YOUNG LIFE TAKEN.

MISS JESSIE COONROD'S THREE SUDDEN DEATH.

Strickes in the Midst of a Merry Frolic, and Only Sixteen.

Never has it been our lot to chronicle a sadder event than the death of Miss Jessie Coonrod, which came as a thunderbolt from a clear sky last Monday evening. Full of life and glee, she was romping with some young friends at the home of Frank Taylor, in this village, when she sud-denly sank to the floor and with a denly sank to the hoof and with a few gasps expired.

Justice M. M. Perry impaneled the following jury: Frank Taylor, J. A. Mattern, M. W. Morse, Charles D. Blakeslee, Lewis R. Andrews, Amos B. Smith. The verdict rendered was that: "Said Jessie Coonrod came to her death " from inher death from in-ternal hemorrhage, due to rup-ture of a blood vessel of the heart from over exertion."

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church yesterday, conduc ted by Rev. Charles Nease; and the burial was in the Wright cemetery west of the village

Jessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Coonrod, was born in Lowell, March 8, 1887, and spent her brief life with her parents in this township, attending school in District No 2, until recently, when she spent much of her time with her sister. Mrs. W. F. Howk. She was a member of the Methodist Sunday school; and her happy disposition, cheerful smile and never-fa lin; greeting won her the love of all who knew her. her the love of all who knew her. The sympathy of the entire community is with the bereaved in their great affliction.

CHAS. QUICK LOST HIS SUIT.

Mr. Davidson Will Not Have to Pay $400 Back Interest

The Grand Rapids Herald has the following concerning the suit between the former and present owners of the Lowell Journal

A circuit court jury yesterday decided that the plaintiff in the case of Charles Quick vs. Davidson had no cause for action. In 1901 Davidson bought the Lowell Journal of Quick. The latter had been editor and proprietor for years. The purchase price was $5,000 and in part payment Davidson gave a $6,000 farm in Eaton county on which was a mortgage for $2500.

Itwas charged by Quick that Davidson represented there was no in arrears on the mortgage, but developments are said to have proved that there was interest of $400 unpaid. The suit was begun to have Davidson make good the $400, but the jury decided against the plaintiff. Mr. Davidson producing receipts showing payments made as he represented.

WE NOTE that the American Labor Federation in session at Faneuil hall, Boston, will discuss the question: "Shall Union Labor Get into Politics?" How would it do for Union Labor to get into work? The everlasting hubbub it is keeping up from Maine to California is distracting the industries of the country. There's a day coming when some of these fellows will find that those who will not work when they can, can not SENATOR HOAR'S proposal to appropriate millions of government money to build homes for poor people, will strike many people as differing from socialism only as tweedle-dee differs from tweedle-dum. But Mr. Hoar is an eminently respectable old man; and there are things to be learned even from socialism. Our old friend Pattison used to say he was willing to get good anywhere he could, even of the devil, if the latter had it. Let's not be frightened by a name.

The city with all its boasted advantages, can not give its residents such neighbors as those who give to village and country life their chief charm; and no community affords better, wiser or more congenial neighbors than Lowell.
