A Bit of This 'n That

BY SHIRLEY DYGERT

Mark Twain was fearless and funny, bitter, brooding, exuberant. He also had a great deal of imagination. His mother had him taped, as we say in the electronic age. A neighbor said to her when he was young:

"Do you ever believe anything that boy says?"

His mother said:
"He is the wellspring of truth, but you can't bring up the whole well with one bucket. I know his average, therefore he never deceives me. I discount him 90 percent for embroidery, and what is left is perfect and priceless truth, without a flaw in it anywhere."

REGARDING REDUCING:

If, at the age of 35, you begin dropping 16 calories a day from your regular diet and continue the next year to drop an additional 16 calories a day and so on each year, you will never end up with that well known "middle-age tire." But for every year that you haven't been dropping these pound makers, you will have that much more work to do in exercise and deprivation to get back to where you were and to stay there.

"There's nothing wrong with our foreign policy, it's just that the rest of the world isn't made to fit it."

Further evidence of the great American hair fixation: New billboard on National Road in West Va. urges, "Beautify America—Get a haircut."

DRIVER DISCIPLINE: A man, whose 16 year-old son is now of driver's license age and has earned the money to buy a car, has given his permission for the purchase on the condition that the car will bear this sign on the rear:—"If you don't like the way I drive, call my Dad at 243-....."

From a friend in Sarasota:

THE FAIR SEX
(with a bow to Joyce Kilmer)
I think that I shall never see
A thing as ugly as a knee.
Above whose gnarled and knotted crest
The mini hemline comes to rest,
Or one that's even worse than that
When padded with repulsive fat.
A knee that may in Summer wear
Nothing at all, but be quite bare.
Behind whose flex there oft remains
A nest of blue and broken veins.
Some knees continue to perplex
How can they form the letter "X?"
While in another set one sees
A pair of blue parentheses.
Small nuts write verses such as these,
But greater nuts display their knees.

TALENTED YOUNGSTERS who will be performing in the Children's Ballet include Connie Featherly, Margaret Herrity, Mollie Mossman and Michele Hardebeck.

Talented Youngsters in Ballet Debut

A new ballet company, composed of 44 talented young dancers, will present its first program May 17 and 18 at the St. Cecilia Auditorium.

The ballet represents the combined efforts of many people active in the performing arts, and has been several years in the planning.

Edward Riffel and Rich Rahn, directors of the Academy of Dance Arts, are the company's choreographer and director. Daniel Kovats, professor of music at Grand Valley State College, and director of the Grand Rapids Youth Symphony will act as musical director.

The dancers were carefully selected through a series of auditions held in February, and range in age from 7 through 18.

The program will consist of "La Boutique Fantasque" by Rossini; "Pas de Deux" by Korsakov and Khachaturian; and "La Toile", a contemporary dance work with music by Bartok.

Sets for the entire production were designed by the Grand Rapids Art Museum.

Paul Dreher, Civic Theater director, and John Frey are the lighting designers.

The Thornapple Valley Children's Ballet is proud to accept its role in the performing arts of the community and aspires to contribute to the cultural needs of other communities as well.

Tickets are on sale at all three Wurzburg stores and at the Academy (949-6530).

One-Man Campaign for Housing

A one-man campaign to raise money for Freedom Homes, a project of the Negro community in Grand Rapids to provide decent housing and jobs in the ghetto area, has been launched by Robert Wagner of Larway Lake Drive.

The Freedom Homes Project will start with four homes, which will be priced in the $13,500 range. Buyers will have the opportunity to do some of the work on their own homes, thus building up "sweat equity" which would be deducted from the price of the home.

Wagner's goal for the Grand Rapids area is $5,000, which would be presented to Freedom Homes as a "no strings attached" gift to help launch this ambitious project. More than $1,600 has already been contributed.

For more information call 676-1695. Gifts of any size will be appreciated. Checks should be made payable to Freedom Homes, Inc., and mailed to Robert Wagner, 1601 Larway Lake Drive, Grand Rapids, 49506.

1st-Quarter Growth Indicates Booming Year in Cascade

If the first quarter is any indication, Cascade Township is faced with record-breaking growth during 1968.

This was the conclusion to be reached today with announcement by Supervisor Gerritt Baker that the total valuation for building permits through April already equal 65 percent of total construction in the township all of last year.

Baker disclosed at Monday's semi-monthly that permits issued through April of $1,377,950... or approximately 65 percent of the '67 total of $2,102,000.

Because Cascade Township is expected to show a population of over 5,000 in the 1967 census, the township board adopted the National Electrical Code of 1965 which will be on file in the township offices and which will take effect 31 days after its publication.

At the meeting Monday night, Clerk Al Heemstra was given authorization to proceed with a road program previously budgeted for just over $30,000.

This includes grading, gravel and blacktopping of approximately one-third mile on Goodwood Drive for $9,173, one-half a mile on Thornapple River Drive for $11,021, a third mile on Wendell for $10,055, and curbing and landscaping on Orange Street for $1,514. The section of Thornapple River Drive is a continuation project previously completed from the township line to 52nd Street.

Supervisor Baker reported for the month of April a total valuation of building permits of $224,250. This included permits for seven dwellings, two remodelings, two office buildings, and one garage. The office buildings are for Foremost Insurance Company and Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens.

In other action the board adopted a resolution to concur with the motion of the Planning Commission to rezone the Broughan property from Agricultural to Industrial land. This includes 107.53 acres on Patterson Avenue south of 52nd Street.

MICHIGAN JAYCEES HOLD CONVENTION

This coming weekend, May 10 and 11, the Grand Rapids Jaycees will host the state convention for the Michigan Jaycees.

More than 3,000 Jaycees, and their wives, are expected at the convention, which will be held at the Pantlind Hotel and the Civic Auditorium.

Buth, 50, was first elected to the House in a special election in 1959, and has been re-elected in all subsequent elections.

He presently serves as the Speaker Pro-Tem of the House and is a member of the Committees on Taxation and Roads and Bridges.

Buth was a member of the Plainfield Township Board before being elected to the Legislature.

NIXON SCHEDULED FOR LANSING TALK
Former Vice President, Richard M. Nixon, candidate for the Republican nomination for the Presidency, will speak in Lansing on Friday, June 4, it was announced today.

Nixon will be the featured speaker at the annual Republican Legislative dinner to be held at the Lansing Civic Center, to help raise funds for the Republican candidates in Michigan.

Launch New Home Project in Ada

One of the most extensive home-building projects in the history of southeastern Kent County was officially underway today following ribbon-cutting ceremonies Saturday at Adacroft Commons.

Ada Township Supervisor Fred Clancy cut the ribbon that signalled the "start" of the huge development.

Approximately 365 acres will eventually be filled with homes that will range in price between $23,300 and $31,950 and situated on lots averaging close to 80'x140'.

Everett Ladd is projecting installation of between 700 and 800 homes on the property, located between Ada Drive and M-21 about two miles west of the Village of Ada.

Ladd and his wife, Betty, now residents of East Grand Rapids, plan to move to the area once a new home on Conservation is completed.

Mrs. Ladd has been active in decorating the six models that are to be on permanent display for buyers and interested members of the community. The beautifully hand

Ownership of Plat Lot Discussed

More than half of the homeowners who live within the limits of the Goodwood Plat Association were present for the recent association meeting. Members live on Goodwood and Berger Drives.

The discussion, centered around the future of a group-owned lot on the Thornapple River. This lot was originally deeded to the association, but has remained undeveloped.

Opinions differed at the meeting concerning the use to be made of the property. Finally, the members voted that an up-to-date abstract be obtained to learn the legal language of ownership.

Larry McPhearson, who presided at the meeting, announced that another discussion period will be called for as soon as the abstract is ready.

Residents who have been considering having their private drives paved this summer when Goodwood Dr. itself is paved, agreed to obtain combined bids for the work.

Draft Pool Bill Eyed

Senator Philip A. Hart today introduced a new military draft bill that would make young men draft-vulnerable for just one year and allow them some choice as to when the year would begin.

He said the bill would relieve the current pressure on graduate schools and put a greater degree of certainty into each potential draftee's life.

Under Hart's plan, most draftees would be 19-year-olds, thus reversing current draft policy that takes eligible 25-year-olds first and works backwards.

The bill would place all young men in a "prime pool" when they turn 19. All current deferments—for college, essential occupations, etc.—would be available but when the deferment expired, the man would have to begin his year in the prime pool.

File $1.6 Million Suit

George G. Taggart, and his wife, Nelle Mae, of 2929 Alden Nash, Lowell, through their attorneys, have filed a $1.6 million negligence suit in Kent Circuit Court.

The case will be heard in Judge Roman J. Snow's court. Taggart, an electrician, was injured last Feb. 28 while working at the Grand Valley State College fieldhouse construction when the roof collapsed.

Defendants named in the suit are DeYoung & Bagin Construction Co., the general contractor; Meathe, Kessler & Associates, Inc., architects; McClurg, McClurg, Mickle and Cooper, Inc., structural engineering consultants; and Timber Laminators, Inc., makers of certain wood construction components used in field house construction.

Taggart, who was employed at that time by Delta Electric Co., the electrical subcontractor on the fieldhouse projects, contends that the defendants were negligent in the planning, design, engineering, fabrication and construction of the field house.

As a result of this negligence, the complaint alleges, Taggart sustained damage to his spinal cord when the central portion of the roof collapsed.

THIS WAS THE SCENE OF DOUBLE-FATALITY ACCIDENT IN LOWELL FRIDAY

Two Die, 1 Hurt in Crash

The first fatalities of 1968 on Lowell streets were on record today, the aftermath of a train-car collision last Friday afternoon.

Dead are:
Guy C. Wilburn, 85, and Joseph J. Reamer, 81, both of Saranac.

In critical condition in the intensive care unit at Butterworth Hospital today is 65-year-old Mrs. DeVona Mathews, Saranac, an occupant in the car.

Wilburn was pronounced dead at the scene by Kent County medical examiner Dr. G. F. Barofsky. Reamer died some five hours later at Butterworth Hospital.

Lowell police, assisted by local volunteers, administered first aid to Reamer and Mrs. Mathews during an estimated 45-minute wait for ambulance service.

The double fatality resulted when the car, driven by Wilburn, ran into the path of an oncoming C & O-B & O freight train at the Main Street crossing.

The 72-car freight, en route from Saginaw to Grand Rapids, was proceeding at approximately 20 miles an hour, according to engineer Gerald McClees and other witnesses.

The impact crushed the front right side of the car and flipped it out of the train's path. The engine was stopped in about 150 yards, according to police.

Witnesses told police that flashers at the intersection, which had never before been the scene of a serious accident, were functioning and that the train was sounding a warning whistle.

Roy A. Eyer of Wyoming, a truck driver, told police that it appeared that the death car was attempting to pass other stopped motorists. Eyers was driving a westbound truck on M-21 (Main Street) at the time.

The last fatal accident on Lowell streets occurred last July 20. It was the lone death recorded in 1967.

Cyclist is Fined

A Lowell motorcyclist has been fined $100 and costs and, additionally, has had his operator's permit suspended for riding the vehicle while under the influence of liquor.

Roger Lee Conner, 28, of 726 N. Lafayette, was stopped by Lowell Police last Friday when they observed him driving the motorcycle on M-21.

Conner was taken before Justice Marie DeVries in Kentwood where he pleaded guilty to the charge.

C-C Eyes Industry Site Plan

Creation of an industrial development committee was under consideration today by the Lowell Chamber of Commerce.

The proposal to get such development in the area under a full head of steam followed an interesting talk by George Matthes, industrial representative for the C & O-B & O Railroad before the C-C Board of Directors last Thursday.

Matthes outlined a number of ways that local communities could avail themselves of services offered by the railroad to help establish the format needed to bring about good industrial development.

"We can help . . . and we stand ready to help at an instant's notice," explained Matthes, "but it still requires time and effort on the part of a group such as the Chamber of Commerce to get this type of project started."

Matthes stressed that proper preparation is vital in "selling" a community to an industrial prospect.

"Be certain," he warned, "that you not only have a site, but that you also have all the answers needed to persuade a businessman that this is where he should build."

President Larry Wittenbach said that the C-C's next step would be to set up a committee to survey the area for possible industrial sites, investigate financing of such a project and ways to publicize and promote it.

Committee reports were hard on the antique car festival held over the past weekend, the new color brochure recently put into circulation by the C-C, plans for the 1968 Trailer Rally at Showboat time and Michigan Week.

With this assurance, the day crew called off its pickets and the second shift resumed normal production.

At 7 p. m., all the corps will participate in a parade through downtown Lowell, and wind up at the athletic field where they will perform for the public.

In all, 11 groups will participate in the program. Local representatives will be the Lowell Scarlet Troubadours, managed by Bob Green, and the Green Hornets

City Council Approves Long Range Measures

In a three-hour action-packed session at city hall Monday night, the Lowell city council approved city legislation which will affect the municipality's operations for many years ahead.

The meeting was devoted to matters on the proposed 1968-69 city budget, adoption of a zoning ordinance, also approval of a long-awaited subdivision ordinance and consideration of residential electrical heating rates.

Adoption of new measures designed to clarify building requirements for the City of Lowell today had been approved by the City Council.

In Monday night's council meeting, an amendment to the zoning ordinance was passed which set the minimum frontages on lots in full-service areas at 75 feet.

The council also approved the long-awaited subdivision ordinance, which will help spell out a firm set of rules for future development in the city.

The two pieces of legislation were subject to public hearings, but no objections were raised by a few people on hand.

Council also took action to tentatively approve purchase of a 39-acre tract of land located on Lincoln Lake Road in Vergennes Township for a price of $21,000.

The property which adjoins the city airport, is being eyed for possible future use as a cemetery site, a recreation area and for expansion of the airport facility.

Councilwoman Mrs. Virginia Myers cast the lone dissenting ballot in a 4-1 vote for approval of the measure.

Purchase of the property will be contingent upon acceptance by the Vergennes Township officials of proper zoning for the tract, it was noted.

Amendment of the zoning ordinance and passage of the subdivision ordinance is expected to stimulate new home construction in the city.

Prior to amendment, the zoning ordinance had called for minimum lot sizes of 12,000 square feet in A-1 residential districts and minimum frontages of 80 feet.

The new requirements are set at 9,750 square feet with 75-foot frontages as minimums.

Under the new ordinance, specific guidelines based on percentages, have been established for full-service districts.

Councilman Herb Reynolds brought the land purchase proposal to the council table and received support from Mayor Arnold Wittenbach and council members Carlen Anderson and Harold F. Jefferies.

On hand for the meeting were Judson Wilterink and Leonard Jackson, who joined with Councilman Reynolds in forming a committee to establish site locations and need for the additional property.

The council also gave tentative approval to Valley Vista No. 5, a subdivision proposed by the Lowell Development Corporation.

The council also agreed to tentatively approve purchase of a 39-acre tract of land in Vergennes Township for possible future expansion of cemetery, recreational and airport facilities. The vote was by a 4-1 margin with Councilwoman Mrs. Virginia Myers opposed.

The session also included public hearings on the budget, and the two ordinances. However, no objections raised by any of the citizens present.

The Lowell City Council, together with City Manager Bernard Olson faced with a May 20th deadline for final presentation of the city's 1968-69 budget and are working overtime in putting finishing touches to the fiscal document.

As late as last Saturday, the city manager unveiled the first set of next year's budgetary needs.

It would require three council sessions before a final vote can be taken, Olson advised the city solons.

At Monday's meeting, the city manager told the council that he had not completed his estimates of all appropriations required to operate the city for the next fiscal year.

This meant that the council could not take final action at the Monday session, he said.

At this point the council voted to hold a recessed meeting next Monday beginning at 7:30 p. m. at city hall.

The city manager's proposed budget calls for a total expenditure of $232,104 for the next fiscal year, which is some $30,000 over last year's cost for operating the city at $203,693.

Olson lists major revenues as coming from property taxes, which amounts to $113,654.

Present indications are that the city's tax rate of $12 per thousand of assessed valuation would hold up.

Other major sources of revenues were estimated as follows: fines, $10,000; locally shared state taxes at $80,300, a jump of $16,350 over last year's income from this source; $6,000 from cemetery revenues; $10,650 from utility payments in lieu of taxes; and $6,000 from Lee Fund transfers.

On the expenditure side of the budget, the city manager estimated it will require $54,300 to run the street department, an increase of nearly $7,000 over last year.

Olson is asking appropriations of $35,838 for the police department, a slight increase of the 1967-68 expenditure; $12,600 for the sanitation division, up $8,150 from last year; and the fire department at $8,590, a $500 increase for this year.

In the miscellaneous (contingency) estimates Olson is asking for $61,671, about $7,000 over the past year's figures.

With possible few minor exceptions, salary increases are estimated at about five per cent across the board.

The new budget calls for an annual salary for the city

Area-Trained Dog Captures High Honors

A locally-trained Black Labrador Retriever, "Rowdies Sean of the Corkies," has captured the coveted Michigan High Point trophy for achieving the highest points in American Kennel field trials.

The retriever is a training product of Dorothy Leasure's Timberline Training Kennels on Pratt Lake Rd., Rt. 3, Lowell.

The four-year-old retriever is owned by S. C. Shea, a Grosse Pointe Woods dog fancier.

In addition, "Rowdies Sean of the Corkies," was the first Michigan-owned retriever to qualify for the National Championship in field trials held recently at McCall, Idaho.

Forest Hills Winner of Sportsmanship Trophy

Forest Hills High School has been selected to receive the O-K Conference Red Division Sportsmanship Trophy for the 1967-68 season.

Each year, this trophy is presented to the school that receives the most votes from officials and representatives, from each school.

The schools are judged on sportsmanship of the players, coaches and student body for all Red Division football and basketball games during the school year.

This is the third year the trophy has been presented. It went to G. R. South Christian in 1965-66, and to Hudsonville in '66-67.

Rangers, Arrows Split Two

Forest Hills High School's baseball team has accrued an enviable record of having won the last four out of five games.

After defeating Caledonia, Godwin, and Kentwood, the Rangers were finally stopped by Lowell.

In a double-header played at Lowell last Saturday, they split with the Red Arrows, losing the first game 2-1, and posting a 7-2 win in the second game.

Although the Forest Hills team hit well during both games, it took some effort to overcome the strong Lowell defense.

In a non-league game against Caledonia, Rob McCormick singled to left with the bases loaded, driving Dave Sherwood home. Stan Grochowalskiss singled to left scoring Justice and McCormick. Later Grochowalskiss went to second on a passed ball and scored on a single by Dygert. Dygert then scored on an error. Wingeir set a school record during the game with three doubles.

Carl Justice pitched a four-hitter against Godwin giving him a 2-2 record. Tom Teft hit three for four (2 doubles) and brought in two runs; as did Ryan Ashley with a bases loaded single in the 7th.

Ashley, with his first win, pitched a five-hitter against Kentwood. Ozmolinski hit a 300 ft. double driving in Tom Teft. Other runs were scored on an error, and singles by Ashley, Sherwood and McCormick.

Teft was the winning pitcher against Lowell with a no hitter going for him until the 6th inning. Dave Sherwood and Stan Grochowalskiss had two hits apiece; one of Sherwood's being a bases loaded triple.

STAY UP, is the signal given to Dick Forester as he crosses plate with run against Forest Hills, Hills bounced back with a 7-2 victory in a double-while Lowell teammate Cla Avery handles the header split last week.

Lowell Romps to Easy Win

Lowell High's track squad added a victory over Cedar Springs to their record last week.

At the end of the field events, the Red Arrows were ahead by a score of 22-14, and steadily increased their lead to a final total of 71-47.

The Red Arrows were paced by Dan Heintzleman and Dennis Kissinger with (6) points each.

Bill Williams of Cedar Springs was the meet's top scorer with a total of 16 1/2 points and Nick Hallock, also points.

Lowell swept the pole vault two-mile, and one-mile events; and had an overall record of six first, 10 seconds, and 11 thirds.

The Red Arrows currently are tied in second place with Belding, each with a record of 2 wins and 1 loss.

Bushnell PTA Holds First Meeting

The first meeting of the Bushnell PTA took place last Tuesday evening (April 30) at the school.

Many attended the conference, and a planning committee was appointed.

Those selected were Mr. & Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Charles Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. R. Yeiter, Mrs. Courser and Mrs. Lucy Jacquain.

Others appointed were Mr. and Mrs. R. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Andrews, Mrs. Donna Wilkinson, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Almas.

Mrs. Almas, acting chairman, stated that the group hopes to better parent-teacher relationships and plans to raise money for making school improvements.

Their next meeting will be held May 13 at the Bushnell library. Election of officers is planned for that meeting.

Bushnell School Presents Circus

"The circus is coming to town!" or more precisely, it came to Bushnell Elementary School last Tuesday.

School principal Arthur Kern announced that the first grade students sang French songs and the second graders presented songs about the circus and joined forces to present a one ring circus.

Ringmaster Lindsay Fonger presided over a bevy of clowns, elephants, and prancing horses, as portrayed by the students, for an hour filled with gaiety and music.

Teachers, Parents Eye Plan May Hectic Month for Forest Hills

"You realize not all of these things would happen in one day, and not all of them have happened at Bushnell School, but all of them have happened sometime, somewhere, and some of them happen nearly every day!"

This was the explanation given to about 75 parents who attended an informal evening at the Bushnell School last week and chuckled over the antics of a dozen members of the staff as they frolicked through a simulated day in the life of a teacher, entitled "Round the Square Hallways."

The skit, written by the teachers, was an attempt to give the parents an insight into the funny incidents that are a part of the regular school day.

The happenings ranged from lost lunch money, through the all revealing "Show and Tell," to an upset mother in the wrong room as the teachers spoiled children, parents and even themselves.

Those parents who were present expressed a keen interest in forming a Bushnell Parents' Organization. A steering committee was appointed to set up a meeting early in the fall for organization.

The group also expressed a desire to have educators brought in for speakers, to become better acquainted with the school, to do something about protection of children crossing heavily-traveled streets, and to volunteer in areas where they could be of service to the school.

The steering committee will tally the results of a questionnaire answered by the parents, indicating their wishes about time and frequency of desired meetings for next year as their willingness to accept responsibility for such meetings.

Art Students to Show Year's Work

The art students of Lowell High School cordially invite everyone to come to their annual art show to be held in the art room and neighboring corridors on Wednesday evening, May 15, from 7-9 o'clock.

The exhibit will feature a wide variety of drawings, paintings, ceramics, sculpture of various kinds, and even some eye-twisting "Op" art.

One of the most stimulating projects of the year was the making of batiks. These are developed by a resist process using wax to retain desired colors, and building up the design by subsequent dye baths, working from the lightest to the darkest values. Although the students had only the three primary colors to work with, the resulting colors are rich and varied.

The craft classes have produced some handsome copper tooling, cast statuary, reed weaving, and are now getting their leather tooling ready to display. This includes everything from gun holsters and table coasters to bill folders.

One of the most unique displays will be "St. Francis and His Brothers," a ceramic St. Francis made by a first year student, and surrounded by tiny ceramic birds and beasts made by students from both art and craft classes.

Post-Prom Party Still Mystery

There's mystery afoot in the Forest Hills area.

The Forest Hills Parent-Teachers Co-ordinating Committee is taking every precaution to keep the details of this year's post-prom party to themselves.

Other than the time (1-3 a. m.) and the date (May 17), not one word has escaped from the committee.

All juniors and seniors are cordially invited to attend the mystery party, even those who do not plan to attend the prom.

In the past the fete has always proved to be successful, and is endorsed by the school administration and sheriff's department.

Students must be ready to depart from Collins Elementary School at 12:50 a. m., when the Kent County Sheriff's Department will provide an escort and lead the caravan to their hitherto undisclosed destination.

Tickets for the affair may be purchased at the school starting Monday (May 13), and will be on sale during all lunch periods. Brad VanSluyters and Leslie Schooley are in charge of all ticket sales. The deadline is Thursday at noon.

A catered buffet supper is to be served and door prizes will be awarded.

Mrs. K. E. Van Sluyters will act as general chairman. Ticket chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Schooley; door prizes are being taken care of by Mr. and Mrs. James Shuster; and decorations by Mr. and Mrs. Winston Setchfield.

The chaperone for the party will be Dr. R. E. Van Sluyters.

Baccalaureate is scheduled for June 2, commencement for June 5.

The all-sports banquet also was held Tuesday.

On Wednesday, petitions for class officers and council representations were due. Today (Thursday) is Freshman orientation day.

Other events coming up include:

Friday, May 10, Campaign Assembly for class officers.

Monday, May 13, Voting for Student Council Officers.

Friday, May 17, Junior Senior Prom at the Morton House, 9 to 12 p. m. Mystery party following until 3 a. m.

Baccalaureate is scheduled for June 2, commencement for June 5.

Local Boys Place 4th in Trouble Shoot

Lowell High School students Bill Myers and Neil Hobbs, involved in the West Michigan-area Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest, placed fourth out of the 28 teams involved in the competition.

They completed their repair job (their engine had been sabotaged by Plymouth engineers in 12 spots) in 68 minutes, just 4 minutes behind the second place team. The winning team corrected the "bugs" in their engine in 36.2 minutes.

Myers and Hobbs lost precious time repairing a wire which evidently had broken while they were trying to repair something else.

Myers, a senior, plans to go on to Ferris College where he will take up auto mechanics.

He is the owner of a 1957 Chevy on which he has done extensive work.

A coffee hour will follow the service.

Bishop Loder has just returned from the history-making General Conference at Dallas, Texas, at which the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church were merged into a new denomination known as the United Methodist Church.

The community is invited to share in worship and hear Bishop Loder at either service this Sunday.

An organizational meeting will be held Monday, May 13, at 7:30 p. m. in the Ada School Cafeteria. The complete program of Campfire Girl activities from second grade through high school will be discussed.

Mrs. Florence Neuman, district director of the Campfire Girls will present a film on the organization's activities. Mrs. Carolyn Gage, neighborhood coordinator, will be present to explain activities in the area and answer any questions.

This meeting is to make plans for the individual groups for Thornapple, Ada, Honeycreek and Egypt Valley Schools and any girls from the entire area who will be attending junior high in the fall. The latter group will have a Junior Horizon club.

The girls will have displays, give demonstrations, songs & games. After the meeting, refreshments will be served by the present members.

Family Security

On Sunday we will be celebrating Mother's Day. As we think of mothers we think of their families. In this time in which the security of our homes is being undermined, we should be interested in checking up on the stability of family life.

A well-known insurance company heads an advertisement with these words: "And you say you haven't had our Family Security Check-Up yet?" This "Security Check-Up" is for the man who is careful about his family's financial future but doesn't like to have to worry about it.

It is well to check up on the financial security of our families. It is still better to check up on the spiritual and moral security of our families. The future of our homes, and those of our children, and of our grandchildren, is so deeply involved in the provision which is being made from day to day for the spiritual tone and the moral quality of our homes.

How much do you love your family? How concerned are you for their future? Are you checking up constantly on the security of your family? Use the Bible and your church for this check-up!

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Douglas Dok, of Dok Realty Company, was present to request final approval of Valley Vista Plat No. 4. The Manager recommended such approval with the stipulation that the description used for the Hearing be corrected and with the added stipulation that no occupancy permits be given until inspection has been made by the Building Inspector and approval given. (See MOTIONS)

Dok also urged that action be resumed on the study of financing a lift station, as was previously discussed. Manager Olson stated he will have a recommendation at the time he first presents his budget for fiscal 68-69. Date for such special meeting was set for April 29.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Appointments of City Supervisor and members to the Library Board, and appointment of Council member to act as liaison between the Council and the Lowell Library Board. (See MOTIONS)

2. Council members were in accord with participation in Mayors' Exchange Day and the Clerk was requested to so inform the city of our pairing—Tawas City.

3. Manager Olson stated that May 31, 1968 is the deadline for operating our sanitary landfill as is presently done. Various methods of operating were suggested by the Manager, including a. Operation by an outside source who would buy our sanitation truck, lease our land, charge the citizens for the service.

b. Continue to have our garbage pickup and lease the land to a party who would charge so much a yard for use of the dump.

c. Buy a bulldozer, house it at the site, hire an attendant.

d. Hire a private contractor on an hourly basis who would take the equipment to and from the dump.

Mayor Wittenbach expressed the opinion that the City could do the work more cheaply than hiring it done. Positive figures of rates as suggested in paragraph a (above) will be presented by interested party from Ionia.

Larry Wittenbach, representing both the Showboat Corporation and the Chamber of Commerce, requested permanent closing of Lafayette Street from the alley north of Main Street, to King Street, to allow for construction of permanent seating for Showboat customers. (See MOTIONS)

Wittenbach also requested development as a park of the area between the sewage treatment plant and the new bridge. He cited the need of more parking space for trailer rallies. Manager Olson questioned the propriety of using tax money for Lee Fund money for such development which would benefit a few people and for a short space of time. Mayor Wittenbach nevertheless appointed Councilmen Jefferies and Reynolds and the Manager to work with the Chamber of Commerce and study such needs as requested by the Chamber of Commerce.

A suggestion that hanging signs be installed on Lincoln Lake Avenue at Main Street for proper turning, was referred to the Manager

Forest Hills Hi-Lites

BY SHIRLEY DYBERT

A-traveling we will go! While some of us are looking forward to a brief vacation... some time... two families managed to squeeze in short trips to visit their daughters.

Ray and Nina Moore and sons, Tim and Kevin, have just returned from Oneida, N.Y., where they visited their daughter, Mary Grabic. The Harold Geitzen family took off for St. Petersburg, Florida and drove straight through to see daughter, Jeanie, who is now Mrs. David Mairn.

Local artists who have representative works hanging at the Cascade Township Hall this month include Carol and Phillip Crossman, Harold Driscoll, Don Duiven, June Engen, Mary Gerritsen, Erwin Guttzell, Jeanne Larid, Phillip North, Glen Raymond, Jeanne Rockett, and Harry Sheng. It is worth the stop to view these works, there are many styles and mediums.

The exhibit is a continuing one with the paintings being exchanged once a month by the artists and with new pieces being presented by others of the area. If you feel that you have the talent to show in this gallery, call Mrs. Laird at 949-0489.

More works are desired from pop and abstract to representational paintings. All of the work must be original and should be from this locality.

The two Brownie troops of Collins School were invited to a special meeting of the Girl Scouts of the Collins area last week. This was to serve as an introduction to the fun and responsibilities of being a member of the older organization.

The girls of Brownie Troop 166 purchased geranium plants and created cards as Mothers' Day gifts which they presented at a punch party Tuesday under the direction of Mrs. Donald Strazisar and Mrs. Carl Gustavson.

Mrs. Thomas Thwaites was the honored guest at a surprise birthday dinner given for her on her 76th anniversary by her son and daughter-in-law, Jack and Phyl Thwaites. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Dykstra, Miss Judy Kaupa, Andrew Menishino, and Jimmy and Jamie Thwaites.

Friends of Mrs. Harold Buttrick, who was an operative patient at St. Mary's Hospital, will be glad to know that she is now recuperating at home.

While Bob Ussery was urging Dancer's Image on to victory, guests at a Kentucky Derby party on Thorncrest Drive given by Sam and Nancy Rea were cheering for the horses they had picked as winners.

The names had been drawn from a hat so that no one to figure odds, but it was just as exciting as if great study had been put into the effort. gathered around the three TV sets that the hosts had provided and each sipped a real mint julep as he awaited the results.

This is an annual party given by the Reas, a tradition begun in Pleasant Ridge before they moved here two years ago.

Guests included the Walter Kutchs, Ed Meyers, Don Frites, Bud Bowles, Walter Perschbacher, Jr. and the Sam Bakers.

CARD OF THANKS

Sincere thanks to neighbors, relatives and friends who have been so kind during this time. Special thanks to Rev. Robert Webber, Dr. Orval McKay and the Lowell Police and the Kent County Sheriff's Department.
