Chris Kropf of Lowell was injured Saturday night around 11:35 p.m., when his car veered out of control and struck the fencing adjacent to St. Mary's Cemetery on Lincoln Lake Avenue.

Conditions for a blooming spring have sprung with the good warm weather we've been encountering, along with scattered rain showers. Morels, smelt, mosquitos, etc., should all be out in force.

Three female juveniles were apprehended for shoplifting last Tuesday at Lippert's Pharmacy on East Main Street.

This Saturday night, don't forget to turn your clocks ahead one hour when you retire for the night. Daylight savings time goes into effect again at 2 a.m., April 25.

The next regular meeting of the Lowell Area Schools' Board of Education scheduled for April 26, 1976, has been cancelled.

Do you have any old pictures of Lowell? Jim Maatman and Roger VanVleck of Modern Photographics at 104 West Main Street, Lowell, are putting together a slide program on the history of Lowell, and would like to borrow any old pictures to be copied for slides. If you have any pictures, give them a call after 3:30 in the afternoon at 897-5606.

It's Kindergarten Round-Up Time

Kindergarten roundup will be conducted somewhat differently this year in the Lowell Area

Prior to bringing in the prospective kindergartners, we are asking their parents to come in to a Parents' Meeting according to the following schedule:

Bushnell, Monday, April 26, 7:30 p.m. in the Bushnell Kiva.

Runciman, Wednesday, April 28, 7:30 p.m. in the Runciman All-Purpose Room.

Alto, Thursday, April 29, at 7:30 p.m. in the Alto Kiva.

Parents not sure of the elementary school where their child will attend may call 897-8415 to secure this information.

The parent meetings will provide an opportunity for par-ents to discuss with the school staff joint concerns for successful school attendance and experlences. Registration forms and information will be provided and appointment times set up for the children to attend a Screening Program. Presentations will be made by the building principal, the school nurse, speech thera-pist, kindergarten teachers, and the transportation supervisor.

The primary purpose of Kin-dergarten Roundup is to help parents and school personnel gather as much information as possible and to share in the planning to make school a successful experience for the Materials will be available to assist parents in preparing their children to attend school in the fall. Where special problems are evident, appropriate specialists will be available to recommend help for the children.

Parents having any questions or who are unable to attend these meetings are asked to contact the building principal since this information is vital for school planning.

Free babysitting will be provided at these meetings.

Board Implements Pilot Program On Suspension

High School Principal Dennis McMahon was given the goahead Monday night to implement a pilot program regarding suspension and expulsion for the rest of this school year, "as long as it doesn't cost any

In his request before school board members, McMahon said that under the present policy, whenever a student is temporarily suspended from school he is sent home where it is up to the parents to determine whether he studies at home or watches television or sleeps all day. In some cases where both parents work it is impossible for them to properly supervise a student on McMahon's suggestion is to have the student remain in the high school building but be confined to one area for the entire six hours where he would be expected to study or read. Even his lunch period would be spent in that section.

For the remainder of this year, the suspended students will be confined to one section of the study hall with the study hall supervisor responsible for them.

At this point, the new policy will apply only to students on suspension for infractions of attendance and tardiness rules.

Rough Draft

Mrs. Judy Jansma spoke briefly at the meeting as a representative of the communications study committee and displayed a rough draft of an information brochure to be sent to all residents of the school district and kept on hand at Real Estate offices and the Chamber of Commerce for new residents moving into the community.

Mrs. Jansma explained that the committee's intention was to have the board foot the original cost of approximately $300, and then, hopefully, Real Estate companies might continue the printing as they needed them. The brochures would contain photos and information about the entire Lowell area, not just school information, although the latter would be a vital part.

Good Rapport

Board members who attended the recent national school board convention in San Francisco gave brief reports, the consen-sus of which indicated that Lowell doesn't seem to be having all the big problems that are plaguing districts through-

The chart below was compiled to give you an idea of the number of kilowatt hours one appliance (ses compared to another. The values will vary with appliance size number in family, and individual usage.

Also the wattage rating of an appliance determines how much energy it uses at any one moment. But a low-wattage appliance that runs continuously may well use more total energy each year than a high-wattage unit used occasionally.

He stated that the cost for installation of the City service would run approximately $130,000.00. He explained that Attwood could also feasibly install their own system-for this purpose for about $100,000.00. They have stated that they would be willing to pay approximately $50,000 to $60,000 of the cost of City water installation.

Mr. Cowles also reported on the bids received for the Water Treatment Facility, stating that he had received a letter from Owen-Ames and Kimble, stating that a $100,000.00 mistake had been made, and asked that their bid be withdrawn. He then stated that the bids must again be checked and a recommendation could not be made at this time, perhaps the award for all contracts could be made at the April 19 meeting. Council then discussed the lease agreement presented by the 4-H Association. It was noted that a copy had not been received by City Attorney Flickinger, and no decision was made on accepting it until he had a chance to review it and make a recommendation. Several points were questioned, such as changing "reasonable portion" to 50% of expenses, the scheduling committees responsibilities, etc.

Manager Siciliano stated that since the Foreman Building is under the complete ownership and responsibility of the City, it might be wise to consider charging a $50.00 deposit for use of the building, to cover cleanup costs for those groups who use the building and leave refuse behind. The deposit money would be refunded if all refuse was properly removed, and the building cleaned out.

Manager Siciliano also noted to Council that in order for the City to receive reimbursement funds for maintenance work done on M-21 under contract with the State Highway Department, a Street Administrator must be named.

The following resolution was offered by Councilman Pfaller for adoption supported by Councilman Warning. WHEREAS, Section 13 (e) of Act 51, Public Acts of 1951 provides that each incorporated city and village to which funds are returned under the provisions of this section, that "the responsibility for all street improvement, maintenanceand traffic operation work shall be coordinated by a single administrator to be designated by the governing body who shall be responsible for and shall represent the municipality in all transactions with the State Highway Commission pursuant to the provisions of this Act",

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Honorable Body designate Antanino A. Siciliano as the single (Street) administrator for the City of Lowell in all transactions with the State Highway Commission as provided in Section 13 of Carried.

A request for a renewal of a Kennel License from Mrs. Jean Stiles on Bowes Road was read. Mrs. Stiles has been licensed in the past and has not had any problems previously. IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Jefferies that the license be granted, following a favorable recommendation by Chief Emmons, supported by Councilman Collins.
