GOOD NEWS.

Purchase of G. Kopf's Mill and Factory

BY MESSRS. PECKHAM AND FLANAGAN

For the Manufacture of Bicycle Rims.

THE MICHIGAN WOOD RIM COMPANY.

Kopf Brothers Have Sold to McConnell & Co.

MORE ABOUT THAT BASKET FACTORY.

The Sad Misfortune of Little Bessie Rauch.

GOOD NEWS.

Those enterprising manufacturers and worthy citizens, A H Peckham and R J Flanagan, have quietly made a move that will redound to the benefit of Lowell and we hope and believe, to its promoters.

They have purchased the planing mill and factory plant of Goodrich Kopf, and will take possession of the same about the beginning of the new year, placing therein a large amount of the latest improved machinery for the manufacture of wood rims for bicycles, under the name and style of The Michigan Wood Rim Company.

They expect to employ from fifteen to twenty men; and we believe the business will soon demand the employment of many more.

All hail, The Michigan Wood Rim Company. Make room for more men like Peckham and Flanagan.

BUSINESS CHANGE.

The furniture and undertaking business of Kopf Brothers has been sold to G C McConnell & Co., of Cedar Springs. The latter gentlemen took possession on Tuesday, retaining the valuable services of John L Kopf. We bid the new firm welcome and wish them success.

A BASKET FACTORY

Is what Lowell must have, and that or we may have to divide territory with some quicker town.

The following item clipped from the Detroit Free Press shows the point.

The village council of Saranac is wrestling with the problem of whether or not to call a special election for the purpose of deciding whether the village shall raise a bonus for the establishment of a basket factory. One faction wants the election called, and another is opposed to it.

Here is an industry that is needed and will pay from the first year of its existence. There will be needed by consumers at this point next season at least 150,000 bushel baskets and the demand will increase rapidly every succeeding year.

Our shipping facilities are good and a Lowell manufacturer can reach outside markets fully as well as those at any other point.

Basket manufacturers in a neighboring town are casting sly glances this way and talking glibly about a "branch" factory here—a little tail for the other town's dog.

No thank you gentlemen. Come and be one of us, if you want our business. A basket factory we are bound to have, and if you speak soon enough you can own it; otherwise you will have to accept our regrets and see some other more lucky man get the plum. For Lowell is on the boom, AND

DON'T YOU FORGET IT.

A GOOD ENOUGH PLACE FOR HIM. An editor, who died of starvation after making Dr. Tanner ashamed of himself, was being escorted to heaven by an angel who had been sent for that purpose.

"May I look at the other place before I ascend to eternal happiness?"

"Easily," said the angel. So they went below and skirmished around taking in the sight. The angel lost track of the editor, and went around hales to find him. He found him sitting by a furnace fanning himself and gazing with rapture upon a lot of people in the fire. There was a sign on the door which said, "Delinquent Subscribers."

"Come," said the angel, "we must be going."

"You go on," said the editor, "I'm not coming. This is heaven enough for me."

"IT IS CATCHING" And spreading rapidly—the idea that a live local paper constitutes a good letter to absent friends 52 times a year at less than the cost of written missives.

Mathew Hunter and wife will be remembered at least once a week for a year by their son Robert at Colton Oregon, by reason of their ordering the LEDGER to that address.

Homer Avery also reminds his son and daughter at Mesa City, Arizona, of his existence in the same manner. Not to be out done, H. Epley orders the LEDGER to his daughter, Mrs. P. J. Devine at Stanton and to his son Fred Epley at Grand Ledge.

Who will be next to remember their absent dear ones in this pleasant and inexpensive manner? A letter from home fifty-two times a year for $1.00.

Get your orders in before Christmas. Remember we give a copy of Pingree's Facts and Opinions with each yearly paid up subscription. Come now.

The editor and his wife were walking out in the bright moonlight one evening. Like all editor's wives, she was of an exceedingly poetic nature, and said to her husband:

"Notice that moon; how bright and calm and beautiful!"

"Couldn't think of noticing it," returned the editor, "for anything less than the usual advertising rates."

CANADIAN EXCURSIONS AT HALF FARE.

The Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee railway and Toledo, Saginaw & Muskegon railroad will give their annual excursions to Canadian points with the usual long limit of 20 days to return. This long limit and very low rates is to meet the wants of those who desire to spend the holidays in Canada with relatives and friends.

The half fare made for this occasion is to apply to all prominent points in Canada as far east as Ottawa, Montreal and Quebec. Tickets at one single fare for the round trip will be sold for all trains of Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 19, 20 and 21, 1895, and will be valid to return up and including January 9, 1896. These cheap and long limit excursions are given but once a year and for the holidays only, and persons intending to visit in Canada should avail themselves of this opportunity. For rates time cards and map of Canada inquire of all D. G. H. & M. and T. S. & M. agents or Ben Fletcher, traveling passenger agent, Detroit.

A SAD MISFORTUNE.

Little Bessie Rauch, aged about 9 years, was kicked on the knee some time ago, by one of the school boys, in a fit of anger. The limb became very sore and painful and grew so much worse that she was taken to Grand Rapids the other day for treatment. It was decided that the limb must be amputated above the knee and the operation was performed, but is doubtful if the child recovers.

An exchange tells of a man in London who determined to spend all he made the first year in business in advertising, but was unable to do so, for the more he advertised the more business he did and the more money he had to spend.

We have sampled W. B. Rickett's home made cream candy and find "it just hits the spot."
