The couple is from Caledonia, and Erma plans to work full time at their new venture while Wayne plans to help out in his spare time from his job at Country Fresh Dairy. The bar business is new to the couple, but Erma did operate her own cosmetics sales business and trained 475 sales people. They are grandparents for the first time, with Erma's daughter giving birth to a baby girl on Monday. Wayne and Erma invite you to stop in and say, "Hi". They are having a "Grand Opening" all week with happy hour prices in effect all day.

DID YOU KNOW . . . ?

. . . that carpeting is cheaper to install and maintain than traditional tile floors even when it needs to be replaced? Did you know that the Lowell Schools' maintenance staff has already implemented many low-cost/no-cost energy-saving measures?

1. Windows and most doors have been caulked and weather stripped.
2. All outside lighting has been turned off at night.
3. Water flow restricters have been put in the showers.
4. Efforts have been made to increase all staff awareness about saving energy.

Fallasburg Fest is this weekend

Lowell Area Arts Council organizers of the 1985 Fallasburg Fall Festival, headed by co-chairpersons Linda Daugherty and Laura Garcia, are completing last minute details, in preparation for this weekend's festival. In its seventeenth year, the festival promises once again to bring fine arts, skilled crafts, good food, family entertainment and fun to the beautiful Fallasburg Park pavillion and grounds.

Special events coordinator Laura Garcia has announced four featured events. For the first time this year there will be an antique buggy display at the park both Saturday and Sunday. On Sunday only, from 11 until 3, the Flat River Antique Auto Club will motor in with their only slightly more modern means of transportation. There will also be a gatling gun display again this year.

The fourth special event, in its third year at the festival, will be a Philatelic Exhibition Station. Postcards and envelopes featuring a special 1985 Fallasburg cancellation, designed by Lowell artist Jan Johnson, will be available at the Fallasburg Station, Lowell Post Office, at the information booth at the center of the pavillion grounds. Interested persons may also bring other mail for cancellation and mailing.

Eight demonstrators are scheduled to display old-time skills throughout the weekend. Featured will be traditional rug hooking by area rughookers, quilting by Rose Roberts, chair-caning by Karin Eldridge, butter churning by Joan Bunn, basketry by Lynda Hewett (Saturday) and Jane Schafer (Sunday). Members of the Lowell High School Art Club will be on hand to demonstrate their sketching skills.

This year's children's craft area (free as always) will offer a variety of paper crafts for youngsters three to twelve years old. The area is supervised by LAAC volunteers, and parents are not permitted within the roped-off area where the children are encouraged to be creatively individualistic as they explore the fun paper crafts (dragons, hats, etc.) or decorate a traditional pumpkin or gourd for the fall harvest season.

HEALTH

By Dr. Paul Gauthier and Dr. Jim Lang

CANKER SORES (APTHOUS STOMATITIS)

Canker sores (Apthous Stomatitis) are quite common and are characterized by painful ulcers of the lining of the mouth, tongue, palate or lips. About 20% of the general population is affected with apthous stomatitis, and 60% of these (for some strange reason) are members of the professional class.

Numerous causes have been suggested for canker sores. These include hereditary predisposition, hypersensitivity, socioeconomic status, psychologic factors, endocrine (glandular) abnormalities, chemicals in foodstuffs, trauma and foreign bodies and infections (primarily viruses).

The role of viruses, particularly herpes virus, has been studied extensively, unfortunately, little evidence has emerged to support a true viral cause for the recurrent canker sores. One particular virus, called adenovirus has been identified in some apthous lesions, but no causative role has been established.

Definite treatment for recurrent canker sores has not been established. One form of treatment is the use of oral tetracycline suspension. Many studies have shown that while the tetracycline does not alter the frequency of the sores, it may reduce their duration, size and severity.

Another form of therapy consists of correcting deficiencies in Iron, Vitamin B12 and/or Folic Acid. In one study, 20% of people with such deficiencies were affected with recurrent apthous stomatitis.

Levanisole is a new investigational drug which currently offers the most promise for therapy of apthous stomatitis. Although not currently available, many studies have shown this drug to be effective in suppressing canker sores and hopefully in reducing their recurrence rate.

Symptomatic treatment of canker sores includes hydrogen peroxide mouth washings, and the use of petrolatum (Vaseline) to cover the ulcers and protect them from painful stimulation by contact with spicy foods.

Niagara Falls stopped flowing for almost thirty hours on March 29, 1848, due to tons of ice jamming the river.

Homespun Devotions

By Pauline Spray

... God loveth a cheerful giver (II Corinthians 9:7).
Mother has a way of looking out for her family. When Jim is late getting home from football practice, he can depend on Mom. Although dinner has long been over, there will be food waiting. Mom sees to that. She saves a portion of meat, vegetables, and dessert especially for him.

One cannot be happy living for self alone. One must practice the rules of giving to know the joys of living.

The heart pumps blood through the body and gives it life. The heart is not a reservoir for storing up the blood, but it works to maintain life by circulating blood to every part of the body. Likewise, the Christian must keep giving out to others in order to maintain spiritual well-being. He receives by giving away what he possesses.

Charles Spurgeon said, "Let us learn... that to get, we must give; that to accumulate, we must scatter; that to make ourselves happy, we must make others happy; and that, to get good and become spiritually vigorous, we must do good and seek the spiritual good of others."

Prayer: Dear Lord, Thou has been so good to me, I cannot repay Thee except by doing good unto others. Enable me to give cheerfully and leave behind me a trail of kindness. Amen.

Did you waste the day or lose it?

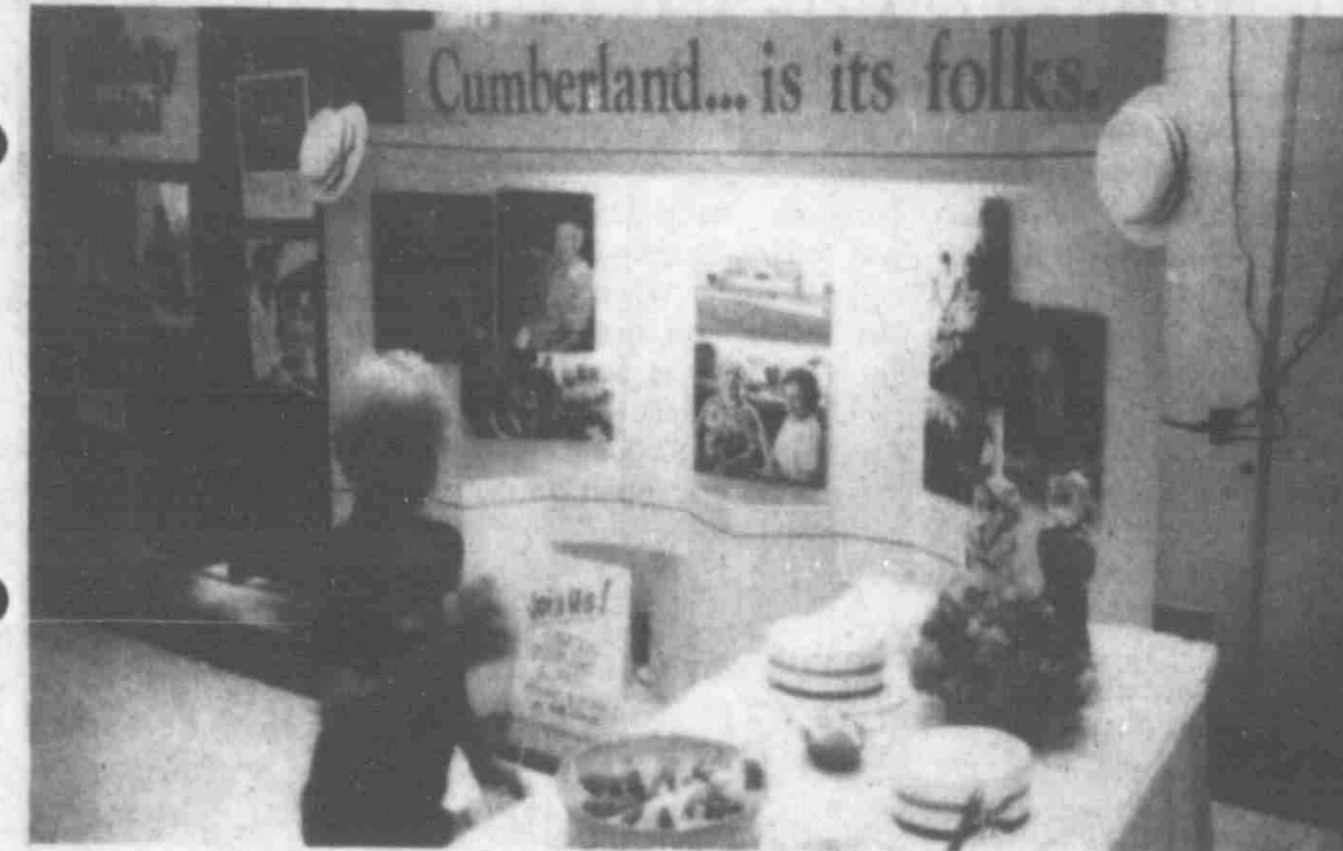

Was it well or poorly spent? Did you leave a trail of kindness?

Or a scar of discontent?

Cumberland participates in Health Expo week

Cumberland Retirement Village participated in last week's Health Expo at Eastbrook Mall. They were among the over 100 exhibitors demonstrating ways to keep your health. Cumberland's theme was "Cumberland Is Its Folks", and they stressed the ways in which they help their retired residents retain their health through exercise and nutrition. Several of Cumberland's residents were on hand at the booth each day to pass out literature, and answer questions about the retirement village.

Rainy weather was a factor in this auto accident

This car, driven by a 16 year old Lowell juvenile male skidded into a ditch on the south side of M-21 near Cumberland at 6:30 a.m. Monday morning. Kent County Sheriff's Deputies say that the driver was making a left turn on to M-21 from the stop sign at Cumberland. He was going to fast for conditions, (it had been raining), lost control and skidded into the ditch where the car rolled over on its side. The driver was not injured, and there were no passengers. Besides the Sheriff's Department, Lowell Police, Fire and Rescue responded.

THE HOUSE THAT JACK BUILT

Jack & Jill lived in a ranch style home with mortgage payments they were able to afford. One night they were both awakened by drops of water on their foreheads. Then it began dripping faster. Jack got a pail to catch the water coming through the roof. After having the roof examined, he learned it needed a major repair job. Also, he had very little insulation and was losing heat through doors and windows as well.

Jack & Jill sat down to see how they could solve their problem. They were spending all his income for the essentials and had no funds available for this maintenance.

The contractor had said if you have an energy-efficient house, you would spend less on utility bills. While the roof was being fixed, the house could be insulated and storm windows and storm doors could be installed, and this would reduce their heating bill for years to come.

Jack & Jill knew common sense said that they had to repair the roof, for it would cost more if the interior got damaged.

Common sense also said that as energy costs rise, insulation and storm windows would result in more savings in years to come.

If you are a tax payer in the Lowell School District, this story is similar to our schools' situation. The income has provided for the kids education, and no money has been available for major repairs. Now the Middle School roof is leaking and energy is being wasted in all the buildings because of lack of insulation, and energy efficient doors and windows.

Common sense says something must be done. Therefore, we are asking you, the owners of the Lowell School District to protect your investment in our buildings by voting "Yes" on October 7th.

Janeland Farms to compete in Livestock Exposition

When the North American International Livestock Exposition (NAILE) opens its doors to competitors this year, livestock breeders from across the nation will participate. According to Harold Workman, Manager of the North American International, the exposition has become the largest, all-breed, purebred livestock show on earth and is expected to attract more than 13,000 entries this year.

Events in 1985 will span a 14-day period, from November 9 and continuing until November 22. Six livestock types will be featured, including beef cattle, quarter horses, dairy cattle, swine, draft horses and sheep. According to Manager Workman, virtually every livestock breed will be represented in each of the six livestock categories, bringing total shows and livestock sales during the 2-week run of events to nearly 100.

Janeland Farms of Lowell, MI will be at the 1985 North American International Livestock Exposition to compete in the dairy division. According to a spokesperson for the NAILE, Janeland Farms has entered 11 head of dairy in the well-known competition. As an official entrant, Janeland Farms will compete for a share of more than $300,000 in premiums and awards which will be offered at the NAILE this year.

Jack Ragsdale, Chairman of the NAILE's Executive Committee, has also confirmed that the big exposition will feature an expanded group of activities for both livestock breeders and general visitors this year. Ragsdale said the North American will again feature Championship Rodeo Finals which are PRCA sanctioned; a barnyard featuring baby animals; many junior livestock events; a variety of sales, including a draft horse sale; the Agri-Products Show will return this year on an expanded basis to feature everything from livestock trailers to fine jewelry; and a Draft Horse Pull will take place for the second year.

Workman said, "The North American International has grown tremendously during recent years, and, as we enter our 12th year of service to the livestock industry, the overall expo will grow even more to offer something of interest to everyone." Both Workman and Ragsdale emphasized that, in addition to the NAILE's prominence as a showcase for fine livestock, the exposition offers a variety of entertainment for both rural and urban people.

Senior named as a semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship

Richard Korb, Principal of Lowell High School has been informed that senior Jason Robertson has been named as a semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Three other seniors; David Thaler, Kimberly Cridler and Brett Kirby were named as Commended Students by the NMSC. Korb said that this is the first time in his seven years at Lowell that so many students from here had placed in this prestigious and competitive competition.

In all, over one million high school seniors are tested by the NMSC each year. In order to qualify as a semi-finalist, a student must finish in the top 15,000 students, and in the top 35,000 to be a commended student. Only the semi-finalists will continue in the competition for the 5,800 merit scholarships worth nearly $21 million.

More than one million juniors attending some 19,000 U.S. secondary schools entered the competition by taking a qualifying test, the PSAT/NMSQT, in October 1984. The top scorers in each state, or less than half of one percent of each state's high school senior class, are included in the nationwide group of Semi-finalists.

To advance in the Merit Scholarship competition, a Semi-finalist must qualify as a Finalist by documenting high academic performance, being recommended by the high school principal, confirming qualifying test performance on the Scholastic Aptitude Test, and submitting information about school and community activities, personal interest, and goals. Over 90 percent (or 13,500) of the Semi-finalists in this year's Merit Program are expected to meet the rigorous standards required to become Finalists, and over 40 percent of the distinguished Finalists will be awarded Merit Scholarships of three different types.

Every Finalist will be considered for one of 1,800 single-payment National Merit $2000 Scholarships that are allocated on a state representation basis, in proportion to the state's total of graduating seniors. Winners will be chosen by a selection committee of college admissions counselors who will judge which of the Finalists have the strongest combination of academic and extracurricular accomplishments. The "National" awards are supported by grants to the Merit Program from sponsors in the business community, and by NMSC's own funds.

Only Finalists who meet preferential criteria specified by sponsors will compete for renewable Merit Scholarships of two types. Over 400 corporate and business organizations will underwrite nearly 1,500 awards for Finalists who are children of employees, residents of areas a company serves, or Finalists with career goals a sponsor wishes to encourage. A corporate-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarship can range in value from $500 to $4,000 for each college undergraduate year. Approximately 2,500 other renewable Merit Scholarships will be sponsored by some 200 colleges and universities. Only Finalists who will attend a sponsor institution can win one of these awards, which provide between $250 and $2,000 annually for up to four years of study at the sponsoring college.

NMSC is a not-for-profit organization devoted solely to scholarship activities that are supported by more than 600 independent sponsors, without federal or state funds. The Merit Scholar class to be announced in the spring of 1986 will join over 90,000 other academic champions who have received Merit Scholarships worth about $265 million between 1956 and 1985.

Lessons receives American Meteorological Society Seal of Approval

George D. Lessens has been awarded the American Meteorological Society Seal of Approval for Television Weathercasting.

The Seal of Approval program was started in 1957. Its goal is the endeavor to improve television and radio weathercasting across the country by recognizing competent weathercasters with the Seal of Approval.

Careful evaluation is made of each applicant. Meteorologists in the applicant's community, who have had a chance to see him frequently, are asked to evaluate the applicant's work. Broadcast Meteorologists across the country, who are on the American Meteorological Society of Broadcast Meteorology, evaluate a tape of the applicant's work.

To be awarded the Seal of Approval, a Weathercaster must:

- 1) Excel in technical competence
- 2) Present weathercasts of significant informational value
- 3) Adequately explain weather producing processes
- 4) Communicate information and explanations skillfully

The American Meteorological Society congratulates George D. Lessens for meeting its high standards and for being awarded the Seal.

Girls Tennis Team turns on the heat

Bright and early Saturday morning the girls tennis team participated in the Lakewood Invitational tournament and returned triumphantly with a second place win.

Despite the cold, rainy weather the girls played exceptionally well. "I'm very proud of my girls", Coach Whitley commented, "they gave it everything they had".

The first place winners were: Becky Wood and Jennifer Speerstra, first doubles; Jody Danley and Marcia Ryder, second doubles; Tricia Frey, third singles; and Meg Behnke, fifth singles.

Coming in second was the third doubles team of Angie Abel and Tami Stephens.

Third place winners were: Nancy Saboo, first singles; Jeanie Dintaman, second singles, and Dana Blohm and Laura McKivitz, fourth doubles.

Placing fourth was fourth singles player Jessica Rose.

Last week Monday the tennis team played a home match against Sparta. The team played hard, but was defeated 3-4. Winning for Lowell was Tricia Frey, Meg Behnke, and the doubles team of Tami Stephens and Angie Able.

On Wednesday the girls traveled to Kenowa Hills defeating them by a score of 6-1. Winning for Lowell in a hard three set match was Nancy Saboo. Other winners were Tricia Frey; Jessica Rose, who also went three sets; Jennifer Speerstra & Becky Wood; Jodi Danley and Marcia Ryder; and Tami Stephens & Angie Abel.

Good Job Lowell!!!!

Christiansen Home Takes A Ride

This home on the corner of Main and Jackson Streets was recently purchased by Harold and Rose Ball. In the above photo, taken last week, the home is up on a heavy duty trailer, ready for its move to a new location at the corner of Jackson and King Streets. The Ball's plan to request a zoning variance so that the house can be converted to a two family dwelling. The home was moved on Tuesday, and as usual, the event attracted lots of spectators. We took some photos of the move, but were unable to develop the film in time for this week's edition.

The house was previously owned by the First United Methodist Church. The church sold the house on the condition that it be moved so that they could build a parking lot on the site. The house has been known as the "Christiansen Home" by nearly everyone who has lived in Lowell for more than a few years. The Christiansens owned the pharmacy and soda fountain, and this house is where they raised their family.

Girls' Varsity Basketball team bows to Christian

The girls' varsity basketball team was stopped from a victory by a strong, tall Grand Rapids Christian team, 80-44 on Tuesday, September 17.

Lowell's high scorer was Nancy Stencil with 12 points, contributing 10 points each were Tammy Lindhout and Ronnie Watrous. Leading the Red Arrows in rebounds again was Ronnie Watrous with a total of 6. Cindy Dumas returning to the team after an illness pulled down 4 rebounds. Stencil and Hoffman grabbed down 4 rebounds each.

The preconference schedule for the Red Arrows has been against tough teams. The Arrows are struggling but improving with each game.

On September 19, Lowell Red Arrows bounced back from a low scoring first quarter against Forest Hill Northern Huskies to give them trouble in a good defensive game. The final score of 30-45 doesn't clearly tell the picture of the hard fought game by the Red Arrow players.

Senior Nancy Stencil played center position against an opposing All-Conference Husky center. Stencil had 8 points and 7 rebounds in a difficult consultation. An alert Ronnie Watrous contributed excellent stats to add to the Arrows team effort. Watrous dropped in 11 points, snatched 6 rebounds, and managed 2 steals from the tall opponents. Leading rebounder for the Lowell Red Arrows was hustling Cindy Dumas with 10.

Lowell Red Arrows will meet Northview at home on September 26.

Hard work pays off for Cross-Country Teams

Lowell's boys cross country team had a disappointing race Wednesday, September 18, when they lost their first league race by one point. Despite team members B. Kirby, C. Blasher, and C. Kloosterman finishing in the top five runners, the team lost to Kenowa Hills 28 to 27. The girls team also lost to Kenowa Wednesday, but showed promise by improving their times.

Thursday's race, however, revealed the teams diligent hard work. In the race, Lowell ran against three teams, Allegan, Lakewood, and Hastings at Hastings. The boys team did very well, beating both Allegan and Lakewood, but losing to Hastings. The girls team outshone the boys for a change, by beating all three teams. Lowell girl's top five runners that day were K. Cridler, M. Carrier, A. Kanoza, J. Schank, and T. Brimayer. The top five runners for the boys team that day were: B. Kirby, A. Milley, C. Kloosterman, C. Blasher, and M. Harding.

Saturday, September 20, Lowell attended their first Invitational at Sparta. Both the boys and girls team members did well by improving their times. Medals were awarded to B. Kirby for his 7th place finish, M. Harding for his 20th place finish, and K. Cridler for her 17th place finish.

Also running on the girls team are: J. Spillane and A. Clinger. Also running on the boys team are: C. Sayen, P. Wilcox, G. Mersman, D. Fegal, M. Grooters, R. Pawloski, E. Duram, J. Biemers, and B. Kauffman.

SPEED & ACTION SCHOOL: 4th Rick Wingeier, 5th Kellie Nelson, 6th Valerie Kuyt.

TWO-MAN RELAY SCHOOL: 3rd Cindy Luehrs & Candi Wood.

Open Ridge Stables in Ada is the site of the third meet to be held on September 28. Classes start at 9 A.M. and spectators are welcome to attend. Two district champions, Class A and Class B, will be named at the completion of this meet.

Forest Hills Central falls to Red Arrows, 13-7

By Kurt Quiggle
A cool September evening at Burch Field was the setting for Lowell's victory over the Forest Hills Central Rangers last Friday night. Lowell's stifling defense, combined with its swift offense buried state rated FHC, raising their record to 1-1 in the OK White.

Joe Mitchell had an outstanding game for Lowell. Carrying the ball 12 times for 98 yards, and scoring the first of Lowell's two touchdowns. Mike Dumas compiled 91 yards on 18 carries and caught three passes, one of them for Lowell's second touchdown.

When the Arrow's offensive line wasn't blowing holes for Mitchell and Dumas, their defensive line was shutting Central's Todd Richards down. Richards, who rushed for over 120 yards in his two preceding games, was allowed only 64 by Lowell's crushing defense. Rich Johnson had an interception and Pat Schaefer recovered his third fumble of the year.

Central's only score came as Richards scampered into the end-zone after a 58 yard drive during their first possession after opening kick-off.

When the final second ticked off the clock, Lowell was on top, 13-7.

Lowell travels to Kenowa Hills to battle the Knights for their first game on the road next Friday night.

Golf Team places 6th in FHN Fall Classic

The Lowell High School Golf team labors in relative obscurity at Deer Run every night. Saturday their efforts paid off as the Red Arrows finished 6th out of 20 teams at the prestigious Forest Hills Northern Fall Classic at Lincoln Country Club. Jay Messner (79), Darl DeCator (80), Don Reagan (83) and Eric Schwamberger (84) shot a combined 326. Paul Stroosnyder added an 88 as fifth man.

Interest in golf in Lowell is at a high level as 25 young men and ladies are out for this life-time sport. Coach Jack Ogle states "It is great to have this many people interested in golf. The kids are enthusiastic and improving daily."

Earlier this year the Varsity golf team placed 1st at the Forest Hills Invitational and hope to continue their great tournament play at the Ludington Invitational and the conference tournament on Oct. 5.

EGR scored early and added two late goals in the first half on well executed plays against a good Lowell defense. LSC mounted several good but unsuccessful offensive drives in the first half against a formidable EGR defense.

LSC's defense came out strong in the second half holding EGR scoreless until midway in the half. EGR scored twice and Mike Ray scored for LSC, unassisted, late in the game.

South Christian High School beat LSC 7 to 1 on Saturday at the LMS field. South Christian scored early in the game and added three goals late in the first half. Defensive players Jeremy

Through the use of the planetarium equipment, the colorful history of the "Holy Land" and its people are presented.

Many family activities planned at Museum

At summer's end, the arrival of fall can cause ice cream trucks to melt into thin air... leave outdoor pools high and dry... and stop roller coasters dead in their tracks.

But at Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, fall is a cause for celebration, bringing with it a bounty of family activities. Whether one visits the museum, 14 acres of American innovation under one roof, or the village, its quaint streets and buildings splashed with fall color, the excitement is as keen as the nip in the air.

The village's first hint of fall color won't be on the trees, but in the streets, as the Carriage Association of America comes to call September 18-21.

The organization's annual conference is expecting approximately 70 "turnouts," as the horse-and-carriage combinations are called. The colorful carriages will range from elegant to everyday, from sporty to utilitarian, and will be pulled by anywhere from one to four horses. The old-fashioned vehicles will add extra atmosphere to village streets, as well as extra fun with various competitions on Friday and a parade Saturday.

Perhaps the most visible salute to the season occurs in Greenfield Village during the Autumn Harvest Festival, October 4, 5 and 6. This three-day celebration of a bountiful harvest overflows with 19th-century food, entertainment and rural life in general.

Likewise, in adjacent Greenfield Village, the restored homes, workplaces and municipal buildings of unknown, as well as famous, Americans, sit waiting to be explored year round.

Visitors will enjoy the fragrant arts of cider making, woodstove cooking, apple preservation and squash and pumpkin preparation. Other kinds of domestic skills to be demonstrated will include wool dyeing, candle dipping and soap making.

Cider making on a larger scale will be performed at the Martinsville Cider Mill, where visitors can watch the process and then purchase the tangy product by the glass or jug. Other "apple activities" include bobbing for apples and an apple paring bee at the Wright Home.

Although much harvesting in the 19th-century was done by hand, many of the field chores were made immeasurably easier by horse, and later, steam power. Visitors to the Autumn Harvest Festival can get a rare view of land being turned, tilled and planted by horse-drawn machinery, as well as steam and oil-powered traction engines and tractors.

All of this hard, honest work will receive its just reward at the Village's Swanee Restaurant, where an authentic thresherman's meal will be served. Visitors can partake of such hearty fare as roast pig and home-baked pies in the specially decorated eatery.

A bit of fall "housecleaning" will occur at the museum and village on October 19. Approximately 400 lots of redundant or out-of-scope collection items will be sold at an auction to be held in the museum parking lot.

Those items chosen for sale are objects that will never fill the museum's exhibit or research needs. Representing only a fraction of the museum's stored holdings, they include automobiles, motorcycles, horse-drawn vehicles, a truck, locomotive, metal and woodworking machines and steam engines.

Throughout the rest of the fall season, Henry Ford Museum's unmatched collections, representing such diverse categories as transportation, home arts, agriculture, lighting, decorative arts, power machinery and music, are open to the public seven days a week. Everyday activities include introductory tours of the museum, demonstrations of actual steam engines in action, and a hands-on experience with early inventions in the Activities Center.

Likewise, in adjacent Greenfield Village, the restored homes, workplaces and municipal buildings of unknown, as well as famous, Americans, sit waiting to be explored year round.

The pound cake gets its name from the pound of butter it contains.

Two new lifeguards scheduled for a tryout at Laguna Beach, California, this summer can swim 25 miles an hour and plunge with ease through the roughest surf, reports International Wildlife magazine. The new recruits, sporting fur coats and flippers, are two female sea lions. One of their trainers, Karen Wyman, of the Friends of the Sea Lion Marine Mammal Center, says this is a way for the seals, often thought of as circus clowns or nuisances to fishermen, to improve their self-image.

WHEREAS, by resolution of the County Board of Commissioners, a county may enter into a contract for the purchase of equipment to be used for public purposes and to be paid in installments over a period not to exceed the lesser of ten (10) years or the useful life of the property and, if the obligations were authorized or incurred after December 22, 1978, and were not approved by the electors of the county, the county shall levy and collect ad valorem taxes as required by law subject to applicable charter, statutory and constitutional limits, and the principal and interest payments shall be a first budget obligation, and

WHEREAS, the Finance Committee recommends that the County, acting by and through its Department of Public Works, purchase the aforesaid equipment on an installment basis.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Kent County Board of Commissioners hereby determines that the proposed tractor will be used for public purposes and will have a useful life exceeding five (5) years, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Kent County Board of Commissioners hereby authorizes the Chairman of the Board of Public Works to enter into an installment contract, for and on behalf of Kent County, to acquire the IH Model 540 Front End Loader and hereby directs the Chairman of the Board of Public Works, or her designee, to execute any and all agreements and assignments necessary to accomplish the purchase and the installment financing thereof, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, pursuant to the authorization provided in Act 156 of the Public Acts of 1951, as amended, and Act No. 202 of the Public Acts of 1943, as amended, the Kent County Board of Commissioners does hereby irrevocably pledge the full faith and credit of the County of Kent for the prompt payment of the purchase price and interest on the installment contract as a first budget limited tax general obligation of the County.

Commissioner Bandstra moved the adoption of the resolution. Seconded by Commissioner Byington.

Civil Counsel Dewitt presented information on the Mass Burn Incinerator Project dealing with public or private ownership. Private/Private would mean private ownership of the incinerator, steam line, steam plant, and distribution loop and private operation. Public/Private would mean public ownership of the major elements but private operation. The staff would not consider or recommend public ownership and public operation. He presented the following points with regard to both options:

PRIVATE/PRIVATE

1) If financed with privately issued industrial development bonds (IDB's) with the assumption that they must be sold before January 1, 1986, lead time requirements are such that it would not be possible to use the request for bid process to select a private vendor. This would eliminate the traditional competitive bid process. The County would need to immediately select one or more potential vendors to engage in immediate intense, simultaneous negotiations.

2) With the assumption that IDB's could be sold after January 1, 1986, you could use the normal request for bid process for competitive bid. If the tax reform legislation does take effect January 1, 1986, you would not be in a position to proceed with the project because IDB's would not be available to the County or the private vendor.

3) Selling public bonds in 1985 and rolling the bond proceeds over to a private vendor in 1986 has been reviewed in detail by the Project Team with the conclusion that this option is not legally available.

PUBLIC/PRIVATE

1) Sale of IDB's could be completed by the County by December 31, 1985. Major elements, including acquisition of the steam plant and negotiation of the electrical sale contract and flow control contracts with municipalities would not be completed by that time, but the bonds could be sold with the proceeds placed in escrow.

2) Using the assumption that the IDB's could be sold after January 1, 1986, would permit the project to proceed at a more comfortable pace.

Mr. Dewitt reviewed the key advantages of both approaches:

PRIVATE/PRIVATE ADVANTAGES:

1) The tipping fee would likely be lower at the start of the project.

2) More responsibility and control for major decision making would be lodged in the private sector.

3) The private sector has profit incentives to keep down the cost of operation and maintenance.

4) The private sector has profit incentives to increase the market for the steam plant.

5) There is a perception that private ownership is more efficient than government.

6) Private ownership would generate additional state and local taxes.

7) Private ownership would eliminate complaints that the County is not involving the private sector.

PUBLIC/PRIVATE ADVANTAGES:

1) The tipping fee would be lower over the life of the project although it would be higher initially.

2) Greater responsiveness to public health and environmental concerns.

3) More responsive to environmental concerns not mandated but in the public interest.

4) More control over expansion of the incinerator in the future.

5) To the extent the facility has residual value, the public sector would benefit from that residual value.

6) Less exposure to tax law changes.

Mr. Dewitt indicated an additional alternative would be public ownership of the incinerator but private ownership of the steam plant and steam loop.

Mr. Dewitt felt the two key factors are tipping fees and residual value. Experts predict that the tipping fee with private ownership will be lower initially but higher over the life of the project. The private sector argues that the tipping fee will be lower at the start and remain lower throughout the life of the project. The Project Team and Financial Consultant feel the tipping fee will be less over the life of the project with public ownership.

Mr. Dewitt reported that the Project Team has recommended that the County proceed with a Public/Private Project. By a 3-2 vote this afternoon, the Liaison Committee recommends a Private/Private Project.

After extensive discussion of the pros and cons of Private/Private versus Public/Private, Commissioner DeVriendt moved that the County proceed with a Public/Private Project. Seconded by Commissioner Kuhn.

Motion failed by the following vote:

Yeas: Kuipers, Bandstra, Oppewal, Vaughn, Kemper, Kuhn, DeVriendt, Thomas, Chairperson Buth - 9.

Nays: TerHorst, Byington, Marsh, Lamoreaux, Boelens, Laninga, M. Buth, Wahlfield, Schwab - 9.

Absent: Doyle, DeKraaker, Lorch - 3.

Commissioner Byington moved that the County proceed with a Private/Private Project. Seconded by Commissioner Laninga.

Motion failed by the following vote:

Yeas: TerHorst, Byington, Marsh, Lamoreaux, Boelens, Laninga, M. Buth, Wahlfield, Schwab - 9.

Nays: Kuipers, Bandstra, Oppewal, Vaughn, Kemper, Kuhn, DeVriendt, Thomas, Chairperson Buth - 9.

Absent: Doyle, DeKraaker, Lorch - 3.

Mr. Dewitt cautioned that timing is very critical if IDB's are to be sold. He urged that a decision be made as promptly as possible.

At 8:45 p.m. Commissioner Oppewal moved to adjourn, subject to the call of the Chairperson, and to Friday, September 27, 1985 at 9:00 a.m. for a Committee of the Whole Meeting and to Wednesday, October 2, 1985 at 9:00 a.m. for an Official Meeting. Seconded by Commissioner Lamoreaux.

Motion carried unanimously.

"Capitol Column"

By State Senator
Dick Posthumus

A bipartisan, seven-member panel was formed in June to study dramatically rising insurance rates for some very important reasons -- because climbing insurance rates are being passed on to consumers, and are limiting access to health care, government services and other human needs.

The Senate Select Committee on Civil Justice Reform was split into three subcommittees, and each dealt with a particular area: medical malpractice, governmental immunity, and dramshop (or bar owner) reform.

Public hearings on medical malpractice revealed a startling fact. Current malpractice premiums are endangering the availability and affordability of health care. It's not just the doctor who feels the pinch when insurance rates climb. Those needing high-risk care, the poor and uninsured, and those living in inner cities and rural areas also suffer.

Lawsuits against governmental units are also escalating, and with higher and more frequent awards comes higher insurance rates. That money doesn't just appear out of thin air -- it is the taxpayer who pays the price.

Bar and restaurant owners have also seen a dramatic increase in liability insurance rates due to the Dram Shop Act, which allows victims of accidents caused by drunk drivers to sue the establishment that served the last drinks. Rates have jumped from less than $1 per $100 worth of drinks sold to about $7 per $100 in drink sales. Some bar owners have even been forced to leave the industry because of high insurance rates.

The subcommittees' recommendations were made public recently. Though each of the subcommittees made specifically tailored recommendations, they all addressed six major problem areas, including: "joint and several" liability which would be modified to base liability on fault rather than the ability to pay; the "collateral source" rule which would be modified to prevent double payment to injured parties; structured payments of lawsuit awards which would allow the defendant to pay large judgments over a period of years; pre-judgment interest which is modified to encourage quick settlement of litigation; caps on non-economic awards which limit awards for pain and suffering; and frivolous lawsuit restrictions to control the increase in unnecessary cases clogging the judicial system.

The Medical Malpractice Subcommittee also recommends: a pre-trial screening panel to process cases more efficiently; a reduced statute of limitations on childbirth malpractice suits; and strengthening peer review and licensing actions against negligent and incompetent health care providers.

Additional suggestions from the Government Liability Subcommittee call for limiting the liability for low-level government employees. The Dram Shop Subcommittee recommends a mandatory training session for employees of licensed liquor establishments, increased liability for the last bar to serve a drunk patron, and formation of a self-insurance pool.

After months of study, now the real work begins -- turning the recommendations into legislative proposals. Look for action on many of these suggestions in the coming months.

"Energize Our Schools"

By Superintendent Fritz Esch

The school millage vote scheduled for October 7 will result in providing additional protection for taxpayers investing in land and buildings. When our school buildings were built, energy consumption was not a problem. The cost of natural gas and electricity was cheap compared to today's standards. Therefore engineers designed buildings, school buildings included, with electrical systems that run constantly and added boiler systems big enough to make up for the lack of insulation that normally goes into today's buildings.

It is hard to believe that roofs on school buildings contain no more than two (2) inches of insulation. It is also hard to believe that there is no insulation above the ceiling tile in buildings and the metal decking which supports the roof systems.

By today's standards this creates inefficiency in natural gas and electrical consumption which could be reduced considerably should the district receive a favorable vote on October 7.

In addition to upgrading systems using electrical power and natural gas the proposed millage would also replace the middle school roof which the district's engineering firm reported is beyond the point of continued patching.

Water has gotten between the roof layers wetting insulation of the flat roof causing deterioration and leaks. The roofs wet insulation, which was originally installed in 1972, does not retain building heat and causes an added demand for natural gas and electricity. The same problems exist on sections of other district school buildings.

The 1.9 mills proposed to be collected in 1986 only would raise enough money to make the needed roof repairs at the Middle School. The Board is seeking a build-up flat roof system which will increase the amount of insulation and come with a 10 year written guarantee from the installer and the manufacturer of materials with an average life expectancy of 25 years.

In 1987 the millage would drop to 1.4 mills and would raise enough funds to continue the district's eight year plan to make needed repairs and alterations to save energy dollars.

A favorable vote on October 7 would "Energize Our Schools" and avoid the expenditure of unnecessary tax dollars for years to come.

"Raindrops Keep Fallin . . ."

Weekend rains found their way through the badly leaking Lowell Middle School. On Monday, maintenance personnel got out the buckets, and began vacuuming up soaked carpeting. The above photo was taken in the Special Education Resource Room taught by Judy Drain, whose name is very fitting for the condition of her classroom. The top priority in an upcoming October 7 millage vote is a $400,000 replacement of the Middle School roof. The proposal millage calls for 1.9 mills to be assessed the first year (summer of 1986), all of which will be used on the Middle School roof. For the next 7 years 1.4 mills will be assessed, and used solely to repair roofs, replace windows, add insulation and perform other major repairs or replacement projects. Administrators insist that the already tightened operational budget simply can't afford such major repairs as are needed. Watch for detailed information about this important millage election in next week's Ledger. If you need further details, call the Superintendent's office at 897-8415.
