BAPTIST CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS

To the Extent of $1,000 Now Under Way.

The improvements now under way on the Baptist church promise to alter that building so that its old friends will not recognize it. The plans include the raising of the present building, to admit of a basement; the erection of a lecture room on the east side, which can be opened into the auditorium by means of sliding doors. The pulpit and choir will be placed on the west side, the windows on that side removed and light admitted through large decorated windows on the south, east and north sides. The south window will be placed where tower is now and a modern tower will be placed between the auditorium front and the lecture room annex.

The new building will be heated by a furnace and the room formerly occupied by stoves will add to the seating capacity.

The old choir will be used as a library room and seated with chairs can add materially to the seating capacity on occasions.

These projected improvements will cost about $1,000, at least half of which is pledged. When our good Baptist friends get snugly fixed in their new quarters they will be "strictly in it."

Has Been Unfortunate.

Humane Agent Randolph has been meeting with misfortune in his cruelty to animal cases, for a number of weeks and the county has been put to quite an expense as a result. The last three cases, those of Jarvis Train, of Lowell, John Brooks, of Algoma, and George Thompson, of Wyoming, were lost and two of them nolle prosequit. Mr. Randolph states that he has difficulty with his witnesses. They relate a pitiable story to him on his investigation and then fail to substantiate their stories when they get into court. The witness, court and officer fees in these three cases cost the county $81.20.

Death of John Maynard.

Died, at his home in Lowell, April 12, 1898, John Maynard, aged 73 years.

Mr. Maynard was born in Sterling, Mass., July 31, 1824, where he lived until 33 years of age when he removed to Hume, N. Y., where he married Miss Caroline E. Standish, May 23, 1857. To this union four children were born, all of whom with the mother survive.

John Maynard was one of the pioneers, coming to Lowell in 1857, and like all early settlers took a great interest in the little village he had chosen for his future home. He organized and was the leader of the first brass band in Lowell. For some years he followed the photograph business and then moved to his farm in East Lowell where he remained for 19 years engaged in dairying. His health then failing he retired from business and returned to his old home in this village, where his remaining years of pain and suffering have been made brighter by his lifelong companions, music and books. He was an honest, upright man, whose word was as good as his bond. For over 40 years he has gone in and out before us, bearing his suffering with great patience; and now his work is done and we shall know him no more.

The funeral was held at his late residence, conducted by Rev. S. G. Anderson. Music was furnished by Mesdames H. A. Peckham and D. G. Look and Messrs. F. A. White and Geo. M. Winegar, accompanied by R. D. Stocking, F. W. Tarleton, J. H. Rieckert and H. A. Sherman.—[Com.]

AN ADDITION OR A WARD BUILDING?

The Questions Considered at the Special School Meeting.

The special school meeting last Friday evening was quite well attended. The sentiment was largely in favor of erecting a new ward building instead of making an addition to the Central building. The matter was discussed at some length; but as the meeting was called to consider the addition project, no action could be taken on the matter of ward building. The meeting adjourned subject to another call which has been made for April 25. At that time both projects will be discussed, and either may be acted upon. Everybody interested should be at this meeting.

Marriage of D. S. McQueen.

A quiet but impressive ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias BeVier in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives last Sunday afternoon, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Edith P. BeVier to DeVillie S. McQueen of Lowell. The ceremony, took place at 1:00 p. m., the Rev. J. W. Humphrey, of Allegan, officiating at the altar. The parlor was tastefully decorated with white bunting joining together in a beautiful arch under which the happy couple took their marriage vows, Easter lilies and various other flowers forming a very pretty background. The nuptial music was played by Miss Mamie Jaques. The bride was gowned in a very becoming dress of white albatross trimmed with white lace and ribbons, wearing orange blossom in her hair, and her maid of honor, Miss Nina Lake, formerly of this place was tastefully gowned in albatross, trimmed with blue velvet. The groom was attended by Mr. Lee Huliburger. Following the ceremony refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. McQueen will be at home to their friends after June 25.—[Lake Odessa Wave.]

A Prosperous Association.

The annual meeting of the Lowell Building & Loan Association was held at the secretary's office and the old officers re-elected, as follows:

President, M. C. Greene; treasurer, N. B. Blain; secretary, J. B. Yeater.

The association is in a flourishing. The first series of stock has nearly matured and since its starting has paid 9 per cent. compound interest.

A new series is now open and an opportunity is given for new investors and home seekers.

To those who have no homes this advice is good:

"Stop paying rent; join the Building and Loan association and pay for a home instead. It is almost or quite as easy and far more profitable.

Best Papers the Best Mediums.

There is much good solid sense for every advertiser in the following paragraph from a thoughtful eastern advertiser: The daily paper is by far the safest and most certain method of reaching the public. It should not be difficult for any intelligent man who has lived for any time in a community to know just what papers will serve him as advertising mediums. It isn't at all necessary to examine the books in the newspaper's counting room or to get their affidavits of circulation. A paper that you read yourself and that your neighbors read and respect and that you know to be widely read and respected, you can safely rely on as a satisfactory medium for reaching people of your own kind.

YOU HAVE BEEN GETTING BETTER RESULTS FROM THE Detroit Journal WEEKLY GIVING YOU MORE CIRCULATION.

The best business houses in Detroit use THE DETROIT JOURNAL largely—more largely every year. Nearly every successful general advertiser uses THE DETROIT JOURNAL. Some advertisers are not allowed in THE DETROIT JOURNAL.
