City Takes $25,000 Airport Loan

The Lowell City Council voted Monday night to borrow $25,000 from the Michigan Department of Aeronautics to begin acquisition of additional land for the Lowell Airport.

Dr. Herbert Mueller, chairman of the Airport Board, said that as soon as possible the land buyer from the Department of Aeronautics would meet with the property owners to secure options on the property needed. Steps would also be taken to meet with the Vergennes Township Board for the necessary rezoning in the area.

The council voted 4 to 1 with only Councilman Harold Jefferies objecting to giving a mortgage on city owned airport property to the Department of Aeronautics

Councilman Jefferies questioned the wisdom of obligating the city for up to $100,000 of land acquisition with only a borrowed $25,000 to pay for it.

Vote on Water Improvement

City Manager Blaine Bacon notified the council that petitions with sufficient signatures have been filed and the question of borrowing up to $1.5 million for water treatment improvements will be voted on by the citizens sometime in 1975.

In other action the council approved a contract between the Lowell Light & Power and Consumers for natural gas. The new contract increases the base rate to the local power plant from 50¢ per thousand cubic feet of gas to 81¢.

Sugar today has become what meat was a year agothe focal point of strong consumer concern over soaring prices-up from 79 cents for five pounds to $2.59.

Pleas for consumer cutbacks in sugar use are being posted by many groups across the nation, with the movement being pushed by President Ford's new Citizens' Action Committee to fight inflation.

The cutback in sugar by citizens should, of course, be supported. Certainly the temptation to hoard-which is driving prices up-should be avoided. And, if we think about it, we use too much sugar anyway.

Area residents and motorists last Friday morning litterally found themselves buried in the season's first white blanket of snow

It was a welcome sight for deer hunters who found tracking a much easier task, but to the motorists who were waiting until the last minute to put on their snow

The council also held up for further study acceptance of the collection of primitives willed to the city by the late Dr. Ruth Herrick. Under terms of the will there must be a suitable display area provided; at this time the city does not have any suitable place.

November 26 Hearing On Adacroft Drain

Ada Township Supervisor John Forshar has announced a public hearing will be held November 26 in Room 311 of the Kent County Building in Grand Rapids for construction of a drain in the Adacroft Commons area at an estimated cost of $24,000.

The drain would divert storm water around a springfed pond to permit the pond to be used for swimming. Storm water pollutes the pond, according to residents of the area who petitioned the drain commissioner for the bypass.

The plans, specifications and estimate of cost of said Adacroft Relief Drains and also, a description of the area to be served are on file in the office of the Kent County Drain Commissioner at 1500 Scribner, N.W., Grand Rapids.

At the hearing Tuesday, any public corporations to be assessed or any taxpayer will be entitled to be heard. If the Drainage Board enters the Final Order of Apportionment a special assessment roll assessing the estimated cost of the drain against the public corporations in accordance with the confirmed apportionments will be prepared and presented to the Drainage Board for approval.

The Drainage Board then intends to issue bonds or notes of the Drainage District for Adacroft Relief Drains in anticipation of the collection of installments of said assessments and the interest thereon. Each public corporation assessed is obligated to levy sufficient taxes to pay the assessment installments and interest as the same become due unless there has been set aside monies sufficient to cover the project.

The cost of the Adacroft Relief Drain has been tentatively apportioned as follows: County of Kent, on Michigan, on account of drainage of state highways, 0%; Township of Ada, 100%

Petition Asks Action

A petition carrying 108 signatures, asking action on completion of Rix Street to M-21 (East Fulton Street) will be considered by the Ada Township Board at their meeting on December 9.

The petition as presented by Paul Schulze, a Rix Street resident, asked the Township Board to halt further housing construction and site preparation in Ada Towne Plat until the access road to M-21 is complete. The citizens said Maryland Development Company signed an agreement with the Township last February calling for completion of the extension by November

'Mumps' Shots Being Offered

The Kent County Health Department will be offering mumps vaccination for the first time in its clinics, according to Dr. W.B. Prothro, Director.

Mumps vaccination has previously been recommended by the Health Department as an integral part of a child's immunization program, but until now it has not been available to the Health Department. The vaccine is now made available in limited quantities by the Michigan Department of Public Health to public health clinics.

Because of the limited quantity of vaccine, mumps vaccinations in the Health Department clinics will be limited to children one to four years of age and to control mumps outbreaks.

Parents may have their children immunized against mumps, as well as measles, rubella, dipththeria, whooping cough, polio, and tuberculin skin tested, from their family physician, or at the following area Health Department clinic:

The East Kent Community Center located at 10763 Grand River Drive, Lowell. Immunizations will be offered the second and fourth Mondays of each month between the hours of 9 a.m. and 11 a.m.

Lowell Man Gets Scouting's Highest 'Adult' Award

At the Sunrise District Scout Recognition Dinner November 12, Donald Kelly of Lowell was awarded the Scouting Council's highest adult award, the Silver Beaver

Ada Woman Dies In Fire

An 85-year-old Ada woman, living alone at 6825 Ada Drive, S.E., died early Sunday morning, November 17, in a fire which apparently was caused by a faulty space heater.

Ada Township's Assistant Fire Chief, Darwin Nellist, found Mrs. Josephine F. Gardner on the floor of her bedroom about a foot from her bed.

Nellist and other Ada fire officials made several attempts to enter the blazing building before they located Mrs. Gardner. They were alerted to the blaze at about 3:45 a.m. by a neighbor.

Kent County Sheriff's Deputies said Mrs. Gardner died of asphyxiation and carbon monoxide poisoning. Although the house was engulfed in flames when firemen arrived, the room where Mrs. Gardner was found, was not badly burned, Deputies reported.

Mrs. Gardner had lived alone since the death of her husband three years ago. She was born in Ada, attended schools there, and was a l'e-long area resident.

Dr. Geoffrey L. Hayes officiated at the services for Mrs. Gardner Wednesday at the Metcalf Chapel in Grand Rapids. Interment was made in South Boston Cemetery

She is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Lowell Bank To Open New M-44 Office

Completion of the new full service M-44 office of the Lowell State Savings Bank was announced this week by bank president, Harold Englehardt, and will be open for business Monday, November 25.

Construction of the new facility, located at the corner of M-44 and Myers Lake Road, began last spring.

Stone, brick and wood have been combined to create a home-like exterior and the same feeling carried to the interior with an open lobby and high beamed ceiling. The atmosphere is further enhanced with carpeting throughout in earty brown tones, complimented by the warmth of walnut panels and accents in shades of yellow.

For customer service, there are four lobby teller stations and the convenience of a drive-in window. A full basement provides a large community room plan-Les for a variety of activities

Other breaking and entries still under investigation were made at the Calvary Church on West Main where nothing was taken; an attempt at Parker's Service Station on West Main and the Lowell Ledger; and Kellogg Vinegar, South Broadway Street, where approximately $50 and other items were taken.

A confession has been obtained from Robert Hill, 17, to the larceny of money from the game machines at Zzano's pizza on East Main Street, last week.

A single outlet to Ada Drive, S.E., adjacent to the Grand Trunk Western Railroad bridge serves the three Ada Towne plats. The outlet is considered hazardous because of the bridge. The Township held up approval of Ada Towne Plat No. 3 until agreement was made last spring for construction of a second traffic outlet to M-21.

J.C. Ladd, representing the developer, said there had been delay in reaching an agreement with the Grand Trunk for crossing construction near Fulton Street. Ladd said construction, which was to have started last spring was not begun until after October 1.

He said sewer and water lines and storm drainage will be installed and the street will have a gravel surface ready for traffic as far as the railroad crossing by December 13. Ladd said his firm pays for the work, but the railroad builds its own crossings. It has not given a date for completion of the crossing, he said.

Township officials said the Maryland firm has given a $50,000 letter or credit which would enable the Township to complete the Rix Street project by separate contract if it is not completed by Maryland.

Lowell Shows High Rate In Traffic Accident Study

A study of traffic accidents in the City of Lowell, made by the Michigan State Police revealed that Lowell has about 25% more traffic accidents than similar size cities in the state.

The study was conducted this summer over a one week period by a team from the Michigan State Police. The results of this study found that Lowell has been ahead of the state average for the past three years and 1974 has shown a considerable increase over 1973 which is not true in other areas of the state.

In 1973 Lowell reported 115 property damage and personal injury accidents; 81 of which occurred on Main Street. In the first seven months of 1974 there had already been 63 accidents, 42 of these occurring on Main Street.

Most dangerous intersections on Main Street were listed: first, Hudson and Main, second, Valley Vista and Main, third, Jefferson Street and Main. The days in which most accidents occurred were Friday and Saturday and the time most accidents happened was between 12 noon and 8 p.m.

The State Police presented several recommendations for improvement of traffic safety in the city. First on the list was removing parking from Main Street, other improvement in safety included changing yield signs on some intersections to stop. One unexpected recommendation was to increase the speed on North Hudson to a more realistic level to improve movement of vehicles.

Thanksgiving Baskets For Less Fortunate

The Kent Community Action Program again this year at the Thanksgiving Holiday is helping to give food baskets and small clothing items, such as mittens and scarves, to less fortunate families in Kent County.

Since 1966, we have depended upon various churches, schools, and other organizations and individuals for contributions. As this Holiday season draws near, we have not received as many inquiries as to the needs of this meaningful project. These are hard times for almost everyone, but especially for the poor.

The donations received are distributed through our five neighborhood centers. The needs of the particular families have been established through personal contact by our outreach workers who throughout the year work directly with the poor in Kent County. These outreach workers also assure that these gifts are given in a dignified and meaningful way.

If any group or individual wishes to help in any way to share the spirit of Thanksgiving in this manner with others, they can contact the East Kent Community Center at 10763 Grand River Drive, Lowell.

Purchase of an irregular lot at Thorncrest Drive and Cascade Road SE as part of a future site for a library was approved at a special meeting of the Cascade Township Board last week.

The lot, plus other property already owned by the township, will provide about two acres for the future library. Cost of the property was $4,000. Owners were and Mrs. Orrie P. Pullen.

The action was taken in response to a petition from the Library Board and the Cascade Friends of the Library last June. In August, a special committee was named to determine the capital outlay needs of the township, including the proposed new library, fire station and equipment and recreation site development.

The library now has quarters in the old township hall but has reached the limits of its space, according to library officials.

In another land deal, the township board and citizens at the special meeting approved sale of six acres of the 55-acre township recreation area at Thornapple River Drive SE and Int. 96. The site was purchased for $6,-000 by Kent County for installation of airport landing lights which will serve a future runway.

The township also accepted a $4,000 Kent County offer for rights to the park's access road for construction and servicing of the airport approach lights.

The ladies worked in two rooms partitioned off at the back of R.D. Stocking's Jewelry and Music store. This was the second building in the block just west of the City Hall. In the smaller room there was a large sewing table and shelving loaded with boxes of materials. Most hats and bonnets were handmade, and cost only a few dollars. The hats were displayed in the larg-

In 1955 she started her own business on the West side of town in the former Winegar and later called the Hartman Drug Store. Besides hats she also stocked womens' and childrens' clothing and accessories, plus hard-to-find large sized dresses. Customers came from all over the country.

Lowell Ledger-Suburban Life, November 21, 1974 Rotarians Host Football Team

The entire Lowell High School football team were the guests of the Lowell Rotary Club at their noon meeting November 13.

After Rotary President Arnold Wittenbach called the meeting to order, King Doyle led in a prayer ask ing God's blessing upon the meal and the meeting. A number of Rotarians signed up to sponsor Charlie

Doyle and Rommie Moore in the YMCA "Footsteps for Youth" five mile hike on Saturday, November 23 Jr. Rotarian guests for November, Tom Andrews and Craig Anderson were introduced, and Stan Gardner reported concerning Rotary's progress in the United Fund. Carrying out an annual Rotary tradition of many years, Charlie Doyle introduced Lowell's football team and their coaches. Coach Al Rowe, in his sixth appearance at Rotary, told of Lowell's football fortunes dur ing the 1974 season. Mr. Rowe told of his team's courage during the past season and said that he looks forward to the 1975 season. Assistant Coach Al Eckman spoke of the team's ability to bounce back after their losses. He thanked the team for their gift of a fine sweater. Student Coach, Dave Peden said that he had enjoyed assisting with the Lowell Team. Dave is a student fair size this year, with the tallest players falling in the 6 ft. 3 inch bracket, and the shortest being only 5 ft. A key player for the Red Arrows this year will be Willie Harden, 5'9" guard, probably one of the best in the Tri-River. Harden has great speed, he can jump and he can shoot.

Announces Squad .

In announcing his squad for this season, Meredith had this to say about his players: Per Ahlund 6'1" forward, is an exchange student from Sweden where he played some basketball, and it looks as though he is going to help us.

Craig Anderson 6'3" center, started many games last year. He scored 83 points as a junior and should be vastly improved this year. Craig has got to be one of our leaders if we are going to be improved Gil Fonger 6'1" forward, started a lot for the Red Arrows last year, and like Craig, is one of our keys and one of the boys we are going to look to for leadership Gil scored 144 points for Lowell last year and should be our leading scorer this year.

George Lessens 5'9" guard, is a good shooter and probably will help us in this spot this year. If his ball handling improves and he toughens up a defense, he could play a lot for us.

Scott McNeal 5'9" guard, is a good shooter and he hustles so he may be in our top three guards. Scott Phillips 6'1" forward, started a few games last year and is a strong rebounder and has a knack for being around the ball, especially on the boards. He has an excellent chance to start at forward if his outside shoot-

John Piper 5'10" guard, has good leadership potenti-al, is a fair shooter and good defensively. Gary Roth, 5'11" guard, saw limited action last year. He is a good ball handler, only adequate as a shooter. Harvey Eickhoff 5'9" guard, has excellent hustle and has shown spurts of shooting well on last year's Junior Varsity team. Bill Grummet 6'3" center, played some for the varsity last year. He has an excellent change to start at Center, if he hustles. If he comes along he could kick Anderson to the forward spot and give us good size inside.

Dale Phillips 6'1" forward, is a rugged rebounder like his brother, Scott, and could see spot action this year. Jim Reagan 5'9" guard, is one of the best pure shooters we have and needs only to become stronger to help us. Mike Tate 5'11" forward, is a rugged individual, not much finese but long on hustle and desire, and is an excellent rebounder for his size. Brian Odell 6'3" center, and Don Vickers 6'1" forwards will gain valuable Varsity experience this year, so they can play regularly next season. Dion Ritzema 5'11" guard, played a lot as a junior varsity squad member last year. He is smart, fundamentally sound, but lacks speed and aggressiveness. John Ellison 6'1" forward, is an excellent outside shooter for a freshman and he has size and is aggressive. John has a 50-50 chance of starting and playing on the varsity this year. Tim Kempker 5'9" guard, is probably the best freshman prospect Lowell has had since Denny DeWitt was a freshman. He can shoot, handle the ball, he is smart and plays defense aggressively. Tom has a chance to start and certainly should stick and see a lot of action on the Varsity.

League Stronger . . .

In commenting on the pending season, Meredith had this to say, "I see the Tri-River being a stronger league, from top to bottom this year than it was last year. I don't think the top teams are going to be as strong as Lakewood and Coopersville were last year, but the teams in the middle will be better. "Lakewood again should be the team to beat on the strength of O'Mara and Westendorf returning and most of their bench back. The strongest challengers should be provided by Belding and Greenville on the Deer are cussed and discussed often by hunters the State over during the off season, but come November 15, the traditional opening of the firearm deer season in Michigan, the hunters don their red suits to chase the elusive critter

And by all indications, they can expect a better than average season in 1974; the best since the mid-1960's when hunters racked up record harvest figures. Deer are masters of camouflage. By instinct, they move without being seen. Occasionally, however, they make mistakes. Last year nearly 71,000 did to the delight of Michigan's hunting army. There are three basic reasons for the increase in herd size-conservative estimates place this fall's herd at between 600,000 and 800,000. First, the habitat, especially in the northern lower and Upper Peninsula, has shown marked improvements due to the deer habitat program. Second, two successive mild winters led to a bumper crop of fawns in 1973, the first of which will become available to hunters this year. Traditionally, yearling deer, actually 18-months-old, make up a major part of the annual kill. Third, slower highway speeds by motorists have led to a reduction in the number of car-deer accidents. A Seven Pointer .

Opening day, 1974, saw a Lowell woman bag her first buck and win first place in the Lowell Ledger sponsored contest

Hunting for four years with 'no' success, Mrs. Sharon Watters of 320 King Street, Lowell, got her seven point trophy tack about 7:37 a.m. off 36th Street, south west of Lowell. Hunting for four years with 'no' success, Mrs. Sharon Watters of 320 King Street, Lowell, got her seven point trophy rack about 7:37 a.m. off 36th Street. southwest of Lowell.

Sweeping second place contest honors was another Lowell hunter, Bill Ward, who downed his 4-pointer it approximately 7:15 a.m. in the Gove Lake Avea. Both Mrs. Watters and Ward will receive yearly subscription rewards for being the first hunters to bring their deer to the Ledger office on the opening day.

Fitting neatly into the back of Bill Ward's station wagon is this four-pointer he shot opening day, winning second place in the Lowell Ledger's annual deer hunter's contest.

The Lucky Ones

Other deer hunters from this area reporting their uccess to-date were: Bill McCarty, 4-point; Carroll Eckman, 5-point; Don Green, spike; Philip Wittenbach, Brian Odell, 6-point; Tom Klimson, 7-point; and businessmen, hunting with Olin Miller in Mason County zeroed in on their targets opening day. Jackson got his 4-point buck at 7:40 a.m., while Roberts waited until 2:45 p.m. to down his 6-pointer. Western Success .

Robert Ellis of Lowell and his annual western hunting party returned to their homes last week from Montana, with their limit-five elk and ten mule deer. Ellis' marksmanship on the three-week adventure produced one Elk (weighing approximately 650 lbs.) and two mule dee Further Listing . . Next week, the Ledger will carry another listing of hunters bagging their bucks. Hunters in the area are urged to call 897-9261 and report their successful season or pass along humorous or too good to be true tales of the pending season, which ends this year on Novem-

Good hunting, guys and gals. Unbelievable . .

Gilmore's Sport Shop in Ada has reported one of the most unusual entries into their annual contest for deer hunters,

A nine-point buck hit by a bow and arrow hunter during the 1973 season, was shot by Pete Perdok of 9331 Fulton Road, Ada.

The nine-pointer, with a seven inch spread, has the arrow in him from the previous season. The arrowhead went an inch and a half into the deer's brain, and only the end of the arrow shaft could be seen on the outside, as the tissue had grown around it.

Sporting only spike horns, this yearling deer was downed by Don Green.

Dear Editor:

I'm wondering if the people of Lowell realize how well off they are. Our local stores carry almost every conceivable items everyone needs and wants and yet the majority of Lowell's population feels compelled to drive to Grand Rapids for their shopping. Lowell stores sell their merchandise at the lowest possible price they can and many of those prices are less than those else-

The people of Lowell-especially those who make their money here (teachers, factory workers, etc.)should spend their money here. The local merchants need our business and if we don't frequent them nowsoon they'll be gone. Someday, when our car won't start, gas is too expensive, we're short on time, or numerous other reasons-our local stores won't be here and it will be our own fault.

Residents in the Lowell School District: I've been told that it has been tried time and time again to get the residents in the Lowell School District her to act as a group to better Parent-Teacher re-

Why has this failed? Don't you feel that the education of our children is important Now is the time for ALL to get out and voice their opinions. Don't let just a few plan and set your child's educational standards. Come to the Lowell Senior High School, Room J-3 on November 26, 1974, at 7:30 p.m. A vote is to be taken at that time for a P.T.A. or P.T.O. or other. The teachers have all been sent invitations and I hope they will attend. How about you? Let's not fail this time. The teachers need you and you need the teachers.

You don't have to be big to be a leader and Lowell High School took the lead and made Hockey a Varsity Sport this year. Many other schools are following Low-ell High School's Leadership and are also making Hockey a Varsity Sport.

Hockey is also becoming a new high school sport throughout the state of Michigan and has become a part of the Michigan High School Athletic Association. Norm Kolenda, Commissioner of the Grand Rapids High School Hockey League, has informed all teams that there will be a State Playoff at The University of Michigan Yost Arena on March 11-14-15, 1975. Lowell will be one of the few high schools locally that will be eligible for the tournament because they are one of the few teams registered with the state as a Varsity Sport. Survey Results To Help Farmers

Estimates of cattle, hog, chicken and sheep numbers, expected pig and calf crops, and winter wheat plantings will hinge on a nationwide survey set for late fall by the United States Department of Agriculture.

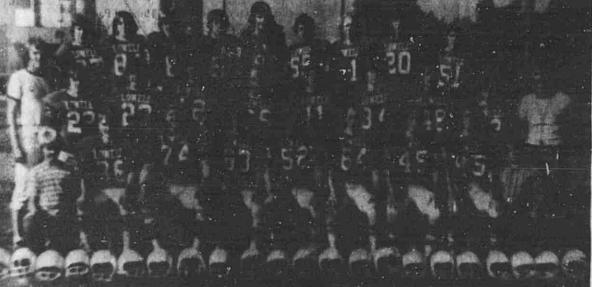

C.A. Hines, Statistician in Charge of the Michigan Crop Reporting Service in Lansing explained that published estimates from this annual survey are always significant to those making decisions in agriculture. However, this year the information will carry added importance because of concerns surrounding feed grain supplies and prices plus their impact on livestock and poultry production

Hines said, "The wheat acreage estimate also will draw heavy attention because farmers were again free to plant for the marketplace and were not influenced by government restrictions.

The survey swings into the field in late November and early December when Michigan farmers, along with thousands of farmers and ranchers representing a cross section of the Nation's producers will be contacted by USDA representatives. These interviewers will collect information for the Michigan Crop Reporting ~ Service about livestock and poultry currently on farms, expected pig and calf crops and acreages seeded to winter wheat and rye. All responses are confidential and only State and National estimates will be issued. Cooperation by Michigan farmers is urged.

Survey results will be available through the Michigan Crop Reporting Service in late December for wheat, hogs, and poultry; a mid-January sheep publication and an early February cattle release.
