Lowell and Behold! He's in Wrong State

Robert Bishop was a man in a quandry when he arrived in Lowell last week.

An employee of the Premier Casket Company of Lima, O., Bishop was delivering caskets in the Grand Rapids area and had received orders from his company to drop two coffins off at Sheets Funeral Home in Lowell.

There was only one problem: There is no such funeral home in Lowell, Michigan.

Bishop checked with Postmaster Charlie Doyle to determine where he was supposed to be. Doyle looked up the zip code number on the dispatch form and quickly surmised that the delivery should have been made to Lowell, Indiana... located 230 miles away, just south of Chicago.

Bishop left the caskets at Roth Funeral Home and picked them up later in the day while en route back to Lima. "I sure would like to give that secretary the devil," Bishop muttered to Doyle. "And I would, too, if she weren't my sister-in-law!"

"It's a good thing for both of them that the caskets weren't intended for Lowell, Massachusetts," exclaimed Doyle, who notes that much mail intended for Lowell, Michigan... often finds its way to the Boston suburb.

FH Gain Set at 8 Percent

An eight percent increase in enrollment... more than double that of a year ago... was reported today by Forest Hills School officials.

Students attending classes as of last Friday numbered 3,885, a gain of 321 over the 1967-68 enrollment figure.

Percentage-wise, the gain was bigger than in any other district in the Kent Intermediate District, school officials noted.

Over the past two years, Forest Hills enrollment has leaped by a total of 435 students with prospects for even greater growth in the next two years.

The biggest single gain was in the high school with an additional 103 students enrolled in the top four grades. There are 1,131 students in grades 9-12 this year compared to 1,028 a year ago.

Elementary grades from the kindergarten through six realized an increase of 167 students, from 1,960 in 1967-68 to the present figure of 2,127.

In the junior high, there was a gain of 53 students, up to 627 from 576 a year ago.

The new Ada Elementary School is housing 502 students compared to 292 who attended classes in the old Ada school plus Egypt Valley and Honey Creek schools, none of which are now being utilized by the district.

The gain in enrollment at Ada is reflected in decreases at Cascade (down to 279 from 335), Martin (162 from 220) and Orchard View (434 compared to 440). Both Thornapple and Collins schools showed gains, the former up 48 students to 237 and the latter up 45 to 513.

Couple Gone; Loot Home of $50 Cash

Kent County Sheriff's deputies are investigating a breaking and entering of a private residence in which $50 in bills and change were taken while the occupants were absent.

The department reported that the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Tole of 10505 East Fulp was entered while the couple was at a drive-in early Sunday morning.

Nothing else was missing, according to deputies.

The Lowell City Water Department will be flushing water mains on Friday morning. Please plan your use of water for washing.

Peg Tax Rate 14th in Kent

The tax rate for Lowell Area Schools ranks 14th among 19 districts in the Kent Intermediate District, according to figures made public this week.

A total of 24.6 mills are levied against property in the district, of which 17.1 are for operating and 7.5 for debt retirement.

This compares with 36.91 for East Grand Rapids, 35.0 for Northview and 33.11 for Byron Center, the top three in the county.

Forest Hills, which ranks seventh on the list, is at 28.85 with 22 mills allocated and voted for operating.

Lowell officials will seek an additional seven mills for operating in a special election, the second in three months, scheduled for Monday, November 25.

Audit figures for 1967-68 indicate that Lowell schools cost $65,555 more to operate than had been set aside by the budget for the year. A total of $1,334,588 was spent compared to income of $1,269,033.

Anticipated income for 1968-69, originally pegged at $1,324,437, will apparently reach the $1,336,740 with adjustments in state aid and local tax receipts and a loss of $1,500 in transfers.

Superintendent James Pace said that latest figures indicate that the district will spend $17,444 less than anticipated income during the present year, which would leave the school $97,147 in the red should the proposed millage vote be rejected.

This compares with a deficit of $114,591 that showed in the annual audit report.

Enrollment for 1968-69 was set at 2,581 students, an increase of 48 over a year ago. Elementary enrollment dropped to 1,216 from 1,229 while junior high enrollment went up two from 598 to 600. The biggest gain was in the senior high, which had 765 students enrolled as of last Friday compared to 706 in 1967-68.

The audit report disclosed that teacher's salaries for the present year will average $8,453 compared to $7,591 for the 1967-68 school year.

Plucky Girl Loses Battle With Cancer

BY PATT BAMBRICK

Debbie Hoag was a girl who refused to give up hope.

It was just a year ago August that Debbie was first rushed to the hospital for an emergency operation of an unsuspected cancer growth.

In the ensuing year, there had been many more operations and treatments, and throughout that entire year, Debbie never lost hope that someday she would be rid of this cancerous foe.

She knew she had cancer, and with every operation and treatment, her doctor would explain what had happened and just how it would affect her... and yet she never gave up hope.

Debbie had six brothers and sisters, and with the exception of the two older children, they didn't realize that she had cancer. And so, to them, she was just the same old sister Deb, and life proceeded on a somewhat normal plane.

In most ways, she was like any other 15 year old. She was a good student, making up the work she had necessarily missed, and passed into the tenth grade.

This summer Debbie worked at the A&W in Lowell to help make at least one of her dreams come true.

She was able to spend two weeks in California visiting an uncle, swimming in the ocean, visiting Disneyland, and attending the Grauman's Chinese Theatre.

The dream of most any teen age girl, all the more sweet because for Debbie there would be no more dreams come true.

Her battle with cancer ended Friday.

Vergennes Cool to Cemetery

Plans for a city-owned cemetery in Vergennes Township suffered an apparent setback Monday night.

While no decision was given by the township's three-man Zoning Board of Appeals, it appeared the panel would follow the wishes of residents in spurning the request by the City of Lowell that sought to have a 39-acre tract rezoned to permit eventual development of the cemetery site.

Of the 33 people present, most voiced dissent at the proposal.

Appearing on behalf of the city were Mayor Arnold Wittenbach and Councilman Herb Reynolds along with Judd Wilderink, who serves on the city's Cemetery Advisory Committee.

Many of the objectors were not opposed to the cemetery plan, but were reluctant to permit rezoning that could allow the city to utilize a portion of the property for airport expansion.

Still others opposed the move on the grounds that, if owned by the city, the property would be removed from the township's tax rolls.

All three members of the city delegation expressed hope that Vergennes residents would

Will Register Snowmobiles in Michigan

For the first time in Michigan history, snowmobiles will be registered in the state.

Secretary of State James M. Hare said registration will start "sometime in October" and that his department was presently readying the mechanics of the registration program for the winter vehicles, which he estimates number from 50,000 to 100,000 in the state.

Based on a three-year registration cycle starting in 1969 and ending in 1971, fees are $5.00 for three years; $3.00 for two years; and $2.00 for one year.

BEHIND the COUNTER with CHARLES WESTON

Every two or three years, public health experts predict an epidemic of influenza in the U.S.—and they are generally right. Such has been the case this year, with flu now raging from coast to coast, through 35 states.

Most of this year's flu has been the A-2 virus, nearly identical to the type which swept the nation in 1957. However, the number of deaths is higher than expected.

In most adults, influenza is a relatively mild disease that sends the patient to bed for three days with sniffles, coughing, nausea, diarrhea, cramps and various aches and pains. However, it can also reduce one's resistance to more serious diseases, such as pneumonia. Vaccines have been developed and are now widely available. Doctors urge their "high risk" patients—especially older people with chronic heart and lung ailments—to take advantage of this protection.

But once the flu strikes, there isn't much that can be done. Get plenty of rest and drink extra fluids, and use aspirin to reduce the pain and discomfort. By staying home, you will also protect other people and lessen the chance of spreading the disease.

consider the long-range aspects of the plan.

"There is no question that we will soon run out of land for cemetery purposes," explained Mayor Wittenbach. "We feel that this site is most suitable and will prove, in time, most beneficial to all residents of this area. Vergennes and Lowell townships as well as the City of Lowell."

Wittenbach then added that the city might have to restrict sale of cemetery lots in Oakwood Cemetery to city residents only if the Vergennes transaction fell through.

"You can't threaten us, mayor," commented a woman spectator. "We have our own cemetery."

Another spectator asked why the city didn't use the money planned for the purchase of 1,000 to provide ambulance service for the community.

Councilman Reynolds, in answer to several residents who objected to having a cemetery near their homes, declared:

"There seems to be a misunderstanding here, because there is no plan that I know of to rush out here and get the project started. If I did not believe that long-range plans for a cemetery were needed at this time, I wouldn't even be involved in this matter."

The board, composed of chairman Ed Mueller, Fred Roth and John VanSpronsen, deferred final action pending a further study after a show of hands indicated that all but a handful of residents were in opposition.

BY JERRY HANES

If you think that new car designs are a well-guarded secret, try finding out what the homecoming floats will look like at Forest Hills High School sometime.

This year's classes are following a long-standing tradition that calls for "cloak-and-dagger" techniques in the design and construction of the floats.

No one, except those actually engaged in the projects, gets a sneak preview look.

Competition is extremely keen with each class vying to make its float better than that of others... and better, of course, than any seen before.

In addition to the floats, there is much hustle and bustle around the school as preparations reach fever pitch for the Forest Hills-West Ottawa game Friday night and the annual homecoming dance on Saturday.

Ballots have been cast for the King and Queen with winners to be named and crowned by Principal Howard Dalman during the halftime festivities.

Saturday night's homecoming dance will feature music by "The Boy Friends." Theme of the dance, which starts at 9 p. m. and winds up at 11 p. m., will be "In the Midst of the Mardi Gras." Decorations are in charge of the senior class.

Explains Court System to Voters

BY AL HEEMSTRA Cascade Twp. Clerk

Just a few scant weeks remain before the important November general election. We'll be confronted on November 5th with a "bed-sheet" ballot (6 political parties) and a host of other questions, each proposition painstakingly refined to meet the requirements of law and the necessary brevity of the ballot.

All voters, by tripping those little levers, will, in a sense, be re-programming our public affairs computer to run for another couple of years.

My own limited experience in public service has convinced me that literally hundreds of electors in this community, both men and women, will vote in such blind fashion as to justify the suggestion they stay home! None of us should merely act on intuition or "by guess and b'gosh" at the polls.

I can readily sympathize with those who react to what appears to be just so much legal hocus-pocus and unnecessary technical phrasing. The sloppy casting of one's ballot, however, is inexcusable, particularly when it springs solely from a lackadaisical attitude. Too many of us express a firm conviction at the polls only when the issue involves a new or added tax.

I express the foregoing, by the way, in spite of an awareness that the public "wishes itself to be managed like a woman; one must say nothing to it except what it likes to hear (Goethe)."

By way of example, take the question of County Supervisor. I've met any number of intelligent persons who still have not grasped clearly that, with this election, we are inaugurating an entirely new unit of county government, consisting of a greatly-reduced number of representatives selected by equal population districts. Until now, we've merely used geographic boundaries (townships, cities, villages).

In 46 of the 50 states, the largest division of local government is the county, the boundaries being set by the state legislature. Some states have very few counties, others many. Delaware has only 3 counties, Texas 254. In size, San Bernardino County, California, is 20,131 square miles, while New York County, New York, is only 22 square miles.

Kent County's present governing body is called the County Board of Supervisors. It is constituted of each of the Township Supervisors, together with other representatives of the cities and villages.

The one-man, one-vote principle (reapportionment), as it is now "extrapolated," forbids the County Board being made up on any purely regional, geographic basis. With the new board being chosen on a democratic basis and comprised of persons having no other government responsibilities, it is hoped the new unit will function with good success.

County government responsibilities will remain the same, including hospital, jail, library and poor house oversight. It will still levy taxes, build and maintain roads and bridges. The elective offices of sheriff, prosecuting Attorney, judges of probate, etc. will still be elective positions.

In place of the unwieldy 70 or so present board members, the new government will consist of 21 elected representatives, one from each of that many districts, and each district as nearly equal to each other as it can be presently determined by the 1960 census figures.

Following the 1970 census, the districts will be re-balanced; by then it is expected the members of the county governing unit will have become known as commissioners, to differentiate them from the township supervisors.

The election of our new county supervisor is an important part of the local government scene. Wasn't it Aristotle who said it is better to be governed by a good man than even by good laws?

Fallout Shelters Stocked

Members of the Kent County Civil Defense Unit last week stocked three area fallout shelters with provisions enough to care for a total of 549 persons, according to Ray J. Blett, co-ordinator of the program.

The shelters, located in the King Milling Company and the Junior High School in Lowell and in the new elementary school in Ada, were provisioned with sufficient biscuits and carbohydrate supplement, water drums, sanitation, medical and radiation kits to last for a two week period.

Plans call for 256 persons to be cared for in the King Milling fallout shelter, 216 in the Lowell Junior High School and 77 at the Ada Elementary building.

These are the first in the area to be stocked under a continuing program of preparedness. More locations will be surveyed by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers. Co-operating owners of buildings which have the necessary space available are also a necessity.

Unique Safety Test Friday

Students at Forest Hills High School will have front row seats this Friday, when some of their classmates learn the facts of life-on-the-highways.

Principal Howard Dalman said the event will be in the nature of a test-demonstration, designed to disprove the old notion that a car can be "stopped on a dime."

Two students, a faculty member and a policeman will take turns at the wheel of a specially-equipped car and will bring it to an emergency stop while traveling from 20 to 40 miles an hour. Other students will check the results.

The car is equipped so that distances can be measured accurately. An emergency signal light is mounted on the front of the car and three pistols are fastened to the front bumper. Aimed straight at the pavement, the pistols fire bullets of yellow paint which mark points at which the driver (1) sees the signal, (2) slams on the brakes, and (3) stops the car.

The automobile is supplied by Nationwide Insurance. A safety engineer for the firm will ride beside the driver and operate the equipment. Nationwide engineers have staged similar Traffic Safety Education programs before more than 7,000 student groups throughout the United States.

Friday's demonstration will be preceded by a student assembly during which students will be briefed on the program and hear an illustrated talk on the importance of driver attitudes. Dalman said the assembly will begin at 9:15 a. m. and the test will follow about 45 minutes later in the school parking lot.

Forest Hills Hi-Lites

BY SHIRLEY DYGERT

If post-game observations are a criteria, there should be a full house this Friday for the Homecoming Game between Forest Hills and West Ottawa.

After last week's win by the Rangers over Wyoming Park, the main topic of conversation throughout the area was just how well the Green and White had done.

One excited parent, in fact, even went so far as to suggest that Michigan State University might be a logical opponent at some future date!

That might be stretching things a bit... but it is nice to see that folks are getting behind the athletic program.

So don't forget Friday... there will be bands, floats and other events of interest. Plus the big dance Saturday. Get in on the fun!

There is a Second Best and Bake Goods sale coming on October 19 at the Ada Township Hall from 9-5. It will feature clothing for all ages, furniture and household items. This will be sponsored by the Ada PTO and the hard-working members are looking for contributions. These can be left at the hall the day before the sale or you can call Arden Bowes at 676-4921 or Dortha Forslund at 676-9423 for a pickup.

Doing fall cleaning? Here's your chance to get rid of those unwanted items and help a PTO at the same time.

Everyone is so busy at this time of the year getting pot projects underway that it is probably wise to take a few moments off for yourself. This is what Mary Goshorn did when she invited several of her friends for luncheon and a stroll through the woods. Later when the colors are more brilliant, she intends to ask more city-bound acquaintances to view our fall blessings.

Already underway is the 4-H program for this year. But more leaders are needed. There are so many categories that anyone with a skill is welcome to help. A display of work accomplished will be at Cascade East D & W this coming week. Sewing machines are needed for those who take clothing as a project. Call Betty Smith at 868-2366 if you can help.

If you think that you are rooting hard for the Detroit Tigers, what about the parents of Mickey and Ellen Stanley? Among their greatest fans are the James Stanleys, Thornapple Bayou, and the Al Terrells, Buttrick Ave. They can't help with tickets, but they'd appreciate your cheers.

'Dream' Kitchens Open for Tour October 10

BY PATT BAMBRICK

What's the best way to realize the home of your dreams?

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. VanDerVeen, 1091 Crampton, have what might be considered the perfect blend of talents to come up with just such a home.

The VanDerVeen home is one of the six homes selected to be on the Little League of Mary Free Bed Kitchen Tour next Thursday (Oct. 10).

Mrs. VanDerVeen had been at one time an interior decorator, and Mr. VanDerVeen is (what else?) an architect.

Needless to say, the result of all this is a home that is both beautiful and accommodating.

The VanDerVeen home is a pot pourri of designs and pieces from many lands. There are a number of original paintings, area rugs and tables from Spain, lighting fixtures from old Mexico, and several unusual pieces of bamboo furniture.

The kitchen is both functional and originally designed.

It boasts a sky light which filters in soft lighting during the daylight hours, and a counter overlooking the pool area.

The counter and sink are topped by an indoor garden. Several stools line the opposite side of the counter, and the floor is tiled, making it convenient for poolside entertaining.

At the Ralph Schlosser home, 7840 Conservation, we seemed to enter a dream world.

The home itself is set well back from the road, and is not visible from the road. A winding, wooded driveway, which crosses Honey Creek leads up to the house.

Once inside the Schlosser home, we proceeded to the kitchen, which also hosts the dining area.

The dining table is of boat-shaped rosewood, which glows from the light of the Spanish motif lantern that hangs overhead.

At the end of the dining area, a conical copper fireplace lends warmth to the setting. The fireplace is flanked by an antique scalding kettle used in this area by the farmers of bygone days, and a copper and brass Italian water jug.

The entire fireplace area is constructed of fieldstone, and features, on an adjacent wall, an indoor-outdoor barbecue grill.

Just off the kitchen-dining area is a screened patio, which looks out onto an expanse of thick green grass and stately old willow trees, and the ever-present gurgle of Honey Creek is heard as it passes over a small falls just off the corner of the patio area.

Another home we visited was that of Thomas Rockett, 6500 Grand River Drive, Ada.

The Rockett kitchen is original and designed to accommodate the informal type of entertaining that is their specialty. It is separated from the living-dining room area only by an expanse of counter and planter area.

Done in early American-Spanish decor, the counter tops are Spanish red, the birch cabinets are effectively stained black, and the stove is black.

There are two hand-made wrought iron lighting fixtures that were designed by the Rocketts which enhance the overall setting.

Other homes which are to be visited on the tour are Mr. and Mrs. William T. Crawford, 7091 Conservation; Mr. and Mrs. William T. Schneider, 901 Crampton; and Mr. and Mrs. Max Sarret, 6000 Grand River Drive, all located in Ada.

The tour will be held Thursday, October 10, from 1 to 5 p.m. The price of admission is $1.25, and tickets may be obtained by calling 452-7781, or at the site of the tour.

General chairman of the event is Mrs. James Gould; home selection, Mrs. Glen Borre; tickets, Mrs. Peter Peterson; refreshments, Mrs. Stewart Symonds; supplies, Mrs. Roland Logger; and publicity, Mrs. Joseph Kirchgesser.

Refreshments will be served at the Sarret home.

Proceeds from last year's successful tour of Ada homes were used to redecorate quarters for the therapists.

After a treat of peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, the Okihi group elected officers for the coming year.

Those elected were: President—Debbie McCambridge; Vice President—Meg Reynolds; Secretary—Vickie Austin; and Treasurer—Mary Jane Dey.

The group plans to raise money for a Halloween Party by holding a bake sale on October 5 at 10 a.m.

MANY NEW DRIVERS, STATE SURVEY SHOWS

There are more persons in Michigan learning to drive than ever before in history, a tally of temporary instruction driving permits revealed.

The Michigan Department of State reported that through September 17, with 3½ months still to go in 1968, nearly 161,000 instruction permits had been issued, as compared to 159,500 for all of 1967.

USUAL LIGHTS are found in the kitchen of the Thomas Rockett home, which also features a high A-shaped ceiling. It is separated from the living-dining area by a counter and planter area.

AN INDOOR GARDEN overhangs the sink and counter in the R. W. VanDerVeen home, one of six selected for the annual kitchen tour sponsored by the Little League of Mary Free Bed and scheduled for next Thursday (October 10) in the Ada area. The kitchen overlooks the pool area and features a skylight for soft lighting during the day.

Local Girl Recites Vows

The Central Seventh Day Adventist Church in Grand Rapids was the scene on August 11 of the marriage of Rhonda Mae Mullen and Alan Miles Atkins.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mullen of Pratt Lake Avenue in Lowell and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Atkins of Sault Ste. Marie.

The bride chose an A-line Watteau train. Her flowers were yellow and white roses and carnations.

Attending the bride were Karen Ayers of Grand Rapids as maid of honor, and Dianne Maccani of Bessemer, Pat Mullen of Lowell and Lee Ann Atkins of Sault Ste. Marie as bridesmaids. The honor attendants wore empire gowns in avocado and maize and carried yellow and white roses and carnations.

Bruce R. Atkins of Grand Ledge was his brother's best man. Brian Ranson of Sault Ste. Marie, Tom Mullen of Lowell, and Seigfred Grentz of Paris, Michigan, were groomsmen.

Ushers were Darwin Dickerson of Coopersville, Robert Wiltjer of Grand Rapids, Werner Grentz of Paris and Harry Mills of Sturgis.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the social rooms of the church. Master and mistress of ceremonies were Mr. and Mrs. James Ayers.

MR. AND MRS. ALAN M. ATKINS

The couple spent their honeymoon at Monocle Lake in the Lake Superior region. The bride will live at home with her parents while her husband is stationed in Vietnam.

Scholarship Test Due On Nov. 9th

On November 9th, 1968 the Michigan Competitive Scholarship Test will be given to some 30,000 Michigan high school seniors.

The results of this test are used as a basis for the distribution of all government monies for financial aid to college students. Some independent sources of scholarships and loans look to these test results for help in making scholarship and grand decisions also.

It is important, then, for all seniors who are planning now or may in the future make plans for education past high school to take this test if they will want any kind of financial assistance.

The materials necessary are available in the Guidance Office of the high school now.

DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THE TIRE PRESSURE ON YOUR CAR?

Do you know about the tire pressure on your car? Your tire pressure should be checked frequently. Uneven pressure causes wear on your tires.

Make a chart of tire switching arrangements. Each tire should be rotated for an equal period of time. This operation includes the spare.

Have your tires balanced and aligned each year. An unbalanced wheel pounds up and down. This causes excessive wear in the moving parts of the front end. It also causes the steering wheel to jiggle.

Another good idea is to check the windshield wiper blades of your car. Be sure the rubber has not hardened and cracked.

Wet the windshield and turn the wiper on to test this operation. Never test the wiper on a dry glass. The dust particles will scratch it.

Arrows Drop Squeaker; Rangers Gain Life in 34-0 Romp

Lowell Ledger-Suburban Life, October 3, 1968

Aerials Net Two Markers

BY FRAN SMITH

Things just don't seem to be getting any easier for Coach Jerry Smith and his Lowell High football Arrows.

Just when it appeared that defending Tri-River champion Rockford might not boast the powerhouse of old, the Rams turned in a stunning 33-20 upset of Greenville last week.

The Arrows, meanwhile, went down to a 19-12 defeat at the hands of Sparta in a well-contested game that saw Lowell battling into the final seconds in search of a tie.

Tomorrow night, the Arrows will seek to break out of their winless ways when they invade Rockford for a conference game at 7:30 p. m.

If there is to be a turning point in the '68 campaign for Lowell, it may have come midway in the final quarter against Sparta.

Trailing by a 13-0 count, the Arrows broke into the scoring column in a most exciting—and unusual—way.

Quarterback Mitch McMahon, apparently trapped for a long loss after having just completed a 2-yard pass to End Gale Schmidt, broke toward the sidelines and looked upfield. Standing at the Sparta 30 was End Ted Hoseth with only one defender for company.

McMahon reared back and let fly a high lob that Hoseth leaped to catch. Hoseth eluded his man and scampered into the end zone to make it 13-6. When Schmidt's run for the extra point missed, there was still hope... and 6:24 left on the clock.

Sparta failed to move following the kickoff and Halfback Rick Krause punted the ball dead on the Lowell 14.

McMahon lost six yards on a pass attempt and failed to gain on a thrust over center, leaving Lowell with a third-and-16 situation on its own eight.

But McMahon then hit End Curt Fonger in the right flat at the 30-yard line and the lanky flanker took off to complete a 92-yard scoring play with nary a Sparta hand being laid on him enroute.

Fullback Ken Roth failed to negotiate the extra-point try on a run and the score was 13-12 for Sparta with 3:36 remaining in the game.

On the ensuing kickoff, End Sid Blaauw gathered in the short kick and reached the Lowell 48 where it appeared he had fumbled. However, the officials ruled the ball dead and handed Lowell a 15-yard penalty for objecting to the quick whistle.

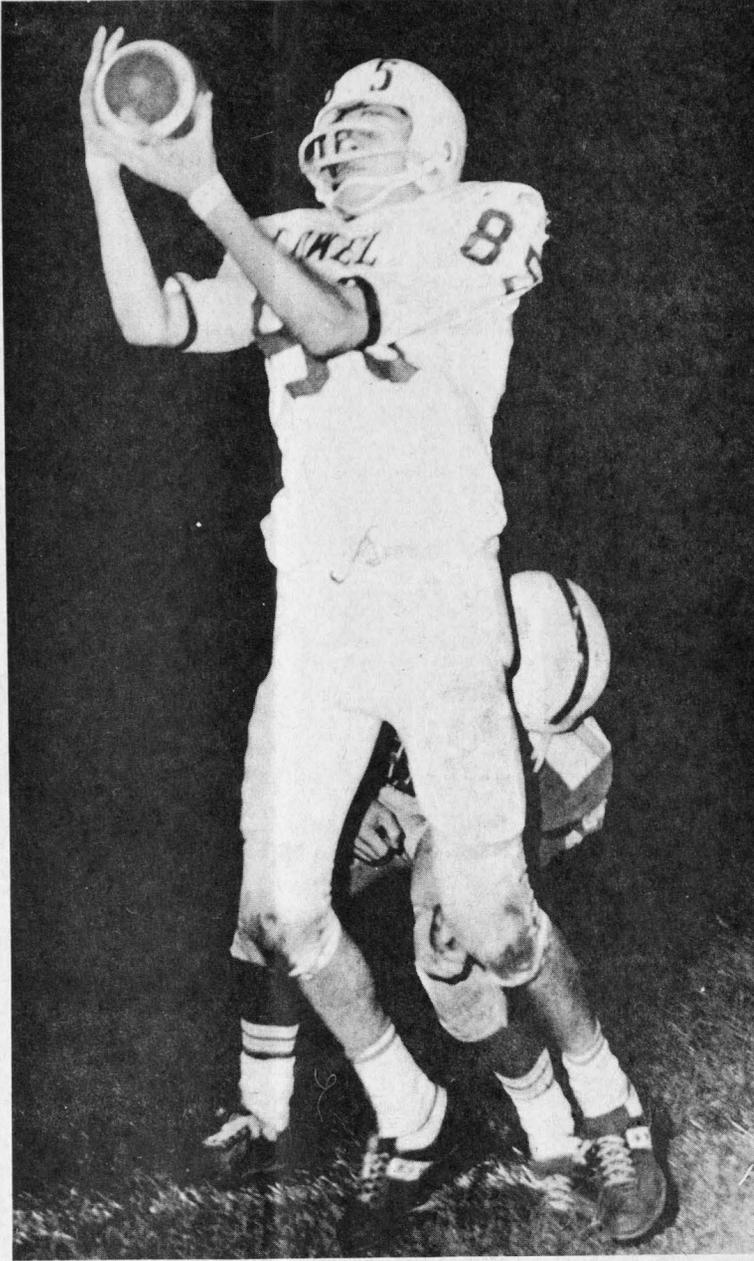

This set Sparta on its way to the clinching score with Halfback Mike Andrus scooting off tackle from the four-yard line with just 30 seconds remaining. Andrus had picked up a key first down in the short scoring thrust and a penalty against the Arrows gave an assist as well.

However, the Arrows gave it one more last try, returning to their own 45 with the kickoff. With time running out, McMahon found Schmidt at the Sparta 33 with an attempted "home run bomb," but Schmidt was pushed out of bounds just as the game ended.

"I thought our boys played well enough to win," said Coach Smith after the game. "I was proud of the way they rebounded after being down."

Smith noted that two bad breaks proved costly to Lowell... an interception by Sparta's Andrus that set up the winner's first touchdown and a fourth quarter fumble that led to the second tally.

Andrus scored Sparta's first TD, slashing to paydirt in the first quarter from one yard out to cap a 22-yard drive following the interception of a McMahon aerial.

TOO LITTLE, TOO LATE - End Gale Schmidt of Lowell stretches to catch game-ending pass while unidentified Sparta tackler pushes him out of bounds. The play took the Red Arrows to the opponents' 33-yard line, but time had already expired. Lowell dropped a 19-12 decision to the Spartans in Tri-River Conference game.

Guard Lynn Knauf gathered in a McMahon fumble on Lowell's 33 with eight minutes left in the game and the Spartans moved quickly to the end zone with Halfback John Hoffman streaking around end on the first play to the Arrows' two before Halfback Glen Bjork plunged in for the tally. Quarterback Corky Kik sneaked in for the extra point to make it 13-0.

The Arrows held a slender edge in the statistics, gaining 170 yards passing and 48 rushing for a total of 218 compared to Sparta's overall 177, of which 125 was accumulated on the ground.

Both teams managed to gain six first downs.

McMahon, who failed on two pass attempts in the first half, hit on all four efforts in the second half... and it might, hopefully, be a sign of better things to come for the Arrows in the remainder of the season.

Honors for the week on offense went to Center Steve Johnson, who also sparkled on defense with a blocked punt, and Halfback Pete Olson while Guard Ray Smith and End Blair Cahoon earned Coach Smith's plaudits for their defensive efforts.

Homecoming Next for Forest Hills

"I only hope there will be 5,000 people in the stands Friday night... these kids deserve all the support they can get."

These were the words of Coach Frank Rosengren shortly after his Forest Hills High football squad had scored an impressive 34-0 victory over Wyoming Park last week to get back into the title picture in the O-K Red Division.

Rosengren, who has instilled new life into the Rangers' grid fortunes, was referring to the homecoming game that sends the Hills eleven into action at 7:30 p. m. against undefeated West Ottawa.

"This just isn't the same team we started the season with," exclaimed Rosengren. "The offense has begun to jell and I can't say enough about the defense for the job they turned in against Wyoming."

Rosengren singled out Dan Mosher for particular praise, declaring:

"Dan turned in one of the finest games by a lineman that I've seen in a long, long time."

The Rangers mentor also was high in his praise of the other three members of the "front four"—Jim Meier, Rob McCormick and Bill Buell—and selected Fullback Randy Simon, guards Tom Dygert and Steve Grabarek and center Bob Roy for their offensive efforts.

"In fact," he added, "I'd like to mention every one of the boys. They all played an outstanding game."

The Rangers wasted no time getting on the board, ripping through the Wyoming defense for 78 yards on 10 plays the first time they got their hands on the ball following a Wyoming punt.

End Brad Van Sluyters hauled in a seven-yard pass from Quarterback Scott Wingeier for the payoff play after Simon and Halfback Stan Grochawalski had sparked the drive, the latter with a 12-yard gain on a Wingeier aerial. End Bob VandenBos kicked the first of four successful conversions to make it 7-0.

Midway through the second quarter, Forest Hills rambled 60 yards to their second TD with Grochawalski scoring on a seven-yard run.

The game's most spectacular play came moments later when End Tom Teft grabbed a one-handed interception and streaked past bewildered Wyoming defenders on a 67-yard gallop to the end zone. VandenBos' extra point made it 20-0 at halftime.

Arrow JV's Drop 26-6 Decision

Lowell High's junior varsity team was seeking to get back into the win column in a home clash with Rockford this Thursday night at 7 p. m. following a 26-6 setback at the hands of Sparta last week.

The junior Arrows committed several costly mistakes in the early going, spotting the Spartans a 13-0 lead in the first four minutes and then played a game of catch-up thereafter.

Halfback Denny DeWitt scored Lowell's solo touchdown on a 35-yard off tackle run following an interception by Quarterback Denny Kissinger in the third quarter.

The loss squared the JV's record at 1-1. In their opener with Greenville, Coach Bob Perry's eleven scored a 13-0 win on DeWitt's 15-yard run and a quarterback sneak by Kissinger.

Smithy on Sports

BY FRAN SMITH

We received a call following last week's story on the Lowell-Greenville football debacle from Ed Heighby, who coaches the Yellow Jackets.

I did not see the game, having taken the occasion to get my first look at Forest Hills High... which was in action at the same time against Kentwood.

The substance of Coach Heighby's remarks was that we had maligned his school and his team by inferring that Greenville had run up the score against Lowell.

The report was based on comments made to me by Lowell coaches and some rather knowledgeable football observers who felt, quite strongly, that a score of 53-0 was, indeed, a case of "running up the score."

In defense of his team, Coach Heighby denies the allegation... and, perhaps more importantly, is concerned with the effect that it might have on relations between the two schools in future athletic contests.

"I believe," he explained, "that we try to teach our young people that competition is a healthy condition. We try NOT to teach them to do things that others will resent."

Mrs. Helen Koewers, Mgr.

"It is embarrassing to all of us that this would have to happen in our first game in the Tri-River Conference. And I want the people in Lowell to know that we honestly did try to keep the score down by using second and third string players late in the game."

We appreciate the fact that Coach Heighby called. Every story has two sides; he feels he is entitled to explain his version and we are more than happy to print it.

What he says is true. Competition in athletics should be confined to the field, court, track, diamond or what have you.

It's only a game... and don't ever forget that!

We trust, coach, that folks hereabouts will bear Greenville no malice.

It would come as no surprise if folks at Forest Hills give Frank Rosengren a solid write-in vote in the presidential election.

One parent stopped in the other day to commend the new Rangers coach for his handling of the student-athletes at Forest Hills.

What also mattered, explained the parent, was that Rosengren is ready, willing and almost insists upon getting together with adults of the community to explain the game of football and how it affects the lives of students and athletes.

That, friends, is known as public relations. It's too bad there aren't more Frank Rosengrens in this world!

Final reminder: The Detroit Pistons and New York Knicks will meet in an exhibition game next Tuesday at Calvin College. Contact the athletic department for ticket reservations.

Putting-you-firsts:

(A quick tour of some of the thoughtful new features the 1969 Chevrolets offer that other cars in Chevrolet's field don't.)

Headlight washers
You push the windshield washer knob and hold it, and your headlights come clean. Fluid is diverted to two jet nozzles at each light lens. (Outer lights only on duals.) The spray removes up to 80% of accumulated dirt. The feature is standard on 1969 Corvettes. It comes with the hidden headlights available on Camaro, Caprice and Kingswood Estate Wagons. It is available on all other models except Corvair.

Heated glass
In a moment your rear window will self-defrost. Because we've built onto it a network of tiny ceramic strips capable of heating the entire surface. Fog and frost disappear quickly and quietly. You just flick a switch. The heated rear window is available on the 1969 Caprice Coupe and Impala Custom Coupe.

Pushbutton tire chains
You press a button on the instrument panel and the rear tires get a shot of "liquid tire chain."

Variable-ratio power steering
Is particularly helpful in short, full turns. And parking becomes unbelievably easy. You'll see.

Walk-in wagons
The tailgate swings open like a door on most of our 1969 station wagons. Which in itself is no big deal. But wait, there's more. We've built a concealed step into the rear bumper. You simply step up, over, and in. (The way we build our wagons, you can do it without bumping your head, and without acrobatics.) Walk into a wagon soon at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Steering wheel lock
When you own a car as desirable as the 1969 Chevrolet, you don't take chances. When you leave it, you lock it. Not just the doors. You lock the ignition, steering wheel and transmission lever, too. Our new lock on the steering column takes care of all that. Standard on all 1969 Chevrolets, Chevilles, Chevy Novas, Camaros and Corvettes. Sorry, car thieves.

Power steering plus
The 1969 Caprice, Impala and Camaro are available with a new type of power steering. Variable-ratio power steering. What it does is give you faster steering with fewer turns of the wheel.

Vacation in Florida to Champ

In lieu of winning the "1968 season point championship" for semi-late models, Tom Marks of Kalamazoo was awarded a week's vacation for two in Florida, a trophy, and top prize money at the Berlin Raceway Saturday night.

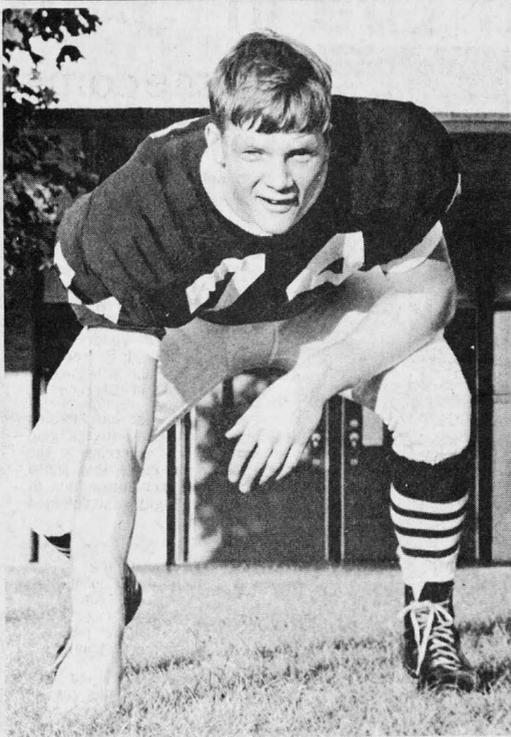

Marks compiled 960 points to edge out Bob Senneker of Grand Rapids for the title.

Veteran driver John Benson of Grand Rapids drove his 1965 Chevelle to victory in the final main event for semi-late models at the Berlin Raceway Saturday night.

In closing out the 1968 season, Benson forged past Rich Senneker of Grand Rapids on the 13th lap of the 25-lap event, and maintained an unchallengeable lead to cross the finish line first in the action packed event.

Jerry Spear of Battle Creek topped a 10-lap heat and carried the checkered in the Australian pursuit. Spear's final run was good for fifth place in the feature.

Heat race winners were Ron Peach, Larry Knowlton, Tom Marks, and Don VanderMolen.

Hills JV, Freshmen Win, Too

The magic combination for the Forest Hills High football teams so far this season is 2-1.

The varsity, junior varsity and freshman football squads all boast similar win-loss records as the season enters its fourth week.

Both the reserves and freshmen posted impressive wins over Wyoming Park last week, the former by a 33-20 score and the latter by a 25-0 margin.

Quarterback Ron VanderBaan connected on scoring passes good for 62 and 50 yards to End Al Henneveld and ran twice from Wyoming's one-yard line to account for four JV touchdowns. Fullback Mark Wynant's six-yard gallop in the opening period launched the five touchdown blitz.

Halfback Bob Warner scored all four of his team's tallies in a 25-0 romp for the freshmen. He raced to paydirt on runs of 60 and 12 yards, took a 40-yard pass from Quarterback Ted Zuiderveen for another and fell on Halfback Terry Dosenberry's fumble in the end zone for still another. Dosenberry ran for the lone extra point.

door twice in the third period without success, once reaching the Wyoming two-yard line before stopped by an interception.

However, the Vikings weren't able to contain the third drive of the period, a 40-yard march that ended with Simon plunging over from the two.

A Wingeier-to-Teft pass, good for nine yards, produced the Rangers' final tally early in the fourth quarter to cap a 65-yard march before Rosenflooded the field with his reserves.

Forest Hills dominated the statistics as well as the score, getting 16 first downs to but five for Wyoming Park and amassing 305 yards to 58 for the opposition.

Simon picked up 141 of the Rangers' total 186 yards rushing for a personal average of 8.4 yards on 17 carries. Grochawalski added 36 yards on nine attempts.

Wingeier found the range on nine of his 18 pass attempts for 119 yards with Teft his prime target, hauling in four completions for 86 yards. Grochawalski was the recipient of three completions for another 38 yards.

West Ottawa racked up a 7-0 win over stubborn Husdonville in its league opener, but rolled up an impressive 293 yards on land and in the air.

In the other conference game Godwin rebounded from an opening-game loss to Wyoming Park to nudge Kentwood, 14-10. Rogers, which shares the lead with West Ottawa, dropped a 13-0 decision to Kenowa in a non-league affair.

TAKE A BITE OUT OF WINTER WITH A Gilson SNOWTHROWER.

A rugged Gilson Snowthrower never bites off more than it can chew. Because proven dual-stage design takes on the roughest snow removal task. A big 16" diam. auger bites into the crustiest drifts, feeds the snow into a high-speed impeller — then whips it out the chute in any direction. The chute control — and all the others too — are right at your fingertips. For lighter assignments see the Gilson SS — with the same big 26" bite. All Gilson Snowthrowers are self-propelled, of course, and range from 5 to 7 h. p. Electric starting is optional. (At extra cost).

The key should be what's right for you? Have fun, try them all on, but take a friend you trust, who won't flatter you but tell you the truth, the honest truth, of course, about how you look in this or that.

Of course no friend, no matter how intimate, would ever tell you some truths. Which is why no gal should ever neglect to use a good deodorant like Desert Dri — a cream with its own applicator.
