Be Wise

Like the squirrel and lay aside for the rainy day and the cold winter. If you have a little money saved up that you can draw on any time you will enjoy life much better. You won't be worrying everytime you have an off day what the family would do if you happened to be sick. Every working-man in town should save a little each week, no matter how small his salary. We solicit your savings.

CHAPMAN SAYS HA HA

OUR LOS ANGELES PEOPLE ARE TICKLED.

Cold Storage Proposition, Brings Down the House.

Some weeks ago we received a letter from our old friend, Will M. Chapman, which we have been unable to refer to until now. The following extract serves to show that the old boy is in good-spirits.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 24, 1904.

Dear Friend:—How are you? Judging from the ringing editorials you still continue to turn out, I know you are all right politically, religiously and intellectually! And I now pause (to sharpen my pencil) in my busy, bustling, hum-drum life to congratulate and thank you for what you are doing for your community and us.

If I ever saw my wife convulsed with laughter, it was when she read your editorial on the condition of Train's hall or opera house. How vividly you described it.

Once upon a time, I attended a lecture given by "Mark Twain." Just for the nonce, he had a piece of cloth about 20 ft. long fastened to rollers which was operated by an Irishman. The entire little device made me think of the days when I used to turn grindstone during the noon hour for father to sharpen his scythes. Well, this piece of canvas which contained daubs or spots of paint upon it, gave "Mark" an opportunity to "spread himself" while expatiating upon the beautiful scenery in a "Holy Land" trip, besides keeping his audience in a merry laugh continually. At the close, he stepped to the front of the platform and in a mild, gentle voice while his whole face showed an injured look, "Mark" re-marked: "Ladies and gentlemen; I cannot keep it from you any longer those brown spots in my panoramic views are—are horses."

He bowed himself off the stage amid bouquets, shouts and roars of laughter.

So, in like manner you, too, convince a part of your readers at least with that closing editorial which I will call, for want of a better name, a parody, I accept it as the true original center of the great "Why Train's Opera House was built." With one sweep of the pen you cover and exhaust the whole subject in one word—"COLD-STORAGE."

Tourists are now pouring into our city by the car-loads. Many are here from old Kent Co., Mich.

Here's compliments of the season for you and yours.

Fraternally yours
Will M. Chapman.

DEATH OF C. M. MERRIMAN.

A Former Lowell Citizen, at Grand Rapids, Aged 72 Years.

Charles M. Merriman, a former resident of Lowell, died at his home at 75 Fourth street, Grand Rapids, Sunday, Jan. 29, after a long illness. The remains were brought to Lowell and interred at Oakwood cemetery.

Mr. Merriman was 72 years old and had lived in Grand Rapids since he moved there with his family about ten years ago. Previous to that time he had made his home in Lowell for a good many years. He had been in poor health for a number of years, and for several weeks had been very ill. He leaves his wife, one daughter, Ethel, and two sons, Bert and Can.

CHURCHES AND SOCIETIES

METHODIST.

PRIZE MACHINE

TO BE GIVEN AWAY BY THE LOWELL LEDGER

To the Lady Who Gets the Most Votes in This Contest.

The LEDGER's prize sewing machine—a Champion, manufactured by the New Home Sewing Machine Co.—is now on exhibition at this office.

The vote as counted at noon on the date of this paper is as follows:

Mrs. Frank Finch	2461
Mrs. Cora Chase	798
Mrs. John D. Crawford	1183
Miss Annabelle Davidson	347
Mrs. Blanche Dickson	154
Mrs. F. J. Yeiter	104
Mrs. Dottie Henderschott	6
Mrs. Mina Hammond	4
Mrs. Minnie Bell	73

Put your votes in the ballot box, not in the item box. Local items dropped into the ballot box can not be printed.

The contest will close Wednesday evening, April 5, at 7:30.

Persons at a distance can send their votes by mail to this office or direct to the one for whom they wish to vote.

The conditions of the contest are stated below; and if interested persons will read them they will save themselves the trouble of asking unnecessary questions.

This is a picture of the prize sewing machine being contested for. It is worth working for.

It has a full set of attachments, four side drawers, large center drawer, drop leaf and cover; and the regular price is $35.

The votes will be counted every Thursday noon and announced in the Ledger each week. Those expecting to compete for the prize should get in their votes at once. The "still hunt" has always failed. Keep the ball rolling. That's the only way.

Liberal commissions paid to workers who secure new subscribers. Fifty-two votes coupons with every dollar paid on subscription during the contest. The subscriber gives the votes to whom he pleases. The solicitor gets them if he can.

The same general plan will be followed in our previous contests. This time it is confined to private individuals. Societies and organizations will not be invited to compete.

Continuing throughout the contest a coupon good for one vote will appear in each copy of THE LEDGER; and for every dollar paid on subscription during this contest a coupon good for 52 votes will be given; with every 50c., 26 votes; and with every 25c., 13 votes.

Those who have already paid their subscriptions in advance can secure coupons of value to correspond with the time paid ahead of January 1, '05.

The ballot box will be in its former position at the foot of our stairway and votes may be cast at any time.

L. O. T. M. M. Installation and Banquet.

Lowell Hive No. 324, L. O. T. M. M. held their installation of officers last Thursday evening. Since the state convention at Battle Creek last June they have had new rituals, and the work is very pretty.

The following officers were installed: Commander, Agnes Wiley; lieutenant commander, Roxie Townsend; Record keeper, Jennie Covert; finance keeper, Lois Eggleston; past commander, Gertrude Crawford; captain, Mary Lasby; sergeant, Fannie Lawrence; mistress-at-arms, Catherine Stone; sentinel, Dolly Harkness; picket, Erma Monroe.

After the ceremony of installation Mrs. Stone, in behalf of the Lady Macabees, presented the commander with a beautiful Japanese chocolate-pot, and the lieutenant commander with a chop plate. The company then retired to the banquet room, where refreshments were served.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to extend my heart felt thanks to my friends and neighbors for their kindness in my time of trouble. Also to the business men of this village for the sympathy and kindness which they have shown me.
Mrs. Mary Cook.

To the School Children.

I have introduced a new up-to-date multiplying camera in my studio and for a short time to get acquainted I will make you 1 dozen stamp photos 2 positions finish for both for 25c.

No Secret About our Potato Bread.

We use Corecota flour, Fleischmann & Co.'s yeast, lard, sugar, salt and boiled potatoes.
We have had twenty-five years experience—from boyhood up—in making bread.

We perhaps know some things about fermentation, growth of yeast plant, proper ageing, conditions of temperature and its effects upon dough that the housewife has not learned. That is why we can make more uniformly good bread than she can. Our Potato Bread is the Acme of success.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS

SCIENTIFIC STUDY OF CHILD

Matter is Little Understood by Those Supposed to Be Best Poated.

The lecture delivered by President E. G. Lancaster of Olivet college was the feature of the session of the State Sunday School conference at Grand Rapids. The doctor began by stating that child study was not yet fully understood by the average college or university head, and even by public school principals in many instances.

"Parents," he said, "are also unacquainted with this most important of all sciences. No two kinds of animals are brought up with exactly the same kind of treatment. We do not give the same kind of care to an oak and an orange tree. Yet we send our children to school to learn to read and write in the same manner and by the same means, and we expect them to embrace religion as a matter of course. We do not ask if there is a time for these things when reading arithmetic can be learned with an ease, above all other things, in the child's mind, or when religion will be an expression of conviction rather than a matter of example or education. Above all, we do not ask if the child, who cannot whip fear of the darkness out of the child any more than you can whip fear of a mouse out of a woman."

Farmers' Institutes.

The coming month will witness the closing sessions of farmers' institutes throughout the state for the winter, and Prof. Traut, superintendent of institutes, has just completed the list for the month of February, which is as follows: Standish, Feb. 12; Vassar, Jan. 31-Feb. 1; Lapeer, Feb. 12; Coldwater, Feb. 3; Centerville, Feb. 10; Cassopolis, Feb. 12-14; Samaria, Feb. 14-15; Benton Harbor, Feb. 14-15; South Haven, Feb. 15-16; Potosi, Feb. 16-17; Adrian, Feb. 17-18; Pontiac, Feb. 18-19; Ionia, Feb. 19-20; Hastings, Feb. 17-18; Dearborn, Feb. 20-21; Howell, Feb. 21-22; North Adams, Feb. 22-23; Concord, Feb. 23-24; Mason, Feb. 24-25; state conv., Battle Creek, Feb. 25-28.

Drastic Cure.

An Adrian farmer has forty hens. They recently got into bad habits, by enjoying the fruit of their own efforts. In a pecking hole in their freshly laid eggs and stippling the contents. The farmer scratched about for a remedy and decided that as he had seen horses talk out without flinching, he would try to talk out the naughty hens' bills. The operation was successfully performed, but the hens have grown sulky and refuse to lay at all now.

PEACE RUMORS ARE AFLOAT

Gen. Kourapatkin is Said to Have Opened Negotiations With Field Marshal Oyama Looking Toward Ending War.

A dispatch to a London news agency from St. Petersburg says: "The censorship has allowed the newspapers to print a brief Paris report regarding the Gen. Kourapatkin who has opened negotiations with Field Marshal Oyama."

This dispatch was received by the Chicago Tribune. It came from the same agency that furnished the report with its exclusive story on the surrender of Port Arthur.

It is the most significant of a series of mysterious "peace" rumors and messages that have been in the air for a week. They have been current in London, Paris, New York and even Chicago.

Thursday night information was received in London from two different sources in St. Petersburg saying that Gen. Kourapatkin had sent telegrams of grave import to the war office which they may serve as a basis for peace negotiations at that time.

Another significant incident was the action in Paris Friday of the French syndicate's withdrawal of the pending Russian loan.

There has been a belief in financial circles since the fall of Port Arthur that Russia will seek peace with Japan without making another battle. This belief became stronger early in the present week, after the revision of the feeling following Sunday's tragedy at Port Arthur.

"It may be said that those at present controlling the Russian policy are practically opposed to the idea of bringing the war to a speedy close before the disastrous events of the current week. But there are others, sir."

"Others?" "You mean the Spanish soldiers may retreat this way?" "Not at all. Have you not heard of the guerrillas—the men who fight under no flag, who war upon every one they meet, robbing pacific and beligerent alike?"

CHAPTER XVII.—Continued.

"Guerra a Cuchillo!"

"Where is the good Jack?" asked Smithers.

"The situation warrants it. Dearly I feel, without a foe against whom ordinary methods of warfare may not avail, and who will prove to be veritable demons once the battle is in the air."

"You can depend upon me, senior," is the quiet response Jack makes.

"These human birds of prey seem to have inside information as to where a battle is about to take place, and they hang round like dogs waiting to pick up the crumbs from the master's table."

"The clouds and snow made it impossible to see more than a few hundred yards. The Russian gunnery fire was largely guesswork."

"The guerrillas are here!"

From Our Point of View

CONCERNING the vital People vs. Trusts problem, recent events are very encouraging; and confidence in the President is seen not to have been misplaced. On Monday the United States Supreme Court gave three decisions concerning suits started by him, in all of which he is victorious. The most important was adverse to the beef trust, which is declared by Charles Edward Russell in Everybody's for February to be the greatest and worst of all trusts. It is now announced by the Administration that the Amour-Swift gang must comply with the law or be treated like lesser criminals. Mr. Russell, in his article, clearly shows that the lever which the beef trust and the Standard Oil company have forced their infamous burdens upon the public is the railroad rebate. Here again is Roosevelt's judgment confirmed. His efforts to secure an enactment to abolish the rebate are thus seen to be directed at the root of the trust evil; and his speech at the Philadelphia Union League club banquet, a club composed largely of wealthy men, shows that he is in for a fight to the finish. This is the People's battle; and they should support the President to a man. If any of our congressmen oppose him in his rightful plans, let them hear from their constituents in language that can not be misunderstood. He that is not with the People in this fight has no business misrepresenting them. Tell your congressman to support Roosevelt in his fight against the railroad rebate. Write today.

GRAFT dies hard. Some folks have become so imbued with the idea that "Public office is a private snare," and so accustomed to ramming their hands into the public treasury up to the elbows, that they are not disposed to quit until actually choked off. The Board of Auditors in its brief existence did a considerable choking, and the choker realizing the hopelessness of opposing the public demand pretend to acquiesce in the re-establishment of such board; but with assassin-like stealth it conceals under its cloak a knife to destroy the usefulness of such board. This knife is Attorney More's bill making the Board of Auditors a mere creature of the Board of Supervisors and practically to be composed of supervisors. We wouldn't give a hurray in Hades for the political future of ANY MAN who fights the popular will in this matter. We want a Board of Auditors of the People, selected by the People and accountable to the People. This old idea that a handful of men—no matter what kind—is greater than the whole people, has been played to the limit; and our public SERVANTS will do well to remember it.

IT IS TO laugh, when we think of the Battle Creek City Council being broken up by an explosion of formaldehyde, the odors causing the city fathers to weep. Now, the Lowell Council couldn't be stamped by a trifle like that. From the minute President Hakes and his co-workers light their "fragrant Havanas," there arises a dense, blue-black barricade, over, through or under which no smell, natural, manufactured or conceivable, could ever climb. Thus protected, our city dads are safe from moths, microbes, bombs and smells. (Come to Lowell and learn, you Battle Creek infants!)

THE Cedar Springs Democrat ironically suggests that THE LEDGER owes an apology to Attorney Rodgers for using the word "steal" in connection with his bill of $700 for work he asked to be permitted to do for $100. Work, by the way, the People did not want; and dirty work at that. Brother Link: Those who choose may designate that useful article as "An implement with a wooden handle and steel blade, to dig in the dirt with;" but as for us, we doing fairly well by simply calling a spade "A SPADE!"

WE WISH to warn our readers against having any dealings with the Geo. P. Way Ear Drum concern, whose advertisement crept into our last issue. When we were in Detroit recently we called at their address; and our experience was such that we have ordered the advertisement out. In dealing with strangers, a safe rule is to pay no money until you have seen and tried the goods. Five dollars to restore one's hearing is a trifle; but five cents for a fraud is robbery.

OUR townsman, Otice C. Post, student at the Agricultural College, denies that Henry S. Johnson of Lyons was hazed or unkindly or disrespectfully treated in any manner; and quotes the College physician as saying that Johnson's death was due to a diseased condition existing when he entered. We are glad to give the denial equal publicity with our criticism, based upon State press reports. We feel kindly toward the M. A. C.; and thank our young friend for setting us right.

FOLLOWING the barbers' and blacksmiths' lead, Prairie Creek Grange wants a state board to examine and license farm laborers. Some fine morning, the People will wake up and find that all their rights have been made unlawful. We are being legislated and officered to death.

THE Commoner very happily suggests to Governor Penny-packer that if he will expatriate himself and move to Russia, he will find a condition of the press that will please him. Spot these men who would restrict freedom of the press, which no HONEST man would fear.

WHEN we recall that the need for a board of auditors grew out of the neglect and inefficiency of the Board of Supervisors, the "nerve" of the latter in demanding control of the former is seen to be "Too bright, too beautiful to last."

RECORDS.

Miss Mattie Patterson visited friends at Grand Rapids and Sand Lake the past week.

Mrs. J. T. Epley and son Ernest of Grand Rapids are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Patterson.

Mrs. LaMar of Denver, Col., and Laura Flanagan of Grand Rapids are visiting at John Ellis's.

Miss Ellen Bates has returned to her home in Grand Rapids after spending several weeks with her brother Ernest and family.

Grace Huizenga is visiting her cousin, Linda Ger, in Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ellis mourn the loss of their son Bertie who passed peacefully to rest Jan. 19, in the 19th year. Funeral services were held at the home conducted by Mrs. Sheets of Grand Ledge assisted by Elder Raenshaw of Alto. Mrs. Sheets spoke comforting words assuring them that "He is not dead but sleeping" and portrayed to the loved ones the beautiful home beyond where their son had gone to join the loved ones gone before. Mrs. Holcomb and Mrs. Blood sang choice selections and the many friends assembled there all helped to soothe their aching hearts.

Bertie had been an invalid for over a year but was never heard to complain and he had smile for every one. He was an exceptionally bright boy having graduated at Morse Lake school with the class of 1900, and having mastered telegraphy and short hand and was an amateur photographer. They laid him to rest in the Whitneyville cemetery and the beautiful snow came softly down and covered his grave with her pure white mantle.

O. K. Sarch Enamel
Makes ironing a pleasant occupation instead of a drudgery by causing the iron to pass very smoothly over the surface of the article you are ironing, thus requiring but half the ordinary labor to do an ironing when O. K. SARCH ENAMEL is used. It gives an excellent lustre to all linen and muslin goods that cannot be received by any other process. O. K. SARCH ENAMEL costs but 10 cents a box. Each box contains a dozen cakes, and each cake is sufficient for doing an ordinary ironing of a dozen pieces of fabric. It is a paying investment.—[Ex.]

When You Have a Cold.
The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale at all drug stores.
A. D. Sturgis.

20 acre Farm for Sale.

Auction Sales.
We have a new newspaper rack at this office in which are kept all our weekly and daily exchanges, each week's papers having a separate shelf, and issues of the latest five weeks being always at hand. Friends north of Lowell, if possible, are welcome to use this rack for reference purposes.

Take Care of Your Teeth
Nobody else will for you—and neglect makes decay—decay makes foul breath, bad gums and often injures the stomach. Besides, how decayed teeth do look!

We carry all the standard tooth preparations and a large line of tooth brushes at reasonable prices.

THE CLOSING OUT SALE

AT

M. RUBEN & CO.'S

Lowell, Kent County, Mich.

A Pronounced Success

Actuated by a conscientious and sincere desire to retire absolutely from the dry goods trade, we advertised the fact through the columns of the press and the hearty and prompt response made this sale the banner one of Kent County. Never in the history of business records in Lowell has a store room been so packed with eager, anxious customers as filled our room the past three days. We were unable to give our patrons the attention they desired but in this instance we were blameless. We still keep to the front with the same ridiculously low prices on legitimate, up to date merchandise. There are no old shelf-worn, out of date wares on sale here, but honest, desirable goods ready for use and wholesome. We must close this stock out slick and clean; and if PRICES, LESS THAN THE RAW MATERIAL, will bring the desired results, the following are in evidence that this sale has the ring of truth in its statement.
