Warn Private Operators Who Push Snow In Streets

The Kent County Sheriff's Department is receiving daily reports of private operators with snow plows which leave large amounts of snow on county highways when plowing private driveways and parking lots. This causes a dangerous situation and several accidents have been reported.

We request that extra caution be used by the operators of snow plows; and, if violations continue, summons will be issued to the violators who operate these snow plow units.

County of Kent

Melody Circus Stock Approved For Sale

Stock in Melody Circus, the new professional musical tent summer theatre scheduled to open next June in Grand Rapids, officially went on sale Monday.

Offering the $1 shares to the public was approved by the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission on recommendation of examiner Donald Holcomb.

While the proposed stock sale under the "blue sky laws" was under consideration by the commission in Lansing, Melody Circus leased a 10-acre site on 28th Street and the East Beltline (M-37) at the southeast corner of Grand Rapids, took preliminary steps in arranging for its 2,100-seat tent and plans for several permanent buildings that will be required.

Ted Brink of Grand Rapids, producer, reported, Monday, "We have also been in contact with agents for musicals and stars and have made tentative plans for auditioning next month in New York for members of the professional resident company."

The new organization, which anticipates drawing playgoers and stockholders from all of Western Michigan, plans to present a different musical comedy each week for 12 weeks during the summer. Major stars of TV, Hollywood and Broadway will take principal roles.

The sale of stock, as approved by the commission, includes the disposal of $190,083 in $1 shares. Investments are limited to a minimum of 10 shares and a maximum of 5,000 shares. Original stock may be purchased by Michigan residents only.

The approved prospectus specifies that proceeds from sale of the stock will be held in escrow by Michigan National Bank in Grand Rapids until a total of $127,000 is accumulated. If this total is not reached by April 30, 1963, the monies subscribed will be returned to investors.

Brink stressed that interested persons must obtain a prospectus by writing to Melody Circus, 25 LaGrave Ave., S. E., Grand Rapids, Michigan. The prospectus contains an order blank.

Dan Himebaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Himebaugh on East Fulton Road, and a graduate of Michigan State University has accepted a position as instructor in chemistry at Interlochen Arts Academy at Interlochen, Michigan.

The committee has searched far and wide for an outstanding speaker (last year they reached all the way to Cascade) and finally settled on some local talent.

The main speaker will be Richard DeVos, executive of Amway, speaking on the subject, "Selling America." Mr. DeVos reports that he has given this talk to thousands of people from coast to coast.

If you still want to come, tickets are available at the Ada Hardware at $2.50 per person. Everyone is welcome including people from Cascade.

Two-hour Comedy At Saturday Show

There will be a big two-hour long show Saturday afternoon for the final presentation in the January movie series.

Joe E. Brown, one of the world's most funny men, will be starring in a delightful comedy, "The Gladiators." This hilarious story is about a young weakling who is given a strength serum and is suddenly able to perform great feats, such as kicking a football 280 yards. The consequences of all his power will become indelible in your memory as part of a side-splitting afternoon.

Everyone is welcome to laugh with us at the Ada Town Hall at 1:30 p. m. The cost will be 25 cents for children and adults. We request that adults seat themselves near the back so that all the children can see well. There will be cartoons first. Popcorn and pop will again be sold for 10 cents each.

The Ada P. T. A., as the sponsoring organization, feels responsible for the children, since during these hours, we are performing a community service as sitters, we do not want the children out on the streets. Please explain to them that they may not leave the building during the show.

The show will run until 3:30 p. m.

4-H Fair Faces Problems In 1963

The loss of a $2,000 appropriation to the Kent County 4-H Fair was the main item of business at the Kent County 4-H Fair Board's Annual Open meeting, Thursday, January 17, at Camp Vining, Bostwick Lake. Eighty-five interested persons took part in the discussion and elected 6 new directors to the Board.

Richard Reath, County Director of the Cooperative Extension Service, which also administers the county 4-H program, reviewed the status quo.

The 4-H fair is an exclusive youth fair with no adult classes. The loss of the $2,000 appropriation amounts to about 20 percent of the total income to the Fair.

Reath emphasized that the county is faced with many similar problems and 4-H is one of them. He pointed out that the supervisors are doing an honest and difficult job to appropriate county funds wisely to all county services. "We are not applying pressure to anyone," he states, "All of us are in the business of education, therefore, we have no obligation to the rest of the population and supervisors to let them know how effective our program really is. After all it is the best in the state, but it is going to get hurt if we get reduced appropriations."

Charles Lang, Secretary of the Fair Board, added most people have the mistaken belief that our fair is for rural youngsters only. They fail to remember that only one-third of our members are rural. About 1/2 of 1,600 youngsters are from the Grand Rapids area.

To illustrate his point, he stated that entomology is normally considered for rural youngsters, but over 1/2 of the 172 entomology members are from urban homes.

Two of Kent County's entomology members had exhibits that were so exceptional that they are now on display in the Natural Science Building at Michigan State University. The entomology project is supervised by a man who owns a business and lives in Grand Rapids. Lang added that other projects are similar situations and that 4-H has done much to decrease the so-called line between rural and urban people.

Many workable suggestions were given to the 4-H Fair Board. The Fair Board immediately scheduled a meeting for January 22 to take action on the suggestions given.

Four Senior Directors were elected for three year terms on the Fair Board. These were Tom Lyons of Lowell; Ken Cranmer of Sparta; Clarence Klahn of Lowell and Fred Dykstra of Ada.

Two Junior Directors elected for two year terms were Monroe Davids of Grand Rapids and Judy Ayriss of Wyoming.

Miss Lois Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Johnson on Grachen Drive, will hold a one-man art show at the Breton Village Shopping Center during the week from January 26, to February 2.

Miss Johnson is a graduate of Forest Hills High School and is now attending Grand Rapids Junior College.

Fishing Fun in Old Shanty Town

Hundreds of little communities have sprung up on Michigan's inland lakes and bays since winter's blast of freezing temperatures ushered in the ice fishing season. And what bustling centers of action these small settlements are with thousands of sportsmen (and women) spudding holes in the ice, bobbing their lines for panfish, pitching spears at pike, and generally enjoying the camaraderie of the folks "next door." All this and more keep calling fishermen back to their shanty towns throughout the season. The fun is just starting and with some bait, a few inexpensive pieces of fishing gear and a license, it can be yours.

Days Longer But Weather Isn't Warmer

You may have noticed the longer hours of sunshine lately, but don't expect warmer weather yet, advises University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

The old saying, "As the days lengthen, the cold strengthens," is particularly appropriate during this month. The rate of earth's heating has not yet overtaken its rate of cooling. It will in early February.

Since the winter solstice (Dec. 22, 1962) the days are growing longer until, by the end of January, there will have been about a 50 minutes increase over the short days of December, explains the Michigan astronomer.

"The lengthening of the days will be decidedly more noticeable in the evening with the later setting of the sun than in its earlier rising in the morning.

"This is because at this time of the year the sun is moving along its yearly path fastest, de-laying its rising and setting as timed by our clocks," Professor Losh notes. Our standard time clocks are always ahead of the sun, but at this time of year, they are farthest ahead, hence the later setting of the sun.

Two planets are on prominent display during January, Professor Losh points out. Mars, reddish and very bright, rises at around 8 p. m. in the eastern sky to shine the whole night through.

Venus may be seen in the morning sky, shining high in the south-eastern sky around 7 a. m. and later in the morning.

Report On Vehicles Registered In Kent

In 1962, 188,023 motor vehicles of all types were registered by the Department of State in Kent County. These included:

Passenger cars, 142,761; trucks and commercial vehicles, 18,869; farm commercials, 1,131; trailers, 20,144; trailer coaches, 2,196; motorcycles, 1,496; and police cars and mother municipal vehicles, 1,453.

According to Secretary of State James M. Hare, the total weight tax money collected in Kent County was $3,849,532.14.

"Collection of weight taxes in Michigan last year increased $1,640,525.96, from $6,875,012.57 in 1961 to $8,515,538.53 in 1962," Hare said. "The total number of vehicles of all kinds registered rose only 111,228, from 3,758,010 in 1961 to 3,869,238 last year."

Permissible This Year Due For A Tax Refund? Take It In Savings Bonds

If you're in line for a refund on your 1962 Federal income tax return, County Savings Bonds Chairman Ink White has a word for you. Two words, in fact: buy bonds.

This year for the first time, White points out, Uncle Sam is making it possible for you to take refund in Series E, Savings Bonds by the simple expedient of putting an "X" in the appropriate box on the tax form.

Last year some 40 million taxpayers received cash refunds on their taxes. Judging from samplings of opinion, a lot of them would have preferred to get their money in Savings Bonds if they'd had the chance. Bond Chairman White wants to make sure of them who live in Kent County, know they have that chance.

The way the bond option works is simple. The Treasury will issue the smallest possible number of E Bonds of the largest possible denominations to cover the amount of the refund. If there's anything left over, a check will be written for the balance. The one complication comes if the cash balance is from one to 99 cents, since the check-issuing apparatus can't handle anything less than a dollar. Details are given in the instructions.

Sixth Annual Scout Council

The sixth annual meeting of the adult members of the Michigan Trails Girl Scout Council will be held at Trinity Lutheran Church in Grand Rapids on January 28 at 7:30 p. m.

In addition to the regular business meeting, there will be election of officers and board members. A slate has been prepared but open nominations from the floor will be accepted. The offices of president, vice-president, and treasurer will be filled.

Mrs. Brinkert will give a report on "Michigan Trails Council and Review," recalling her four years in office. A colored film preview "Journey into Friendship" will be shown. The film is sponsored by the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts to promote international friendship.

Refreshments will be served by the Forest Hills Neighborhood hostesses. All adult members of the council are invited to attend.

Students To Enter Poster Contest

Fourth, fifth and sixth graders at Ada School have been given an opportunity to participate in a poster contest. They will be making posters to advertise the Ada School Carnival on February 22.

There will be one winner in each room. The students have been given the rules of the contest at school and have been encouraged to do the most original work they can. They may receive suggestions from parents or others, but it is hoped that they use their own imaginations for fresh new posters.

The posters will be judged by an art director, and a sales executive for a well-known advertising firm in Grand Rapids. These men have no connection with the children in Ada School, and are offering their services so that the contest may be impartially judged. Please encourage your child to enter.

Snow Tires And Chains A Help, But Driver Is Best Safety Factor

"Snow tires, reinforced tire chains, and all the efforts of street and highway officials to keep the roads clear of snow and ice are only effective for the driver when he makes use of them in the right way," declared an industry official here today.

In a statement issued in connection with the Michigan trucking industry's January Courtesy and Safety Campaign entitled "Safe Winter Driving", Donald C. Hayden, President of the Michigan Trucking Association, said that snow tires, reinforced tire chains, and snow removal operations are aids for the driver in getting through in bad weather, but getting through safely is the driver's responsibility.

"Apparently, many good drivers are of the opinion that they can travel at dry-road speeds with snow tires or chains, or if the road has been plowed," Mr. Hayden continues. "Consequently, they throw away the margin of safety provided by not holding their speed down."

"There is no real substitute for extra careful driving, greatly reduced speeds, and longer following distances under winter's adverse driving conditions. These basic safe winter driving rules, when practiced, will help the driver stay clear of accidents on slippery surfaces, and they will enable him to keep from getting stuck", Mr. Hayden concluded.

"The correspondent in a divorce case is often the fellow who wishes that half the things he's accused of could be true."

HOW MUCH SHALL I SAY?

In a classified ad say as much as is necessary to completely describe what you are offering of goods or services, little more. Be brief, concise, complete. Tell all you would like to know if you were the prospect.

Facts are what count in a classified ad. Superlatives are to be avoided. Readers of classified pages are looking for something. If you have it and your copy adequately describes it, leave no question in prospect's mind, you will get action... a sale if terms are right.

A buyer looking for something in the classifieds will read most of the ads to find it. The judicious use of display type, a little white space at top and bottom, the boxed ad—as in display ads on this page—command attention, adding to the pulling power.

Say what is essential in your ad; use display space where competitive advertising dictates the need.

Bobcat Chase

Kenneth Wilcox, representing Cascade Scout Troop 334 attended the Golden Jubilee Anniversary dinner of the Grand Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America on Thursday evening, January 17, at the Civic Auditorium. Mrs. Charles Cartmill was in charge for making plans for the dinner of Troop 334. Silver Beaver awards were presented to six men, two from our own South Kent District, Richard Druart and Carroll Slocum. Sasha Siemel, famous hunter and world renowned adventurer was the lecturer, and showed movies of his hunting in South America. There were approximately 2,000 in attendance at the dinner.

Take a crisp winter day, blanket it with a thin layer of fresh tracking snow, add several hard-working hounds and you have the ingredients for fast-paced sport---bobcat hunting in northern Michigan. Naturally, it also takes a good measure of go-power on the part of hunters to make the chase a success. From now through February 15, several hundred hunters will be on the swampy trail of cats in the northern lower peninsula. For many of them, the thrill of the hunt will be in the chase rather than in the kill. In recent years, a growing number of northern lower peninsula sportsmen have passed up chances to shoot cats they have treed, knowing the animal's numbers have fallen off in this area. The decline led to the area's season being shortened one month this year. In the upper peninsula, the bobcat's reputation as a great game animal has been dulled by a price tag on his head. He's hunted year 'round both for sport and a $5 bounty payment above the Straits.--Mich. Dept. of Conservation.

Know YOUR MICHIGAN LAW

by Attorney General FRANK J. KELLEY

(This is one of a series of public articles explaining in general terms a provision of Michigan law. Individuals who wish to determine the effect of any law upon their private legal affairs should consult a private attorney.)

One of the most frequent inquiries made of my office by private citizens is, "How long do I have to live in Michigan to be a resident within the meaning of the law?"

Like many other legal questions that one must be answered, "It depends." Residency requirements vary depending upon whether the question relates to voting rights, marriage waiting periods, divorce, or any other number of other areas.

Here are the requirements of the three most requested problems:

1. Voting. The Michigan Constitution provides that in order to qualify as a voting elector in this State a citizen must have resided in Michigan for 6 months and in the city or township in which he or she offers to vote for 30 days preceding the election.
2. Marriage: Qualified persons may obtain a marriage license after a period of 3 days from and including the date of application. This is merely a waiting period, however, and there are no residency requirements as such.
3. Divorce: No divorce will be granted in Michigan unless—the party seeking it shall have resided in this State for one year immediately prior to filing the complaint; or the marriage was solemnized in Michigan and the party applying for divorce has resided from the time of the marriage until the time of filing the suit for divorce; and—either party to the divorce or both of them shall have resided in the county where the suit is filed 10 days immediately preceding the filing of the suit.

Special Winter Driving Aids

While modern cars and trucks are built to operate more safely under most all conditions, drivers cannot afford to lose sight of the fact that these vehicles still need special preparation to operate safely and dependably in snow, ice, freezing weather and fog, says Harry Porter, jr., manager of the Traffic Department of the National Safety Council.

Fortunately, says Mr. Porter, research on this problem by the Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards has developed many facts which have helped reduce the winter death rate in the United States. After twenty years of study and analysis the Committee names reduced visibility and inadequate traction as the two factors which add most to the dangers of winter driving.

"From my own experience and observation," said Mr. Porter, "I offer the following suggestions to all who want to play it safe."

To Help You See
 "How are all your lights? Not just your headlights... your stop lights, your back-up lights, your tail lights, your dashboard lights. How about your turn signals? Snowy or icy pavements make early signalling of your intentions even more vital than in good weather. When the windows are closed a driver must rely on turn signals instead of hand signals. Make sure they are always functioning properly.

"Another must for safe driving in winter is the dependable operation of windshield wipers. Wiper blade rubber should be checked for deterioration.

Dead, baked out rubber smears. The arms should be adjusted so as to work without slapping, yet clean the greatest area possible. Arms should have at least one ounce of pressure for each inch of blade length. Otherwise blades ride up over snow, smear road muck around instead of wiping clearly.

Sympathy

In the world of suffering and sorrow, sin and death, there are many opportunities to express sympathy. The word sympathy literally means: to suffer with. If our sympathy is to be more than just a few formal words, it must be an expression of love. Love which causes us to share an experience or enter into an experience with some one. How badly we need more of this in this world, that is so often so busy, harsh, indifferent of the needs of our fellow man. Surely the Christian ought to be sympathetic. He has learned the sympathy of a loving Savior who helps in every need. He can sing: What a friend we have in Jesus, all our sins and griefs to bear. What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer. Having received the help of his Savior, he desires to show the same love and compassion to others.

Are you insured with only half an agent?

An insurance salesman represents only one company. After he has sold you insurance for your car or home, you may never see him again.

By contrast, an independent insurance agent represents several companies. His job doesn't end with selling you insurance. That's the Big Difference in insurance — the continuing, personal attention of an independent agent. He keeps the insurance on your car and home up-to-date. If you have a loss, he makes sure you are paid promptly, fairly.

We are independent agents — professionally qualified to recommend all types of car, home, and business insurance. We'll be happy to give you all the facts about complete insurance protection.

To Go In Snow

Why do some cars start without trouble on even the coldest, dampest mornings while others grind away and run down the battery? It could be any of several reasons but experience shows that worn spark plugs are often the biggest trouble maker. Don't head into winter without professional checking of your battery, your ignition system. Failure can mean "no start" or stalling in traffic some cold damp morning.

Winter conditions are rough on lubricants and while many of the new cars are advertised to operate for considerable periods without change of oil or grease, it is well to have your service man keep an eye on vulnerable parts and be sure they are sufficiently lubricated at all times.

How about your tires and tire chains? Do your tires have enough tread to aid on snow? Snow tires are better than regular, but reinforced tire chains are needed and most reliable for really severe conditions. In deep snow and on ice they help you stop far more safely and increase "go" traction by 400 per cent. Chains often mean the difference between moving and being stalled during severe conditions or on hills.

Don't Get Gassed
 Because car windows are usually closed in winter, it is very important that the exhaust system, muffler and tail pipe should be in top shape.
