WCUZ/Budweiser to host Memorial Festivities

Plans are quickly coming together for the Forth Annual WCUZ Showboat Weekend. At a meeting held on Thursday, May 1, many of the final thoughts and ideas became part of the weekend package to make this year's event as big as ever!

This year will feature two main events to the busy schedule of activity both occurring at the very same time, but several miles apart. The Lowell Moose Lodge 809 will sponsor a benefit fund raiser dinner at Deer Run that will offer prizes throughout the evening, of $150, $200, $300, $400 and $600 and every tenth ticket will win $50. There is a limit of 200 tickets being sold at the bargain price of $50 each ... and it includes a fine dinner and dancing. The fun begins Saturday night at 6:30 p.m. with dinner at 7:30, tickets may be purchased at Pfaller's Clothing or at the Moose Lodge.

Meanwhile back at the Showboat, the West Michigan Showboat Jam will be getting underway beginning at 6:00 p.m. This musical extravaganza is scheduled to have 12 bands playing and competing for a record contract and other incentives. The tickets for this five hour event are just $5 and are available at City Hall and at the gate on May 24. Two of the bands already booked are, Chuck and Bob Carnes and Tom Ellis' Band.

The festivities are scheduled to begin at 8:00 a.m. on the Saturday of Memorial Weekend with Andy Rent and Dennis Sutton of the WCUZ Morning Show. The annual WCUZ/Budweiser Softball Classic, to be played on five area ball fields, will involve at least 24 area teams which also begins at 8:00 a.m. and continues into Sunday. At 9:00 a.m. there will be an auction of antique and collectable items held at the Showboat Amphitheater.

The Paradise Motorcycle Club will be riding thru Lowell and displaying their bikes at the Riverside School parking lot, while nearby will also be the Corvette Club with many cars available to view beginning around 11:00 a.m.

For the youngsters, there is Story Telling with Carol Johnson which will take place at the Amphitheater at 11:00 a.m. and at the Lowell Art Center at 1:00 p.m. Then there is the "mixed-event" with adults on youngsters' tricycles ... yes, the "Lowellapolis 500" makes its debut as part of this great weekend, featuring "Racin' Ray" Quada, "Big Johnny" Brown, Karen "Fall-downy" Vane of WCUZ and several others in this quest for fame and fortune. Time trials begin at 12:30 p.m. at the Amphitheater, race at 1:00 p.m.

A pet show and horsedrawn buggy rides add to the busy day at 2:00 p.m. Young and old alike may enter the pet of their choice in any of several categories for the Amphitheater show, stop by Carol's Critters for an entry form. The corner of Riverside and Main (by Lambert Variety) will be the place to catch the old fashioned buggy rides throughout the afternoon.

And if all that were not enough, The Lowell Arts Council is sponsoring all weekend long, the Artrain, which features many different works by famous, and not so famous, artists. Look for the train near the South Hudson crossing. And if a lazy weekend of fishing is more your style, Bill Friesner is putting on a Bass Contest, call him at 897-6111 for more information. If anyone would rather just eat than have to first catch their meal, food booths will be on hand at the Amphitheater grounds offering everything from ice cream to hotdogs, beer and soft drinks.

Most of these events are offered as fund raisers for the Showboat. So make your plans for a great Memorial Weekend on or around your (almost) private yacht right here on the beautiful Flat River!

DID YOU KNOW...

For the past 3 years Aalto students have been involved in a ceiling tile painting contest each spring where students must design a picture of a favorite storybook character or scene and then compete with their class for "best picture" (judged by the high school art club). Those chosen are then painted on a tile and displayed in the Media Center. One design from each class is picked to be included.

KINDERGARTEN ROUND-UP BEGINS

Bushnell Elementary School is holding its annual two-day Kindergarten Round-Up testing sessions this week Thursday and Friday, May 8 and 9. It is the policy of the district to test all potential kindergartners before they begin school next fall to determine if they have actually developed to the point where they are ready to begin the long road of academic education.

Any parent who has a child who will be five years old before next December and who lives in the Bushnell area but has not yet registered that child for kindergarten testing, is requested to call Bushnell before Thursday and make an appointment for one of the two days.

Take note: there will be a retesting date of May 14, 1986 for any children in the Lowell Area Schools who have missed the testing at Runniman, Alto or Bushnell schools. ## LAAC offers college scholarship

The Lowell Area Arts Council announces the availability of applications for the Louise Harper Memorial Scholarship. This scholarship competition is open to any student who will have graduated from high school by July 1, 1986 and who will be enrolled in a university, college, or institute of higher education, studying a field in the arts, by December 31, 1986. The award will be $250, to be used towards tuition.

Students who are studying in the fine arts or the practical arts may apply. Such areas as visual arts, practical arts, graphic arts, music, drama, creative writing, dance, art education, art history, art therapy, or arts administration would be courses of study for which this scholarship could be used.

Those interested in applying may pick up forms at the Lowell Area Arts Council Center, 149 S. Hudson in Lowell, or in the Student Services Center at the Lowell High School. Applications could be mailed if a student cannot come to one of these places, but the Arts Council does not take responsibility for delivery delays. Call 897-8545 between 12 and 5 p.m. to have forms mailed. The forms must be delivered back to the Art Center (open only 12-5 p.m.) or to the high school or be post-marked no later than May 21, 1986.

Council votes to "close" airport

In a 5-0 vote the Lowell City Council voted Monday night to officially close the Lowell Airport to all transient users and those who do not already have a lease or usage agreement. The step to take such action became necessary due to a question of the City's liability insurance coverage costs.

Currently the City carries $500,000 total per year for loss claims at the airport. The premium has been just $250 per year, however, the insurance carrier has renewed the policy without being able to inform the City to the actual cost of the new policy. Other companies that have been contacted also indicate that coverage is possible but also at an unknown rate. At present the council members felt it best to reduce the potential risks and cut back those who may use the facility.

The meeting was attended by several with interest in the local flyng field and made several suggestions on how the City could better the income potential of the airport to help in offsetting the costs of insurance. Others offered their assistance in finding a carrier with adequate insurance and the desired limits of liability the City requires to operate such a facility. However, it was apparent that the Council would need to take action to protect the City and its residents until other more suitable coverage could be found.

In other action, Mayor Maatman appointed City Manager Quada as Street Administrator for 1986-87 and Artis Barber as a member of the Planning Commission. Councilman Collins invited the Council and others to take a hike with the Recreation Committee on Thursday (May 8) around the old Moose property and areas east of the Flat River, tour begins at around 6:30 p.m. Councilman Doyle asked about City pickup of refuse and other large or yard type items. While the City did that task several years ago, that is no longer possible due to the manhours and disposal requirements. It was noted that if the current trash hauler is called prior to pickup day, they will usually take items at a small cost to the customer.

City Manager Quada reported that the Liquor Control Commission has informed the City of an application for beer and wine sales at 800 West Main Street, which will be the site of the Seven-Eleven Store. And that the City-School Liason Committee

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,
Voluntarism is alive and well in Lowell. I have three examples.

A little background first. The Western Michigan Gleaners collects and donates food stuffs to food pantries and to programs like the Commodities Distribution Program. These are usually dated products that cannot be sold but are too good to throw out, so the Gleaners call us to come and pick up all that we can use -- at no cost.

My first example is Mr. Cliff Daniels. I want to thank him for allowing me to shanghai him in March as a volunteer to make a run to the Gleaners. We picked up green peppers and potato chips.

My second example is of two people - Brent Daugherty and Joanne Merklinger. They both volunteered their time and vehicles to follow me to the Gleaners in April. We picked up onions, chips, and bagel rings.

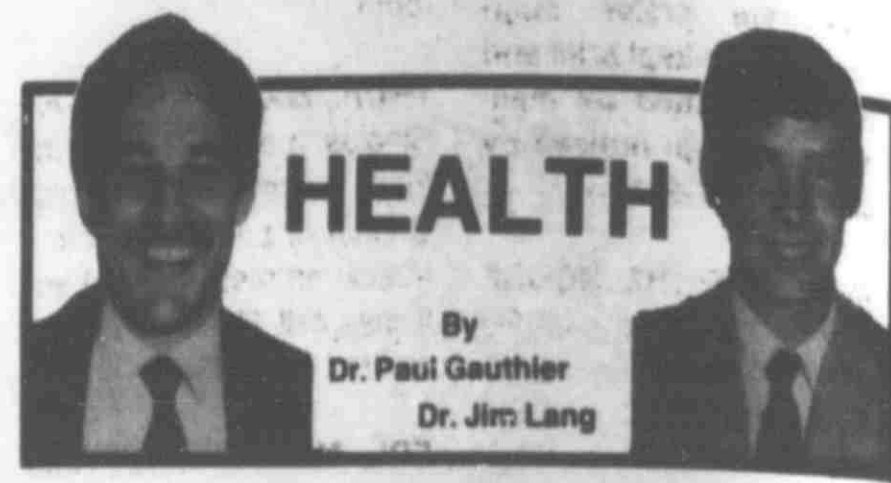

My third example includes Fred Althaus, Al Haggai, and Vada Kline. These three people have been helping us every month almost since the program began.

Without these volunteers, there would be no Cheese Distribution or "extra goodies" for the folks who receive commodities.

Volunteers are "unsung heroes." Well, I guess we just fell like singing. Thanks to all of you.

Eloise Butler & Bernadette Johnson

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT ENDOMETRIOSIS PART II

Today's article is the second of a two part article on endometriosis, an abnormal female condition in which the inner lining of the uterus (the endometrium) grows outside the uterus.

How is endometriosis diagnosed?
Classic description of pelvic pain and/or the inability to get pregnant may suggest the condition of endometriosis. A pelvic exam may also reveal evidence of this condition. Although many physicians will begin treatment based on this information, the only way to know for sure if endometriosis exists is to perform a procedure called laparoscopy.

Laparoscopy is performed at the hospital as an outpatient, under general anesthesia. A small incision is made below the navel to insert a small tube-like instrument (the laparoscope). This instrument has lenses and mirrors that enable the doctor to look within the pelvic area for signs of endometriosis.

How is endometriosis treated?
Endometriosis tends to progress until it is stopped by the menopause. If left untreated, it usually becomes worse. Several treatment options are available. Most treatment plans will ease the discomfort and, if appropriate, will try to maintain or restore the ability to have children. Whether the physician recommends drugs, surgery, or both depends on the extent of the endometriosis, how much pain there is, and the patient's desire to become pregnant.

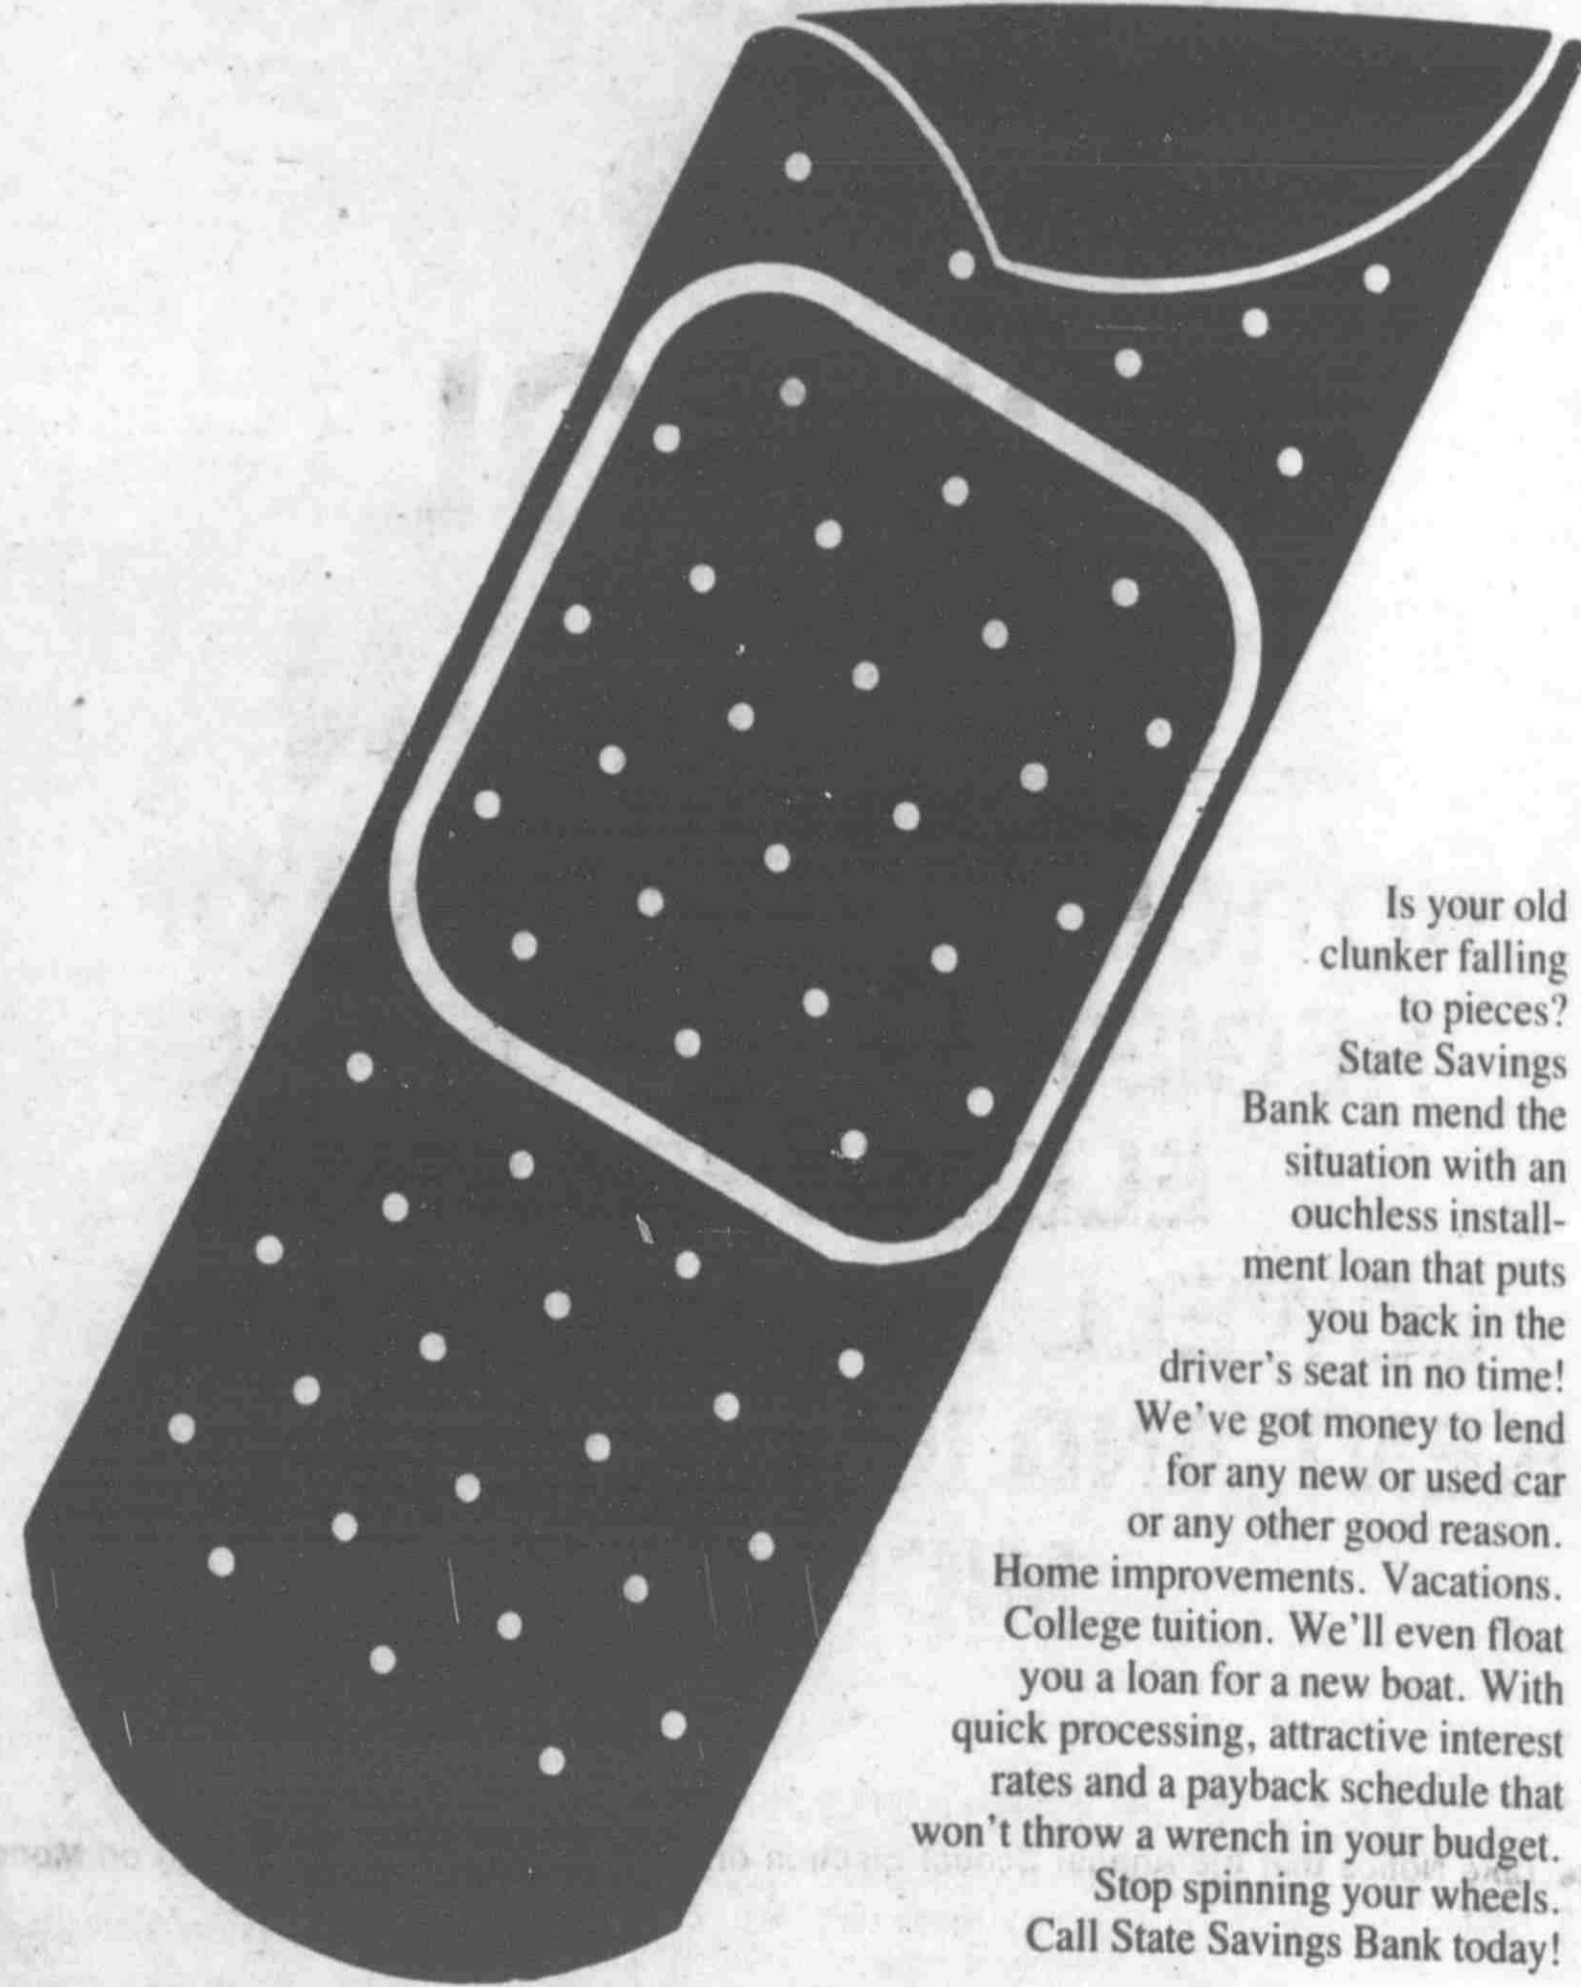

In mild cases many of the prescription anti-inflammatory drugs may help relieve pain. These are drugs that help control the cramping of the uterus. Other drugs used for endometriosis are hormones that disrupt the monthly cycle to prevent the endometrial growths from enlarging or spreading.

Surgery for endometriosis usually involves removing the abnormal endometrial growths and leaving the uterus and ovaries intact. Only rarely is a complete hysterectomy done for endometriosis.

Many women are able to become pregnant after surgery for endometriosis. Drug treatment also is likely to provide relief from discomfort for several years. Some women experience a recurrence and require additional treatment before menopause provides lasting relief.

The longest professional football run from scrimmage was accomplished on January 3, 1983 when Tony Dorsett of the Dallas Cowboys ran 99 yards to score a touchdown.

IN THE SERVICE

Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee (Proverbs 4:25).

Pvt. John F. Clarke, son of Cheryl A. Clarke of 7930 Blue Water Highway, Saranac, MI., and Sherwynn Clarke of 830 Elliott S.E., Grand Rapids, MI., has completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, MO.

During the training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

Army Pvt. Jeffrey A. Brown, son of Edward Brown of 926 N. Washington, Lowell, MI., and Starr Brooks of 5653 Buchanan St., Wyoming, MI., has arrived for duty with the 23rd Engineering Battalion, West Germany. Brown is a combat engineer.

There are many things in a Christian's life which cause wrecks unless he looks straight ahead. On the one hand, there is the temptation to overconfidence; it is easy to become self-sufficient and neglect to depend on God for guidance and strength. Yet, a Christian can become negative in his thinking until he gives up, sits down and does nothing. Either of these extremes can lead to catastrophe.

Christians, if we make it across the bridge of life safely, we must keep our eyes on Jesus Christ and claim through faith, "I can do all things through Christ..." We can avoid disaster if we "look straight ahead."

Prayer: Keep me, Saviour, ever looking unto Thee, for Thou art the Way. Only as I follow Thee can I travel across the bridge of life in safety. Help me to keep looking straight ahead. Amen.

Arrows 2-4 in league play

Lowell Varsity Softball Team traveled to EGR on Monday and lost 14-7. The first inning was played in a down-pour, but that did not stop the Pioneers as they scored five times. Lowell sent three pitchers to the mound to stop the Pioneers. Micky Denman finally got the third out as she relieved Chantel Cosgrove, who relieved starter Michelle McGee. The Arrows pulled out in front in the second inning as they scored four times, thanks to McGee's three run home run. The Pioneers however weren't finished as they scored two runs in the third and six times in the fourth to pull the game away from the Arrows. Megan Kirby and McGee each picked up two hits. Denman suffered the loss in relief.

Spring means more! mushrooms in Michigan

An army of nearly 500,000 persons will venture into Michigan woods and fields in May to bag one of the state's most elusive but tasty prizes - the morel mushroom, according to AAA Michigan.

Morels are sought in two edible varieties. Black morels are most abundant in the northern half of the state while white morels are plentiful in many hardwood forests throughout Michigan.

Seasoned mushroom hunters suggest the best place to search is on gently rolling land covered by hardwood trees, including dead elm or poplar, with a lake or river nearby. The south slopes of hills, valleys and around elm stumps also are good hunting spots.

AAA Michigan advises hunters to learn the difference between edible morels and poisonous mushrooms and not to pick anything if uncertain. Black morels have deep dark-cream to brownish-black irregularly spaced pits on a hollow top attached at its base to a hollow stem. White morel tops vary from light cream to yellowish-brown.

Whether determines the quality of morel growth, and the warm temperatures and abundant moisture early this spring were ideal. However, mid-April's cold spell has pushed the start of the morel season back from late April to early May in most regions.

There are a number of morel mushroom festivals in the state where hunters can enjoy the fun and, if necessary, learn how to find and identify edible morels. Major events include the Morel Mushroom Festival at Harlowell is 4-4 overall and 1-3 in league play. Lowell scored twice in the first and four times in the third to lead 6-2 after three. In the seventh Lowell scored five more times to put the game on ice. The Red Arrows record is now 2-4 in league play and 7-5 overall. Michelle McGee lead the hitting attack with a 3-4 performance at the bat, Megan Kirby knocked two singles, Dianna Miller collected 3 RBI's. The Arrows will feel the loss of DH Melanie Agostini as she is out for the season with a broken leg, suffered in practice on Thursday.

Lowell batters again had a hard time getting started and failed to score in the first five innings. Greenville, however, picked up two runs in the first inning, one in the fourth, and two more in the fifth off starting pitcher, Paul Stroosnyder. Greenville picked up one more in the sixth off relief pitcher Matt Pranger.

Tom Summerfield lead off the sixth inning with a single, Mike Rivers drew a walk and Brian Ryder singled to score Summerfield to give the Red Arrows their first run.

J.V. Baseball update

Lowell vs. Northview

The J.V. Baseball team opened their league play last Friday with a doubleheader at Northview.

In the first game, Northview scored twice in the first inning, three times in the fourth, and once more in the fifth off starter, Tom Summerfield.

The Lowell bats were held to only four hits in the first five innings and were held scoreless until Toby Czarnopis blasted the team's first home run of the year.

Both Northview and Lowell added one more run to their respective scores to make the final score 7-2.

Matt Pranger took the mound for Lowell in the second game and held Northview scoreless for three innings before giving up two runs, two singles, an error, and a sacrifice fly.

Lowell then countered in the fourth inning when Toby Czarnopis scored off Pranger's single to close the gap to two to one. But Northview bounced back capitalizing on another Red Arrow error to score two more runs in the bottom of the fourth.

The game, called off after the fifth inning due to darkness, went in favor of Northview again, with a final score of 4-2.

CHARGING ADMISSION?
Roll tickets, single or double, assorted colors. Grand Valley Ledger, 897-9261.

Old cars, scrap tires, and construction rubble provide better refuge for marine life than natural reefs, says National Wildlife magazine. Fish need privacy for spawning and protection from strong ocean currents and discarded junk does a better job than nature of providing protection.

When the Boss is away, the employees will play? As employees of the Grand Valley Ledger, we would like to explain our side of the story, which is not always the same as our vacationing Chief narrates it in his weekly column.

We've joined forces this week to give you the list of "Roger Brown's silliest of Snafu's."

The longest standing joke that we can recall is, as the Chief's walking out the door his last words are, "Don't be surprised if you receive a collect call from an exotic island, with instructions to sell the business and send money!" Suffice to say no calls have come from the U.S. Virgin Islands, yet.

Next on the top of our list is his famous "Name that Dog" column, which requested readers to call in names for his new canine. We understand that the profession of journalism requires an open mind, but spending one full week on the phone with readers explaining why their chosen name was the best, was above and beyond the call of duty! (He than opted for his choice in the end).

Then, on to the continuing saga of "Roger Brown's Promised Jobs," never known to the staff until irate customers confront us with the line "but Roger said 'No Problem' - you can have that by..." conveniently while he's away soaking up the Caribbean rays.

Then comes the subject of Insurance payments! Rest assured, with his departure, they're all taken care of and paid on time.

With more than a baker's dozen worth of calendars around our office, we the staff have made every effort to double check and be correct on all dates published in this issue! (Thank goodness there is no major Elections in our community this week).

Along the same line as the afore mentioned phone call from a far away place, it's been said that we would receive a "Cozy Corner" via Federal Express for that week's deadline. This phenomenon, along with the other, is much like the old adage, "never count your chickens before they're hatched."

Let it be said, we have been taught well! Our Chief said "take the bull by the horns and get the job done." NO PROBLEM! Opening bids will be accepted by phone on the Grand Valley Ledger, the Print Shop and the Roger Brown Estate, starting May 12. (Please speak to Roger directly).

Tris Speaker, the great American baseball player, was known as the Gray Eagle because of his gray hair and his speed in playing the outfield.

Manager Quada presented the proposed Sewer Use Ordinance to the Council. It is designed so that as we upgrade our system, changes could be made to meet waste level regulations made by the E.P.A. and D.N.R. on a regular basis. He further explained the different levels and types of discharge from public, private and industry that enter our sewer system. Upon construction of a new treatment facility, the ordinance becomes even more important as it provides for the set up of monitoring of new industry. We are following an emergency adoption process which is provided in the charter and enables us to comply with E.P.A. and D.N.R. regulations. Councilman Fonger moved to approve the attached ordinance (861) and regulations resolution; and Councilman Thompson supported. The motion was carried.

Monday, May 5
James Maatman
Mayor

Manager Quada informed the Council May 19 had been chosen for the annual Mayor Exchange Day, held this year with Algonac, and requested that the Public hearing for Federal Revenue Sharing and Budget (198687) be changed from May 19 to May 20. Councilman Collins moved the request be approved and it was supported by Councilman Doyle.

Manager Quada reported to the Council that because of rotation of townships and cities, we will receive a new fire truck or pumper next year (1987) from the county. He added that our equipment is in good repair.

A request was made by Manager Quada to waive the normal bidding procedure for the purchase of a new 3/4 ton truck. The existing truck would require extensive and costly repair. He added the Administration will come back to the Council with the best price available. A motion to waive the bidding was made by Councilman Collins and supported by Councilman Fonger. The motion was carried.

On the update of the budget, Manager Quada indicated there will be increases in our insurance rates, park systems, and equipment rental rates. These costs could be offset by increases received from State Shared Revenues and a possible 2 to 2 1/2 mil tax increase.

Citizen Suggestions: None.

Under Council Comemts; Councilman Collins reported that the Park Committee wants a comprehensive hiking trail laid out to encompass all the area parks. Manager. Quada added that there is an allotment from highway funds available for such uses.

Under the Manager's Report, Manager Quada wanted to report to the council that we have received a refusal to renew the $1,000,000 coverage on the airport insurance and are now limited to $500,000. Council directed Manager Quada to have the attorneys investigate the possibility of closing it to the public. Discussion of the airport continued.

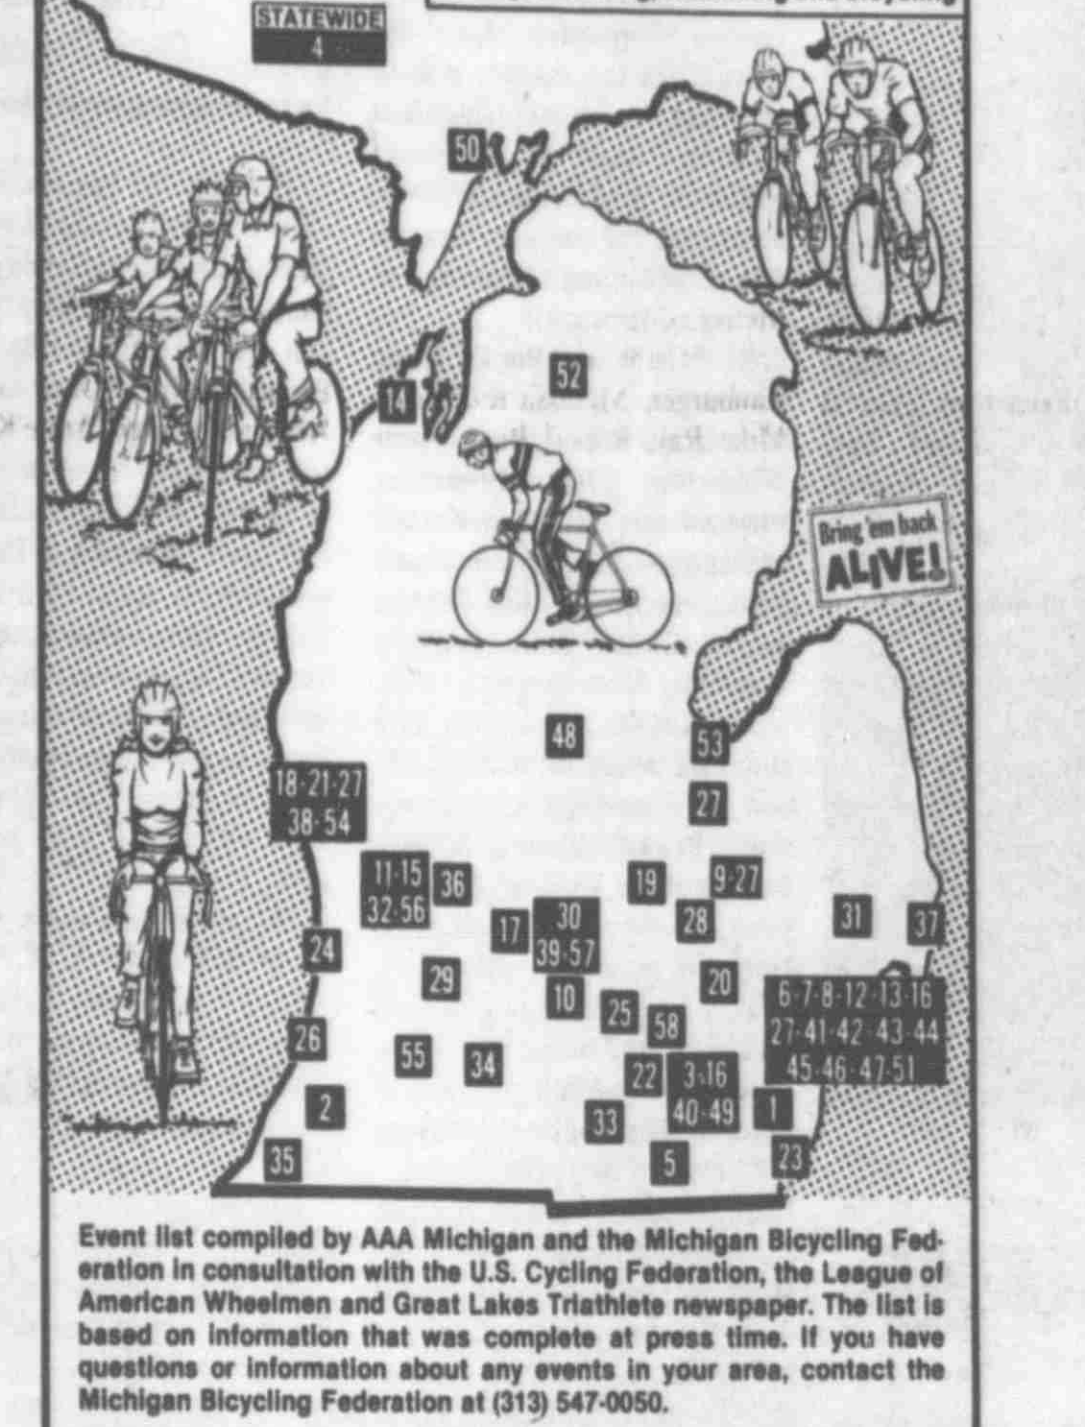

Regarding the appointment of new members to the Planning Commission and Recreation Committee, names were submitted and inquiries will be made as to their desire to serve.

Motion to adjourn was made by Councilman Thompson and supported by Councilman Fonger at 9:25 p.m. Manager Quada then requested an Executive Session.

Getting it in gear

Whether it is a casual spin along a winding river or an intense 200-mile marathon, bicyclists can choose a ride or race to match their fitness level this summer, AAA Michigan reports.

Fifty-eight organized bicycling events are listed in AAA's Bike Michigan '86 Guide. The events range from an early summer tour around Maple City in the Leelanau Peninsula to a racing classic expected to attract the best bicyclists in the country to Detroit.

The guide also includes the increasingly popular triathlon, which combines running, swimming and, in one case, horseback riding, with bicycling.

"Many events are teamed with festivals and benefits and might encourage individuals to climb back on their bikes even if they haven't ridden in several years," said James Zwick, general manager of Auto Club Life Insurance Co. "The beauty of bicycling is that you can start slowly, gradually build your endurance and have fun at the same time."

Bicycling is gaining favor throughout the country as more than 73 million Americans, including 4.5 million in Michigan, ride regularly. After swimming, it is the second most popular participatory sport in this country.

Zwick notes these health benefits:

- You can use up about 200 calories by bicycling five miles in one hour. By stepping up the pace to about 15 miles per hour, you will burn about 800 calories -- more than you would in tennis, aerobic dancing or handball.

- Individuals with mild hypertension can reduce both their systolic and diastolic pressure five to 10 millimeters by bicycling regularly.

- Bicycling is good for rehabilitation because a person can "bring up the heart rate but not expend a lot of energy.

- Because weight is supported, bicycling is easier on the body than jogging.

AAA Michigan recommends those interested in any events listed on its guide to call ahead for details. "A 30-mile route might not seem too ambitious until it is discovered that it is mostly hilly terrain," said Zwick.

Some events also have restrictions. Children under 12, for example, cannot participate in the races.

"Before beginning any fitness program, persons should have a medical evaluation or clearance from a physician," said Zwick. "And, once they have an OK, individuals should dress properly and warm up first for the maximum benefits."

The most essential piece of bicycling equipment, after the bicycle itself, is a helmet, according to the Michigan Bicycle deration.

Grand Rapids car club annual swap meet

The annual Swap Meet/Flea Market sponsored by the Grand Rapids Antique Car Club is being held at the Lowell Fairgrounds, on Sunday May 18, beginning at 7:00 a.m. and lasting till the crowds call it a day.

If your idea of a perfect Sunday is nostalgia, good food, friendly people, and maybe a bargain or two thrown in, then you should head to the Lowell Fairgrounds and join in the fun.

A white Steamer Car displayed in Hershey, PA.

There are ancient dry river channels on Mars; the largest are about 620 miles long and over 100 miles wide.

These cars will be judged by peoples choice and trophies will be awarded in a wide variety of classes. As you wander around the fairgrounds you will also find Cars for Sale. These are also of various distinction. Like the Show Cars the owners will be on hand to answer questions about their cars, and are always willing to give helpful information to old car enthusiasts in the process of buying or restoring an old car of their own.

Because of interest shown in the past Swap Meets the GRACC has added a flea market this year. While the guys are picking amongst the old car parts and talking cars, the gals may find it a bit more fun strolling through the flea market. There should be something for everyone.

The GRACC is known as a club that travels on its stomach, and the swap meet is no exception. No club function is complete without food as its focal point, so expect the food to be great and reasonably priced.

This Swap Meet promises to be a great way to spend a warm, spring day in Michigan, and at a cost of only a $2 donation (kids free) also an inexpensive one.

If you are interested in being a part of the fun and would like more information about vendor spaces, show cars, or cars for sale contact Paul Pavelin at 363-9496 or Bill Mansfield at 361-2539.

"Capitol Column"

By State Senator Dick Posthumus

Property tax has become one of the priority issues of our state these days and it's hardly surprising. Property tax in Michigan is the fifth highest in the nation. Republicans in the Senate have introduced legislation to help many homeowners deal with the fact, but we're also looking to help small business in the same way.

S.B. 754 would amend the state's Single Business Tax to help many small businesses put more money into business instead of taxes. The measure allows businesses with property taxes greater than 2 percent of their business income to qualify for credits of up to $1,200 per year. For instance, a business with an income of $150,000 would be eligible for some credit if their property taxes exceed $3,000.

Companies that rent or lease property can count 17 percent of their rent as property taxes, kicking in a "circuit-breaker" program that's similar to the state's Homestead Property Tax Credit for homeowners. Under the Homestead Credit, households with less than $78,000 in income and a property tax of more than 3.5 percent of their income may receive a rebate. It's estimated about 40,000 small Michigan businesses would qualify for credit under the new Republican sponsored legislation. This program could mean a savings of up to $40 million for those companies caught in the pinch of high property taxes and low profit margins. To be eligible, any company applying for the tax credit must already have a liability and owe taxes under the Single Business Tax. Unlike the governor's property tax program, this proposal doesn't solve Michigan's property tax program by attacking our business community. Instead, it allows local municipalities to continue to meet their budgets through local property tax, yet helps one of our most important economic groups get the tax relief they need to keep providing jobs for Michigan.

S.B. 754 is only one part of the Senate's overall plan to reform property taxes in Michigan. Two other measures provide property tax relief for seniors and low-income families. Senate Republicans have also appointed a Citizens Property Tax Commission to suggest ways to lower property taxes across the board for everyone in the state. It's clear we're serious about property tax reform, and this new help for small business is just one more way in which the Senate is working to help everyone in Michigan beat the tax bite.

The week long nonpartisan government study program puts high school students into direct contact with the leading policy makers in the nations Capitol.

The week buzzed with activity with the group having many opportunities to ask questions and discuss the vital issues today including the state of economy, the looming budget deficit, ongoing U.S.-Soviet negotiations, international tension in the Middle East, South Africa, and Latin America, and the quality of education in our country. The Lowell Close Up Club wishes to thank the Lowell Rotary, Lowell Lions, State Savings Bank, Attwood Corporation, Lowell Education Association, Central States Precision Grinding, Lowell Student Council, Kropf Chemical, King Milling, and the many other individuals and businesses for their generous support which helped make the trip possible.

Students give to March of Dimes

Members of the sophomore class at Lowell Senior High has helped the March of Dimes. They did this by participating in a Prom Fashion Show and Dance held April 9, at the Top of Rock in Grand Rapids. The class sold tickets at school and also helped model the fashions, both dresses and tux.

The school in the Grand Rapids area that sold the most tickets was awarded $250, which Lowell won.

The sophomore class decided the March of Dimes should get back the check. Dee Vander Veen, Coordinator of Chapter Services, from the March of Dimes was on hand Thursday to receive the check from class members, Matt Van Huelen, Robin Sisson, Kathleen Trowbridge and Jenny Will. The project was organized in the high school by the Home Economics teacher, Marsha LaHaye.
