Election to decide millage and board seats

The Lowell Area Schools annual elections will be held Monday, June 13 in three precincts. To be decided in the election are the two new board of education members, the millage renewal and millage increase.

Nine individuals are running for two open board seats: Diana Fulkerson, James Goulooze II, Geogre Blocher, Roger Kropf, Sandra Nagy, Robert William Kinsey, R. Stanley Williams, G.M. Ross and JoAnn Murphy.

The millage propositions placed before the voters Monday are the renewal of the 17.9 mills, which the community has used to fund the school system since 1978 and an increase of 3.9 mills, which is felt necessary to operate the schools on a six hour day, to retain athletics, music, art, busing and other out of class activities.

The polls of election will open at 7:00 A.M. and close at 8:00 P.M. at three polling sites. Precinct No. 1: Runciman Elementary School, 300 High Street, Lowell Michigan, consisting of the City of Lowell and those portions lying north of the centerline of Cascade Road in Cascade and

Lowell Township in Kent County, and Boston Township in Ionia County. Precinct No. 2: Bowne Township Hall, 6059 Linfield, Alto, Michigan, consisting of Bowne Township in

Kent County and Campbell Township in Ionia County and those portions lying south of the centerline of Cascade Road in Cascade and Lowell Townships in Kent County and Boston

Township in Ionia County. Precinct No. 3: Vergennes Township Hall, corner of Bailey Drive and Parnell Avenue in Vergennes Township, consisting of the townships of Ada, Cannon, Grattan, and Vergennes in Kent county, and Keene Township in Ionia County.

Kwant's valedictory address is a hit

John Kwant Valedictorian of the 1983 LHS graduating class, captured the minds of the near capacity crowd in attendance at the amphitheatre Sunday with a Commencement address that hit home to the 180 graduates and onlookers alike.

For one not directly involved, High School Commencements are usually a bit too staged, too ceremonial, and too rehearsed for the average person to devote his time in attendance. But John's address made the ceremony strikingly different from the old "Be true to your school". "Now we are going to enter the real world" and "Congratulations are in order" profile which has drawn audience's eyes toward the exit signs for generations.

John's speech advanced a new hope in an old foundation. In these times of uncertainty, it was refreshing to find a leader of tomorrow pointing toward an established base. Here is a portion of John's address:

(When) "I began to search for the good in Lowell, for what it had to offer me. I began to see things that I had never seen before. I saw people who were proud and positive about their community. Proud of what I asked myself? Proud of a lot of things.

Proud of things like a city whose stores and factories prosper. A city where every year new businesses come to invest in Lowell and its future.

Appointments not always needed at Vanity Hair Fashions, Open five days Lowell, 897-7506.

Do you want a sports program next year?

Athletics can not be funded or promoted by the same small group of people who promoted this past year.

If the extra curricular programs are to continue for the '83-'84 school year we need a yes vote on both millage proposals.

PRECISION & FASHION HAIRSTYLING - For both men and women. Man's World Hairstyling. Phone 897-8102.

I also saw pride in the area's churches, where almost every major denomination is present and plays a valuable part in strengthening the Lowell Area.

I saw pride in one of the smallest YMCA's in the country because it continues to grow and expand its programs and activities.

I saw pride in the Area's Art Council which does a tremendous job in planning and staging cultural events that the whole community can take part in.

I also saw pride in the numerous civic groups that Lowell has - Rotary, Lions, and Jaycees to name a few which have all done more than enough for the Lowell Area.

I saw a city that put on its best one week out of the summer so that the Lowell Showboat would once again entertain people from all over the state. Although it will not be a part of our summer this year, I know inside that the people of Lowell will not let a tradition fizzle out and die. Eventually the showboat will be back.

And last and most important of all, I saw a pride in the community's school system. Pride that extended to both the education your children were receiving and the athletic program that everyone can participate in. When Extra curricular activities were threatened due to budget cuts, I saw a community pull together to raise the funds necessary so that children would not lose a vital part of their school day.

But right now, the Lowell School System is facing a crisis and I'm sure you're all aware of what it is. In a little over a week you will have the chance to decide whether or not the Lowell School System will continue to function and provide quality education for your children.

You may ask why I take an interest in this subject. I'm graduating. I'm done. Well I have a younger brother and sister who have to return to school next year. I want them to have the same education and opportunities that I had. Please I'm asking you, don't let the Lowell School System go under. Because if you do, so will this community and everything it represents.

ST. MARY NEWS...

St. Mary's Altar Society rummage sale will be held June 16 and 17 from 9-5, and June 18 from 9-12 at St. Mary's School in Lowell. Please drop off donated items after Masses June 11 and 12. Proceeds will benefit Process Six and the Altar Society.

St. Mary's June raffle tickets will be on sale before Masses through June 19. First prize will be a hand crocheted afghan and second prize will be a lawn chair.

JULY 4TH COMMITTEE MEETING

There will be a meeting Wednesday, June 8th at 7:30 P.M. in the office of the Firestation on Monroe Street of all workers and any other interested persons in this year's July 4th festivities. All participating clubs and organizations are urged to have a representative at this meeting.

CAMARO DRAWING APPROACHING FAST

The Lowell Showboat Camaro raffle is well into the black, meaning that every ten dollar ticket sold between now and the fast-approaching July 4th drawing date is ten dollars that will go to reduce the Showboat's debt. Tickets are available at several locations around town including: Lippert's, State Savings Bank, Thomet Chevrolet and Buick, Wesco, Crystal Flash, That Special Place, Lowell Auto Body, Big "D" Auto Trim, Eberhard's, Pfaller's Riverfront Clothing, Anderson's Family Shoes, The Grand Valley Ledger and Lowell City Hall. Five thousand tickets were printed, but a realistic total of final sales will hopefully be around 2,500, making the odds of winning the $13,000 car much better, especially for those holding several tickets.

Remember, if you would like to pitch in and give Showboat a hand by selling tickets at your place of work, to relatives or wherever stop by the Grand Valley Ledger. You can return what you don't sell, so don't worry about getting stuck with a handful of ten dollar tickets.

OFF THE BLOTTER

Culminating a three week investigation, Lowell police obtained a confession from a 16 year old juvenile in connection with the killing of the male swan on the Flat River in May. He will be referred to juvenile court at a later date.

Steven Kikulski, age 35, was arrested Wednesday evening on a friend of the court warrant and a bench warrant for failure to appear.

John Schneider II, 24, of Lowell was cited into 63rd District Court for an open container of alcohol.

Terri Smit, of Clarksville was struck in the rear by an auto driven by Scott Lasby, 19, of Lowell on West Main St. near West St. Saturday afternoon.

Maureen Arnet, 28, of Lowell and Steven Mikulski of Saranac collided in a property damage accident at Main and Lafayette Tuesday afternoon.

Lowell officers took 21 accident complaints in the month of May, two involving injuries. Accident complaints number 77 since January compared to 61 a year ago. Lowell medical unit made six runs in May.

Merchants donate to Showboat

Lowell graduates win scholarships

Lorrayne Althaus, 422 N Jefferson, Lowell, and Timothy John Carless, 11040 Woodbushe, Lowell, have won Student Life Scholarships at Oakland University and will receive $1000 a year for four years starting next fall.

The awards are based on an excellent record of high school and community activities and high grades. Family income is not a factor, states Jerry Rose, OU director of admissions and scholarships.

Student Life Scholarship students will live in OU residence halls and help provide leadership for a wide range of campus activities, Rose said.

Two other area students, John Kwant, 13322 Grand River Dr. SE of Lowell and Eleanore Fischer, 7664 Aspenwood, of Ada, were awarded $750 (non-renewable) scholarships when they enroll at UM.

The scholarships were based on grades, class ranking and test scores.

Ledger Editorial, by Randy Zulich

Monday, June 13 the voters of the Lowell School District get the opportunity to save the Lowell schools from financial collapse and educational chaos as once again the millage proposal will be tested by community trial.

Despite the fact that Lowell residents have been willing to support many other community organizations and benefits, they have in the past been unwilling to support proper funding for the one asset which is irreplaceable, the children of the community.

The majority of Lowell voters expect the school system to run a financial budget created in 1978 which has been further depleted by a 21 percent cut in state financial aid. At the same time the voters want, and expect their children, who will become the future wage earners and tax payers of this community, to be educated in an environment which will make them competitive in the job market.

The majority of voters in the Lowell School District do not work in Lowell, but either grew up in the area or moved here before the educational system started the downward slide which brought it to the near bottom ranking in the Kent Intermediate School District. If the millage proposal fails this elec-

Navy Electronics Technician Douglas P. Overbeck, son of William and Lillian Overbeck of 5159 David Highway, Saranac, Mich., recently participated in "Comtuex 2-83," a training exercise conducted near the Virginia capes off the East Coast of the United States.

He is a crewmember aboard the nuclear-powered submarine USS Greenling, homeported in New London, Conn.

The exercise was designed to increase the proficiency in the crews of the participating ships, submarines and aircraft in coordinated fleet operations.

Training was conducted in anti-air, anti-submarine and anti-surface warfare. Several "war at sea" and surface action group operations took place in which simulated battles were conducted between opposing sides, each composed of surface, air and submarine forces.

Part of the exercise included surface-to-air and surface-to-surface gunnery training. Additional training focused on seamanship, navigation, replenishment at sea, and mine countermeasures.

Army National Guard Pvt. Dean A. DeGrote, son of Lester D. and Elizabeth S. DeGrote of 746 McCabe N.E., Ada, Mich., has completed basic training at Fort McClellan, Ala.

During the training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

His wife, Deborah, is the daughter of Larry E. Pedersen of 1323 W. 16th, Hastings, Neb., and Judy Pedersen of Lexington, Neb. He is a 1977 graduate of Lexington Senior High School.

I must be the scourge of my neighborhood, as the Brown household is about the only one on the block without a "Save Our Schools" yard sign. We're not against the proposed millage increase...honest. We were just not home when the sign crew came through our part of town. If the person in charge of the yard sign project happens to be reading, feel free to stick one up at 920 Beech Street.

I've used this space as a soap box on a couple of occasions in support of the Lowell Showboat, and I guess I feel inclined to climb up on that soap box this week in support of next Monday's millage elections. Don't worry, I'm not going to go into all the numbers and statistics that point out why we should vote for the proposed millage renewal and increase. I'd just like to pass along a few of my personal reasons for voting YES on Monday.

There has been a lot of bad press over the past few years concerning the quality of education in this country. I believe the state of Florida was the first to instigate a pass or fail test to potential high school graduates. If you passed you could graduate, if you failed you went back to school. An alarmingly high percentage went back to school. That's just one "for instance", but it's very typical of the kick in the pants that our educational system has been getting from the nation's media, be it network TV or coffee shop gossip.

With that kind of bad press constantly in the air, it's easy to understand why there might be a negative attitude toward more funding for an educational system that isn't working anyway...at least according to the media. But, a negative attitude never got anyone, anywhere.

There was a paraphrased quote on the cover of one of the Trade magazines that we get at the Ledger, which said, "time and tech wait for no one" How true. There was a time when this country had lots of jobs for people who wouldn't, or worse, couldn't get an education. Our unemployment lines are a constant reminder that the time has passed when you could just buy a lunch bucket and go out and get yourself a job. With computers, robotics and other technology advancing at blurring speeds, the job hunter without "at least" a "good" high school education is going to find himself or herself as the proverbial, "lost ball in high weeds".

As a taxpayer, I realize that it's strain on the pocketbook to support a quality educational system. But, also from the taxpayer's point of view, it doesn't take much foresight to see why it's better to support education, rather than supporting hordes of "lost balls" for the rest of their lives.

With a quality education an absolute must for the young people entering today's job market, I can't believe that anyone with even just one eye on the future can go to the polls Monday and pull the "no" lever. Please vote Monday, and please vote "yes" for both the millage renewal and increase.

DEAN LIST
Lisa Willyard is on the Deans list at Western Michigan University this term. She is the daughter of Jim and Mary Willyard and granddaughter of Dee Bryant all of Alto and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Willyard of Caledonia.

"They're just farm kids."

Have you ever heard those words when education is discussed?

Those who think like that should be reminded that one of the few truly brilliant men to be president, Thomas Jefferson, considered himself a farmer. He saw a large number of small independent landholders as the best future for his new country, people who would be defenders of the republican ideal. To make sure that these yeoman farmers would not become just another illiterate peasantry, he proposed in his new land survey system that one section from each township be set aside for the use of public education. Those Age of Enlightenment elitists took the value of learning mighty seriously. Good for them.

In the 1850s, Congress established a Land Grant College system to make sure that farm youth and all of agriculture would have access to the growing science and technology of that era - as well as have a crack at liberal education. Talk about social revolutionary action! Our own Michigan State was the first school so established.

Maybe it is because the leaders of that era felt that farmers should be more educated than the general population. Not less.

THEN and NOW

Here are a few facts on the scent of the past...and the present.

THEN: The Egyptians soaked fragrant woods and resins in water and oil, then rubbed their bodies with the liquid. For hundreds of years, perfume making was chiefly an Oriental art. In the early 1200s, the Crusaders brought perfume from Palestine to England and France, and by the 1500s, perfumes had become popular throughout Europe. It was the French who discovered the secret of layering a fragrance in various forms for magnificent sensory effect.

NOW: Today, many American women are doing the same...using a lovely scent in the bath and finishing with a final spray or splash of cologne or perfume, a technique that can make a woman and her fragrance as one. One lovely, diffusive and feminine new scent, Fantasque, was inspired by French designer Louis Feraud. This exquisite scent is available from Avon in Perfumed Body Veil, a wonderfully satin-smooth lotion to apply all over the body after bathing. Enriched with moisturizing emollients, Body Veil is delicately scented with Fantasque to soften and sicken the skin while leaving behind a subtle, lingering scent.

Resolution No. 6-83-73 regarding an easement to Consumers Power Company on Fallasburg Dam Property in Vergennes Township was presented. (All have received copies.)

RESOLUTION BY COMMISSIONER LANINGA

WHEREAS, a request for an easement across County property near the Fallasburg Dam in Vergennes Township has been received from Consumers Power for an extension of electrical service, and

WHEREAS, this request has been reviewed by the Road Commission, Park Commission and the Buildings, Parks and Transportation Committee and is being recommended for approval.

Commissioner Laninga moved the adoption of the resolution. Seconded by Commissioner Wahfield.

Mr. Somers reported on Thursday Commissioner Boerema questioned the prudence of granting this easement across our property at the proposed location, and suggested following property lines. He has checked with both the Park Commission and the Road Commission, who advise this is a very hilly area and drops off toward the dam. The most they would ever do with this area is have a turn-out or parking area there and the easement would not interfere.

Commissioner Laninga moved to amend the resolution so that the easement would follow property lines. Seconded by Commissioner DeVriendt.

Chairperson But ruled the motion to amend failed by a voice vote.

Commissioner Kemper challenged the ruling of Chairperson But. Commissioner Sietsema requested reconsideration of the amendment and a roll call vote be taken.

A roll call on Commissioner Laninga's amendment failed by the following vote:

Nays: Bandstra, Oppewal, Puel, Byington, Somerville, Laninga, Lorch, Martin But, Wahfield, Blakeslee, Chairperson But - 11.

Commissioner Laninga's motion to adopt the resolution as presented carried unanimously.

RESOLUTION BY COMMISSIONER DEVRIENDT

WHEREAS, the Kent County Health Department has enforced the Kent County Animal Control Health Regulations since January 1, 1981, and

WHEREAS, this system employs a civil hearing system to replace the more costly and cumbersome criminal court procedures, and

WHEREAS, the new system involves an appeals system in which a person who feels he has been cited unjustly first appeals to a hearing officer, second to the Health Director, third to an Appeals Committee of the County Board and fourth to Circuit Court, and

WHEREAS, as of this time no one has ever requested review by the County Appeals Committee, and

WHEREAS, as of this time the Board of Commissioners has not appointed a County Appeals Committee, and

WHEREAS, the Health Board and the Personnel, Safety and Social Services Committee recommend that the Health Board be designated as the County Appeals Committee.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Kent County Board of Commissioners hereby designate the Health Board as the County Appeals Committee for the Civil Citation System for enforcement of the Health Department Animal Control Regulations.

RESOLUTION BY COMMISSIONER MARSH

WHEREAS, the Finance Committee has reviewed and approved Change Order #2 for the Kent County Correctional Facility Project requesting a total addition to the contract of $3,225.00, and

WHEREAS, the proposed Change Order encompasses State Department of Corrections recommendations for hot water pump and camera changes recommended by staff.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Kent County Board of Commissioners hereby approve Change Order #2 for the Kent County Correctional Facility.

Nays: Kuhn - 1.

Duane Roberts, President of the Farm Bureau and a dairy farmer from Sparta Township in northern Kent County urged the Commissioners to appeal the decision of the State Tax Commission to add an additional factor of 8.48 on agricultural property in Kent County.

Alone Township Supervisor J. Phil Paepke stated he feels the statistics the State used were erroneous in some cases as agricultural values in Kent County have stabilized or declined and certainly haven't increased.

Joseph Klein stated the farmers in Kent County are adding a lot to the economy of the County as well as the State and he feels increases in agricultural property values are unjustified at this time.

Civil Counsel DeWitt explained the principles involved in appealing the State Tax Commission's decision to add a factor to agricultural property in Kent County and suggested an Executive Session to review facts and options.

After more discussion, Commissioner DeVriendt moved to go into Executive Session to discuss proposed litigation or a challenge on the issue. Seconded by Commissioner Kuhn.

Motion carried unanimously.

Following the Executive Session, Commissioner Byington moved to go out of Executive Session. Seconded by Commissioner Kuhn.

Motion carried unanimously.

Commissioner Wahfield moved that the Board of Commissioners direct Civil Counsel DeWitt to file an appeal with the Michigan Court of Appeals. Seconded by Commissioner Lamoreaux.

Motion carried unanimously.

Commissioner Kuhn stated there is a need for volunteers to help between now and Friday morning on the Plaza prior to Festival '83.

Lee Beckett arrived at the meeting after the completion of all regular Agenda items and after the period of time provided by the Agenda for public comment. The Chairperson therefore ruled that no further comment would be accepted and that ruling was protested by Lee Beckett.

Commissioner Sietsema moved to adjourn to Friday, June 17, 1983 at 9:00 a.m. for a Special Meeting for the purpose of approval to submit an Energy Jobs Bill Application for $731,000 with a listing of projects to be funded, and to Thursday, June 30, 1983 at 9:00 a.m. for a Committee of the Whole Meeting and to Wednesday, July 6, 1983 at 9:00 a.m. for an Official Meeting. Seconded by Commissioner Kemper.

LOWELL MIDDLE SCHOOL PRESENTS "COMING OF AGE"

On Tuesday evening, May 31, the Lowell Middle School eighth grade choir and cast presented "Coming of Age", a musical drama about being thirteen.

Under the direction of Cheryl Blodgett and the musical direction of Roger MacNaughton, the cast of 28 and chorus of 31 drew the audience with them through all those situations of adolescence that anyone who is or ever has been - can relate to. Song titles such as "Pukerty Blues," "Girl-Watching," "I'm Grounded," "On the Outside Looking In," "Broken Home On the Range," and "If I had a Friend," "The Bird and the Bees," offer a sampling of the often humorous adolescent traumas depicted.

An extraordinary amount of singing and acting talent was displayed by these first-time performers, who brought energy and life to a very professional production.

"Art for all children" staged at Alto

"Art for all children" was once again the theme of this year's Alto Fine Arts Celebration (AFAC) at Alto Elementary on Friday, May 20. Twenty-six volunteer and professional "Artists" offered one hour workshops spanning the creative, visual and performing arts. The workshops were designed to allow the children a brief exploration of the arts as leisure time activities and potential career choices.

This year's workshop choices offered a real variety to the five to twelve year old explorers. Busy hands tackled painting, basketry, pottery, toymaking, woodworking and floral design. Creative movement, dance, juggling, mime, and magic attracted the "performers" in the crowd. Photography and detective work sessions appealed to yet another group of children.

Peter "Madcat" Ruth, a harmonica enthusiast and entertainer, treated the children to two performances which were both musically entertaining and educationally informative. While listening, clapping rhythms and sometimes humming along, the audience learned many interesting facts about Madcat's unusual collection of instruments.

When rain forced cancellation of the planned outdoor lunch, the children gathered in and around the Media Center for a different musical show. Lowell High School's Fifth Hour Band played and sang their way through a number of top tunes that had the children hand-clapping and foot tapping along.

After the day's workshop schedule, children were divided into book discussion groups where they were recognized for their authorship in the district's recent Young Author Competition. Student books were shared at that time.

The final activity of the day was an all school assembly featuring a sing-along. Winning ceiling tiles, designed and painted by the children for the media center, were unveiled for all to see. Funding for this year's AFAC came from a number of sources. In addition to student popcorn and fudge bar sales, AFAC coordinator Robyn Burdell, an Alto teacher, contacted interested organizations for the necessary monies to finance such a day.

A grant from the Michigan Council for the Performing Arts, and donations from the Alto Parent Teacher Club and the Alto Lions rounded out the budget. These funds, as well as the many, many hours of volunteer work by staff and community people, helped make "The Arts" a little more real for the Alto students.

The largest clams in the world weigh close to 500 pounds!

How will all this mud make a pot? Alto kids form their personalities in a Fine Arts Celebration.

Summertime festivals abound in Michigan

Seems like just about any excuse will do for a summer festival in Michigan these days. You can relive the ordeals of your childhood supper time at the 10th annual National Asparagus Festival in Shelby and Hart (June 10-12). Oceana County is the self-proclaimed "Asparagus Capital of the world". Not too presumptuous, since Michigan is the third-leading producer of this nutritious, low-calorie veggie. Highlights of the festival are the 100-unit Asparagus Royale Parade, the Asparagus Recipe Contest, including such standard favorites as asparagus meringue pie, and the crowning of Mrs. Asparagus 1983.

Nowhere else would one find the World's Longest Breakfast Table (June 11) but in downtown Battle Creek. Michigan during the Cereal City Festival (June 8-11) Who could pass up a chance to meet Miss America, participate in a Guinness Book of Records entry, and, best of all, enjoy a FREE breakfast of Battle Creek products?

The annual Thimbleberry Blossom Festival (June 19-27) honors what is rapidly becoming Michigan's worst-kept culinary secret. The thimbleberry is unique to the Keweenaw Peninsula and communities throughout Copper Country celebrate its blossom time in various ways including ethnic displays and dancing, a miners' ball, a heritage homes tour, and a Mariner's Memorial Service for Great Lakes sailors.

Only a bit less reverent, the 10th annual International Cherry Pit Spitting Championship at the Tree-Mendus Fruit Farm near Eau Claire (July 2) will pit pit spitters from the U.S. and Canada in a contest zany enough to have become a nationwide media event. The record—more than 60 feet—is listed in the Guinness Book and a crowd of several thousand is expected to watch this year's gaggle of pit-spitting nitwits spit pits.

What makes the annual Purple Loosestrife Festival in Hillsdale (July 29-31) a one-of-a-kind event is, quite simply, the fact that it's the only festival in the nation that honors this perennial wildflower. Loosestrife (Lythrum Solicaria) seems to be inordinately fond of Hillsdale County since the profusion in which it grows there seems to be unmatched elsewhere. And it provides a unique and glorious backdrop for a myriad of festival activities including a historical pageant, a fine arts and crafts show, a Loosestrife cross-country run, and tours through acres upon acres of you guessed it... Purple Loosestrife.

The Carry Nation Festival in Holly (Sept. 9-11) honors a woman who, in her turn of the century day, wouldn't have gone near a summer festival except to bust up the beer tent with her hatchet. It's held in Battle Alley, an area of restored buildings—now shops, craft studios, and restaurants—that was the scene of one of the famous temperance leader's equally famous bottle-bashing rampages when it housed enterprises of less laudable virtue. A street pageant, recreating that evening in 1908, is held on Saturday and Sunday. More traditional activities include an antique car parade, Lumberjack competition, pig wrestling, grape-stomping, and... (Say it ain't so!) a beer tent.

More? You bet your Loosestrife! CONSTANT COMMENTS

By DAVID & EUNICE BIGELOW

For the summer of '83, iced tea has a brand new look! Like many other beverages and foods, it's gone "light."

The new iced tea variation? "Constant Comment" Coolers. Low in calories and caffeine, sparkling and refreshing, with a delicate hint of orange and sweet spice, this new iced tea has been created for today's lighter, livelier taste.

To make these orange-and-spice iced tea Coolers: Simply combine equal parts of "Constant Comment" Iced Tea (as directed on the canister) with club soda or ginger ale in ice-filled glasses. Stir, garnish with fresh lemon or lime wedges. Sip and enjoy!

HISTORY OF AMERICA

ELECTRICITY: THE GREAT LIBERATOR

When Thomas Edison opened the first central electric generating plant on New York City's Pearl Street in 1882, women across America were virtual slaves to their housekeeping chores. One can only try to imagine the home-bound life of drudgery that women endured a century ago, and the revolutionary impact the "new" electricity had upon their lives.

The wide range of alternatives available to women today in considering their lifestyles represents choices which would have been unthinkable 100 years ago. A woman may further her education, pursue a career, develop her creative talents, and/or care for her home and family. More and more women are successfully combining professional careers with their roles as wives and mothers. The opportunity to do so, the liberation from labor, is a gift of the electric age.

As the old saying goes, "A man may work from sun to sun, but women's work is never done." While washing clothes by hand, ironing, laking and cleaning took entire days of hard labor, they represented only a fraction of "women's work" at the time. Women also had to perform dozens of other daily tasks: children had to be cared for, meals prepared, beds made, clothes sewn, dusting and sweeping done, rooms tidied. Women had to use wood or coal stoves—insufferably hot in spring and summer and emitting noxious fumes all year-round—to heat water for washing and cooking. Water had to be hauled from outdoor pumps or wells. Even the change of seasons meant more work, as women undertook spring and fall cleaning. In the absence of a food processing industry, women canned their own fruit and vegetables.

But Edison's electricity changed all that. In 1912, he predicted that a woman of the future "will give less attention to the home, because the home will need less; she will be rather a domestic engineer than a domestic laborer, with the greatest of all handmaidens, electricity, at her service.

This and other mechanical forces will so revolutionize the woman's world that a large portion of the aggregate of women's energy will be conserved to use in broader, more constructive fields."

He was right. The new electric labor-saving appliances—vacuum cleaners, clothes washers, irons, sewing machines, refrigerators, and ultimately dishwashers, ranges and even microwave ovens—freed women from the homeplace, just as the new industrialization was creating an unprecedented number of jobs in factories, department stores, telephone exchanges, and offices. Higher levels of education and employment gave women the opportunity to evaluate themselves, compare their grievances, and achieve new political and social awareness. They demanded civil equality and the right to vote and spearheaded reforms in factory working conditions, demanding cleaner, healthier work environments and better wages.

The role of women was undoubtedly expanding, but change of any kind is rarely achieved overnight. For many years, electric appliances were available only to families who could afford such luxury. In 1911, the best vacuum-cleaner sold for $15; a small electric stove was $110; and a family-sized washing machine was $85; a lot of money in those non-inflationary days. But, as Edison predicted, the price of electricity and appliances fell as the efficiency of production methods improved. In fact, the price of electricity kept falling until the 1973 Arab oil embargo and rising interest rates combined with uncontrolled inflation and tangled regulations to send all energy prices skyrocketing.

As the use of appliances became more widespread, women took their place in the workforce. Today, women are moving into executive positions and the boardroom, where they are previously inconceivable. The question is, will electricity's second century fulfill all its promises—or will women's "great liberator" find its future role needlessly constrained? Like the women of America, electricity represents a priceless resource with the potential to make ever-greater contributions to the world if we give it the opportunity to do so.

CITY OF LOWELL - CODE OF ORDINANCES FLOOD HAZARD AREAS - ARTICLE XII

1) Amend Section 12.02 to read:

SECTION 12.02 DELINEATION OF THE FLOOD HAZARD OVERLAY ZONE

(1) The flood hazard area zone shall overlay existing zoning districts delineated on the official City of Lowell Zoning Map. The boundaries of the flood hazard area zone shall coincide with the boundaries of the areas indicated as within the limits of the 100-year flood in the report entitled "The Flood Insurance Study City of Lowell", dated May 16, 1983 with accompanying Flood Insurance Rate Maps and Flood Boundary and Floodway Maps. Within the flood hazard area zone a regulatory floodway shall be designated. The boundaries of the regulatory floodway shall coincide with the floodway boundaries indicated on the Flood Boundary and Floodway Map. The Study and accompanying maps are adopted by reference, appended, and declared to be a part of this ordinance shall mean the flood hazard zone and the term floodway shall mean the designated regulatory floodway.

(2) Where there are disputes as to the location of a flood hazard area zone boundary, the Zoning Board of Appeals shall resolve the dispute in accord with section XVIII.

(3) In addition to other requirements of this ordinance applicable to development in the underlying zoning district, compliance with the requirements of this Article shall be necessary for all development occurring within the flood hazard area zone.

2) Revise Section 12.04 to read:

SECTION 12.04

(1) Development, including the erection of structures and placement of mobile homes, within a flood hazard area shall not occur except upon issuance of a zoning compliance permit in accord with the requirements of (citation for Article XVII section dealing with zoning compliance permit issuance) and the following standards:

- a) the requirements of this Article shall be met;
- b) the requirements of the underlying zoning districts and applicable general provisions of this ordinance shall be met;
- c) all necessary development permits shall have been issued by appropriate local, state and federal authorities, including a floodplain permit, approval, or letter of no authority from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources under authority of Act 245, Public Acts of 1929, as amended by Act 167, Public Acts of 1968. Where a development permit cannot be issued prior to the issuance of a zoning compliance permit, a letter from the issuing agency indicating intent to issue contingent only upon proof of zoning compliance shall be acceptable.

3) Add as a new section:

SECTION 12.07 GENERAL STANDARDS FOR FLOOD HAZARD REDUCTION

(1) All new construction and substantial improvements within a flood hazard area, including the placement of prefabricated buildings and mobile homes, shall:

- a) be designed and anchored to prevent flotation, collapse, or lateral movement of the structure;
- b) be constructed with materials and utility equipment resistant to flood damage; and
- c) be constructed by methods and practices that minimize flood damage.

(2) all new and replacement water supply systems shall minimize or eliminate infiltration of flood waters into the systems.

(3) All new and replacement sanitary sewage systems shall minimize or eliminate infiltration of flood waters into the systems and discharges from systems into flood waters. On-site waste disposal systems shall be located to avoid impairment to the system or contamination from the system during flooding.

(4) all public utilities and facilities shall be designed, constructed and located to minimize or eliminate flood damage.

(5) Adequate drainage shall be provided to reduce exposure to flood hazards.

(6) The (designated local official) or his representative shall review development proposals to determine compliance with the standards in this section, and shall transmit his determination to the zoning administrator.

(7) Land shall not be divided in a manner creating parcels or lots which cannot be used in conformance with the requirements of this Article.

(8) The flood carrying capacity of any altered or relocated watercourse not subject to state or federal regulations designed to insure flood carrying capacity shall be maintained.

(9) Available flood hazard data from federal, state or other sources shall be reasonable utilized in meeting the standards of this section. Data furnished by the Federal Insurance Administration shall take precedence over data from other sources.

4) Section 12.04 (3) should be revised to read:

SECTION 12.04 SPECIFIC BASE FLOOD ELEVATION STANDARDS

(1) On the basis of the most recent available base flood elevation data the following standards shall apply in the flood hazard area zone:

a) all new construction and substantial improvements of residential structures shall have the lowest floor, including basement, elevated to or above the base flood level.
(NOTE: it is often recommended that elevation and floodproofing be required to 1 foot above flood level to allow for flooding variations caused by such unpredictable accuracies as ice jams or the cumulative effect of future minor floodplain encroachments.)

b) All new construction and substantial improvements of non-residential structures shall have either:

1) the lowest floor, including basement, elevated to or above the base flood level; or

2) be constructed such that below base flood level, together with attendant utility and sanitary facilities, the structure is watertight with walls substantially impermeable to the passage of water and with structural components having the capability of resisting hydrostatic and hydrodynamic loads and effects of buoyancy. A registered professional engineer or architect shall certify that the standards of this subparagraph are satisfied, and that the floodproofing methods employed are adequate to withstand the flood depths, pressures, velocities, impact and uplift forces and other factors associated with a base flood in the location of the structure. Such certification shall be submitted as provided in section (citation) and shall indicate the elevation to which the structure is floodproofed.

(2) The most recent base flood elevation data received from the Federal Insurance Administration shall take precedence over data from other sources.

5) If mobile homes are permitted used in Lowell, add as a new section:

SECTION 12.08 MOBILE HOME STANDARDS

(1) All mobile homes shall be anchored to resist flotation, collapse, or lateral movement by providing over-the-top and frame ties in accord with the following specifications:

a) over-the-top ties shall be provided at each of the four corners of the mobile home, with two additional ties per side at intermediate locations, except that on mobile homes less than 50 feet in length one tie per side shall be required.

b) frame ties shall be provided at each corner of the home with five additional ties per side at intermediate points, except that on mobile homes less than 500 feet in length four ties per side shall be required.

c) all components of the anchoring system shall be capable of carrying a force of 4,800 pounds.

b) all additions to a mobile home shall be similarly anchored.

(2) An evacuation plan indicating alternate vehicular access and escape routes shall be filed with (indicate appropriate disaster preparedness authority) for mobile home parks and mobile home subdivisions.

(3) Mobile homes within zones A1-30 on the Flood Insurance Rate Map shall be located in accord with the following standards:

a) all mobile homes shall be placed on stands or lots which are elevated on compacted fill or on pilings so that the lowest floor of the mobile home will be at or above the base flood level.

b) adequate surface drainage away from all structures and access for a mobile home hauler shall be provided.

c) in the instance of elevation on pilings, lots shall be large enough to permit steps, piling foundations shall be placed in stable soil no more than 10 feet apart; and reinforcement shall be provided for piers more than six feet above ground level.

d) in mobile home parks and mobile subdivisions which exist at the time this subsection is adopted, where repair, reconstruction or improvement of streets, utilities and pads equals or exceeds 50% of the value of the streets, utilities and pads before the repair, the standards in subparagraphs a, b, and c of this subsection shall be complied with.

EFFECTIVE DATE - MAY 17, 1983 12:01 A.M.

Ray Quada - City Manager

Council then discussed the bid proposals for the repair to the Lowell Library building.

Bids were tabulated as follows:

	Repair of Roof underboard.	Re-roofing softet & facia
G. R. Roofing & Siding	$3,100	$4,675-$7,775
Sheriff Goslin Co.	2,537	5,785-8,322
Sun Ray Roofing Co.	2,875	5,750-8,750

Council concurred that the procedure and materials to be used by Grand Rapids Roofing and Siding Company would be the best for the building.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Christiansen that the bid of $7,775 submitted by the Grand Rapids Roofing and Siding Company for repair to the Lowell Library Building be approved, supported by Councilman Maatman.

Carried.

Mayor Collins then turned the meeting over to Councilman Maatman, Chairman of the Zoning Board of Appeals for a Public Hearing on the request of Mr. Dick Willard for a variance in square footage requirements in an R-1 Single Family Residential Zone, to allow the construction of a two-story home, on Hunt Street. The plans call for 960 square feet of living area on the main level, with an additional 960 square feet of living space to be rouged in and insulated for future use. The ordinance requirement is 1,500

Chairman Maatman opened the Public Hearing.

Manager Quada stated that there had been no letters of objection from any neighboring property owners, and there were no comments from the audience. The Planning Commission has recommended approval.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Fonger that the variance be granted, supported by Councilman Collins.

Carried.

Councilman Maatman then closed the Hearing and turned the meeting back over to Mayor Collins.

Manager Quada then stated that he had received a request from Fritts Bait Shop located on W. Main Street for a Sign Ordinance Variance for size and placement. He recommended that the first meeting in June be set as a Public Hearing.

Council concurred.

Under Citizen Input, Mr. Dick Willard asked about the possibility of a Spring Clean-up or City Truck Service being reinstated.

Manager Quada replied that with the Public Act No. 641 calling for an hydrological survey, and improvements required by the State, totaling over $27,000 there is no way possible for the City to re-open the landfill. The only alternative for area residents is to contract with private haulers, or use the Kent County Landfill at Rockford, or the Saranac Landfill.

Mayor Collins then introduced Mr. Ben DeVito, who presented a request for a permit to hold a five-mile run through the City into Vergennes township, and back into the City as a thank-you to the Russian Government for releasing a family from the basement of the American Embassy in Russia, and allowing the one woman to emigrate to the United States.

Council concurred to allow the run, but questioned the validity of a "thank-you" to Russian Government for releasing one family, when millions of others are being held hostage.

Mr. DeVito explained that it is one "speck" of hope and may help promote better relations which could help the others, and that is why the race will be titled "New Beginnings". He stated that at present they have $640 in donations for printing for T-shirts, etc. from the community. The run will be held June 18, 1983.

There was no Manager's Report.

Under Council Comments, Councilman Maatman about the City's liability for kids swimming at the old Showboat dock. Manager Quada stated that he would have to check on the City's Liability Insurance and ordinances to be sure. He will report back at the next meeting.

IT WAS THEN MOVED TO adjourn by Councilman Christiansen at 9:08 P.M.

Letters...

Dear Fellow Taxpayers of the Lowell School District,
Let me first say I am a concerned tax paying citizen with three children in the Lowell School System. I commend the school system on the fact that our children are being educated very well.

I am concerned with higher taxes as I am sure most of us are. We in rural Kent County have already been warned of a seven percent increase in the evaluation of our land for next year. Think of the revenue this will generate for the school!

We must not forget that a large portion of school tax dollars come from agriculture. In fact agriculture, small business and the hard working overtaxed people make up this community. These are the people whose tax dollars have paid for the fine school system we have today.

Most of us have been faced with belt tightening measures in our homes, businesses, and farms. We've become more efficient, better organized, and more austere minded. Certainly we can live with the proposed cut-backs in the school. Our children with a little guidance and practical education at the home level will grow up to be responsible adults.

Mr. DeVito explained that it is one "speck" of hope and may help promote better relations which could help the others, and that is why the race will be titled "New Beginnings". He stated that at present they have $640 in donations for printing for T-shirts, etc. from the community. The run will be held June 18, 1983.

There was no Manager's Report.

All in all, it seems clear to us that in defeating a millage election, there are no winners, only losers. We urge you to support the millage and make informed decisions when electing school board members.

The Lowell Area Jaycettes

During one of our regular training sessions at the "Oak Ridge", we devised this method of proving ourselves.

To show support for the new Beginning Race June 18th, we, the undersigned, do hereby issue this challenge. The "East Side Athletic Supporter's" (four in number - two male and two female) challenge the west side of town to produce a team of non-runners to compete against us in the 1.5 mile run. Team members must be in comparable fitness (years of smoking and drinking will automatically qualify you), and the age category is designated as "over the hill!"

We dare you West Siders to try to beat us! If you rise to the occasion, we'll see you at the race.

Signed,
The East Side
Athletic Supporters

The weekend of May 28 was a big success for the S.O.S. Save Our Showboat. It was an important event and I was proud to see so many people turn out to help the Showboat. Now we have another, even more important S.O.S. Save Our Schools.

I am a dairy farmer's wife, and I fully understand and sympathize with anyone who is concerned about a raise in their taxes. But we are living in a very technical time which requires the very best education possible for our children. Even we farmers can no longer get by with a minimal education. We are involved with computers for record keeping and feed rations, plus we have large machinery that take 4-skill to operate and maintain. Today more and more farmers have and are getting college degrees to help them make a success of their farming business. And in order to get that college degree there first has to come a very good primary and secondary education in our local schools.

This brings us back again to taxes and the millage increase. By voting for the 17.9 millage renewal, we are only renewing what we have already been paying. This is not enough millage to operate the Lowell Area Schools without having a deficit.

Therefore we are asked to consider another 3.9 mills for 1983, 4.1 mills for 1984, and 4.3 mills for 1985. If we pass both of these millage propositions, the combined operating millage will be 21.8 mills for 1983, 22.0 mills for 1984, and 22.2 mills for 1985. By passing both propositions, we can save some maybe all, of the programs that are now considered at risk. This should improve the education our youth will get in the Lowell school system so that they can continue to compete in the working world.

We should consider the tax increase as an investment, not with monetary interest, but with a return of a better education for our children. We need a school system to be proud of, like we are proud of the Lowell Showboat. With a yes vote on both proposals, we can answer this second S.O.S., and save our schools.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Edwin Roth

Alto field day

Easy does it. Water balloons take the gentle touch for Alto kids.

"Run, Sally, run!"
"Go, Jane, go!"
"Jump, Dick, jump!"
If you think that sounds like something out of an old outdated reading book, you're right. But those words echoed across the fields of Alto last Thursday as Alto Elementary students ran and jumped their way through their annual field day. Under the director of teacher Bill Stauffer, classroom teachers guided students through ten events.

Speed was the primary element as children raced across the field in the 50 and 75 yard dashes. The element of careful balance entered into the success in the sack race and the golf ball on a spoon race. Yet a third requirement of cooperation was essential to victory in the three-legged and wheelbarrow races. Accuracy and arm strength were tested in the softball throw, while a more gentle accuracy was required for the water balloon toss. Jumping techniques became important for the high and long jump events.

Although a lot of tired children went home at the end of the day, they will probably consider it all worthwhile when some 600 place and participation ribbons are awarded at the end of the year awards ceremony.

Runciman-Riverside PTO luncheon

On May 26th the Runciman Riverside PTO held a luncheon to honor all the parents who have volunteered their time and energy to make the school parties and PTO projects a big success. The honored guests enjoyed several types of salad and desserts. During the school year parents helped on two Book Fairs which earned us money and Bonus coupons. These were exchanged for books.

At our luncheon Mrs. Eileen McLaughlin our school librarian was presented a 16 volume Lets Discover Library and 38 other hardcover and paperback books.

We would like to thank everyone who participated not only in the Book Fairs, but all the school projects throughout the year.

Beth Beachum, Lowell and Annette Kingsland of Alto were awarded athletic letters at Hope College for their contributions to the college's all-sport Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association victory. Beth won her letter playing catcher for Hope's softball team while Annette represented Hope's tennis squad. The all-sports award is given for the best cumulative performances in the league's 18 sports for men and women.

The Chesaning Showboat hosts The Lennon Sister in its 42nd year...

Think ahead to six delightful, July 11th thru the 16th, as the pleasure-packed evenings from Chesaning Showboat rounds the bend of the Shiawassee River entertainment. This year the packed to the rails with talent and fabulous "Shiawassee River

THE LENNON SISTERS

Queen" will have more than her usual complement of exceptional talent. In fact, four times as many, as the vivacious Lennon Sisters have signed on as top crew members.

Perhaps you remember the Lennons when their "All-American Girl" image made them top-liners on the popular Lawrence Welk Television Show. All-American they still are...but as the saying goes, "Baby, you've come along way." The musical talent is still there...but expanded and increased to a perfection of well-rounded ability. The Lennons are still happy to include some of the old a cappella numbers in their repertoire but that's just the starting point. The squeaky-clean kids have grown into sensational sophisticated women. Their tastes in music, dancing and choreography have turned to fast-moving and contemporary routines to please all ages. The little gals have grown up...and beautifully.

Naturally, the Chesaning Showboat (observing its 42nd year) will feature all your favorite crew members, captained by Bob Rhode and accompanied by the full Showboat Chorus and Dance Line. They're all waiting to entertain you at Showboat Park in Chesaning, July 11th thru the 16th.

This year's Showboat Chairman, and also popular endman, Jim King has announced that there will be no increase in ticket prices for 1983. Other members of the Showboat Committee are: Tom Garikes, Patrick O'Hare and Pat Yule.

Tickets for the 1983 Chesaning Showboat are available either by mail or in person at the Showboat Ticket Office, 110 West Broad, in Chesaning. Telephone: (517) 845-3056.

MAKE YOUR OWN BARBECUE COOKER

The first step in constructing your own low-cost smoker/broiler is to visit your local refrigeration or air-conditioning repair shop to pick up an expired Freon storage container. (Federal law prohibits refilling these tanks, so the store owner will likely be more than happy to get rid of them.) Next, find yourself a piece of heavy wire mesh that measures about 16" X 24", then gather together five 1/4" X 1" stove bolts, a 1/4" X 1/2" compression spring, and a 2-1/2" X 4-1/2" section of 18-gauge sheet metal.

Now, you're ready to cut your Freon cylinder in half. Simply measure a point one inch above the container's welded midriff seam and drill a 1/4" hole. Then scribe a line (at this same level) all around the vessel's circumference, and, using the hole as a starting point, cut along the mark with an electric saber saw till the container is halved.

Next, use a hacksaw to remove the relief valve in the cooker's top portion and file the remaining nub smooth. With that done, mark off a 1-3/4"-diameter circle on the upper surface of the tank near the handles, cut this piece out with your electric saber saw, and drill a 1/4" hole about a quarter-inch from the rim of this opening.

Cut a 2-1/2"-diameter "coin" from the sheet metal and bend a small lip on one side of it. Drill another 1/4" hole near the edge of this "cap"... fasten the disk to the outside of the lid with a stove bolt, a spring, and a nut... and you'll have a simple but effective draft control for your cooker.

Prepare the lower portion of the Freon tank by simply cutting eight 1/2" ventilation holes around the base of the container as shown in the accompanying illustration. Fashion a set of guides for the lid by making four 1" X 1-1/4" sheet-metal tabs and bolting them around the upper lip of the base (allow about 3/4" of metal to protrude above the edge, then bend the tabs inward slightly so the lid can be slipped on and off easily).

Finally, cut two 11-1/4"-diameter disks from your steel mesh stock (this dimension might vary, depending on the size of your container), and clip a separate 4" X 15" rectangular section from the same screen sheet. Bend this last piece to form an equilateral triangle of 5" sides, then lay it down in the cooker's base. It will serve as a pedestal for the lower mesh disk, which you can put in place at this time. This circle supports the charcoal briquets, while the upper disk (which rests firmly on the four long "tab" bolts) provides the cooking surface.

Before you start preparing food in your new smoker grill, it's imperative that you give it a "dry run" to burn out any Freon that's still in the container. To do so, place a pile of charcoal briquets on the lower screen, ignite them, and wait till the coals get white hot. Then put on the top, open the draft control, and just let the fire burn itself out... after which all the paint on the cooker's surface should have peeled off, and the Freon residue will be completely gone. When the grill cools down, clean it thoroughly inside and out with a stiff wire brush, and give its outer surface several coats of heat-resistant paint.

Saturn is highlight of June skies say U.M. astronomers

Observers of June evening skies may see the ringed planet Saturn, points our University of Michigan astronomy Prof. Richard G. Teske.

Seen by ancient astronomers as a light shining near the edge of the known universe, Saturn has been revealed dramatically in recent years by observations from Earth-based telescopes and spacecraft missions, he notes.

"Situating low in the sky almost directly south of us, the planet is not to be confused with the blue star Spica, the 16th brightest star in our sky. Saturn is the left-most of the two objects, located about ten degrees east of Spica," Teske says.

"A billion miles from Earth, Saturn is the most distant and slowest-moving of the naked-eye planets. It was named for the plodding god of time."

"The planet's slow progression is due to its great distance from the sun, nearly ten times farther out than is Earth. Saturn takes almost 30 year to complete one circuit around our central star.

"Even a small telescope or powerful binoculars will reveal Saturn as a noticeably flattened planet encircled by a wide ring," says Teske. "The planet's diameter is almost ten times larger than Earth's, while the side-to-side extent of the ring is 21 times our planet's size."

As suspected from ground-based studies and confirmed by the Pioneer Saturn flyby in 1979, Saturn itself is composed almost entirely of hydrogen and helium, he says.

"Chemical elements familiar to us in the crust and interior of Earth, such as silicon, oxygen, sulfur and iron, make up only a few percent of Saturn's mass. Scientists think that most of these elements are located at the planet's center where they help comprise a dense, solid core a bit larger than Earth," Teske explains.

"Surrounding the core is an enormously deep, planet-wide liquid hydrogen ocean in which some helium also is mixed. Above the ocean is a gaseous atmosphere thousands of miles thick, made up mostly of hydrogen and helium as well. Ocean and atmosphere blend gradually into one another, and there is no definite planetary surface on which to land or stand.

"Clouds of frozen ammonia ice crystals float in the upper levels of the atmosphere. Those who view Saturn in a telescope are looking at the tops of these clouds."

According to the U-M astronomer, a "day" on Saturn is only a bit more than ten hours long. "The planet is greatly flattened by the effects of its rapid rotation speed, which measures 23,000 miles an hour at the equator.

"Seen in a telescope, the remarkable ring encircling Saturn looks solid. Actually, it is composed of uncountable numbers of rocky pieces ranging in size from huge boulders the size of houses to small pebbles and dust.

"Each of the ring particles is an independent moonlet following its own orbital track around the planet. Telescopic observations have shown that most of the particles are thinly coated with water-ice mixed with some other substances not yet identified."

Images of the ring which were radioed back by Voyager spacecraft in 1980 and 1981 caused great excitement when they revealed that the ring is composed of thousands of thin ringlets that merge with one another, Teske says, adding that the origin of the ring material and its history are not known.

"The ring is astonishingly flat and thin. Many different kinds of observations and calculations all agree that its thickness is less than a half-mile, even though its total diameter is more than 170,000 miles," he says. "As regards the ratio of thickness to diameter, Saturn's ring is the thinnest natural structure known."

Dowling & Hildenbrand place at state

Lynn Dowling and Chris Hildenbrand both placed at class B state track meet. Dowling placed 7th in the shot put. Her throw of 36'8-1/4" is a personal best. Hildenbrand placed 4th in the 330 low hurdles. Her time was 46.69.

The girls track awards banquet was held May 31, at the high school cafeteria. Chris Hildenbrand was named the teams most valuable performer. She finished the season with 243.3 points. Chris was the conference champion in both the 110 hurdles and 330 hurdles. She took a second in the long jump and was a member of the 880 relay team.

Liz Desser was named most improved performer. Desser ran the 880 this year. She placed 4th in the conference meet.

Paul Doyle was named Most Dedicated. Doyle ran the 440, 880 relay and Mile relay this season. She placed 3rd in the 440 in the conference meet. Also, she anchored a second place Mile relay team.

Cindy Dumas and Desser were awarded the distinction of being Most Spirited. Dumas a Freshman will be a strong asset to future Lowell track teams.

Lowell finished the track season third in the Tri-River Conference.
