A man supposed to be Barnhart, was seen leaving the house of Eigle Condon in Otisco that day, the fami-ily being absent. On their return, a purse of $70, a gold watch, chain and ing were missing, as were also $4 from the home of Samuel Condon. Deputy Sheriff Hoppough traced the supposed culprit to the Moseley saloon, where he had been drinking and exhibiting money and a watch. After Barnhart had left on the Grand Rapids train, Deputy Sheriff Jacobi of Lowell was notified and he made the capture as aforesaid.

Although Barnhart had $62.30, the watch and ring, a revolver, razor, jack knife and a "sassy" pair of brass knuckles on him when taken, he pleaded not guilty when arraigned at Belding yesterday morning. He was held for trial in the Circuit court and lodged in jail at Ionia.

they have lived during nearly all the years that have intervened. Six children were born to them, two of whom survive her, A. D. Oliver of Lowell, and Mrs. S. E. Gaul of Oneida, N. Y.

A few days before her death she expressed a desire to visit old friends a few miles distant. While there she was taken very ill and her frail body, quite powerless to resist disease, was soon overcome, and she quietly passed away after assuring her loved ones that she was truly in readiness to go. It is five years since her beloved companion triumphantly passed into his "Eternal Rest," leaving her as it were alone, and yet not alone, for God was with her. He in whom she had trusted through all the years as aba had walked books. her as it were alone, and yet not alone, for God was with her. He in whom she had trusted through all the years as she had walked beside that sainted husband, faithfully discharging her duty as wife and mother, ever loyal to all the interests of the Church of which she had been so many years a member, enabled her to look up and say "Thy will, O Lord, be done." Yes, that loving Saviour to whom we have so often heard her pray, did truly place his "Everlasting Arms" underneath her "Everlasting Arms" underneath her while she natiently awaited His while she patiently awaited His coming. She will still live, not only in the hearts of her children and grandchildren, but also in the memory of all who by her precepts and example have been pointed Heavenward.—[Com.

Mr. Barber was early brought to the Saviour ano while in the army found peace from those lovely verses, John 10:27-29. He lived a faithful, Christian life, never ceasing to speak of the love of Crist to all with whom he came in contact. Even in his last illness, who his mind was losing all hold of eathly things, the word of God remained clear and precious to him.—[C.m.]

ADA.

The old residents of Ada regret the loss of two of its oldest and most esteemed citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Johnson, who found it necessary to leave their old home and make a new one in their declining years with their daughter at Belding. Lake Michigan air and Lake Michi-Lake Michigan air and Lake Michigan bathing have done their best to give color and health to those who have sought rest and strength at its resorts. Miss Birdle Bennett has returned home with a good coat of tan and renewed health, after six parts of the strength of the of tan and renewed health, after six weeks' stay at Ottawa Beach. Such good things should be passed along, so upon returning she sent her sister Miss Mary to try its restorative virtues, having completed a sum-mer's term's work in the Grand Rapids Kindergarten training school.

"Love is blind' has been proven over and over but sometimes it goes even farther and not only causes the poor victim to lose his eyesight but travel east when confident of going west. A rather amusing incident of this kind occured here recently. The two were unconscious of everything save the presence of each other till the heartless conductor, just before reaching Ada roused them from their bliss by demanding tickets. The tickets being produced they were informed they were going east rather than to Grand Haven on a train which would meet the bost. Also on every rose is a thorn. After over and over but sometimes it goes on every rose is a thorn. After coundering about hoplessly for a means of escape a friendly hand was tended and the suggestion seized. Inding they were not more than miles from Grand Rapids they
