HALLOWEEN COSTUME CONTEST

The Ledger is organizing a Halloween Costume Contest for employees of any business in the city. We have an increase in the number of employees getting into the spirit of the holiday over recent years, and decided that a contest would be in order. Over the next week we will be putting together a slate of prizes, formulating our rules and selecting judges. See next week's Ledger for details. In the mean time, get your costume ready! Try to let us know in advance if there will be people in costume where you work, so that we can schedule our judges. Our phone is 897-9261. We'll also have the Ledger camera along, and will be printing lots of pictures in the following edition.

DID YOU KNOW? . . .

. . . all Alto students and staff, (including teachers, cooks, custodians, secretary and principal), have set individual goals that they promise to work toward during this school year? Also, at Alto, the hardworking Parent Teacher Club recently raised nearly $3,000 to use this year for student field trips, assemblies and school equipment. The students were very involved in this project, for they got out and sold Mackinac fudge and salt water taffy to achieve this income.

Bank to hold Open House Friday

The staff of the State Savings Bank will proudly display their newly expanded and remodeled home office at 414 East Main Street during an all-day open house on Friday, October 15. Visitors will be treated to tours of the facility, free coffee and cake and free gifts as tokens of appreciation to the 50-year-old bank's valued customers.

The project was announced in October of last year as a $450,000 expansion that would double the space of the then 47 x 114 building. The newly expanded and totally remodeled structure now totals at well over 10,000 sq. ft., and provides sorely needed office space. Prior to the expansion, two executives shared the conference room, another was located in the mortgage closing room and one shared a desk in the lobby with the new accounts manager. Six new offices and a separate mortgage closing room were incorporated into the design of the new building.

The bank now provides nine teller positions, two more than before. There are also two new "loan teller" positions. The drive-up windows at the rear of the bank were also completely renovated and doubled to four lanes. A large employee lunch room, complete with kitchen facilities, was added. A larger, climate controlled room for the bank's advanced computer system is also part of the renovation. The expansion also provides room for the bank's new rotating "Kardex" loan file system.

In order to make room for the expansion and the required additional parking, the bank purchased two neighboring houses over recent years. A home directly south of the bank was purchased, and razed for extra parking early last year. A large three story home to the west of the bank was purchased by the bank earlier this year. The home was re-sold and moved to accommodate the bank's new addition. Still in need of additional parking, State Savings Bank announced just this week that it has purchased a home at the northeast corner of Jefferson and Kent Streets. The house will be razed to provide even more parking space for bank employees.

As a service to the community, the bank included in its expansion project the installation of a state-of-the-art time and . . . Lowell Masons & Eastern Stars are sponsoring a Fish Fry on Saturday, November 2, 1985 in the Lowell Masonic Temple. Serving Family Style from 5:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. Adults $3.75, children under 12- $1.00.

In just one year, the State Savings Bank went from announcing their 5,000 sq. ft. expansion to hosting an open house in the new facility. The new addition has generated at least four new jobs at the bank.

temperature sign. The sign is located on Main Street and flashes the time and the temperature in both fahrenheit and celcius.

The addition provided four new positions at the bank, all of which have been filled. The bank currently employs 54. Because financial institutions are exempt from Public Act 198, the bank was not eligible for any tax relief for the project, even though new jobs were created.

Dan Vos Construction Co. of Ada was the general contractor on the project. Local contractors included Rickert Electric, Dave Clark Plumbing and Heating, Inc., O.E. Bieri and Sons, and Anderson Landscaping.

If you haven't had the opportunity to visit the newly remodeled bank, make it a point to stop by during their open house on Friday. You'll find that it is a pleasant, modern facility that is a credit to our community.

Arrows knock off Wyoming Park; earn eighth place state ranking

By Mike Lillie & Roger Brown

The Lowell Red Arrows are keeping some pretty fast company on the gridiron these days. After Lowell's stunning 13-0 upset of number 1 ranked Wyoming Park last Friday, the state rankings came out Monday with Lowell, Wyoming Park and East Grand Rapids rated 8, 9 and 10 respectively in the class B column. Lowell plays East Friday night in what promises to be the game to untie the knotted up OK White Division. All three teams are tied at 5-1 for first place in the hotly contested division. If Lowell can get by East Grand Rapids on Friday, they will be assured of at least a share of first place honors, a probable move up the ladder in the state rankings and possibly a berth in the playoffs. Game time is 7:30 at the East Grand Rapids field. Tickets will be available beginning at noon on Friday at the principal's office in the Lowell High School. Fans may avoid long lines at the game if they buy their tickets early. Ticket prices are $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for students if purchased at school, $2.00 if purchased at the gate.

The Red Arrows didn't let Wyoming Park's reputation as last year's State Class B Champs influence them Friday. It was a great defensive game for both teams. Park forced Lowell to punt 4 times in the first quarter, while Lowell held the Vikings to 0 first downs through the first half. At half time the score was 0-0.

Early in the 3rd quarter, Lowell was first to score on a run by Mike Dumas. Bob Essex hit the point after to make the score 7-0. Dumas once again lead the Arrows with 129 yards and two touchdowns on 46 carries. The Red Arrows offense rushed for a total of 185 yards. The second score of the game came mid way through the fourth quarter on another Mike Dumas run. The P.A.T. was no good making the score 13-0.

Lowell's defense held one of the best teams in the state to almost no offense.

The Arrows held Park to only

42 total yards; 16 yards rushing, and 26 yards passing, and a total of only three first downs. Lowell's secondary was awesome, picking off four of Park's passes. Kurt Quiggle, Rich Johnson, Bill Briggs, and Tony Huver came up with the key interception that slammed the door on the defending state champs.

Lowell's hefty offensive line was the key to the Arrow ground attack. The line comprised of Jeff Phillips, Jim Johnson, W.J. Price, Ron Bancroft, Jim Goggins, J.J. Weiringa, Tim Arnold and Rick Sauber averages over 200 pounds. Their superior size and strength, coupled with Dumas' running ability, allowed the Arrows to grind out yardage on the muddy, rain-soaked field. One 33 yard scoring drive required eight Dumas rushes for 22 yards and an 11 yard pass from quarterback Mike Barnes to tight end Jeff Phillips. The drive was typical of the game's tough yardage, as the two teams battled for control of the line.

VIRAL CROUP

With the onset of cooler temperatures we are seeing more cases of upper respiratory infections in children. One of the most common is croup.

Viral croup, known as acute laryngotracheo bronchitis, usually presents as an infection of the upper respiratory tree associated with a "brassy" or hacking dry cough. Croup is caused by the para influenza virus and usually involves children between 3 months and 3 years old. Males seem to be involved more than females and the disease occurs mostly in the fall and winter months.

The symptoms of croup can vary, but usually the child has a mild upper respiratory tract infection for a few days before the characteristic cough and respiratory distress begins. As the infection proceeds the temperature may rise to 103-104 degrees F. or it may be only slightly elevated. The child may be restless and irritable. Viral croup usually lasts for several days to a week. A common variation of viral croup is "spasmodic croup." This occurs mostly at night - the child awakens with the characteristic hacking cough, hoarseness and respiratory distress. Breathing may be quite labored and the child will appear restless or frightened. Within a couple of hours the symptoms will diminish and the following day the child may be totally normal. The symptoms may re-occur the next night or two.

As a parent, croup can be very alarming - you wonder if your child will be able to make it through the night! (Believe me, we've been there!). Most cases of viral croup can be managed at home. We recommend acetaminophen (Tylenol® Tempra®) for fever. Respiratory stridor may be helped by using a cool mist vaporizer.

Sometimes placing the child in a closed bathroom with a hot shower running to fill the room with steam will relieve the respiratory stridor. Expectorants, cough syrups, antihistamines and bronchodilators have not really proven useful in viral croup. Antibiotics are of no use as this is a viral infection. If the above measures have been tried but the child continues to experience respiratory distress (very rapid breathing, restlessness, retraction of the tissue between the ribs, decreasing inspirations or pallor) hospitalization may be necessary.

In summary, croup is a self-limited viral illness characterized by a brassy, dry cough, hoarseness and respiratory distress, that does not usually require extensive medical care.

Bridesmaids were Julie Taylor, sister of the groom and Mary Leslie, friend of the bride. Flowergirls were Katie and Sarah Wisniewski, friends of the bride. All of the girls dresses were pink off-the-shoulder gowns, fitted bodice and triple rows of ruffles on bouffant skirts. They carried pink rose and carnation bouquets and wore matching headwraths.

Homespun Devotions

By Pauline Spray

...blessed are all they that wait for him (Isaiah 30:18).

It was fun watching my neighbor Doris take a snapshot of her visiting nephews. The four of them gave her a difficult time. Each is "all-boy." First, they shoved. Then they fought. They made funny faces, tugged at their shirts, and chased each other around the yard. All in all, they offered the least possible cooperation. When three of them were still enough to take the picture, the fourth one ran into the house.

Boys are full of life. It is "work" for them to remain quiet for any length of time. Many girls are active, too. And many energetic boys and girls grow into adulthood never learning the value of quietness.

Activity is good, for inactivity can be a tool of the enemy. But sometimes adults overdo a good thing. Everyone needs to take time out of a busy life for quiet meditation. Every individual needs to grow still in his spirit and wait often in the presence of the Lord. It is there, Christians, we can find strength for the rigors of the day and confidence to face the uncertainty of the future. Though it may not be easy, we must listen and "wait for Him."

Prayer: O Lord, teach me to grow quiet before Thee. Give me Thy illumination. Make me to do Thy will. I wait for Thee. Amen. Silently now I wait for Thee. Ready, my God, They will to see; Open my eyes, illumine me, Spirit divine!

Burglary at Boy Scout Cabin

On Monday, October 14, Boy Scout Troop #102 came to the Boy Scout Cabin on N. Washington Street and discovered that someone had broken in during the previous week. Stolen was a wall plaque that the boys had won last May at their annual Jubilee. This plaque is a traveling one, and it is to be returned next Spring to be passed on to the next first-place troop. Also taken was the troop's brand new American Flag, donated this fall by the V.F.W. Post in Lowell. The assistance of neighbors living near the Scout Cabin would be appreciated by the troop. Please help by being our "eyes" and contacting the police or Rick Briggs, 897-5501 if you feel there is activity at the cabin that is not Boy-Scout oriented. Lowell has a good Boy Scout Troop developing and it does not need "bored" or "adventure-seeking" persons hampering the program. Thank you for your support and help. On a pleasant note: during the next week, scouts will be selling the Tom Watt Showcase of Gifts throughout the area. If you would like a boy scout to show you these gifts for Christmas buying, please call the above number.

The Bowling Corner

By Jay Michaels

Last week I stressed the importance of being comfortable on the lanes in your stance and approach. Today I want to stress the fact that you must also be comfortable in the way you dress and in the equipment you use. Being comfortable allows you to concentrate on your game, and it also leaves your brain free to bowl your best.

Okay, a lot of you are saying to yourself, "What's this guy trying to say?" Right? If you wear clothing that is too tight, you feel uncomfortable, and feeling uncomfortable means your brain is working overtime to overcome that feeling. ALWAYS wear loose fitting shirts or blouses and never wear jeans or slacks that look like they were painted on. Why? You don't want to inhibit or restrict your movement in any way. We all like to look good when we're bowling, and you can, as long as your natural bowling motion isn't restricted.

Same goes for shoes. If your feet hurt from a pair of shoes that don't fit properly, you're going to bowl badly. And if they're too loose, you're going to develop blisters. Most centers spray their rental shoes with disinfectant after each use, so if you rent your shoes, make sure your proprietor is using this practice. If you buy shoes, make sure you buy from a reputable Pro Shop or proprietor, the local thrift shop or yard sale is NOT the place to purchase shoes.

It all boils down to the same thing I said last week, BE COMFORTABLE! You may look good in those skin tight jeans you wear to bowl in, but you'll bowl a heck of a lot better if you feel at ease and comfortable.

Next week we'll look at your other equipment, and again I'll stress the word COMFORT. Until then, go bowling and bring along a friend or three. ATTENTION League Secretaries!!! Send your Honor Roll candidates to me:

May the great bowling turkey shine down on your league play always. LEAGUE SECRETARIES!!! Send your Honor Roll to me at 805 E. Main Lowell, 49331. NOTICE!! Beginning this Friday, there's a new game in town at Legion Lanes. Every other Friday at 1:30 there'll be a housewives 9 Pin No-Tap Tournament which will pay $100.00 for first (based on 32 entries). Cost for entry is going to be kept low and there'll be a BIG Mystery Game number called once a session. SORRY GUYS, this one's just for the ladies.

J.V. Girls win three in a row

The Lowell Junior Varsity Girl's Basketball team hosted Sparta on Thursday night, October 10. Lowell Red Arrows were victorious over the Sparta Spartans, 57 to 17.

High scorer for the Arrows was Leann Iteen with 19 points. Pulling down 9 rebounds and sinking 7 points was Sheila Kazmier. An alert Leigh Ranburger managed 6 steals and scored 12 points.

On Tuesday, October 15, Lowell's J.V. Basketball team defeated the Rogers Golden Hawks. The final score was 62 to 29.

Leigh Ranburger had 22 points for the Red Arrows. Contributing 8 points to the victory and making 5 assists was Leann Iteen. Rebounding for Lowell was Kazmier and Michelle Tousignaut with each having 6 rebounds. Michelle Dowling and Tousignaut added 6 points a piece.

Cross Country is fifth in O.K. White

The Cross Country team had a busy week this week starting off with their last conference meet, October 16, against East Grand Rapids. Held at Sparta on a beautiful day, the meet was very successful for the girls who defeated East 25 to 30 to win their first conference meet! Girls A. Kanoza, K. Cridler, and M. Carrier came in first, second, and fifth respectively from the top five runners. The boys, however, did not fair so well. They lost to the East team 37 to 19. Boys B. Kirby came in fourth from the top five runners.

Thursday, the boys and girls traveled to Greenville for a non-conference meet. Greenville's strong team beat Lowell's boys only 27 to 30, but beat the girls team 15 to 48. B. Kirby, M. Harding, and A. Milley came in third, fourth, and fifth respectively from the top five runners. Lowell's M. Carrier was the girls front runner that day to come in sixth.

At the conference meet held Saturday at Johnson Park, both the boys and girls teams did well. The girls team surprised some by coming in fifth overall after winning only one conference meet all season. The boy's team also came in fifth overall despite runner C. Blasher's injury, which prevented him from finishing the race. A. Kanoza came in tenth out of the top ten girls and B. Kirby came in seventh out of the top ten boys.

Varsity Girl's win over the Vikings, 56 to 30

Lowell's Varsity Girl's Basketball team went to Wyoming Park on Thursday, October 17. Lowell's J.V. traveled to Wyoming Park. Lowell Red Arrows won a victory over the Vikings of Wyoming Park.

Sophomore Leigh Ranburger scored 18 points. Hustling Leann Iteen had 12 points and 8 rebounds. An aggressive Michelle Dowling managed 6 steals to spark the Arrow's defense.

Freshman Michelle Tousignaut had 5 points and pulled down 6 rebounds. The victory was a total team effort with great help from the bench. Stacy Schwamberger and Kris Knoop were both injured and probably lost for the rest of the season, Stacy with a sprained knee and Kris with a broken finger.

grabbed down 4 rebounds each against the Vikings.

A fine performance was given by the Arrow's bench. Ten players scored points and contributed to the total team steals of 25.

"Capitol Column"

By State Senator
Dick Posthumus

It has been said the only thing that hurts more than paying an income tax is not having to pay one. But what about the people who should be paying one and aren't?

The Senate adopted legislation today -- House Bills 4706 and 4707 -- setting up a tax amnesty program for Michigan residents. Under the plan, taxpayers who have not filed proper returns would have a 45-60 day period to pay their back taxes plus any interest, but without penalty.

The current interest rate on unpaid taxes is nine percent of the amount due. Under a tax amnesty plan, that rate would change to a floating rate of one percent over the adjusted prime lending rate.

As a revenue-generating program, other states have seen very positive results. Twelve other states have instituted similar amnesty plans, and raised millions of dollars. Massachusetts' program yielded $80 million. Michigan stands to gain at least $50 million for the first year, and an additional $25 million each year for increased enforcement.

Proponents believe an amnesty period has potential for raising several million dollars that would otherwise not be collected. Also, individuals and firms may come forward who had not previously filed, allowing Treasury to keep better track of them in the future.

Although the plan has much support, a number of opponents to the bill complain the program rewards non-taxpayers. They claim people will come to expect the program and not pay yearly taxes, knowing they will eventually have the opportunity to redeem themselves.

One of the main objections to the bill is a bounty provision. The bounty provision allows a person who knows someone not paying taxes to tip off the Department of Treasury. If the Treasury Department collects, the person who told Treasury is eligible to collect 10 percent of what the Department recovers, up to $5,000.

Given the support of both the House and Senate, though, chances are you can expect an amnesty period before the end of the year.

Any truth to the proverb, "Going to rain if horses roll over?" You bet there is, says National Wildlife magazine. Animals often get edgy long before a storm hits because they're able to hear the low frequency sound waves given off by approaching storms.

Safety rules for trick-or-treaters

Little Halloween creatures may safely clown around and otherwise delight their neighbors but they are advised to follow a few safety rules to avoid injury. Face makeup rather than masks and bright costumes make youngsters such as Detroiters Kyle Brodbeck (left), 4, and his brother Luke, 2, highly visible to motorists.

Trick-or-treaters also are advised by AAA Michigan to wear costumes short enough to prevent tripping, carry flashlights, cross streets at corners and look all ways before stepping off curbs. Youngsters should keep to well-lighted streets and walk facing traffic if there is no sidewalk. All treats should be checked before children eat them. Free trick-or-treat bags listing safety rules are available to the public at all AAA Michigan offices statewide.

The system of numbering highways in the U.S. began in 1925, a suggestion from a Wisconsin highway engineer.

Letter to the Editor

An Open Plea To "PARENTS"

Hardly a school year goes by when we don't read about the unfortunate experience of some students being suspended from school or athletic competition due to their involvement with alcohol and drugs. This past month there was just such a situation in Delton, Michigan, where parents had given permission to their son to have a party for his friends, following a Friday night ball game. The parents provided their home for the party, and allowed alcohol to be served. As a result of this party, several athletes were suspended from their team for three games, and several adults face possible legal action. This story points to the real tragedy of these situations.

The movie "Sleep" by Andy Warhol consists solely of a man sleeping for eight hours.

The only way that young adults can avoid the trap of "condoned" alcohol and drug use is if we, as school officials and parents, become the standard bearers of strong values. Today's young people are facing a real crisis and a struggle regarding substance abuse. School personnel and parents must work together to emphasize that not only is this type of activity illegal, but the potential danger and liability is frightening. How often must we be reminded of this by the tragic death of some young person, who after leaving a party is involved in a horrifying accident? It's crucial that we, as parents, know the whereabouts of our teenagers, and the type of activities in which they are involved. We soon will be entering the holiday season, as well as beginning year-end social events. Now, more than ever, we must become involved and concerned.

Students look to us for direction and guidance. Athletic training rules, which both the parents and student sign, are attempts to have everyone involved make a legal and moral commitment--and then stick to it. Let your teenagers know that you, as well as school officials, do not approve of them becoming involved in any activity which might prove harmful to themselves or others. The loss of three or four games or three or four days from school due to suspension is tough enough, but we hope that no parent ever has to face the loss of a child because he or she couldn't say "no" because "everybody else is doing it". Yes--it's tough to say "NO", but we must. Let your firm answer be the ultimate expression of caring and love.

Respectfully,
Richard Korb

4-H travel club sponsors bus tour

The Kent County 4-H Travel Club is sponsoring a holiday bus trip to Woodfield Mall in suburban Chicago on November 16, 1985. The cost is $22 and includes a snack on the bus. The trip will depart and return from North Kent Mall and Grand Village Mall. For more information, call 774-3265 weekdays.

If you've planted a chestnut seedling in the past 10 years, or ever want to, you probably have 85-year-old James Comp or Ward Taylor, 77, to thank, says National Wildlife magazine. For the past decade, they and their army of senior citizens, Boys Scouts, conservationists, and prison laborers have salvaged a quarter of a million chestnuts from one of America's last stands of chestnut trees along Michigan's eastern shore. From the early 1900's to the 1950's, a lethal fungus imported from Japan nearly wiped out this American tradition.

Children's Book Week is slated for Nov. 9-23

The Brothers Grimm and their famous collection of German fairy tales will serve as this year's Children's Book Week theme when the Kent County Library System celebrates at all 17 branches from Nov. 9 - 23. Snow White's Storybook, a story theatre presentation, will be hosted at 8 county branches and Hansel and Gretel, a musical puppet show, will be presented at the 9 remaining branches. Snow White's Magic Storybook will be presented at the Lowell Branch on Wednesday, November 13 at 4:00 p.m. School age children and their parents are invited to attend the free program.

Notably, this year marks the 200th birthday of Jakob Grimm, the eldest of the two brothers. Special birthday celebrations will be held at each activity.

"This year we're not focusing on a particular author or book but, rather, highlighting the famous Grimm brothers and the fairy tales they collected and preserved for us," said Children's Services Coordinator Mary Frydrych. "No one really knows specifically who made these tales up to begin with as they were passed down verbally from generation to generation. They might have eventually been forgotten or lost if not recorded by the brothers."

Frydrych also points out that during the middle ages the simple tales provided entertainment and enlightenment for young and old alike. Although adults today might not find them particularly relevant, Frydrych emphasized the importance of fairy tales for children.

"Fairy tales not only entertain children, they help them to deal with their own fears and frustrations by providing stories with hope and happy endings," said Frydrych.

At Snow White's Magic Storybook, Snow White will be on hand to introduce the Grimm stories to her audience. Familiar classics including "The Frog Prince" and "The Fisherman and His Wife", will be enacted.

Rubber Stamps & Engraved Signs made to order, 897-9261

At Hansel and Gretel's Musical Puppet Theatre, puppeteers will perform to the musical strains of German composer Engelbert Humperdinck's famous opera. Everyone will also have a chance to sample candy from the witch's gingerbread house, and, take part in an authentic German birthday party. Book displays of Grimm tales including Rumpelstiltskin, The Shoemaker and the Elves, and more, will be at all activities to encourage children to read and enjoy the classics at home.

For additional information regarding Children's Book Week, contact your local branch of the Kent County Library System or call the children's Service's Department at 774-3253.

Grimm fairy tale characters including Snow White, the golden goose, and the fisherman (from "The Fisherman and His Wife"), will come to life as the Kent County Library celebrates Children's Book Week from Nov. 9-23. Flat River Snowmobile Club News

The Flat River Snowmobile Club held their October meeting at the Clubhouse on Potters Road on Sunday. The new officers conducted the meeting following a delicious potluck dinner. Plans were finalized for a Hayride and Woodcutting Bee to be held on November 2nd. The men will be cutting wood during the day and the hayride will start at 5:00 for the children, grandchildren, and friends of club members. The adults hayride will follow with games after that. Hope to see all you club members there. Bring your own beverage and hot dogs.

Work on the snowmobile trail will begin on November 9th.

Some clearing will be done then in preparation for the groomer. Marking of the trail won't be finished until after the deer hunting season. Trail maps are being printed by the West Michigan Snowmobile Council and will be available from club members in the near future.

Thanks to Jim Puchalsi for the load of firewood that he donated. Winners of the drawings were Brad Potter (twice-for goodness sake) and Judie Canfield. We were happy to see old members back and to welcome the new members and guests. Next meeting will be on November 17th. Lets all be there.

New Recycle Center opens here

Patricia Wilcox, 30, of Lowell was involved in an accident Friday afternoon, October 18, on Main Street at Amity. She attempted to make a left turn and was struck by a vehicle driven by Bry Russell, 25, also of Lowell. No one was injured.

Norma Dotson, 46, of Grand Rapids, was injured early Saturday morning when she lost control of her car on East Main Street and struck a utility pole. The accident caused a two hour power outage to the far east side of Lowell and customers east of the city limits.

John Brown Jr., 35, of Lowell was not injured when he skidded into a utility pole on East Main Street near James, early Saturday morning, October 19. The accident was blamed on wet, slippery pavement. Minor damage was reported to his car.

A cat uses its whiskers to determine if a space is too small to squeeze through.

A new recycle center for Lowell has been built on the Eberhard parking lot. At the same time, a change in materials recycled is being announced, as well as a Grand Opening date. Many persons and agencies worked together to produce the new structure, this time under a roof to protect materials.

Don Rocheleau of Atwood Brass and Peter Wege of Steelcase announced sharing the cost of materials for the enclosure. Erb Lumber, manager Rick VanWyk, provided materials at cost;

This structure at the southwest corner of the Eberhard parking lot is the new recycling center. It replaces the former drop off point located at Lowell Lanes. It is a place where you can take most recyclable materials, knowing that they will be reused.

Eberhard's provided a site with Jeff Hendrick, manager, assisting; a city crew under Tony Siciliano's direction, built the enclosure. Mary Jo Thiele of the Kent County Department of Public Works provided expertise and Recycle Unlimited put up signs placed barrels and bins, and will haul away recyclables.

Recycle Unlimited, a non-profit organization at this time, is announcing the phasing out of plastic milk jug collection. This has been consistently a money-losing operation, and the organization can no longer support it. Other recycling will continue: glass bottles - clear, green, and brown, clean, caps removed; tin and aluminum cans - clean, labels off, preferably flattened; newspapers tied in bundles or packed in grocery and brown paper bags.

Saturday, November 2, will be the grand opening, when patrons will receive a brochure with recycling reminders and enter a drawing for several prizes of recycling mugs and t-shirts.

First buck with a bow

Mark Kloosterman, 21, of 13886 Oberly Drive, Lowell, shot this buck while hunting near his home Monday night, October 14th. This is Mark's first buck taken with a bow.

10 tackles for CMU's Kloosterman

Carl Kloosterman, a senior cornerback for the Central Michigan University Chippewas had another outstanding day on the football field Saturday in C.M.U.'s 23-18 loss to Bowling Green. Kloosterman was credited with 10 tackles in the game, bringing his season total to 20, and ranking him fourth on the squad in that department. Kloosterman also has three interceptions on the season.

Kloosterman played High School football for the Red Arrows, and is a Lowell High School graduate. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Berwyn Kloosterman of Lowell.

Linda and Walter Lamirand, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, haven't mowed part of their backyard for 15 years, and they are proud of it, reports National Wildlife magazine. They're among homeowners across the country participating in the National Wildlife Federation's Backyard Wildlife Habitat Program. Naturally landscaped yards not only attract wildlife, they also conserve energy and water and don't require the use of pesticides.
