PASTOR SHANKS RESIGNED. Much surprise was manifested the people of Lowell on Sunday !when it was learned that on that more ing Rev. E. H. Shanks had formal tendered, to the Baptist society of this place, his resignation as its pastor.

Concerning the causes which induced the Elder to take this action, it does not seem our place to speak. But as a citizen, interested in the moral welfare of the village, we may express the hope that the niche in our society, so pleasantly filled by Pastor Shanks and his estimable lady is not to be made vacant. Mr. Shanks is very popular among the people of the town, and an earnest worker in the cause he represents. It seems to us that our good Baptist friends can ill afford to matters may be so adjusted that the the Elder's stay may be indefinitely prolonged.
