Carol Bart's pencil drawing "Birds of a Feather" were awarded second and third placings, respectively. Spielmaker and Bart are residents of Grand Rapids.

Over 1,500 Anway employees and their husbands or wives were invited to participate in the show including those based in Canada, Australia, Hong Kong, West Germany, and the United Kingdom as well as those in various locations throughout the United States.

Of the fifty-four entries in the unique company-sponsored employee art show, the untitled tempera painting by Malcolm Shackleton deserves mention as the most traveled. It was sent to Ada from Sydney, Australia, where Shackleton is employed as a storeman in the Anway of Australia warehouse.

Mrs. Johnson is a well-known artist in the West Michigan area. A member of the Grand Valley Artists Association, she is an exhibitor in many of the local galleries and is in attendance at many of the local art shows.

Watch Out Speeders!

The Lowell Police Department is now using, on a trial basis, the "Speedgun II," a modern radar unit which is extremely versatile.

The unit, which can be hand held, can register the speed of an oncoming traffic vehicle, while the police cruiser is moving or stationary.

According to Lowell Police Chief Barry Emmons, "this is a needed piece of police equipment to make the street safer for the citizens. We urge you to obey the traffic laws and speed limits."

Hunter's Contests

When the 1974 statewide firearm deer season opens Friday, November 15, area hunters will trek to the woods to try and "bag the buck" that will net them one of several prizes being offered in two Deer Hunter's contests.

At Gilmore's Sporting Goods in Ada, hunters who purchase their deer licenses there are eligible to win one of three prizes, if they tag the biggest buck. The entries are given one point for each point on the rack and one point for each inch of the width of the rack; the hunter accumulating the most points is the winner.

Gilmore's this year is offering as first prize a five-band Universal radio, valued at $45; second prize, a sleeping bag worth $12.95; and third prize, a Bernz-O-Matic Fire Extinguisher, valued at $8.99.

For the hunter's convenience, Gilmore's will be open on Thursday, November 14, the day before the season officially opens, from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Ledger Contest . . .

To the first hunter who brings his deer to the Ledger office, 105 North Broadway Street, opening day, will go a two year's subscription to the paper; the second hunter will get a one year subscription.

During the season, all hunters are urged to report their success to the Ledger by calling 897-9261, giving us the number of points, approximate weight, etc. A complete listing of those hunters reporting deer shot will be run when the season is over.

Hunters are reminded that while the regular deer season runs from November 15 through the 30th, the antlerless deer season in Lowell Michigan concludes November 21 in all but three club areas in the Alpena area, where it ends November 30. There is no antlerless deer hunting in the Upper Peninsula.

'Any Number Can Die' All School Play

This year Lowell High School's all-school play is a three act comedy mystery titled "Any Number Can Die." This brilliant take-off, written by Fred Carmichael, is set in an old island mansion in the late 1920's. It is a fantastic mystery play complete with wills being read at midnight, sliding panels, robed figures, odd servants, and assorted murders.

The production sees six actors returning from last year's play: Ken Brower as T.J. Lathrop; Dewey Pines as Edgars; Denise Cadwallader as Sally VanViller; Tom Scheidel as Carter Forstman; Tony Ulichnie as Jack Regent; and Cliff Walker as Hannibal Hix. With this experience and much good new talent the play is expected to go over very well.

The play dates are November 9, 14, 15, 16 at 8 p.m. at the High School auditorium. Admission is $1 for students and $1.50 for adults. As one reviewer said "... worth the money for laughs . . ."

Attwood Goes Over The Top

The United Fund Campaign Drive at Attwood Corporation, 1016 North Monroe, Lowell, has gone over the top. Setting a goal of $4,500, the employees, management and office personnel gave a total of $5,400, representing 120 percent of the goal.

The tremendous response to the 1974 drive, reveals campaign chairman A. William Duncan, was due to the labors of a lot of people and the very generous giving of even more people at Attwood.

Of the 47 percent of the Attwood employees contributing to the United Fund Drive, 25.7 percent were either cash donations or to be billed direct from UFCS, and 74.3 percent were donations by payroll deductions.

Boy Scouts Annual Recognition Supper

A large crowd is expected to attend the Sunrise Boy Scout District's annual recognition potluck supper, November 12, starting at 6:30 p.m. The event will be held in the Lakewood High School cafeteria at Lake Odessa.

The program will be highlighted by the presentation of several coveted scouting awards and the appearance of Jack Hogan, news director at WZZM-TV in Grand Rapids.

The most coveted award to be presented will be the Silver Beaver Award, to be presented to the district adult scouting leader who has given long and meritorious service to scouting and the community.

In his role as news director, Hogan is well-known for his hosting of many civic benefits and celebrations. He is currently directing the 1974 Kent County Cancer Crusade. His presentation at the recognition potluck will concern television "bloopers."

Also speaking will be George Lessens, an Eagle Scout from Troop 102 in Lowell, and Dale Olsen, the chief executive officer of the Grand Valley Boy Scout Council. Lessens will present a speech, "Be Prepared for Life," that was the winner of the East Central Region Boy Scouts of America-Reader's Digest Foundation public speaking contest.

Ada Seeks Assistance In Land Purchase

The Ada Township Board at their last meeting, approved a resolution authorizing Supervisor John Forshar to forward the Township's application for federal and state assistance in the purchase of fifty (50) acres of land at Grand River Drive and Buttrick Avenue, S.E., for recreational use.

A small portion of the site would be used as a future location of township offices. The township is purchasing the land for $45,000 from Robert Somerville. Supervisor Forshar said he would carry the Township's application to the Department of Natural Resources in Lansing sometime this week.

Other action by the Township Board was the appointment of three new members of the Township's Planning Commission to three-year terms to fill expiring terms.

Elected by secret ballot to the seven-member commission were Peter Claus, John Wilderink and James Clay. Planning Commission members whose terms expire are Daniel Vos, Joseph McCabe and Ernest Bates.

The board also designated members of the Zoning Board of Appeals to serve as the Construction Board of Appeals. The latter board is required under the new State Construction Code for each governmental subdivision enforcing the code. Serving as members of both boards are William Rupp, George Karaganis, chairman of the Planning Commission, and Kenneth Anderson, Township Clerk.

Veterans of this area will canvas the community Saturday, November 9, for the Vietnam Veteran's Memorial Fund, which will be used to erect pylons at the Veteran's Memorial Park in Grand Rapids.

The memorial will be inscribed with the names of the 132 boys from Kent County who lost their lives in the war.

The Lowell Senior Center at 214 E. Main Street, has a few seats available for their trip to Frankenmuth on Wednesday, November 13.

Anyone interested in going can contact the Center, 897-5250, and secure additional information.

The Immunization Clinic held at the East Kent Community Center, 10763 Grand River Drive, Lowell, on the second and fourth Mondays of each month will be closed on November 11, Veteran's Day.

The nurses will have the day off due to a related holiday at the Kent County Health Department.

On November 1 at 4 p.m. Patti Verburg and Robert Anderson of Lowell were involved in a property damage accident on East Main Street near Washington.

The Verburg vehicle was hit from behind, as she slowed to make a turn.

Vandals drove into and pushed down eight stop and yield right-of-way signs in the City early Saturday morning, causing hundreds of dollars worth of damage.

The incident is under further investigation by the Lowell Police Department.

Jerry Wise of Jenison reported to the Lowell Police Saturday evening that the motorcycle he was riding, parked next to the Lowell Cafe, was stolen.

According to the report, the cycle is owned by Charles Ayers of Shelbyville.

Things were comparatively quiet in the City of Lowell Halloween night, with no major vandalism or trick-or-treat pranks being instigated. The Lowell Police, although kept busy, reported only a few were picked up on egg throwing incidents.

Hard hit by Halloween pranksters was Ada where bomb-type devices were used to damage the covered bridge.

Needless to say, all of the youngsters who attended the Halloween parties hosted by the Ada Firemen and the Lowell Moose Lodge had an enjoyable evening.

Getting his 'buck' the hard way, before the season opens, Saturday evening, was Gordon Batey of Lowell. He downed the fleeing animal on Lincoln Lake Avenue, south of Vergennes.

Only minor damage was done to Batey's car when the two collided.

Patricia and Steven Severns pleaded "no contest" in Circuit Court last Tuesday on a charge of resisting arrest and obstructing a police officer. The incident occurred at Pete's Bar on East Main Street in Lowell, June 9.

Accepting the plea of guilty was Judge VanderWall. The couple will be sentenced in the next four or six weeks.

Involved in a property damage rear-end collision at East Main and Jefferson Streets last week was Jeffrey Rittersdorf and Clifford Klumpp, both of Lowell. Neither driver was injured in the mishap.

That "Special" Place at 215 West Main Street, is celebrating their first anniversary. The store will be filled with sale items throughout the duration of this week. The shop is owned by Delores (Dode) Dey and Shirli Smith.

Governor Appoints Mueller To Barrier Free Design Board

Governor William G. Milliken has announced the appointment of Dr. Herbert Mueller of Lowell to the newly-formed nine-member Barrier Free Design Board.

In making Mueller's appointment, the Governor said, "I have every confidence that you will derive personal satisfaction in this important position and that the State of Michigan will benefit from your background and experience."

A public member of the board, Dr. Mueller, who resides at 216 Riverside Drive, Lowell, is a self-employed optometrist and a member of the Lowell City Council. He will serve a term expiring October 31, 1977, on the Barrier Free Design Board.

The board was created by Public Act 190 of 1974 and signed into law in July. It was established to guarantee compliance with the requirements for barrier-free design in the state's new building code, which goes into effect November 6.

Confirmation of Dr. Herbert Mueller's appointment to the State's new Barrier Free Design Board is made by Lowell City Manager Blaine Bacon, left.

"This board is an important element in granting the opportunity to enjoy the benefits of modern living, access to public facilities and reasonable mobility to nearly one million physically handicapped persons in Michigan," Milliken said.

"I have urged protection of the legal rights of the handicapped by including them in Michigan's Omnibus Civil Rights Bill. But on a practical, day-to-day level physical barriers can be as much a hindrance to a full, free and self-sufficient life as legal barriers or arbitrary discrimination," Milliken added.

The new board, part of the Michigan Department of Labor, must include in its membership four persons who are physically limited, including a wheel chair user, a person who is severely limited in mobility, one who has visual impairment and one with impaired hearing.

The five remaining members must include a representative of the construction industry, a member of the general public, an inspector from a local governmental unit, a registered architect and a professional engineer.

Any public facility, or facility used by the public, constructed, rebuilt or renovated after the effective date of the act must meet the barrier-free design requirements contained in the State Construction Code.

The new board is required to meet at least six times a year and has four specific responsibilities. It must (1) receive, review and process requests for exceptions to the Barrier Free Design specifications set up in the Michigan Construction Code, (2) require appropriate, equivalent alternatives when exceptions are granted, (3) receive, process and review complaints of non-compliance and (4) make recommendations for Barrier Free Design rules.

Nutrition Education Workshop - 'Big Ideas'

What do teachers do after teaching students all day? They sometimes stay right in the classroom and become students themselves. Such was the case when Dirk Venema, principal at Runciman Elementary School, made arrangements for Runciman and Alto teachers to attend a nutrition education workshop called "Big Ideas" presented by the Dairy Council of Michigan.

The participants in the workshop were told by Joan Baber and Connie Gillespie, from the Battle Creek and Grand Rapids Dairy Council offices, that: "It makes good sense to eat right. Good nutrition is needed to attain and maintain good health. A properly fed person thinks better, reacts faster, has the energy to work and study better and builds resistance to fight infections. But people are not doing this. Maybe because they do not know the importance of good nutrition or they do not know which foods are nutritious."

Roger Buck, principal at Alto School and a workshop participant, put it another way. He said, "It's easy to grab a sack of potato chips, a bottle of pop and a candy bar and think you are getting some nutritional value—but it isn't enough. Maybe part of the problem kids have today is because they are just not getting the nutrients they need."

This is what the Dairy Council of Michigan, a non-profit organization sponsored by the dairy industry, is all about: encouraging people to eat right. Their home economists and dietitians carry the nutrition message to all age groups starting with preschools and going through adulthood. For the elementary teachers there is "Big Ideas"—a presentation on how to make nutrition an interesting and meaningful subject for students. During the workshop the teachers learn methods of changing attitudes from: "Ugh, I hate the subject of nutrition," to "Eating right is really fun!" Big Ideas relies heavily upon getting students involved in experimenting with foods, preparing foods, tasting foods, working foods into all disciplines and learning about the relationship between food and the quality of life.

One of the experiences the fourth and fifth grade teachers had, and will be carrying back to their classrooms, was learning about ice cream as each of them prepared his own serving of this nutritious dessert in a freezer made from a cut-off milk carton and a metal can.

Kindergarten through third grade teachers studied the four food groups and cultural food habits by preparing and eating an international dinner of Egg Foo Yung, Champurrado (a Mexican milk drink), Italian bread sticks, apples and All American Breakfast cookies.

Teachers learned what foods contain which nutrients and that by eating according to the four food groups—milk, meat, vegetables and fruits, breads and cereals—all the nutrients needed by the body will be provided. Some old, incorrect ideas were dispelled. For example: one teacher said, "I always thought potatoes contained nothing but starch and were fattening, but look at all that vitamin C, thiamin and niacin you get when you eat a potato. And there are only 65 calories in a medium-sized potato—about the same as in an apple."

The workshop was given in two sessions following the regular school day.

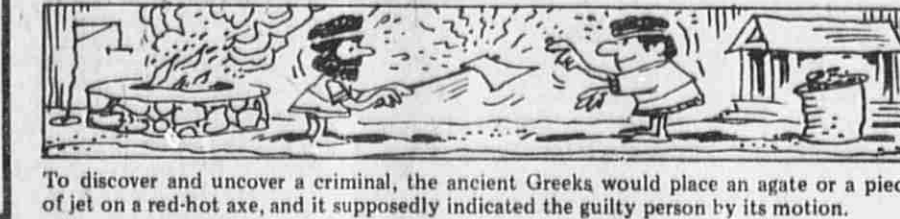

The finished project—an ice cream delight.

The teachers find it interesting and fun making 'tacos.'

With a little stirring, making ice cream is easy.

The 'Fish' Story

Along the shores of the Sea of Galilee Jesus came upon two brothers, Peter and Andrew, and said to them: "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." That time many people have been trying to follow Christ as fishers of men. Some people have succeeded in doing this through Fish.

What is Fish? It's a movement of individuals working together in local chapters performing services—often emergency services, but not always—for their fellow men.

It all started in 1961 when a small group of people in St. Andrew's Church, Old Headington, Oxford, England, sought to follow Christ and minister to their neighbors. A person was selected to be a street warden and to watch out for the well-being of the people on this street. Fish cards were distributed to all of the homes on each street, and people placed the Fish card in their window when they needed help. When a local street warden saw a Fish card, he went immediately to the house.

An American visiting in England several years later learned of this program, and brought the story of it back to the Rev. Robert L. Howell, at that time rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, West Springfield, Massachusetts. In that parish, a small group was already meeting regularly during Lent 1964. At the end of Lent Father Howell preached a sermon about establishing Fish in the parish, and shortly five people joined him and his wife in initiating the first Fish chapter in the United States.

Today there are more than 1,000 chapters in America as well as many other countries throughout the world. In the U.S., Fish operates basically by telephone rather than by signs in the window, but the premise is the same: being fishers of men.

Fish has no national structure and it is strongly believed that this is one of the keys to its success. Each local chapter, such as the one at Cascade Christian Church, as a result, finds its own community level and works toward filling the needs, as they arise, that prevail in that community.

The services which Fish is called upon to perform are varied. It can mean taking a child from a school to the hospital. It can mean putting a person in contact with the right agency for obtaining medical assistance. It can mean reading to a blind person. It can mean running a ham radio service to contact family members in another area when there has been a disaster. It can mean securing overnight lodging for someone who is stranded in a strange town. It can mean giving assistance to someone who finds himself the victim of civic red tape. It can mean telephoning an elderly person once a day to check that that person is all right and not in need. It can mean doing the housework or preparing meals for someone recuperating from an illness. It can mean running an errand for an invalid. It has meant all of these things and many, many more to the persons involved in Fish and to the people whom they have offered their voluntary services.

Being a fish means offering our commitment to be a servant of God and to demonstrate God's love through our actions. Because we must all be our brothers' keepers, there needs to be a Fish chapter in every community throughout the world. If our faith, whatever it may be, has any validity for us, there is no reason why eventually there cannot be Fish in every community.

David Gerst

Band Notes...

On Friday, November 1st, the Lowell Middle School Band, under the direction of Miss Patricia Covey, were invited to participate in the half time festivities of the Lowell vs. Greenville football game.

The bandmen made their entrance from the visitor's sideline and marched across the field playing "Northwood's March." They then played "I Got Rhythm," "Doe Re Me," and the "Sound of Music." It was an excellent premier performance.

The L.H.S. Marching Band, led by drum major Doug Anderson, stepped lively from the end zone with a routine to "Summer Sun." Then, under the direction of Robert Rice, they played the "Entertainer" for a grand finale.

The band played the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," to which the majorettes, Susie Sinke-Vai Vidcan, Kathy Irwin and Diane Rickert, twirled fire batons. Congratulations are in order to both bands for a fine job.

Last Winter For Studded Snow Tires

This is the last winter that motorists in Michigan will be able to use snow tires with metal studs not approved by the Department of State Highways and Transportation, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"All studded snow tires that motorists now own or plan to purchase can be used without restriction within Michigan this winter from December 1 through April 1," states Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager.

If the studs are removed, the tires may still be used on highways after this winter, and persons with a strong wrist and pliers can remove the studs, or most tire dealers will do the job for $3 to $5 per tire, Auto Club points out.

Last year, Public Act 138 was passed, which after April 1, 1975, bans metal tire studs of the type now used in Michigan. The law also changed the date that any studded tires can first be used each winter from November 1 to December 1.

The Highway Department is now empowered to establish rules regulating the use of highway traction devices after this winter.

Ratke adds: "If studs can be developed that will reduce road surface damage to 25 percent of that now caused by tungsten carbide studs, the Highway Department could approve their use."

Auto Club states that while unapproved studs will be prohibited after this winter, the new law will not affect the use of tire chains or snow tires.

Elsewhere, the number of states restricting the time period studded tires will be permitted on their roads this winter has decreased from 29 to 27, according to Auto Club.

The state of Utah has gone from an earlier ban to a restricted period of use, from Oct. 15 to March 31. The District of Columbia, which restricted use last winter, has no restrictions this year.

Ratke advises motorists who intend to equip their cars with studded tires this winter to plan their trips with the various state restrictions in mind.

Florida, Hawaii, Louisiana, Minnesota, Mississippi, West Virginia and the Canadian province of Ontario prohibit the use of studs at any time.

Auto Club reports that Florida is interpreting its statutes so strictly as to have the effect of prohibiting the use of metal studs, although rubber studs are permitted.

Some motorists using metal studs on Florida roads have been stopped by the Florida Highway Patrol during the past two winters. Ratke states, and were forced to buy regular tires before being permitted to continue their trips.

Court Suit Filed On Behalf Of Handicapped

The Michigan Association for Retarded Citizens (MARC) today brought suit on behalf of more than 4,000 handicapped persons presently being denied their right to education as guaranteed under the State and Federal constitutions and Michigan's own Mandatory Special Education Law (Public Act 198 of 1971).

The suit was filed in the Western District, Southern Division of the Federal District Court in Grand Rapids. Named as defendants in the action are the State Board of Education and Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. John W. Porter; the Michigan Department of Mental Health and its Acting Director, Dr. Donald C. Smith; State Budget Director Dr. John T. Dempsey; and the Legislature.

Purpose of the suit is to establish equal education opportunity and basic assurance of fair funding for delivery of education programs and services to the class of handicapped persons represented by the plaintiffs—no later than the commencement of the 1975 school year.

The MARC suit charges that education is denied some 3,400 eligible mentally retarded persons of school age residing in state home and training centers operated by the Department of Mental Health.

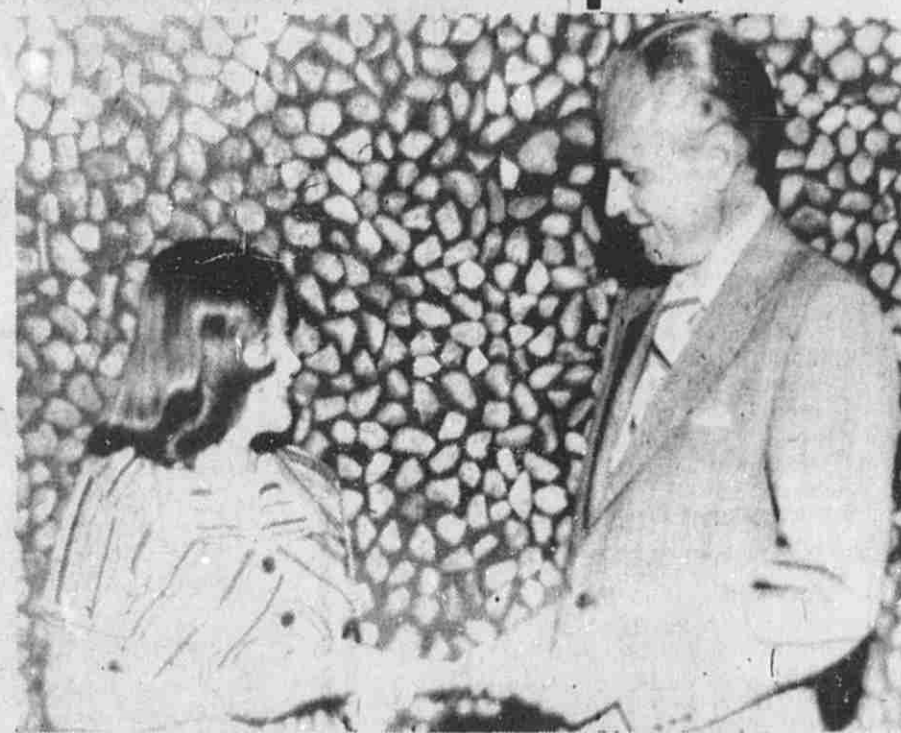

In addition, according to the complaint, education programs required by law are not given 692 eligible school age residents of state institutions for the mentally ill. The suit also claims that there are hundreds more handicapped persons living in communities throughout Michigan on convalescent or foster family care status from Department of Mental Health institutions who have been refused enrollment in public school programs.

Citizens Group For Solid Waste Study

As of last August, the West Michigan Regional Planning Commission (Region 8) and the Association of Grand Rapids Area Governments (AGRAG) have joined together in a special study of the metropolitan solid waste disposal problem. With $10,000 from the State and a matching $10,000 from the AGRAG communities, a 3-part study has been started.

Part 1 involves a complete analysis of the market for recycled materials, in an attempt to conserve as much as possible of the solid waste materials now being thrown away. Assisting in this first study are personnel from Grand Valley State College, Calvin College, West Michigan Environmental Action Council, Recycle Unlimited, Inc., Grand Rapids Environmental Protection Department, and the Kent County Department of Public Works.

Parts 2 and 3 will analyze and design the best short-range and long-range facilities for recycling and solid waste disposal. These efforts are an extension of the Planning which resulted in the Kent-Ottawa Regional Solid Waste Management Plan published last July.

The following named citizens from the metropolitan area have agreed to serve on this panel: Ethel Bobroff, Dr. Dan Ellinger, David Cassard, Guy Estep, Jack Evans, Robert Carlson, Bruce Heller, Charles Beale, Peter Wege, Judy Rathburn, Gretchen Riordan, Wilbur Warren, Bub Viersen, Dan Sicken, Bill Zoellmer.

This group of citizens will meet periodically to go over data gathered in the study and act as an advisory type sounding board to assist the planners and local officials in arriving at the best plan for properly disposing of our solid waste. The first meeting of SWAP is expected to be late in October, with Part 1 of the 3-part study expected to be completed by about January.

BLIND STUDENTS AT MSU GET BRAILLE MAPS

Life is a bit easier for blind students at Michigan State University this fall, thanks to 50 Braille maps made available for the first time.

The maps were constructed at the Michigan Braille Transcribing Service at Southern Michigan Prison in Jackson. The project was funded by the state Lions Club.

Raised surfaces with varying textures let students identify the shapes and locations of buildings, streets and sidewalks on the 2,000-acre developed part of the campus. Traffic lights, entrances and crosswalks are also indicated on the maps.

MORE BUGS IN FOODS

The housewife of the future will probably have more bugs in her family's food but less insecticide contamination to worry about. This is the view of Dean Haynes, a pest management specialist at Michigan State University.

He believes that American consumers will learn to accept a certain amount of insect contamination in their foods.

He explained that pesticides are becoming more expensive and the insects more resistant while more scientists are becoming concerned about the health hazard of pesticide residues.

Manager Bacon then reported on checking into area fees for building permits, and stated that the figures incorporated into the City permits were on an average with other areas studied.

A discussion followed. The following Ordinance was offered by Councilman Jefferies who moved its adoption, supported by Councilman Mueller.

Absent: Councilmembers Hall and Rogers.

A discussion then followed on unemployment benefits becoming mandatory for Municipal Employees beginning January of 1975.

Manager Bacon explained in detail the several different plans for payment into the fund, stating the "Reimbursement Plan" best suited the City's needs, in that, because of the small incidence of lay-off among regular City employees, nothing is paid into the fund until an actual lay-off occurs. Then the City reimburses the fund according to the amount withdrawn.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Mueller to accept the Manager's recommendation of the Reimbursement Plan for unemployment benefits, supported by Councilman Jefferies.

Yes: Councilmembers Jefferies, Mueller and Anderson. No: None.

Absent: Councilmembers Hall and Rogers.

Under Communications, letters were read from the Grand River Watershed Council on renewal of membership, the Department of Highways and Transportation on airport renovation, the Michigan Municipal League in support of a 1.1 million dollar bond issue for State transportation on the November 5th ballot, the A.M.V. Voting Machine Company on the purchase of used voting machines, the Department of Commerce on a tax seminar to be held.

Also read were communications from the West Michigan Regional Planning Commission on flood insurance, from the Lowell Chamber of Commerce on coming local events, and another communication from the Michigan Grand River Watershed Council on Lowell being listed 5th in State priority for flood plain studies.

Manager Bacon then reported having quotations on a six-inch water meter to be installed at the Valley Vista Trailer Park. They were read as follows:

Neptune Meter Company	$2,456.17
Badger Meter Company	1,367.30
Badger Meter Company	2,107.34
Crane Supply Company	2,850.00
Rockwell Meter Company	2,471.00

Manager Bacon recommended that the $1,367.30 quotation of the Badger Company be approved.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Jefferies that the Manager be authorized to accept the low bid of the Badger Company, supported by Councilman Mueller.

Yes: Councilmembers Jefferies, Mueller and Anderson. No: None.

Absent: Councilmembers Hall and Rogers.

The Manager's Report was given which included the proposed airport expansion. A discussion followed by Council.

Mr. Richard Lampkin, who owns some property next to the airport, was present, and stated that the one runway was encroaching on his property. He asked Council for a letter stating that the City would not obtain his property through adverse possession.

More discussion followed, in which Council concurred that the Manager be authorized to prepare such a letter.

Under Reports and Remarks from Council, Councilman Bacon asked about the current audit report. Manager Bacon replied that it was nearly complete.

Mayor Anderson reported that a discussion meeting would be held on Tuesday, October 29, with various civic groups invited, along with the School Board and Council, to discuss recreation programs and facilities, through the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation.

A letter from the Small Cities Association announced a meeting to be held in Cadillac, Michigan on small units of government being on the short end of money allocations.

Mayor Anderson then adjourned the meeting at 9:56 p.m.

Approved: November 4, 1974.

Lowell Finishes Third In Tri-River

Action in the Tri-River football league for 1974 ended Friday night for the Lowell High School Red Arrows' varsity football team on a happy note, as they downed the Yellow Jackets from Greenville 29-15.

This Friday night, November 8, the Arrows will close out their season with a non-conference encounter against the Huskies from Forest Hills Northern High School. The game to be played at Lowell's Burch Field will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Finals table with columns for team and score. Lowell 4-3, Greenville 3-4, Sparta 3-4, Fremont 0-7.

In their game against Greenville last Friday, Lowell racked up their fourth straight conference win, giving them a 4-3 record for the season, and a third place tie with Coopersville in the final league standings.

Following the opening kickoff, the Red Arrows were slow-going for the first period, holding off Greenville's advances, and gaining little ground themselves.

At the start of the second quarter, Lowell, retaining their traditional gridiron fight and enthusiasm, began scoring, with John Piper leading the attack with three touchdowns.

Lowell gained over 300 yards on the ground, and led the game throughout its entirety. In the scoring column Bruce Bilbeck was instrumental in adding two points by a point after conversion; Scott Rollins kicked a 19-yard field goal and Kurt Yost was credited with a touchdown.

Greenville's scores were made on 25 and four yard passes from quarterback Terry Acker to Steve Day.

Golf, Cross-Country Teams Honored

Last Monday at the Deer Run Golf Club, the golf and cross-country teams of Lowell High School were honored and awards were presented by the respective coaches.

Cross-country coach Tom Stahr's comments placed emphasis on the improvement the team has seen over the year in all areas—numbers, victories, morale, and enthusiasm.

Receiving certificates for their first year of cross-country competition were: Freshmen Ray Alexander, John Ellison, Brian Raynor and Mark Smith; Sophomores Ken Greenboom, and Seniors Craig Anderson and George Lessens.

Nine Red Arrows were awarded Varsity letters. Receiving their first letter were Sophomores Jim Doyle, Dave DeNolf, and Kevin Mulder, and Seniors Scott McNeal and Tom Stuart.

Given special recognition as "Most Improved" was Freshman Ellison. Chosen captain for next year by his teammates was Mike Dey. Dey was also voted, for the second consecutive year, as the Most Valuable Member of the team.

FLAT RIVER SNOWMOBILE CLUB... Saturday, November 2, was a busy day for young and old of the Flat River Snowmobile Club.

Meanwhile, across the road, many of the adult members met to work on trails and a new race track. And others were getting contracts signed to complete the trail from Gun Lake to Wabasis Lake.

The late afternoon and evening found everyone converging at the clubhouse for a sing-along. There were a lot of new faces and we hope to see all of them again.

Don't forget, members, we all have a special invitation to be guests of the VFW at their party, Saturday night, November 9.

North - South Snowmobile Trail To Open December 1

Plans have been completed for the first public snowmobile trail south of Newaygo County, it has been announced by Roger A. Matthews, trail chairman for the Western Michigan Snowmobile Council.

"This marks the successful conclusion of a project that required a lot of effort on the part of the various clubs that make up the Council and the cooperation of many agencies, such as the Kent and Barry County Road Commissions," said Matthews.

The marked public trail measures 58 miles long across leased private land and "if there is four inches of snow on the trail, it will open on December 1st," added Matthews.

The north-south route, which was established with a grant of $20,000 from the state Department of Natural Resources on a one-year pilot basis, originates on the south at Yankee Springs Golf Course, corner of Damoth and Payne Lake Roads in Barry County and on Lincoln Lake Road, just south of Ten Mile Road in Kent County at the north end.

Traveling from north to south, the scenic trail crosses M-44 east of Lincoln Lake Rd. and runs parallel to Lincoln Lake Road to Fallsburg Park and then into the city of Lowell. Following along the Grand River, it crosses the Grand at the Division Street bridge and then swings east and back south again.

Access to the trail, in addition to its north and south ends, has been provided on M-44 at the H & W orchards, M-21 west of the east city limits in Lowell, Fallsburg Park Bridge on McPherson Avenue, Segun Avenue at Cascade Road and Cherry Valley at Green Lake Roads.

Officially identified as the Western Michigan Snowmobile Trail, the DNR and Council have adopted rules for the trail which include: 1. Since this trail is all on private land, it is imperative that snowmobilers stay on the marked trail; 2. There must be at least four inches of snow on the section of the trail being used; 3. Please place all litter in the barrels provided; 4. All snowmobilers that use the trail must be legally registered with the state; 5. The trail will be patrolled; and 6. No wheel vehicles are allowed on the trail.

In addition to providing snowmobilers a scenic route, Matthews says the route will have four objectives: 1. prevent accidents with cars by taking snowmobilers off the roads; 2. reduce snowmobile traffic on private property; 3. encourage snowmobilers to use facilities that are close to home, thus conserving fuel; and 4. permit snowmobilers to travel from one area to another without trespassing.

Uniform markings are being posted on the trail with stop signs at all road crossings. Vehicular traffic will be advised of the trail crossings through warning signs posted on the roads.

"This trail would not have been possible had it not been for the wonderful co-operation that we received from all of the landowners," said Matthews. "Now it is up to the snowmobilers to respect this privilege that has been given to us. We have assured all of the landowners that if the trail is not respected and abused, it will be closed down. How long it remains open is up to the snowmobilers."

Rifle Sighting Service Offered

Kent County Sheriff's Deputies, using the Kent County Conservation League facilities, will again this year assist hunters in the sighting in of rifles.

For several years deputies have furnished this service with the idea of accomplishing the task in safety rather than have hunters on their own in some quarry or woods where the risk of accident is greater.

Beginning Monday and through November 14, deputies will be at the Conservation grounds, on Conservation Drive in Ada, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

"Last year we assisted close to 1,000 people," said Deputy Arthur Tanis. "A lot of people bring two guns and some three or four. There's no charge, but you have to bring your own ammunition. Targets can be purchased at the club."

Tanis said a person must be at least 14 years of age and be able to prove it. No handguns or .22 caliber weapons are allowed.

Gentlemen: Please accept this as my letter of resignation from the Lowell Area School Board effective October 29, 1974.

This decision has come about only after a long period of deliberation. As I stated to the Board and press before the election in June, my only consideration to seek another term was to help resolve various important issues that confronted the School Board this past summer and fall. I feel these have been resolved.

I have enjoyed the close relationship one develops over the years with the entire staff of the School System; it has been both rewarding and educational. I am truly thankful for having had this opportunity to have been a member of one of the best Boards and School Systems in West Michigan.

Forest Hills Central Second In League

Forest Hills Central High School took second place in the final standings of the O-K White Division football last Friday night by taking a 13-7 victory from Kenowa Hills. The league's championship went to Wyoming Park High School.

The Rangers' 13-7 win over Kenowa came after an 85-yard march in the opening quarter saw Tom Zuidervan score on a 30-yard pass from quarterback Jack Sherry. Forest Hills' second tally also came in the first quarter, when halfback Tony Grochowalski scored on a reverse from the four yard line to cap a 4-yard drive.

Forest Hills rushed for 207 yards and Sherry connected on six of 14 for 150 yards; for Kenowa, 113 yards on the ground and 87 through the air.

Upsets Rockets

The Huskies of Forest Hills Northern scored an upset victory last Friday over the Rockets from Kelloggville 13-8.

On the last play of the first half, Forest Hills quarterback Jack Lane hurled a nine-yard scoring pass to Red Lanning to tie the score at six all. However, a successful extra point kick by John Rowderink gave Forest Hills a one point edge 7-6.

Forest Hills' second scoring effort was made in the final quarter when halfback Bruce Chaffee went in from the 16 yard line. The point after attempt failed.

Kelloggville collected two more points on the score board when the Huskie's quarterback went into the end zone for a safety.

Lowell Teams Sweep TVYFL Division Titles

A successful season for Lowell Youth Football Teams ended November 2, as Lowell claimed two division championships and tied for a third in their league.

In the Midget Division for 8 and 9-year-olds, the Lowell Lions, coached by Dick Merklinger, Don Lehigh and Chuck Mattson swept to an undefeated season. Second place was gathered in by the Dan Finkler, Jerry Dykstra and Charlie Craig coached, Lowell Wolverines.

In the C Division for 10 and 11-year-olds, the Lowell Indians coached by Bert Kloosterman, Ed Roth and Clark Parsons marched to an undefeated 6-0-0 season. Second place went to the Lowell Falcons, coached by Denny Brenk and Pat Sullivan.

In the B Division the Lowell Red Devils shared first place with a 5-0-1 record with the only blemish coming in a 0-0 standoff with the Caledonia Headhunters with whom the title was shared. This team was coached by Bill Grim, Orson Abel and Duane MacDonald.

The other Lowell teams' coaches were Russ Bacon and Don Phillips (Dolphins) and Dick Gliden and Al Eckman (Alla-Crocks).

A seasonal achievement for Lowell teams occurred on Saturday, October 19 as not one team was defeated on that particular date. Six out of the seven teams won and the seventh played to a scoreless deadlock with their opponent. To make it even more amazing, not one point was scored against a Lowell team on this day. Congratulations to our young football players for quite an achievement.

Lowell also underwent a 62% growth in number of boys playing football this year in comparison to the year before, as the area went from 85 boys in 1973 to 137 boys in 1974 with hopes for even more in '75.

As to the future, with the Lowell Youth Football Program paving the way by teaching young boys football fundamentals, discipline and teamwork, and claiming three divisional championships in the process, the path for the Lowell Red Arrows looks bright indeed.

RECORD ENROLLMENT AT MICHIGAN STATE

Michigan State University enrolled 43,459 students on the East Lansing campus for fall term.

The record enrollment represents a 4.3 percent increase over last year's 41,649.

Most of the increase, reports Dr. Ira Polley, assistant provost for admissions and records, is attributable to returning students who number 1,461 more than a year ago.

MSU is the largest institution of higher education in Michigan.

BITS O' BUSINESS

In the wake of the just-concluded Expo '74 it looks as if the small world's fair is in. Many travel industry experts had predicted the fair held this year in Spokane was doomed to failure because it was budgeted at only $80 million and held in a city with a population of 180,000. Despite the predictions, the fair was a success attracting a better-than-expected attendance of five million and breaking even financially.

October Events Include Bike Hike And Cook-Out

A bike hike and cook-out were the activities for the month of October for Mrs. Marilyn Keim's Horizon and Discovery Clubs. The girls rode from Richards Park to Fallsburg Park where they cooked hot dogs with cheese wrapped in bacon, and banana boats.

A softball game followed with Mrs. Keim's team winning over Mrs. Keim's team.

Girls taking part in the fun were Chris Jousma, Sue Janeschek, Diana Keim, Dianne Ralys, Laura Day, Michelle Ralys, JoAnn Keim and Sharon Keim.

Lowell Freshmen Are Champions

Lowell dominated the game by scoring two touchdowns in the opening quarter and one in the 2nd quarter to lead 20-0 at halftime.

Lowell played its reserve offense and defense for most of the second quarter. The third quarter was a standoff and midway on the fourth quarter the reserve offense scored from the one-yard line.

Coaches Michael Clark and Gail Hinchey had all players playing at least two quarters of the game.

Lowell showed complete dominance of the game statistically with 12 first downs to three for Greenville. Lowell gained 354 yards in total offense to 147 yards for the Yellow Jackets.

Leading ground gainers for Lowell were Randy Kropf with 23 yards in six carries, Mike Herrings with 63 yards in 8 carries, Chuck King 50 yards in 12 carries, John Wilder 92 yards in 10 carries and three touchdowns of 2, 1 and 44 yards. Dick Beach, with 22 yards in 6 carries and one TD, and Brian White who caught two passes for 23 yards, including a fine catch at the one yard line, to set up Lowell's second TD.

Greenville was forced to punt eight times while Lowell punted only once. Lowell ran 54 plays to 31 for Greenville.

The Lowell Freshmen are the 1974 Tri-River Conference champions with a perfect 7-0 league record. Congratulations to the 30 fine young men who are the 1974 Lowell Freshmen Football team. Lowell will close its season on Thursday at 5 p.m. at Forest Hills Northern.

Area Chairman Seeks Volunteers For 'March' Drive

"March of Dimes volunteers are looking forward to the most exciting program year in history," reports Mrs. Martin Johnson of Lowell. "The excellent response to last year's drive has enabled us to expand research and medical service programs around the country."

Mrs. Johnson has just returned from a regional meeting of the voluntary health organization in Chicago, Illinois. There, she met with delegates from neighboring states to go over the new dimensions of March of Dimes programs aimed at prevention of birth defects.

"The medical advances we heard about were particularly impressive," she said. "Improved methods of treatment, diagnosis, and consultation for high-risk pregnant women and newborns were explained by specialists. At one session, Dr. Watson Bowles, Jr., and Dr. Joseph L. Butterfield, discussed how their specialties are rapidly developing combined techniques to reduce many risks of pregnancy."

"Another important aspect," she continued, "is the progress on plans for a strategic network of perinatal services throughout the country. These guidelines have been drawn up by leaders in obstetrics, pediatrics, family practice, the nursing profession, and health agencies. The goal is to allocate highly trained staff and equipment to treat mothers and infants at different levels of risk to avoid duplicating costly services."

Mrs. Johnson also noted that there was emphasis on new March of Dimes programs to train nurses in recognition, evaluation, and team performance for treatment of sick mothers and infants. This course of action, she says, is intended to meet the alarming shortage of nurse clinicians as quickly as possible.

"The challenge to volunteers in helping to upgrade delivery of maternal and infant care is greater than ever," she adds. "Special projects in public education that stress prenatal care and nutrition took up a major part of the meeting. Another segment was devoted to youth activities for high school and college volunteers."

If you would like to help with the Mothers March please call Mrs. Martin Johnson, 897-8194.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Yes or no—do we need better water in the City of Lowell? Let's put this proposed bonding issue on the ballot to finance the project, so the citizens of Lowell can have a full voice in the final decision.

If the citizens of Lowell (that means everyone) feels we need this improvement, then they'll vote yes; if they feel we do not need it, then they'll vote the negative side. But let the people decide.

The government is for the people and by the people. If you are interested in seeing this issue on the ballot for a vote of the public, petitions to have the issue voted on can be signed at Johnson's Thrift-T-Mart, the Lowell Beer Store, Lowell Cut Rate Market or the Lowell Ledger.

Dear Editor:

One of the finest "happenings" in Michigan occurred October 12th and 13th at Fallsburg Park. Good fortune brought me home to Lowell that weekend to witness the Second Annual Arts and Crafts Festival sponsored by the West Central Michigan Historical Society.

The first exhibitor I came across was a lady from near Lansing who sold huge pumpkins, Indian and Strawberry Corn, Hickory Nuts at 10¢ a cupful, a seed corn bag full of Black Walnuts, and a spread of her own canned pickles, preserves, and sauces. Blessed with this bountiful exhibit, Good Spirits descended and I was off and running and thoroughly enjoying myself.

Calvin Lamoreaux from Shelbyville was gently plucking on his home crafted dulcimer. Fall colors at their peak formed a brilliant backdrop for his music. Inside the shelter was friend Norton Avery, an outstanding area resident, who loves Michigan and its history. And who untingly preserves this love through photographs, paintings and books.

Jan Johnson's watercolors kept those good spirits soaring. I am partial to watercolor, but the medium lends itself to a clarity and a serenity that fit the mood of the festival. There were many other exhibitors, 35 in all. There was honey by the gallon, jewelry made from native stones and such unusual items as a macrame lampshade.

The "Beanery" drew hungry visitors to a table replete with hotdogs and baked beans, scalloped potatoes, corn and bran muffins, and hot doughnuts. On tap was a fifty gallon cold cider barrel.

From the Arts and Crafts Show you were urged to drive through Historic Fallsburg Village, through the Covered Bridge, past the old homes, the Stagecoach Stop, the Hotel, and past the combined General Store and Post Office on to the School house museum. You may not recognize each building as such, but the hope is that someday the Village will be completely restored with the financial help of such fund raisers as the Festival and through individual contributions.

It is with great pride, after living in cities like Philadelphia, Los Angeles and Chicago, that I can come home to Fallsburg and participate in the finest happening of all. Congratulations to Mrs. Lepora Tower and her fine organization for such a fine show.

Costume Winners

The Halloween Party, sponsored by the Lowell Moose Civic Affairs Committee and assisted by the Women of the Moose, drew a gala assortment of youngsters in costume and also a few 'oldsters', last Thursday night at the fairgrounds.

The many attending enjoyed the cider, donuts and apples, as well as the clowns who mingled among the crowd passing out candy.

Prizes for best costumes were given to three winners in each of three categories. Charlie Doyle, chairman of this year's annual event reports prizes of silver dollars were awarded to Jennifer Speerstra ("Don't Be a Litterbug), Brian Mullen (Snoopy) and Dawn Finkler (Raggedy Ann), in the pre-school through first grade category.

In the second through sixth grade category, prizes went to Lisa Lawrence (Witch), Eddie Albus (Scarecrow), and Brian Mitchell (Robinhood).

In the junior high and over—Jill Baker (Gypsy), Connie Albus (Hobo), and Karla Feasal (Raggedy Ann) were winners of prize money.

Games were also a part of the evening's activities with youngsters squealing with delight while retrieving pennies after a 'Penny Throw', and the three-legged and sack races provided chuckles for all.
