200 zip-a-list kits processed

Postmaster Milton Hein reported today that approximately 200 zip-a-list cards from all over the country have been processed at the Ada Post Office, since the program kicked off last week.

The postal official urged local residents who haven't taken advantage of the post office's offer to provide ZIP Codes for "zipless" addresses to do so immediately. A kit sufficient for up to eight addresses was delivered to each household in the area.

Extra kits are available at the post office. All a mailer need do to obtain a ZIP Code is to write the "unzipped" address in the proper space, including the city and state.

Write in the return address so the post office will know who should receive the completed card.

Drop the card in any mail box. No postage is needed.

Postmaster Hein thanked all who have already filled in their cards & mailed them. "We appreciate your cooperation and look forward to considerably more ZIP in our postal operations after this," he said.

Anyone in the country who requests a ZIP Code for an address in Ada fills out the form and drops it in the mail. When the card arrives at the main post office, it is separated from other mail during the normal sorting process. The cards are stacked, stamped with the proper code plus a "return to sender" notice and remailed to the return address. "It is a fast, efficient process," Mr. Hein explained.

Teacher and wife have triplet sons

Good things come in small packages is an old saying which proved true once again on Monday, October 9, when triplets were born to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Bowser of 1617 Covell Road, NW. Mr. Bowser teaches Biology at the Forest Hills High School.

The three babies, who came into the world several weeks early, were named Aron Allen, Brett Edwin and Cory James by their still slightly shocked parents. Aron and Brett weighed 3 pounds, 2 ounces, each when born. Cory, who is the youngest by just three minutes, weighed three pounds, 1 ounce.

The premises will probably remain in incubators at Butterworth Hospital in Grand Rapids for another month or until they reach regular "baby" size and may be brought home.

The triplets are the Bowser's first children.

To unite forces in UNICEF drive

Junior and senior high young people from St. Michael's Episcopal Church and Cascade Christian Church, along with other interested youth in the community will unite forces on Saturday, October 28, to "Trick or Treat for UNICEF" in the Cascade, Eastmont and Forest Hills areas.

For several years these churches have cooperated and worked together in this project which undertakes to assist children in the poverty-stricken areas of the world. Last year, American children and youth raised close to three million dollars for UNICEF at Halloween time with over seven thousand dollars being raised in Kent County alone.

The goal is 420,000 vitamin pills or $700 in cash.

Antique lamps now hang in chapel

Lifting their eyes, not to Heaven this time, but to the newly installed brass chandelier, one of two recently donated for the refurbishing of the old chapel, are the Chapel Restoration Committee responsible for the project. They are, left to right: Harvey Comrie, Chairman Buck Matthews, Board Chairman Dan Frazee, John Hamer, Rev. Raymond Gaylord, Mrs. Kenneth Bassett, Robert VanStrien, Mrs. VanStrien, Donnally Palmer, Ward Geib and Mrs. Comrie.

Like all old public buildings, the landmark white frame Cascade Christian Church, constructed in 1880, underwent a series of minor modernizations over the years. When the congregation moved into a new church building two years ago, there was some concern that the old church might have outlived its usefulness.

No such concern exists any longer. A committee established in 1965 has reversed the improvement process and is pursuing a course of returning the building to nearly original condition.

The committee admits that it would not be proper to say they are restoring the church, because there would be nearly insurmountable problems to face in such a task. However, many of the original furnishings have been found and returned to the building, and other items contemporary with the building have been donated and placed there.

The latest such gift is a pair of brass oil chandeliers, which originally hung in the old Orleans Township Hall in Ionia County. They were removed in 1955, when that building was modernized, and purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Narsi Yonan, who donated them to Cascade Christian Church when they heard of the project.

Now refinished and electrified, they hang in the vestibule and Deacon's Room of the little old church. No such lamps were there originally, but these were hung in the Orleans Township Hall when it was built in 1871, just nine years before the church was built.

Next on the want list of the committee are six matching oil lamps of the type that commonly were installed in stores, hotels, saloons and churches of that era. If they can be found, they will be electrified and hung in place of the neo-Gothic electric lamps now in the old sanctuary.

If men were basically evil, who would bother to improve the world instead of giving it up as a bad job at the outset?

Thirty-two new scout units to be formed

Two hundred delegates representing organizations from the seven-county area of the Grand Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, attended the Together Dinner at Wege Center at Aquinas College this week.

They heard A. H. Aymond, Consumers Power Company chief executive, speak of the need to serve more boys in all communities in order to build better character and citizenship into their lives. He said Scouting will not solve all of the problems that exist today, but it will have a strong influence on them and will contribute much to their improvement if Scouting can reach enough of the boys. Scouting can and does effect the lives of boys and builds them into better men, Aymond said. The character building and citizenship training of Scouting must reach more boys.

Governor George Romney sent a telegram to the dinner, in which he congratulated those present on their interest in youth and emphasized his belief in the need and benefit of Scouting for boys.

At the close of the evening program, the representatives of the various organizations held separate meetings and decided whether their group should join Scouting and use the program to serve more boys in their community. They then indicated their interest by presenting the organization's table sign to dinner chairman Michael O'Connor.

Thirty-two new Cub packs, Scout troops and Explorer posts were planned by the end of the evening. These will make Scouting available to over one thousand more boys in the area during the next year.

Listed are the organizations that decided to join Scouting in this area.

Faith Lutheran Church, Delta Nu Alpha (Transportation Fraternity), Vandenberg School, Central Christian Church, Grand Rapids Bar Association, Plymouth Congregational Church, Sibley School, Osteopathic Hospital, Michigan Bell Telephone Company, Ada Congregational Church, Grattan Citizens Group, Ken-O-Sha School, and Riverbend School.

Colleges nowadays are emphasizing education. One university has become so strict it won't allow a basketball player his letter unless he can tell which one it is.

Homes for exchange students are needed

The Forest Hills Youth for Understanding Committee is accepting applications for families interested in being host to a South American student. One or two South American students can be accepted at Forest Hills High School this winter.

These young people come to us in January and return home in June. While in the United States they will attend school as high school seniors and live in an American home as a member of the family, doing their share of the household chores and looking after their room and personal effects.

Selection of students coming to the U. S. is done by National Committees in the respective countries. They are carefully screened to obtain the type of highly qualified student who will give and receive the most in this cultural exchange.

Host families are expected to provide a wholesome experience of typical American family life. Interested families may contact Howard Dalman at the high school, Mrs. Stewart Johnson at 949-3769 or Mrs. James Comrie at 949-5828.

Students help United Fund

In line with this year's increased giving to the Kent County United Fund Campaign, students of Forest Hills High School gave 61 percent more than last year, turning in a voluntary donation of $101.63.

This year's collection was suggested by senior Ryan Ashley, brother of Randy Ashley, who helped initiate the donation last year.

After Ryan had arranged for the United Community Services staff campaign manager, Chester Elwell, to describe United Fund agency services to government classes, he asked school officials for permission to collect for the campaign.

On the two days following the talk Ryan and Archie Warner, also a senior, collected the $101 donation from students in first hour classes.

Tour UP and Canada

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Depew, Thorncrest Dr., Mr. and Mrs. Neil Den Houter, 28th St., and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Kuiper, Ellsworth, spent the week in Michigan's Upper Peninsula and Agawa Canyon, Canada.

The colors were at the peak and the weather ideal.

You can help Santa in Vietnam

Harold Carlyon, a retired school teacher, and his wife, Ruth, of 3500 Dean Lake Road, NE, Grand Rapids, are helping fill Christmas gift bags to be sent to local servicemen in Vietnam as part of the Red Cross program, "Operation Shop Early."

In an effort to provide every U. S. serviceman and servicewoman in South Vietnam with a special Christmas gift from the American people this year, volunteers in nearly 1,400 American Red Cross Chapters got off to an early start this week on packing 525,000 Christmas gift bags.

Goal for the Kent County Chapter is 1,500 gift bags. They are being filled with small comfort and recreational articles and shipped to ARC field directors with U. S. forces in South Vietnam to arrive in time for distribution during the holiday season.

The nationwide program, called "Red Cross Shop Early—Vietnam 1967," was launched because of the need for the service. The hundreds of letters of thanks from men of every military rank in South Vietnam who received the bags last Christmas testified to the popularity of the program.

Mrs. L. D. Atkinson, chairman of the Red Cross project, said that the Kent County Chapter is short of its goal by several hundred bags. She urged individuals, families, and organizations to check with Red Cross to see what items were still needed.

The cost of filling one gift bag is $3.30. Those wishing to contribute in this way may mail a check to "Operation Shop Early," American Red Cross, 55 North Division. A holiday greeting card with the individual donor's name appears in each gift bag.

the spectacle of a growing disrespect for authority, a deterioration of integrity, and a concomitant rising crime rate which one must admit accurately characterizes an increasingly large part of our national society.

With few exceptions the Old Order Amish still cling to the manner of worship, style of dress and traditions of the past. Especially in this Hippie age of ours they need make no apology for these peculiarities.

They are neither ignorant of world affairs nor unconcerned for their children's welfare. The Amish believe in the nonresistant life. Every widening of the "moral Chasm" in America serves to deepen their conviction that "modern" society is built on an unsound amoral base and consequently is destined to grow ever more corrupt.

No Amish devout, however, would deny the maxim that good citizenship rests in the literate person; they rigidly hold, as well, to the precept of the responsibility of parents — not that of the state or nation — to educate children. This philosophy has brought them into conflict with our state laws governing teacher qualifications and compulsory education.

The issue centers in the Amish view that government infringement upon the prerogatives of parental responsibility is unwarranted intrusion into the personal affairs of its citizens.

They contend, and we agree, that one of the main purposes of education is to enable the child to learn the things which will be most useful to him and his society. The Amish want to supply practical efficiency and character development; they will tolerate no usurpation by the state of their right and duty to prepare Amish children for Amish society.

In substance, the government's attempt to set teacher standards for them has forced the Amish into civil disobedience for conscience sake; the Amish draw a fine line between expediency and principle.

Unless our deteriorating society can satisfactorily demonstrate a method superior to that of the Amish, which can and will inculcate the same values, this writer respectfully suggests the Amish are best left alone. Their concepts work for them!

BIRTHS

New program of religious training at St. Robert's

St. Robert's of New Minister at Ada religion classes have gotten underway for the fall. If your child has not been enrolled you are encouraged to wait no longer but enroll him immediately as this year's program for Religion is outstanding.

The Elementary children will meet each Saturday morning from 9 to 10:30 at Forest Hills Junior High School. The elementary program is under the leadership of Sr. Thomas Estelle, O.P. with the help of many lay leaders.

An entirely new program for the junior high and senior high students is in effect this year. At the first meeting it was very well accepted and much enthusiasm was shown by the students and the many parents who turned out to help with the program. This group will meet each Wednesday evening from 7 to 8:30 at Forest Hills Junior High.

At the opening of the meeting a lecture will be given by Father B. Korson from St. Joseph's Seminary. After the lecture the students break up into groups of 10 for a discussion group where they can discuss their view of the lecture and gain far more knowledge by being in small intimate groups under the guidance of lay leaders.

The entire program is planned by Sister Amanda, O.P. and Sister Ann Marie, O.P. of Marywood Academy.

The St. Roberts of Ada Parish has grown tremendously in the past year, it is now necessary to conduct 3 Masses. The religion classes have record attendances, in the elementary there are 242 children enrolled. In the High School Religion Course there are 180 students.

Beauty

At this moment the western sky is aglow with the beauty of the setting sun. All around us the autumn coloring of the bushes and trees is simply magnificent. In our area the changing panoramas of color are constantly displayed before our wondering eyes. After a color tour, nearby as well as far away, we repeat the words of the Psalmist David: "The heaven declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handiwork." Psalm 19:1.

The Bible tells us that beauty is not only to be found in nature but also, and especially, in human nature redeemed by the grace of God in Jesus Christ. The Psalmist in Psalm 96:9 issues this call: "O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness." What is there in holiness that is beautiful? The most fundamental answer of Scripture is that God is holy, and that He requires and demands holiness of those who worship Him. We are to be holy, because He is holy!

The Bible teaches us that holiness is separation from sin and devotion and commitment to God. This is the beauty of holiness in which the Lord delights. In this time in which it seems that anything can pass the tests of men in the name of realism, it is necessary to present the real demand of the only real God! Do you worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness?

Big plans for FH homecoming

Who will reign as King and Queen of the Homecoming events at Forest Hills High School? The answer to this question is kept a closely guarded secret until half time at Friday night's football game.

It is no secret, however, that two of the students shown above will be picked and that the rest of the candidates will form their court of honor.

The climax of the week's activities at Forest Hills will be Friday evening at the game during half time when the lovely floats will pass in review and be judged, and the names of the Homecoming King and Queen will be revealed. The gala Homecoming Dance immediately follows the game.

All week Forest Hills has been a bee-hive of activity working up to Friday night's activities.

1967 was the first Homecoming for Forest Hills High School, Mary Beth Gietzen, now Mrs. John Wardrop, was chosen as queen for the event. Since that first homecoming, each year the floats have been more elaborate and harder to judge and the week's activities have taken on a more prevalent carnival atmosphere.

Monday, found all students wondering just who would be elected King and Queen. The seniors choose the court of 5 outstanding boys and 5 beautiful girls. The entire student body votes for their choice which is kept a guarded secret until half time.

Last year's queen, Linda McCormick, will be on hand to present the new queen with her crown.

Candidates for queen are: Pam Seccombe, Kim Fisher, Maridell Paine, Tracey Seidman, and Bobbie Willard. The King will be chosen from: Dan Silver, Jim VanderBaan, Bob Geis, Steve Russ and Ryan Ashley. Ryan's brother, Randy, was the King of Homecoming for 1966. Three of the queen candidates are members of the Cheerleaders squad.

Each class has been delegated a building to decorate, so each class is trying to out-do the other, by coming up with most unusual themes for their chosen building, as each building will be judged by Mrs. VanderLee, Mrs. Hoezee and Mrs. Nowak. There will also be skits presented by each class and they will be judged by Miss Pitchauer, Mr. Kemp, Mrs. Bolthuis, and Tom and John Catzer. Also there will be a cheering contest and Pep assemblies.

All classes are working hard and long into the night to have their floats ready by game time. Of course they are all being very secretive about the theme of their floats, but spies are trying their best to get a look at their opposition's works of art. Each year the floats become more imaginative and beautiful.

The cheerleaders will be out in full force. They are the spark of the football games, and will be leading the cheers of old grads and students while they urge the Fighting Ranger team to victory on Friday night.

The Cheerleaders for this year are: Kim Fisher, Kathy DeVos, Bobbie Willard, Marie Hillary, Joyce Cousino, Wendy Grant, Sarah Campbell and Maridell Paine.

Chairman for the Homecoming is Jill Johnson. Working with Jill are Pam Seccombe, flowers; Mimi Perschbacher, Judges; Paul Jenks, programs; and Tracey Seidman, decorations.

The dance after the game will have the theme "Up Up and Away." Tracey said a mass effort of students is being put forth to decorate for the dance. There will be ascension balloons, kites in various shades, brightly covered tables and dim lighting.

The music will be furnished by the Fredric's, formerly known as Yesterday's Children.

Rangers bow to Godwin

The Forest Hills Rangers lost their fifth game Friday night after putting up a good fight against league-leading Godwin.

The Rangers took an 8 to 6 half time lead on a touchdown by Steve Russ after a Godwin punt was blocked by Jim VanderBaan, and a safety presented the Rangers when the Godwin center snapped the ball out of the end zone on a punt.

The Wolverines scored their first touchdown after Steve Russ fumbled on his own 30 yard line in the second quarter. Chico Hernandez ran the ball in from the 8 yard line. The Wolverines scored the winning touchdown on a 70 yard march capped by Olson's 2 yard run.

The Rangers had a last opportunity to score the winning TD when Godwin fumbled and the Rangers recovered on the Godwin 30 with 3:13 left on the clock. The Rangers ran out of time with the ball on the Godwin 9.

The Forest Hills Rangers winless in 5 consecutive games, have their best chance of scoring a victory Friday night against a visiting Lee Rebel team that has won only one of five games.

The game will mark the Homecoming activities for Forest Hills High School. Coach Bob Dangi was well pleased with his team's performance against league-leading Godwin. A repeat performance could give the Rangers a victory over Lee.

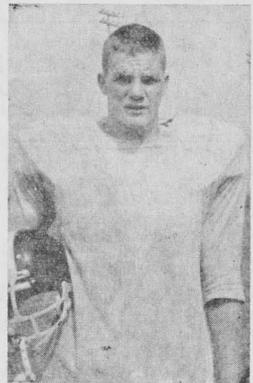

Coach Dangi anticipates no major changes in his line-up for the Lee game. The Lee Rebels lost their last outing to Byron Center 9-7.

Game time Friday night is 7:30.

travel

The Forest Hills Freshman team will travel to Lee field for a game at 5 Thursday afternoon. Coach Ben Emdin has been working hard recently to improve the blocking and tackling on his squad.

Coach Paul Northius' Reserve football team, improved in defeat against Godwin, will meet the Lee Reserves Thursday night at 7 at the Lee Athletic field.

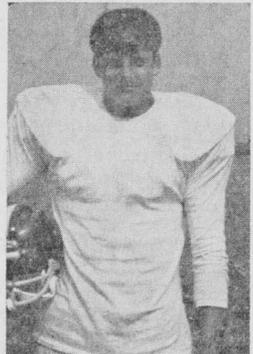

Lineman of the Week

Dan Mosher, tackle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Mosher of 7116 Four Mile Road, Ada, has been chosen Lineman of the week for the 3rd time.

He is a member of the junior class and should be a real threat to next year's opponents. He made 11 unassisted tackles and 6 assisted tackles.

The three day sale is being sponsored by the R. L. D. S. Church of Alaska.

Back of the Week

Back of the week is Jim VanderBaan, a senior. He plays Up-back and Line Backer. He had five unassisted tackles and 6 assisted tackles. He intercepted a pass and blocked a punt. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur VanderBaan, 2788 Knapp, NE, Ada.

Coach Robert Dangi commented that it was a real touch decision, picking 2 outstanding players this week as each and every player was in there working his hardest every minute of the game. He felt his players performed outstandingly in this week's game against an excellent Godwin team.

Coffee Nook opens soon

Although the curtains have been drawn across the windows of the Thornapple Coffee Nook in Ada, they will soon part to reveal the new decorating and furnishings of this latest venture into progress for the village.

Dorothy Roeters, formerly of Annie's in Cascade, and A. Lewen, previously of Brookside Manor on Whitteville Road have joined forces to establish a fast, snack, and luncheon accommodations on Ada Drive across from the Post Office.

The new restaurant will feature soups, salads, and sandwiches as well as Dorothy's famous baked goods. If there is a demand, they will be sold to take out, but many persons will be able to enjoy them while sipping coffee in the Upper Room. This is the second room with an entrance on the south side for those who just want to stop in during a coffee break from work or while the clothes are washing at the Laundromat.

The special kitchen will be in the back while the Main Dining Room will be on the street side. This excellent partnership boasts many combined years of food experience. Lewen originally operated a retirement home in Rochester, New York, where he met and conquered many special diet requirements. He later came to this area where he became the Director of Food Service at Calvin College. Again there were a great many problems to be solved, but he faced them well. After his retirement, he and his wife opened the Brookside Manor as a private dining room with meals by appointment.

Dorothy Roeters is well known to the residents of Cascade where she operated Annie's, but her new friends in Ada may not know that she also was head of food service at Central Reformed Church as well. Dorothy's baked goods speak for themselves.

The Thornapple Coffee Nook will open in about two weeks; make it a habit.

The three major TV networks may have overlooked the distaff side of things by scheduling 225 football-game telecasts nationally or regionally this season.
