LOWELL BOY IN WRECK

Don Rogers Loses His Life in Pere Marquette Excursion Wreck.

Don Rogers, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rogers of this village, met his death at Salem in the wreck of a Pere Marquette excursion train from Ionia Saturday morning when thirty persons were killed and one hundred injured in a head-on collision with a freight from the east, nearly all the victims being Ionia people.

Don was born at Saranac Aug. 26, 1888, and came to Lowell with his parents eleven years ago. He attended the public school until he reached the tenth grade, and during the past three years has been employed by the Pere Marquette railroad company in the paint and varnish rooms of their shops at Ionia.

He leaves besides his father and mother three sisters and two brothers: Willard E. and Ray J. Rogers of Lowell, Miss Mary Rogers of Belding, Mrs. G. V. Payne and Mrs. John E. Welch of Ionia, and many friends who mourn that his life has gone out so suddenly.

DEATH OF AGED CITIZEN

Horace W. Carey Aged Eighty-four Buried Yesterday.

Horace W. Carey, an old resident of Lowell, died Monday July 22, 1907, at the age of eighty-four years, nine months and seven days.

Horace W. Carey was born Oct. 15, 1822, in Wayne county, New York. He was married to Betsey Dunham in 1849 and soon afterward they moved to Michigan, settling in Ottawa county. In 1869 they moved to Lowell, where he has since resided.

BOTH GAMES TO LOCALS

Saranac and Hastings Defeated in Close Contests.

The winning streak still holds good with the team and two more victories were added to the record. Each game was hard fought and uncertain till the end.

The game started with Collar in the box and no runs were made by the visitors until the fifth inning, when Haskins scored by base stealing, aided by a single hit. Their next run came in the seventh and that was all. Mills worked one in for the home team in the first, going the route on errors after reaching first base with a hit.

Collar pitched a good game up to the third, when he weakened and Lake was substituted. Things tightened up then, but the hard hitting visitors squeezed in two anyhow. Kench held the locals down to one run and five hits for six innings but was badly hurt and left the game. Lane, the tall first sacker took his place, and could not handle the job.

Three runs were taken from him in the seventh and two in the eighth. This left the final score five and two.

HASTINGS SHOW STRONG TEAM

The game with Hastings at that place Tuesday looked bad at the start. Speaker was touched freely in the first inning and three runs were counted the opponents. Hines reached first on a bunt hit, Poffingled, "Bunk" Robliski came next with a pretty double, and Michael put him around with a hit.

But in the fourth section a couple of bingles by McArty and Crampton along with Kelly's double brought in two runs and things brightened up a little. Speaker settled down and only two more hits were made by Hastings. The three scores in the first inning were all they could get.

Weeder, the opposing pitcher, struck out 14 of the local men, but they touched him up quite freely at critical times. Speaker had them guessing all the time, and Crampton at backstop picked 'em off nicely. Lehman, the new second baseman, showed up well in his position. His double play to Shuter was the feature of the game.

The home team got three more runs in the sixth inning and the score stood 5 and 3. In the ninth Speaker got first on balls, and Shuter stepped into his batting clothes. A good clean three base hit was chalked to his credit and Speaker scored. The game ended six and three.

Score by Innings. First game: Saranac 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 2, Lowell 1 0 0 0 0 3 1 5. Second game: Hastings 3 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3, Lowell 0 0 0 2 0 3 0 0 1 6.

Nobility.

There was a moment of profound silence. He was the first to speak. "You are richer than I am," he faltered, with emotion. "She bowed her head, replying nothing. But now the true nobility of his character manifested itself."

Lady (giving out tracts)—I must confess that I cannot imagine how you can appear in public in a costume like that. Whatever would people think if I came out like that? Young Lady—I really don't want to think!

Scorn.

"So your husband lost his money on a race horse?" "No," answered young Mrs. Tokins. "He lost it on an animal he thought was a race horse."

His Status.

"Does your friend I just met follow any calling?" "No," he calls a following. He's the megaphone man at the theater,—Baltimore American.

She didn't Care.

"May I call you Mabel?" he asked at their second meeting, pretending to be badly smitten. "If you wish to; but my name is Gertrude."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Better Than the Mule.

At a dinner the other night little Algy offered a toast to women. Said Algermon: Here's to woman, beautiful, fascinating woman. Made after man, and has been after him ever since. Ha! Ha! "And here's to man," responded the ingenious debutante. "Man is the paragon of animals. On his own ground he surpasses the lion in magnanimity, the fox in acumen, the parrot in wit, the monkey in versatility, the ant in thrift, the spider in all that goes to make it a valued member of society. Briefly, man is more of a success than the mule."

Nothing Doing.

"Nothing doing?" Is that slang? I thought it was until last night, when I came upon the words in Dickens' "Dombey & Son." In chapter IV, old Sol Gills is explaining to his nephew Walter why the shop must be closed and the business abandoned. "You see, Walter," said he, "in truth this business is merely a habit with me. I am so accustomed to the habit that I could hardly live if I relinquished it; but there's nothing doing, nothing doing." So, you see, the phrase had its pathetic fitness half a century ago, and is not slang at all.—Watson's Weekly Jeffersonian.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.
It is the great medicinal triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a simple bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Bingamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent bottle sizes are sold by all good druggists.
Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Is very careful about her churn. She seals it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach-churn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it?
The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores, or open eating ulcers and all humors or diseases arising from bad blood.
If you have bitter, nasty, foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches, dizzy attacks, gnawing or distress in stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.
The best agents known to medical science for the cure of the above symptoms and conditions, as attested by the writings of leading teachers and practitioners of all the several schools of medical practice, have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into his world-famed medicine and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.

HEALTH FOR ALL WOMEN.

Why Lose the Bouyancy of Youth? Whether Young or Old Every Woman May Be Healthy.

To look well and feel well, you must keep the mechanism of your body in perfect running order.
A woman's constitution is far more intricate and delicate—more easily injured and disarranged than the mechanism of the finest watch. Yet no one would think of allowing a watch to get all out of order before repairing or cleaning it.
How many young ladies there are, who pay no attention to the first symptoms of diseased organs. Pains in the back, head, abdomen, right or left side, and sometimes in the hips and lower limbs. Tired and languid feeling in the morning; worn out and distracted nerves, leading to a cross and petulant disposition. Natural color fading from the cheek, the light and lustre from the eye, the once pleasant smile from the face—all these going or gone. What does it mean? Simply that some one or more of the delicate organs are not performing their work as they should.
Nature needs some assistance. These aches and pains—although slight at first—are danger signals, and you ought to heed their warnings before the trouble becomes chronic and disease gets a firm hold on your system.
A nerve-tonic and strength-builder the best you can get—is what you need at such times. Zoa-Phora is just that; ladies—lots of them—who have used it say so. We know it is so because Zoa-Phora is made for women old and young, and has a successful record for thirty years. We want you to know this too by a thorough trial of Zoa-Phora in your own case. Whether you are slightly ailing from periodical sickness or suffering from some form of womanly weakness in a more serious degree, Zoa-Phora will help you. Thousands similarly afflicted have been cured by its aid, why not you? The record of what Zoa-Phora has done for women is proof of its virtue. The Zoa-Phora Co., Kalamazoo Mich., can send you books of testimonials containing the names of hundreds of women who are glad to recommend Zoa-Phora to their suffering sisters.
If the delicate organs are congested, relaxed, displaced, or in any way diseased, and do not perform their duties properly and regularly, Zoa-Phora will restore them to their normal activity. The vital force known only to a healthy woman will return and there will be joy in living.
Thousands of women—not hundreds—my sister, attest the fact of the restoration of their health by the use of Zoa-Phora. Ask some of your lady friends about Zoa-Phora. Better still, go to a reliable druggist and get a bottle, begin its use according to full and complete instructions in each package. You will receive Zoa-Phora from the druggist already prepared, compounded in just the right proportions, and put up in sealed, sterilized, one dollar bottles, just ask for Zoa-Phora—no other explanation will be needed and no mistake will be made.
In each package will be found a copy of "Dr. Pengelley's Advice to Women," a medical book giving interesting and instructive information about all diseases of women, and the way to successfully treat them in the privacy of your own home. You need not tell your troubles to any one.

When Butte Was A Barren Desert.

For five weeks last winter the city of Butte, Mont., was a barren desert. It was the driest place on earth. The water supply was all right, but owing to a strike all the newspapers were suspended.

Butte's experience proved that in this day and age the local newspaper is a public necessity. Nobody knew what was happening. False rumors spread like bad butter. Fake stories about citizens circulated by word of mouth until several duels almost resulted. There were no newspapers to tell the truth about things.
Business suffered worst of all. Merchants tried handbills, which didn't fill the bill. They worked the billboard overtime, but only bored the public. The people cried for newspapers as babies cry for— (See ad.)
For once in the history of the world it was demonstrated beyond peradventure that a town without a live newspaper is a dead one. Stores could not do business without properly advertising their wares, and they could not advertise properly without newspaper space.
Butte merchants are now advertising to make up for lost time. Business men who didn't think much of advertising before have learned its value and are using newspaper space.
The experience of Butte carries a lesson for every other town—this one, for instance:

ADVERTISING PAYS ITS OWN WAY.

The Right Kind of Reading Matter

The home news; the doings of the people in this town; the gossip of our own community, that's the first kind of reading matter you want. It is more important, more interesting to you than that given by the paper or magazine from the outside world. It is the first reading matter you should buy. Each issue of this paper gives to you just what you will consider

ROLLER SKATING FAD

All Chicago, Old and Young, Reveling in the Sport.

EFFECTUAL STOP TO TRUANCY

School Children Have Added Inspiration to Hurry to Studies—Makes Pupils Drowsy, Some Teachers Claim. Girls Go Shopping on Skates.

Chicago has a new fad other than spring millinery and May snowstorms. Within the last two months it has swept the length and breadth of the city. It knows no bias, is no respecter of persons or locality, for it is as prevalent in the Ghetto as along Grand boulevard or Prairie avenue—in fact, more so, for it long has been noted that the stork is partial to the Ghetto and the Italian districts. The new fad is roller skating, says the Chicago Tribune.

The report from the records on attendance and punctuality compiled by clerks of the school board that since the roller skating season reached full sway tardiness in the public schools has decreased 30 per cent has aroused interest. Upon investigation it was found that the terror striking prestige of the tardy gong in the schoolhouse is doomed at least temporarily by the roller skating fad.

Unconsciously Chicago's army of school children, 180,000 strong, has been solving its traction problem. It has erased from the blackboards all public school records for punctuality. It has made going to school a joy to such an extent that the child who used to be pitted because he had to walk a mile to school or run the risk of catching a street car now is the object of envy of his schoolmates. The farther he lives from school the longer the skate.

It is acknowledged that the roller skating fad is reaching beyond the school children and that the grownups as well are becoming inoculated.

"Out in Oak Park it is a standing joke that after the children go to bed their mothers and big sisters—who are noted for their tiny feet—sneak out the roller skates and try them on the back sidewalks under the shelter of darkness," said John Farson recently. Mr. Farson is looked upon as the patriarch of the new fad in Oak Park.

"Oak Park intends to maintain its lead by building the first society skating rink. Then the society women will not have to skate only in their own back yards."

But like all popular diversions, that of roller skating has its vexing problems. It has been observed by teachers that the children often fall asleep at school. They skate home for lunch at noon and back to school again. The result, so some teachers claim, is drowsiness. Teachers in the public schools of Pittsburg recently complained that roller skating had spread an epidemic of "that tired feeling" among the children, so that they neglected their studies and napped when they should be studying.

Members of the Chicago school board who have pinned their faith on roller skating maintain that Chicago children are stronger physically than those of Pittsburg. They credit any evidence of the "tired feeling" to the annual advent of "spring fever."

Dr. James F. Chavatal, member of the school board, believes in roller skating.

"I am heartily in favor of it," he said. "Of course I suppose it will not be long before my colleagues on the board come out for public ownership of roller skates. Roller skates make the school children as independent as automobile owners."

Dr. Wladyslaw A. Kufewski of the school board does not attribute the tired feeling to too much roller skating. He said lack of proper nourishment and nervous strain of city life were two causes of fatigue.

As to the tired feeling feature, John Farson went one better than the members of the board of education.

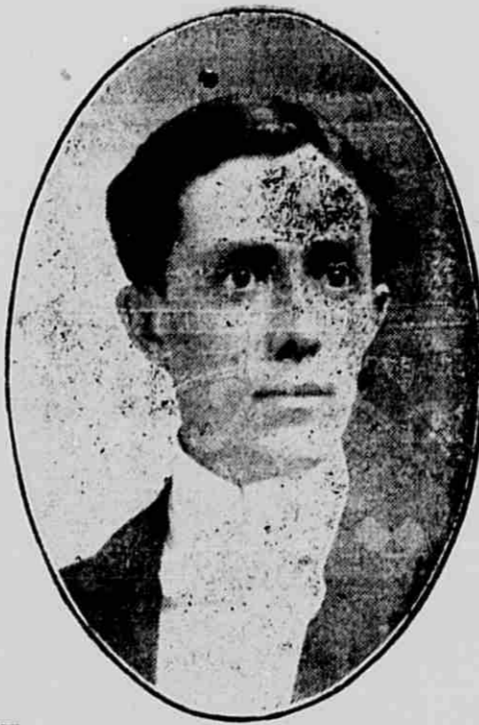

"I'll bet it isn't the children who are sleepy. It's the teachers," said Mr. Farson. "Anyhow that's what's the trouble out in Oak Park—not only with the teachers, but the school board too. They ought to adopt the children's amusement of roller skating as a means of getting waked up."

The latest in the roller skating fad is to go shopping on skates. On a recent Saturday afternoon a couple of fifteen-year-old girls were seen in State street, buzzing along on roller skates, their arms full of department store bargains. The "shopping feature" is common on the south side, along most of the cross streets. So desirous are the children to "go somewhere" on their roller skates that the delivery work of the grocery and meat shops of late has been relieved.

The superintendent of compulsory education was duly bound the other day to convey to a small boy the sad message that learning from books and attending school was of greater importance than learning how to manipulate a pair of roller skates.

"A small boy who attends the J. M. Smyth school was mysteriously absent from school a couple of days during the week without excuse," said Superintendent Bodine the other day. "The lad was found going through all sorts of gestures and star seeing on a smooth sidewalk in Fourteenth street on a new pair of roller skates. The child broke out crying, admitting he was playing 'hooky.'"

"Well, the boys made fun of me because I could not skate good," he told me between his tears, "so I just had to take time to learn."

A large crowd was out and enjoyed the music very much. One of the features of the concert was the piccolo solo by Arthur Sherman, which was rendered in a pleasing manner.—[Owosso Press American.

For unity of impression the service last Sunday morning at the Congregational church was equal to the best. In the absence of Miss Falbas Miss Seligman, her friend, sang with excellent effect Gounod's masterpiece, "O My Redeemer." After the sermon, Miss Carson sang Thompson's spiritual song, "I know that Heaven lies just beyond this earthly state," set to music by Briggs. The sermon by Rev. A. T. Clarke was unique in that the theme suggested by Ephesians 2:10 was presented in the form of a story.—[Con.

I'm cozy as can be,
To go out in the open air,
As straw hats have to do
When custom calls them to the front
To make their spring debut.

In other years about this time,
When all the world was bright
And sunshine like a benison
Poured down its warming light,
And blossoms bourgeoned to the air
And birds came forth to sing,
It did me proud indeed to join
The harbiners of spring.

Not gayer in the gladsome days
Were any birds or flowers,
Or sunbeams on the gossamer,
Or moonlit lovers' hours,
Than I the dazzling straw of spring
That, like a herald bloom
Of beauty on the broad highway,
Dispelled the winter gloom.

My cheerful spirit met the sun,
Reflecting all its rays
In doubled radiance and cheer
That followed dreary days.
I was the straw which showed to all
The way the spring winds blew,
And spring was really spring when I
Came fully into view.

But now—I tremble as I think
How soon will come the day
When I have got to take the road
And shine along the way;
I shiver at the dreadful thought
And wish there were a law
Compelling spring to warm itself
Before it put on straw.

Who Needs A Watch

In these days of cheap watches and shoddy manufacture, a time-piece should be selected with care.

A good watch should last a lifetime, and longer. Such watches are the only kind worth having and in order to get them you must buy of a reliable dealer who is at hand to make the guarantee good.

We have in stock complete lines of the best watches made. All sizes for both gentlemen and ladies.

We sell watches for precisely what they are, and, quality considered, our prices are always a little lower than the "other fellow"

Williams THE JEWELER.
