Initial Phase of Cascade Water, Sewer Projects Underway

A major step toward development of Cascade Township's industrial complex at the intersection of I-96 and 28th Street is formally underway today.

The township board last week conducted a public hearing to determine a formula for creating a special assessment district that will provide payment over a 15-year period for installation of city water and sewers into the area.

Township Clerk Al Heemstra, who also serves as Utilities Development Coordinator for Cascade, pointed out to board members that the next order of business will be to conclude arrangements with the City of Grand Rapids and to apply to the Municipal Finance Commission for sale of bonds to underwrite the township's share of the project.

Under an agreement reached in May, 1967, Grand Rapids will extend water and sewer trunklines into the western part of the township on a participating funds basis.

Heemstra said that sale of bonds, planned for next February, should enable the project to get underway before spring.

Completion of water line installation is expected sometime in May and the sewer lines should be ready for area users by mid-July.

The first district extends along 28th Street east from Patterson Avenue to a point 2800 feet east of Kraft Avenue. The special assessment roll established the per front foot cost at $12 for sanitary sewer and $11 for water.

The agreement with Grand Rapids, similar to others in the metropolitan area, provides that when a group of property owners request utility service through formation of a special assessment district, the city will extend trunk service to the area.

The benefiting land owners are obligated to pay the assessments for the local main plus a connection fee and a monthly charge to the city. It is anticipated that these fees will be adequate to cover the cost of extending trunk service and providing sewage treatment and water supply.

Following ratification of the Grand Rapids-Cascade Township water franchise in 1967, the township board appointed a water and sewer advisory council and designated Heemstra to serve as Utilities Development Coordinator.

As its first order of business, the council surveyed general needs of the township. In conjunction with the Michigan Department of Health, a model contract for private and public water systems was developed to permit residential community systems to be developed which ultimately will be linked to the metropolitan system.

Two such local water operations are now fully in service and another is presently being designed.

In February of this year, Cascade Township retained a firm of consulting engineers to assist the water council. Further impetus to the program was given by the receipt of a series of requests for sewer and water services by several property owners planning extensive developments on the western boundary of the township.

Conferences with the City of Grand Rapids followed which led to agreement on a number of priority areas.

In April, the council held preliminary meetings with the City of Kentwood to coordinate utilities development programs and petitions circulated in the Kraft Avenue-28th Street area were later filed with the township.

The City of Grand Rapids then tentatively agreed to extend trunk service to the western portion of Cascade and to participate in financing the entire project.

The township board, acting on the petitions filed, held a series of public hearings in July and August.

GORDON A. DOHERTY

Will Bid for Judge of Probate

Gordon A. Doherty is a candidate for the non-partisan position of Kent County Probate Judge in next Tuesday's general election.

The 46-year-old Doherty was graduated from Ferris State College in 1947 and received his law degree in 1952 from the Detroit College of Law.

Doherty and his wife, Doris, have three children.

Admitted to the Michigan State Bar in 1952, Doherty is a member of the Grand Rapids Bar Association. He has served in numerous civic and community activities as a member of the Kent County Soldiers Relief Commission; judge advocate of AmVets Post 126; Junior Achievement Board of directors and Ferris State Alumni Association board of directors.

DANGEROUS SPOT - Only minor injuries were sustained in a two-car accident Tuesday on M-21 at Ada Drive, one of the "trouble spots" on the busy highway. Police officials warn motorists to use greater caution in this area, especially with fewer daylight hours during the fall and winter months.

The Village Smithy

BY FRAN SMITH

I don't know about you, but the Smithy has had it... right up to here... as far as the 1968 presidential election is concerned.

My eyes are bleary and my ears are ringing from the millions of words and pictures issued by or on behalf of the candidates for the highest office in the land, if not the world.

And the worst is yet to come. In the next five days, the candidates will pull out all stops... and king-makers will pledge still more money in an effort to bring about victory.

Where all this foolishness will end is anyone's guess. It may take an act of Congress... if men sitting on that august body have the intestinal fortitude to make such a move... to establish hard and fast guidelines for presidential campaign expenditures.

The media... press, radio, television... should establish within its own collective ranks a blue-ribbon panel to draw up a code of ethics that would, if enforced, throw into immediate discard any material not pertinent to the issues at hand.

This would go far toward eliminating the mud-slinging tactics so prevalent in this campaign... tactics that are being employed as a cover-up for the obvious inadequacies of all major candidates.

If there is one thing that Americans hold sacred it is the written and spoken word. Men have sweat, toiled... and even died... defending the freedom of press and speech.

But to be subjected to offensive gibberish every minute of the day and night is a horse of a different color. By forcibly restricting the intrusion of Madison Avenue into each campaign and by setting up a code that would cause every hack working for presidential candidates to think twice before putting words in his man's mouth, the entire country might be far better off.

And better educated in the long run, too!

Appearing on the ballot next week will be five state proposals that merit your study and consideration.

Two of them (No. 3 and 4) call for voter approval to set in motion separate campaigns to clean up the state's polluted waters and establish state participation in development of recreation areas.

They deserve a "yes" vote. Proposal No. 2 deals with establishment of Daylight Savings Time permanently for the state. We do not note that daylight time has produced any particular hardships... even for those who envisioned a complete disruption of business a year ago last summer when the subject was first taken before the public.

If anything, additional daylight has proved beneficial to Michigan's million-dollar tourist business... second largest industry in the state. It, too, deserves a "yes" vote.

Proposal No. 1 sets up the mechanics for permitting additional gouging of the taxpayer's depleted pockets in the form of graduated state income taxes and local income taxes.

Frankly, we are tired of being nicked at every turn for monies to sponsor each and every Federal, state and local project... many of which are little more than ludicrous schemes designed to satisfy political favors. This one deserves a "no."

The fifth proposal would, if approved, permit present state office-holders to seek other office before completing the term to which they were elected.

When a candidate pledges that he will work for the constituency if elected, the voter is entitled to the full measure of his efforts. If this were not true, then why bother to go through the mechanics of an election in the first place?

It has been claimed by some that a "no" vote would cause many highly-qualified men to shun public office... for fear they would not be able to advance their careers in government.

This we seriously doubt to be true. We have seen few men, once they have tasted of the public trough, to step out of office... for this reason or any other.

We are inclined to favor a "no" vote on this matter at this time. If events should prove us wrong, there is always the opportunity to bring this referendum before the public at a latter date.

Passenger Injured in Auto Crash

Following a two car accident at the entrance of Amway Corporation in Ada Tuesday morning, one woman passenger was hospitalized with facial lacerations and three other victims complained of bruises.

Ginny Lee Huisman, 5780 Hall Street, Grand Rapids, was driving westbound on Fulton. Nancy Lee Crawford, 6320 Buttrick, Alto, was crossing M-21 from Ada Drive into the Amway property. Her car was struck in the right rear fender by the Huisman car. A passenger, Mrs. Agnes T. Crawford, was taken to Butterworth Hospital by Mercy Ambulance for treatment.

Yard damage and destruction of some bushes occurred on the Amway property.

Sheriff's deputies indicated that Nancy Lee Crawford would be charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Area Youths Net $1,005 for UNICEF

An unprecedented generosity on the part of residents in the Ada, Cascade and Eastmont areas made for a total UNICEF collection of $1,005.79 over the past weekend.

This amount was collected by approximately 150 youth representing three churches of the area.

The youth, working in behalf of UNICEF, wish to thank the community as a whole for being so generous.

The showing from this area is extremely good in light of a total Kent County goal of $8,000.

Subscription Drive Nearing Completion

Forest Hills residents who have not yet taken advantage of the opportunity have just a few hours left to assist in a drive to raise funds for new wrestling mats for the senior and junior high schools.

The annual Suburban Life subscription drive will end this week and young salesmen and saleswomen from the junior high will start counting the returns to determine winners of a number of outstanding awards.

Exactly 50 percent of proceeds from the sale are turned over by the newspaper to the Forest Hills Booster Club, which each year contributes equipment to the school's athletic department.

Open House Nov. 7

All parents of Forest Hills High School students are invited to attend the annual open house, scheduled for Thursday, November 7.

An orientation period is scheduled for 7 p. m. in the gymnasium prior to the start of open house activities at 7:30.

Parents will meet with the teachers to discuss class schedule.

Refreshments will be served in the multi-purpose room at 9 p. m. by the Parents Coordinating Committee. Due to last year's large attendance for open house and increased enrollment this year, an even greater number of parents are expected. To accommodate the crowd, two serving tables will be used.

Committee for refreshments are Mrs. R. E. Van Slysters, chairman; Mrs. Winston Setchfield, Mrs. Thomas Eardley, Mrs. Robert Witzel, and Mrs. Joseph Hinton.

Members of the student council will act as guides.

New C of C Post Draws Local Man

The sunny climes of Tucson, Arizona are beckoning John G. Prickett of 7391 Conservation, NE, Ada.

Prickett announced last week that he is resigning as executive vice president of the Greater Grand Rapids Chamber of Commerce, effective December 1, to accept a position as executive director of the Tucson, C. of C.

He has served with the Grand Rapids Chamber of Commerce in the same capacity since January 1963.

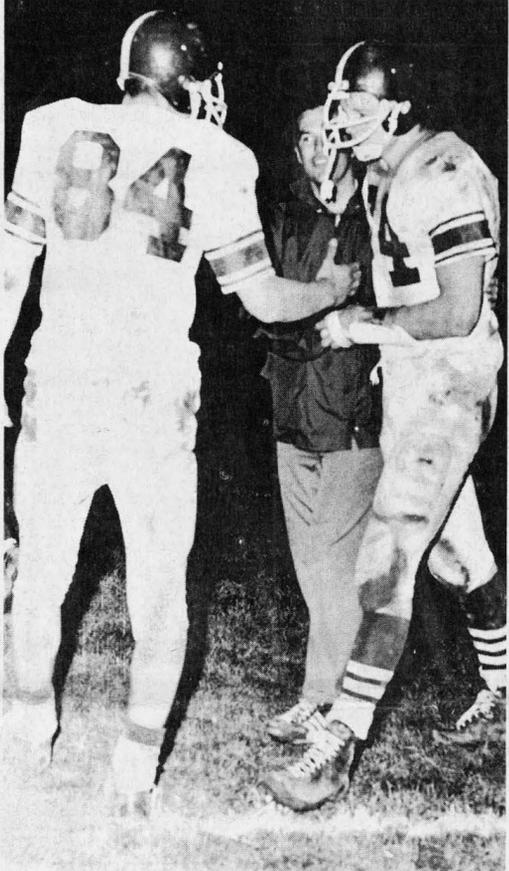

"It is with great reluctance that I leave my friends and associates in Grand Rapids," stated Prickett in announcing his resignation, "but I feel the challenge offered in Tucson is a most interesting one."

"I've enjoyed my association here and want to express my appreciation for the help and assistance I have received from our great business leadership and the dedicated staff I have worked with."

Fireman to Serve as Trick-Treat Hosts

Youngsters from Ada and Cascade planning to be out for Halloween this Thursday evening are reminded that firemen in both communities will serve as hosts for games and refreshments.

Parents are invited to attend with their youngsters.

WELCOMING PARTY - Tackle Dan Mosher has helped to prevent numerous scores, but he finally got into the scoring act himself when he picked off an opponents' pass and rambled 60 yards for a touchdown in Forest Hills High's 46-6 rout last week. End Tom Teft, who scored two TDs on passes, and happy Coach Frank Rosegren were on hand to greet him when he returned to the bench.

Study Helicopter Plan

Possible use of Armed Forces helicopter training crews for emergency ambulance service in Kent County was under study today in Washington.

Jack E. Smith of Ada disclosed that he has been advised by Michigan's two U. S. Senators—Philip Hart and Robert Griffin—that his recent suggestion for such a plan has been forwarded to the proper authorities.

Smith wrote Hart and Griffin asking that they investigate installation of a military helicopter training unit in Kent with an eye toward alleviating the present emergency ambulance problem in outlying areas of the county.

A real estate developer, Smith is a candidate for the new position of county supervisor from the 3rd District.

Cub Scouts Give Nod to HHH in Mock Vote

All the national polls of recent date indicate an upsurge in voter interest for Democratic hopeful Hubert Humphrey... and a "straw" vote by Cub Scouts in Grand Rapids Township last week reflects increased popularity for the vice president.

Members of the Webelos Den of Pack 3269 gave Humphrey four votes of the seven cast in the mock election, in which Scouts familiarized themselves with voting machines located in the township office.

The next time the machines will be used, all votes will be for real as voters cast their ballots next Tuesday in the general election.

In the meantime, residents wishing to learn more about machine voting are invited to avail themselves of the oppor-

Operation of Dump Problem

BY SHIRLEY DYGERT

The Ada Township Board took action at its semi-monthly meeting this week to study costs of operating the dump under a temporary license which could be issued by the Michigan Dept. of Health.

Presently, the dump is not being operated in compliance with the law which requires that it be covered with dirt every night. While Board members feel this is too costly for the local governmental agency, but they were told that if the dump were to be covered with at least six inches of dirt once a month, it would be allowed to continue operation until such time as Kent County dumps can be opened.

Between April 1 and October 1, the township dump has cost $1,875 to operate.

If it becomes prohibitive to bill at monthly intervals, the board may have to take action to close the dump, but it was agreed to keep the facility open as long as possible. The question of charging fees also was considered.

There is a stipulation in the dump law that prohibits burning at the location. Township authorities were notified that this dump was not being operated in accordance to that requirement.

In other action, the board agreed to obtain approximately twenty yards of top soil for use on each side of the driveway in front of the new fire barns. Volunteer firemen, on hand Wednesday night to prepare for the annual Halloween party, were to spread the dirt and prepare it for seeding.

A request to rent the old fire barn for storage purposes was submitted by Ada Hardware. It was agreed to rent the space and place funds from rental in a special fund for the purpose of building a municipal parking lot on township property on Headley.

The board also discussed the possibility of purchasing awnings, shades or screens for the east windows on the building to reduce heat and glare in the township offices.

Two new ordinances are being drawn by the township attorney Gene Alkama. One would call for removal of inoperable cars standing in the open, on streets or in fields. The other ordinance under consideration deals with swimming pool licenses. A law spelling out the safety requirements will be written and presented at the next township meeting.

Party Marks Birthday, Retirement

One hundred and sixty-five people were present at the Lake Odessa Community Building Friday night to honor Carl W. Behnke of 4804 Cascade Road SE on his 65th birthday.

The dinner also marked the eve of his retirement from the Hartford Insurance Group after twenty-five years of service. Behnke, who has received national recognition for his work in accident control and child safety, is past president of the Society of Safety Engineers and past director of the Grand Rapids Safety Council.

In addition, Behnke is widely known as "The Doll House Man." His fantastically intricate and ornate doll houses, hand-built with time-consuming attention to detail, have brought joy to many hundreds of children. He has also been cited by crippled and retarded children's organizations in recognition of his work in this area.

When questioned as to whether he would continue building doll houses in his retirement years, Behnke smiled and said, "At least one more."

Presiding as toastmaster was James B. Burr of the Hartford Insurance Group of Grand Rapids. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Benson, daughters and sons-in-law of Mr. Behnke, sponsored the dinner as hosts and hostesses. Mrs. Behnke was an honored guest of the evening.

The award was received by Postmaster Charles Doyle on behalf of Lowell's postal employees, who have participated 100 percent in buying United States Savings Bonds through the payroll deduction plan.

Letters to the Editor

Helicopter Use Not New Idea

To The Editor:

In a recent article by a local resident, on the use of government helicopters to provide ambulance service to Kent County, I would like to make a few comments.

This idea is not new. About 10 years ago, this idea was presented to the Board of Supervisors by Supervisor Ray Mathews. The judgement of the board at that time was that it was impractical.

This past year, it was again taken to the board for consideration. No affirmative action was taken. No other county in the state has approved this method.

Helicopters cannot be used in this area for this purpose. If an accident should occur on one of our highways at night, it would be impossible for a 'copter to locate the scene when the entire county is enveloped in darkness, with wires and poles and trees covering the landscape.

Also, if service 'copters should be used, they would be operated by partly trained personnel, strangers to this community.

There are no facilities at our hospitals to handle 'copters.

When the new County Board organizes a new ambulance committee will be formed to follow through on the study made by the present ambulance committee. Kent County will have an adequate and efficient ambulance service to protect and serve every part of Kent County.

Acclaim Sale, Open House Big Success

Two events sponsored by the Ada P.T.O. today had been acclaimed highly successful.

The annual Second Best and Bake Sale, held on October 19, produced more than $300 to help purchase equipment for the new elementary school. The bake sale netted $117.92 and a return of $206 was realized from the Second Best Sale.

An open house on October 22 drew a record crowd of parents, who toured the new school following a brief business meeting at which teachers were introduced.

Annexation Not Issue in Cascade

To The Editor:

Last Saturday afternoon, there was a meeting at the old town hall in Cascade Township. People gathered to discuss the "liquor by the glass" proposal to be voted on in next week's election. Sometimes election issues are confused—either deliberately or by accident. Whatever the reason, there was confusion at Saturday's meeting.

Apparently those promoting "liquor by the glass" in bars in Cascade Township are using the bogey-man of "annexation" to encourage voting liquor in. This is pure poppy-cock and the voters should know it. Annexation is a complicated legal maneuver. Recent legislation and Supreme Court decisions have eliminated the abuses of annexation seen in Grand Rapids a few years ago. Annexation need not be feared; it has absolutely nothing to do with the liquor issue before the people.

Look at one of our neighbors. East Grand Rapids has defeated annexation attempts many times. Still it has never found it necessary to have hard liquor by the glass in order to stay free. That is because the city fathers have not been stampeded by scare talk of the type Cascade heard at the meeting last Saturday. The safety of children and their neighborhood environment should be placed far ahead of those who want liquor bars not only in entertainment areas but also in a fine residential community like Cascade.

When election day arrives, it is to be hoped that no citizen will be scared into thinking he or she is voting on annexation when the only real issue is in bars in Cascade Township.

Tax Inquiries Are Questioned

To The Editor:

After listening to all of the campaign promises being made by the presidential candidates one begins to wonder if this nation would be better off with a non-politician, but there does not seem to be any such man seeking the office. All candidates and their running mates are mouthing the same accusations, but have themselves failed to set a good example of devotion and dedication to the needs of the country and its people.

For example, when 20 major oil companies showing a net profit of almost 5 billion dollars pay taxes averaging less than 9 percent of the profit, while the average American pays at least 10 percent on his net earnings, but it must be remembered that they have special interests protecting their tax privileges when they hand out large campaign contributions to both political parties.

Not until the people turn a deaf ear to these fantastic promises and can convince congress that these loop-holes in our tax structure must be plugged to give the average American a tax break.

So whether a Republican or Democrat is in the White House come next January the average American family is still going to be paying ninety percent of the federal governments' bills.

Sewer Project Eyed

The wheels of progress are beginning to speed up for the City of Lowell.

The city's Planning Commission took initial steps at its monthly meeting Monday to set into motion several projects that will eventually effect just about every resident.

One of these was consideration of a major storm sewer program which could be tied into a street improvement program.

"There is no doubt that the two should be considered together," explained City Manager Bernard C. Olson, "and they should be well enough along in the planning stage so that Lowell can be ready when and if Federal assistance funds become available."

A primary reason for wishing to expedite storm sewer construction is increased costs of materials, labor and interest, Olson says.

"If the city delays too much longer," he said, "the eventual cost might be far greater than can be safely predicted even now."

The planners also considered, for recommendation to the City Council, adoption of a new building code.

Such a code will be required... and must be in force for at least six months... before the city could submit to the Federal government a workable program. The latter is the initial step in seeking assistance from Washington.

The city recently agreed to hire J. Paul Jones & Associates as planning consultants. This firm is reputed to be a leader in formulating plans for cities seeking Federal assistance for improvement projects.

Olson told commission members that work on up-dating the city's zoning ordinance is now nearing completion and that he has advised Bagby & Associates, former planning consultants, to bring the zoning maps up-to-date.

Bagby & Associates had been working under a contract that called for a minimum number of hours per month, Olson said that 16 credit hours were still owing to the city under the contract.

Snowmobile Stolen from Rural Home

Ambitious thieves were at work at the home of Albert Lacic on 36th Street last week when a snowmobile parked near the barn was stolen.

Kent County Sheriff's deputies say that the machine was probably taken on Wednesday night although the loss wasn't discovered until later in the week when Lacic went to move it to a different location.

Deputies added that it would have taken several men and the use of a truck or trailer to remove the machine from the premises. They are continuing their investigation.

Mr. Lacic has offered a reward for information leading to the recovery of his stolen property.

TONY ZOOVAS

Fishing, Golf Await Retired Tony Zoovas

When Tony Zoovas turned off the grill Sunday night, it marked the end of a career in the restaurant business that covered more than a half-century of service to customers across mid-Michigan.

The last 13 of those years were spent as owner of the Showboat Restaurant in Lowell, which he sold last spring but continued to serve "just to help out."

For the next few weeks, the sprightly 70-year-old native of Greece plans nothing special. But after that, he'll head for Florida for fishing and golf... and then on long journeys to far places, perhaps including a stopover in his place of birth.

"I've worked just about every day since I came to this country as a boy of 13," Zoovas reminisced recently. "A good many of those were 18-20 hour work days, too."

"But I have no kicks coming. The only thing I will miss will be the many friends I have made in all those years."

Tony left his native Tripolis in Greece in 1910 to take up life in his newly-adopted country in Lancaster, Pa. He soon joined forces with another Greek boy, Louie Louis, and the pair set out for Flint... and fame and fortune.

"We started out shining shoes, cleaning hats... just about anything to make some money," he recalls. "Later, we opened the Lorraine Candy and Food Shop.

"Some of our best customers were guys like Charles Wilson, who was president of General Motors, and Bill Durant of Durant Motors. Heck, I used to go fishing with those fellows.

Following a long and prosperous association in Flint, Zoovas decided to strike out on his own and headed west... 20 miles into Owosso. From there, in 1932, he journeyed to Grand Rapids where he opened the Banquet Barbeque, a popular gathering place of politicians and civic leaders for many years.

Tony recalls fondly that most of Grand Rapids' elite gathered to assist him during World War II.

"I would give my employees a day off and those fellows would come by to help out," he says. "Every bit of money we took in on those days was donated to the war effort."

"Later on, we would give away free dinners to any customers who bought war bonds. Raised thousands of dollars, too."

Tony took over operation of the Green Parrot in Grand Rapids and ran that restaurant for seven years before moving to Lowell in 1953 to build and operate The Showboat.

Lowell Schools Get Go-Ahead to Borrow on State Financing

SPECIAL OCCASION - Mrs. Earl Ketcham of the VFW Auxiliary of Lowell and Mrs. Violet Miller, Auxiliary president, lend a helping hand as Jim Ball raises flag over St. Mary's School. The flag was a gift to the school from the local veterans organization.

Lowell Area School District officials today had taken steps to alleviate pressing financial problems by borrowing $110,000 on a short term note to help cover payroll expenses in November.

Low bidder on the note at 3.6 percent interest was State Savings Bank of Lowell.

The board of education borrowed against anticipated school aid subject for receipt next February 1 after Superintendent James C. Pace disclosed two weeks ago that there would be insufficient funds in the operating fund to meet payroll obligations in November.

Three paydays are scheduled during the month, each calling for an outlay of approximately $47,000.

Last June, the board sought and was granted a $100,000 loan at 3.85 percent interest to cover operating obligations for the summer months. This note is scheduled for re-payment next June 30.

The board, for the second time in three months, will look to the voters for assistance to solve the continuing problem of deficit spending when it holds a special millage election on Monday, November 25.

At that time, district residents will decide the fate of a proposed 7-mill operating tax levy for a two-year period.

This would be in addition to seven mills for the same purpose voted into existence for three years in 1967.

In August, a special election for 3.3 mills for a one-year period resulted in a 457-457 tie when a recount threw the vote into a deadlock after an apparent one-vote decision in favor of the millage.

In other action at Monday night's meeting, the board heard reports from Superintendent Pace on a proposal from Godwin Heights Schools calling for creation of a community college in Kent County and on an educational television project planned for area schools.

The board also learned that Pace and Belding Superintendent Muri Connor have met to discuss revision of the common boundary in Grattan Township.

This was in answer to a request from Lewis Marcellus that his property be transferred from the Lowell District to Belding.

Special committees from each district will be formed to study the matter with a joint meeting to be set at a later date. Recommendations would then be forwarded to the intermediate school boards for both Kent and Ionia counties, which must agree to any realignment of the boundary.

Mueller Retains Seat as Road Chairman

It was a tough struggle... with opposition from a comic strip character thrown in for good measure... but Ed Mueller, veteran chairman of the Kent County Roads and Parks Commission has been returned to that seat for another six-year term.

Mueller, who hails from Vergennes Township, successfully defeated Al VanderLaan in balloting last week by the Board of Supervisors.

It took three ballots and an opinion from county legal counsel George Cook of Lowell before the supervisors made up their minds.

Included in the balloting was a dissenting vote from one disgruntled member of the board who gave as his selection "Snoopy," popular member of the "Peanuts" cartoon family.

Mueller failed to muster the necessary 39 votes needed for re-election of the first ballot, but built up a slightly larger edge on the second ballot.

By then, board members had solicited an opinion from Cook to the effect that it was entirely possible that a simple majority of members present and voting might be all that was necessary.

Cook's opinion was based on a recent State Supreme Court ruling that settled another similar vote in Michigan.

VanderLaan backers then sought, unsuccessfully, to have the entire matter held over until November 13, but this was quickly squelched.

The third ballot finally produced 41 votes and victory for Mueller, who has been active in county government for 31 years... the last six as chairman of the roads and parks commission.

The loss was the second political setback for VanderLaan in three months. He was defeated by Gerrit Baker, Cascade Township Supervisor, in the August 6 primary race for Republican nominee to the position as Third District Supervisor on the reorganized county board.

VanderLaan remains as the chairman of the powerful Finance Committee, a position he could retain in view of the fact that members of this committee need not be on the board of supervisors. He will

UF Drive Nears End in Lowell

With the end of the campaign in sight, United Fund co-chairman Roger Roberts reports that if the early returns hold up, this year's drive in Lowell will go over the projected goal of $6,000.

The Lowell drive is co-chaired by Roberts representing the Rotary Club and Trent Geldersma of the Lions Clubs.

Campaign workers have been sent out canvassing the city's businesses for the past two weeks. A complete report will be made next week.

Michigan State University conducts a number of wide-ranging courses, but its most unusual program is held each summer on the Juneau Icefield in Alaska. Last summer, about two dozen students participated in the eight-week institute in glacier science.

Possession of Alcohol Nets Fines

Two brothers from Ovid paid fines and costs amounting to $60 each after pleading guilty to a charge of minors in possession before Justice Howard Rittenger last week.

Michael Patrick, 20, and Walter Patrick, 18, were stopped by Lowell police for failing to signal for a turn while driving in the city. They turned into a private residence in an effort to elude police, the report indicates.

Upon investigation, it was discovered that alcoholic beverages were in the car.

A 16-year-old taken into custody at the same time was taken to the Kent County Detention Home, from which he had been missing for several months.

Wilbur Street, 36, whose last known address was Lorain, O., was arrested on a charge of drunk and disorderly last Saturday. He was arraigned before Justice Rittenger and remanded to Kent County Jail.

Two minor accidents were reported on city streets.

Richard Coureter, 21, of Saranac was ticketed Monday for driving too fast for existing conditions after his car swerved on East Main and snapped off a utility pole. It was raining at the time. Coureter was ordered to appear in justice court.

Mrs. Rose Fonger of 619 Monroe, Lowell, was ticketed for driving left of center after the car which she was driving on Monroe struck a car driven by Mrs. Nedra Bristol of 825 Hunt, Lowell. Mrs. Fonger told police the brakes locked after the car stalled causing her to swerve.

Rangers' Victory Assures Co-Title in O-K Red Loop

BY FRAN SMITH

"There will be no letdown... all of us want an outright championship so bad we can taste it."

These were the words uttered by Coach Frank Rosengren just moments after his powerful Forest Hills High football team had clinched at least a co-championship in the Ottawa-Kent Red Division by annihilating Hudsonville, 46-6, in last week's home finale.

The lone hurdle standing between the Rangers and outright possession of the crown is Rogers, which occupies 6th place in the circuit with a 1-4 record.

The grid championship is the first for Forest Hills since the 1961 squad posted a 7-1 record under the guidance of Ed Sly, present Green and White athletic director.

Game time at Rogers Friday is 7:30 p. m. and Rosengren is hopeful that a large contingent of Ranger rooters will be on hand to see to climatic tilt.

The trip would be well worth the effort for those wishing to see one of the finest Class B teams in state perform as a unit for the final time.

The Rangers' victory over Hudsonville boosted them among the top "B" squads in Michigan... an honor never before enjoyed by any Forest Hills athletic squad.

"These kids deserve all the recognition they can get," declares Rosengren, "but I can't emphasize too strongly that we could get beat if we don't work for victory."

Fullback Randy Simon and Tackle Dan Mosher, two likely candidates for all-state honors, turned in outstanding efforts against Hudsonville in the final showing before the home folks.

Smithy on Sports

BY FRAN SMITH

Congratulations are in order for Forest Hills High's football team, which stands today on the brink of its finest season.

The Rangers have a co-championship locked up in the O-K Red Division, presently are rated in the Top 10 in Class B (courtesy of my old friend Hal "Swami" Schram of the friendly Free Press) and can cap off a 7-1 record with a win Friday that would give them an outright title.

Quite a turn-about-face for a team that went 18 games without a win extending into the sixth game of the 1967 season.

We might be inclined to say "well done" except for the small matter of winning against Rogers. But we'll be happy to do so later.

Let's hope that basketball will offer more for Lowell High fans to cheer about than this disastrous football season.

If you think it's unpleasant to live with a winless record, imagine what it's like to write about same.

But take heart, Arrows... there's always next year!

Mighty fine football weekend for state fans, what with Michigan moving in on the Big 10 championship and Michigan State upending powerful Notre Dame.

Tale of 7th Grid Loss: Too Little, Too Late Again

If Lowell High's 1968 football team is to avert posting one of the worst records in Red Arrow history, it will need a victory in the season finale on the home gridiron this Friday night.

Coach Jerry Smith's winless gridders meet Comstock Park at Recreation Field at 7:30 p. m. seeking to snap out of a season-long slump that has failed to produce victory in seven starts.

Racked by key injuries before the campaign started, the Arrows have suffered one embarrassment after another... though three of the losses were by single-touchdown margins.

The latest of these was incurred last Friday night when the Red and White came up with two touchdowns in the final quarter before bowing at Coopersville in their Tri-River Conference meeting by a 20-14 count.

As in previous defeats to Sparta (19-12) and Belding (20-13), it was simply a matter of too little, too late for Lowell in its initial league battle with Tri-River newcomer Coopersville.

The Arrows spotted the Broncos a 20-0 advantage, then proceeded to play "catch-up" football in the second half.

Statistically, Lowell came up with one of its best efforts of the campaign, collecting 11 first downs to 12 for the win-

Lowell JVs Drop 13-6 'Squeaker'

A "broken play" that resulted in a first down enabled Coopersville to keep a late drive in motion, with the result that Lowell High's junior varsity went down to defeat last week by a 13-6 score.

Leading 7-6 with time running out, Coopersville was backed deep in its own territory. The Broncos were in punt formation when the snap from center went astray. By the time Lowell's defense stopped the action, Coopersville had a first down and was off and running for its insurance marker.

Coopersville scored first in the tightly-contested game and held a 7-0 lead at the intermission.

Lowell scored its only TD in the third quarter on Sid Haywood's one-yard smash following a 60-yard pass-run play from Denny DeWitt to Dennis Kissingier.

Forest Hills Hi-Lites

BY SHIRLEY DYGERT

Does the wind whistle around the corners of your house? Do you seem to hear footsteps outside the door? Look out! It's goblin and ghost time.

Warning, here are some of the houses to avoid if you are superstitious. These are black cat owners: Peter Price, Geo. McClellan, Norman Wride, Don Harrington, Tom Rockett, Jim Banta, and Ron Boersma.

Speaking of black cats, witches, and other mystifying subjects, a walk through the Eastbrook Mall this week will give you chills and thrills viewing Halloween scenes. All are part of a contest between students of Forest Hills 8th grade and those of Kentwood. Bruce Smith, art teacher in the Jr. High, has been spending a great deal of his time working with the creators of the tempera paintings which appear on wooden panels. Although the theme is seasonal, the execution is varied. Prizes were awarded Wednesday after the judging by Mrs. Elizabeth Bremer and Mrs. Diane Herbert of the East Grand Rapids Community Art Center. The contest is being cosponsored by East Kiwanis and Eastbrook.

Another kind of art show is opening November 5 in the main foyer on the ground level of the Old Kent Building. This is being given by the Grand Valley Artists Association, the largest working group of its kind in western Michigan. Among its hundred members are some local people, well known for their ability: Erwin Gutsell of Cascade, Jan Johnson and Keith Avery of Lowell and Jean Rockett of Ada. The membership includes amateurs and professionals. This showing will include over 70 paintings in several media. They will be on display for two weeks.

Last Saturday brought on some pre-Halloween parties. Lori Anderson entertained five other young ladies at her home and her mother helped them make deep chocolate fudge & orange taffy. After the pulling contest, weird tales were told until it was time to try to slumber.

At Marilyn and John Roes, guests arrived for witches brew with screeches of glee greeting each couple's costumes. The most startling creature was dreamed up by Jack Havemeyer who came as a Dali painting replete with dripping watches and a column on his head.

Carol Laux Becomes Bride of R.L. Briggs

The First United Methodist Church of Lowell was the setting Friday evening, October 25th for the wedding of Carol May Laux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lyle Laux of Lowell, and Richard Lee Briggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Briggs, also of Lowell.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. Robert Webber, pastor of the church.

For the service, the bride chose a floor length A line gown of Venitian Lace bodice with an empire waist and Selli Organza full back. A chapel-length detachable shoulder lace train complimented her gown. A Selli Organza cloche secured her fingertip illusion veil.

Mrs. Sandra Dudley of Lowell was matron of honor. She wore a floor length olive green brocade gown with scalloped neckline and short trumpet sleeves. The dress also had a detachable waist-length train of the same material secured by a brocade bow.

Mrs. Susan Boyce of Midland, Kathy Walquist of Lowell and JoEllen Schneider of Grand Rapids, niece of the groom, assisted as the bridesmaids. Their dresses were of gold brocade similar to the Matron of Honor's.

Miss Jennifer Schmedier, the niece of the groom, was flower girl wearing a street length dress of olive green trimmed in gold, similar to the bridesmaids.

Each of the girls wore headpieces of double brocade bows and netting to match their dresses.

Michael Smith of Lowell served as best man; Howard Briggs, brother of the groom, John Briggs, cousin of the groom and Daniel Hendrick, nephew of the groom, were groomsmen.

A reception was held in the Moose Hall following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Apple of Lansing, aunt and uncle of the bride, served as Mistress and Master of Ceremony for the evening.

The couple are honeymooning in Northern Michigan and Wisconsin. After their return, they will be at home at 126 West Street in Lowell.

Plan Refresher Course for LPN's

For the first time in the area, a refresher course is being offered to Licensed Practical Nurses. Sponsored by the In-Service Education Department of the Nursing Service Division of Saint Mary's Hospital the course will offer the opportunity to inactive LPN's to brush-up on their profession and in the manner in which they function as a part of today's medical team.

The course will consist of lectures, demonstrations and experience in clinical areas. Beginning November 11, it will last for five weeks. It will meet from 7 a. m. to 3 p. m. Monday, through Thursday of those five weeks.

Anyone wishing further information, or wishing to make an appointment for interview, should call the Nursing Service Office of Saint Mary's (GL 93131) before November 1.

Married in Port Huron

Judith A. Caulkett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Caulkett of Port Huron, Michigan, and John D. Myers, son of Dr. Harold Myers, 407 N. Division St., and Mrs. Harold Jefferies, 504 Lincoln Lake Avenue, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at the First United Methodist Church, Port Huron.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory satin gown with belted waist and shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of long-stemmed white roses.

Her maid of honor, Joanne Myers, sister of the groom, wore a powder blue gown and carried pink roses.

Larry Myers, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were David Caulkett, brother of the bride, and Donald Rapley, Jr., cousin of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception dinner was held at the Holiday Inn.

After a short wedding trip to Canada, the newlyweds will be at home at 1804 Hamilton Rd., Okemos, Mich., while Mr. Myers is completing his studies in Business Administration at Michigan State University.

'Santa Claus Special' for Service Mail

Tons of Christmas gifts will be going to members of the Armed Forces in Vietnam by special ship this year, thanks to a joint Pentagon-Post Office venture.

A fast U. S. cargo ship will be designated the '1968 SANTA CLAUS SPECIAL,' sailing from Oakland, California next month with Christmas parcels.

To meet the sailing deadline and assure pre-holiday delivery of gifts sent with surface postage, items should be mailed during the October 14-November 9 period.

They should be marked "SANTA CLAUS SPECIAL" just below the stamps.

The ship will sail during the latter half of November and stop at Da Nang, Qui Nhon, Cam Rahn Bay and Saigon, Vietnam. It takes approximately three weeks for a fast ship to cross the ocean.

All gifts should be packed in strong containers with adequate cushioning and correctly addressed, including APO and FPO numbers.

There are several options available for mailing to the military which can save money.

Equestriene Wins With Secret Way Local Child Meets Nixon, Politicians

Another award has been added to the many others accrued by one of Western Michigan's, and the nation's, outstanding equestriennes.

Jeanne Metsker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Metsker of 2434 Beechwood Drive SE, recently competed in the 23rd Annual Pennsylvania National Horse Show, and placed 3rd in the American Horse Show Association Medal Class National Championship finals aboard her horse, Secret Way.

Jeanne also placed third in the $250 Junior Working Hunter Stake and 6th in Junior Open Working Hunter and has also qualified with her horse, Scooter T, for the National Dressage finals to be held in Gladstone, New Jersey.

Jeanne is the first person from this area to either qualify for the Dressage finals or place in the Medal Finals.

She rides at the Kentree School for Horsemanship, and is under the instruction of Mrs. Mary Ann Cowan.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my deepest appreciation to my friends and relatives for their many cards, letters and remembrances during my recent hospitalization.

Girls League Bake Sale at Ada Square

The Girls League of Ada Community Reformed Church will have their annual bake sale in the Ada Shoppers Square this Saturday at 10 a. m.

The Girls League is made up of high school and college girls. They meet once a month, have Bible lessons, discussion groups and socialize.

Proceeds from their activities are used to support missions throughout the world.

Lutheran's Hold Rally on Sunday

Twenty-one Lutheran congregations in the Grand Rapids area will sponsor a Reformation Rally at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Michigan at Division, on Sunday, November 3, beginning at 3 p. m.

Rev. Andrew M. Weyermann, professor of preaching at Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri, will present the sermon. The public is invited to attend.

Election Day Luncheon Set Next Tuesday

The Dennison Guild of Cascade Christian Church will serve its annual Election Day Luncheon next Tuesday, November 5, beginning at noon.

The luncheon goes back over a hundred years ago when the farmers came into the village of Cascade to vote and stay to hear the results of the election.

Women of the church would spend hours preparing meals for the voters and it was a day all looked forward to.

Residents are invited to the Election Day Luncheon. There is no set price, a free-will donation for lunch will be accepted.

Centuries ago, apothecaries prepared their own medicines from available herbs, leaves and roots. From these materials gathered in nearby woods and fields, they prepared extracts and infusions to treat a variety of ailments. Each chemist had his own secret file of "receipts" that would cure stomach aches, skin disorders, and general weariness. If he wasn't afraid of being accused of witchcraft, he might even be able to whip up a love potion or two.

These chemists often placed the bottles of multi-colored liquids on shelves or windowsills, where they didn't take up too much space but were readily available. These bottles gradually became identified with the chemist's shop, just as three golden balls and a striped pole marked the pawn shop and barber shop.

Today, of course, drugs are developed through intensive research, and the pharmacist has a difficult enough job keeping track of these without preparing all his own compounds. But you still see ornate bottles of colored water in many drug stores, as a professional symbol. These "show globes" are a reminder of the druggist's heritage and tradition, even in this day of antibiotics, hormones and other "wonder drugs."

Meanwhile, drug researchers have turned back to the old apothecary recipes, to see if there is an active ingredient that can be extracted from the same roots and herbs the ancient chemists used for so long.

Sacred Music to be Offered Here Nov. 12

The public is invited to a special guest meeting on Tuesday, November 12, at 8 p. m. at the Ada Community Reformed Church.

The guests for the evening will be the well-known hymn writer and choral director, John W. Peterson, and the Melodyaires Quartet. Their accompanist is the equally famous Harold DeCou.

They will present a program of sacred inspirational songs which have been written by John Peterson. Among them are "Heaven Came Down and Glory Filled My Soul," "It Took a Miracle" and "Over the Sunset Mountains."

Peterson is president and editor-in-chief and DeCou is music editor and arranger of the sacred music publishing firm, Singaspiration, Inc.

A free-will offering will be taken during the evening. Following the program, refreshments will be served in the church parlors.

MYF Plans Collection for UNICEF

The Jr. and Sr. High youth of the First United Methodist Church of Lowell will be participating in the Kent County collection for UNICEF. The United Nations Children's Fund.

UNICEF dollars help provide essential food, medicines and other items for many of the world's needy children. You can help the world's needy children and also see that Lowell's giving level is on a par with other Kent county communities by responding to the call, "Trick or Treat for UNICEF," with a contribution.

The Methodist youth will be collecting on Halloween night, October 31, starting about 7:30 p. m.

If you should be missed and wish to make a contribution, please call the Methodist Church (897-7514).

Lowell Drops No. 7

the Arrows into scoring position.

In all, McMahon went to the air 27 times and connected on 14 tosses while two others were intercepted.

A fumble and a blocked punt set up both Bronco markers in the first half and Coopersville rushed to the clinching score by taking the opening kickoff in the second half 70 yards to paydirt.

Halfback Kelvin Bennink covered a Lowell fumble late in the first quarter on the Arrows' 40-yard line. Coopersville reached the end zone 12 plays later on a nine-yard pass from Quarterback Joe Wurm to Halfback Herb Van-Timmerman. Jerry Toogood's conversion made it 7-0.

After Lowell failed to move the chain markers following the kick-off, the Arrows' Steve Johnson attempted to boot his team out of trouble. However, the punt was blocked and Coopersville had the ball on Lowell's 37-yard line.

On the second scrimmage play, Wurm passed to Bennink for a 31-yard touchdown thrust and Toogood's second point try made it 14-0.

Coopersville threatened again before the half, recovering a Lowell fumble on the visitors' 15-yard line, but the Red and White defense rose to the occasion and snuffed the drive at their own seven.

Coopersville collected six of its nine first downs rushing in the second half and five of them came on a 70-yard march at the outset of the third quarter.

Fullback Dennis Klein produced most of the yardage during the sustained drive, which ended with Klein catching a 20-yard payoff pass from Wurm. The point try failed and Coopersville led, 20-0.

An interception of another Wurm aerial by Lowell's Gale Schmidt set up the first touchdown for the Red and White. McMahon hit ends Curt Fonger and Ted Hoseth with three completions during the 45-yard march and Halfback Bill Bennett picked up another seven yards around end to bring about McMahon's initial quarterback sneak to paydirt.

Lowell stopped Coopersville on its own 28 with less than five minutes remaining in the game and roared to its second TD on the arm of McMahon and the aid of two pass interference penalties.

McMahon hit on four of seven attempts in the march, including a 15-yarder to Hoseth that carried to the goal line. He sneaked over from there and passed to Fonger to make it 20-14 with 1:34 left on the clock.

In other league action, defending champion Rockford roared closer to a repeat title with a 61-8 triumph over Belding that assured no less than a co-championship for the powerful Rams.

Sparta blanked Cedar Springs, 13-0, to keep its slim title hopes alive and Greenville in their deadlock for third place with a 7-6 decision over Comstock Park.

CAR CARE TODAY

MARCE KROPP

DUKE THOMET

Care of car information instruments is vital. If they are not functioning correctly, you will be fed incorrect information. Have all gauges checked regularly.

There are seven important gauges. They reveal symptoms which can forewarn of impending trouble. Cultivate the habit of glancing at these gauges often.

Heading the list is the fuel gauge. It indicates the amount of gasoline in the tank. Keep your tank filled to avoid running out of gas.

The ammeter indicates the flow of electricity from the battery. A positive (plus) reading means the battery is being charged. More electricity is going into the battery than flowing out.

A negative (minus) reading means the battery is being discharged. More electricity is being used than replaced.

Watch Next Week for "More About The Ammeter"

Dear Mr. Ford,

There just aren't enough words to tell you how much I appreciate all the help you gave the family and myself in getting some of my late husband's Social Security...

May I say in closing you certainly are a man very interested in problems that concern people who need a helping hand. A very warm thanks from the bottom of my heart and may God Bless You in your work.

Mr. Melvin Rowe
Belding

Dear Mr. Ford:

First let me apologize for taking so long to send you this thank you note....

My only regret is that I didn't there is someone who has the welfare of his people at heart. It makes us feel that we still have something to say in matters of importance.

Judy L. DeJager

Dear Mr. Ford,

We have received a letter and check from the Detroit Club for the copies we gave letters to them - thanks to you and your staff to them.

It seems amazing to me that a man so busy as you would take the time to attend to a small matter like this and it must seem small to you. I am so happy that you have the time to do this manner and an attempt to correct it by postal authorities when it is a man's duty to attend to their attention.

Thank you again and best wishes for the coming election.

Sincerely,
E. Robert Basinger
