PROBLEMS WITH THE PROSTATE II

In last week's column we discussed the function of the prostate and it's gradual enlargement which often requires treatment. We stated that over 50% of men age 70 and above will have benign prostatic hypertrophy (prostate enlargement). Several of these men will also have a cancerous growth in the gland. Fortunately, prostatic cancer grows and spreads slowly. Cancer of the prostate is rare below age 60 but it can occur. This is one reason why the American Cancer Society recommends yearly rectal exams after age 40.

Because prostatic cancer often presents along with prostatic hypertrophy the symptoms may be similar -- frequency, weak stream, and difficulty starting the stream. Prostatic cancer may also be present without symptoms. This is why yearly examination is urged after age 40. Upon rectal examination the prostate may feel hard, or a small nodule may be felt.

Treatment of prostate cancer is usually surgical. The prostate may be removed through the resectascope as in treatment for benign prostatic hypertrophy or an incision above the pelvic bone may be required. Further treatment may be required in the form of radiation, chemotherapy or additional surgery.

Another problem involving the prostate is prostatitis. Prostatitis is simply inflammation of the prostate gland. This is usually due to infection. Common symptoms are - perineal or rectal pain, burning and frequency of urination, a cloudy appearance of the urine, and low back pain.

Examination of the prostate during an episode of prostatitis reveals a tender, enlarged, soft prostate. Treatment consists of appropriate antibiotic therapy. Some men develop chronic prostatitis which is a low grade, smoldering infection of the prostate which may require several months of antibiotic therapy.

As we have seen over the last 2 weeks, the prostate is an often misunderstood gland that in youth functions admirably, but may cause problems in later life. When problems develop they can usually be treated so that sexual function remains intact.

in the Women's City Tournament. Anita Sage, with a fine 695 handicap total, will reign supreme as the city's Singles Champion. Anita, who rolls regularly at Lowell Lanes, coupled a 545 actual series with her 150 pin handicap to post the winning tally on Legion's Lanes. Margaret Videan led her doubles team to the Women's City Doubles Championship with a super 584 actual set.

Daughter Debra Videan added a nice 510 actual count, plus handicap to total the winning 1343 score. Margaret and Debra are also the actual doubles champions with a combined 1094 series

The actual singles champion is City Association secretary Linda Colburn for her fine 555 actual series. The Bang Gang were crowned team champions in competition held at Lowell Lanes The team, consisting of Goldie Callihan, Valarie Bruse, Fran Kooiman, Debra Videan, and Margaret Videan totalled a 3213 team score to lead the 27 teams that entered this year's event.

The high actual game of the tournament went to Ella Thompson for a nice 245 game. That game also earned Ella a Century Award from WIBC for being over 100 pins over her entering average Gay Pfaller had the high actual series of the tournament with an Honor Roll 620 count. Pam Boss also earned herself a Century Award from WIBC for her 235 game. Gay Pfaller has been crowned the All-Events Champion based on her 620 in team event, 507 in doubles, and 528 in singles for a 1655 total. Margaret Videan was a scant three pins behind at 1652.

27 teams took part in this year's City Tournament, while there were 66 doubles entries and 132 singles. 117 girls took part in all-events. According to Linda Colburn, the Association's secretary. entries were up from last year but could still be better. There are over 800 women in the Lowell Women's Associat ion, and that ates to at least 160 possible teams that could have entered thi years tournament. Plan now to enter next year's City Tournament. you never know, you just may be the next City Champion.

The Greater Grand Rapids Men's City Tournament got under way this past weekend with team events being held at Chez Ami while the doubles and singles are being contested at Grand Valley Lanes in Allendale. The Lowell area is well represented this year. according to Carroll Stonehouse, the Men's secretary. A word to the wise, if you're entered in the team event at Chez: leave a little earlier than you had originally planned since 54th Street at the 131 Freeway will be closed for the duration of the tournament. You'll have to exit at either 44th Street or the Cutlerville exit and proceed to Division Avenue. The Chez Ami is located at the corner of S Division and 44th Street. The easiest way to get to Grand Valley Lanes for the doubles and singles events from our town is to take the freeway to the Lake Michigan Drive exit and follow Lake Michigan Drive out just past the Grand Valley State Colleges.

The 1st Annual "Spring Singles Classic" begins its lengthy run at Legion Lanes on March 1st. Entrants will bowl 3 games across 6 lanes, plus handicap for their $12.00 entry fee. The eventual champion will receive $500.00 plus a beautiful trophy. Based on 200 entries, 40 places will be paid, plus those that cash in the actual division. This is an unlimited entry tournament, and you may bowl any time the 6 lanes are available. The "Singles" runs from March 1st to July 10th. Special squad prizes will be paid for those who sponsor a squad of 12 or more bowlers. The tournament is open to all ABC/WIBC sanctioned bowlers. For details call Jay at 897-7566.

Keith Caniff won the 10 game Mini-Marathon held this past weekend at Lowell Lanes. Keith bested 37 others to win the $140.00 top prize. Lowell Lanes has also announced that they are holding the Men's In-House Tournament on March 1-2, 8-9, Team, doubles singles and all-events will be contested during the two weekends of play. For further information, or to reserve a spot for your team. call Jack, Tom, or Helen at Lowell Lanes (897-8443)

Finally, Don and Nancy Anderson are a $1,000.00 richer after the Moonlight Doubles last Saturday at Lowell Lanes. Don had to leave the 5 pin standing to break the 'jackpot', which he did with a going away "Brooklyn." Hmmm, I wonder if they'd care to float a poor writer a loan? Great going Don and Nancy!!

Under Public Comment, Don Bacon, 929 Grandville SW, President of the Kensington Library Board of Trustees, offered their support of the consolidation of library services as recommended by the consultants, that an nority with autonomy should govern the new librar system and they should be elected officials. He urged the Board of Commissioners to permit the voters of Kent County to decide whether or not the library board should be elected and autonomous. He also indicated that the Kensington Library Board would prefer an August

Richard Westra, Station GRTV, stated the public would be well served by an overview of the mass burn incinerator project. He offered the services of Cable Channel J/23 to develop the project. He indicated they could interface a solid waste video and the cultural consolidation issue. Their station promotes access to cable for live call in and round table discussion.

Manuel Herrera, 1044 Pine, NW, volunteer with the Hispanic Organizing Center, stated he was not asking the Board of Commissioners to change or overrule the decision of the Department of Social Services on the allocation of discretionary funds, but rather, he was asking for a commitment to find a way to fund the needs that have not been met by discretionary fund grants. He was pleased with the grant awarded to the Family Outreach Center but was disappointed that the Hispanic Center Interpreter/Translator Assistance Project was not awarded at a higher level and that the Spanish-speaking Employment Assistance Project and the Michigan Migrant Legal Assistance Project were not funded. These agencies must grow because the Hispanic community is growing. If the Hispanic community is not effectively served in human needs, poverty will increase. Hispanics want to be self-sufficient. Hispanics need and want training and education in developing productive skills.

Clarence Blakeslee, former County Commissioner and member of the Cultural Consolidation Committee, explained that the committee spent months studying cultural consolidation. The question should be voted upon at a special election in May. It is a complex issue deserving the full attention of the electorate. Don Bacon of the Kensington Library Board felt the electorate is being discounted by people in public office. He had confidence in the ultimate wisdom of the electorate when they hear the facts. Mr. Blakeslee stated he respects the voters, but the committee spent 18 months coming to the conclusions reached and the question deserves the undivided attention of the voters. Chairman Byington did not feel any elected official the room would be presumptuous enough to discount any Campfire says "Thank You!

The Lowell Area Camp Fire members have been busy this year trying to honor the motto "Give Service". Some of the things the children have taken part in are our community parades, going caroling at Christmas time, doing trash pick-ups where they are needed, taking part in some of the local church festivals and social affairs, making tray favors for local homes, adopting grandparents at Cumberland Manor and by visiting some of the shut-in people throughout own Camp Keewano, even for our community.

Camp Fire in Grand Rapids recognize us as the Tawanka East Area. We also take part in our council activities. We have or take part in hike-a-thons, walk-athons, bake sales, car washes, product sales, and making Valentines for Veterans. The funds we raise go for cancer victims, victims of blood disorders, as well as for our council support, our the Statue of Liberty project. We The Keewano Council of are happy to help and give service wherever and whenever we can. And, many of these youths find a great deal of fun and satisfaction in the services in which they are a part.

We, the leaders and children of the Tawanka Area, would like to express our appreciation and thanks to some of the people and businesses that have made these things possible for many of the groups in our area. Because of their generous support of Camp Fire we would like to say "thank

Flat River Snowmobile Club News

The Flat River Snowmobile Club had their regular monthly meeting on Sunday with a real good turnout. Bill Manson brought his video tapes of the waterskipping on snowmobiles taken this summer at Bitely and Allendale. This is a very spectacular sport and it is enjoyed even by non-snowmobilers. It is amazing that a snowmobile can run on water for such great distances. The pros are running slalom courses on the water that go several times around the lake.

New members are Ed and Elaine Bolt, Emmitt Bryant, and Dick Miller. Bob Harvey and his daughter, Jenny, were at the meeting. Glad to see you out and she has entered a request with All A's: Lyn Burton, Precia Emaround again, Bob.

Adrian and Mary Jane Deloof have notified us that they have another mess of fish ready and we will be having a Fish Fry on Saturday evening, March 1st. If you members have missed these before, you have missed a great treat. Bring a dish to pass and your appetite at supper time. Social activities will follow the meal.

Bill Manson reported that the $2.00 snowmobilers Blitz is really working. This is a campaign instigated by Michigan Snow- All A's: Marcia Davenport, Brian mobile Association asking snow- Hopkins. try in the Winter. Dual-Purpose party held at Senior Center

The Birthday-Valentine party held at the Lowell Senior Neighbors' Center on Tuesday afternoon, February 11th, was a happy success. The Center observes its 12th year this month. About 50 people enjoyed the delightful music furnished by the Covey's Memory Lane Ensemble and the delicious refreshments provided by members of the Lowell Center.

Co-ordinator Grace Goble expressed our appreciation and thanks to all those who helped with the work, and to those who donated money and the many useful articles given as birthday gifts to the Center; also to the many who donated the refresh-

Monthly party for seniors

Lowell Community Education began in January to sponsor a monthly party for Senior Citizens at the Lowell Senior Neighbor's Center in Lowell. In January, about 30 Senior Citizens munched popcorn and watch Charlie Chaplin films during our "Old Time Movie Party". The big surprise of the day was an actual visit from Charlie, along with one of the Keystone Kops. Last week, a Valentine and February Birthday Party was held, hosting about 50 Senior Citizens. Beside the good food and other activities, the guests were entertained by a wonderful Senior Citizen group of musicians, the Memory Lane Strings. (A few guests couldn't restrain themselves and enjoyed a bit of dancing!) On March 18, Lowell Community Ed. will host a St. Patrick's Day Party at the Center. All Senior Citizens are invited!
