Kent County

Some Parks Services Curtailed

Some of the 27 parks in the Kent County park system are being left open night and day. Others are remaining closed for the season, and servicing for the larger parks is being curtailed, reports William Wight, park superintendent.

"The main reasons for this situation are that we cannot get the CETA help which we expected, and we had to cut our budget about $42,000," says Wight. "The park system is working under a budget of $600,000, but even with this amount of money, the park system is operating with a limited staff. In addition, there are two vacancies created by the retirement of two park caretakers, which we cannot fill as of now," adds Wight.

Some of the smaller parks which are being left open round the clock include Chief Hazy Cloud Park, Ada; Fred W. Ruehs Park at Alaska, and Dutton Park, Dutton. Parks which are remaining closed include White Pine Park on Lincoln Lake Avenue just north of 16 Mile Road, Oakfield Township; Paris Park on 60th Street SE, and Fisk Knob Park just south of 22 Mile Road NE.

"Although we have some CETA help, we needed 20 more CETA persons for the summer-time," says Wight, "but it is too late now to sign up such help for this season. We didn't receive one CETA application for park work," he adds.

CETA is a federally funded work program.—Dave Barnes.

Debutantes To Perform In Showboat

This year's Lowell Showboat production is going to be spiced with pretty girls with loads of talent.

The Debutantes, a troupe of eight beautiful girls with dancing and singing ability, will be one of two additional professional acts that will support star vocalist and TV personality Leslie Uggams in the six night presentation starting July 23.

Also, on the star-studded Lowell Showboat production starting nightly at 9 p.m. is Garry & Tomio, a comedian ventriloquist act.

This summer marks the first appearances on the Showboat for the Debutantes. The girls popped into the entertainment spotlight with many feature roles at supper clubs, variety shows and convention appearances throughout the Midwest.

When the Debutantes perform on the stage at the Lowell Showboat Amphitheatre, they will present a variety of dances and songs that display unlimited versatility. They move easily into the free-swinging style of modern times with such numbers as "Get Ready", "Earth Move", "Proud Mary" and "Land of 1,000 Dances." Their routines also go into yesteryear with the popular Charleston, the Soft Shoe or the Buck & Wing fast tap performances.

One of the Debutantes' finest production numbers is "The Big Spender", a leggy high kick number in pink heels, furs and sequin costumes.

The Debutantes' varied wardrobe, valued at over $16,000, adds luster and beauty to the performances. They will have several changes for the Showboat agenda.

Tickets for this year's Showboat are moving at a fast pace. Tickets are $2 and $5 for Monday evening (July 23). For Tuesday through Thursday they are $3, $4, $5.50 and $7. On Friday and Saturday, they are $4, $5, $7 and $8. They may be purchased by sending a check to PO Box 56, Lowell, 49331.

Alto Teacher Honored

Mrs. Elvis Sheehan There will be an open-house honoring Elvis Sheehan's retirement at the Alto School, Sunday, June 3 from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. A short presentation will be given by Bill Kirby and Lloyd Miller at 3 p.m.

Elvis attended the Daniels school as a child, and graduated from Caledonia High School in 1934. She went to Michigan State, graduating in 1938, and for 5 years did public social work with the Kent County Bureau of Social Aid.

On February 22, 1941, she married Michael Sheehan. Mike works for Blackmer Pump Division of the Dover Corp. and will retire next year. The Sheehans bought an 80 acre farm in 1946. They presently live in a new home on 40 acres of that land, having sold the house and 40 acres about twenty years ago.

Daughter Martha was born in 1946 and son Mark in 1954. One of the biggest joys in Elvis' life is her 6½-year-old granddaughter Molly (Terry's child).

In 1960, after having been frequently asked to substitute teach because of a teacher shortage, Elvis returned to school for a teaching certificate, eventually receiving her Master's degree from Western University. She began teaching in Forest Hills in 1961. She came to the Lowell School System in 1966, and since that time has taught first grade at Alto.

Board Honors Kelley, Smith

The Lowell School Board recently honored an administrator and a supervisor for their combined 56 years of service to the Lowell Area Schools. A plaque was presented to Don Kelly, Superintendent of Lowell Area Schools, for his 25 years of service, and an initialed belt buckle was given to Ken Smith, Chief Custodian, for 31 years of loyalty. The presentations were made at an administrative workshop on leadership held May 24.

Don's is a family of educators. His two brothers are also school administrators and former teachers, raised by parents who were both educators. Don and his wife, Ethel, have six children, ranging in age from 12 to 28, three of whom hold teaching degrees. Four of them have graduated from Lowell and two are still in the system.

A graduate of Western Michigan University, Don then earned a Master's Degree from Michigan State University and began his teaching career in Frederick, Michigan. He and his family moved to Lowell in 1954 where Don taught Industrial Arts. Over the years he has taught English, served as Athletic Director, taught physical education, and acted as Assistant High School Principal, efficient consolidated district. Both have invested blood, sweat and tears in the numerous building projects.

"The Lowell Area Schools are, indeed, lucky to have these two dedicated individuals as part of the team, and we just wanted to recognize them for their valiant efforts over the years," said David Miller, retiring President of the School Board.

When Superintendent Hagen passed away, Don became Interim Superintendent. He then served as Assistant Superintendent to Mr. Sinke until two years ago when he was appointed Superintendent of the Lowell Area Schools.

Both men honored have seen many, many changes in the Lowell Schools over the past quarter century, watching it change from almost a horse and buggy district to the present

Indy Pace Cars At Zeigler's

Salesman Mark Powell and General Manager Ron Wittenbach of Harold Zeigler Ford look over the two Indianapolis 500 pace car replicas now at the dealership. The pace cars are basically 1979 Ford Mustangs with special exterior, interior and functional equipment. Exterior equipment includes special paint, decals, hood scoop, and spoilers. Functional equipment includes a 5.0 litre V-8 engine, Michelin tires with matched, forged aluminum wheels and sport tuned exhaust. If you want to see or buy one, you'd better hurry. These classy little cars won't be on the lot very long.

SHOWBOAT IN MOTION

Showboat Fever has again hit this community and all committees are "go". The Showboat Board of Directors and Board of Managers are to meet Tuesday, June 5 at the Lowell High School at 7:30 p.m.

A painting bee will be held June 6 and 7 to give the new Showboat its sparkling white paint. Brushes and paint will be furnished for all who would like to help. The bee will be held from 7 p.m. until dark each night. Show up to work and tell your grandkids someday that you helped make Showboat beautiful when it was built in 1979.

Auditions for the Showboat amateur talent contest will be held June 6 and 7 in the High School Auditorium starting at 6:45 p.m. both nights. Those selected will compete in the finals on June 14. The finals winners will appear with Leslie Uggams in the Showboat productions July 23-28. Deadline for application is June 1. Send information to 1150 N. Hudson, Lowell.

Showboat brochures with all the details for the week-long Showboat are available at That SPECIAL Place, 215 W. Main, between 9:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Any business or individual who would like to pass them along should pick them up.

SCHOOL ELECTION

A reminder for those who may be out of town or unable to make it to the polls on June 11 for the annual school election to fill two vacancies on the School Board: absentee ballots may be picked up at the Superintendent's office in the west wing of the Middle School until June 9 at 2 p.m. Running for the vacant seats are Dr. James Dumas, Robert Elzinga, Roger Kropf and Mrs. Mary Yost. See next week's Ledger for Candidate Close-ups.

KING POOL OPEN

The King Memorial Pool will be open after school from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. the rest of the school year. Saturday and Sunday open swims continue all summer from 1-3 p.m., and 3-5 p.m. is Adult and Family Swim. Saturday, June 2 and June 9, there will be Synchronized and Swim Team Clinics free to any area youth 8 to 16 years old. From noon to 1 p.m. Swim Team Coach Dave DeNolf and Assistant Synchronized Coach Lynn Homolka will be working on pre-season skills.

OFF THE BLOTTER

Lowell police arrested Kelly Adam Bishop of Lowell on Sunday, May 27 at 2:10 a.m. for having an open container in his vehicle. Arrested and lodged on Saturday, May 26 was Kim Hinefine of Lowell for driving while license suspended and for failure to yield right-of-way.

Charles Edward Kuhlman of Lowell was arrested on Saturday, May 26 for operating a vehicle with unsafe equipment. His vehicle was impounded since its brakes were not in working condition.

The time and date of an accident were inadvertently incorrectly reported last week. The correct information is that Donald P. Lasby of Lowell was cited by Michigan State Police for driving left of center after an oncoming vehicle driven by Bruce A. Johnson of Belding was forced off Belding Rd., two-tenths of a mile west of Dumon Rd., at 1:15 p.m. on Sunday, May 20.

Don't Forget Mailbox Fix-up

Postmaster Charlie Doyle has urged all local customers to paint and repair unkept or damaged mail receptacles, in town and on rural routes.

"Customers should be sure their boxes provide adequate protection to the mail and are easily reached by carriers to help speed collection and delivery of their mail," Postmaster Doyle said.

Residents should examine their mailboxes to determine whether they have been damaged by weather or vandalism—particularly those located along rural routes, city curbsides and highways—and should make any necessary repairs or improvements.

Celebrates 95th Birthday

Mrs. Mary K. Parker

Mary K. Parker will celebrate her ninety-fifth birthday surrounded by family, friends and neighbors. An open house will be held on Sunday, June 3, at her home on Pinkney Rd. from 1-4 p.m. Mrs. Parker has three children, Gerald Parker, Florence Benedict and Kenneth Parker, six grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. An open invitation has been extended by her children and their spouses for all of Mary's friends to attend and ask that there be no gifts.

Tips To Foil Gas Thieves

It's no secret that the price of gasoline has increased and that it will get higher yet. It should come as no surprise then that the increase in gasoline theft from vehicles is also on the rise across the country.

Police Chief Barry Emmons reports an increase in that crime here in Lowell and points out that the best way to deal with gasoline theft is to prevent it. Those caught in the act of gas theft are charged with a misdemeanor but it difficult to apprehend persons because most thefts occur under cover of darkness. The gas cap will be too close to be removed.

If parking in a lot, stay out of dark corners. Park in an open area with the rear of the car toward your business or apartment so that it can be watched more easily. If you must leave a vehicle at home while on vacation, ask a neighbor to keep watch.

The gas situation facing us this summer may also encourage drivers to carry a gas can with them. Chief Emmons warns that this is an "explosive" situation, one that could lead to a blazing inferno in any minor accident.

Commercial anti-ciphoning devices are available as well as gas caps which lock with a key.

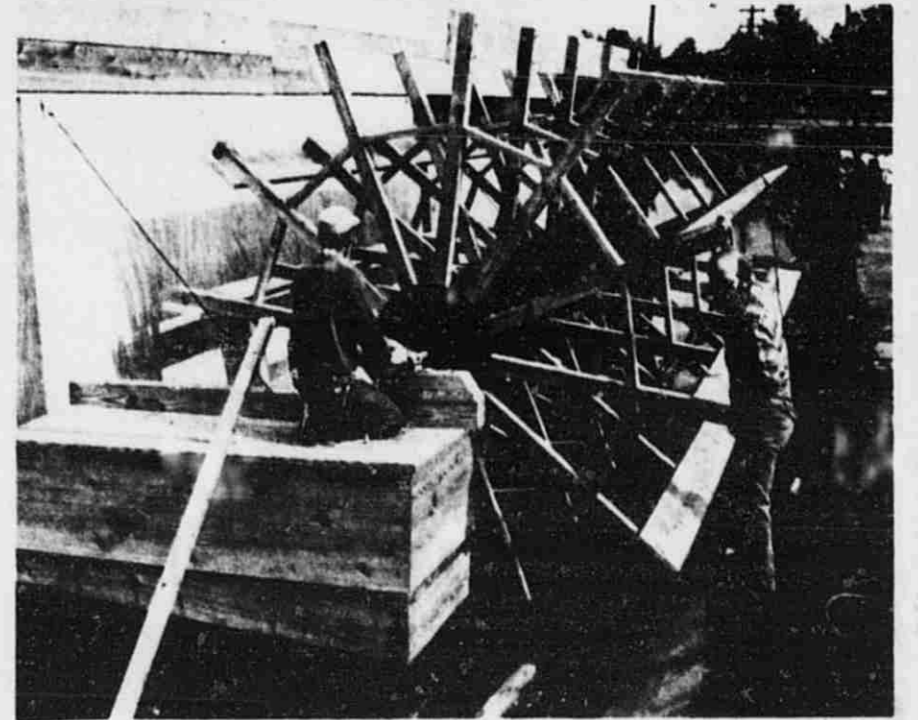

They are available at hardware and auto parts and supplies businesses.

Chief Emmons' best advice is to make a possible gas theft as inconvenient as possible. Park your vehicle close to an open window while you sleep so that any noises can alert you and police can be called.

PROGRESS UPDATE

The 12 foot in diameter and one ton paddle wheel was mounted on the new Lowell Showboat early Tuesday morning. The shaft running through the paddle wheel came from the old King Milling Co. feed mill. The Showboat was pivoted around so that the stern abutted the bank and the paddle wheel was rolled into position with surprising ease. The paddle wheel will be driven by some method but for appearances only as the boat will be powered by outboard motors as previous boats have been.

Two volunteer painting sessions have been scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday, June 6 and 7. Brushes, rollers, paint, etc., will be furnished to all those able to lend a hand.

Bushnell PTO still has to decide how to spend the profits realized from the event. In years past, playground equipment was purchased. Members of the PTO wish to thank merchants, parents, teachers and staff members who helped make this carnival the biggest and best ever.

a few notes from Ledgers of 10, 20, 30, 40, and 50 years ago...

TEN YEARS AGO

Following City Manager Bernard Olson's decision to resign, Mrs. Gladys Alexander announces her resignation. This leaves Laura Shepard, the city's clerk-treasurer as the only person left at City Hall with any lengthy amount of experience on the job.

The Lowell Volunteer Fire Department is placed on standby to serve areas north of Saranac previously served by the Saranac Fire Department. This action is a result of the collapse of the bridge spanning the Grand River at Saranac. Saranac Fire Trucks must now go to either Ionia or Lowell to cross the river enroute to all fires north of the village.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Over one-hundred seniors are expected to graduate from Lowell High School this spring. It is the largest class ever to go through the Lowell School System.

Forest Buck, Bernard Kropp, Phil Kropp, Roy Wescott, Steve Nesbit and Dr. Robert Reagan are named as endmen for the 1959 Lowell Showboat.

Holiday specials at Bob's Sanitary Market included, extra lean ground beef at 49 cents per pound, farm fresh grade A eggs at three dozen for one dollar, sliced bacon at three pounds for one dollar and homogenized milk at one-half gallon for thirty-five cents.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Edward Haraburda is featured in a Ledger article about his 360 acre farm on US-16 in Bowne Township. Today, farms of this size are becoming very common but, in 1949 a family farm of this size was almost unheard of.

Henry Marshall who is serving a life sentence for first degree murder, makes the front page of the Ledger when his request for parole comes up before the state parole board. It has been seventeen years since Marshall, a member of a gang that held up a Grand Rapids bank, shot and killed Lowell Deputy Charles Knapp. Knapp was shot as he approached the suspected getaway car after stopping it on Lowell's Main St.

FORTY YEARS AGO

A report in the Ledger said that a short WPA sewer project on Hudson St. had its manpower reduced by 36 men. The article went on to say that those left, now had cold roofs on the job.

The Ledger marks its 47th year of business in Lowell and as far as the publishers of that day could tell, there was not a single business left operating in Lowell that was in existence when the Ledger first began its publication.

Ed Compagner, proprietor of the Lowell Creamery, gave the establishment a fresh coat of blue and cream paint over the weekend and the improvement was commented upon in the Along Main Street column.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

A small vote, but remarkable just the same, when 223 Lowell voters turned out to vote on a $65,000 bond issue to build a new power dam here. When the votes were counted, it was nearly unanimous, 222 yes, 1 no. The village council is expected to sell the bonds and let the bids as soon as possible.

The Lowell Chevrolet Dealer, so long owned by the McQueen Co., is taken over by Webster Bros. of White Cloud.

The brick farm house owned and occupied by James Denton near Pratt Lake is struck by lightning and burns to the ground.

Work begins on a 48x48 foot cement block addition to the Superior Furniture Co. The addition will be used for lumber storage.

Food Rules Repealed

Food handlers will no longer have to have cards or TB tests in Kent County, according to George E. Pio, Director of the Environmental Health Division, Kent County Health Department.

The Board of Health conducted a hearing on repealing the County's General Food Regulations and determined that the basic food regulations were state mandated; therefore, County regulations were unnecessary. The Board of Health recommended repealing the General Food Regulations for Kent County.

Women Make Art Of Rummage Sales

It's time for the renewal of perhaps the greatest sport in America: Rummage Sales. Signs are sprouting on telephone poles all over town, nourished by the faded shreds of last year's crop. Housewives break out in rousing cheers at their arrival. Husbands break down in tears.

This sport is a mania. It's addictive. Saturday Night Fever lives in the presence of Thursday Morning Rummagitis. It is so deadly that the American Medical Association should consider requiring all new products to carry the warning, "Resist this item may endanger your health or the national economy". It is so prevalent that any yet learned to spot a "SALE" sign six blocks away isn't considered worth her weight in Tupperware.

Despite the dangers, or perhaps because of them, Rummage Sales remains a most popular daytime activity among women. It's not just a sport. It's a part of the American Way, a remnant of those days when shopping was an art requiring more time and skill than cash. It's a Western edition of the open-air markets of Calcutta, usually minus cows and flies.

In fact, the Rummage Sale embodies everything that is good, honest, and cheap about America. It cuts across all barriers of age, color, or bank account, and makes sisters of us all. I have known wives of Account Executives who have donned wigs and sunglasses and scoured the dumps with the rest of us. (For you novices, "scour the dumps" means to visit rummage sales.)

"Sing!" represents the last stronghold of true womanhood. You won't find a man at a Rummage Sale and if you do, he's probably just looking for his wife. It is an historical fact that men have never really understood the whole concept of bargaining. It's difficult, complicated and so wonderfully illogical that he throws up his hands in disgust at the very thought of it. To a woman, the bargaining table is her place of joy and conquest, for her is where she

Public Hearing 78-80 Proposed Budget Mayor Collins opened the Public Hearing on the proposed Budget for fiscal 1979-80.

Manager Quada stated that the community had voted for the Headlee Amendment, and that this budget reflected those wishes to hold costs down.

There were no comments from the public, and the hearing was closed.

Council then discussed the recommendation by the Planning Commission to rezone a parcel of land on M-21, between M-21 and Bowes Road from AA-Agricultural and Residential, to A-3 Residential and Apartments.

Recommendation by Planning Commission Rezoning of 250 Feet on M-21, AA-Agricultural/A-3 Apartments

Manager Quada explained that the South portion, some 250 feet north from Bowes Road would be involved, that the portion fronting on Main Street (M-21) was already zoned as Commercial, and would be left as such.

He also explained that the Planning Commission had made sure that the apartment complex to be built would be limited to Senior Citizens only on a subsidized basis, and that the developer had agreed.

Mr. Howard Rittenger asked about the plan to install a sidewalk to the North, to M-21, and the only ingress and egress was to be on Bowes Road.

A lengthy, very heated discussion followed on the safety of allowing a sidewalk to M-21, with Senior Citizens having to cross M-21 in heavy traffic. Councilman Carter stated that he felt it would be deliberately creating a safety hazard, and suggested that steps be taken to install a traffic device for greater crossing safety.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Christiansen that the Rezoning Request be approved, supported by Councilman Heath.

Councilman Warning also stated that he felt that a safety hazard was being created, and that he strongly felt that it was the wrong site for a Senior Citizen Housing development.

He said that he had tried for ten years to get a traffic device on Main Street at Monroe Street, without results, and he felt that no way would the State Highway Department let a traffic control device be installed in that area.

Many Senior Citizens in the audience responded that they had been crossing M-21 for years, and if they couldn't do it now, they belonged in a nursing home, not an apartment complex.

Councilman Heath stated that this site had been approved by the Senior Citizens themselves, the Planning Commission had held a Public Hearing, and had recommended approval, the investor is willing to take a chance, and if the Council disapproves it, the City may get another chance to build such housing.

Mayor Collins then called for a vote. Yes: Councilmen Christiansen, Heath and Collins. No: Councilmen Carter and Warning.

Absent: None. Councilman Carter immediately MOVED that a resolution be adopted to direct the City Manager to coordinate with the building of such a housing project, to contact the State Highway Department to install a safety crosswalk, supported by Councilman Warning.

The motion was denied by Mayor Collins as not being a factor in the approval of the rezoning.

Godfrey Street Paving/Tabled The next item of business was a discussion on the paving of Godfrey Street. Manager Quada suggested that the item be tabled until the next regular meeting, as cost figures were not yet available.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Heath that the Godfrey Street paving be tabled until the next regular meeting, supported by Councilman Christiansen.

Carried. Change of Meeting Date/Mayor Exchange

IT WAS THEN MOVED by Councilman Heath that the meeting date for the next regular meeting be changed from Monday, May 21, to Tuesday, May 22, because of the Mayors Exchange Day activities.

Carried. Manager's Report

Under the Manager's Report, Manager Quada stated that the "Upper" Bridge had been closed by barricades for repair. Bids on surface repair will be taken, including the stripping of the planking, etc., and the replacement of several L beams.

Manager Quada continued the report, stating that he had received a letter from Mr. Tom Elliott, Director of the Michigan Artrain, thanking the City for its participation. A total of 2,363 adults and 600-plus children and students had toured the train, at a cost of 27c per person to the City.

Citizen Suggestions Under Citizen suggestions, Mr. John Troy asked that a committee be appointed to study the possible problem of a traffic light on M-21 and also on the corner of Main and Monroe. He suggested three citizens, the Manager and offered to serve himself.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Carter that such a committee be appointed, supported by Councilman Warning. Carried.

Council Remarks Under Council Remarks, Councilman Warning stated that he wished to receive more detailed information on Planning Commission Minutes before having to vote on important issues.

Manager Quada replied that information had been supplied with the Council information packets. Minutes of the Planning Commission are not available to Council before the next regular meeting, as Planning Commission meets only once a month, on the third Monday, after Council business had been conducted on the first and third Mondays. Recommendations from Planning Commission are directed to the Council at their regular meeting, before Minutes are even processed.

Councilman Carter asked about some resurfacing problems still at the tennis courts that need attention, and also, stated that he felt that the Mayor had exceeded his bounds by not allowing the vote on his motion made earlier, as stated in Section 5.5, paragraph F of the City Charter, and would press for a formal adoption of Robert Rules if necessary.

A discussion followed. Mayor Collins then adjourned the meeting at 9:00 p.m. Approved: May 22, 1979.

DEANE E. COLLINS, Mayor RAY E. QUADA, City Clerk

Aid Now Open To Any Student

Students who have been turned down in the past, might now be eligible for financial aid under the new Middle-Income Student Assistance Act.

On November 1, President Carter signed into law a $1.2 billion bill extending college grants and loans to middle-income students.

The legislation expands Basic Education Opportunity Grants to students from families earning $15,000 to $25,000 a year. It also removes the $25,000 income eligibility ceiling under the Guaranteed Student Loan program and makes it possible for students from any income level to receive such loans.

MISAA in total will deliver $52.8 million in new student aid funds to Michigan.

Under the new law, students in any income bracket can now receive loans and will not be responsible for any payments until nine months after graduation. The program also covers graduate students.

Students considered for Basic Educational Opportunity Grants are now judged under a new set of criteria.

More Summer Jobs But Harder To Get

Entry-level jobs are expected to be more plentiful in the Michigan labor market this summer but competition for these jobs will be stiff.

The wrong time to start looking for a job is the day school gets out. The place to start lining up a job is talking with friends, relatives and neighbors.

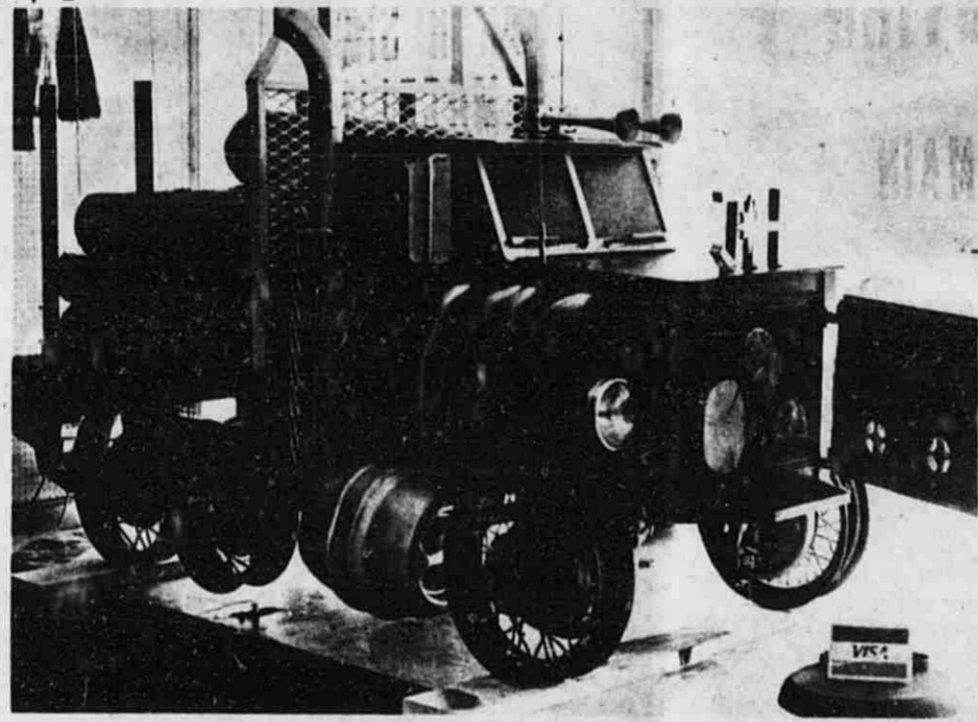

Assess your skills. Can you type? Are you a good carpenter? Do you like to cook? Even hobbies sometimes convert to jobs. It also is important to consider what you learned in school. Home economics or auto mechanics can help line up a job. Ask your school counselor for advice.

Make a list of things you need to know for an application or interview. If you don't have a social security number, get one. Consider your past work record, and don't overlook volunteer work, such as candy stripping in a hospital or working with a teen club.

Put together a brief description of your accomplishments, awards, honors, positions held, athletic participation. But remember, your resume is a sales tool, not a life history.

Toy? Truck? It's A Wood Stove! Aquinas Holding Summer Reading Program

A unique and unusual wood stove is on display in the front window of Riverside Fireplace Shoppe in downtown Lowell. The wood stove is designed to look like an old truck and weighs 1,200 pounds. It is constructed of heavy steel and will burn logs up to four feet in length that are loaded into the front of the truck's grill.

Mike Ciganick is the artist who designed and built the stove in his upper peninsula studio. Ciganick originally hails from Ionia and has built several unique stoves that include steam trains, tractors and other trucks.

If you're interested in purchasing this stove, it is for sale. The first $2,000 takes it.

Aquinas College once again will hold its Summer Reading Program to help children and adolescents improve their reading skills. The program, intended for students in grades one through nine, will be directed by Dr. Mary Lorton, assistant professor of reading education and researcher in reading disability. Sessions will run Monday through Thursday, 9:30 a.m. till noon, from June 18 through July 26. On Fridays, teachers will be available for conferences with parents.

HAIRDRYER HOTLINE
Consumer Products Safety Commission has approved voluntary corrective action by 11 major manufacturers of hand-held hairdryers manufactured with asbestos. The companies have agreed to accept returns of hair dryers containing asbestos. These include: Conair Corp., General Electric Co., Gillette Co., Korvettes Inc., Montgomery Ward, North American Philips (Norelco), J.C. Penney Co., Schick, Inc., Scovill Manufacturing (Hamilton-Beach and Dominion), Sears Roebuck and Co. and Sunbeam.

Anyone wishing to verify model numbers may call toll-free the CPSC's Hotline 800-638-8326.

VOIGT HOUSE
June 3 the Voigt House, 115 College Avenue, SE, Grand Rapids, will be open to the public for guided tours from 1 to 3:30 p.m. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for students and senior citizens.

Students will be divided into four age groups: reading readiness, early elementary, upper elementary, and middle school. Within these groups, students will be tutored by accredited teachers, reading specialists and students in the Aquinas reading specialist program. Attention will be given to specific reading skills which are in need of improvement. The first priority, according to Dr. Lorton, is to provide each child with success in learning and reading in order to develop a positive self image. The program combines reading instruction with relaxation, physical exercise and social experiences in the community. "We've found that an environment structured in this way is very conducive to academic gain," said Lorton. The fee for the six-week program is $150. Early registration is advised as enrollment is limited. Additional information may be obtained from the Education Department at Aquinas College.
