OK New Planner for City

The City of Lowell will have a new planner if the recommendation of the planning commission is accepted by city council.

The city's planners Monday night forwarded a recommendation to the council that the city retain the services of John Paul Jones and Associates for future planning needs.

Jones would replace Scott Bagby and Associates, which will complete work started on updating the city's zoning ordinances and zoning maps.

The planner also took into consideration a request by Root-Lowell Mfg. Co. that a north-south street be situated on a right-of-way farther west than the master plan now calls for.

Developer Doug Dok of Lowell Development Corporation was in attendance and pointed out to the planners that such a move would seriously jeopardize plans for residential development in the area.

In an interview Tuesday, Dok pointed out that 73 residential lots would be affected. According to Dok, this would leave the development corporation with about 125 lots for future residential needs... enough for about three years at the present rate of growth.

As originally outlined in the master plan, the proposed roadway would bisect the property now under development by Root-Lowell for its new plant on Foreman Road.

Prior to the planning commission session a public hearing was scheduled by the Zoning Board of Appeals to determine the fate of a request to permit construction of a gas station at Valley Vista Drive and M-21.

Only two of the six board members appeared at the hearing along with petitioner Henry Peschka of H. & H. Development Company. There were no objectors present.

Upon the advice of city attorney Richard VanderVeen, the meeting has been adjourned until next Monday at 7 p. m. at city hall at which time a quorum is expected to be present.

Attending Monday's hearing were chairman Ralph Townsend and Dr. Clark Vredenberg. Board members Mrs. Virginia Myers and Dr. Robert Reagan had requested to be excused. Absent were Richard Schlernitzauer and Dr. H. R. Mueller.

Not Guilty, Says Driver to Justice

Ralph C. Hansma, 36, of 914 E. Main, Lowell, was arrested Friday for driving while under the influence of liquor and pleaded not guilty before Justice Howard Rittenger the next morning. Trial date will be set in the future.

Arthur W. LaVine, 20, of 212 Irish, Lyons, was ticketed early Sunday morning on a careless driving charge. At the time of the ticketing, LaVine reportedly became disorderly, using immoral and obscene language, and was arrested.

He allegedly resisted arrest when taken to the police station and again while enroute to Kent County jail, where a second charge of disorderly was placed on him.

LaVine appeared before Justice Rittenger Monday and pleaded guilty to one charge of careless driving and two charges of disorderly. He was sentenced to either 75 days in the county jail or a fine of $150 including court costs. He paid the fine.

The Village Smithy

BY FRAN SMITH

Have you ever awakened on a Monday morning, looked in the mirror and said to yourself: "Man, it's great just to be alive!" Then, before the day is barely in its infancy, you receive some rather staggering news?

This was how the week started out for the Smithy. Now you no doubt have noticed that I am somewhat fond of the game of golf... to the point that Good Friend Wife classifies herself as a "golf widow." A fate, I might add, that she shares with others whose menfolk have the bug.

At any rate, the newspaper sponsored a golf tournament over the weekend at Arrowhead Golf Course and, naturally, I entered the dad-blamed affair.

It was a handicap event and drew a nice turnout of some pretty fair-to-middling golfers. You probably have already guessed what happened, I had a red-hot putter... sank three birdies... and shot an acutal 78, which was my best 18-hole round of the year!

After Gene and Vince Kaye got done calculating the handicaps, whose name occupied the No. 1 spot? That's right... the Smithy's.

Naturally, I decline to accept the trophy. There were other golfers just as deserving... and far more qualified than I who should be able to place it on their mantle.

But just so that it would not have been a wasted effort, I might possibly be inclined to accept a couple of golf balls. And, gentlemen, make certain they are Titleists.

It was nice to perform fairly well at one of the two games that I truly enjoy... the other being euchre. On that note, I must admit that I ran into some tough competition in a recent journey to Parnell, where George Malone and Jim Heether proceeded to completely (well, almost) overwhelm partner Chuck Burns and the Smithy.

Oh, well... you can't win 'em all!

To things much more serious. It's amazing how many people have come along since the Lowell Area School millage went down to defeat on August 26 to report that they either 1) failed to register; 2) failed to vote; or 3) voted "no"... much to their chagrin.

One guy who shall remain anonymous made this caustic comment: "If I had known the school was in that tough a shape, I certainly would have voted."

To which I say that th's bears out a long-standing contention that people will read only that which most directly affects them and shun that which does not.

Because this newspaper... plus other media... made it a definite point to educate the voters on the issues at hand. It would seem that we failed somewhere along the line to get through a few thick skulls!

Let us hope... no, pray would be a better word... that these thick heads get the message about the upcoming general election lest the entire country go to hell in a basket.

If you haven't registered, remember that the final date for doing so is FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4. If you are registered, remember that the election is TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5.

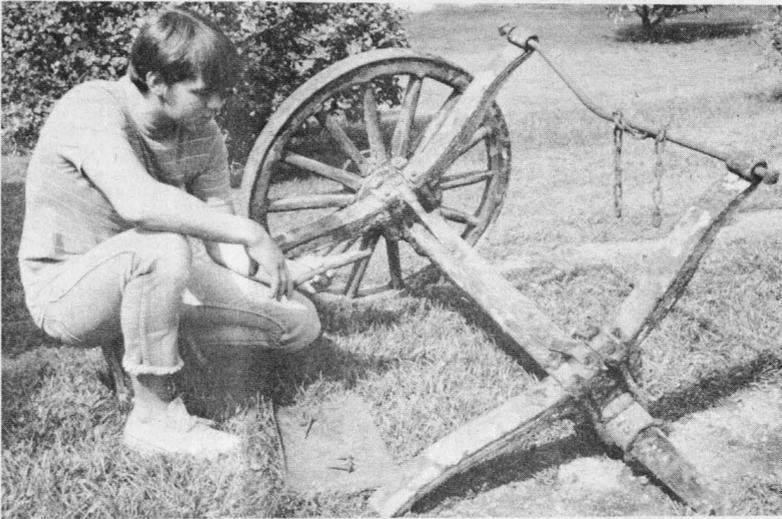

No matter what other seemingly more important items are on your agenda, be sure that you perform your duty on those dates.

And don't go around, like thick head mentioned above, saying that you weren't made aware of the facts.

Lowell Board Returns to Voters in New Bid to Wipe Out Deficit

RELIC REMNANTS of a long-ago wagon are examined by Jack Schipper. Believed to have been used back in the logging days near Ada, the wagon was uncovered when backwaters of the Ada Dam were lowered last week to permit inspection of the dam.

Ada Backwater Surrenders Mystery Statue, Wagon

When county officials, representatives of the Thornapple River Association and Consumers Power decided to lower the Ada Dam backwaters last week, none could have expected that it would uncover a veritable treasure cove.

The backwaters were lowered to permit inspection of the dam, which is scheduled to be taken over in October by the county, which in turn will maintain the facility through special assessment funds provided by owners of abutting property.

Hundreds of area residents and other curious onlookers turned out to watch the water recede... and four area youths suddenly found themselves involved in treasure-hunting projects.

The two biggest items discovered were a "mystery statue" by Chris North and Scott Eggebeen and remains of an old wagon by Jack Schipper and Tom Nordon.

Chris and Scott discovered their treasure near the camel hump bridge on their way home from school. They also found a safe, but when they went back the next day it was gone. The boys made sure there was no money in it before they left.

PREVIEW OF NEW Pontiacs and Oldsmobiles was seen this week in Lowell at Wittenbach Sales and Service. Shown with the 1969 cars are (front to back) Steve Wittenbach, Larry Wittenbach, Mike Wittenbach, Al Henning, Joe Jager and Lloyd Udell. The cars formally will be shown to the public starting Thursday.

Cascade Planners in Study

BY SHIRLEY DYBERT

Looking to the future as Cascade Township continues its phenomenal expansion of residential and industrial areas, the township planning commission has appointed an investigative committee to study the feasibility of setting aside land for park development.

Last month, an informal discussion was held among the members of the commission regarding the possibility of eventually obtaining land for parks and playgrounds. This week, chairman Peter Price appointed Donn Palmer, Bob Martin, and Archie Warner to make a preliminary study. They expect to report their findings at the November meeting.

In other action, a number of plans were discussed. Bernice VanderVeen presented for approval plans for the Cascade Commons Plat (the old Taylor property) on Cascade Springs Road.

The commission questioned the effectiveness of septic tanks and drain fields along the river, pointing out that the Kent County Health Department has not given its approval. The planning commission also asked that the owner return with an engineer's seal on the size of the lot that must conform with the township's minimum requirements.

William Hitchcock presented plans for Forest Ridge Estates, a plat next to Whispering Brook, containing 48 wooded lots. Approval was given since each lot is at least 100 feet wide at the building line and has a minimum of 15,000 square feet.

Robert Martin asked to extend the Whispering Brook Plat and his plans were approved by the commission. All lots are over minimum requirements.

Action was tabled regarding the Patterson Industrial Plat until screening, previously required by the commission and promised by the owner, is made.

This plat is on Patterson Avenue between Burton and 28th Street. The landscaping was to have provided a buffer zone between it and Creekside.

In addition, the industrial plat, as presented, did not conform in size of lots or in width of set-backs to present zoning laws.

The commission also passed a resolution to take the property in Zone 6, now a transshipment zone, and convert it to industrial-use zoning, contiguous to special businesses.

Set Opening of Road Bids for October 8

Bids for construction of the new interceptor road in the north end of Lowell will be opened for contract-letting by the Kent County Highway Department on Tuesday, October 8, at 11 a. m.

The roadway is designed to channel traffic from Lincoln Lake to Hudson Street in Lowell and provide a steady north-south traffic flow through the city.

HOLD PAPER DRIVE

A paper drive, proceeds of which will be used to buy band uniforms and sponsor summer camp scholarships, will be conducted Saturday starting at 9 a. m. by the Forest Hills Music Association.

Paper will be picked up or may be delivered at Forest Hills High School. Call 676-9351 for details.

declared that the old Ada elementary building and the Egypt Valley school no longer are needed and authorized Masten to have the two sites surveyed and appraised.

In all likelihood, the sites will be offered for sale in the near future.

Lowell Area School District officials have decided to return to the voters to resolve their financial difficulties.

The Board of Education passed a motion Monday night to call for a special election on Monday, November 25, in which voters will be asked to approve a seven-mill operating tax for a one-year period.

It was approved by a 5-1 vote with board member Harold Metternick opposing the election at this early date.

"I am not opposed to asking for the millage," explained Metternick, "but I do feel we should hold off until March when we should have a better idea of just how we stand."

At the insistence of board member Gould Rivette, the board adopted wordage in the motion that will call for levying only that portion of the proposed millage required to bring about a balanced budget for 1968-69 and 1969-70.

Inasmuch as the tax could not be collected before January, 1970, the board concurred with Rivette.

"It is entirely possible... in fact, probable... that we would not need all of the seven mills," board president Dr. Robert Reagan explained to the 43 residents in attendance.

"What we are trying to do is to make certain the district doesn't get into this kind of situation again," he added.

Several residents questioned the need for seeking more money, suggesting instead that

FH Sets Record in Budget

Education in the Forest Hills School District will cost a record $2,144,317 during the present fiscal year.

This was the budget adopted by the Board of Education for 1968-69 and marked the first time that the district has surpassed $2-million in anticipated expenditures.

The outlay represents an increase of $336,317 over last year.

A total of $1,500,000 has been allocated for instruction, of which approximately 90 percent will go toward teacher's salaries, according to Superintendent Robert G. Masten.

Operating costs have been pegged at $227,000 with $122,000 allocated for transportation and $65,000 for summer school costs.

"Much of the operating and transportation costs also will go into salaries," explained Masten.

The district expects to derive $1,042,000 from collection of local taxes with another $1,018,000 scheduled to be received in state aid.

Pending receipt of state aid money, the board authorized a loan of $325,000 at 3.4 percent interest from Old Kent Bank and Trust.

Masten also has been working with Ada Township Supervisor Fred Clancy and plans discussions with Kent County Highway Department officials to seek a solution to the student pedestrian problem in the area of the new Ada Elementary School.

The primary road, Ada Dr., is heavily-travelled during the morning hours when students who reside within a mile of the building are walking to class.

"The board is keenly aware that the stretch between Ada village and the school is hazardous to pedestrians," explains Masten, "and we hope to be able to work out something to relieve the situation."

In other action, the board

Letters to the Editor

Appreciates Paper's Coverage of Show

To the Editor:
 I wish to express a thank you to you and your staff for such excellent coverage of the Showboat and Miss Shore. I enjoyed reading the articles and was amazed at the length of time that the Showboat has been in existence.

I was in Grand Rapids at the time of the Showboat and did get to see the performances the first three nights. I wish that I could have stayed longer but I had made previous arrangements for the rest of my vacation. Again, many thanks for the coverage.

Sincerely,

Feels School Board Should Hold Line

To the Editor:
 Having been to the two latest School Board meetings, I am much more appreciative of the tremendous task facing the School Board in trying to approve a budget. It seems as if they are honestly trying to eliminate most everything that is not absolutely necessary and getting very little thanks and a lot of abuse for their efforts.

However, the outcome of the latest millage vote would seem to indicate the taxpayers (property owners, that is) are asking them to approve a budget within its income. Many people and businesses that never heard of modern math have had to do this.

Perhaps one way to do this would be to eliminate all of the Student Counselors, their salaries along should make quite a dent in the deficit.

It is the belief of many taxpayers that they contribute absolutely nothing towards a child's education except perhaps gather some information for a Kinsey report.

I feel sure the Board and probably the Faculty feel that if their children need counseling they are qualified to do this themselves and apparently so do the taxpayers.

Only a few months ago we were asked to approve a millage vote for Vocational Schools in Kent County. At that time all the emphasis was on Vocational training. Perhaps we have attached too much importance to Academic schooling.

Less than a year ago, such brilliant men as Gov. Romney, Mayor Cavanagh, members of the Ford family and the J. L. Hudsons formed what they called the New Detroit Committee. These learned gentlemen persuaded Chrysler, Ford, General Motors and many other industries to do away with written job applications so they could hire less educated people.

It certainly would be frustrating if after being told all through school your very existence would depend on a good education only to find out when you applied for employment that the company had just hired a group with a third grade education. (They were much easier to train to do as the company wished on a job!)

Also at a time when it should be desirable for Police Departments to become more professionalized our own State Police have been pressured into doing away with written applications so they can hire more of minority groups.

I believe that any new millage proposal should be accompanied by a tuition fee of say $25 per student per year for children of non taxpayers.

Probably the property owners (millage tax payers) would go along with this and I feel sure the people who rent their homes would be overjoyed at the prospect of finally being permitted to participate financially in the education of their children.

What kind of justice is there in a law that permits non-property owners to vote into existence a tax on property owners only. If Patrick Henry thought he had taxation without representation then he ought to be here today.

Showboat Jokes

To the Editor:
 We planned our Michigan vacation this year to coincide with Show Boat. We were there on Friday evening.

Our would-be-helpful suggestions would be shorter periods for the acts. (Most of them were good, but too long!) And please cleaner jokes. There are still some of us left who do not enjoy quite such "raw" material.

Very truly,

Presidential Electors Don't Follow Form

Lowell to Seek Millage

To date, the only state for all its history to consistently vote for one political party in the selection of a President is Hawaii, our 50th state, admitted to the Union in 1959. In 1960 Hawaii cast three Electoral votes for the Democratic candidate; in 1964, with four Electoral votes, it voted for President Johnson. No other state has a 100 percent record.

Indeed, as never before, it appears to us that all of the states are "up for grabs" and the impact of the so-called "independent vote" has quickened the interest of all.

Our attention is fixed on the Electoral College, that ancient institution which our early Congresses sincerely hoped would provide a peaceful, efficient and representative manner for the selection of the President.

The 12th Amendment, which changed Article II of the U. S. Constitution, directs the presidential electors to make a distinct choice for president and for vice president and provides that the House of Representatives should choose in the event of a tie vote. This 1804 action, together with the 20th Amendment (1933) which changed the time for taking office (from March 4th to noon of January 20), and the 22nd (1951), limiting the office to two elected terms, are the only changes ever constitutionally made in the whole procedure.

Custom and practice have brought many other changes. The advent of the political party led inevitably to the result the stronger "party" would pick up the entire electoral vote for all the states it had won by popular vote.

Gone was the deliberate and quiet expression of the esteemed presidential elector, given after careful consideration of any number of men of character and competency, each state's compilation indicating a number of different names. Instead, as is the usual practice today, the presidential elector, having been fully "committed," was expected perforce to vote the party ticket. Fact is, never in the past and not now, need they do so.

As recently as 1956 an Alabama elector pledged to Adlai Stevenson voted instead for Walter B. Jones. In 1960, an Oklahoman, pledged to Richard M. Nixon, cast his electoral vote for Harry F. Byrd.

The procedure of selecting electors, having been left by the Constitution to the states, varies with the states. In some, only the names of the electors appear on the ballot. In others (e.g., Michigan) only the presidential candidates' names appear on the ballot; in some other states both candidates and electors are listed.

The lack of solidarity of party vote, and the failure of the voters in some instances to vote for every single elector of their party has caused some serious controversies and splits in the electoral vote.

It is being suggested the election results this year may end as a matter of concern of the House of Representatives. It should be noted that this means the newly-constituted House which will be elected this Fall. Each state will have but one vote, arrived at, of course, along party lines.

As early in our history as 1800, the Electoral College ended in a tie vote, Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr each received 73 electoral votes and the House of Representatives chose Jefferson. Another interesting example often discussed during an election year is the Hayes-Tilden dispute of 1876. Congress awarded 20 votes to Hayes which had been challenged because of the conflicting returns from four of the states.

In the Electoral table published in this issue you will note the increase and decrease of the individual states between 1950 and 1960. The 1970 Census will reflect further change in the 1972 Presidential election.

The burden of the political aspirants this year is to capture a clear majority of the electoral votes, that is 270, or one-half plus one of the 538 total. As we said, the newly-elected House would choose a president should no majority be obtained. Interestingly enough, not the House but the Senate will select the vice president should the College fail to produce a majority vote. In the case of the Senate vote, however, each senator will vote individually and not by state as in the case in the House.

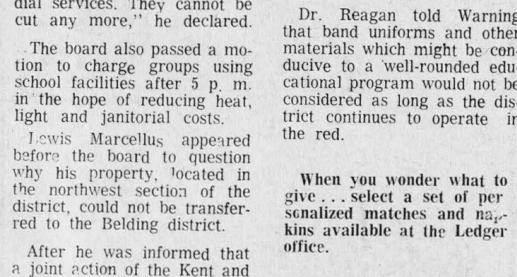

ROYCE I. STORY

 the board cut present expenditures to the bone.
 "We have tried that," said Dr. Reagan. "It is impossible to cut out anything more without seriously jeopardizing the entire educational program in Lowell."
 Dr. Reagan further noted that only a reduction in teaching personnel would bring about sufficient savings to create a balanced budget.
 "But that would be foolhardy," he declared. "For one thing, our teachers are under contract and, for another, we are already operating with a minimum staff."
 Board member Bill Jones noted that enrollment is up almost 100 more than anticipated and said that he thought the school was understaffed.
 "We have made cuts in supplies, transportation and custodial services. They cannot be cut any more," he declared.
 The board also passed a motion to charge groups using school facilities after 5 p. m. in the hope of reducing heat, light and janitorial costs.
 Lewis Marcellus appeared before the board to question why his property, located in the northwest section of the district, could not be transferred to the Belding district.
 After he was informed that a joint action of the Kent and

Ionia Intermediate Districts would be required to re-align the boundary, Marcellus declared:
 "I understand from Kent Intermediate that it is up to Lowell and that it won't be done because Mr. Pace doesn't want it done."
 Superintendent James Pace took exception to the remarks and asked an apology, which Marcellus did not give.
 Marcellus appeared several weeks ago to challenge the board on its changes in bus transportation. His home is located almost a mile from the Lowell bus stop whereas Belding school buses pass his home he said.
 Art Warning, a Lowell businessman, told the board he was not opposed to new millage, but requested that the money be spent more wisely.
 "I have always voted yes on millage," Warning said. "Two years ago, the board decided to add new administrative personnel and I understand that cost about $45,000 a year."
 "In the meantime," Warning added, "our band doesn't have uniforms. I was ashamed to see our band at the game last Friday."
 Dr. Reagan told Warning that band uniforms and other materials which might be conducive to a well-rounded educational program would not be considered as long as the district continues to operate in the red.

Forest Hills County's Mental Health Program Costs $1-Million

Cascade-Thornapple P.T.O. will sponsor an old-fashioned ice cream social on the lawn at Cascade School on Saturday, October 5, between 1 and 4 p. m. Pony and wagon rides and a ferris wheel will be featured. It's a "come-as-you-are" affair with ice cream and cake for all.

Nearly $20 million in operating funds will go into community mental health services during the current fiscal year in 37 counties which have established mental health boards under Act 54 (1963), the local-state cost sharing plan.

The Kent County Mental Health Services Board has been allotted $733,774 by the state to help support a matchable program totalling $1,004,114.

The state appropriation of $10.9 million has been allotted by the Michigan Department of Mental Health on a 75 percent matching basis for specific local services. Local and federal funds, along with fees for services, will provide additional revenue for community mental health programs.

Thirty-nine counties with approximately 90 percent of the state's population have elected to come under provisions of the act. Two of these counties, Manistee and St. Joseph, have not initiated services under their mental health boards.

Key Club Schedules Wash, Candy Sale

Members of the newly-organized Key Club at Forest Hills High School are eagerly awaiting the weekend when they will work on their first cooperative project... a car wash and Hallowe'en candy sale Saturday at Woolco Auto Center.

The local Key Club joins approximately thirteen others in the city of Grand Rapids which all belong to the International Key Clubs. Forest Hills' club is sponsored by Downtown Kiwanis, largest of the city Kiwanis groups. The advisor is Warren Moody.

The club will meet every Monday evening and will feature speakers who will present a variety of subjects of interest to young men. Once a month, a speaker will be scheduled to discuss a vocational field. Business meetings will also be conducted once a month.

As a mini-Kiwanis, the Key Club has as its motto "We Build." It is devised to serve the community and the school. Developing initiative and leadership among its members, the group plans to become active immediately with a vocational clinic.

This club was first organized at the end of the last school year. President Gary Gromer and vice president Doug Griffith were sent to the International Convention in July at Montreal, where they gained an insight to the workings of the huge organization and an enthusiasm they hope to impart to their fellow members.

Fall Rains Hazardous to Drivers

During the past summer we had much beautiful weather to enjoy, but from now until Christmas we can expect some of the worst. Rain is sure to ruin many autumn outings, many trips to games, many routine drives to and from work.

Rain quickly slows traffic to a crawl. Worse yet, it causes streaky windshields and obscures drivers' vision. The Highway Visibility Bureau points out that 90 percent of driving decisions depend on sight.

If you wear glasses, be sure they're clean when you drive.

Be sure your windshield is clean and your windshield wiper equipment—arms, blades, and washers—is in top condition.

Wiper arms should exert a pressure against the windshield of an ounce to each inch of blade length. If pressure is right and wiper still streaks, it means the blade is dead and calls for replacement or refill.

Headlights should be accurately aimed and all lights in working order.

Suggests Try Weed Control Before Freeze

For the most effective lawn weed control, apply sprays now, advises William Meggitt, Michigan State University crop scientist.

"If you spray your lawn before the ground freezes, any weeds that are killed will be replaced by grass which is growing at its best this time of year," explains Meggitt.

"Delaying your spray program until next summer will mean that the dead weeds will be replaced with crabgrass or other annual weeds."

He says the combination of 2,4-D amine and silvex, applied at the rate of one pound of active chemical per acre, will control dandelions, plantains, clover, chickweed, black medic, creeping charlie, red sorrel and roundleaved mallow.

The Harvest Years

It was not so very long ago that self-respecting retirement was something you could look forward to if you were a man of wealth and only dream about if your means were less than average. Even the term "senior citizen" was unheard of a generation ago.

But times have changed. Today a comfortable retirement belongs to any man who plans for one, according to the Investment Company Institute, national association of the mutual fund industry.

Witness the millions of senior citizens the nation over who are now able to enjoy their harvest years in relative ease, thanks to an extended life span and a growing national prosperity.

Yet, to retire is not always that easy.

Government figures indicate that only 40 per cent of the more than 18 million people in this country who are 65 and over are self-sufficient. The rest must rely on public welfare, private agencies or family for support.

The real problem is simply poor planning. Too many people who thought they had provided adequately for the future find that either they had miscalculated or that inflation had trimmed the value of their original savings far below levels needed to live in terms of what today's dollar will buy.

Mutual funds, with broad holdings in American industry, have proved effective in keeping pace with inflationary trends, the Institute points out. They can be used as income-producing vehicles from which the investor may draw during retirement, or if he is self-employed he may set up a Keogh Program during his working years.

Why are mutual funds—worth 4.2 million shareholders and assets of close to $50 billion—so popular today? To begin with, mutual funds employ professionals who constantly watch the many different markets and analyze all the conditions that may affect them.

In addition, a mutual fund also provides broad diversification. This is a well-tested method of reducing the risk inherent in any investment for it spreads that risk among the securities of many different corporations, rather than just a few. Even one mutual fund share may represent holdings in as many as a hundred or more different companies.

Caprice. Match this, you other 69's!

There is no joy in the land of our competitors today. But let us ask you this. Should we have made Caprice shorter instead of the longest Chevrolet ever built? Or adorned it with flashy nicknacks to make it look less expensive? Just because competition doesn't, should we not have offered you washers to clean your headlights, new variable-ratio power steering, liquid tire chain you can apply to your rear wheels at the touch of a button?

Should we have given it less power, instead of the largest standard V8 in its field? Some people think so. Our competitors.

Arrows, Rangers Both Drop Conference Openers on Gridiron

Lowell Suffers 53-0 Loss

Lowell High football fans may find little solace in the fact that the worst part of the 1968 season is behind the Red Arrows, but Coach Jerry Smith is one who is happy to see the first two games behind him.

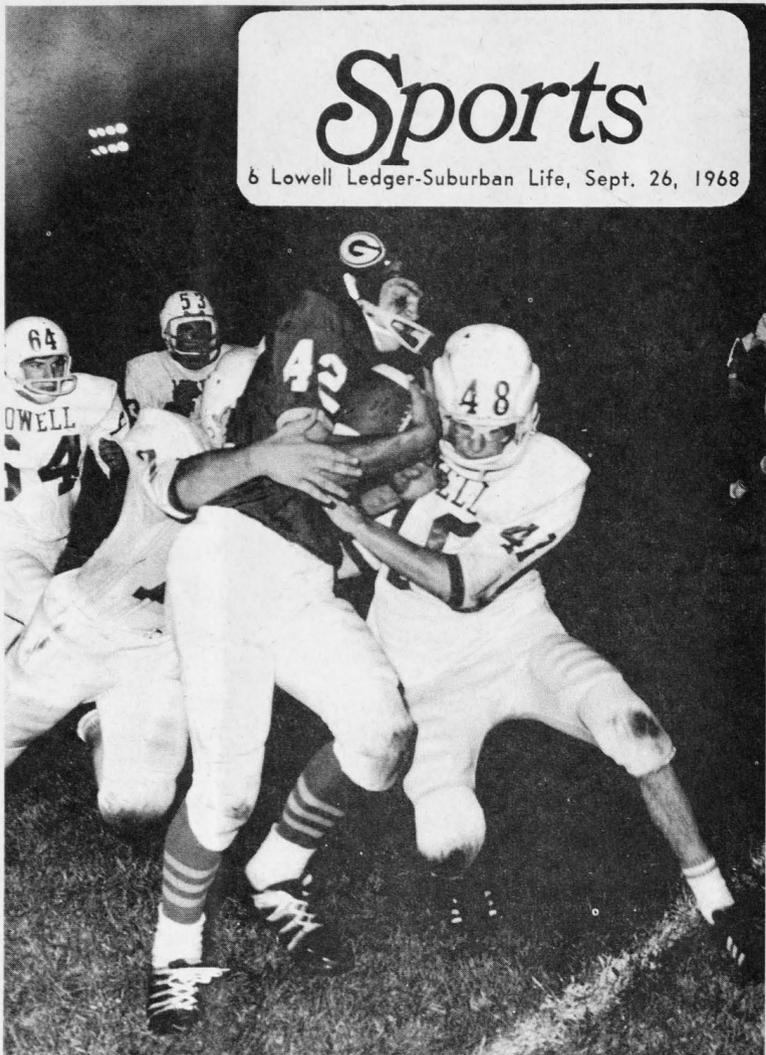

"We knew that Ionia and Greenville probably would be the toughest opponents on our schedule... and it proved out that way," declared Smith following last week's 53-0 drubbing at the hands of powerful Greenville.

Lowell returns to Tri-River Conference action on Friday night with a home encounter against Sparta (1-1). Game time at Recreation Park is 7:30 p. m.

Greenville was making its debut in the conference and rival coach Ed Heigby spared none of his horses in running up the lopsided count against the injury-plagued Arrows.

Heigby elected to keep his entire starting backfield in the game until all 53 points had been scored.

All-state candidate Mike Nelson, a bruising fullback, scored twice as did Halfback Gary VISITOR VANQUISHED - Greenville Fullback Steve VanHoose finds a four-man reception committee composed of Lowell High's Joe Vezino (64), Mike Blough (53), Dan Heintzman (48) and an unidentified tackler as he attempts to carry against the Arrows. Greenville dominated the action in its first Tri-River Conference start, beating Lowell, 53-0.

Barager. Halfback Al Colby scored one touchdown, kicked four extra points and ran another one-pointer across.

Quarterback Ed Barnwell also proved a difficult man for the Arrows to stop, running for one TD and passing for two others.

"Defense is our real bugaboo," said Smith, who saw linebackers Cla Avery and Ron Wittenbach and Guard Bob Van Dyke go out for the season with injuries in practice drills. "I guess we'll just have to put the best 11 men we have out there and hope they can do the job."

On the brighter side, Smith was encouraged by the work of Quarterback Mitch McMahon, who accounted for 140 yards passing with nine completions in 23 attempts. However, three of McMahon's heaves were intercepted and one of those led directly to a score for Greenville when Paul Christensen raced 37 yards to paydirt in the third quarter.

That was the stanza in which Greenville rolled up 27 points to increase its lead to 46-0 after a 19-point second quarter.

Lowell managed to contain Greenville in the opening period, but Nelson got the visitors on the scoreboard in the second quarter with a 13-yard run. A 55-yard Barnwell-to-Nelson pass was the highlight of the quarter.

Lowell penetrated deep into Greenville territory twice in the early going, but the Arrows' only serious thrust, on a 40-yard gain by Gale Schmidt to Greenville's 10 in the final session was wiped out by a clipping penalty.

Lowell registered two first downs rushing and one by penalty for a total of 10 while Greenville, with its long scoring efforts, collected only seven times in the first-down department.

Smithy on Sports BY FRAN SMITH

Elsewhere on these pages... if you are careful to read them... there will be reference to the fact that the Smithy "won" the annual golf tournament sponsored by this newspaper.

I use the quotes because, despite an early plea to the tournament directors, they declared me the winner under the handicap system.

But I feel the tournament is for others than myself. It was just a lot of fun playing... I shot the best round I've had in ages... and, besides, I hooked up with Mac Fonger in a little best-ball match with Dr. Bob Reagan and Hugh (Sweet Swinger) Linkfield and managed to come out of it winners by $4.20.

So, fellows, if you don't mind I have declared myself ineligible and it's up to you to determine who gets the championship trophy.

I'm happy with the loot... though it may mean the end of Doc's Sunday golf for a while.

A reminder that the Detroit Pistons and New York Knicks erobbers will play a National Basketball Association exhibition game at Calvin College on Tuesday, October 8.

I lived with the Pistons for nine years and, therefore may be somewhat prejudiced, but I can only say that the great skills these players demonstrate is worth the price of admission... even to a pre-season warmup such as this.

If you haven't seen Dave Bing or Cazzie Russell play before, get down there. They are two of the best!

My confidence in our nation's youth... which may have been sagging somewhat the past few years, what with the hippies, yuppies and what have you... underwent a transfusion last Friday night.

I took the opportunity, following the Forest Hills-Kentwood football game, to visit the Rangers' lockerroom.

Seldom have I seen young men take defeat as hard as did Coach Frank Rosengren's charges. They wanted to win so badly that to borrow an old and somewhat trite saying, they could "taste" it.

Rosengren, now in his first year as head coach, told his players they had nothing to be ashamed of in defeat.

"If anyone lost the game," he said, "it was me. You gave it a 200 percent effort out there. I'm proud of all of you."

That helped to restore my confidence in coaches, too!

They may not be fully equipped with uniforms... which is why none are worn... but no one can deny that Lowell High's band doesn't do a remarkable job. Folks are still talking about their performance of last week.

SIMONS SURROUNDED - Kentwood defenders move in to stop Randy Simons after the hard-running Forest Hills fullback broke loose in Friday's game for a long gain. The defenders are Floyd Haight (11), Tony Scalici (making tackle), Tom Heklebeer (71) and Jimm Beeman (74). Blocking for Simons are Jim Witzel (left) and Bob VandenBos (82) with Bob Roy (52) and Stan Grochowalski (22) coming up to offer assistance. Kentwood squeaked out a 14-13 conference win.

Late Effort Just Misses

BY FRAN SMITH

It was the half time intermission and his team was trailing by a 7-0 score when Forest Hills High School athletic director Ed Shy made a prophetic statement.

"You can bet that the series between Forest Hills and Kentwood will become one of the best around in just a few short years," declared Shy. "We're about the same size, we have much the same type of kids and we're naturals for a neighborhood rivalry."

Before last Friday's game had ended in a 14-13 victory for Kentwood, there was already evidence that Shy's prediction was bearing fruit.

Coach Frank Rosengren's Rangers, who take on Wyoming Park on the latter's gridiron tomorrow night at 7:30 p. m., came within an eyelash of claiming victory in their first start of '68 in the O-K Red Division.

In fact, it took Kentwood's lone completed pass of the night to send the Falcons on their way to a winning touchdown drive that ended with Halfback Tony Scalici sweeping end from the 12-yard line on the first play of the final quarter.

The pass, good for nine yards, was from Quarterback Floyd Haight to End Tom Barbee on a third-and-10 situation and carried Kentwood to the Forest Hills 44.

Gambling on fourth down, Haight sneaked over center for the necessary yardage to keep the drive going.

After Halfback Jordan Bosma picked up eight more yards on crushing off-tackle smashes, Scalici broke loose for 17 yards to the Rangers' 15 and a holding penalty advanced the ball to the seven. After an offside penalty set Kentwood back to the 12, Bosma carried in for the score and Halfback Tom Pullen added his second extra point of the night to make it 14-7.

Forest Hills rallied brilliantly in the dying moments, putting together an 89-yard drive in 11 plays to make it 14-13 with just 31 seconds left on a five-yard pass from Quarterback Scott Wingeier to End Tom Scott.

However, Fullback Randy Simons' run for the extra point fell just inches short of the goal line.

A 21-yard gallop by Simons, a 13-yard pass play from Wingeier to Teft, a 27-yard aerial from Wingeier to End Bob VandenBos and Halfback Stan Grochowalski's 13-yard run figured prominently in the drive.

Scalici and Bosma were the big guns for Kentwood in the Falcons' first-period touchdown drive that gave them a 7-0 halftime lead. Between them, they carried the ball on six of the nine plays as Kentwood went 54 yards to score on Haight's sneak from the Forest Hills one-yard line. Pullen's first extra point try was blocked by Guard Steve Grabarek, but an offside penalty gave Kentwood another chance and Pullen converted.

Forest Hills got on the scoreboard with 4:49 left in the third quarter when Grochowalski scampered 13 yards on a reverse to end a 62-yard march in eight plays that wasn't made any easier by three minor penalties against the Rangers.

Wingeier barely managed to get the ball over the goal line on the extra point rushing attempt to make it 7-7.

A 31-yard pass from Wingeier to Teft and Halfback Doug Griffith's short-yardage reverse on a crucial third down play were highlights of the drive.

The Rangers wasted one other opportunity when they surged to the Kentwood 18 early in the second quarter with the aid of a pass interference penalty. From that point, Simons broke off tackle to the five-yard stripe, but a clipping penalty set the Green and White back to the 21 and the drive ended three plays later with no further advance.

Statistically, Forest Hills had a wide edge with 147 yards rushing and 125 passing to 154 and 11, respectively for Kent-

Close Finish Marks Ledger-Life Meet

Only two strokes separated the top 13 finishers in the annual Lowell Ledger-Suburban Life golf tournament held Sunday at the Arrowhead Golf Course.

Tournament directors Gene and Vince Kaye announced today that a four-way tie for the top position among the men resulted with the withdrawal of Fran Smith from the tournament.

Smith, who publishes the paper, had finished first under the Callaway system, but declared himself ineligible to receive the trophy.

Les Lehnen, Len Kerr, Gerry McDonald and Harold Vrona all finished at one-over-par 72 under the unique handicapping system.

One stroke back were Tom Ford, John Elzinga and Vince Kaye while six golfers came up with a net 74. They included Ralph King, Don Meyer, Dough Anderson, Bob Harrison, Fred Droski and Jay Reeb.

Winner in the women's division was Mrs. Chancey (Georgia) Boyce with a net 39.5. Evelyn Ford was second at 40, Bertha Gibbs took third with a 42 and Rose Fonger was fourth with a 43.

Bruce Boyce joined his mother in the winner's circle by taking the junior division with a net 37. Steve Kerr and Kim Schwacha tied for second with Jon Schwacha and Jerry Kropf following in that order.

Low gross honors for the men were shared by Kerr and Smith, each with an actual score of 78. Kerr put together nines of 39-39 and Smith had a 36-42.

The perfect gift, personalized sets including matches, napkins and coasters. See them now at the Ledger office.

It's Autumn! 'Color Show' Now Underway

The first big weekend of Michigan's annual autumn color show is expected in the upper peninsula before the end of September, according to the Michigan Tourist Council. Observers throughout the state, however, report some scattered color in evidence now.

Observers in the Keweenaw Peninsula report limited color in isolated areas but the green still predominates. Maples in the Iron Mountain area have started to turn, while birch in the low areas are taking on fall yellow hues.

The Michigan Autumn Color Tour Guide and other fall vacation planning information is available without charge by writing the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing, Michigan, 48926.

Wins Championship in Super-Mod Division

Eldon Schrader of Jackson was crowned season champion in the super modified division

Pick Officers

The annual election of the Kent County 4-H Leader's Association officers was held on September 16 at the Leaders' Association meeting.

Mrs. Curtis Heft of Sparta was elected president for the 1968-69 4-H program year. The newly elected vice president is Robert Welton of Belmont, and Mrs. Arthur Cavanaugh of Cedar Springs is the new secretary.

Henri Paets of Caledonia will continue to be treasurer, filling out his second year of a two-year term.

at the Berlin Raceway Saturday night.

Schrader won his title bid when he regained the lead on the 18th circuit and forged across the finish line well ahead of Ken Cramton of Kalamazoo, Art Bennett of Battle Creek and Ed VanderLaan of Cascade.

In their final appearance of the abbreviated 1968 season, super mod drivers winning 10-lap heats were John Benson, Cramton, Larry Gathman and Bill Beard.

Last season's "rookie of the year," Tom Marks of Kalamazoo, has won the point championship for semi-late models in the Kalamazoo-Marne circuit.

The 1955 through '65 semilates will conclude the racing season at the half-mile Marne oval this Saturday night. Trophies earned by drivers throughout the season will be presented.

Finishing second in the point standings at Berlin was last Saturday night's winner of the 25-lap main event for semilates, Bob Senneker of Grand Rapids.

Senneker, in a 1964 Chevelle, took the lead from Tom Marks on the 16th lap and racked up his seven main event victory in his last eight attempts.

Preliminary winners included Glenn Bradley, Jerry Spear, Bob Sensiba, Senneker and Marks.

Capture Top Spots in Shoot

Dorr Wiltse of Ionia and Mrs. Trude Schlernitzauer of Lowell emerged victorious in pistol competition held over the weekend at the Flat River Range in Lowell.

A total of 51 shooters from Michigan, Ohio and Indiana competed in the event.

Wiltse, a Michigan State Police trooper from Ionia, scored 2631 points in a possible 2700, hitting the small "x" in the bulls-eye 117 times.

Mrs. Schlernitzauer, who won the national women's championship at Camp Perry, O. in August, was high civilian shooter with a score of 2574 and 84 "xes."

In addition to the national title, Mrs. Schlernitzauer also established a new national women's tournament record at Jackson recently in 22-calibre aggregate with a score of 886 from a possible 900 with 38 shots in the "x."

Area shooters preparing for the hunting season are invited to attend a special rifle-sighting and instruction session to be held Saturday, November 2, starting at 1:30 p. m. at the Flat River Range.

The program is being sponsored jointly by the Lowell Rifle and Pistol Club and Boy Scout Troop 102.

Targets and instruction for those shooters who need help will be provided. Shooters who cannot make the session are invited to use the upper range behind the Scout cabin when the area is not in use by the scouts. They are requested to keep it free from trash.

A turkey shoot is planned for Sunday, October 12, at the local range. Details will be announced later.

Earns Two GVC Degrees

Greg will work toward his masters in economics at Western Michigan University. He has been doing research in the Amway laboratories in addition to his studies.

PONTIAC ANNOUNCES THE GREAT BREAK AWAY!

This is the year to say good-bye to humdrum driving!
'69 Wide-Track Pontiac Grand Prix.

If you've never driven a car like this before, that's because there's never been a car like this Pontiac Grand Prix before. So new, it's got its own 118" wheelbase. So new, it's got its own aircraft-type interior. A new steering wheel with a "soft" material rim. With a Wide-Track on big tires. With a new hidden radio antenna where's daring everybody to find.

Or maybe you'd like to break away with a brand-new Firebird. With typical Wide-Track handling and a range of available V-8 choices that'll make your head spin (including the fabulous 400 Ram Air option). Brand-new styling, too. Lean, clean, ready looks. Plus 13 exciting new colors... new anti-theft ignition, steering and transmission lock.

There's also The Great One. Our GTO, the one that started it all. Complete with baseball-bat-proof bumper, fully padded instrument panel, distinctive Redline tires, along with specially designed suspension. Plus an assortment of V-8's that'll make your break from dull driving just about as pleasing as any you've ever made.

And don't forget our luxurious Bonneville. With a standard, 360-hp. 428-cubic-inch V-8, a long, long 125" wheelbase, a new upper-level ventilation system, color-keyed energy absorbing bumper at both front and rear, plus the kind of interiors you'd like to install at home. Bonneville. Who needs more?

Forest Hills Hi-Lites

BY SHIRLEY DYGERT

Autumn means something special to Glen Morris and Charles Worden. They have heeded the call of the wild and are really out for big game.

They drove from here to Ludington where they boarded the ferry that transported them to Manitowauk, Wisc. From there they drove to the Pas in Manitoba, Canada. Now on foot, they are hunting moose in those fresh pine-scented elbow-stretching spaces.

Following the Rocket football game Saturday, Ron and Cheryl Collins took off for Lowell where they joined their euchre club for the evening. This group has been going for about seven years. Originally there were three tables, but now there are four. The club meets once a month in various homes throughout the year.

Saturday was one of those rare hot days for this time of year and a good day for entertaining friends outside. As the mists rose over the hills and waters, the fragrant odors from patio grills wafted over our lands. Among those who entertained were the John Sykes. They welcomed the Tom Fredericks, the Alan Schmid's, and the Harry Currens.

After seven rounds of bridge, Frank and Mary Lou Schueler treated their guests, Winnie and Paul Peterson, John and Ann Perschbacher, and Dawn and Harold Ederbeek of Holland, to live lobsters. At least they were alive until they became edible.

The dinner menu also included Italian Verdiccio, crisp salad, baked potatoes, rolls, & the hostess' justly famous strawberry cream tarts.

When the Cascade Businessmen's Association met for the September session, Harold "Tiny" Neitzel was the guest speaker. His subject was the history and future of the Forest Hills Country Club. Anyone who is planning to let his muscles atrophy over the winter had better beware; the board is expecting to have 36 new traps awaiting wandering balls.

Boys of the newly formed Key Club of Forest Hills High will be holding a carwash (which includes a vacuuming) and a Halloween candy sale at Woolco Auto Center Saturday from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

They spent hours preparing the packages and will work hard getting your car to shine, so give them some help if you are in the neighborhood.

The Penn Club was the scene of the gay Commodore's Ball Saturday night for the Bay Haven Yacht Club of Holland. Greeting 50 guests at a cocktail party in their home preceding the ball were Barry and Sherly Lilly of Bradford Road N.E. The gay get-together was to celebrate Barry's new role as Commodore for the coming year.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD VAN SLUYTERS

Dr. Richard C. VanSluyters took as his bride Lianne Thais Lewis in an afternoon ceremony in late August, in Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church in Walnut Creek, California.

The couple's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. VanSluyters, Driftwood Dr. S.E. Ada, and Mr. and Mrs. Rupert F. Lewis of Round Hill, Alamo, California.

The bride entered the sanctuary wearing a candlelight organza gown with beaded lace appliques, a ring collar and cage back. A headband of stephanotis secured her applied full length veil.

Preceding the bride were Nancy Lyn Lewis, honor maid and Marcia Layne and Mary Lisa Lewis. The attendants wore pink crepe sleeveless gowns with empire waists, their headpieces were of pink rosebuds securing shoulder length veils.

Brad R. Van Sluyters served his brother as best man. Seating the guests were Craig R. VanSluyters and Glen Merivine.

Dr. and Mrs. VanSluyters greeted guests at a reception held in the Round Hill Country Club, Alamo, California.

Following a wedding trip to Carmel and Monterey, Calif., the couple returned to Indiana University where Dr. VanSluyters is working on a Fellowship.

Participates in Foreign Study Plan

Greg Jay Hoag, son of Mrs. Frances Hoag of Route 3, Lowell is one of 177 Kalamazoo College juniors participating in the Foreign Study Program during the fall term.

He will be studying on Hanover, Germany, one of 21 centers around the world selected for the program.

The foreign study program was designed to give the students of Kalamazoo College an in-depth experience with people, language and schools of a different culture than their own, as well as participation in a quality academic experience that is enriched by the environment in which it occurs.

Most of the students travel to their destinations by boat and will study in the country of their choice for a six month period. The majority will live with non-English speaking families.

DR. CARLSON VISITS HERE

Dr. C. E. Carlson of Fort Wayne, Ind. was guest speaker at the Sunday morning worship service at the United Brethren in Christ Church.

A former bishop who has visited different foreign missionary fields such as the one in Serria Leone, West Africa, he is a very able speaker.

Dr. Carlson attended the men's retreat at Camp Living Waters this weekend, returning and spending Saturday night as the house guest of Rev. Lee R. Palmer and family.

Rev. Palmer, Clayton Mote and Fred Sawdy also attended the retreat for pastors and laymen. They gave a fine report of helpful experiences between pastors and their workers at this very beautiful natural wild large camp site in lower north Michigan.

The young men at camp this summer have erected an open air chapel on the lake shore and bought material out of their earnings to build it.

Other News

Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Carlson of near Grand Rapids are spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dorlan Eldred while their parents are co-ho fishing for their vacation.

Mrs. Bert Blank called to see Mrs. Grace Sawdy in Clarksville Friday. Mrs. Sawdy has not been well for some time.

The Fred Sawdy family were guests of Myrtle Wilson at her home near Hastings Sunday.

Tom Gray and his fiancée, Susie Blue of Grand Rapids and Cutlerville were Sunday guests of his grandmother, Mrs. Bert Blank.

Mrs. Mayme Church of Clarksville was a caller of Mrs. Blank at her home Friday and a supper guest of the Ervin Church family on Timpson Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Erb of Freeport and Bud Gray and son, Michael of Morse Lake Ave., were at their mother's, Mrs. Bert Blank's home, Saturday assisting with some repair work at her home.

Tuesday was the W.M.A. annual rally of the W.M.A. of the United Brethren Michigan Branch held at the Lake Odesa U. B. Church. Ladies from all over Michigan and some ministers including the Rev. Irving Yonkers of the Southland Mission at Clinton, Miss. and other ministers from Missouri and Michigan attended.

Mrs. Joan Letson, Mrs. Verne Farris, Mrs. Ethel Blank, Mrs. Thressa Mote, Mrs. Doris Sawdy and Miss Bethel Mote were among those from here who attended the all day meeting of W.M.A. Rally. A salad smorgasbord dinner was enjoyed by about 86 ladies who were registered at the forenoon session.

The speaker was Miss Bernadine Hossman, missionary home on furlough at Sunfield this year from many years of service at Serria Leone, West Africa.

Miss Bethel Mote left Thursday morning via jet plane from Detroit airport and word was received Friday that she arrived safely at Freetown, Serria Leone, West Africa. The Jerry Datema family from Dutton left Tuesday, were delayed in flight, and arrived with Miss Mote at the same place.

The Datema's were here a week ago and were guest speakers at the Sunday evening service here showing beautiful pictures on screen of the lovely small island of Jamaica where they spent the last four years as missionaries.

Miss Bethel Mote and father, Clayton Mote, and the L. G. Mote family were Sunday evening guests for lunch at the parsonage with the pastor and family, Lee and Beth Palmer and children.
