Injured in an accident on M-21 at Parnell Rd. Friday evening, Apr. 24, were Fred Williams and Margo Weaver of Grand Rapids. ## Personnel cuts begin

School day cut to five hours

Commenting that probably the most important action all year had taken place in a meeting lasting just 20 minutes, President Roger Kröpf reluctantly closed last night's special school board meeting that found the board taking action on resolutions it had been pondering for many months.

During the short session, the following administrative positions were eliminated or contracts not renewed: Curriculum Director; Director of Student Services; Coordinator of Basic Skills, and the contract of an administrator on disability. Personnel affected are: Rod Smith, Gordon Gould, Jane Blough and Roger Buck.

Further reflections of a tight economy and deficit budget were indicated when the Board voted to go on a five-hour day for students in 1981-82, with the Superintendent to implement the proposal. Basically, the five hour day will not change the work day of teachers, but will mean reduced schedules for students from six hours a day to five.

administration will refine further specific positions to be reduced or eliminated. This would then be presented to the teacher Association prior to board adoption, as is required by the present master contract. Kelly said that the Association and Board would be involved in expedited bargaining beginning May 11 through May 22.

In final action, the board appointed precinct workers for the annual election. With two board positions vacant, four candidates have filed for the one-year term—Martin Fox, Douglas Heintzleman, Betty Lou Mitchell and Susan Weigel. Linda Beers, incumbent, and Ronald Zimmerman are vying for the four-year vacancy.

Garden Club holds plant sale

Showboat Garden Club is planning a plant sale on Saturday, May 9 at the Showboat ticket office.

Net proceeds are going towards the Grass Bay project of the Michigan State Federation of Garden Clubs. Grass Bay is an 80 acre tract of land on Lake Huron near Cheboygan, the purchase of which will assure its remaining as a preserve for rare native plants including orchids, ferns, beach grass, and other flora and fauna. Our club has already voted $200 towards this purchase which will be turned over to Nature Conservancy for maintenance.

We are also interested in local environment and urge recycling glass, aluminum pans and paper. Call a member to find drop-points. The Lowell Jaycees have a paper drop across from Keiser's Kitchen.

As in several years past, members of the Club will plant flowers around library/YMCA building and dismantle the present Centennial planter. A committee is working on placing a historical marker on the premises marking this Graham Building which is the only place in Lowell placed on the State's Historical Archives.

You are welcome to bring a sack lunch and go with us on a spring hike on Monday, May 11 at 6:30 p.m. Meet us at 11470 Bluewater Highway, home of Avis King.

Rotary honors Stan Gardner

Stanley N. Gardner received a high honor from Lowell Rotarians at their annual dinner dance held at Deer Run on April 22. Over one hundred members and guests were present for the recognition ceremony.

Mr. Gardner is the first person in the 46 year history of the Lowell Club to be designated a Paul Harris Fellow, an award named for the founder of the Rotary International, and one involving a memorial contribution of $1,000 from the local club to the Rotary Foundation.

The Rotary Foundation, a part of the international Rotary organization, awards graduate and undergraduate fellowships each year to selected young men and women throughout the world to spend a year studying in another country. In addition, the Foundation sponsors international programs to improve the health and well being of people in need in many parts of the world, and group study exchanges that enable young business and professional men to learn how their interests are carried out in other countries.

Rotarian Roger Roberts, in announcing the award, reviewed Mr. Gardner's many community activities. In addition to serving as Rotary president in 1969-70, Mr. Gardner has devoted many years to the Lowell Commu-

State meet has special meaning for Tom

Tom Caldwell is an old pro at winning speech contests. He's been a championship debater and has been to a state forensics tournament, but this year's state contest is special for Tom because of the topic he is speaking on, it's uncle Greg Mathews.

LHS junior Tom Caldwell, son of Keith and Marcia Caldwell, 885 Foreman, will give his contest in state competition Saturday, May 2.

Tom has composed a winning oration that tells of the strength and courage of Greg Mathews. Greg, an extraordinary man, is a blind golf pro. He also manages the Three Rivers Golf Course. But Greg is especially endeavoring for his efforts to raise funds for the leader dog program in Rochester, Michigan.

Tom Caldwell is obviously enthusiastic about his uncle, and he hopes to take a first with his oration at the state tournament in Ann Arbor.

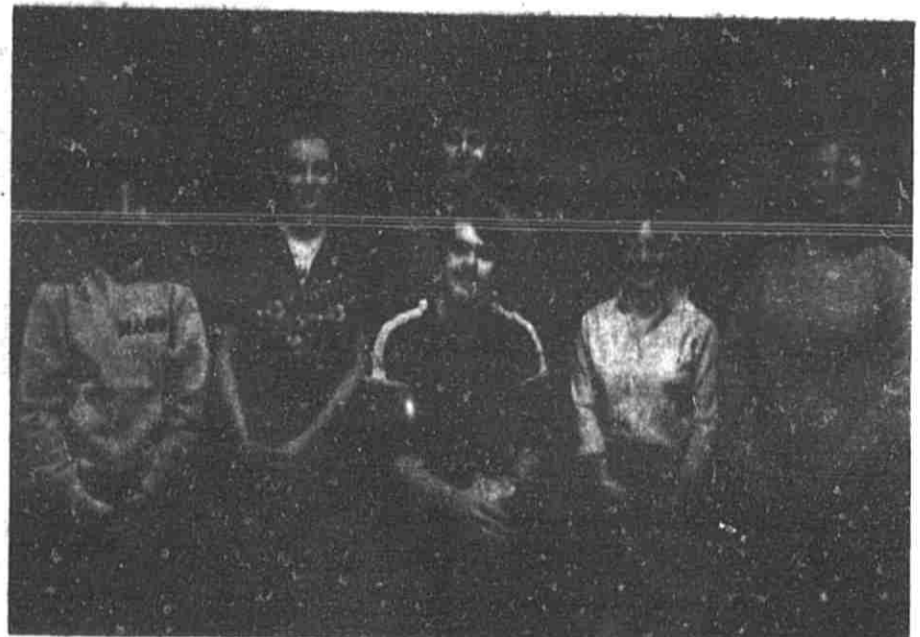

While most Michigan residents rely on local radio and television stations for tornado warnings, an increasing number of communities are expanding their alert systems through installation of sirens and other alarms. The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration broadcasts weather information continuously at 162.55 megahertz on the Public Radio band. Tied into this is an electronic system that activates sirens with special weather receivers. These are generally located in schools, hospitals, nursing homes and other sites with a special need for early warning.

Forensics team in state competition

For the fourth year in a row, the Lowell High School Forensics team will be competing at the state tournament in Ann Arbor on May 2, 1981.

This year a multiple reading based on Shirley Jackson's "The Lottery" took first place at both district and regional contests. The multiple was written and directed by talented Kim VanderMuelen. Tom Caldwell has also qualified for state competition in the Oratory division.

The Lowell High School Forensics Team will compete at the State Forensics Competition on Saturday, May 2, for the fourth year in a row. Members are (L-R): Tammy Nagy, Cori Wood, Steve DiCorio, Steve DeWolf, Kim VanderMuelen and Kelly DiCorio.

Alto Lions named "Club of the Year"

During the District 11C-1 Lion's Convention, the Association for the Blind recognized the Alto Lion's Club as their "Lion's Club of the Year". Bill Leader, director of the association, presented George Anderson, president of the Alto Lions, a plaque to commemorate the support partially sighted individuals in various skills necessary for their survival in everyday life. These skills range from the basic necessities, such as food preparation, to the more complicated, such as how to go from their home to a store and back again without help. All of these efforts are designed to enable a blind or partially sighted individual to live as independently as possible.

The award comes at a timely occasion, as the Alto Lion's Club is embarking on their annual White Cane Drive. Collections during this drive will enable the Alto Lions to continue their many community services, including support for the low vision clinic.

Anderson stated, "The Alto Lions have been able to provide their many community services, as the citizens in the Alto area have unselfishly supported the fund raising activities of the club."

Alto Lions Club was named "Lions Club of the Year" recently by the Association for the Blind. Association director Bill Leader presented a commemorative plaque to Alto Lion president, George Anderson.

With me you have no fears. Is it because at such a tender age, I have chosen you To live in my house of many mansions Where the skies are always blue? Is it that you have not fulfilled your dreams Or attained your lifetime goal? Is it because I ask you to follow And give to me your soul? Cry not, my little angel, Put the stars back in your eyes; Let that ray of sunshine follow Back to your Heaven in the skies. You are one of my chosen children Now you can laugh and love again; You shall dwell in my house forever, Free from sorrow, heart-ache and pain. Grandpa & Grandma Bouck

Rules set for working minors

When school is not in session, minors are permitted to work a greater number of hours, but there are still restrictions, the Michigan Department of Labor reports.

One significant restriction, which recently became law, requires an adult supervisor or another adult employee to be present when a person under 18 is working in a fixed location where money changes hands beyond 8 p.m. or sunset, whichever is earlier.

For example, a youth under 18 would be able to collect for a paper route or be an ice cream vendor, but could not work at a gas station or grocery store at night unless an adult is present.

The law also says that minors cannot work more than six days a week and they cannot work more than 10 hours a day. Minors under 16 cannot work between 9 p.m. and 7 a.m. at any time while 16 and 17 year olds cannot work later than 11:30 p.m.

Carol Chriss of Grand Rapids suffered minor injuries in a one-car accident on Sunday, April 26, on Alden Nash just north of 36th St. She told deputies she had a flat tire and lost control of her vehicle. She was cited for violation of the basic speed law.

Arrested and lodged in the Kent County Jail on Tuesday evening, Apr. 21, on charges of felonious assault with a motor vehicle was Debra Fonger. Fonger was released on $500 bond after arraignment in 63rd District Court on Wednesday.

Cited for reckless driving and fleeing and eluding a police officer on Tuesday, Apr. 21, was Mark Kaufman. Kaufman led Lowell officers on a chase to Ada where he was apprehended when Kent County Sheriff's deputies blocked the roadway.

Musical spoof opens Thurs.

This Thursday, Friday and Saturday (April 30-May 1 & 2) are the play dates for the Lowell Senior High School musical production of "Something's Afoot".

Curtain is at 8 p.m. for this zany, entertaining show that pokes fun at Agatha Christie type mysteries and the musical styles of past years.

The final touches were polished off this week for Thursday's first night performance. Cast crew and our first organized orchestra has worked hard for the past weeks, to perfect this year's production.

"Something's Afoot" is a musical spoof of the "whodunit" genre. The setting and characters are British. Seven-guests are isolated at an English country home. Soon the guests and the three servants are mysteriously murdered and the rest race to find the killer and his motive.

Why are these folks being killed and who's doing the killing? The cast invites the community to come and enjoy while figuring out the puzzle and "who dun it". "The Butler Didn't" is the only clue they'll give!—S.D.
