City Council OK's rezoning for proposed mall

The shopping mall proposed to be built on a 6.7 acre site north of Main St. and just west of the new apartment buildings near Valley Vista got the green light from the Lowell City Council Monday night. The 55,800 sq. ft. mall as proposed by East Lansing Realty and Development Co. required a zoning change from R-3 residential to C-2 limited highway and commercial status. The council did just that Monday, but attached a Planned Urban Development overlay to the property that gives the city planning commission final say on all aspects of construction.

The rezoning request got a thorough going over by the city, which included three public hearings, with notices in the paper and registered letters sent to property owners within 300 feet of the mall property. At the final public hearing on Monday, two local businessmen and a property owner with his sights on building a mall were present to voice their disapproval of the rezoning. Art Warning, owner of Art's TV at 104 E. Main, Lowell said, "we've paid good money to put together these zoning maps, and it's not right that the city council can change it with the stroke of a pen". Duane Lambert, owner of Lambert's Variety, 123 W. Main, Lowell expressed his concern that two shopping malls might be built. And a lawyer representing the owners of the land west of the parcel in question expressed his belief that the zoning shouldn't be changed just because someone requested that it be changed.

The city's planning consultant Denny Larkin was present, and Councilman Robert Christiansen asked him for his opinion. Larkin pointed out a zoning sketch titled "alternate plan F", showed the property in question to be zoned commercial. Larkin also noted that the present zoning map is an "interim" map, and was never intended to be a final zoning map for the city. The Lowell Planning Commission has been working at upgrading it for two years, and plan F is the one that they are most comfortable with. This was a big reason for the planning commission's recommendation to the council to rezone the property.

Following Larkin's explanation, the council voted unanimously to change the zoning.

Jacobs leaves as Esch settles in

DR. FRITZ ESCH

Dr. Fritz Esch, who recently took the helm as Lowell Area School's Superintendent, has suddenly found himself without a first mate. George Jacob, assistant superintendent here for 3-1/2

Hit & run driver still at large

Authorities are still searching for a 1971 Chevrolet Chevelle station wagon involved in a fatal hit and run accident near Smyrna on Saturday, August 6. Linda Feuerstein, 27, was a passenger on a motorcycle driven by her husband Steven, 30. Linda was killed when the Chevelle reportedly slammed into the rear of the motorcycle as both vehicles were northbound on White's Bridge Road near Sparks Road. Linda was caught under the auto, and was dragged for about 900 feet before the car stopped, backed up to free her body from the undercarriage, then continued north. Steven was injured in the accident, but recovered enough to attend Linda's funeral. The accident occurred at 5:05 P.M. during clear visibility and dry roads.

Linda was an employee of the Ionia County National Bank, and they have offered a $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of the hit and run driver. The Feuersteins lived in Smyrna, and their neighbors are outraged by the incident. They have been searching relentlessly for the station wagon which has been described as green, gold, tan and brown by witnesses. The wagon is believed to have wood grain panels on the sides. Anyone with information should contact the Ionia Post of the Michigan State Police at 1-527-3600.

2 years has taken a teaching position at Hope College effective September 30. Leaving a $39,350 annual salary here, Jacob is said to be pleased to be returning to work at his and his wife's alma mater. The school board accepted Jacob's resignation noting that the timing could be better, but offered their best wishes to Jacob at his new position.

In the meantime, Esch, who was appointed on July 1 to fill the vacancy left by former superintendent Don Kelly's resignation, has been busy learning the ropes in the system from Jacob and others. Esch comes to Lowell from the Akron-Fairgrove school system, a rural district in Michigan's thumb area. Esch had been superintendent there since 1981, and for 22 years prior to that held a variety of positions with Lamphere Schools located in Madison Heights, Michigan. Esch received his BA from Hillsdale College in 1959, a Master of Education degree from Wayne State University in 1964, and his PhD. from Michigan State in 1973. His majors are in elementary education, curriculum development and school administration.

Esch is relocating here with his wife Sandy and their daughter Lori who will be entering the 8th grade at the Lowell Middle School. The other of their two children is Mike, a junior at Michigan Technological University majoring in biomedical engineering.

Esch says he is very pleased with his new position here, and added "with the recent passage of the millage it's rather obvious that the Lowell community views the education of its young people not as an expense, but as an investment."

M-21 crash kills two

Michael James Robinson, 20, of Cutlerville and Micheal Dean Werkema, 21, of Caledonia were killed when the vehicle they were riding in collided head on with a 16,000 gallon double bottom tanker carrying diesel fuel at 11:15 on Friday, August 12. Werkema was driving, and attempted to pass in a no-passing zone on M-21 east of Ada. The Werkema auto was westbound and collided with the rear of an auto driven by Micheal Dean Dotting, 19, of Cascade Township, as it attempted to pull back into the right lane. Werkema lost control following the collision, and swerved into the path of the oncoming tanker. The pair were killed instantly, and the auto was literally torn into two pieces, had to be searched for by those first to arrive at the scene.

The Dotting vehicle ended up in the ditch following the first collision. Dotting and his passenger John Schnittker III, 16, of Caledonia were both injured, but not seriously.

The Crystal Flash tanker was driven by Scott Davis Hall, 33, of Spring Lake. The truck's tanks ruptured on impact, and between 5,000 and 10,000 gallons of diesel fuel was spilled. Authorities can only speculate what might have happened had the tanker been carrying gasoline. The spill is significant enough to warrant a DNR clean-up effort, and officials estimate that it will take six months to a year to get it all cleaned up. Hall was also injured, but not seriously.

Crystal Flash pump trucks were dispatched to the scene, and salvaged what they could of the 16,000 gallons the tanker was carrying. Traffic was detoured around the site at least until late Saturday evening.

PROCEEDINGS of the

Kent County Board of Commissioners
Regular Meeting, August 1983

August 3, 1983

The Board of Commissioners met pursuant to adjournment. Called to order by Chairperson Butz. Roll called.

Present: Blakeslee, Wahlfeld, Martin Butz, Lorch, DeKraker, Laninga, Gainey, Sietema, Lamoreaux, DeVriendt, Somerville, Marsh, Kuhn, Kemper, Byington, Vaughn, Pappel, Oppewal, Bandstra, Boerema, Chairperson Richard D. Butz - 21.
Absent: None.

Quorum present.
Commissioner Bandstra introduced Rev. Gordon Negen, Pastor of Eastern Avenue Christian Reformed Church, who gave the invocation. Those present united in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Under a Special Order of Business, Social Services Board Chairperson Carol Landheer, Andrew Ylstira and David Schroeder from the Department of Social Services, gave a report on the status of the Emergency Assistance Task Force Program. Ms. Landheer stated they are proud to show this program to any other County as a model, and also the Governor's Office as a model.

Commissioner Kuhn moved the report be referred back to the Personnel Committee for further consideration and implementation, and there are items in the report that request ongoing changes or study that she feels the Committee has a responsibility to oversee. Seconded by Commissioner DeVriendt.

Motion carried unanimously.
Commissioner Byington moved the approval of the minutes of the July 6, 1983 meeting. Seconded by Commissioners Laninga and Marsh.

Motion carried unanimously.
A report of the Finance Committee of its meetings of July 5, 1983 through July 26, 1983 was presented. (All have received copies and copies are on file in the Office of the County Clerk.)

Commissioner DeKraker moved the report be received, concurred in and filed. Seconded by Commissioner Marsh.

Motion carried by the following vote:
Yeas: Blakeslee, Martin Butz, Lorch, DeKraker, Laninga, Gainey, Sietema, Lamoreaux, DeVriendt, Somerville, Marsh, Kuhn, Kemper, Byington, Vaughn, Pappel, Oppewal, Bandstra, Boerema, Chairperson Butz - 20.
Absent from Vote: Wahlfeld - 1.

Under Public Comment, Commissioner Kuhn introduced Mrs. Hazel Baar, a Friend, Neighbor, and Constituent, and active in the North-east Neighborhood Association.

Mrs. Baar expressed an interest in Library Consolidation and urged the Commissioners, if they approve a person for Director of the Kent County Library, to stress that the Consolidation of the Libraries has the Board's strong approval.

David Olson, President of the Greater Grand Rapids Lodging Association, read a prepared statement comparing the contributions received by the Convention Bureaus in other Cities in Michigan with Grand Rapids, and requesting favorable consideration of an increase in the Convention Bureau funding so as to include all revenues collected from the Hotel/Motel Tax, over and above the presently committed obligations.

Chairperson Butz suggested he attend the Finance Committee Meeting with Mr. Bill Dehaan.

Mr. Noah Seiffullah reported he has had difficulty obtaining admission to the Kent County Jail to provide religious services for Islamic Muslim inmates and requested equal privileges with Pastors of other religions.

Rev. Negen, a Christian Minister, expressed his feeling that Mr. Seiffullah should be allowed equal privileges.

Sheriff Heffron explained it is impossible to allow representatives of 600 churches to roam the catwalks of the Jail, but he feels they have liberal policies. If Mr. Seiffullah desires to come on a regular basis, he must get identification and he would then have no problem being admitted. He added, as far as he is concerned, he and Mr. Seiffullah are friends and this problem can be easily resolved.

Mr. Michael Styczenki, from Touche Ross & Co., gave an explanation of the Kent County Board of Auditor's audit reports. After some discussion, Commissioner Wahlfeld moved the reports be received and filed. Seconded by Commissioners Laninga & Kemper. Motion carried unanimously.

HOMESPUN DEVOTIONS

by Pauline E. Spray

...thou art very great (Psalm 104:1).

"This is my father," I say with pride whenever I introduce Dad. To me he has always been a hero. There is always fun when Dad is around. His sparse gray hair was once bushy and curly. His eyes still twinkle with the mischief of his youth. It is wonderful to have good parents! It's wonderful, too, to "brag" about our Heavenly Father. The Psalmist tells us God stretched out the heavens like a curtain and laid the beams of His chambers in the waters. He made the clouds His chariots and walks upon the wings of the wind. He laid the foundations of the earth, and the waters fled at the voice of His rebuke. He appointed the moon for seasons. He sends springs into the valleys. He waters the hills, making the herbs and grass to grow. He provides food and drink for men, the trees for the birds to lodge in, the hills for the goats, and the rocks for the conies. He provided the night for the beasts to seek their prey and the day for man to labor. The earth is full of His riches. He created all this and more. "This is my Heavenly Father."

Prayer: "Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my god... thou art clothed with honor and majesty." Accept my adoration and praise. Enable me to "brag" about Thee at every opportunity. Amen.

My Father is rich in houses and lands; He holdeth the wealth of the world in His hands! Of rubies and diamonds, of silver and gold, His coffers are full - He has riches untold.

About 48 billion metal cans, 26 billion bottles, 65 billion metal bottle caps, and seven million automobiles are junked each year in the U.S.

The first all-professional U.S. baseball team was founded in 1870. Its members were known at that time as the Cincinnati Red Stockings.

'Yesterday' a nice way to spend CFL halftime

By Mark Nolan

In the early days of televised football, the people at CTV used to be hard pressed to come up with a substantial and entertaining halftime show for CFL games. A popular means of filling the intermission was to bring on a high school or college marching band from the states. This practice was short-lived, however, as the musicians' union in Canada started demanding enormous amounts of money for allowing these bands to perform on television.

Today, the problem has been solved. The halftime feature during CTV's CFL games, "Yesterday in the CFL," has been a tremendous success since first airing in 1981. One of the reasons for the show's popularity is the host, Johnny Esaw.

Since 1948, when he began as a radio announcer for the Saskatchewan Rough Riders, Esaw has been involved in practically every aspect of CFL broadcasts on both radio and television. Since 1961, he has been instrumental in putting together the televised coverage of the CFL on CTV.

"I had tried several different things to cover halftimes," says Esaw. "I created all sorts of gimmicks, games and angles. Some worked and some didn't. Three years ago we sat down and said, 'OK, it's time for another new one.'"

At the time, says Esaw, the whole idea of nostalgia was becoming more and more popular. So he hired a production company to begin the series, but the final product wasn't quite what he wanted. "I didn't want to do it myself," he says, "because I had had my second heart attack, and wasn't about to be traveling across the country back and forth. I was dissatisfied with the people we tried, and so I decided that to do it the way I wanted it, I had to do it myself, because I was there, and all the people we're dealing with were people I was closely associated with in football."

Originally, "Yesterday in the CFL" was not intended to remain on the air for more than three years. Esaw points out, however, that guests are now being sought out for '84.

"We do 35 games a year," he says, "so I needed 35 guests. A guy sent me a list of 76 names that I hadn't used, and every one of them was a legitimate candidate for this program."

So, it appears that marching bands will be out of CTV halftime shows in 1984, also.

Bus Rules For Riders

Transportation to and from school is offered to approximately 2,500 students each day. The safety of your children is the chief concern of the home and the school. It must be realized that anything that happens on the bus to divert the driver's attention immediately puts the safety of your children in jeopardy. Therefore, it is absolutely necessary that all students riding the buses conduct themselves in an orderly manner. We would appreciate your taking a few minutes to review with your children the following bus safety rules:

1. What is expected aboard the bus.
2. The reasons for having rules of conduct.
3. If bus rules are not obeyed they may lose the privilege of riding the bus.

RESPONSIBILITY OF STUDENTS

1. Stay seated until it is time to get off the bus.
2. Never poke your hands, arms or head out of a bus window.
3. Look before you walk away from or around a bus. Always be aware of other traffic.
4. OBEY all bus rules.

RESPONSIBILITY OF PARENTS:

1. Get your children to the Bus Stop early. Late arrivals can throw the driver off schedule.
2. The same manners that apply in your private auto should apply on the School Bus. The driver will appreciate being able to concentrate on the road and not on student-caused distractions.
3. Accept joint responsibility with the school authorities for proper conduct of your children.

Motorists, the flashing red lights of a stopped school bus means STOP. Any school bus, moving or stopped, should trigger extra caution on your part.

School bus stops can get hectic. Be alert, especially for children standing too close to curb edges.

School buses and school bus safety have come a long way since the first Model T was adapted to carry students. The basic rules, however, of caution and courtesy, haven't changed. Keeping these safety tips in mind now and throughout the school year can help to keep school buses the safe mode of transportation they have become.

St. Jude Bike-a-Thon chairperson from Lowell

The Central Regional Office of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital announced today that Ms. Elsie Warner has agreed to chair the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Bike-a-Thon in Lowell.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas. The institution opened its doors to the public in 1962 to combat catastrophic diseases which afflict our children. St. Jude Hospital is non-sectarian, non-discriminatory, and provides total medical care to over 4,200 patients.

At St. Jude, scientists and physicians are working side by side seeking not only a better means of treatment, but also the causes, cures and prevention of these terrible killers.

All findings and information gained at the hospital are shared freely with doctors and hospitals all over the world. Thanks to St. Jude's children who have leukemia, Hodgkin's disease, sickle cell anemia, and other child killing diseases now have a better chance to live.

The Bike-a-Thon program is dedicated to "Terry". Terry was diagnosed with leukemia in March of 1978, and began treatment at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Today, she is well and off all medication. Terry is a living example of the progress and success of the research, patient care, and educational programs of this internationally recognized hospital.

The funds raised in the Bike-a-Thons this fall will help assure the continuation of the life giving work at the hospital.

By Roger Brown

I could never be accused of being any sort of a "dandy" or "Beau Brummel" when it comes to my dress. Clothing in my wardrobe must meet several criteria, any of which keep me from projecting a John Travolta-like image. Because of my "Moose-XL" size, I am immediately limited by what's available at the stores. I go shopping with my wife and she holds up a pair of apple green pants, a navy brood shirt, an apple green belt with blue whales on it, and a nice pair of docksiders, and says, "here's a great looking outfit honey". I take one look and say, "Yeh right, good luck finding it in Moose-XL". She looks, and finds the same thing I always find on the Moose-XL rack: gray slacks, white shirts, brown belts and something akin to my old army shoes.

Oh, I used to get into wearing flashy, or at least "different" clothes. I believe I was the first guy in our high school to own a pair of bell-bottom jeans. I wore those with another first, a puffed sleeve, long collar "mod" shirt that was navy blue with big white polka-dots. That was back when all the guys were wearing skin tight white or black jeans, white socks, corner cleaner shoes and short sleeve shirts with the cuffs rolled up to expose their awesome biceps. You had to be Moose-XL to dare to wear bell bottoms and polka dots.

Now that I think of it, I've had several "Out of the ordinary" articles of clothing over the years. I showed up at school in a white turtleneck and tan Neru jacket once, and only once. They laughed at that, even if I was a Moose-XL. Back in the early seventies big bow ties were moderately popular, and I had several of those. About the same time, cuffed bell bottom pants made from huge plaid material were popular. I had a couple of pair of those and everybody said I looked like a walking horse blanket. I had a sweater with round and round blue and gold stripes, and was accused of impersonating a giant bumble-bee.

So far I have been able to resist the temptation to get a pair of those really garrish slacks that are seen around yacht clubs, country clubs and the like. You know the ones I mean...they are usually a loud color and have huge prints of sailboats or whales or some unusual pattern. I've also ignored the bare mid-section look that is so popular with the younger crowd...for obvious reasons. Maybe I shouldn't let my abundant mid-section bother me, because I've seen plenty of pretty young people sporting sashed off T-shirts. Did you happen to see the cartoon on the editorial page of the Grand Rapids Press a couple of weeks ago that depicted two young people in bare mid-section T-shirts gawking at the rotund, older businessman in a bare mid section three piece suit? I liked that one.

So anyway, all this talk about fashion brings us to what got me thinking along these lines in the first place. Two guys from the East Lansing Development Co. were at Monday night's Lowell City Council meeting, and their dress was a bit "different" than anything I've seen to date. Both gentlemen were dressed very nicely in khaki colored suits, the fellow who stood up to speak was even wearing a vest. Both had on ties, one wore well polished penny loafers the other wore a sleeker and also well polished loafers. Neither of them were wearing any socks! I think it's pretty well accepted to wear deck shoes with sportswear, and no socks, but Italian style loafers with a three piece suit and no socks? I can see that had really gained momentum in January or February. Oh well, to each his own...anybody seen any leisure suits on sale?

Unique canoe race

Lowell was the site of the first handicapped canoe race ever held in Michigan on Saturday. Sponsored by Misty Valley Canoe Livery, 1120 E. Main, Lowell, the race paired up members of the Grand Rapids Pacers Wheelchair Basketball Team and other disabled people with an able-bodied partner. The teams raced from Misty Valley's dock down the Grand River to the public access landing at Ada.

The race was a fund-raising event for the Pacers, with businesses sponsoring the teams. King Milling Company of Lowell and Eberhards were among the sponsors who contributed a total of $2500. "That amounts to about one-quarter of the Pacers annual budget" according to Tom Kelderhouse, Pacers manager and one of the contestants.

The teams were divided into three divisions, according to the severity of the Pacer's disability. Lowell resident Nancy Jachim, who heads up the Center for Independent Living in Grand Rapids was among the women contestants. All the teams gave it their all in traversing the mighty Grand, with everyone finishing the approximately twelve mile course in just over two hours!

The race not only served as fund-raising benefit, but also to formally inaugurate Misty Valley's handicapped canoeing program...to make the community aware that disabled people can still engage in and excel at sports, including canoeing.

Dine wins "Young Authors"

Becky Dine, 14, of Alto, has won Downtown Book's Young Author's contest in the story category for 12 to 18 year-olds.

The contest, sponsored by Downtown Books, Inc. of 135 Ottawa in Grand Rapids, and City Celebrations, is Dine's third writing award. She has also won honors in 2 Young Authors competitions held by Kent Intermediate Schools.

Dine is a Lowell High Freshman. Her story, "Helpless", is about a woman living in the present time, and the world becoming computerized as she grows old. A leading scientist, the woman is the only person capable of fixing the "master computer", which runs all computers in the U.S. and has broken down. Instead of fixing it, however, she lets it break down and the world returns to a happy, non-computerized place.

The contest was divided into two categories, one for books and one for stories 1,000 words or less. These categories were divided into age groups 12 to 18 year-olds, and contestants under 12. A winner was selected in each age group.

Winners were presented with empty books, so they could continue writing, and $25 gift certificates to Downtown Books, Inc., said owners Dan and Nelle Frisch.

The awards were given to the young writers July 29 at Matinee on the Mall in Grand Rapids, as part of Words at Play day.

Other winners, besides Dine, were Susan Walters, 12 of East

Grand Rapids; Dara Sanders, 15, Marisa Juhasy, 14, and Jack Henningsen, 9, all of Grand Rapids.

Lowell 4-Hers, cont'd.

David Groen, Tracy Jousma and Richard Rasch received outstanding exhibit recognition.

Congratulations to all these young people for their outstanding achievements!

Current programs supply agricultural and engineering technology to these countries and they are encouraged to implement this knowledge toward a more productive society.

Several area businesses support 4-H livestock auction

For the third year in a row, Amway Grand Plaza purchased the Grand Champion steer and Reserve Champion pen of sheep at the Kent County Youth Fair Livestock Sale.

The auction was held August 3, 7:00 P.M. in the Reath Building of the 4-H Fairgrounds in Lowell. The livestock sale is an opportunity for local businesses to support 4-H members as they sell their project animals.

D & W Food Centers bought the Grand Champion pen of market lambs. Champion market hog was purchased by Arrene Properties, Grand Rapids. Robert Applegate of Saranac bought the Grand Champion pen of rabbits. Johnson's Foods, Lowell, was final bidder on the champion market bird, and champion market goat was purchased by Tiemeyer Livestock and Trucking, Caledonia.

On behalf of all 4-H Livestock exhibitors, a special word of appreciation is extended to all 1983 buyers for their support of Kent County Young people!!

Car offered for hole-in-one

The Babe Zaharias Invitational Golf Tournament slated for August 22 at Deer Run Golf course in Lowell will have a potential added bonus for one "skillful" participant.

Tournament planners have announced that use of a brand new 1984 Mazda for one year has been offered as a hole-in-one prize covering a designated hole during the tournament. If more than one participant should accomplish this feat, the car will be awarded to the first person who made it in a single stroke. Use of the car is being donated by this year's tournament sponsor, Mazda Distributors Great Lakes, the Grand Rapids based distributor for Mazda automobiles in the states of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin.

The Babe Zaharias Golf Tournament is an annual fund raiser for the American Cancer Society, with winners advancing to the Michigan finals in September, and from there to the national championship in Florida. Open to all area lady golfers, the Kent County Tournament this year will feature two LPGA touring pros. -- Sue Ertl a native of Ionia, Michigan, who is also honorary chairwoman for the event and Lori Huxhold of Fond du lac, Wisconsin.

Interested golfers may contact the American Cancer Society for tournament entry forms. Or forms can be obtained wherever Babe Zaharias Golf Tournament posters are displayed. Entry fee is a $50 donation, with a $250 donation to play 9 holes with either of the pros.
