INJURED BY COLLISION.

Mrs. Conrad Smelker Wounded near Pere Marquette Station.

Mrs. Conrad Smelker of Freeport vicinity was quite severely injured by a collision of her buggy with that of James Halpen, which occurred at the Pere Marquette crossing, near the station, Tuesday afternoon at about four thirty. She received a deep gash in the forehead and her face was bruised. Her brother, J. B. Yeiter, was sent for and she was carried into John Hatch's house and in the evening removed to the home of Mr. Yeiter, where she had been earlier in the day. For a short time she was unconscious, but is now resting easily, and her friends are confident of her perfect recovery. Her husband was with her yesterday.

Mr. Halpen and his daughter Ada were driving home from the village, and had stopped near the crossing to allow Kathryn Drew to get into the buggy with them, when Mrs. Smelker drove up behind, one wheel of her carriage locking with one of theirs and tipping both vehicles over. It is not known exactly how she was injured, and neither horse ran away. Fortunately none of the others were hurt, but Mrs. Smelker's buggy was partly broken.

Burglary at Scott & Winegar's.

Scott & Winegar's hardware was broken into Monday night and about seventy-five dollars worth of goods—revolvers, razors and pocket-knives stolen. The burglars first broke into John Roth's shop and got a brace-and-bit, with which they bored holes in the back door of the hardware.

Two men were arrested at Moseley on suspicion and taken to Grand Rapids for examination, the result of which is not yet known.

McCarthy-Downes Wedding

Miss Hannah Downes and John G. McCarthy, both of Vergennes, were married at St. Patrick's Catholic church, at Parnell, last Tuesday morning at nine o'clock, Rev. Father Jas. Byrne performing the ceremony, in the presence of a large number of friends. Miss Mary Downes, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid and Charles McCarthy, brother of the groom, was groomsman. The bride was gowned in white chiffon tulle and carried bride roses.

From the church the company proceeded to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Downes, where a dinner was served in a large tent on the lawn, to about two hundred friends and relatives. Decorations in the house and on the tables were snialx and pink carnations. During the afternoon and evening there was card-playing and dancing, fine music being furnished by the Weekes Orchestra of Grand Rapids. A sumptuous supper was served in the tent.

Among the innumerable beautiful gifts was a cash present of $115. After a short wedding trip to Chicago the couple returned to their future home in Vergennes. Among the guests from outside were: Mr. and Mrs. Owen McMahon of Lake City; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. Maher and Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Ronan of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Murphy, Jno. Murphy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Murphy, Miss Lizzie and Jim McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McMahon, Will Flynn and Charlie Doyle of Lowell.

Churches and Societies

METHODIST.

Chicken Pie Supper.

The Spartan Society of the Baptist church will give a chicken-pie supper in the new Bergin building Wednesday, Oct. 4, from five to eight.

STAR INSTALLATION

Held Last Evening With a Large Company Present.

The installation of the new officers of the Order of the Eastern Star was held last evening at the lodge rooms, in the presence of a company of nearly two hundred, each member having the privilege of inviting one friend.

The chapter was opened by a blow of the gavel, and a beautiful quartette by Mesdames J. F. Thomas and H. A. Peckham, Messrs. S. P. Hicks and J. B. Nicholson was rendered. The retiring Worthy Matron, Mrs. Ella Nicholson, gave a brief but very pleasing address of welcome and was followed by Mr. Milan Wilson, who played a pretty guitar solo. Rev. Stacey of Grand Rapids responded very interestingly to a request for an address on "The purposes and principles of the order, and Mrs. J. E. Lee gave an appropriate reading, "The dependence of Masonry on the Order of the Eastern Star." Mrs. Eustace Anderson rendered in her usual beautiful manner a vocal solo, and pleasingly responded to an encore.

The ceremony of installation followed, Mrs. Nellie Godfrey acting as marshal very gracefully, and, while presenting flowers to those representing the points of the Star, recited an appropriate poem. At the close of the ceremony Mrs. Nicholson very feelingly and effectively resigned her post as Worthy Matron, which she has efficiently filled for two years, to her successor, Mrs. Emma Coons. Mrs. Coons responded, accepting in a very pleasing address, the office of honor, and calling in turn upon the new Worthy Patron, S. P. Hicks. Mr. Hicks gracefully responded, after which Mrs. Coons closed the chapter with a blow of the gavel.

The company was then invited into the banquet room, where dainty refreshments were served, during which time Mrs. Anderson favored them with "Annie Laurie."

The chapter room was decorated with numerous bouquets and in the dining room bright autumn leaves, nasturtiums and dahlias produced a very pretty effect.

The new officers are: W. M., Emma Coons; W. P., S. P. Hicks; A. M., Beale Henry; Sec., Emma Green; Treas., Sarah Atwater; Con., Ethelwyn Thomas; A. Com., Lilla Stocking; Chaplain, Beale Davidson; Marshal, Cora McKay; Organist, R. D. Stocking; Ada, Della Winegar; Ruth, Phila. Hynan; Esther, Theresa Quick; Martha, Ella Taylor; Electa, Mary Whitney; Warden, Hannah Knapp; Sentinel, S. B. Marsh.

RUBEN'S OPENING.

Hundreds Visit The New Store On The Opening Days.

The opening of Marks Ruben's new department store was a brilliant occasion, both in the beauty of the store and in the large crowd that thronged it. Approximately twelve hundred people visited the store Thursday evening. The guests were received at the door, invited to visit the various departments and ushered through by Mr. Ruben and his clerks. At the entrance to the luxurious carpet department the Misses Esther Ruben and Mabel Carey, daintily gowned in white, welcomed the guests and proffered them dainty souvenirs of neatly framed pictures. Chief among the flowers with which the rooms were decorated were a lovely bouquet of American Beauty roses, a gift to the proprietor from Louie Friedman, of New York, and a handsome floral horseshoe with the words "Good Luck" imbedded in it, presented by Kub, Nathan & Fischer Co. of Chicago, the latter piece hanging on the second pillar, over the piano.

Throughout the entire store the effect of the many flowers, the richly decorated walls, ceilings and pillars, the fine goods displayed to best advantage, the strains of music and the numerous brilliant electric lights with their shining fixtures created an air of beauty and luxury.

All day Friday, the second opening day, the music was continued and crowds of people passed in and out; and Mr. Ruben was the recipient of many richly deserved compliments on his beautiful new store and good wishes for his future success.

Notice.

All accounts not paid by Oct. 20, 1905 will be left for collection, except accounts previously arranged for. This is the last call. Yours

BAD STOMACH MAKES BAD BLOOD.

You can't make sweet butter in a foul cream. Every farmer who knows this, keeps his stomach clean and sweet. It is the same with you. You will have foul breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor complexion and a whole train of disagreeable symptoms. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is not a beverage composed of whisky or alcohol, being entirely free from intoxicants, is the great regulator and invigorator of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Otherwise we are well and having the time of our lives. F. M. Jannson.

OBITUARY.

Adie L. Burras was born March 9th, 1871, and passed away at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Burras, Sept. 18th, 1906. At the age of 35 years she was married to Edward Elliot of Harbor Springs who died Oct. 7, 1898, leaving with her one daughter, Marie. On July 4th, 1897, she was united in marriage to Elmer Payne of Croveland, who with her three children, Hazel, Francis and Clarence E. her father, mother, one sister and two brothers remain to mourn their loss.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to tender our sincere thanks to our kind friends and neighbors who so nobly assisted us in our great bereavement by their kind words and other help, also for the beautiful singing.

NEURALGIA AND OTHER PAIN.

All pain in any disease is nerve pain, the result of a turbulent condition of the nerves. The stabbing, lacerating, darting, burning, agonizing pains which come from the prominent nerve branches, or sensory nerves, is neuralgia, and is the "big brother" of all the other pains.
