Bizarre shooting near Alto

A bizarre shooting incident near Alto Sunday has left one man in the Hospital and Kent County Sheriff's Department officials confused as to the reason for the suspect's actions. At about 3:00 p.m., units from Alto Rescue and Life Emergency Medical Services responded to a call claiming that a man was having a seizure at a home located at 6734 Morse Lake Road, Alto. The Alto Rescue Unit was the first on the scene. The two unidentified rescue personnel were confronted by a man later identified as Eric Richard Redlak, 19, a resident of that address. Redlak brandished a shotgun and eventually fired one shot in the air and another in the general direction of the rescue personnel.

The rescue personnel fled the scene on foot, and Redlak commandeered the four-wheel drive rescue vehicle.

While enroute, the Life ambulance received word from their dispatcher that a gun was involved at the destination and that shots had been fired. The ambulance crew kept their distance and watched as Redlak proceeded north up Morse Lake Rd. in an irrational manner. The ambulance personnel reported that Redlak was doing "doughnuts, 180's and figure eights" with the stolen rescue vehicle. Redlak reportedly turned west on 60th Street then put the truck into a ditch when he tried to head back east again.

Near the corner of 60th and Morse Lake Roads, Redlak stationed himself near a parked car and began threatening passing motorists and deputies as they arrived on the scene. Several Sheriff's cars soon had the area cordoned off and surrounded Redlak.

The deputies tried to talk Redlak into surrendering and giving up his weapon. Redlak did not comply with the deputies' commands and began walking toward one of them. The deputies issued more verbal commands as Redlak progressed toward the unidentified officer, but still he failed to acknowledge the commands. When Redlak was about 12 yards from the deputy, Redlak leveled his gun at him, and the deputy fired his shotgun in response. Redlak was wounded in the feet and was quickly subdued.

Redlak was admitted to Blodgett Hospital where he remained in "good" condition Tuesday morning. Redlak has been charged with 2 counts of felonious assault, 2 counts of possession of a firearm in the commission of a felony, 1 count of carrying a dangerous weapon with unlawful intent and 1 count of unlawful driving away an auto. Sheriff's Detectives have not yet had an opportunity to interrogate Redlak, and can only guess at the reason behind his actions. The commandeered rescue truck was not damaged in the incident.

City trash pick-up is explained

This time of year, there are numerous complaints and inquiries at city hall about large objects, excessive trash and debris being left at the curb and not picked up by the refuse company.

It should be noted that the city's contract with the refuse collector, currently D & H Rubbish, does not require them to remove any debris which is not properly bundled, bagged or in a 30 gallon or less container.

Large barrels or improper containers lead to injuries and increase the cost of the refuse collection services.

For those who are pruning and cleaning in the yard, branches & limbs should be cut to lengths of approximately four (4) feet and tied in manageable bundles. Leaves and other debris should be bagged.

Garage and basement cleaning usually leads to additional problems as worn out or obsolete equipment is being discarded. Large objects such as washers, dryers, water heaters, sofas, chairs, etc. will not be picked up on regular trash days unless advance arrangements are made.

If you have a special item to be discarded and its value is questionable contact an organization such as Goodwill Industries and ask if they are interested. If the object is unquestionably beyond repair, call City Hall 897-8457 and a list of available, local pick up companies and active landfills will be mailed to you.

Keeping the community attractive is everyone's job, please keep rubbish from the curbside, as required by ordinance, until the day before scheduled pick ups and please do not place large items by the curb unless someone has agreed to pick them up from that location within 24 hours.

One more opportunity

Is anybody out there? . . .

. . . Does anybody care?

Lowell Citizen's Committee for Educational Excellence held the first of two CITIZENS NIGHT meetings, on Tuesday, April 16. Poor turnout left the committee bewildered.

Those attending stated that the small group discussions provided an excellent opportunity to give personal input. Because the groups were divided into Elementary, Middle and High School, plenty of time was available to attend discussions specific to each level.

Chairman of the Committee, JoAnn Frey, gave a short presentation on what is happening across the nation concerning Excellence in Education; recommendations by Federal and State Committees on Excellence; and the goals of the Lowell Excellence Committee.

The survey, completed at the meeting, included citizen's recommendations for priorities on educational issues. The survey also gave citizen's an opportunity to choose what educational improvements they would be willing to support through funding.

If citizens were unable to attend the first meeting, the second meeting will be held Wednesday, April 24 at 7:00 p.m. in the Middle School Cafeteria.

Anyone having questions with regards to any aspect of the meeting, please contact the following committee members: Jo Ann Frey, Carol Briggs, Barb Brown, Dick Bryan, Norm Byrne, Rosemary Byrne, Arno Dreidger, Hanni Dreidger, Phyllis Eckman, Bob Ely, Eleanor Green, Wanda Stinchcomb, Joyce Thuston or Mary Walkowski.

Eighty percent of the teachers in the Lowell School District filled out surveys and attended an open meeting. It is the hope of the Committee that citizen turnout will be as strong.

Citizens have ONE MORE OPPORTUNITY to show support for a quality school district.

Lead Poisoning in Children: Parents Beware

Lead poisoning in children is fortunately not very common. It is, however, something we should all be aware of, and also something we should take great pains to avoid. Today we'll discuss the common sources of lead poisoning, the symptoms it can cause, how to avoid it, and how to treat it should it be diagnosed in your child.

Lead poisoning in children is generally the result of an accident. It was first described in Australia in 1902 and the source was identified as the paint on the railing and walls of houses. In the United States, lead poisoning was recognized as a public health hazard in the 1920's. Although titanium oxide replaced lead in interior paint by about 1940, lead oxide paint continues to be a source of lead poisoning because of its presence in the deteriorating houses built prior to World War II.

Lead can be absorbed from air through the respiratory tract. An important source of air lead is auto exhaust fumes, which all children should be instructed to avoid. Household dust found in deteriorating lead-painted houses may become a source of lead poisoning through the normal hand-to-mouth activities in infants and young children. Other more common sources of lead poisoning will be listed at the end of this article.

Lead poisoning is associated with symptoms from its early stages, but because the complaints of appetite loss, occasional vomiting, abdominal pain and constipation are seen transiently in childhood illnesses, lead poisoning usually is not suspected. Progressive symptoms may include speech difficulties, drowsiness, clumsiness and even coma. Many times the child will appear pale due to an associated anemia.

The most important factors in the diagnosis of lead poisoning are a high index of suspicion of lead poisoning on the part of your doctor and a careful history and investigation to identify the source of lead. The diagnosis can then be confirmed with blood and urine tests. Treatment of symptomatic children is directed at correction of any dehydration or blood abnormality and at preventing any seizure-like activity. Certain substances are then infused intravenously to remove the lead from the bloodstream. Unless there is severe poisoning, most children have a full recovery.

The following is a list of the more common sources of lead in the typical American household. Please be aware of the entities as lead sources and attempt to keep childhood exposure to a minimum:

- 1) Lead based paint flaking from surfaces or embedded in crumbling plaster.
- 2) Dust and dirt.
- 3) Improperly glazed earthenware.
- 4) Automobile exhaust fumes.
- 5) Domestic water supply through lead pipes.
- 6) Leaded paint on cribs, toys, pencils, etc.
- 7) Newsprint printed with leaded ink.
- 8) Antique American pewter.

State opens several new ORV trails

If you're looking for specially created trails to try out your Off-Road vehicle (ORV) this year, you can expect some pleasant surprises.

First of all, ORV owners should know about the Michigan Cross Country Cycle Trails guide published annually by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR). This free guide points the way to more than 1300 miles of trails designed specifically for ORV use.

All maps specify whether road licensing and/or ORV registration is necessary, and state forest campgrounds are shown too.

The trail guide and the miles of new trails being introduced this year are just two projects funded by ORV registration monies. The registration, purchased for a three-year period, will expire on April 30, and ORV owners should be aware that they must renew their registration before hitting the trails this spring. All ORV's operated in Michigan must be registered unless operated exclusively on lands owned or controlled by the vehicle owner, or operated exclusively in special events.

Previously registered owners can simply enclose a check for $9 with the renewal forms they received by mail.

Cast Selected For "Tom Sawyer"

Michael Page, Director of the Children's Theatre of the Grand Rapids Civic Theatre, had his work cut out for him when over 180 auditioners turned out in March for "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" being presented May 2 through May 5. Of those, 160 were young people from whom Page had to select for 17 roles. As if three days of auditions aren't enough, this job needed three additional days of callbacks before Page was able to select his cast of thirty-three.

HOMESPUN DEVOTIONS

by Pauline E. Spray

And He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm (Mark 4:39).

Spring brings flowers, sunshine, and sudden storms. The work is bright and beautiful. All is calm and peaceful. But in a few hours time, clouds have gathered. Then the storm strikes, unleashing all its fury. Trees bend and break in the wake of the wind's destructive blast. The rain comes down in torrents. Darkness prevails everywhere.

Sudden storms strike in the lives of Christians-and when we least expect them. All is calm and peaceful until adversity lashes out in all its fury, threatening us with panic and hysteria. Even as we try to pray, it seems God does not hear.

However, when the storm has ceased and everything is quiet once more, we are able to think clearly and pray intelligently. God assures us He was with us in the midst of the blast. He never has, He never will forget nor forsake one of His children. He cares. He understands. He sympathizes. He protects.

From these experiences, fellow Christians, we learn how to trust. If God is piloting our lives, He will guide us aright and bring us safely into harbor when "sudden storms" strike.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, Thou wilt guide me safely through the journey of life if I keep my hand in Thine. Teach me to remain confident and serene when "sudden storms" strike. I am trusting in Thee. Amen.

While life's dark maze I tread, And griefs around me spread, Be Thou my Guide.

Mark Twain's immortal book about a country boy's escapades in the 1840's has several adaptations for stage. Having read most of them, Page settled on Charlotte Chorpenning's adaptation and made some of his own edits to give the play more variety, incorporating scenes from the book this author left out.

The story takes place in St. Petersburg, Missouri. It's Saturday and Tom would be off fishing with Huck Finn and Joe Harper if Aunt Polly hadn't caught him eating all of the jam in the jam closet. So she "sets" him to work white-washing the fence. And the fun begins! You'll meet Becky Thatcher, the object of Tom's affections, Muff Potter, "a drunken old rip" and a great friend to the boys, the out-cast, Injun Joe, and many more of the characters that make this story come to life.

We welcome to Civic Theatre Kevin Brey as Tom Sawyer and Matt Schaab as Huck Finn; both are twelve-year olds making their debut in theatre. No strangers to theatre are eleven-year olds Susan Burton, cast as Becky Thatcher, having appeared in CT's "Annie" as well as Circle Productions; and Brian Masselink, cast as Joe Harper, last seen in this season's "Peter Pan." Page has cast well-known performers in the adult roles: Marti Childs, cast as Aunt Polly, is remembered for her role as Ethel in "On Golden Pond." Gary Meyer, last seen in "Oliver" will play Injun Joe. Walt Kladder, who has done many roles for CT, is cast as Muff Potter.

Other members of the cast are Dougall Beaton, Rich Bonge, Richard Campbell, Ted Dunn, Janice Geary, Fred Gibbons, Dryden Murck, Joe Newton, Steve Peterson, Dan Van't Kerkhoff, Eileen Van't Kerkhoff, and Gloria Van Westenbrugge. The you people are Erik Baiers, Amy Dantes, Nate Diedrich, Paul Dreher, Kori Foster, Rachel Gottlieb, Bob Hanscum, Lisa Honholt, Susan Jacobs, Bill Konsoer, Sunny Lombardo, Kara McDonald, and Nicole Ritsema.

Assistant Director is Mary Kioski, Set Designer is Susan Hinkle, Technical Director is Jim Chervenka, and Costume Designer is Alene Brittain.

Demand for tickets has lead to a hold-over production on Monday, May 6 at 7:00 p.m. Otherwise, there is limited seating for Thursday, May 2, and Friday, May 3 both at 7:00 p.m. for the Lower and Upper Balcony. Saturday, May 4, at 11:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m., and Sunday, May 5 at 3:00 p.m. has some seats available. All tickets are $1.50 for Main Floor and Lower Balcony. Upper Balcony are $1. Students Honored at Art Exhibit

Trisha Stencel, Wendy Allison, Erin Sullivan, Jeff Tarak

Lowell Senior High Art Department recently had four art students honored at the Region 9 Michigan Art Education Exhibit. In the ninth region of the association more than fifty members were encouraged to submit their students pieces for the Regional Show. The selected pieces of art were displayed at The Mutual Home Building in Grand Rapids.

From the Western Michigan region the artworks were taken to Lansing for a state-wide selection process. All of Mrs. Robin White's art students will go on to the State Show which will be on display at Western Michigan University beginning the tenth of May during the Michigan Youth Arts Festival. While at Western, the students work will again go through a jurying process for a state-wide traveling exhibit of exceptional student artwork for one calendar year.

The "Youth Arts Festival" offers the Michigan Art Education Association an opportunity to present outstanding works of Michigan students. The MAEA Council has endorsed this activity and considers it both a privilege and responsibility to:

- recognize students with creative ability
 - value the aesthetic quality evident in student's work
 - share student artwork indicative of good art education with the public
 - encourage the appreciation and understanding of creative artistic achievement
- Lowell's four students will again be honored at Western Michigan University on May 10th as well as receive a special invitation to spend the weekend on campus, and participate in special art workshops with other talented students from across the state.

Lowell's gifted students that deserve recognition are: Wendy Allison, grade 12, daughter of Bliss and Janet Allison, Clarksville; Trisha Stencel, grade 12, daughter of Tony and Connie Stencel, Lowell; Erin Sullivan, grade 11, daughter of Patric and Marilyn Sullivan, Ada; Jeff Tarak, grade 11, son of James and Sherry Tarak, Ada. Congratulations art students on your statewide artistic excellence!

It's surprisingly easy to attract hummingbirds to most yards and gardens, says National Wildlife magazine. Planting red flowers, or hanging red-colored vials of sugar water are particularly enticing to hummingbirds, which are in constant search for energizing flower nectar and tiny insects.

When was the last time you ate seaweed? Probably yesterday. According to National Wildlife's Ranger Rick magazine, seaweed that's been heated, dried and ground to a powder is commonly used in making ice cream, bread, salad dressing, chocolate milk, pastries, and milkshakes.

Mystery Kitchen Tour

At last! This Saturday, April 27, the Mystery Kitchen Tour, sponsored by the Lowell Women's Club, will happen. Start at the Schneider Manor Hospitality Room for coffee and Danish; pick up your packet, and head for the kitchens, between 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. All the information you need will be in the packet, plus a nice new cookbook written by members and friends of the Lowell Women's Club. The tour will finish at Vergennes United Methodist Church with more refreshments and a look-see at their new kitchen. The tour package includes refreshments.

Today's sample recipe is for Lorraine King's Whole Wheat Pita Bread (the popular "pocket bread").

- 5-6 c. whole wheat flour
 - 1 envelope active dry yeast
 - 2 t. salt
 - 2 c. very warm water
- Sift 2 c. flour, yeast and salt into large bowl; gradually stir in water, beat until smooth. Add 3/4 c. flour, beat again. Add enough flour to make a stiff dough and beat well. Turn out on floured board and knead until smooth and elastic. Place dough in oiled bowl, let rise until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Punch down and let rest 30 minutes; covered with damp towel. Divide into 12 pieces and shape into balls. On a floured board, roll each ball into a 6-inch circle. Place cookie sheet in oven, pre-heat to 450 degrees. Place dough circles on sheet and bake until puffed and brown, about 5 minutes. To use, cut a strip off the top and pull pocket open. Makes 12.

A rural, attractively landscaped brick colonial ranch, nine years old, lies at the end of a paved, winding lane. Enter the foyer with antique gas lights and grandfather clock, then through the living room with valuted ceiling, brick fireplace and pegged hardwood floor. An eclectic mixture of antiques, collections and art is beautifully displayed. The beamed kitchen features a center butcher-block island which contains a dropleaf for extra space, built-in stove and vegetable sink. Overhead, herbs and baby's breath dry. In the

"OUTDOORS"

with Jack Fiesner

Fishing is the hot news right now. All areas locally are excellent for those species which are now legal. The sucker run on the Grand is in full swing with many full stringers noted this past weekend. Beautiful summer like weather and bright sun is raising water temperatures rapidly in area lakes and the panfish have sprung to activity accordingly. Excellent catches of big Bluegills and Crappie (Specks) have been the rule rather than the exception. Although, as of this writing, I have not heard much from the smelt dippers. I know they are going to start and probably peak within the next week.

Most area lakes are producing limits of Gills and Specks. The Gills have moved into shallow water, 3-4 feet deep which requires a delicate approach and long casts. Wax, leaf and red worms, along with wigglers are consistent producers. Good Perch are being taken on some lakes, fishing just off bottom with small minnows, wigglers or leaf worms in 8-12 feet of water. The Specks, likewise, are usually in water 10-12 feet deep. Small minnows here are by far the best. Steadily warming water will make them more active and small jigs and lures will work well then.

Trout season opens this coming Saturday and all local streams should, barring heavy rains, be in good condition.

Quite a good number of Walleyes are being taken, along with the Suckers on the Grand and I would like to caution you that the season on Northerns and Walleyes does not open until May 15.

The Bullhead, in my opinion, are among the finest eating of all our fish. They should be biting quite well on all area lakes. Night-crawlers fished on the bottom, in the shallows after dark, probably will account for the most, although they will bite on anything. Pieces of hot dogs, chicken skin, minnows- alive or dead, and a myriad of other baits, work quite well. A #4 Carlisle, long shank hook should be used with the barb bent down. Don't stick your finger down their throat to remove your hook. They have the strongest jaws of any fish, and their bite is like clamping your fingers in a vice. Although delicious when fried or boiled like lobster, the Bullhead is disdained by many because of their appearance and must have problems cleaning them. Like their cousins, the Catfish, they are very easy to clean. If you have problems, bring them by the shop and I will gladly show you how. I try to stay abreast of all fishing within the area. For information call 897-6111 or stop by the Combination, 526 E. Main, Lowell. We have a good supply of tackle and guaranteed quality live bait. Our hours are 6 a.m. - dark, 7 days a week.

The cost for three-year registration is just $9 (or $3 per year) and the money from those registrations is earmarked for new trail development, young people's safety classes and much more. In addition, the registration of your vehicle helps with theft protection and vehicle identification.

The procedure for registration renewal is easy -- just mail the form you received in the mail with your check for $9. New owners must take proof of ownership and proof of paid sales tax to the nearest Secretary of State Office for the transaction.

"This kind of registration is much easier to overlook than regular vehicle registration, but we encourage everyone to take the initiative this month while the idea is fresh on their minds," Webster concludes.

Off-Road Vehicle Registrations Expire April 30

If you're one of thousands of Michigan residents planning to take advantage of the more than 2,000 miles of Michigan Off-Road Vehicle (ORV) trails this spring, there's one note of caution you should heed.

As of April 30, 1985, the prior three-year registration expires and must be renewed to avoid penalties. According to Henry Webster, Forest Management Division Chief of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR), the tendency to wait until the last moment causes some big problems for vacationers.

"The difficulty arises when they've decided to wait to register until they plan to use the vehicle on these trails," says Webster. "Quite often their departure time doesn't coincide with Secretary of State Office hours and they are disappointed to find they

Mayor Maatman turned the meeting over to Councilman Thompson, Chairman of the Zoning Board of Appeals, who opened the Public Hearing at 8:05 p.m. on the request of the owner of the Crystal Flash Plaza building for a ten-foot variance from the 20 foot sideline set-back requirements to allow the construction of an employee parking lot on the west side of the building.

Mr. Roger Bowen, spokesman for the plaza complex stated that a 40 foot strip of property had been purchased on the west side of the building, on which to install the lot. Permission had been granted to plow the area and use it during the winter months on a trial basis. The lot would be blacktopped, with no additional curb cut on Main Street. Employees would enter the lot from the drive at the north end of the building, off Main.

Mrs. Elmer Wittenbach, the first neighbor south of the building, asked if a fence could be included between their property and hers as a stipulation, to keep debris from blowing onto her property, and as a screen.

Manager Quada stated that a fence could be suggested, but cannot be made a stipulation or condition for approval.

Mrs. Wittenbach then asked if the lot would be allowed to extend the full depth of their property, parallel with her west property line, as she had been told by the owner, or just to the south building line as had originally been requested.

Manager Quada stated that the request to the City was to the south building line only, anything else other than that would take a separate request and another public hearing.

Chairman Thompson closed the hearing at 8:15 p.m.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Schneider that the variance request to allow construction of a parking lot with a ten-foot sideline at the Crystal Flash Plaza be approved, supported by Councilman Maatman.

Carried.

Chairman Thompson then opened the Public Hearing at 8:16 p.m. on the request of Mac and Rosemary Fonger for a "zero lot line" variance from the 24 foot set-back requirements, and a 5 space reduction from the necessary 27 spaces required, to allow the construction of a new building.

Manager Quada introduced Mr. Mike Woudenburg of Kingsland Corp., a realty company, who in turn introduced Mr. Chris

Brown, a representative of the Garb-Ko company, for the 7-11 convenience store chain, the prospective buyer for the property.

Mr. Brown explained that the idea of a "zero lot line" is strictly for safety and convenience. By placing the building at the rear of the property, no one will be driving behind the building, no trash dumpsters or delivery trucks behind the building to make it unsightly. Also, 27 parking spaces are required according to the City's ordinance in the C-2 Business District, all that a 7-11 store requires is 12 to 15 spaces, otherwise they are no longer a convenience store, they should be regarded as a supermarket. He continued that because of being on a corner, a 30 foot maneuverability is necessary to get traffic in and out safely on Main Street and S. Pleasant.

Mr. Mitchell, a S. Pleasant Street resident stated he thought the "zero lot line" would make the south side of the building appear as a "prison wall" to the house right next door.

Mr. Brown stated that there was quite a substantial distance between the property line and the house and garage.

Mrs. Gladys Clemenz, also a neighbor, asked if the store would be open all night.

Mr. Brown replied yes, that a 24-hour operation is more profitable to an owner of a convenience store.

Mr. Woudenburg stated that he had met with Mrs. Vroma, the neighbor directly south of the property and that she had no complaints about the new building being so close to the property line. He explained that the building would not sit on the property line, but that an area would be left large enough for building maintenance, and there would still be a green belt between the building and the garage.

Chairman Thompson stated that the Planning Commission had reviewed the request and recommended that the building be set out at least eight to ten feet from the property line, if only for building maintenance.

Mr. Brown stated that the building really would be maintenance free, and would not be necessary to be eight or ten feet out from the property line, to do so would be to invite trouble behind the building.

Manager Quada read two letters from property owners in the area, one from Mr. Boyd Novisky, and one from Mrs. Boyd Novisky, against the zero lot line allowance, both stating their feared of the property not being kept clean or trees trimmed, a general deterioration along the property line.

Mrs. Alice Mitchell asked if a traffic signal could be obtained for the corner of Main and S. Pleasant.

Manager Quada explained how difficult it has been over the years to deal with the State in getting any kind of traffic signal device along Main Street, even for emergency vehicles, citing the corner of Main and Monroe.

Chairman Thompson then closed the hearing at 8:36 p.m. and asked for any Council comments.

Mayor Maatman stated that he had no problem with the elimination of the five parking spaces, however, he did have a problem with the zero lot line, and agreed with the Planning Commission recommendation of at least eight to ten feet.

Councilman Collins also agreed, stating even five or six feet would allow for a ladder to be placed on their own property, rather than on the neighbor's for maintenance of the building, clean up behind, etc.

Manager Quada suggested that Mr. Brown have their architect draw a formal site plan taking into account the suggestions, and come up with a formal plan to be reviewed by the Council at the next regular meeting, and that Council table the matter until then, so that the details can be worked out.

Mr. Brown agreed, stating however, that their building schedule could start no later than the end of April, so that the business could open during the busiest time of the year. If approval of the variances is delayed or denied, they just simply would not buy the property, and would have to go elsewhere.

Mrs. Rosemary Fonger asked why everyone was so concerned about the property line and the property to the south of it, stating that she had been in business on that corner for sixteen years, and in all that time, the adjacent property owner had never trimmed the trees, or cleaned up their side of the property line. They maintained the restaurant's side, cleaning the parking lot, trimming the brush, and picking up litter, etc.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Schneider that the Public Hearing be tabled until the April 15 meeting for review of formal plans to be submitted by Garb-Ko, supported by Councilman Collins.

Carried.

Chairman Thompson then turned the meeting back over to Mayor Maatman.

Council next discussed setting a date for a public hearing on a request by John Ingersoll for a variance from square footage requirements in an R-3 Multiple Family Residential and Apartment zone, to allow the placement of a modular home on property owned on Hunt Street.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Fonger that the date be set for the May 6 meeting, supported by Councilman Collins.

Carried.

Manager Quada then asked the Council for authorization to put the "Scheme B" parking lot at the corner of Main and Riverside Drive into use on a temporary basis, for a period of six months, to see if it will work out. Area merchants have agreed to try it for a while, and if it is workable, it can then be made permanent. For the time being, temporary tree planters will be placed in a pattern with signing for parking and traffic flow, to create a desired park-line effect.

Councilman Thompson asked for permission to abstain from the vote, because his family has a personal interest by owning property fronting on the proposed parking area.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Fonger that Councilman Thompson be allowed to abstain, supported by Councilman Schneider.

Carried.

IT WAS THEN MOVED by Councilman Schneider that the proposed parking area at the corner of Main and Riverside Dr. known as "Scheme B" be allowed on a temporary basis of six (6) months, supported by Councilman Fonger.

Carried.

Manager Quada then headed a discussion on the extension of the Community Development Block Grant program for another three year period, stating that the City would receive $18,000 per year for the next three. Some of the projects covered would be, extension of water/sewer services, however, it is not a large enough amount to warrant that type of project; continuation of the storefront renovation project; general development of the downtown area such as tree planting, landscaping-beautification; neighborhood parks; and fire department, training or building construction, no equipment purchase is allowed, however.

He asked Council to consider the categories and the needs of the City on an information only basis at this time. A decision must be made between April 15 to May 1, 1985.

There were no citizen suggestions, or Council comments.

Under the Manager's Report, Manager Quada stated that one of our County fire units is out of service and a "loaner" truck from Cuttleville is being used in its place. Council Concurred to send a letter of thanks to the community of Cuttleville.

Manager Quada also reported that bids will be sought for catch basin repair. The City has been waiting for E.P.A. funding for the project and by determining our number on the waiting list, we are about ten years away for approval, and funds will run out in October of 1985. We are at the stage where we cannot wait any longer, they must be fixed. There is approximately $10,000 to $12,000 of Revenue Sharing Funds which can be used for the repair. The City is not obligated to accept any bid. The necessary repairs would significantly reduce infiltration into the sanitary sewer system, thereby reducing the number of gallons having to be treated, and then the State would not oppose an increase in capacity to the public system.

Work on the West End Park will start soon, as soon as it is dry enough. The parking lot will be extended and the ball fields laid out. The parking area will be shifted to allow for room for the "tot lot" and restroom facilities.

Mayor's Exchange Day will be observed during Michigan Week, May 19 through 25. Officials from the Village of Hutson will be here on Monday, May 20, and a delegation will travel there on Wednesday, May 22.

IT WAS THEN MOVED by Councilman Schneider to adjourn at 9:40 p.m.

Approved: Monday, April 15, 1985

First time buyers beware of extra expences

First time home buyers need to plan their budgets well in advance, planning not only for mortgage payments but for extra expenses as well, says Betty Shelby, Kent County Extension Home Economist.

"People who buy their first home often forget to leave room in their already tight budget for such things as insulation, carpet cleaning, maintenance and remodeling costs," Shelby says. They may also neglect to account for such things as lawn maintenance and snow removal equipment, and some necessary home furnishings.

Nearly half of all homeowners (46 percent) spend more than a quarter of their income on housing. Two-thirds of families who buy a house for the first time have two incomes.

If both wage earners continue to be employed, prospects are good for later increases in a young family's income, so housing costs will be easier to handle in the future. But be sure to plan for the possibility that one income may stop.

"For those buying a home, a flexible budget is very important," Shelby adds. Some flexibility in the budget will help cover unanticipated expenses, such as a furnace in need of repair or plumbing that must be replaced.

Families that stretch their budget limits to buy a home can get themselves into deep financial trouble by incurring a large installment debt on something like new furniture or draperies.

Notice is hereby given that the Grattan Township Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on the following proposed amendments to the Grattan Township Zoning Ordinance:

Any determination of compatibility shall be based upon the standards set forth in this definition of "dwelling" as well as the character, design and appearance of one or more residential dwellings located outside of mobile home parks throughout the township. The foregoing shall not be construed to prohibit innovative design concepts involving such matters as solar energy, view, unique land contour, or relief from the common or standard designed home.

was recovered in Kentucky Saturday evening, April 20. Investigation continues into the incident.

Three subjects were arrested in Lowell, Friday morning, in possession of a stolen car from Dallas, Texas. The three face arraignment on charges of stealing the car and possibly for assaulting a Colorado man. Names of the subjects are being withheld until the warrants are issued later this week.

Arraigned on charges of assault and carrying a concealed weapon was Emily Baylis, 54, of Belding in connection with an incident which occurred on Main Street March 8.

Advanced Arts and Crafts students had the chance to learn basket weaving from a professional, as Barbara Caddick of Grand Rapids was at LHS for a 2 day workshop, April 11 and 12.

Mrs. Caddick, a graduate of Kendall School of Design, has been active in basketry for about five years, but has only been teaching the craft two years. Her students range from kindergartners to adults. Mrs. Caddick says she "loves weaving." She shares this enjoyment through her classes.

During the 2 day workshop, students prepared their materials and then used them in the actual basket weaving procedure. Each made his/her own heart shaped basket.

It took patience and persistence, but with help from Mrs. Knapp and some of the students who learned quickly, things went quite well.

Funds to hire Mrs. Caddick were provided by a mini-grant from the Lowell Area Arts Council.

Ruth Blakely and Eric Elzinga get pointers from Barbara Caddick.

LAAC scholarship is now available

The Lowell Area Arts Council Board of Directors now has forms available for the Louise Harper Memorial Scholarship for 1985. The $325 award offered is to fund training beyond high school in the fine arts. This would include such fields of study as art, music, theatre, dance, photography, creative writing, or arts administration. Students applying for the award must be high school graduates by July 1, 1985 and must be enrolled in an area of fine arts in a university, college, or institution by December 31, 1985. Only one award will be given, the winner determined by a comparison of all applications.

Applications can be picked up from two locations. The first is Lowell Senior High School, 750 Foreman Road, Lowell, in the Student Service Center, anytime during the school day. The second location is the Lowell Art Center office, 149 S. Hudson, Lowell, between 12 Noon and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Applications could be mailed if requests are sent to the LAAC, P.O. Box 53, Lowell, or phoned in between 12 Noon and 5:00 p.m. to 897-8545.

Completed applications and two references are to be received or postmarked no later than May 18. Complete instructions are given on application forms.

The Louise Harper Memorial Scholarship Fund was started in memory of Louise, a resident of Lowell, and a member of the LAAC, who died in February 1982. Louise was especially active in the Arts Council, so it was decided that the fund established in her memory would offer a fine arts scholarship. This is the third year money will be awarded to fund a student in higher education in the fine arts. Previous recipients were Michele Gellersma and Bonnie Peters.

Vern Ehlers is sworn in Vern Ehlers was formally sworn into office last Tuesday as State Senator representing the 32nd district of Michigan. Supreme Court Justice James Brickley administered the oath of office to the new senator.

Ehlers, a Republican, was accompanied by his wife Jo and other family members. During the ceremony, Mrs. Ehlers held the bible open to a passage from Micah 6:8, which read: "... And what does the Lord require of you? To seek justice and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God." Ehlers was escorted into the full Senate chamber by another Grand Rapids area lawmaker, Senator Dick Posthumus

(R-Lowell). After brief remarks by Senate Majority Leader John Engler (R-Mt. Pleasant), Senator Ehlers commented to his colleagues: "I want to thank those of you who worked for my election -- and forgive those who didn't! I look forward to the Senate experience and I pledge to work for you and with you to the best of my ability."

The swearing-in ceremony, which marked the return of the Senate from its two-week Easter break, was a ceremonial confirmation of a private swearing-in which was held April 3 to permit the Senator to assume his duties immediately.
