Lowell Schools and Police cooperate to nab 14 in drug related arrests

In January of this year Lowell High School administrators were becoming concerned over an evident increase in substance abuse related offenses among their students. Lowell Police confirmed that the increase was also present in the surrounding community.

In mid-January high school officials confiscated an amount of a substance later determined to be LSD. A subsequent meeting resulted in the establishment of a cooperative effort between school officials, Lowell Police and the Kent County Sheriff's Department Vice Unit. The subsequent investigation was aimed at determining the scope of the drug problem both in the school and in the community.

During the 16 week investigation that followed, police officers, working with the knowledge and approval of both the school and city officials, worked under cover making purchases of illegal substances.

During the investigation 23 counts criminal documented leading to the arrest of fourteen individuals. Eight adults and and six juveniles were arrested in an early morning sweep made by Lowell Police officers on Thursday, May 15. The warrants included charges of conspiracy to deliver marijuana, delivery of marijuana, delivery of LSD and use of marijuana. Lowell High School Principal Richard Korb pointed out that none of the criminal acts were committed inside a school building, and only three of the 23 counts took place on school property. "That tells me we are doing a reasonable job of enforcing our substance abuse policies within our jurisdiction," Korb said. Lowell Police Chief, Barry Emmons, also pointed out that at least three "buys" set up by the undercover agent were foiled in the high school parking lot because of the presence of the Lowell Police Department's routine school patrol. Emmons said, "That's proof that our efforts are paying off."

In a prepared statement Korb said, "Lowell Senior High School will not tolerate the possession, use or sale of illegal substances on its premises. School officials will address the problems which face our society today, and will not allow students to be used by those who would profit from illegal drug traffick-

"Lowell Area School's number one concern is for the health, safety and well-being of its students, and their opportunity to receive a quality education in a positive and safe environment.

"The Lowell Public Schools are committed to work with such student organized groups as Teens Involved and Quest, whose main goal is to provide positive alternatives to substance abuse. At the same time, school officials will continue to be com- 897-7506.

mitted to helping and serving those students in need of counseling and assistance as they deal with the difficulties of drug related problems."

Emmons emphasized the fact that this investigation is an ongoing process and expects more arrests to follow. "We've learned a lot in the last 16 weeks, and we're learning things every day that will make it more difficult for those dealing in drugs in the school or the community," Emmons said. Neither Emmons nor Korb feel that there is a major problem with drugs in Lowell, and both are determined to keep it that way. Emmons said, "The bottom line is, users and dealers beware!"

The adults arrested were as follows. Michael Kevin Millering, 20, demanded examination with bond set at $3,000. Bruce Morgan Yeiter, 22, demanded examination with bond set at $3,000. Kevin Richard Smith. 18, waivéd examination and was bound over to circuit court with bond set at $2,000. Robert Steven Runnels, 17, demanded examination on two counts, a $500 bond was set on a high court misdemeanor and $2,000 bond set on a felony charge. Brian Alan Marentette, 17, demanded examination with bond set at $2,000. Michael Thomas Owen, 20, was charged with two counts which supplemented a previous felony offense, and bond was set at $2,000. James Lee Welch, 17, demanded examination with bond set at $2,000. Jerald Ronnie Creuger, 18, pled guilty and will be turned over to pre-sentence investigation.

All those arrested, including the six juveniles, listed Lowell addresses as their residences.

UNDERSTANDING AND TREATING HEAT DISORDERS In our next two articles we will discuss an all too common entity during the summer months, heat disorders.

Anyone who works or exercises too hard in hot muggy weather can develop a heat disorder -- heat cramps, heat exhaustion or and is financed by surplus taxes heatstroke. This is especially likely to happen to joggers and other athletes who push themselves too hard when they are not fully The present Administration in Lansing wants to be known for

Heat cramps are muscle spasms in the stomach, arms or legs. They occur when a person sweats a great deal and doesn't drink enough salty liquid to replace what has been lost. The cramps can be mild or very painful. They may begin either during or after Heat exhaustion usually occurs when a person exercises strenously in hot, humid weather and doesn't replace body salt and water lost by sweating. The person with heat exhaustion may become extremely weak. He or she may feel nauseated and may vomit or become dizzy and faint. The person's skin turns pale, cold and moist with sweat.

Heat stroke is a life-threatening emergency. When exposure to heat and humidity causes the body temperature to rise to 105-110 degrees Farenheit, the person collapses with heat stroke. He loses consciousness, and his skin becomes red, hot and dry because the body can no longer produce sweat.

How can you help the person who has a heat disorder? A few suggestions follow: For the person with Heat cramps:

better. Use bouillon and a teaspoon of salt added to about a

2. Get the person out of the heat as quickly as possible. Don't give him salt without liquid.

4. Don't try to work out the cramps by massaging the muscles.

It won't help, and the cramps may even get worse. 5. Have the person rest for the reminder of the day and avoid heavy activity for the next few days. 6. Call your doctor if any other symptoms develop.

For the person with heat exhaustion:

1. Get him to a cool place.

2. If he is conscious, give him bouillon or salted water 3. If he is unconscious, remove his clothing and sponge him

5. Take his temperature periodically. If it is above 101 degrees or begins to rise, get the person to the doctor as

6. See that he rests for at least 2-3 days. This is especially important if the person is elderly or suffers from chronic diseases such as heart trouble or diabetes.

Next week: More treatment and ways to prevent heat disorders.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on June 2, 1986 at 7:30 o'clock p.m. at the Lowell Board of Education Offices the Board of Education of Lowell will hold a public hearing on the levying in 1986 of an additional proposed millage rate of 4.4341 mills for operating purposes pursuant to Act 5, Public Acts of Michigan, 1982.

The Board of Education has the complete authority to establish that 34.9 mills be levied in 1986 from within its present authorized millage rate.

The maximum additional proposed millage rate would increase revenues for operating purposes from ad valorem property tax levies in 1982 otherwise permitted by Act 5, Public Acts of Michigan, 1982, by thirteen point eight percent (13.8%).

The figure for increase in revenue for operating purposes is based on the latest estimate of state equalized valuation of property located within the school district. State equalized valuation will not be finalized until after the fourth Monday in May. In the event that state equalized valuation as finalized is for any reason higher than the estimate used for this hearing, the Board of Education must hold another public hearing before levying millage on any higher valua-

The purpose of the hearing is to receive testimony and discuss the levy of an additional millage rate. Not less than seven (7) days following the public hearing, the Board of Education may approve all or any portion of the proposed additional millage rate.

This notice is given by order of the Board of Education.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners County of Kent, Michigan

Your Legislative, Judicial and Taxation Committee, to which were referred the assessment rolls of the Cities of Cedar Springs, East Grand Rapids, Grand Rapids, Grandville, Kentwood, Lowell, Rockford, Walker and Wyoming and the several Townships, respectfully report that we have examined the rolls and verified the totals as corrected. Commissioner M. Buth stated that, although Kent County has a very good system of taxing real and personal property, taxation is not an exact science. There is a small discrepancy in the report of agricultural valuations in Alpine and Vergennes Townships. He would support those townships should they seek to appeal the process.

Mr. Platte indicated that agricultural values have gone down throughout the United States. The sales study approved by the state ends the first quarter of 1985, and the townships would argue that values have fallen since then.
