TOGETHER FOR LIFE. MUCH JOY.

Progress of the West Michigan Company.

UNFORTUNATE FATE OF JACOB JOHNS.

Death of Wm. Burnett, a Much Respected Citizen.

HUSTED-SEVERY NUPTIALS.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 28, at seven o'clock, about 125 invited guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther F. Severy, to celebrate the nuptials of their daughter, Ella and Arthur A. Husted, both of Lowell. Promptly at seven o'clock, the wedding march was begun, Miss Nora Husted of Grand Rapids presiding at the piano and rendering very beautifully, Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bridal party, consisting of little Misses Mary and Florence Soot as flower-girls, the bride and groom, with Miss Minnie Blakeslee and Harvey Coons as attendants marched across the room to the beautifully decorated arch with evergreen and potted flowers for background, where Pastor Shanks stood in waiting. Then the strains of music were blended in low, sweet harmonies while in a few words the pastor pronounced the ceremony, uniting them in the bonds of holy matrimony. After congratulations by the guests, an ample repast was served.

There were many very elegant gifts brought by the guests, consisting mostly of silverware—some of which were exceedingly pretty—cut glass, fancy needlework and some pieces of furniture. All the gifts were very pretty and useful.

Among the guests present from a distance were:

Dr. L. D. Wood and wife, M. H. Walker and wife, John, Nora and Bessie Husted, Ora Anderson, of Grand Rapids; S. W. Taylor and wife, Kalamazoo; Leon, Ruby and Grace Carter, Ionia; Wilber Post, Bert White and Will Clark, Albion, Ione Burnett, Lansing; Mrs. Marten Barber, Ypsilanti; Miss Ella Kopf, Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. Husted will make their home in our midst. They have the hearty congratulations of a host of friends.

ELECTRIC MATTERS.

Dr. McDannell informs us that matters are progressing favorably with the West Michigan Electric company. The Evening Press and Workman, doing their little best to balk the company, but will not succeed. That was a great article in this week's Workman. It compares Flat river with Plaster creek and scouts the idea of the company having any power at its "dam site" in low water. Mr. Mills, one of the best mechanical experts in the country has examined the matter and assures the company that they will have 2,500 horse power at the lowest stage of the water. You'll have to give up; Lowell takes the cake this time.

Abe Peck has returned from his long sojourn in England.

COLDON-SAYLES.

Elgin M. Coldron of Otisco and Miss Hannah Sayles of Keene were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sayles, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28, by Rev. A. P. Moors. Guests were numerous, and gifts beautiful and useful were presented. The young couple will begin wedded life at the home of the groom in Otisco.

CARY-ALDRICH

At the home of Pastor Shanks, Wednesday afternoon, John A. Carey of West Lowell and Miss Edith M. Aldrich of Vergennes were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Mr. and Mrs. Carey are well known young people and have many friends who wish them happiness and a long and prosperous life. They will make their home in West Lowell, where Mr. Carey has a farm.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. M. N. Hine was agreeably surprised on Monday afternoon and evening by the unexpected arrival of her children and grandchildren, the occasion being the anniversary of her 60th birthday. She was presented with a nice table spread and other articles of utility. Mr. Hine, whose birthday occurred on the 15th, was also well remembered. The party consisted of: Mr. and Mrs. John Broadbent and children and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sherman and children. They provided their own refreshments and a party of twelve sat down to an enjoyable supper.

BLIND AND INSANE.

Jacob Jons, a mason of Lowell, was adjudged an indigent insane person in probate court Wednesday and ordered admitted to Kalamazoo asylum at the expense of the county. His case is peculiarly unfortunate, as he is blind as well as insane, his loss of sight dating back two years and before he had developed any symptoms of mental alienation. Whether his blindness and insanity are both the result of the same causes, is a question the Kalamazoo specialists will try to ascertain.—[Democrat.

FILED FOR PROBATE.

Gibson D. Reed of Grattan, husband of the late Emma M. Reed, filed deceased will for probate in Judge Perkin's court Wednesday, and the hearing was set for Dec. 28. The will, which was executed Oct. 4, leaves to the husband for life the west half of the east half of the northeast quarter of section fourteen and land in section thirteen, in Grattan, on condition that he shall educate and support the youngest child, Carl T., aged fourteen, until twenty-one. On death of husband the property is to be equally divided among all the children who are Porter P., Elwood, Edward, Fred N. and Carl T., sons of Grattan; daughters Minnie E. Borden and Myrtle E. Snyder of Ionia county and Hattie M. Jenks of Grattan.

ILLNESS OF F. D. STOCKING.

Our old pioneer citizen, Fidius Stocking has been confined to the house with an illness of a serious nature, for about five weeks and his pleasant face is missed from our streets. His recovery will be devoutly hoped for.

WILLIAM BURNETT,

an old and respected citizen of this village, died at his home Monday morning at two o'clock. The funeral was held Wednesday at one o'clock, from his late home, Rev. J. A. Mangle officiating.

William Burnett was born in Galt, Ontario, April 24, 1833, and was married in 1857, to Almira Fleming, of the same place. They came to Michigan and settled in Grand Rapids in 1858. In 1862 they came to Lowell, settling on a farm two miles south of this village and later moved to this village, where they have resided the past eighteen years.

Mr. Burnett was a man of sterling integrity, a true christian and a lovable man. He leaves, besides his grief stricken wife, three children, Arthur W. Burnett, Mrs. J. S. Eggleston, of this village Mrs. Fred Eggleston of Laramie City, Wyoming, and five brothers and the three sisters who live in Canada.—[Communicated.

Miss Daisy Barden of Grand Rapids spent Thanksgiving with relatives and friends in Lowell.

The regular monthly meeting of the Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the M. E. church will be held at the home of Mrs. R. Quick, Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 4. Arrangements will be made at this meeting for the reception to be given in honor of Mrs. J. E. Floyd of Grand Rapids, who is expected to be here the following Saturday. Bring in the mite boxes.

W. M. Chapman and Dr. M. C. Green and families ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mother M. S. Chapman at Grand Rapids.

Miss Ida Jackson of Grand Rapids spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Fred Malcom.

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold their annual fair in the vacant store, one door east of Winegar's shoe store, on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 7 and 8. They will offer for sale a large and varied assortment of useful, ornamental, and fancy articles, suitable for Christmas and New Year gifts, at prices to suit the times. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

The first quarterly meeting of the M. E. church will be held next Sunday, Dec. 2. Sacramental service at 10:30, a. m. Love-feast at 6:30, p. m. followed by preaching. Quarterly conference Monday evening, Dec. 3. The presiding elder will be present at the quarterly conference but not at the other services.

Mrs. Lee's band of the Congregational church will serve a chicken pie supper in the vacant store east of Winegar's, on Friday evening, Dec. 7. Price 20-cents.

Last Monday evening, at the Baptist church Pastor Shaaks gave a lecture under the auspices of the Sacred Literature class of the B. Y. P. U., the subject of which was, "The Renaissance." The lecture was well attended and all seemed to enjoy it very much. The next lecture will be given by Rev. C. W. Barber of Grand Rapids, Subject, "The Reformation."

Peck's Bad Boy drew a good crowd at Train's opera house Thursday evening, and gave excellent satisfaction. It is one of the numerous first class attractions that Lovett & Barber have treated our citizens with.

The Oddfellows had a splendid party at Music hall Thursday evening with eighty couples in attendance. Everything was harmonious and everybody was happy.
