LOWELL, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY NOVEMBER 5, 1903

FIVE CENTS.

The Old Way

of saving money was to put it in a stocking and secret it in some place that the dullest witted thief was sure to discover when prowling around in the small hours of the morning.

The New Way

is to take any sum exceeding one dollar to

THE CITY BANK

and deposit it there to the credit of your account. The money is safe from fire, thieves and such. Savings deposits will earn 3 per cent compound interest.

Do You Wish to Save Money

We address this question to those who have not purchased a Quick Meal Steel Range and a Gold Coin Coal Stove. Why not buy the stove that saves you money when you purchase and fuel afterwards. All we ask is a comparison of our stoves and prices. A visit to our store will convince you that these statements are easily proven.

Will sell all stoves on weekly or monthly payments. Yours,

R. B. Boylan.

Mrs. A. H. Peckham Died in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Albert H. Peckham died at her home in Grand Rapids, Friday, Oct. 30, just 10 years and 10 days after the death of her youngest son, Floyd. She was sick less than a week with pleuro-pneumonia.

Mrs. Peckham, whose maiden name was Lydia Ann Smith, was born in Courtland, New York, Feb. 19, 1842. She married Mr. Peckham in New York state and five sons were born to them there. Twenty years ago Mr. Peckham came to Lowell to take charge of the Star Cutter factory, bringing with him his wife and three children. Shortly afterward Messrs. Peckham & Flanagan purchased the business and for about twelve years, until the death of his son, Mr. Peckham made Lowell his home. Then he moved to Grand Rapids and bought their pleasant home on Paris Ave., where they have since resided.

Mrs. Peckham was a member of the M. E. church in this village and afterward of the Division street M. E. church in Grand Rapids. She was well-known and highly respected in Lowell. Besides her husband, she leaves four sons, H. A., and Gage of this village, Henry of Courtland, N. Y., and Carl of Grand Rapids, also two brothers, B. Herman Smith of Syracuse, and Perry Smith of Otsego, N. Y.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

Now in Session at the Lowell Baptist Church.

The Kent County W. C. T. U. convention is being held in the Lowell Baptist church, beginning yesterday and continuing today and tomorrow. A goodly number of delegates from different parts of the county are present and much interest is evinced.

Last evening's meeting was a good one. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Charles Nease, then addresses of welcome were made by Village President Hakes, Revs. Nease and Sprague, President of Lowell Union, Mrs. Needham, and a response by Mrs. Brown of Grand Rapids. A recitation by Miss Hattie Lynn followed; and then the county president, Mrs. Bodwell of Grand Rapids, gave a half-hour talk. Ethel White then recited a selection, and the meeting was closed with singing and the benediction. The church was prettily decorated with flags, white ribbon and chrysanthemums and a painting of Miss Willard on an easel.

The principal features of this evening's meeting will be a lecture by Mrs. C. C. Faxon of West Bay City on "The Yesterday and Today of the Philippines."

Hard Working Kidneys

Few realize how much work the kidneys have to do. They guard your health day and night. Every drop of blood must pass through the kidneys and be filtered over and over again. Worn out tissue is cast into the blood in the form of Uric acid and it is the duty of the kidneys to eliminate this. If they become weak and tired and allow some of this poison to slip by, backache, rheumatism, headache and debility follows.

Dr. Cooper's Kidney and Backache Pills overcome all minor kidney and bladder disorders. Use them and you will learn how much the kidneys have to do with keeping you well. At the same time you will guard against serious kidney disease.

From Our Point of View

TAMMANY won out in New York City; but decent Democrats throughout the country will not throw up their hats on account of it.

THE jury's award of $30,000 to Miss Adams against Baker gives almost universal satisfaction hereabouts.

AFTER many years of uninterrupted Republican rule, Rhode Island concluded to have a change.

THE LEDGER is not "straight laced" in the matter of Sabbath observance; but it is free to say that those people who are conducting Sunday horse races at Smyrna might be better occupied.

ONE first-class hypocrite in a family is not enough, it seems, and John Rockefeller, Jr., teaches a Sunday school class, in which he interprets the Scriptures from "a gold basis."

ANYHOW, Supervisor White's hat is large enough to cover a head that has done good and faithful service for the people of Lowell and Kent county.

LOWELL people who contemplate building houses to rent will do well to investigate the merits of cement as a building material.

"A HOME for a Song," is a tune that can't be played in Lowell any more. The bottom was reached some time ago, and the warning was sounded in these columns.

THE craze for enormous wealth, as exemplified in the dishonest career of the Rockefeller-Baer hypocrites, has contributed to the wide-spread corruption and fraud that now threatens our national and private existence.

OUR friend White is to be commended for remembering the bridge. As a general proposition, however, no representative body can be justified in refusing a request to submit a grave public question to its constituency.

FOR many years, manufacturers have insisted on locating their factories in the large cities, in order, as they claimed, to be near a supply of cheap labor.

MISS ELLERY MADE A STABLE AND HANDSOME FIGURE AS HER MAMMY GAVE HER THE LAST TOUCHES TO HER COSTUME.

Some troublous thoughts running through his brain. He sought an early opportunity to see Jane alone.

And as for the men, they were as gallant as if one would wish to see the British officers smothered in red coats and gold lace.

Well pleased, Bessemer moved among his guests, dropping a pleasant word here, a merry jest there.

With which she was assisting him there lurked a certain constraint, and he could well guess the cause.

"Madam," Bessemer answered, gathering himself together. "I know you speak, but I should say that the gentleman whom I hold as prisoner were more suited to be Miss Ellyri's fiancé than not, since he is a man fully 60 years of age, while she is a girl of 16."

"The very one, madam, and he shall pay for it." He left her with a courteous bow, and she saw that he was not a man to be trifled with.

TEMPERANCE NOTES

MONKEY, MAN AND WHISKY.

An incident in New Jersey which partially proves the theory of Evolution.

In the state of New Jersey, near the edge of the North river, an unfortunate monkey was shot.

It would be pleasant to relate that the monkey tasted the whisky, felt it and refused to touch any more of it.

It would be creditable to the monkey's wisdom if one could say that while he made a mistake, and drank too much whisky, once he could never be persuaded to touch it again.

WASHINGTON LETTER

NO DRINKS FOR LEGISLATORS

Senators and Congressmen Will Have to Go Outside of the Capitol Building for Their Intoxicant-Liquor-Makers Not Hard Drinkers.

Washington.—For the first time since there was eating and drinking at the capitol, it is reported that the members of the legislature will have to go outside of the capitol building for their liquor.

A curious conjunction of office and man is that of Gen. H. V. Boynton and the board of education of the District of Columbia.

Every little while there has been a bluff at one end of the capitol or the other about shutting off the booze altogether.

It was a place of more or less routine and that for the moderate allowance of 1904 a year he presided over the meetings of the board with dignity and enunciated his findings with solemnity.

Of course there is a lot of rather cheap talk about the bibulous habits of members of congress.

The senate and house restaurants are open for only a few hours each day and there is no drinking during working hours at the capitol.

It was his own will save him. If you ever want to see a really superior brew, get a little barrel of the dog that bit you will get you right.

Men go about the work of legislation nowadays seriously and temperately. The same standards prevail among public men that prevail among business men.

A Presidential Possibility. Senator Gorman, of Maryland, seems to be the favorite just now of southern democrats who hope to see him elected president.

Nothing has ever equalled it. Nothing can ever surpass it. Dr. King's New Discovery For Consumption, Coughs, Sore Throat, etc.
