Mr. Kinyon again ran spent in visiting and merry sociability down the blazing stairs and carried the guests departed for their respectout the scorched body of his wife, from whom all clothing had been burned. Section hands from the railroad hastened to save the house from de-struction, and medical aid was sum-moned. Dr. Maicolm was called and did all that could be done to relieve the terrible agonies of the unfortun-ates. He thinks it hardly possible for Mrs. Kinyon or the child to recover. Mr Kinyon is badly burned but will recover, though his hands may be

PUT HER ESTATE IN TRUST.

Mary J. Kopf of Lowell, Tuesday, signed a trust deed turning over her estate to the Peninsula Trust comceiver, but as a trust for her benefit. The estate consists of several parcels of real estate in the village of Lowell. It has not been inventoried, but is supposed to be worth about $7,000.-Democrat.

DYGERT-GRAHAM.

On Thursday evening of last week a large company of invited guests assembled at the home of William Procter, Berta M. Graham, to Lincoln A. guests. Quite a good many friends and relatives from Lowell were in ative homes, leaving many wishes for happiness and congratulatons with the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Dygert spent a week visiting friends at Ionia. They will make their home with Mr. Proctor for the present, and Grandpa Proctor is to be congratulated, not only on a new grandson, but als that he is to have his granddaughter with him. ONE WHO WAS-THERE.

Marks Ruben has been in Chicago this week buying winter goods.

MR. MCGEE'S LOSS.

A large barn, belonging to Geo-McGee, who lives on the old Hagis-Wesbrook farm, in Vergennes, wass pany of Grand Rapids to be managed burned to the ground on Wednesday and cared for, not as assignee or re- afternoon, together with its contents, consisting of grain, hay, etc., and three stacks of fodder, which stood near it. Mr. McGee and a hired man had been working in the barn all day and about dusk discovered the fire in the hay in the loft, but have no ideahow it could have originated.

He considers his loss $500. The building had been insured but owing to Mr. McGee's failure to pay the last assessment, it is not known whether

PUNISHED FOR CRUELTY.

Henry Spencer of Ada townshiphad his trial before Justice Westfall,. at Grand Rapids, Wednesday, on thecharge of cruelty to a horse. He was found guilty and fined $25, with costs to about the same amount. An appeal was taken to the Circuit Court. Spencer fired a charge of shot into-the hips-of a horse. Humane Agent-Randolf was the complainant.

THE President reports the circulation of money of all kinds, not included in the treasury holding, at $1,672,-093,422, or $27.27 per capita upon an estimated population of 68,587,000.

THE President's message is too long to suit the average newspaper reader, and yet it is an able state paper, and as a review of recent events and public affairs is well worthy the attention of every thoughtful citizen.

THE postmaster general reports a deficiency in his department, but thinks that if certain abuses are corrected it need not continue. He thinks that in the near future all legitimate newspapers and periodical magazines might be properly transmitted through the mails free ef cost.

Discussing finance, the President practically admits the inadequacy of gold as a basis of circulation, but does not believe the people wish the currency reduced to a silver basis. He ses that the government turn its banking business over to the state banks and thus relieve the treasury of the strain of maintaining the gold re-

CHAPTER XIII.

When Mrs. Trotter returned from her journey to the police office, in company with a constable, it was to find an empty, silent house, and a shop locked, with the key hanging by a string to the outer door. The first thought was of thieves, remembering the strange shopman she had left in charge of all her worldly goods. The next, of murder, finding the goods untouched, and Lilly and the baby gone.

But Rudolph, on his sick bed in the attic, had heard no disturbance; and a healthy child and a young girl can not healthy child and young girl can not healthy
