CHANGE IN POSTED H.S. CONFERENCE TIMES

There has been a change made in the times for the Thursday, March 27 Parent/Teacher Conferences at the Lowell High School. The times incorrectly published for that date in "Directions" were 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. The correct times are 8:00 until 10:00 a.m. High School Parent/Teacher Conferences will also be held on Wednesday, March 26 from 5:00 until 9:00 p.m.

RETURNING BLUEBIRDS SPOTTED

Irene Vaughan of Beckwith Dr., Lowell who feels that robins shouldn't get all the credit as harbingers of spring. Mrs. Vaughan has placed and maintains several bluebird houses on her property, and spotted the first returning pair on Sunday, March 16. Irene and her husband Harry enjoy watching the bluebirds as they set up housekeeping and raise their young throughout the summer. Irene says they are hard to spot this time of year because they are mostly brown in color with just a bit of blue on their wings.

MANY BUSINESSES CLOSED DURING GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES

Shoppers are reminded that many Lowell businesses will be closed Friday afternoon from either 1:00 until 3:00 or noon until 3:00. Merchants can pick up signs noting their closing at either the Grand Valley Ledger or from Chuck Meyers at State Savings Bank. The Good Friday closing is sponsored by the Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce.

SURPLUS GOVERNMENT COMMODITIES

Surplus government commodities will be distributed on Thursday, March 20 at the Lowell Moose Lodge, 2101/2 East Main Street. Distribution times are from 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Note that this is a change in a previously published date.

TONITE IS "MARCH MADNESS" IN DOWTOWN LOWELL

ATTENTION BARGAIN HUNTERS!!! Tonight, Wednesday, March 19 is "March Madness" in Lowell. Thirteen businesses will offer all, or at least a wide variety of, merchandise at a whopping 20% savings from 6:00 until 10:00 p.m. Participating merchants include Pfaller's Clothing, Front Row Video, Lambert Variety, Anderson's Shoes, Cousins' Card & Gift Shoppe, Straw Basket Collections, Carole's Critters, Lowell Waterbeds, Hinkley Drug Store, Lowell Lanes Bowling Center, Modern Mini-Lab, Radio Shack & Curtis Cleaners. Along Main Street | Millage election is Tuesday

On Tuesday, March 24, voters in the Lowell School District will go to the polls to act on two millage proposals. Proposition I on the ballot calls for the renewal of 22.2 mills of operational millage. This millage has expired and was last collected in December of 1985.

Proposition II is a bit more complicated. The second proposition asks voters to approve a .7 mill shift from debt retirement to operational millage. State law requires that the district get voter approval to make such a shift, even though it does not represent an increase in taxes. The .7 mills ($0.70 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation) would normally be deducted from the district's 3.3 mills of debt retirement millage as a result of rising State Equalized Valuations. State laws mandate that school districts not collect more taxes than necessary to pay debts. Lowell Superintendent of Schools Fritz Esch said this .7 mill reduction would go into effect either this year or next. "We're asking the voters to shift this millage over to our operational budget so that we can begin to institute some of the programs recommended by the Citizen's Advisory Committee for Educational Excellence," said Esch. "We estimated that it would cost the district about 12 mills to put all the programs recommended by Excellence Committee into effect, we realize that's out of reach, but this .7 mills is a start," Esch added. He went on to say that the shift of this .7 mills is a way to begin this improvement process without increasing taxes.

Passage of the second proposal would generate about $140,000 annually. This income would be used to begin a five year plan to improve curriculum and instruction throughout the grades and would include a coordinator for curriculum. The money would also be used for the replacement of textbooks and teaching materials, an elementary counselor, improve the high school career planning program, provide enrichment and remedial after school programs and train staff for gifted and talented prog-

Both propositions are for a five year period. Polls open at 7:00 a.m. and close at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday. Precinct one votes at the Runciman Elementary School at 300 High St, Lowell. Precinct two votes at the Bowne Township Hall, 6059 Linfield, Alto. Precinct three votes at the Vergennes Township Hall at the corner of Bailey Drive and Parnell Avenue in Vergennes Township. For a definition of precinct boundaries, see an election notice published on pages 16 and 17 of this issue.

Two Board seats are open

Two four year terms on the Lowell Board of Education are available at the Board of Eduwhich are currently held by Chris cation office also. VanAntwerp and John Haggai will be expiring on June 30, 1986. Persons interested in running for these positions must meet the following qualifica-

National Agriculture Day will be observed on March 20th, the first day of spring. It is a day set aside as a time to explain and salute the achievements of the working men and women of agriculture in America.

Did you know that 23 million jobs are generated by agriculture? Those 23 million men and women, involved in the many steps and enterprises required to produce and deliver agricultural commodities, are our food chain. A chain linked human hands, each contributing to the final goal. Each link, from the supplier to the retailer, must be strong and economically healthy for the benefit of all Americans.

Did you know that each farm worker produced enough food for 76 other people? Twenty five of them were overseas. And so the chain lengthens to reach a hungry world.

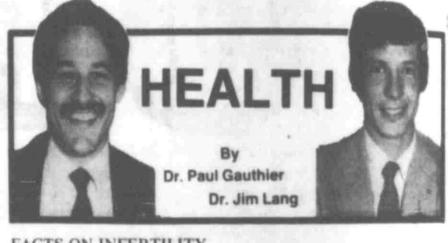

People producing, transporting, processing and marketing food for people. The food chain is a human chain.

FACTS ON INFERTILITY

With unwanted teenage pregnancies on a seemingly unstoppable course of increase, it may seem strange that infertility is also a ommon problem in the U.S. Vet more than 10 million people-one out of five married couples in this country-experience some degree of infertility. In the last 20 years, there has been an almost 50% increase in infertility. With more and more couples putting off childbearing until they are in their 30's or even 40's, the incidence

The good news, however, is that infertility is a very treatable condition. Thorough evaluation of a couple reveals the cause of infertility in all but 4% of cases. When a cause is found, over half of the couples can be treated successfully and have a child. If the problem is hormonal imbalance, up to 75% of cases are treatable. In fact, treatment of hormonal problems has a success rate that matches reproductive capacity in the general population: 25% of normally fertile women conceive in the first month of unprotected relations, 60% within 6 months, and 80% within one year.

The causes of infertility are evenly divided between the sexes. Common causes of male infertility include low sperm count, slowly moving or defectively shaped sperm, or varicoceles (varicose veins) of the testicle. Frequent barriers to female fertility are structural problems such as scarring of the fallopian tubes, endometriosis (the presence of endometrial tissue, the normal uterine lining, in abnormal locations such as the fallopian tubes, ovaries, or abdominal cavity), and failure to ovulate from hormonal imbalance or Infertility is treated in a number of different ways. Surgical options include repair of tubal damage or varicoceles, or the removal of inappropriate endometrial adhesions. In vitro fertilization (fertilization of the egg outside the woman's body) or artificial insemination are other options.

Next week: Medical therapies for infertility. Also, support groups for infertile couples.

But there are many who have had to settle for God's "second best." Perhaps they failed to seek His will for their lives early enough. Some never felt the need for God's guidance until it was too late. Others failed to make proper preparation. Fret ting and grieving will not help these people. However, they can work willingly and faithfully at their assignments and finally claim the reward God has in store for those who must accept His "second best."

Prayer: O Lord, Thou knowest all about my days. Help me to work willingly and faithfully at the task Thou hast given me. May I so live that some day I shall joyfully claim my heavenly reward. Amen.

America's landfills are filling up rapidly, studies show. The major municipal waste disposal method, they also present health and sanitary azards. A better way to dispose of our solid waste products seems to be needed-163 nillion tons were produced in 1984, 1,440 pounds per person. Many experts believe waste-to-energy incineration systems could be that better way. Such systems burn refsulting heat is captured and used either to generate electricity or directly as steam for Plastic materials are a valtable component of energy recovery systems, according to the Society of the Plastics Industry. They are useful for helping burn lesss combustible materials, such as wet garbage and grass clippings.

Fish ladder repair is a problem for anglers

Anglers planning to fish the Grand River for steelhead this Spring, upstream of the 64th Street Dam fish ladder in Grand Department of Natural Resources (DNR) fisheries biologists, while modifications to improve the ladder are completed.

Although modifications to improve fish passage conditions within the ladder were begun last Fall, high water conditions halfway through the reconstruction prevented the contractor from completing the job. Improvements on the dam are to be resumed in May and completed by July.

A substantial fishery can still be expected, say biologists, at the 6th Street Dam and downstream at tributaries such as Crockery Creek and Sand Creek. Steelhead runs, however, will be blocked upstream from the Dam, eliminating the Spring steelhead fishery in such tributaries as the Rogue, Prairie Creek, Flat River and Fish Creek.

China has nearly 21 percent of the world's population; the U.S. has nearly 5.5 percent.

The improvements on the fish ladder will enable fisheries biologists to better control water flowing through the fish ladder the fish, this means they will cially during the Spring when have an easier time getting water levels in the river are the through the ladder and into the highest.

during higher river stages. For river above, say biologists, espe-

Each week several area women meet at the Lowell YMCA to work on various handicraft projects, including rug hooking. Pictured are Beth Kettner, Helen Kwant, Ruth Thurtell and Karin Eldredge as they go about their workings. The ladies meet most Tuesdays at the YMCA from 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. It's a great way to exchange ideas and get out of the house. Bring your current project and be a "happy hooker"!
