Lowell Chamber of Commerce sets promotions schedule

Several members of the Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce's retail division met Tuesday morning to put together a

DID YOU KNOW?

Science Olympiad has been organized to provide opportunities for students to broaden their academic skills. It is being promoted nationally, but is particularly well received in Michigan. From its inception one year ago, it has grown from 600 students to 1500.

Science Olympiad is a competition based on contemporary game formats, such as "Password", "Name That Element", and "Science Trivia". Teams of fifteen students compete in several 'events' which cover many aspects of science: geology, astronomy, biology, chemistry, physics and metric measurement.

Teams selected by LMS teachers will represent our school on March 16, at the Regional Tournament, held at Grand Valley State College. A student's selection is based on their performance during preliminary contests held at the Middle School. If the team performs well at Regionals, it may then participate in the State Finals at Lansing, and perhaps go on to the National Tournament later this year. This information has been supplied by the Lowell Citizens for Education.

KENT SKILLS CENTER INFORMATIONAL MEETING

Lowell High School sophomores and juniors along with their parents are invited to attend an informational meeting about the Kent Skills Center. The meeting will be held in the K-Quad of the Lowell High School on Wednesday, February 20 (tonite) at 7:00 P.M. The meeting will cover the programs available for the 1985-86 school year. This is an important meeting, and the first step in the application process for attending the Kent Skills Center.

FREESTYLE WRESTLING PRACTICE BEGINS

The Lowell Freestyle Wrestling Club will start practicing every Tuesday and Wednesday evening beginning Tuesday, February 26 at 6:30 P.M. The practices will be held in the Lowell High School wrestling room. "Kids" class for age 5 through 14 and "Schoolboy" class age 15 and 16 sign-ups are also scheduled for the 26th. A parent's meeting is slated for Thursday, February 28 at 6:30 in the High School. Parents are asked to please bring birth certificates for sign-ups. Further information can be obtained by calling 897-9085 after 6:00 P.M.

OFF THE BLOTTER

Julie Thomas, 20, of Lowell was involved in a property damage accident Monday, February 11 on M-21 at Valley Vista Drive. Thomas failed to yield the right of way to a car driven by David Wilcox, 84, also of Lowell.

A truck driven by Larry North, 23, of Wyandotte, Michigan struck a utility pole on the corner of Avery and Grove Street. The accident occurred Wednesday afternoon, February 13, as North attempted to turn the corner.

Frederick Hardesty, 43, of Marne and Carl Price, 47, of Rockford collided in a property damage accident, Tuesday, February 12 at Main and West Streets.

Michael Ketchum, 18, of Lowell backed into a parked vehicle on Foreman near Beech Street, Friday, February 1. The parked car was owned by William and Gladys Hurt of Lowell. There were no injuries reported.

Rick Fonger, 38, of Lowell was injured Friday, February 15, when the car he was driving struck a car that was being towed by a wrecker at Main and Center Streets. The driver of the wrecker, Jeffrey Wolfe, 20, of Lowell was not injured.

A car driven by David Gerst Jr., 27, of Grand Rapids, struck the rear of a stopped vehicle on N. Hudson Street near Elm Street, Friday evening, February 15. A 16 year old Lowell youth was injured in the accident as she was exiting the stopped vehicle at the time of impact.

No injuries were reported in an accident which involved Suzanne Beute, 39, of Belding and Gary Timmermans 40, of Jenison. The accident occurred on Riverside Dr. and Hunt Street, Friday February 15.

Jeffery Lovett, 20, of Lowell, was cited by Lowell Officers, to appear in 63rd District Court at a later date on charges of possession of alcohol by a minor (under age 21).

schedule of Chamber sponsored events during the year. Retail Division Chairman, Duane Lambert said that all the special events were penciled in on a calendar. The first event is the Spring 20% Off Night held by many participating downtown merchants. The sale is slated for Wednesday, March 25. The spring sidewalk sale is scheduled for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, April 25, 26, and 27. The 4th of July Parade will again be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the retailers agreed to put together some type of promotion in conjunction with the WCUZ/Budweiser Showboat Benefit over the Memorial Day weekend. The Fall Sidewalk sales was scheduled for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, August 1, 2, and 3. The Fall 20% Off Night was penciled in for Wednesday, November 30. The annual Santa Claus parade is slated for Saturday, November 30. This parade has always been the first Saturday in December in the past, but that tradition would have pushed the event all the way back to December 7 on the 1985 calendar. The retailers decided it would be better to move it up to the last Saturday in November.

The retailers also discussed the idea of sponsoring a food booth or hot dog and coke stand at such functions as the sidewalk sales and other events. They felt that the booth would create an additional draw to the downtown and generate some operating revenue for the Chamber coffers.

Another topic of discussion at Tuesday's meeting concerned an attempt to unify downtown shopping hours and establishing an evening when at least 75% of the merchants would be open. Wednesday evening seems to be the best bet as the car dealers and their service departments are open that evening. Lambert said he would pursue the idea.

The Lowell Chamber of Commerce phone was always located at, and answered by the staff at "That Special Place". Since that business closed last month, the phone has been relocated to an office in the old Sortex Building now occupied by The Lowell Area Arts Council. The phone is answered as "Lowell Chamber of Commerce and Lowell Area Arts Council". A part time employee and volunteers aided by an answering machine field the various calls that are received. Chamber of Commerce President Jerry Patton explained that the Chamber intends to work in cooperation with Arts Council to keep a staffed office and phone at the new headquarters for the Arts Council. Patton said that details have yet to be worked out, but he opportunity for such an office is very positive.

The issue of parking, a constant concern for downtown retailers, was discussed at Tuesday's meeting. Most retailers agreed that present parking is probably sufficient at most times, but a continuous program of making employers and their employees aware of parking so as not to hinder their business or their neighbor's business would be a good project for the Chamber to undertake. Patton pointed out that there are three very good municipal parking lots, and if business owners and their employees would always make it a point to park to the rear of these lots, then more spaces closer to the businesses would open for customers.

Patton pointed out that the newly re-organized Chamber now boasts 52 paid members. Dues are just $50.00 per year and are payable to Chuck Myers, c/o State Savings Bank, P.O. Box 58, Lowell, MI, 49331. All businesses; retail, commercial, industrial, and professional are encouraged to join now. Patton said the present membership represents a "good mix" of businesses, and he is "very encouraged" by the number of paid memberships.

Patton doffed his cap to the city, commending the Department of Public Works for their quick response to clearing snow banks from Main Street. Last week's snow storm required lots of overtime from the snow plow crews, but they got around this week to remove much of the piled white stuff.

Last chance for LAAC play

Despite last week's terrible weather, the Lowell Area Arts Council winter play drew large audiences, especially the Friday and Saturday night performances. This year's play, "Ten Little Indians", was warmly received by the audiences, and ticket sales are brisk for this weekend's performances.

Tickets for Thursday, February 21 are available at the door and are priced at $3.00 (senior citizens and students $2.00). Tickets for Friday and Saturday are $4.00 and must be purchased in advance. Box office phone numbers are 897-8421 and 897-7532. We are told that there is still an ample quantity of reserved seats available for both Friday and Saturday.

Jaycees share in $10,000 event

December saw the Lowell Area Jaycees most successful project ever. Over 10,000 dollars were raised at a concert featuring the Osborn Bros., a popular Bluegrass band. The people of the area were very receptive and made it possible for hundreds of handicapped and elderly to see the concert at no cost.

Funds have been distributed to such causes as Special Olympics, Burns, Ronald McDonald House, M.S., New Dawn Day Care, and pay off of the 1984 July Fourth Fireworks. The remainder of the money, over $5,000 has been allocated to stay in Lowell or the Lowell Area.

The Jaycees have established a needs committee to investigate needs in the area. This committee is asking for the help of the people of the area. Suggestions on the best way to use these funds are needed. Any group or organization with a suggestion for these funds are asked to send a written request, with detailed information to: The Lowell Area Jaycees Needs Committee, P.O. Box 245, Lowell, 49331. Requests must be received no later than March 1, 1985.

Renew you dog licenses this month

February is a month most of us like to get through as quickly as possible. But, dog owners in Kent county have an important responsibility that must be met this month. That's renewing their dog license.

Every dog in the county over six months old must be licensed, and the deadline is March first. You can buy your dog license in person at any city or township hall, at the County Treasurer's Office or at the Animal Shelter. An even easier way to license your pet is by mail at P.O. Box 6448, Grand Rapids, MI 49506.

When you buy your license, you must provide proof that the dog has been vaccinated against rabies. If your dog is unsexed, you need proof it has been spayed or neutered. If you request your license by mail, you may send photo-copies of these certificates. If you send the original, it will be returned.

Here is the fee schedule for dog licenses:

	Owner 62 years or older
Male dog	$8.00	$4.00
Female	8.00	4.00
Unsexed	4.00	2.00

A $5.00 late fee is charged for missing the March first deadline. So, avoid extra expense and the last minute rush. get your dog license now!

Pastor Glenn Marks, who was privileged to have Dr. Everest as pastor of his home church urges people to come hear this godly man.

HOMESPUN DEVOTIONS

by Pauline E. Spray

The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace (Numbers 6:26).

"Do you ever feel confused - like your brains were scrambled?"

"Yes," I was able to reply. "I know just what you mean."

There are some days when a person just doesn't know what to do first. It seems a million and one things scream to be done all at once, and it is difficult to decide which should come first. I have found it helps tremendously to sit down with pencil and paper and list each thing - big and small - that needs attention. Somehow, if for no other reason, this simple procedure clears my mind. Then I begin on the list, taking care of the items in order of their importance. It's amazing how much more I am able to accomplish and with greater equanimity.

There are times in our lives when we are thrown into temporary periods of indecision and confusion. But we need not stay in this state. God is not the author of confusion. He has promised perfect peace to those who keep their minds on Him. Loving Him is most important of all. All else is secondary. We can enjoy His peace when we honor God by putting "first things first."

Prayer: Dear Lord, help me in this time of confusion. Just now Thy calmness is possessing me: Thy peace floods my soul. I thank Thee for stilling the troubled waters. Amen.

In hope that sends a shining ray

Far down the future's broadening way,

In peace that only Thou canst give,

With Thee, O Master, let me live:

Special workshop for 8th grade drama class

On Friday, February 15, the Eighth Grade Drama Class participated in a special acting workshop, conducted by Michael Page, Associate Director of Grand Rapids Civic Theater, and funded by a Lowell Area Arts Council Mini-Grant.

WMU announces dean's list

More than 862 students are included on the dean's list for the fall semester of the 1984-85 academic year at Western Michigan University. To be eligible, students must have compiled at least a 3.5 grade point average (on a scale of 4.0 being all A's) in at least 14 hours of graded class work. Among them is Barry L. Sherman, 248 Northland Drive, Saranac, Michigan.

"Tips For A Healthy Pet"

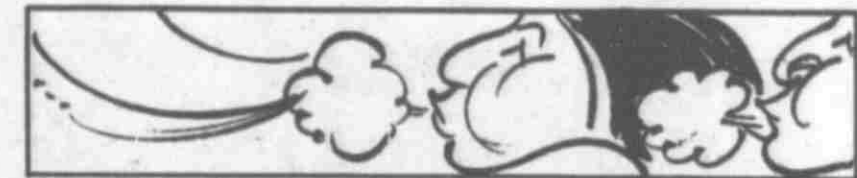

Bruce Langlois, D.V.M.

Unknown until about 20 years ago, feline Leukemia virus (FeLV) infection is now regarded as a leading cause of death in cats. Cats persistently infected with FeLV rarely live more than three years, and most die of associated diseases before cancer develops.

The name "Feline Leukemia virus" gives merely a hint of just how much trouble this contagious virus can cause. Leukemia, a blood cell cancer, is only one of many outcomes of infection with FeLV. Another cancer, Lymphosarcoma, is actually a more common FeLV disease. Lymphosarcoma is a tumor that can occur in almost any tissue or organ and is virtually always fatal. The cat with Lymphosarcoma may die quickly or after a lengthy period of suffering and deterioration.

Two actions can help protect a cat against FeLV. First is preventing the cat's exposure to other cats and thereby the exposure to the virus. In many situations, of course, this is totally impractical. The second is to vaccinate your cat against FeLV. A new vaccine, just licensed, is highly effective in preventing FeLV infection. The development of the vaccine, the first vaccine effective against cancer, has helped greatly in human cancer research. Vaccination consists of a series of 2-3 vaccinations (depending on the age of the cat) and an annual booster. If you have any questions concerning FeLV or any animal health question feel free to call our office any time. Our number is 897-8484.

We welcome any comments and/or questions you may have. Please send to Lowell Veterinary Clinic, 11650 E. Fulton, Lowell, Michigan.

Job-Related Studies May Be Deductible If Required by Job

Expenses for education relevant to a taxpayer's current employment may be deductible, the Internal Revenue Service says.

To qualify, the expenses must meet at least one of two specific guidelines. Taking the course of study must be mandatory for continuance in one's current employment status—for example, a teacher required to take a course to retain a teaching position.

However, the cost of other educational expenses are not deductible. Expenses for education that prepares one for a new trade or business—such as a journalist studying law—may not be deducted, even if the education is required or beneficial in the taxpayer's present employment. Similarly, the expense for study to help meet the minimum educational requirements for a current position is not an allowable deduction—for example, a full-time engineering student who has a part-time job in a minor engineering capacity.

Educational expenses include amounts spent on tuition, books, supplies, laboratory fees, similar items, and certain travel and transportation costs. Educational expenses other than travel and transportation are itemized deductions and should be listed on Schedule A (Form 1040) as miscellaneous deductions.

Additional information on educational expenses appears in the free IRS Publication 508, Educational Expenses, available by using the mail order form in the tax package or calling the IRS.

How to Avoid Most Common Errors On Form 1040

Each year there are some predictable trouble spots with federal income tax forms, according to the Internal Revenue Service. These are areas where large numbers of taxpayers make incorrect entries and thereby slow the processing of tax forms.

These trouble spots fall into two broad categories: problems that recur each year, such as taxpayers selecting the incorrect figure from the tax tables; and problems that stem from changes in the tax laws and forms from one year to the next, such as the addition of a new line to a form or the shift of an existing line to a new position on the form.

Not surprisingly, the largest percentage of errors are made on Form 1040, the so-called long form. To assist filers of this form, IRS has compiled the following list of problem areas to double-check:

- 1. Medical Deductions. This item is not entered on Form 1040, but on a related schedule. Because Schedule A was redesigned last year, this item will probably lead the list of last year's most common errors.
2. Figure from Tax Table. Because of the number of pages and figures involved, this item is always high on the list of most common errors for all tax forms.
3. Unemployment Compensation. Due to changes in the tax law last year, this item moved into the list of most common errors.
4. Child Care Credit. Read instructions carefully and double-check your computations on Form 2441, Credit for Child and Dependent Care Expenses.

by Senator Dick Posthumus

State Senator Dick Posthumus (R-Lowell) today announced support for a family-oriented reform of the state income tax which would save nearly $1 billion over the next two years for more than four million working men and women.

"The legislation, which I voted for in the Senate Finance Committee and for which I will vote in favor of when the full Senate takes up the bills, provides tax fairness for the most people," Posthumus said. "It's designed to provide permanent tax relief with the greatest benefit going to those who need it most, those being working families with low incomes."

Senate Bill 77 would roll the state income tax back to the 1982 level of 4.6 percent on January 1, 1986. Under current law, Governor Blanchard's 38 percent income tax hike wouldn't return to the 4.6 percent rate until October 1, 1987.

The second piece of bi-partisan sponsored legislation is Senate Bill 59. It would increase the personal exemption on the state income tax from the current $1,500 to $1,750 and index the exemption to the rate of inflation.

"As an example, if inflation increased by four percent in a given year, the personal exemption would increase to $1,820," Posthumus explained.

The state has had budget surpluses in fiscal years 1983 and 1984 and project surpluses for fiscal years 1985 and 1986.

"This income tax reform measure is one which the state can afford and will stimulate our economic comeback," Senator Posthumus added. "When the state unnecessarily takes more in taxes that it should, then those tax dollars should be returned to those who paid them in the first place, the working men and women. That's tax fairness."

Governor asks for draft board volunteers

Governor James J. Blanchard is asking for citizens to volunteer to serve on the state's selective service boards.

The boards are currently experiencing vacancy problems, and although it takes an act of congress to activate the boards, membership should be maintained to avoid any frustration in service selection in the event of a national emergency.

People from all walks of life participate on the boards. Members must be U.S. Citizens who are at least 18 years of age. Governor Blanchard is encouraging all Michigan residents who are interested in serving to write to him:

Governor James J. Blanchard
Office of the Governor
State Capitol Building
Lansing, Michigan 48909
Applications will be reviewed by the Governor and appointments will be made in the near future.

Krause supports balanced budget

An area lawmaker who strongly supports the balanced budget resolution being considered by the Michigan Legislature Thursday criticized House Speaker Gary Owen for sending the matter to the House Appropriations Committee.

State Representative Victor Krause (R-Rockford) said that when the resolution was considered by the state House last session, debate rightfully took place in the House Constitutional Revision and Women's Rights Committee. Krause was a member of that committee last term and was recently re-appointed to the panel.

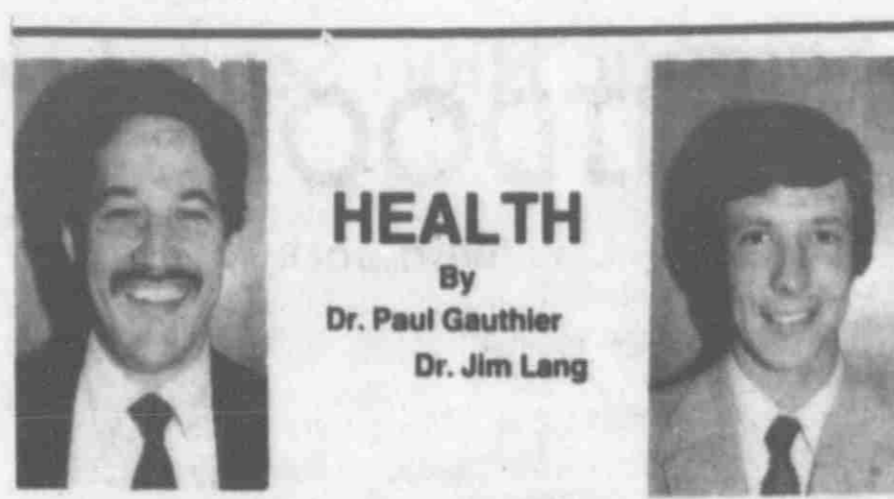

"Obviously, the speaker wants the resolution to fade away or die," Krause said. "Rather than letting the matter be debated in the Constitutional Revision and Women's Rights Committee where it properly belongs, he has sent it to a committee friendly to his wishes."

Krause said that if the people of Michigan want a balanced budget amendment, then Speaker Owen should quit playing partisan politics and let the resolution stand on its own merits.

"The Democratic leadership must be afraid that the resolution would pass; otherwise why go to such lengths to have it buried?" Nationwide, 32 states have already approved balanced budget resolutions and only two more states are needed to force a showdown on the issue. The resolution was narrowly defeated in a Michigan House Committee last fall. Krause voted in favor of the measure.

Dry Skin Part II: Prevention and Therapy

Last week we began to discuss the age-old common problem of dry skin (Xerosis). We highlighted the primary causes (many being environmental ie, cold weather) and stressed that the gold standard of therapy is the skin moisturizer. Today, we'll touch on how to select a good moisturizer and, more importantly, we'll outline for you some hints on the basics of good dry skin care.

In the selection of skin moisturizer, cost and effectiveness are two very important considerations. The moisturizer should also be cosmetically acceptable. A good moisturizer should contain at least one of the three emollients we discussed last week - petrolatum, lanolin, or mineral oil. Most effective moisturizers have similar ingredients, and, in spite of brand name or marketing hype, there is usually little relationship between efficiency and cost. A good bet is to consult your pharmacist, but make an informed purchase based partially on the product's ingredients.

If you have been plagued with dry skin in the past, you are aware of how uncomfortable it can be. While a good moisturizer can alleviate some of the symptoms of dry skin once it develops, attempts at prevention of dry skin are potentially the most rewarding. We hope the following guidelines for the care of dry skin will be helpful to you.

- 1) Use a humidifier to keep relative humidity about 40%. During the winter months, keep room temperature as low as is reasonably comfortable (65 degrees or below).
- 2) Avoid excessive bathing: a warm water bath every two or three days is sufficient for most persons.
- 3) Avoid too much exposure to soap, detergents, and solvents such as cleaning fluid or other compounds that cause drying of the skin.
- 4) Use soap primarily to cleanse certain areas: those bearing apocrine (sweat) glands and those called intertriginous zones (areas likely to be rubbed). These include the armpits, genital region, and toes.
- 5) Avoid excessive scrubbing and too-vigorous massage of the skin when washing with soap.
- 6) Use warm, not hot water, because very hot water can aggravate the drying effect of soap.
- 7) Use emollients frequently, applying them when skin is moist. Always apply an emollient after bathing or showering.
- 8) You may add oils to the bath water, but with care, especially if you are at all unsteady when getting into or out of the tub. Bath oils are deposited on the tub as well as the skin, and can increase its slipperiness. If you are at special risk of falling, you had best avoid adding bath oil to the water. Instead, apply it directly to your skin after bathing.
- 9) Your doctor will recommend the safest product from among those found most effective and cosmetically suitable. Usually, you will need no more than one cleansing preparation and one emollient.

We welcome any questions and/or comments you may have regarding our weekly column. Please send them to our office at 147 N. Center Street, Lowell, Michigan 49331.

The smallest bird is the Cuban bee hummingbird with a wingspan of about 1 inch, a length of 2.3 inches, and weighing about 0.07 ounces.

"OUTDOORS" Arrows Top Spartans

with Jack Friesner

Kent County is a leader. Yes, we have much to be proud of. Among all the Counties of Michigan, we rank third, in pollution sites. We have been beaten in Group 1 Pollution Sites only by Muskegon and Kalamazoo Counties. Muskegon has 22, Kalamazoo 17, and we have 16.

Class I Sites are those locations which have been proven to contain chemical, or heavy metal contamination which have permeated the soils and contaminated ground waters and wells. These sites must be cleaned up and are now being done or are scheduled to be.

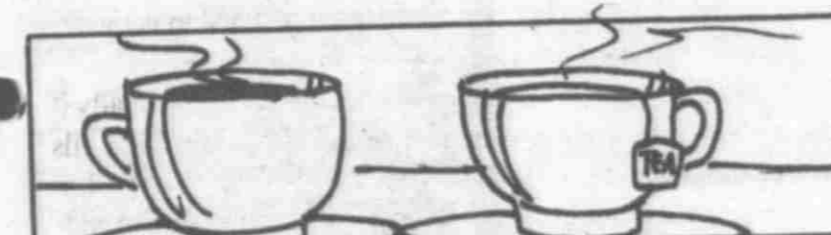

We also have 15 Class II Sites which show contamination but the State feels that they do not warrant detailed evaluation.

Think About It! on a land mass as small as Kent County we have 31 sites, of which we know, have contaminated our subterranean water supplies and wells. With this number proven to exist in an area this small how far from your well can the nearest one be?

The State still issues waste water disposal permits to industries which allows them to dispose of waste water directly into our rivers and streams. Class 1 Waste matter which is composed of toxic and potentially lethal composition must be disposed of at a Class 1 dump site. Within this area it costs $22 per gallon, not including transportation and labor, to properly dispose of these materials. I am not accusing anyone of improper disposal, but as you can see the incentive certainly exists which would encourage illegal disposal. If I were operating a business which created a waste product of only 1000 gal. per month which would cost me $25,000 to dispose of, I might be tempted to discharge, at least a portion of this into my authorized waste water discharge system. The waste water disposal permit holders are inspected by the State periodically to insure that they are not being used for this purpose. Like all Governmental Inspections, the system itself is ridiculous. The inspection team notifies the facility to be inspected, three days to a week in advance, thus providing ample time for them to clean up and flush out their systems and temporarily cease their illegal use of the system.

I do not profess to know all the answers but I do have some ideas. I always was better at questions than answers. The simple truth is that the problem does exist and will only compound if ignored. Like the oil filter advertisement says, "You can pay me now, or pay me later."

If your wells have not been tested within the past several years, I would recommend that you have them tested this year and establish a regular testing schedule. The water pollution problem is being recognized as ever increasing and it would be advisable to act accordingly.

Krause renews drive for a part-time legislature

Because state government needs to be restructured and its costs to taxpayers reduced, State Representative Victor Krause (R-Rockford) today announced that he will again start a petition drive to put the question of a part-time Legislature on the 1986 ballot.

Next week Krause will also introduce a joint resolution in the Michigan House calling for a constitutional amendment that would create a part-time Legislature. Senator Ed Fredricks (R-Holland) will sponsor a companion Senate bill.

Under the amendment, each regular session of the Legislature would begin no sooner than the second Monday in January and adjourn no later than the second Monday in May.

"A part-time Legislature would be an important first step in the long overdue efforts to streamline state government," Krause said. "The people of Michigan are questioning the necessity of a full-time Legislature. Because they are footing the bill, I think taxpayers should make the decision."

The resolution must be approved by a two-thirds vote of the House and Senate, Krause said. After its adoption, it would be placed on the November 1986 ballot and would take effect January 1, 1987, if approved by the voters.

Two of Krause's House colleagues, State Representatives Michael Nye (R-Litchfield) and Tom Power (R-Traverse City), co-authored the resolution.

Krause said he favors the concept of a "citizen/legislator" and said that part-time legislators, working at other professions, have a better understanding of how government relates to business and society.

The representative added that a shorter session would also make for more effective lawmakers. "Part-time legislators would be more accessible to their constituents while not in session. I think it's very possible to get caught in a vacuum in Lansing, and lose perspective of what is happening around the state," he said. "Being in the state Legislature should be a public service, not a career."

The part-time Legislature movement began in spring 1983. Although a similar petition drive was unsuccessful in 1984, Krause said this time the supporters are better funded and better organized. The new effort will be launched soon, with petitions being mailed to more than 250,000 people.

"There are only six full-time legislatures in the United States. The remaining 44 are part time. It is time we joined the national trend," Krause said.

Anyone interested in obtaining petitions or receiving additional information can contact Representative Krause at (517) 373-0218 or (616) 874-7863 or they can contact The Part Time-Legislature Committee, P.O. Box 20205, Lansing, MI, 48901, at (313) 227-1400.

Osmonds to entertain at Chesaning Showboat

As certain as July follows June on Michigan's entertainment calendar... the popular Chesaning Showboat can be counted upon to 'round the bend of the Shiawassee River in Chesaning for six full nights from July 8th until July 13th, 1985. It's a most exciting fun-packed show business extravaganza that offers something for everyone as Showboat marks its 44th appearance.

During the past 43 years some of the nation's greatest performers have appeared in Chesaning during Showboat Week. But as usual, the "big names" play second fiddle to the most important element of the Showboat presentation. The audience, composed of some who return year after year, always comes first. Their desires for entertainers are given foremost consideration when the Chesaning Showboat Committee selects talents each year. With this in mind...the 1985 Showboat Committee; composed of Chairman Pat O'Hare, Pat Yule, Martin Horger, and Charles Sadilek, takes pleasure in announcing the appearance of a group that has been requested by so many loyal fans...the famous Osmond Brothers.

It's been over twenty-five years since the group was spotted by Andy William's father during a summer appearance at Disneyland. The then tiny dynamos were soon regulars on the Andy Williams television show. During the years they have changed their image from squeaky clean to comfortable country. And, their music style has kept pace with their new look. Their first big country album was released in 1982 and since then they receive more and more requests to add country to their versatile repertoire.

Those lovable "cute little kids" have grown into being professional in every facet of show business. They have mastered twenty-eight musical instruments as they excel on guitar, saxophone, bass, banjo, trumpet, violin, trombone, drums, and more. They have perfected their dance routines and learned to "read" an audience in order to present the most versatile performance possible. The Osmonds let go and have fun while performing and their audiences soon sense this joy in a show that is entertaining for all ages.

Accompanying the Osmonds from the professional field will be the 21st Century Steel Band of Trinidad. This fantastic group plays everything from the Hallelujah Chorus from "Handel's Messiah" to contemporary tunes. Dink Freeman will also be on hand to provide his special comedy routines which are always a favorite portion of any evening's entertainment. Chuck Robinette and His Orchestra will return to pace the evening as backup for both the show business names and the talented local people who serve in the capacity of vocal chorus, energetic endmen and the gorgeous Bohat Dancers. The man who brings it all together will again be Captain Bob Rhode.

And, you needn't wait for the big opening night on July 8th to join in the fun. As usual, the exciting Showboat Festival Parade will put everyone in the mood as they lead off the festivities at 1:30 P.M. on Sunday, July 7th.

Tickets will go on sale February 25th at the Chesaning Showboat Ticket Office, 123 W. Broad Street, Chesaning, 48616. Or, reserve your night of fun by calling (517) 845-3056 from 9:00 A.M. until 5:00 P.M. Monday through Saturday. For your added enjoyment, additional sections are now open with comfortable seating. All parking is free at Chesaning Showboat Park, where craft and art shows will be in progress all during Showboat Week.
